Chapter 0: Abbreviated Story Codes

Story-codes are a classification of the contents of a story. They're provided as a courtesy to help decide whether or not to read a particular story. They serve two different purposes - advertising and warning labels. If people are turned-off by a certain kind of story, then the story code warns them. If people are looking a certain kind of story, then the story code will attract them as well as reassure them that there are no land mines ahead.

Story codes are general in nature and are not intended to be a synopsis of the story or to convey nuances. Note that there are many more codes than listed here as I only listed the ones applicable to my web site.

As best as possible, all applicable codes are used to describe the contents of the story, regardless of the level of their inclusion. Story-codes are enclosed in parentheses after the story name. Codes are separated by spaces and no single code includes a space [e.g. (Mdom} not {M dom)]. The codes for sex and age are run together when those persons are involved with each other [(MFF) not (M F F)]. These codes are run into the following codes when they are modifiers [(Fdom) (M-solo) (f-1st)].

Story codes are given in case-sensitive form, even though there are only two situations in which there are codes where the CAPITAL and the lower case codes are both meaningful. First, readers may use case-sensitive searches. Second, using (for example) (FF ROM) might raise the possibility that it meant (ff rom) instead of (FF rom); in countries in which "possession" of pedophilic material is severely punishable, this difference matters.

Codes are listed in order per the following categories:

1. Participants - Sex, Age, and Number

|---|---|
| M | Adult male (18 or older) |
| m | Teenage male (13 - 17) |
| b | Preteen boy (12 or younger) |
| F | Adult woman (18 or older) |
| f | Teenage girl (13 - 17) |
| g | Preteen girl (12 or younger) |
| MF | Adult man and adult woman |
| Mf | Adult man and teenage girl |
| Mg | Adult man and preteen girl |
| mF | Adult woman and preteen boy |
| bF | Adult woman and preteen boy |
| mf | Teenage boy and teenage girl |
| mg | Teenage boy and preteen girl |
| FF | Homosexual sex between adult women |
| MM | Homosexual sex between adult men |
| ff | Homosexual sex between teenage girls |
| mm | Homosexual sex between teenage boys |
| + | 2 or more of the same sex, for example: |
| M+F | Several men having sex with the same woman |
| MF+ | Several women having sex with the same man |
| MF MF | John has sex with Mary and Ted has sex with Alice OR |
| MF | John has sex with Mary and Ted has sex with Alice |
| M+F+ | They all mix it up |
| group | More than 3 people having sex. |
| orgy | Large-group sex. When group simply isn't good enough! |
| _-solo | Masturbation by M, m, b, F, f or g, for example: |

| f-solo | Masturbation by an adolescent girl. |

2. Willingness or Unwillingness

|---|---|
| cons | ONLY consensual sexual activity (including some non-intercourse activity) is in the story. This is, of course, the standard and as such, it is generally not labeled. |
| nc | Non-consensual sexual activity (including blackmail) |
| rape | Brutal non-consensual intercourse |
| reluc | [Also include the code (rape)]; starts out as rape, but "she loves it" |

3. Relationships

|---|---|
| cheat | Married or committed people having sex outside of the commitment, cheating on their partner, as distinct from swinging. |
| inc | Incest |
| interr | Interracial |
| rom | Romantic; Consensual Sexual Activity only |
| wife | Wife "watching" (participatory cuckoldry) |

4. Activities

|---|---|
| no-sex | There is no intercourse in the story |
| exhib | Exhibitionism |
| voy | Voyeurism |
| pett | Heavy petting |
| oral | Oral-genital contact. |
| toys | Generally, adult toys |
| veg | Vegetable. Sex with food. |
| ped | Pedophilia - Some participants age 12 or below |
| anal | Anal sex, not always genital penetration. |
| best | Bestiality. Sex with an animal (see also zoo) |
| zoo | Zoophilia. Caring and consensual relationships between humans and animals. (See also best) |

5. Miscellaneous

|---|---|
| 1st | First time intercourse, e.g. m–1st, F–1st, etc. |
| bibl | Bible. Has a religious theme |
| coll | College theme |
| hs | High School theme |
| humor | Humorous |
| job | Place-of-work theme |
| real | Supposedly true |

"You're a big girl now Kelly, you don't need him," she said soothingly, running her fingers through my hair. Then she added, more to herself than me, "Hmmmmmm, apparently a bigger girl than I'd realized."

Standing back up straight, she put her hand to her lips and seemed to be deep in thought about something for a few moments. Then it was a decision had been made as she shrugged and motioned for me to remain still for a moment as she disappeared to her bedroom. I could hear voices coming from their room but couldn't make out what it was they were saying. The only thing I DID hear was my mother suddenly raising her voice with a firm, "NO!" and then it was back to the whispering. What in the world could they discussing for so long?

3. Mom Gives Me "The Talk"

"Kelly, we need to have a little talk," my mom started out when she returned to my room. Uh-oh! Whenever she started out with that nothing good ever came of it. Oh no, she was going to yell at me for spying on my dad! I wanted to run to his room and jump on his lap and beg for forgiveness. That almost always worked – he could never resist me when I sat bare-bottom on his lap and wiggled.

My escape plans were thwarted when I saw that my mom had something in her hand but was hidden from view as she sat down beside me on the bed. Her nightshirt was pretty short and so it lifted up enough to where I could see her panties but that wasn't a big deal to either of us. Unlike me my mom ALWAYS wore something on her bottom, usually standard "mom" panties but occasionally when she and my dad were in a good mood she might wear a bikini cut or even a thong.

What followed next was my first introduction to sex, the dreaded "birds and bees". My mom confessed to me years later that she hadn't been ready for this yet, assuming she still had at least another year or two before the subject came up. I think she figured it would arise more as a result of my own feelings and questions rather than having my dad "spill the beans" so to say, or should I say, "spill the sperm".

There's a fine line when it comes to dealing with sex and someone at such a young age. Still, my mom managed to handle the subject of sex in much the same way she'd handled the issue of nudity to date. What I mean is she explained it as being something natural, something that everyone did. Even so, she emphasized that

4. Learning "Hands-On"

I must have fallen asleep as I woke up and found myself laying in bed with my hand still lodged in my crotch. As I laid in bed my thoughts about everything that had just happened. Wow, what a morning it had turned out to be! It was a like a dream - had it really happened?

Getting out of bed, I headed down to the kitchen. On the way I noticed my parent's door was closed this time. For the first time I felt this urge to sneak a look but thankfully my courage failed me. My mom was in the kitchen, fixing coffee when she heard me coming down the squeaky stairs. Smiling, she greeted me good morning no different than any other day, as if nothing had happened. Maybe it HAD been a dream! Then reality set in as my mom told me not to say anything about what she'd told me to my cousin Kristi as she was only six. Yeah, what a joke THAT turned out to be. It would be almost ten years until I learned that SHE had actually been the first to be told not to tell something to her cousin and she was keeping a lot more secrets than I was. For me it was all talk but in her case she was getting a much more detailed education, even though she was two years younger than me. Let's just say her education was more "hands-on"...

If there's one thing I can say about my mother, she was always pretty perceptive when it came to understanding her daughter (and still is for that matter). She knew that I'd had a lot thrown at me so she kept a close eye on me for the rest of the day.

That evening after supper my mom announced that we all should relax in the hot tub for a while. There was nothing unusual in that as we spent many evenings enjoying the tub, sometimes for an hour or more, sometimes for just a few minutes. What WAS unusual was for her to make the announcement as usually my dad was king of the hot tub.

Personally I loved the hot tub as me being I was so small it was almost as good as having a swimming pool. Our deck was surrounded by a security/privacy fence that kept prying eyes at bay, allowing us to enjoy ourselves without having to worry about others watching. I suppose if people across the valley behind out house had a high-power telescope they might have seen us but we never worried about it and if they DID see anything, they obviously kept it to themselves.

Again, for your typical family that would not be appropriate but when your mother comes from an incestual family and your father was fucking your aunt and getting oral from her daughter (all of which was not known by me until I was sixteen and already having sex with my father), what was the point in delaying the inevitable? Why stop me from helping him deal with his instincts and needs when it was probably going to happen sooner or later anyway? Who knows what the results would have been but I personally think it might have improved their odds of being better than they turned out.

People ask me if there is anything in my life that I regret doing, at least sexually. The answer is a definite NO. Oh sure there are a lot of things that maybe I wouldn't do if I was able to go back in time but none that I regret. Even when I was raped, bringing an abrupt end to my brief escorting career, I didn't regret what I'd been doing as it taught me a valuable life lesson.

On the other hand there ARE things I regret NOT doing and not pleasing my father when the opportunity was first presented is at the top of that list. The big question for me is, how will I handle it when MY daughter gets old enough for "The Talk"?

taking shape. My pussy had an ever-thickening covering of fuzzy black pubic hair that was more like fur than hair but I still enjoyed running my fingers through it. It's sort of funny when I look back at things. When I was fourteen I considered growing pubic hair to be a sign of maturity and thought it made me look sexy. Little did I know then that only a few years later I'd be shaving off that very same hair which I'd waited so many years to appear!

Overall I think I would've been happier with myself except that many of my friends already looked like they were sixteen or older with perky breasts, curves like a mountain road, and long lithe legs to die for. It was probably fortunate that I didn't know then that I would be spending most of my teenage years in a perpetual state of angst as it seemed I was always at the trailing edge of the development curve. If I'd known how many times I'd be trying to hide myself feeling embarrassed in the locker room at school with my undersized boobs, well... I don't know what I might've done.

As I continued to gaze at myself in the mirror I subconsciously ran a single finger down from my neck, through my newly forming cleavage (what little there was of it), and then down my flat tight stomach until I reached my fuzzy little pussy. I playfully ran my fingertip through the short coarse hair covering it, tracing circles and shivering just a little from the sensations that I was starting to feel further down between my legs. I was still a virgin but that didn't mean I didn't dream of what I wanted a boy to do to me down there.

Although I wasn't sexually active yet, I'd started masturbating a few years ago. Of course my parents had introduced me to the birds and bees long before that. Fortunately for me, sex and nudity were nothing to be ashamed of or treated as taboo in my family. Yet perhaps even more important, it wasn't something we flaunted either. My parents and I were most definitely NOT nudists and I don't even like to describe us as being an "open family" or any of the other euphemisms that people use when they wink at something kinky going on in their homes. It seems when people say they have an "open family relationship" that it's a thinly veiled reference for incest, nudism, and all sorts of things for which I have a hard time relating as I would never describe my family life this way.

To help illustrate my point, as I stood there stark naked in my bedroom the door was wide open - just as it always was. Even though my dad was away at work, even if he had been home the door would still have been in the same position. While I didn't hide myself from him, at the same time I certainly wasn't about to put on a strip show for him either. The same concept applied when I was in the shower. My really won't die if you don't cum right now... so get that little bare butt moving and get yourself ready, ok?"

I sighed melodramatically but it was for naught as she was already heading out of the room. I quickly went to the bathroom to wash up as it wouldn't do to walk around the grocery store smelling like I did. Not that I personally cared, it wasn't like I was all stinky with foul body odor after exercising. Actually, I sort of liked smelling like sex, it made me feel more grown up. Still. my mom was pretty adamant about proper hygiene in public. If it was just around the house she never said anything but "proper" girls didn't smell like sluts in public, at least according to her.

Looking through my dresser drawers, I picked out a pair of denim cutoff shorts and a tight plain white tank top. During the summer I loved wearing cutoffs, especially when they were cut short enough to show off my butt which at this age was probably my best asset (sorry, no pun intended). I don't think I'll ever forget the first time my dad saw me in my short cutoffs. He looked at me, and then at my mom and said something like, "You're going to let her go out in THOSE?" Of course my mom just ignored him (after all, she was the one who bought them for me) and I got the idea he didn't really mind anyway from the way he looked at me. I love boys to look at me but there's just something naughty about having you own dad look at you that way that turned me on.

Even though I didn't wear a bra under the tank top, with my small boobs it really wasn't a big deal. In fact, at this point I still didn't own one as my mom wasn't a big fan of training bras. At least there was a definite outline of my boobs these days and I liked the way my dark nipples were clearly visible through the thin white cotton. A pair of white ankle socks and sneakers and I was dressed, or at least as much as I was going to be.

Pulling my shoulder-length blonde hair back into a ponytail, I grabbed a baseball cap, threading my ponytail through the back of it and adjusted it on my head as I looked at myself critically in the mirror. Taking a final deep breath, I bounded down the stairs to where my mom was waiting rather impatiently for me. I noticed she was wearing a rather cute short outfit herself which showed off her long tanned legs which looked even better with the black heels she's chosen. A rather tight blouse emphasized her large breasts and from the way her nipples were poking through and the lack of outline under her blouse I knew there wasn't anything underneath but her. Actually it was a little surprising as my mom almost never was without a bra, even at home.

"Mom!" I exclaimed with a mock sense of shock and horror, "No bra today?"

My mother just shook her head at me saying, "Well, look who's talking! At least MY top fits me. You outgrew that poor thing a couple of years ago."

We both laughed and hugged. She might tease me but I knew she liked it when I wore skimpy clothes out, especially seeing the effect it had on the boys and men. Sometimes I got the impression it was like she was reliving her teen years through me. Seeing the attention I was starting to get must have reminded her of how it felt when she first noticed men looking at her "that" way.

She whispered softly in my ear in a conspiratorial tone, "You know, grocery shopping doesn't have to be completely boring."

I looked up at her eyes and she just winked down at me. My mother might be more than twice my age but she still gets her share of looks from the guys. I knew it didn't bother her one bit to be objectified that way but it wasn't often that she was so blatant about wanting it. Suddenly I had a sneaky feeling that today might not be so bad as I thought it was going to be! My suspicions were confirmed when she looked around my behind.

"Hey girl... are you really wearing panties?"

I was a little surprised as her tone seem to imply she wasn't happy that I was. Normally it was just the opposite where we would argue because I was the one who didn't want to wear them. Of course being in shorts is different than when I have on a short skirt.

"The new ones you bought me," I answered rather defensively, hoping that by linking them to her it might buy me some points.

"OK girl, hand them over," she said firmly, reaching out her hand palm up.

"Whatever," I huffed as I dropped my shorts and panties together, stepping out of them and then dropping the panties into her outstretched hand. She held them up to her nose and sniffed!

"Mom!" I teased her.

She just grinned at me as I struggled to pull my shorts back up. Damn they were tight! It was much easier to pull them on laying on my bed than standing up.

"Just checking to be sure you at least put on a clean pair," she nodded approvingly, then she held out her arms to me. "Now how about a kiss for your mom?"

I smiled and stepped up on my tip toes to reach up to her as she lowered her head to me. I closed my eyes tight as our lips met. Mmmmmmm, I loved to kiss my way she had me do, her favorite move was to reach up for something on the top shelf. Stretching up on her toes showed off her legs and ass and she would practically pose for the guys to watch her. It also had the effect of pulling her top tight and without a bra her large nipples were in full bloom.

Seeing the men stare, I was so proud of my mom for keeping herself in such good shape unlike so many of the wives who seemed to just let themselves go once they got the ring. I knew my parents loved each other enough that even if she didn't look so hot my dad would still never cheat on her but it was that same love and respect for the other that they kept themselves in shape. What kind of message are you sending your husband by making yourself undesirable to him?

Wow, I never knew grocery shopping could be so much fun! The two of us had a great day and I was actually a bit sad when we'd crossed off the last item on our list. By the time we were done I was so horny that it was all I could do to kept my hand from slipping between my legs in the checkout line. My mom of course knew me well enough to know why I was squirming - and it wasn't because I had to go potty!

My mom leaned over as the clerk was scanning our things and whispered in my ear, "Now control yourself dear, there's plenty of time later to play with yourself."

Evidently she hadn't whispered as softly as she thought as the male clerk's mouth all but dropped to the floor. Then again, maybe she hadn't intended to be secretive in the first place. In any case we were both giggling about it all the way to the car.

When we finished our grocery shopping she had another stop at a strip mall where there were some specialty shops where she usually bought her favorite breads and meats. My mom left me in the car and I wasn't about to waste the opportunity. No sooner was her door shut than I was yanking my shorts down to my ankles and tilting the seat all the way back. Oh my god, I was so damn horny by now that there was no way I could possible wait to get home to take care of myself. As I started rubbing my pussy with one hand, my other massaged my tiny boobs through my top. It was so thin and smooth it was almost like it wasn't there anyways but it was still in the way so I pulled it up to expose my bare tanned chest. I was already so wet that my finger easily slid into me and I rubbed myself slowly in tight little circles just inside my pussy.

As intent as I was on what my fingers were doing I didn't pay any attention to what was going on outside the car. Fortunately nobody walked by, or at least I didn't notice that anyone did. It would've been just my luck for some holier-than-thou mother to get her kids into the minivan next to us and notice me and call the cops! It seemed like only a few moments but it must have been quite a bit longer when I heard a tapping on the trunk and looked back to see my mom waiting impatiently for me to open it with the button inside. I reached over to open the trunk and then pulled my shorts back up again just as she finished and pulled opened the driver's door to get in. Her nose wrinkled, she sniffed and then grinned at me, shaking her head with her patented, "what am I going to do with you?" expression I knew only too well. It was the same one she gave me anytime she caught me masturbating somewhere she felt was inappropriate. Yet wasn't she the one that taught me that if needed to do it, then do it?

"Hmmmmmm, smells like someone's been a busy little girl while I was gone!" she teased me. "So, I assume you're feeling all better now?"

I just giggled as I started to suck my wetness off my pussy finger as I looked at her. Like I said before, I love the taste of my pussy and it felt just a little bit naughty somehow to tease my mom this way. This time it was her turn to squirm a bit and I had a feeling that I knew what she'd be doing soon after we got home! I don't know what made me do it, but without even thinking about it I reached over and touched my wet finger to her lips. She seemed surprised but remained composed enough to extend her tongue and then take my finger into her mouth, sucking on it like it was a tasty popsicle!

"Mmmmmmm, not bad," she teased me, smacking her lips like she'd just finished off that popsicle. I wasn't sure what shocked me more - me offering her my pussy cum-coated finger or her tasting it!

Nothing more was said and soon we were finally home again. By the time we'd put everything away the afternoon had mostly gone by and it was getting time to get ready for my sleepover. OMG, I couldn't wait to tell all my friends what my mom and I had done today! Maybe I wouldn't tell them about the parking lot thing but definitely the grocery store teasing was fair game. Let's see Beth top that!

starting to show more, that he might change his attitude regarding me. Still, I was nowhere in Beth's league and he a reputation for only dating girls with big boobs.

Sharon was also a camera fanatic and already had her entire career planned out as a professional photographer. Her father indulged her passion and had bought her several expensive cameras and even some fancy lighting equipment. It seemed she never went anywhere without at least one of her cameras around her neck!

Finally there was Marianne. Oh dear, what could I say about her except she was the kinky one of our group. Her hair was always in some weird style and she liked to dress in... well let's just say "peculiar" outfits. Nothing really sexy but just odd combinations and styles. Somehow she'd gotten hold of some porn videos and at our last sleepover she showed them to us. In addition to the usual sex scenes there were a few of girls doing various animals which I thought was totally disgusting but she seemed to be fascinated by them. Well, that was our Marianne! There were also several of girls having sex with other girls which drew some crazy comments and suggestions but we never actually did anything.

Together the five of us made a pretty good team and we were always hanging around together at the mall and in school. When it came to my friends you never knew what might happen so I was looking forward to tonight.

My mom dropped me off at Beth's at about 6:00 PM, right on time yet I was the last to arrive. Beth had a this really cool in-ground swimming pool with a diving board so we all changed into our bikinis in her bedroom. As we undressed I felt a bit self-conscious once again because of my boobs which were definitely the smallest in the room. As usual, I couldn't hardly believe Beth's - damn her boobs looked great! My bikini top was so small and hardly needed a real cup to cover my puffy nipples while Beth was spilling out of hers, looking like she was past ready to graduate to that C cup. The rest of the girls were generally in the A size range, some close to B, but all of them looking hotter than mine. At least I could be thankful that my pussy wasn't the only bare one anymore! Like my boobs, my pubic hair was the last to appear, making me feel like a little girl when I was undressed. Once again it was Beth who looked the best - her lush pubic hair was now long enough to where she had to trim it to keep it from poking out of her tiny micro bikini bottom.

We all headed out to the pool, passing Beth's parents in the living room. Beth's mom looked at our suits and shook her head in mock despair. There was quite a difference from last summer when we wore more modest bikinis! Beth's dad, on the other hand, feigned disinterest but I was sure it was more to keep his wife from getting mad at him for staring at his daughter's young friends than anything else. It was the same as when I was at the other girls' homes - dads staring at us when they thought we didn't know.

It was still early summer and the water wasn't as warm as it would be in a few weeks but it was still comfortable and felt great. We just goofed around in the pool like we were little girls again for the next hour or so. I love swimming and found that wearing a tiny bikini always made me feel good about myself, even if I wasn't filling it out the way I wished. As the evening progressed though, wouldn't you know that Marianne would be the one to instigate something. She was standing on the diving board about to jump in and the next thing I knew she had stripped off her bikini and was standing there stark naked in front of everyone! We all looking at her incredulously and she just laughed at us and dove in. Popping up at the end of the pool, she cried out to us and said, "C'mon, let's skinny dip!"

The rest of us looked at each other and sort of shared a group shrug. What the heck, why not? It was just us girls so did it really matter? After all, I spent lots of time in our hot tub nude with my parents so this wouldn't be much different. I was the first to pull off my bottoms and then I untied my top and flung both pieces to the side of the pool. The others soon followed and the next thing I knew all of us were all swimming around totally nude. It wasn't like I'd never seen my friends naked before but that was in the locker room or bathroom where being nude was a matter of necessity, not a choice. This was different in that it was the first time we'd ever deliberately bared ourselves for each other and it seemed a bit awkward at first to me. It was one thing to be nude at home with my parents, that was just family. This felt a little bit naughty and I was a bit surprised to find that it even turned me on a bit. Even though there wasn't much to my bikini to start with, there was just something erotic about feeling the cool water directly against me in places normally hidden from view.

Eventually we gathered in one corner of the of the pool and just started giggling like little girls. I think each of us was a little nervous at displaying ourselves naked in front of the others although it was evident that some were more than others. For instance, Nancy was standing there with her hands unconsciously covering her boobs whereas at the other end of the exhibitionist spectrum was Marianne who seemed to be totally oblivious to her lack of clothing and if anything, seemed to be taking quite an interest in my boobs which surprised me given what little was there to look at. In fact I could've sworn I felt her hands grab my butt but as much as we were all moving around it could have been anyone's accidentally touching me. We were just yakking about the things teenage girls chat about when they are together; nothing of real substance yet at the time it all seemed so very important to us. Suddenly we were surprised by the sound of Beth's mom.

"Oh my god!... Girls!!!, what in the devil do you think you're all doing!," she exclaimed with a look of absolute shock.

We all twisted around to look at her, hands covering our breasts instinctively as if to hide something from her - like she hadn't seen it all before. The underwater pool lights were on and with the darkening sky it must have been obvious we were bottomless as well so I don't know what we were trying to hide but it just seemed the right thing to do at the time. Beth's mom just shook her head at us and then directed her next comment at her daughter.

"Now Beth, you and your friends get your bikinis back on this instant. Lord Almighty, the LAST thing I need is for your dad or brother to see a bunch of fourteen year-old girls swimming around naked!"

Beth started to protest but we all grabbed our suits and quickly put them back on. Although it didn't really bother me to swim nude with my friends, for whatever reason I felt more than a bit embarrassed having Beth's mom see me this way. I slipped my bikini back on while I was in the water and then climbed the ladder and joined the others on the deck. The brief skinny dipping episode seemed to be a fitting ending to our pool time so we grabbed our towels and wrapped them around us before running back into the house, giggling and laughing all the way. I noticed her mom and dad watching us as we passed through the kitchen. Had he seen us? Talk about a contrast in expressions!

4. Beth's Bedroom

The five of us gathered in Beth's bedroom which was barely big enough to hold us all. We each had a small bag containing our toiletries and change of clothes so I reached inside to pull out my nightie for the evening. I'd chosen a pink frilly sheer thing that was just barely long enough to cover my ass when I was standing but had no chance whatsoever when I was seated. Back home I'd debated for hours with myself as to whether or not to bring along the matching panties since they were so sheer I may as well be wearing nothing at all. As tempting as it was to leave them behind, in the end I'd packed them.

I couldn't wait to tell everyone about my afternoon shopping with my mom. Everyone's listened intently as I described how we both had dressed sort of sexy and then deliberately teased the guys at the grocery store.

"You mean your MOM even did it?" Nancy asked, as if she didn't really believe me.

"Sure, why not? She didn't even wear a bra!" I replied.

"Didn't any of their wives notice?" Beth asked.

I explained to them about the one that had pulled her husband away from us and they all laughed when I mentioned how she had looked at the two of us afterwards.

"My mom would never let me dress like that in public, let alone go out herself that way," Nancy said rather defiantly.

We were all good friends so none of us said what was running through our minds - that her mom was grossly overweight so who would WANT to see her in a skimpy pair of shorts!

It wasn't long before we were teasing each other about this boy or that who we had caught her showing interest in. Since it was hard to be comfortable speaking outright about our inner lustful feelings and thoughts, we turned to that traditional game of young teenager girls - Truth or Dare. By making it a game, it somehow made it OK to say and do those things we might never have left to our own devices. Some of the questions and dares were between just two of us while we expanded the game at times to include the whole group. Beth started out using the latter rule.

"Ok, let's get started. Who here is still a virgin?"

We all looked at each other and giggled. Slowly everyone raised their hands except Marianne and Beth. Marianne had been doing it since she just turned thirteen so we all knew about her. I figured with all the talk at school about her, that everyone knew about Beth as well but wouldn't you know it, Nancy let out a gasp before catching herself.

"Beth, you didn't" she whispered. "Who?... When?"

The rest of us laughed at our cute little naive friend. Beth told them about how she was asked out by this high school boy just before eighth grade graduation. He was old enough to drive and seemed so much more mature than the boys our age. They had parked at the end of some dark street and one thing just seemed to lead to another.

"Cool!" Marianne exclaimed, "So how often does he do you? When was the last time?"

Beth shook her head, refusing to rise to the bait. "No, boys are such jerks. He just wanted to be the first to fuck me and that was the last I saw of him." Then she grinned mischievously saying, "But you all know Steve. Now HE is a different story!"

Poor Nancy, obviously she wasn't in on what Beth had been doing with Sharon's brother. She looked at Sharon and gasped, "You mean your brother had sex with Beth?"

Sharon couldn't help but giggle. "Well you know my brother.... she's got big boobs."

We all laughed except Nancy who was still trying to accept in her mind that one of her friends was fucking one of another of her friend's brothers. Then Marianne had to throw in her two cents worth.

"Jealous Sharon?"

"Marianne!" Nancy gasped but then she just sat there with her mouth open like a fish out of water seeing how red Sharon's face suddenly became.

"Bingo!" Marianne laughed.

I had to admit even I was a little flustered. Oh sure we all know Sharon had a little crush on her older brother but then we all did. I just hadn't realized how serious hers was.

We all started to giggle then as it had certainly turned out to be quite a start to our little game! For the next hour or so things tended to be more on the tame side. It was if after the first question everyone was afraid to ask anything that might lead to some new revelation. We'd played this game so many times before we already knew most of the answers anyway but it was still fun just to be with friends. Just about the time it seemed the game was winding down, it was Marianne who brought some life back.

"OK Kelly, Truth of Dare?" she asked.

I grinned and responded with a defiant, "Dare!"

Marianne looked over at Nancy and then back at me. "Kiss Nancy right on her lips."

Nancy eyes suddenly became as wide as saucers. Glancing back at Marianne, I didn't want to appear to be shocked (although inside I was scared to death) so I forced a smile and leaned over to Nancy who was sitting opposite me. I wasn't really as brave as I may have appeared because I knew what Nancy's reaction was going to be. Sure enough, she pulled back and put out her hand to push me away.

"Ummmmm, I don't think so!" she declared. "No way... I mean there is NO way I'm kissing a girl. I'm not a lesbian!"

The way she spat out "lesbian" left no doubt what she felt about kissing a girl but then everyone started teasing her while encouraging us to kiss. Finally she let out a big sigh and closed her eyes. "OK, but just a quick one."

She puckered her lips in an exaggerated way and I leaned over until our lips met. Everyone cheered as for the first time I felt another girl's lips on mine (moms don't count as girls). They were so much softer than the boys in school that I'd kissed and for a moment I was tempted to linger but she pulled back and wiped her mouth with the back of her hands as if her dog had licked her.

"God Marianne, you are SO sick sometimes, I just don't know about you," she said.

Fortunately with all the fuss Nancy was making, nobody asked me how I felt about kissing a girl. In truth, I was a bit confused. I'd never really thought about kissing another girl before (moms don't count) and I'd expected it to feel weird or somehow bad but that's not how it felt at all. To be honest, I actually liked it!

Marianne just laughed at her and my thoughts were brought back to reality as it was my turn. I posed my question to Marianne who also chose to have a dare. Well, she asked for it so paybacks were always fair game.

"Alright Marianne, I want you to close your eyes and remember the first time a boy touched you. Then I want you to touch yourself like he did to you then."

This was supposed to be too outrageous for even our kinky friend to do but I had to hand it to the little slut, Marianne didn't even flinch. Instead, this big grin appeared on her face as she leaned back against the pillows at the head of the bed. Without the slightest bit of hesitation she spread her legs wide to reveal her little pussy to us. Since she wasn't wearing any panties, we all had a great view of her hairy little cunt, one we all now knew had already been filled by several boy's cocks.

Even though we'd all seen each other nude just a couple of hours before in the pool, there was a HUGE difference between skinny dipping and boldly exposing yourself. Even though it seemed weird at first to see another girl's pussy this way, none of us - not even Nancy, could look away. The room was deadly silent as Marianne started to masturbate right there in front of us!

Now I'd seen my parents masturbate many times over the years and they'd seen me as well but then I never felt like they were putting on a show for me, or me for them. This was different in that Marianne wasn't masturbating just to get herself off (although I was sure she wanted to do that as well), she was doing it for us to watch. This was definitely a first for me and for the others as well judging from the looks of shock and amazement on their faces.

Another thing about masturbating around my parents was that I'd never felt any sort of sexual connection between us; it just something we each did when we felt the urge. Tonight, though, I felt something different somehow as my pussy began to respond while I watched my friend rubbing her pussy and then poking her finger deep inside as she closed her eyes to recall that time a boy first explored her. God she looked so sexy and hot! A quick glance around was enough for me to see that I wasn't the only one having this reaction. Everyone seemed flushed and breathing a little harder. Oh my god, Beth's huge nipples were poking out even more than they had before! Sharon was licking her dry lips subconsciously and even Nancy wasn't blinking as she stared at Marianne who was now masturbating even harder, seemingly totally oblivious to her audience - or maybe BECAUSE of her audience?

Finally I just couldn't take watching her like this anymore and not do anything. I reached down between my legs, pulled my panties over to the side and started playing with myself as well. Nancy noticed my movements and when she saw my hand between my legs her mouth dropped open and I could see her whispering an "Oh my god!" although I couldn't hear her. Eventually the others noticed as well and it was if a dam had broken and soon everyone except Nancy was playing with themselves. Even she wasn't totally immune though as one hand started to rub her boobs. Masturbating in front of other people was still too much for her but at the same time that wasn't stopping her from watching the four of us do ourselves.

Marianne must have heard us moving about and opened her eyes. When she saw the three of us masturbating she just smiled before closing her eyes again and returning to whatever fantasy world she'd created. God only knew what she was thinking of now but I was sure it was something hot and sexy. Somehow having us join in with her seemed to make Marianne even hornier than usual and she was rubbing her clit with one hand while pushing a finger up her cunt from the other. She started to buck her hips up and down like she was fucking one of her imaginary boyfriends.

appearing to be immature? Taking a deep breath, I leaned over towards Marianne and opened my mouth slightly. She put her finger in my mouth and I could taste her pussy on it. Mmmmmmm, it was similar to mine but had its own distinct flavor. Marianne twisted her finger in my mouth and moved it in and out as if I was sucking a cock. I felt a tingle again between my legs as I tasted my first pussy other than my own - and I liked it! I leaned back again and her finger slipped from my mouth.

"Wow!" Nancy whispered hoarsely. "I mean like I really can't believe Kelly just did that."

Looking over at Nancy I smiled as I licked my lips, "Mmmmmmm, not bad. You know, you should try it sometime Nancy."

Nancy just folded her arms and shook her head. "No way. I told you all I'm not a lesbian."

Everyone simultaneously rolled their eyes at that one and then laughed at our exchange. I certainly didn't think licking pussy cum from a girl's finger made me a lesbian! Besides, it was just a game and now that it was my turn and I wanted to raise the ante a little bit. Looking over at Beth, she smiled as she knew it was her turn. She chose Truth though, probably worried about what I was going to ask her to do if she picked Dare, and for good reason. I did indeed have something wicked in mind but instead asked her my question.

I took a deep breath and then said, "OK Beth. Tell the truth now; did you get turned on watching Marianne masturbate?"

Beth let out a breath and then took in a deep one. "Alright, yeah, it did make me wet. I mean she was hot and besides, I KNOW all the rest of you girls were turned on just as much as I was so there!"

Beth sat up straight and looked at us, staring at us as if she was daring us to contradict her. Well, not even Nancy spoke up to defend herself for that one! Beth took our silence as acknowledgement of her statement and turned to Sharon. Sharon chose to take a Dare but I doubt she would have had she known what Beth had in mind. As it turned out, it was the same thing I had planned for Beth had she chosen Dare instead.

"Hmmmmmm," she murmured as she looked at Sharon with a naughty look, "Sharon, play with Marianne's pussy for us."

Well, talk about two totally different responses! Marianne's face broke out into this huge smile as she laid back again with her legs spread wide apart, obviously all ready for Sharon. Sharon, on the other hand, had this horrified look on her face that I would've given anything to capture on her camera. We all laughed nervously, not sure quite what to do but all feeling maybe the game had finally just gone too far. Beth also realized she may have gone too far and quickly tried to ease the tension.

"Ohhhhhh, you're so silly... I'm just teasing you!" she said but I don't think any of us bought it.

Marianne sat up and actually looked a little disappointed as she glanced over at Sharon and pouted. Well, that was it for this game so we went back to our chatter. Everyone avoided the topic of the last question but I knew it was on all of our minds.

My bladder was about to burst so I got up and went down the hall to the closest bathroom. The TV set was still blaring from the living room and I could see the flashing light from the screen reflecting off the walls into the darkened hallway. I quickly did my thing and when I was done, without thinking just opened the bathroom door to start back to Beth's room. To our mutual shock, standing in the hallway about to reach for the bathroom door handle was Beth's dad!

We both jumped as neither of us had apparently known the other was there. Feeling a bit embarrassed at being all but naked in front of him, I excused myself but his eyes did all the talking for him. I hadn't yet turned off the bathroom light which was behind me as he quickly looked me up and down in my sheer nightie. From his perspective it must have been all but transparent and for just a moment his surprise allowed his animal instincts take over and I could hear him draw in a deep breath. As I was starting to get more and more looks like this from the fathers at church and at the pool this past summer, my initial embarrassment passed and I couldn't resist being just a little naughty.

"See something you like Mr. Williams?" I asked in my best little girl tone of voice tilting my head to the side with a smile. The sound of my voice seemed to bring him back to earth and he looked a bit worried as he realized what he'd been caught doing.

"Oh hi Kelly," he said sheepishly. "Ummmmm, nice nightie. Excuse me, I need to use the bathroom."

He moved aside to let me out and I walked slowly down the hall, deliberately allowing him to get a good view of my barely concealed ass which I intentionally wiggled a little extra just for him. I didn't look back but I knew he must have been watching me because I didn't hear the bathroom door shut until I was at Beth's bedroom door.

without one. She was a bit more strict when it came to panties though. Much to her consternation it made me super horny to run around bottomless in public so I would "forget" to put them on whenever I thought I could get away with it. Sitting in a pew at church I would wonder what the people sitting next to me would say if they had any idea that there was nothing but me under my short sundress. It always made me wet and horny and I usually rushed to my room to strip off my dress and masturbate as soon as we returned home, sometimes not even making it there and doing myself in the back seat while my parents tried to pretend they didn't know what I was doing. I guess they figured it wasn't worth arguing over something that wasn't hurting anyone.

At the beginning of summer vacation I spent a weekend with my friend Sharon and few other girlfriends at her parent's camp, or should I say now her mother's. Sharon's parents had divorced a few years earlier when her deadbeat father traded her mom in for a young secretary at work. As a result her brother Steve was the only guy with us. He was pretty good looking but being a couple of years older than me I'd never directly spoken to him much before. Being in high school always made him seem so much older than the boys I knew in middle school and all of us girls had a mad crush on him - even his younger sister Sharon which seemed a little weird at first. Yet as wrong as it should have been, somehow it was so hot to listen to her talk about her brother like he was just another guy she dreamed about.

During the weekend all the girls, even Sharon's mom, wore nothing but skimpy bikinis. Seeing her mom in a tiny bikini which barely covered her nipples made me think her ex-husband must have been a real idiot! Surrounded by all but naked girls must have driven Steve crazy, even if we were a couple years younger than him. Once I even saw him peeking out the camper screen window as we gathered around the picnic table for lunch. I just knew he had to be jerking his awesome cock (as I dreamed it must be) while he watched us. After lunch I quietly told the other girls about how I'd seen him watching us and so for the rest of the afternoon we made it a game to see who could tease him the most. We would do things like bend over to show him our butts and our bikini tops would "accidentally" slip out of place as we adjusted them, giving him a peek at our perky boobs. Well, THEY gave a peek of their perky boobs as mine weren't so perky yet.

Later that day at the beach we all giggled and loosened our bikinis just enough so when we jumped off the raft the tops or bottoms would slide completely off as we hit the water, flashing anyone quick enough to see. Steve spent most of the time watching us from the deeper water. I had a suspicion that he was jerking off under water while he was watching us which really made me even hornier. To our delight, the poor guy seemed to have a perpetual hard-on for which his swim suit did little hide. All-in-all, it wouldn't have surprised me in the least if he masturbated a dozen times or more before the weekend was over!

What Steve probably didn't know was that all of us were masturbating like crazy ourselves thinking about him! Even Sharon shocked us when she admitted to peeking in her brother's room so she could watch him stroking himself while looking at the porn magazine he thought nobody knew about. She grinned at us saying that there were a few times her underwear drawer appeared to have been gone through which was a little much for us to believe. In spite of our skepticism about some of her claims, it was incredibly naughty to me that she was turned on by her own brother. Granted, if I had an older brother built like Steve I would probably have been doing the same.

While common sense told me Sharon was probably just eating us when she would tell us how her brother turned her on, sometimes I couldn't help but wonder if there was anything more between them than what she was telling us. Given Steve didn't seem all that interested in her I had a strong suspicion it was more something Sharon dreamed about than him. Really, how likely was it that a brother would be interested in his sister in the first place? That would've been incest and I couldn't imagine anyone doing THAT. Granted I didn't have any siblings so it wasn't fair of me to judge, still the very idea of having sex with my mom or dad was just way too weird to even think about.

After our weekend at camp, all the next week I found myself thinking about Steve in his bathing suit; well, more about him OUT of it actually. Lord only knows how many times I got myself off imagining him choosing me from the rest of the girls at the campsite. I dreamed of him leading me into the camper while they all watched, getting turned on as they knew what he would be doing to me inside. As I rubbed my pussy I tried to imagine what it would feel like to have his dick in me and then have him cum inside of me. It felt particularly naughty to wonder if Sharon would be jealous if she saw her brother's cum leaking from me afterwards?

OK, so sometimes I get carried away when I fantasize but who doesn't when they masturbate?

and short but she didn't say anything at first. Still, I could see from her expression that at least SHE was catching my signals. Later as she drove us she casually asked me if my mom knew what I was wearing today - a little TOO casually. It was like she assumed no mother would knowingly allow her daughter to go out in public dressed like me. Well, she didn't know my mom! I calmly replied that my mom did - and I was being perfectly honest. Indeed, my mom had been one to suggest the cami! I'd originally chosen a looser T-shirt but she shook her head when she saw it and led me back to my bedroom where she found the cami.

"If you want to make a good impression on your first date you need to show more of the goods," she told me with a twinkle in her eye as she watched me change tops. I pulled it down as far as it would stretch - which wasn't very far below my bustline but she just frowned saying, "Don't try to cover up - you look sexy."

I think that was one of the first times my mom had ever straight out told me I looked sexy and I felt so proud. Sitting in the back seat with Steve and seeing how we was looking down at my chest, I was so happy now my mom had suggested this outfit.

Once at the park, before Steve's mom left us she told Steve that Sharon and her would be attending her company picnic so if we needed anything before our scheduled pick-up time that we should go to his grandparents who lived only a few blocks away from the park. I'd never met his grandparents but at the time it didn't seem likely we'd need that option.

For the next hour or so it was just your typical teenage carnival date. We went on several of the rides and on most of them we were pressed tightly against one another. Each time I kept waiting for him to make some sort of move on me, even if it just an "accidental" brush against my boobs or a hand on my bare leg. Alas, for whatever reason he was the perfect gentlemen - NOT at all what I was hoping for! About the farthest he went was on the Ferris wheel where he put his arm on the seat back behind me. It was ALMOST around my shoulder and I kept waiting for him to drop his arm down around me but it never happened and I was feeling pretty frustrated. Dang it, why wouldn't he touch me? From the way I'd dressed for him he certainly should've gotten the hint that I wouldn't have resisted!

The one good sign was there were a few times when I would look over at him and notice a distinct bulge in his tight white jean shorts. Mmmmmmm, I couldn't help but imagine his sixteen year-old cock underneath and wondered what he would've done if I'd put my hand over his crotch. Indeed, I might've done it if he had made ANY sort of move but he was playing the choir boy with me. This was certainly NOT what I'd expected based on the way he reacted during the camping trip. Worse yet, it was nothing like what Beth claimed had happened on their first date where she claimed he couldn't keep his hands off her boobs the entire time! Ok, so hers were melons compared to mine but still...

In addition to the rides we also played some games. Steve won me a silly little teddy bear which I thought was just adorable. Then tragedy struck, or at least something unexpected. We were watching a group of guys trying to ring this bell by swinging a big hammer. It had rained the night before and there were still a few puddles around. Wouldn't you know it but one guy missed the mark entirely and slammed the hammer right into a puddle. Poor Steve was directly in the line of fire as mud and water squirted out! His pure white jean shorts were covered with mud and he was soooooo mad. I had to cover my mouth because I wanted to giggle yet I felt so sorry for him because I knew he was terribly embarrassed.

Given the circumstances, we didn't have much choice but to go back to his house so he could change clothes. Following his mom's instructions, we walked a few blocks over to his grandparent's house where he explained his predicament. Thankfully his grandpa was pretty cool about it and offered to drive us back to his house. Steve and I rode together in the back seat with his grandparents in the front seat. I caught his grandpa eyeing us in the rear view mirror a few times, obviously keeping an eye on us to be sure we were behaving. Much to my chagrin he didn't need to bother as we each sat in our own seats; more like a brother and sister than boyfriend and girlfriend. Glancing over at Steve, I would've given anything to touch and kiss him but neither of us had the courage to start anything, especially with his grandfather keeping such a close eye on us.

From what Sharon had told us and Beth had confirmed, Steve was no virgin by any stretch of the imagination and enjoyed quite a reputation with the girls at school for his "wandering hands". Well if that was the case then why was he treating me more like a little sister rather than going for a home run? Honestly, I wasn't entirely sure how far I was prepared to let him go but it would've been fun to have him at least try!

It was about ten miles or so back to Steve's place where we saw by the missing car in the garage that his mom and Sharon were still out. Steve assured his grandfather his mom would be home soon and it was OK to leave us until then. Seeing the way his grandpa looked at me I wasn't sure he entirely bought Steve's story but he didn't say anything before leaving us. Once inside Steve's younger brother was nowhere to be found so we apparently had the whole empty house to ourselves. I felt a little tingle as I wondered if Steve was thinking the same as me – what a great opportunity for us to finally get naughty!

My heart was pounding when Steve led me down to the basement to their laundry room with the washer and drier. It soon became evident that Steve had no idea whatsoever as to how to use a wash machine. He seemed a bit embarrassed which I couldn't help but find funny and he blushed all the more when I volunteered to take care of his clothes for him. We both stood there for a moment, facing each other in silence as if unsure what to do next.

"Well, I really can't wash those shorts while you're wearing them," I teased him.

Steve looked even more embarrassed as he glanced around. "Stay there while I get undressed," he said as he hid behind some clothes that were hanging up. A little frustrated, I stood where I was as he stripped off his shorts and handed them around the clothes to me. All I could think about at that moment was that the hottest guy in school was just a few feet away from me with nothing but his underwear on. Of course I was wishing with everything I had that those darn clothes would fall out of the way. It felt a little awkward as well as I'd never been in this type of situation before.

OK, so I'd seen my father naked numerous times since as early as I can remember so it wasn't like I'd never seen a real penis before. Needless to say, seeing my dad naked didn't make me horny in the least – he was my dad after all so that would've been just weird. Even when my dad DID get horny and hard, I knew it didn't have anything to do with me directly, it was just something guys do sometimes. OK, so maybe it had something to do with me but my mom and I had talked about this very thing numerous times and I knew it was nothing so much to do with seeing his daughter as it was seeing a naked teenage girl. He simply reacted the way any man would – he sported an erection.

Steve was a different story entirely though. Images of his teenage cock and what he might do with it to me raced through my mind. Later when I looked back to this moment I can't help but think what a missed opportunity this had been for me! What would have happened if I'd taken the initiative and simply stepped around the clothes and offered myself to him? What would've happened if I'd undressed along with him?

As it was, Steve put on some clean shorts before reappearing from behind the hanging clothes. We sat next to each on the couch while we waited for the laundry to finish. Steve put on some music and we talked about the carnival, school, and just life in general. It was sort of cute I guess, the two of us sitting apart on the couch, neither of us making a first move. Unfortunately, "cute" wasn't what I'd been hoping for today. God, I'd been masturbating all week about a moment just like this and now he wouldn't even touch me!

When the washer finished I got up to put his shorts in the drier. Steve stayed behind on the couch where he couldn't see me so I took advantage of the opportunity to look around - or should I say snoop around! In their dirty laundry I saw what must have been Steve's underwear. Hmmmmmm, so Steve wore plain white jockey briefs - nothing too sexy there. I picked up a pair and touched the crotch with my hand, imagining how the material had recently been tight against his cock and what it would be like to put my hand between his underwear and his hard cock.

There were also some female underwear in the laundry. Sharon was the only girl so I knew the smaller bras was hers while the larger, more industrial versions belonged to her mom. Sharon was my age, a few months older actually, but had developed much faster and I noticed with more than a touch of envy that she was now wearing a B cup. I held her bra up against my chest and imagined what it would feel like to have boobs like hers that could fill the cup to overflowing.

I felt a bit naughty checking out her mother's bras, like I was peeking into something secret. Sharon's mom was very good looking and she obviously still liked to dress nicely judging by her taste in lingerie. I wondered who she dressed up for since her husband left her. Suddenly I heard a sound from upstairs and I dropped her bra like a hot rock just as Steve came rushing around the corner.

"Hurry up, my mom will kill me if she thinks we've been fooling around down here alone," he hissed at me.

I could feel the blood rush to my cheeks and hoped he hadn't noticed what I'd been holding in my hand. He apparently didn't or at least didn't want to say anything as we rushed back to the couch just as Steve's mom called down the stairs for him.

"Steve?... Are you home already?" she called down the stairway.

"Down here Mom!" he answered back, his voice cracking just a bit with nervousness.

It was Sharon then who came bounding down the stairs. She saw the two of us on the couch and grinned.

"Awwwwww, look at the two of you," she teased us, "Now what have you love birds been doing here all alone? Hmmmmmm?"

We both protested, claiming that nothing had happened. There must've been something my face or tone of voice that convinced her that nothing HAD happened because she pulled me aside and whispered in my ear.

"You're kidding," she said in disbelief, 'You're dressed like THAT and my stupid brother hasn't even laid a hand on you? God Kelly, do you have to wear a neon sign or what?"

Steve's mom came down next and looked suspiciously at us. Steve explained what had happened but his mom didn't look totally convinced although she didn't say anything more about it. She must not have thought anything TOO bad because she asked me if I wanted to go back to the fair to watch the fireworks with them. Well, of course I was OK with that and so I called my parents to let them know I'd be home late. It was all I could do to keep a straight face with everyone watching me while my mom asked how my date was going.

"Have you let him touch you yet?" she asked.

"No mom," was all I dared say as I saw Steve's mom watching me.

"You're kidding, what is he... gay?" my mom teased.

"No mom, everything's just fine," I replied a little tersely yet managing to smile at his mom. She started to ask something more but I cut her off, telling her we were leaving and hanging up the phone.

Truth was, everything was NOT fine but at least I'd have another chance with him. The way things were now he was never going to ask me out again!

3. Back at the Fair

On the way back to the fair, Sharon and her mom rode in the front seat leaving Steve and me in the back again.

"Now you two behave back there!" Sharon teased us, keeping an eagle eye using the vanity mirror built into the passenger seat visor. Unfortunately she need not have bothered as once again we sat several inches apart with our hands in our own laps. Damn, if this kept up all night I was going to go crazy!

The three of us went on a few more rides while their mom went off on her own. Sharon eventually left us to find her mom, but not before she had a few words with me.

"Don't worry Kelly," she whispered to me when Steve was getting some more tickets, "It's obvious he's horny - my god, the bulge in his shorts is almost embarrassing! I was thinking that he's never been with a girl as tiny as you before so maybe he's a little shy. Still, I just can't believe my horny brother can go the whole night with a girl without making a move so have fun!"

She was trying to be nice but I just rolled my eyes as I wasn't feeling nearly as positive about the night's outcome as her. Sharon just nodded her head at me as her brother returned and finally left us alone together. As dusk approached we found ourselves walking along the outskirts of the carnival until we turned on a path that led out into the woods lining the park. As we walked his hand brushed against mine. My heart raced and FINALLY Steve took my hand in his. We walked along holding hands and making small talk.

Once we were out of sight of the crowd Steve stopped and turned to face me. His handsome face was within inches of mine and I was afraid to say a word or do anything to scare him off. Without a word he leaned over and kissed me. I didn't have much experience at kissing boys other than a couple of flirtatious moments at parties so I was a bit awkward compared to Steve who obviously had a lot more practice. We kept our lips tight together and basically just rubbed our lips against each other's but at the time it was magic for me!

My thoughts went to how me and my dad would kiss. Even though he was my dad we liked to kiss and show our love for each other, especially when he did something nice for me like buy me a new sexy outfit. Maybe I could try kissing Steve like I kissed my dad? It seemed a little kinky to compare the two but obviously this wasn't going anywhere as it was. Taking a deep breath I put my arms around his neck as he held me around the waist and pulled up against him. I closed my eyes and imagined I was in my dad's arms, that my dad was pressing his lips against mine, his tongue pressing against my lips so urgent to find its way into my mouth. I felt my tongue reach out to Steve and opened my eyes. His eyes were wide open as he stared at me in surprise but then he responded with his and our kiss finally became the passionate one I'd so dreamed of.

When we finally paused to catch our breath, both of us just looked at each other in silence, neither of us sure what to say.

"That was nice Steve," I whispered softly to him. OMG, I'd almost said "daddy" instead of Steve! OMG, I'd said it was "nice". Like saying someone has a "nice" personality.

Steve just smiled having no idea of the horrible mistake I'd just come so close to making. Then he kissed me again. My heart raced as felt him against me and I could've just stayed this way all night. Instead, Steve led me over to a large fallen log and we sat down next to each other. He put one hand on my bare leg and the other around my exposed waist. Since my top was at least a size too small it was always riding up. Normally I would've pulled it down but at the moment I let it expose my midriff up as high as where my small boobs began to extend. As we kissed again he ran his hand up and down my back and I could feel his fingernails through my tight cami and over my bared skin.

I'd never had anyone touch me like this before and I felt something warm and wet in my pussy, something I normally only felt when I played with myself. My nipples were stiffening and started to poke through even more the thin fabric of my cami. Steve started to run his hand under it in back, tracing his fingers up and down my spine. Ohhhhhhhhhhh it felt so good!

Neither of us said a word as we just kissed. Then Steve's hands begin to work their way around my side and I knew what he was trying to do. I sat back a little, not sure that I should give in to him so fast. I didn't want him to think I was some sort of slut or anything but at the same time I didn't want to give him the idea I didn't want to do anything either.

"Not yet Steve. Please... just stay in back for now." I whispered to him softly.

My intent was to just make him pause but still understand that if he was patient he would get what he wanted... eventually. He seemed to get the message as his hand moved back to the center of my back again. As we kissed though I knew he was getting more worked up. Glancing down I could clearly see he must have had quite an erection because the crotch of his shorts was noticeably pushing up. He tried again to move his hand around and again I resisted.

"Steve, please! Not yet... Just rub my back," I whispered. Actually I wanted him to do it but something just made me resist a little, maybe a little pride in myself that he would at least have to work for it a little. It was getting pretty dark by now so we sat up straight and I tugged down my cami just enough to keep it from sliding up over my boobs.

"Guess we better get back before we can't see the trail," Steve said, a note of frustration clearly in his tone and I wondered if I'd blown it. We went back and soon found Sharon and his mom. Steve grabbed an extra blanket and turned to his mom.

"We'll meet you at the car after the finale," he told her.

Sharon overheard and teased us asking, "Do you mean the fireworks finale or....?"

Steve just glared at her as his mom shook her head. I wasn't sure who she was responding more to - Steve's obvious intentions or his sister's suggestive comments. I just grinned at Sharon who gave me a thumbs-up and a wink. Then she pulled me over to the side.

"C'mon girl, spill it. What base are you guys at?" she asked like a reported on the sidelines.

I felt a little blush in my cheeks when I answered, "He kissed me. I haven't let him go any further yet."

"Well... are you going to let him or not?" she asked and then before I could answer she continued, "You know it was all I could do not to laugh when I saw that hard-on he came back with. God, I can't believe my mom didn't notice!"

I just had time to wink at her as Steve took my hand and led me away. He found a dark spot between a couple of cars that allowed us to see the fireworks but at the same time sheltered us mostly from the view of the majority of people. It was getting a bit chilly so he wrapped the blanket around the two of us. There were still people walking by, looking for a spot to watch the upcoming show and at this point we were both too shy to kiss openly so I scooted next to Steve and he put his arm around me. My cami started to slip up again and I noted that when he put his arm around me his hand was helping it up a few inches more. He rubbed his hand over my bare midriff, coming just below my breasts and then retreating back down again. His other hand was running up and down my smooth leg, spending a lot more time on the inner part of my bare thighs than anywhere else.

We both remained deadly quiet, as if we were afraid to say anything to break the spell. The fireworks finally started but I wasn't paying much attention as Steve started to slowly work his way under my cami. This time I didn't protest and I felt goose bumps rise as he tickled my bare skin with his probing fingers. Finally he was just under my bustline and his thumb pressed up against the bottom of my breast. He held it there leaving me to wonder if he would have the courage to move any further upward so I decided to encourage him just a little.

"It's OK Steve," I whispered in a low husky voice, "I don't want you to stop this time."

Steve looked at me and smiled. He moved one finger up and began to trace it along the outline of my small boob. I may not have had much there yet but what was there was certainly sensitive! A small gasp escaped from me and he quickly pulled his hand away. I looked at him and took his hand in mine, pressing it fully against my breast. Oh my god, I was not only letting a boy touch my breast, but I was actually encouraging him!

"It's OK", I assured him, trying not to let my nervousness show, "I like it when you touch me there."

Steve started to squeeze and rub my breast. He could easily cup my entire boob his hand and I felt a little embarrassed at how small I was. I was certainly nothing to compare to when he'd felt up my best friend Beth. He didn't seem to mind though as I closed my eyes and concentrated on nothing but his hand as he groped me. Now I like to play with my boobs but having a boy touch them was something different entirely. As he gained confidence he moved his hand from one to the other and I moaned softly at the touch of his hand on my naked breasts. My nipples were rock hard by now and it felt unbelievable when he played with them. I turned to him and whispered in his ear, "Mmmmmmm, I love that Steve... I love it when you touch me like that."

As Steve continued to grope my boobs I noticed his other hand was moving up higher than usual on my leg, so much so that his hand was starting to press against my warm crotch. As much as my pussy was screaming for attention, I wasn't quite ready for him to do THAT in public yet!

"Just my boobs tonight Steve," I said softly to him. I don't know what came over me then but it was like someone else was talking through my mouth as I said, "Don't worry Steve, soon you'll know every inch of me... and I mean ALL of me."

The words just came out of me and after I'd said them I couldn't believe myself! Yet it was the truth... I did indeed want him to explore me, to touch me all over and I meant ALL over me. In the meantime I just enjoyed the fireworks, not the ones in the air but rather those going off inside of me. For the next half hour or so we kissed and he groped me. It made me feel so sexy knowing I was turning him on the way I was. He never did stop trying to get in my shorts but I just pushed him away each time. In a way I kind of liked the fact he kept trying. At least I knew he wanted me!

After a while Steve took a different tact, taking my hand and moving it to his crotch. Mmmmmmm, I could feel his hard cock pressing through his jeans and for a moment I almost left my hand there. It would've been interesting to say the least to learn more about what was hiding there but I wasn't going to feel my first cock under a blanket - I wanted to see what I was doing. Besides, I had a feeling I was going to be seeing a LOT more of Steve now that he knew I was more "available" than perhaps he'd realized before. I certainly wasn't teasing him when I said he would know every inch of me. Mmmmmmm, I had every intention of letting him but it would be on my terms. I just wasn't going to give him everything the FIRST night. I wasn't a slut after all! Now as for the SECOND night...

When the fireworks finale finished we gathered up the blanket and I pulled my cami down and tried to make myself presentable. I noticed that Steve's erection was even bigger than before but I didn't want to say anything to embarrass him. Even though I did suggest he carry the blanket in front of him, I had my own "hard" issue. My nipples were so pointed and sensitive I knew they weren't going to go away any time soon. Fortunately it was pretty cool by now which gave me an excuse. We met his mom and Sharon back at their car and as they put the chairs and blankets away Sharon pulled me aside again.

"Oh my god Kelly!" she said with her eyes opened wide, "What did you DO to the poor boy?

I looked at her with a questioning look, as if I had no idea what she was talking about.

"Don't play dumb with me girl," she said, wagging her finger at me "I mean, my brother has a freakin' tent pole sticking out from his crotch! So how far did you let him go?"

I gave her my most wicked smile and winked at her. "Well..., nothing you wouldn't let him do to you!"

Sharon put her hand to her mouth and giggled. "Kelly, you can be such a nasty little slut!" she exclaimed. Just then her mom called out for us to get going so she just gave me a playful push as we walked to the car. "Well," she said, "Tomorrow I want details girl!"

During the drive home Steve and I held hands in the back seat under the blanket. We both thought nobody noticed but Sharon was grinning at me the whole way home. I suspected it wouldn't be long until Steve and I got to know ALL of each other and eventually I might even give him my virginity. I couldn't wait to get home and tell my mom all about my first kiss!

class with a live demonstration as there was nothing sexual about it, at least so far as I was concerned. Of course I'm sure my dad had a different perspective but at that age I didn't have a clue. My mom was there to keep him in check, ensuring nothing got out of hand.

As I got older my mom taught me more about sex when it was appropriate. When she noticed I was starting to explore myself she took me aside and shared a few tips on masturbating. Mom even offered the services of her rather impressive dildo collection but I rarely took her up on that one. What I'm thankful to her most for is the attitude she taught me regarding masturbation, teaching me that it was a natural thing which most everyone did and nothing to be ashamed of or having to hide. It's not like I'd put on a show for my parents but at the same time if I as horny I didn't feel the necessity to leave the room and run off to take care of myself. Besides, it wasn't like my parents seemed to even notice.

Given the close relationship I shared with my mom I couldn't wait to get home the night when Steve first kissed and fondled me to tell her all about it. I don't know who was more excited, me or her. Of course she demanded I spill all the details! Thus when I came to her and announced my decision about my intentions for my date that night with Steve, my mom was excited for me but she also appeared a bit apprehensive as well.

"So... just how far do you intend to go with this boy?" my mom asked. It was just a question, not an accusation or criticism.

"I don't really know for sure mom," I answered truthfully. "I was actually thinking more about me doing something to him tonight."

"Ahhhhhh, so you're thinking about giving the boy a blowjob?" she asked, raising her eyebrows. "Are you sure you're ready for that? I mean, don't get me wrong but you still haven't even seen, let alone touched a boy's cock yet you think you're ready to suck one? Again, don't get me wrong Kelly, it's perfectly OK to blow your boyfriend and I know you'll both enjoy it but I just don't want you to rush into this sort of thing before you're ready."

"Well... I THINK I am," I replied, squirming as suddenly I was feeling a bit defensive for some reason. We'd discussed sex and even oral sex many times before but never in terms of me actually DOING it. I guess it shouldn't have been a surprise that discussing me actually doing it would be different than just an abstract conversation.

follow her. She led me to the family room where she looked through the shelf with my dad's collection of porn movies resided.

"Ah!" she exclaimed softly, "This will do nicely." Turning on the TV and VCR, she plugged in the tape and hit the play button. Soon "Taboo IV, American Style" started playing. She took a seat on the couch next to me and chuckled.

"As you well know this is one of your dad's favorite," she said. Yeah, like I didn't know. Sheesh, how many times had I seen him masturbating watching it! I once joked with my mom that I was surprised the tape wasn't worn out.

"I like to think I'm pretty good but Ginger Lynn was a true master of the art of oral sex," my mom explained as she fast forwarded to a scene where Ginger was sucking a guy on a bed after watching him fuck his mother. I never quite understood the incest thing but it was just acting so it didn't really matter.

"Now watch closely Kelly," my mom instructed me, "See how she doesn't just suck him? She obviously adores a dick. There... see how her tongue works on it, now her lips... the way she look at him as she goes down on him? Guys LOVE that!"

We watched the rest of the scene in silence. While I really wasn't all that much into porn, I was getting pretty horny by the time it finished! Apparently so did my mom as she was using the tip of her dildo to rub herself as we watched.

"OK, now let's see what you learned," she said when the guy finished cumming on Ginger's belly and pussy." She laid back on the couch, spread her legs apart and held the dildo up with the base on her pussy as if it was her dick. "Pretend now I'm your boyfriend and show me how you will do him."

It was more than a little weird putting my face so close to my own mother's pussy but she didn't seem fazed. At this distance I could even smell her excitement with my face just inches away from her hairy crotch! Her pussy smelled so much stronger than mine when I was horny. I couldn't help but wonder how hers tasted compared to mine but she coughed and my attention went back to the task at hand. I started working on the dildo, trying to mimic what I'd just watched. My mom had her head propped up on the arm of the couch, watching me intently.

"Good Kelly," she praised me. Now don't forget, it's all about him so you want to turn him on as much as possible. Try playing with yourself while you suck it. Guys LOVE watching a girl playing with herself."

It was a little awkward at first to finger myself as I tried to concentrate on the dildo at the same time. A few times I would start to lose focus and stop my simulated BJ when my clit started to really respond and my mom would tap me on the head.

"I know, it can be hard to keep focus on him but just slow down masturbating if it gets to be too much. Watch your teeth when you masturbate. I can see you biting down a little when you get going and you'll hurt the poor guy." I looked into my mother's eyes and rolled mine. Yeah, talk about easier said than done!

It seemed like hours but was likely less than half an hour before she finally was satisfied with my performance. A few times she would rewind the tape to a particular scene to help illustrate what I was supposed to do. Between her suggestions and watching Ginger and the other porn whores it made it a lot easier for me.

"Well, if you can do it HALF that good on Steve then I'm sure he'll love it!" she finally announced as she sat up, "I'm really proud of you Kelly, you seem to have a natural talent."

I beamed, pleased that my mom thought I was doing so good so I kissed her on the forehead and thanked her. She hugged me in return and then we kissed for several minutes, our warm naked bodies pressed tightly together as our tongues touched and played with one another. Mmmmmmm, I loved it when we held me and kissed me!

Then my mom looked me straight in the eyes saying, "I know you'll make me proud of my little girl. Now don't forget, I expect to hear ALL about it when you get back, OK?"

Like I expected anything less, LOL.

With that she left me to finish myself off. God I was so horny now! I even used her dildo to rub my clit as dreamed of Steve's dick and my plans for it. When I finally came she must have heard me upstairs!

2. At the Movie Theater With Steve

Steve picked me up a couple of hours later. I secretly wondered if he caught the twinkle in my mom's eyes when she saw him take my hand and start to lead me out the door. When he wasn't looking she winked at me and gave me a thumbs up. I doubt there are many girls who get to go out on a date with the intention of sucking her first cock with their mom acting as a cheerleader on the sidelines! I felt an incredible love for my mother at that moment and once again I knew I was one VERY lucky girl to have a mother who was so supportive of me.

Even though I'd just masturbated a couple of hours earlier, seeing Steve and glancing at his crotch I once again felt that tingle between my legs. Steve must have been horny too as he didn't waste any time driving straight to the movie complex where he found some seats in the back as far from anyone else as possible which wasn't hard as there weren't that many people in the theater and most were in the lower half. Obviously watching the movie was NOT what he had in mind which was fine with me as I had no intentions of watching much if it either.

It was the middle of a hot summer and I was dressed for it with my shortest cutoffs, tightest and skimpiest tube top, sneakers, and not a single thing more other than the makeup on my face and the baby powder I'd lightly sprinkled in my cleavage. My mom had suggested this last to me back when she found out he was playing with my boobs and sure enough, the light scent and smooth feeling it gave them drove Steve nuts!

Steve bought the tickets of course and we lined up to get some popcorn and a drink. The line was long so I excused myself to use the restroom. I didn't really have to go, I just wanted one last look in the mirror to check myself out. Lifting myself up on my toes to see better in the mirror, my shorts pulled up tight and apparently more of my butt cheeks appeared than someone thought was appropriate.

"Aren't you a little young to be dressed like such a slut?" an older voice came from behind me, "Does your mother have an idea you of out looking like that?"

I turned and saw an older woman, maybe a little older than my mom, clutching her purse and eyeing me with a scrunched up face of disgust. She didn't seem pleased when I smiled at her.

"what are you smiling about? I'd ground you forever if you were my daughter," she fussed. "You do know there are impressionable young boys here tonight."

"I was sort of hoping so... and their fathers," I came back feeling rather naughty. I threw in the last part just to piss her off and apparently my efforts were successful as she huffed and all but ran from the restroom.

Looking back in the mirror I smiled as other women and girls came in. Hopefully Steve was thinking the same as she did!

Steve was waiting for me when I came out and we headed to the theater. As I sat down in the seat the material in the crotch of my shorts was so thin and tight it rode up into my pussy. Fortunately I'd trimmed my fuzzy pussy hair so it wasn't poking out although this particular pair were so short my pussy lips actually peaked out just a little to each side. The theater lights were still on and I could see Steve's eyes staring at my all but exposed crotch. He seemed a little embarrassed when he realized I saw him looking at me that way, but I smiled at him to let him know I didn't mind. Heck, if anything I WANTED him to be ultra-horny tonight! I looked at him and licked my lips suggestively, just enough for him to know I was waiting for him to make his next move.

The theater was new and featured those stadium style high-back seats with armrests that pulled up between the seats. Steve lifted the one between us out of the way which allowed me to wiggle over next to him. Steve put his arm around my shoulders and held my bare upper arm. Not wasting any time, he pulled me towards him and we kissed long and hard, his tongue reaching into my mouth and mine meeting his. As we kissed, I could feel my pussy getting that itch it always got when I was really horny and I couldn't wait for the lights to dim. Thankfully with the movie about to start there were still only a other people in the theater and none within a few rows of us. I'm sure they saw us kissing and given the bad seats we chose in with a nearly empty theater I don't doubt they knew we weren't planning to watch the movie. Oh well, we were teenagers so what else would they expect?

Finally the previews finished and the lights went out as the feature began. I figured there was no sense in wasting time either so I reached up and moved his hand from my upper arm to my waiting breast. He squeezed it though the tight material of my tube top and his kiss intensified. I moaned softly just a bit as he rubbed my hardening nipple through the thin fabric of my tube top. Almost immediately in response his hand cupped my entire breast and once again I couldn't believe how good it felt to have him fondle me this way. At home I liked to touch myself, especially in the shower or in bed naked at night. Well, that was well and good but nothing compared to a real hand on me, even over my clothing.

"Remember what I told you when we watched the fireworks at carnival?"

Steve just smiled and felt his hand give my breast a squeeze.

"Remember when I told you someday you would know ALL of me?"

Another squeeze, a little more firm this time...

I did a quick check and dint see anyone looking. My fingers reached into the top of my tube top and pulled it down and over my breasts until it was just a band around my waist, leaving my boobs fully exposed. A part of me screamed "NO" as anyone could have looked and seen I was naked, at least on top but the rest of me screamed "YES" as I felt huis hand on my bare flesh for the first time. I sighed softly as he touched my powdered boob and playing with my nipples.

Our kiss continued while he groped my boobs and soon he started to run his other hand over my bare torso and then over my shorts down to my smooth tanned legs. I almost jumped out of my seat as he ran his fingers up my bare inner thighs. The skin there was soft and smooth, not to mention sensitive as hell! I parted my legs further to give him easier access and was rewarded as his entire hand moved over my inner thigh.

"That feels so good Steve!" I whispered tersely as his fingers danced over my smooth bare skin.

Up and down my sensitive legs and thighs he explored. I slouched in the seat with my tailbone just at the edge to make it even easier for him. He reached down, drawing his hand over me down to my ankles and then back to my shorts barely covered my warm crotch. God it felt so good... so naughty! Yes I loved how it felt but to do it here, literally within feet of other people yet totally without their knowledge made it all the better.

Eventually he started to press into my crotch but at that I gently but firmly pushed his hand away and whispered, "Not yet, I have a better idea."

He looked disappointed but that expression quickly changed when I reached over and put my hand firmly between his legs. It was the first time in my life that I'd touched him there like this, or any boy for that matter. It was thrilling to feel his hard cock pushing up through his shorts. Needless to say he do anything to discourage me! If anything he spread his legs further apart to make it easier for me to hold him. I squeezed him gently and rubbed him best as I could though his shorts. Then I took my eyes off his crotch and looked at him, deciding it was time to stop being coy and let him know exactly what I wanted.

"Mmmmmmm, I want your cock Steve!" I whispered softly to him. Steve looked down at me with a big grin on his face. This was the first time I'd said those words to him and I knew he had to be looking forward to what was about to happen as much as I was.

My pulse was racing as I wanted so bad not to act like a novice which made it all the more annoying when I started fumbling with his shorts. In my defense it WAS dark after all and I didn't have any experience taking someone else's clothes off! Steve smiled at my struggles and reached down to undo his top snap for me. After that I was able to unzip him and reach inside. My heart was pounding as I worked my fingers under the elastic of his underwear ? white just the like ones I'd seen in the laundry at his house the day we were in his basement. I couldn't believe I was finally going to put my hand down a boy's pants, something I'd dreamed and masturbated about so many times. Now my dreams were finally coming true!

His underwear was tight but I still managed to slip my hand inside of the elastic. The first thing I felt was his stiff curly pubic hair. I couldn't really see it but I loved the touch of it against my finger as it ran through it. Then my heart skipped as my fingers barely touched the head of his cock. OMG I was touching my first hard cock! As my hand worked its way farther down his shaft I touched more fingers to him and then held him like I was grabbing a broomstick, just as my mom had taught me. I couldn't believe how hard and warm it felt! It was a little strange, like nothing I'd felt before. As hard as the shaft appeared the skin felt so soft and smooth in my hands. Steve worked his underwear down just enough to free his dick which allowed me to look down and actually see my small hand wrapped around him. It was so cool to see his cock head poking out of my hand like a turtle out of its shell! My eyes had become adjusted to the light so I could see it pretty clearly. It seemed almost surreal to me that I had his cock in my hand right in the middle of the movie theater with people just a little ways away! For some reason, taking his cock out of his shorts seemed so much naughtier to me than exposing my boobs. A guy playing with a girl's breasts was no big deal but when a girl had her hand on a guy's cock it seemed to imply something much more personal and naughty.

I was only too happy to do what he asked. My mind as a whirl as I tried to recall all the things my mom had taught me but there's a big difference between playing with a dildo in my bedroom or on the couch and actually holding a real hard dick in my hand! As I ran my hand up and down his stiff shaft his hips started to move in sync with my strokes. I could feel his cock swelling and it excited me to know it was ME that was causing him to react this way. Steve evidently was fed up with his underwear being in the way so he slid his shorts and underwear down to his ankles which gave me complete access to his cock and balls. He was so horny that I was sure that the thought of someone catching him sitting bare-bottomed with his girlfriend's hand around his cock probably never even occurred to him. It DID occur to me but it only made me all the more excited about what we were doing.

With his shorts and underwear out of the way, I reached down and felt his hairy balls in my hand. Now this was something my mom hadn't simulated with me! They were like loose sacks with something hard inside of them that rolled around as I played with them. Thick lush pubic hair covered everything and I could smell the distinct sexy musk odor of his male crotch.

"Careful with the boys," Steve whispered.

"Mmmmmmm, now THAT'S what I call being a good girl," Steve said ever so softly with a grin that never left his face, "Open up and show me."

Thank goodness for my mom! Without to her instructions I might have swallowed it right away but thanks to her, as much as it was tempting to do swallow it, I kept his cum in my mouth. I stuck out my tongue as far as I could so he could see his cum on it. Then I smiled naughtily at him and swallowed it down. By now his cock wasn't as hard as it had been when he came of course but I took in back in my mouth and I loved the way it felt as it slowly softened in my mouth. Steve shivered as I sucked on it softly, like a baby with a binkie. If anything, he seemed even more sensitive to my tongue now than when he had cum.

Finally I let him go and while it was disappointing to feel his cock leave my mouth I knew that it was going to be back in many times in the future ? at least if I had anything to say about it. I struggled to pull up my shorts as they were so tight I usually had to lay on my bed to get them on. Then I rearranged my tube top before I sat down next to my now well-satisfied boyfriend. He started to reach for his shorts but I held his hands back.

"What are you doing? I'm not finished yet," I said softly with a naughty grin.

Heck, the movie wasn't even half over so why not go for seconds? My mom had told me that teenage boys like Steve would get hard again quickly after his first orgasm, if he softened at all and sure enough Steve's sixteen year-old dick never really got soft all the way as it started to grow once again in my hand as I stroked him slowly. It was easier now with his cum to lubricate it. One thing I noticed was that his cum left a huge aftertaste in my mouth as I ran my tongue around my teeth and cheeks where it seemed to have collected. It was definitely unlike anything I'd ever tasted before and while I wouldn't say it was delicious, it WAS something I was confident that I could acquire a taste for. In any case, it wasn't like I was doing it for the cum, I simply loved the process of getting it!

For the second BJ of my life I didn't get on my knees again as the cement floor wasn't exactly the most comfortable thing to kneel on. This time I just leaned over and put my head in his lap and took him back in my mouth again. I sucked Steve's now resurrected erection like a baby sucking on a bottle, taking just the head in my mouth and holding it with my lips while my tongue ran all around it. I stroked the shaft with my hand while he ran his own hand up and down my back and then reached around to play with my boobs again. I pulled my tube top down again to expose my little boobs for him and they tingled at his touch.

would be. If there was one thing I was certain of it was that this was NOT going to be the last time I sucked his dick!

"Oh fuck, here it cums," he groaned softly, breaking my train of thought and bringing me back to the business at hand. "I want to cum on your face," he said, pulling me off of his cock by grabbing my hair and lifting up my head.

I would've been more than pleased to have just let him cum in my mouth again but my mom had warned me that some guys got off seeing their cum spurt all over a girl. The idea sounded more like a mess to me than anything but I went along with it and watched as he stroked himself a few times. It was like he was masturbating and I guess technically he was which seemed sort of strange since I would've loved to have finished him off with my mouth.

I didn't have time to contemplate it any more as suddenly a stream of cum was shooting from his cock. Fortunately I closed my eyes just in time as it sprayed all over my face and forehead, some of it against my eyelids as well. It was like someone was covering my face with thick warm oil as he came again and this time I wasn't sure where it went as my eyes were closed and I didn't feel it on my face.

A few eruptions and it was all over my face and neck. I reached to wipe the cum from my eyes and tried to slowly open them. It stung a little bit but at least I could see again. Below me was Steve's cock, his last load of cum had barely escaped and was now dripping down the side of his cock. I lowered my head and took his cock in my mouth and then lifted up, drawing the cum from his dick into my mouth. I spit it back out and let it drip onto his cock head again and then reached down to suck it off again. I was already growing accustomed to the odd flavor and the second load didn't seem to be nearly as bitter as the first.

"Lift your head up," he whispered. I sat up and he looked at me, using his hands to push my messy hair away from my blushing face.

"Damn Kelly, now you look like such a slut... I love it," he said with a grin. I could only imagine how I must have looked as I could feel his cum running down my face and neck. Was that why he wanted to cum on my face, so I would look like some sort of cum slut for him? All I knew for sure was I must've looked like a wreck and I wanted to clean it off of me as soon as possible.

"Do you have a handkerchief?" I asked him.

He shook his head and I looked around, uncertain as to what I should do. It wasn't like I had any extra clothes to wipe it off with! Steve was pulling up his pants and for a brief moment I thought about asking him for his underwear but then I thought again and decided THAT was not a good idea! There really wasn't any other option so I told him I'd be right back and slipped out of the darkened theater. At the entrance door I peeked to see if anyone was around. The theater complex was virtually empty with the only people in sight being at the far end of the aisle so I quickly opened the door and headed for the restrooms naturally were at the far end of the hall, as far away as possible from our theater. Fortunately the hallway was empty so I reached the restroom without passing anyone. When I reached for the door it opened by itself in front of me and out came an older lady, probably in her later forties or early fifties. She took one look at me and her face wrinkled up in disgust. She muttered something like, "Tramp!" under her breath as she walked by but I just ignored her. Odds were she hadn't sucked a dick in ages and she was just jealous! I grinned to myself ? twice now I'd been scolded for being a slut. I couldn't wait to brag to my mom!

It wasn't until I got inside and looked in the mirror that I realized that I really couldn't blame the old bitch for her reaction. Indeed, I DID look like a tramp - or even more like a whore I suppose. I hadn't realized just how much Steve had cum that second time - or where. My face was literally covered with his cum and there was no mistaking it for what it was. Well I could deal with that easily enough by using wet paper towels to wipe it off of me.

It was another learning experience as what proved to be the most difficult was the mess in my hair! Steve must have shot several loads into my hair and it was already started to congeal. The only comb I could fit in my tiny purse was too small for the job resulting in me struggling with it when another girl walked in. She looked to be in her late teens or early twenties and her reaction was considerably different than the old lady's had been.

"Yeah, it can be a bitch to get out, " she said with a knowing smile on her face. Dear God! How did she know what I'd been doing! She continued, "My advice: wait until you get home and then a hot shower and lots of shampoo - only way to get it all out." She then took a closer look at me and asked, "Whoa, just how old ARE you anyway?"

I mean really, what was I supposed to say? I didn't answer but instead just smiled sheepishly back at her. I thanked her for her advice and left her behind in the restroom. Once back in my seat I saw that Steve had his shorts all zipped and buckled back up with quite a look of self-satisfaction on his face. In the dark he didn't notice my matted hair but then he was a guy and probably wouldn't have even if the lights had been on! We watched what little was left of the movie but I had no idea what was going on. Oh well, who cared? After it was over we went back out to his mother's car.

"Damn Kelly, that was the best blowjob I have EVER had!" he said turning to me after he closed the door. It was nice to finally able to talk in a normal tone of voice.

I smiled back at him, a bit proud of myself but also pleased that I'd satisfied him. I'm sure he was exaggerating a little but he wouldn't have said that if I hadn't done well. I would've loved to have blown him again right then and there. Like wow, blowjobs were FUN! Still, I didn't want him to think I was some kind of nympho so I held myself back. He offered to buy me something to eat but I asked him to take me home. What I really needed now was a hot shower and there was no way I was going to walk into any local restaurant with his cum all congealed in my hair! Maybe none of the guys would notice but I really didn't feel like dealing with some snooty waitress treating me like I was some kind of teenage whore. Steve reluctantly agreed and dropped me off after parking at the top of our driveway. We kissed before I got out of the car and I patted his crotch playfully.

"Now be a good boy and I promise to take care of him again next time," I teased Steve. Steve just grinned at me and said, "Well, he's available now!"

I just smiled and shook my head. One thing I was learning quick about sucking cock was that it gave me total control over him. I had a feeling things were going to be different now between me and Steve. It wasn't like it was anything bad, I just knew I was going to have more say in our relationship than I had up until now if he wanted his dick sucked. He didn't have to know I wanted to do it as badly as he wanted me to suck him!

3. Back Home With Mom

Walking back into the house I found my mom waiting anxiously for me in the kitchen. She was wearing just a bra and panties, her usual nighttime outfit although for the life of me I never could understand why she didn't just take the bra off around the house and wear something more comfy. She took one look at me and grinned, shaking her head at the same time.

"Well, I was going to ask how things went but between that nasty grin on your face and the mess in your hair I guess it's pretty obvious," she laughed, "Well, I warned you that I would want to hear all about it so spill it girl!"

Feeling so proud of myself I sat down across the table from her and told her everything that happened as best as I could remember. She laughed at me when I got to the part where he was spraying his cum all over me.

"Oh Kelly, why in the world did you let him do that?" she admonished me, "Especially in your HAIR for goodness sake."

I shrugged my shoulders as I really didn't have a good excuse. Not like I'd planned it that way or anything. I'd learned my lesson though. From now on I would swallow or at least get my head out of the way! Then I noticed something else... "Mom! What ARE you doing?" I teased her. Sure enough, my mom was touching herself under the table with her hand down inside her panties while she listening to me! It was so cool to know my own mother was getting turned on listening about how her daughter had sucked her first cock. Well, if she liked THAT then I could only imagine how she would be when someday I told her how I lost my virginity!

She just shrugged with an "oh well" expression so I kissed her on the cheek and left her to finish herself off. It would've been interesting to know what she was thinking about. As it turned out she wasn't the only one turned on from my recollection of the evening. I'd fully intended to take a shower first thing but the process of recalling my erotic evening for my mom had left me horny so for the next half hour or so I masturbated on my own bed. Eventually I got around to taking a shower.

By the way... the girl at the theater was wrong. Shampoo really doesn't work all that well!

chosen to wear one), I would wonder why mine couldn't look like more like hers. Life certainly wasn't fair!

Considering Steve hadn't given me so much as the time of day over the weekend I was almost speechless when he called about a week later and asked me if I would like to go out with him. Thank goodness we were on the phone so he couldn't see my face flush beet red with excitement. Of course I accepted his invitation without hesitation. I'd been out with groups of friends and gone to parties with some guys in my class but nothing that really constituted a "date", especially with a boy as old, not to mention smoking hot as Steve.

Steve took me to a Fourth of July carnival where we had all sorts of fun on the rides and playing games. I was a little worried that he didn't so much as hold my hand. Considering his reputation it made me wonder if he thought maybe I was too immature. Later that night though, as we laid huddled under a blanket watching the fireworks I felt a boy's hands on my chest for the very first time. My heart was racing as he reached down into my halter top and played with my boobs. It was even more exciting considering we were doing it in the middle of a crowded field packed with families and others there to watch the fireworks. Certainly nobody had any idea of the fireworks going off inside of me as Steve fondled me!

Whether it was because he liked my bubbly personality or I that let him play with my boobs all he wanted, whatever the motivation Steve asked me out a few times after that. Although I let him touch my breasts again that was as far as I'd let him go. Of course I knew he wanted in my pants and I could tell he was getting frustrated more and more each time when I'd push his hand away from my jeans or shorts. From the look on his face and the tone of his voice when he dropped me off at home I began to worry that maybe he wouldn't call me again if I didn't start putting out like the other girls he dated.

Although I was the one responsible for keeping him at bay, to be honest I wanted to go further around the bases just as much if not more as he did. Here I was, fourteen with hormones raging. I'd started masturbating a few years ago and my mother often commented wryly about how often I was doing it but it was nothing like what I was doing after I started dating Steve. OMG, I was fingering myself every night and usually a couple of times during the day as I'd dream of his hands exploring me, touching me all over. My attention was especially drawn to a large bulge in his pants that magically appeared whenever we were making out. There were times when it took every ounce of willpower for me not to reach over and unzip his jeans, freeing what I was sure was the most marvelous cock in the world. The problem was simple in that while I was hot and horny, at the same time I couldn't help but be a bit scared. Like every girl in school, including his sister Sharon, I knew Steve was certainly no virgin. In fact, the guy had quite the reputation for putting the moves on every girl he dated as verified by my best friend Beth. It was also well known that girls who didn't put out didn't get to date him for long. I'd never even so much as touched a boy down there (well, actually I had once a long time before but that was a totally different thing) and I was deathly afraid I'd embarrass myself by not being as good as the older girls he'd been having sex with.

Of course in my dreams as I masturbated I was giving Steve head and riding his cock as well if not better than those whores in the porn movies my dad loved to watch. I would lay in bed at night and finger myself while squeezing what boobs I had as I dreamed of how Steve's swollen dick would feel in my mouth. It was hard enough to imagine that, let alone how would it be like to feel him in my pussy. I'd push my finger as deep inside of me as my hymen would let me, then two and even three, wondering if his cock would feel the same way. My eyes would close and my hips would raise up off the bed as I came while dreaming that it was Steve's dick inside of me filling me with his hot teenage sperm until my pussy overflowed and it drained down my butt and soaked into the sheets under me.

What was sort of funny was I think my mom got more of a kick out of my "problem" than anything. In fact she seemed quite amused that since I'd started dating Steve my masturbation time had gone off the chart. Sometimes she would come in my room after I'd finished and we would talk about Steve. We had some long talks about what my first time would be like and what I could do to be better prepared. While she never openly encouraged me to have sex with him, I got the feeling sometimes she wondered what was holding me back. She certainly never discouraged me!

Finally after lying in bed completely exhausted after yet another entire morning spent in bed masturbating, I decided that I'd held out long enough. Next time I was determined to learn more about what was creating that bulge under those pants - a LOT more! Somehow I didn't think Steve would mind.

For our next date Steve took me to a movie theater and to make a long story short by the time it was over I'd not only touched my first cock, I'd sucked it and swallowed my first load of sperm as well. The swallowing part was more by accident than design. I had him in my mouth when he came without warning and so I ended up with a mouthful whether I really wanted it or not. Even so I think I loved it even more than he did! Some of my girlfriends had already blown their boyfriends and a few of them had complained to me how disgusting their cum tasted. Well, maybe it was just Steve's particular flavor but all I knew was I was addicted to cum from day one. My only regret was I'd waited so long before finding out how great it was.

After that I took advantage of every opportunity to suck Steve's magical cock. We often did it in my bedroom, even while my parents were home. It wasn't liked they cared but Steve didn't know that they knew exactly what we were doing and that I would tell them about it afterwards. Maybe it was best he didn't know as he seemed to really get off knowing that my parents were right below us while he was stroking his dick in and out of my mouth.

The more I sucked my boyfriend's dick the more I found myself dreaming about what it would be like to have him fuck me with it. One thing I knew for sure was that there wouldn't be any problems getting Steve to do it. He had made it clear many times that he wanted to fuck me sooner than later. Again, I was starting to get the feeling that I might lose him if I didn't put out more.

2. The Great Debate

Under the circumstances I knew it was just a matter of time before we did IT but it WAS a big step for me and I didn't want to rush into it until I was absolutely sure. I mean when you come down to it, sucking cock is no big thing really. Heck, if anything I was probably one of the last in my tight circle of friends to do it. Unlike a BJ though, letting Steve fuck me would mean I was having SEX, something that most of my friends were NOT doing although a couple had started already. Beth was the first of our group to do it and Steve had been the one to take her virginity so it was sort of ironic that I was looking to have him take mine as well.

Another thing I had to take into consideration was that while most people didn't take blowjobs seriously, once a girl gets a reputation for REALLY putting out she's immediately tagged with the title "slut". Based on his reputation I had to assume that if I let Steve fuck me that he would promptly go out and do what he did after fucking all of the other girls and tell his friends about it - who would likely tell all of their friends. Not to mention that I knew full well how the girls at school talked about other girls who were "easy" and I wasn't so sure I wanted them talking about ME that way. Then again I had to admit that it sort of turned me on to think that

Hey baby girl, what's the problem?" she asked as she rubbed the sleep from her eyes. My mom worked shifts as a nurse at the hospital but she'd gotten a good night's sleep and was just being lazy so I didn't feel guilty waking her to discuss something so important.

"Oh Mom, I just don't know what to do," I started out. No sense beating around the bush so I just asked her straight out saying, "Steve wants to fuck me and I don't know if I should let him."

My mom just chuckled, rolling her eyes and then she asked, "Well Kelly, EVERY teenage boy wants to do his girlfriend so what makes this situation any different? You know you don't have to do anything you're not comfortable with."

Well she had me there. My mom had a knack for drilling straight to the core of an issue and in this case she asked the exact question that was nagging me.

"You know Kelly, I think the question you should be asking yourself is do YOU want him to fuck you?"

I flopped over onto my back and thought for a moment. "Well I guess I do," I answered albeit rather lamely.

My mom frowned at me. "What do you mean you GUESS you do? This is quite a decision for you to make so you better not just be guessing."

Of course my mom was right, wasn't she always? In reality I knew the answer, I just needed her confirmation. Taking a deep breath I responded with, "OK, I WANT Steve to fuck me."

My mom turned on her side to face me and leaned up on her elbow at that and smiled at me knowingly. "Ahhhhhh, I see what's going on here. It's not really about Steve, is it? I think someone's just horny and wants to get laid. It's not like it hasn't been obvious to your dad and me the past few weeks since you started blowing the boy."

Believe it or not I blushed! I'd never been shy about masturbating in front of my parents but I hadn't really given thought to how much more I'd been doing it recently. Why hadn't they said anything before now?

My eyes involuntarily glanced downward, my body language betraying me and she knew she had me cornered so she continued, "You know, there are two ways to give up your virginity. You can either give it to someone who loves you and respects you or you can give it away just for the sake of having sex. Somehow I think you just want to get laid. Am I right?"

"Well...," I stammered. I hadn't planned on putting it quite THAT way but essentially she was right. How do mother's read minds anyway? Still it wasn't quite THAT bad, was it? Sure I was horny but I DID want to be respected after all.

"Oh don't try denying it, that's just part of being a normal teenage girl," she consoled me, putting her hand gently on my arm, "I'm just surprised you've been blowing him this long without doing it already."

Blushing again, I bit my lower lip nervously as she continued, "Actually, I'd be a lot more concerned as your mother if you came in here and tried to tell me that you did NOT want to have sex. It's perfectly natural to want it, especially with all the changes you're going through now. The only question I DO have to ask is, do you really want this particular boy to be your first?"

I looked at her quizzically, wondering where she was going with this. Of course I wanted Steve to be the one, who else?

"What I'm trying to say Kelly, is do you want to just give away your virginity to some horny high school boy who simply wants to add you to his scorecard? Have you ever considered that maybe there might be someone else out there who wants your virginity who might be more concerned about YOU than just getting laid, someone who loves you?"

I shook my head in total confusion. Sometimes my mom could be a little too philosophical for me and this was definitely one of those times. Like I had absolutely no idea what the heck she was talking about! I mean like who did I know that loved me AND wanted to fuck me? I may have been fourteen and horny but I wasn't so naive as to think for one minute that Steve loved me in a romantic sense. I mean, we enjoyed each other and had some good times and I knew he loved me blowing him. Even so was under no delusions that if I stopped putting out for him that he would drop me like a hot potato. Of course my parents loved me but not like THAT! Was she hinting that maybe I should wait then for someone else?

I looked at my mom with a questioning face but she dropped that line of discussion without further explanation apparently realizing that I hadn't a clue what she was talking about.

Note by Kelly: It wasn't until a couple of years later that I recalled this conversation and the proverbial light bulb went off brightly over my head. To this day I wish she'd have explained it to me better but at the same time I understand that she felt she was protecting me at the time by not revealing anything. Of course now I know that she was talking about my own father! She knew he loved me and wanted to be my first but they had a pact that if anything like that ever happened it would only be because I initiated on my own, without any encouragement from either of them. Had she told me it would have been a shock for sure as I had no clue he felt that way about me. At the same time I loved my dad and adored him as my father so I would've gladly given myself to him if that's what he wanted. As it was it would be two more years before I learned the truth. Oh well, I guess better late than never although I will feel guilty about it for the rest of my life.

In the meantime my mind was focused on Steve so her cryptic suggestion went in one ear and out the other and I didn't give it any further thought. OK, I'm a brunette so no blonde jokes about it being a clear path from one to the other!

"Well then Kelly, if you're all set on it being Steve then all I can say then is that I hope you have enough common sense to use protection. I'll be happy to take you to your doctor next week if you're really serious about this," my mom said. "I guess I should've seen this coming and had you in with her already."

Pardon me if I explain the obvious.... she meant that I should go on the pill BEFORE I started having sex. My heart sank at that as even if I got started immediately it would be at least a couple of months before it was 100% effective. She probably had thought that since I'd waited over fourteen years for this then what was another two months? Well SIXTY days, that's what and I didn't want to wait sixty days. At the same time I knew better than to argue with her. There were some things my mom and I just didn't agree on and I guess this was going to be one of them.

We hugged after that and as always I felt so secure in her warm embrace. The warmth of my mom's nude body against mine always made me feel close to her in a way nothing else did. At times like this I really appreciated that we could be so open with one another. I remembered how as little girl I would crawl in bed with my mom seeking her love and attention like a little puppy. She would stroke the backs of her fingertips all over me and run her fingers though my hair, soothing and relaxing me while at the same time goose bumps rose all over me. There was just something about being with her that way that felt so natural, like it was meant to be. Then we kissed as only a mother and daughter can. It felt so natural, so right to kiss my mom especially after sharing our most intimate secrets and thoughts.

"OK then, I really don't know what else to tell you baby," my mom said, rolling over on her back after we finally parted, stretching her bare arms out as she tried to

As often was the case with Sharon, her convoluted logic escaped me. "But Sharon, he's my boyfriend so of course I want him to fuck me. Steve's your BROTHER for goodness sakes. Ewwwww, like that would be incest!"

Sharon didn't seem to even hear what I was saying. Then again I didn't have a brother so I guess I couldn't say really how I would feel in her shoes, especially if I had an older brother as sexy as Steve. Still, for her to fuck her own brother would be like having my own dad fuck me. Ewwwww... So weird!

Sharon shrugged like it was no big deal and maybe it wasn't. "Well, it's not like he ever would. Shit, he won't even look at me when I'm naked."

As tempting as it was to pursue that line of thought I didn't go there so I was left wondering when Sharon was letting her own brother see her nude. If you asked me Steve seeing his sister naked was no different than my dad seeing me nude but Sharon's family was a LOT more conservative than mine. Probably the last thing I would EVER expect would be to see them all naked together.

Then I had another thought. Maybe Sharon was actually living vicariously through me which would explain why she insisted that I tell her every detail after a date with her brother. She especially seemed interested when I would describe how his dick look and tasted. As my only close friend with her virginity intact I just assumed she was curious about boys in general. Oh well, if things went as I was planning she was REALLY going to be horny when I told her about what we did later today. A naughty idea came to me then and I picked up the phone while I watched for Steve to arrive. I dialed a familiar number and Sharon answered.

"Hi Sharon... do you know where your sexy brother is?" I asked her in a teasing tone.

"Noooooo," she replied, "Ummmmm.... something I should know about?"

I giggled like the schoolgirl I was and teased her again. "Well he's on his way over to my house right now and guess what I'm gonna let him do to me?"

A gasp was clearly audible from on the other end of the line. "No! You're not gonna let him... or are you?"

All I could do was giggle even more and Sharon got the message loud and clear. "Damn you Kelly, that's not fair!"

Just then I heard Steve knocking and so I said, "Sorry girlfriend, he's here. I'll call you after he leaves... AFTER your horny brother fucks me!"

Before she could answer I hung up the phone feeling positively naughty for teasing my boyfriend's sister so badly. Grinning, I wondered if she would be house yet I was shivering with excitement. As tightly as he was holding me, surely he must feel the beating of my heart as it raced with anticipation. God I wanted him so bad! At that moment I felt a hunger for him, almost an animal-like lust like I was a female animal in heat begging to have my urges met in the only way they could be truly satisfied. Even in my wildest masturbation fantasies I'd never felt so horny. It was like if Steve didn't fuck me and fuck me soon I was going to explode!

Fortunately Steve seemed just as anxious and restless as me. Finally, he must have been thinking, I was ready to put out for him! I could see his crotch bulging with the surging of his dick as it hardened with lust for me. Neither of us uttered a word, instead letting our hands, lips and tongues do the talking. Steve kept his arms around me and began to rub my back, working his way under my T-shirt onto my bare back as our kissing became even more passionate and unrestrained. Then he gradually worked his hand around until finally he was caressing me just under my boobs. My sexual desire overwhelmed me and I couldn't take his slow pace anymore so I held his hands and moved them up onto my tiny breasts.

"Touch me Steve," I whispered fervently, "I want you to touch me all over my body. You can touch me anywhere... everywhere. Today you can do anything you want with me Steve... anything!"

Steve didn't answer verbally but instead began to massage my boobs slowly as my heart raced even faster. Finally he grew frustrated with the T-shirt so he raised my arms and then pulled it up and over my head, tossing it to the living room carpet in a heap which left me now totally nude in the process. It was the first time I'd ever been nude with anyone other than my family (not counting the school locker room). We'd been almost nude before so it wasn't like it was the first time he'd seen most of my naked body yet there was something different this time, something more sensual... more erotic. Maybe because we each knew that this time there no bounds, no limits, no saying "no".

Steve stood there smiling widely as he took a good long look at my little breasts with their rock hard nipples poking out at attention. Despite myself, as always I was shy at first and started to pull away, worried that he would think my breasts were too small. Steve had been through this with me before though and so he knew what was bothering me.

"Don't worry Kelly, they're beautiful," he assured me, "Besides, look at how they fit perfectly in my hand. Now stop worrying about them! They're perfect... just perfect."

"Oh Steve, it feels so good when you touch them like that!" I sighed, head leaning back as I closed my eyes and concentrated on nothing but his hands on my sensitive boobs.

I loved to play with my boobs when I was alone, sometimes even when I'm not, but somehow whenever Steve touched them it just felt so much better, like a completely different experience. We sat down on the couch and Steve leaned over and gently kissed my neck and then worked his way down until he reached the gentle swell of my breasts and then even lower until he was sucking on my nipples. It made me tingle from head to toe as I closed my eyes again and thought of nothing but how good he was making me feel.

"That's it Steve, suck them... bite them gently... that's it... pull on my nipples with your teeth." It felt so good that my back arched involuntarily and a sexual moan escaped from my lips. "Now do the same to my other breast... give it some attention too."

His tongue swirled around my hard nipples as he sucked on both of my breasts. Alternating between them, he grabbed the nipples between his teeth and pulled on them, stretching them out and then releasing them to snap back, making me groan out louder each time. His hands squeezed them together, pushing them out and making them look so much bigger than they really were as his mouth went back and forth between them.

"Oh god Steve! Don't stop... PLEASE don't stop!"

I could see his dick pushing into me through his jeans, wanting to be set free as Steve used his talented mouth on my boobs. Then he stood up again and we kissed, allowing me to feel his dick against me like a hard piece of wood pressing into me and driving into my flesh. God he was so hard! Yes, he wanted me! Yes, Steve wanted to fuck me! I knew this more certainly than I could possible know anything else. And best of all... I wanted him too. I wanted Steve to fuck me more than anything else in the world right then.

"Fuck me Steve," I said breathlessly, "Please fuck me... Oh god Steve, I want you to fuck me so bad!"

There, I'd finally said it! The words spilled from my mouth like I was channeling some spiritual prostitute. Even though I heard them I almost couldn't believe I'd actually said them. It was like a dam had been broken inside of me, releasing my pent up lust in a flood of emotions generated by hours of masturbation and fantasy. It had been building up inside of me as I had waited so long for this moment to making him horny with a willing pussy anxiously waiting to bring him to orgasm. Oh my God his cock was so stiff! Sure I'd seen my dad's big and stiff when he was masturbating but Steve's seemed to be even harder and bigger than my dad's. Of course at the time I was a little biased as I couldn't wait for Steve's to be inside of me!

My mouth literally watered as I realized that unlike my dad, who was probably getting off to thoughts of Amanda Tapping on StarGate when he masturbated, Steve was hard because of ME. All I could think about was what I wanted to do with his cock, how badly I wanted to suck it and then have him drive it deep inside of me for the very first time. I could feel his stiff dick pressing against me again as he looked me in the eyes, only this time it was his flesh against my flesh with no jeans separating him from me. He moved up until he was kneeling next to my head with his incredible cock pressing against my cheek.

"Suck it Kelly," he whispered, "Show me how badly you want to suck my dick."

It really wasn't a surprise as he always loved watching me. Steve moved back a bit to make room for my hand as I reached out and grasped his swollen cock. With all the practice I'd had sucking him lately I knew just what to do to make him feel good. Lovingly I moved my fingers around him and caressed his cock up and down the smooth shaft. Lifting my head up I pulled a pillow under it to support me as I started by licking him softly with my tongue. He was totally rock hard and so sensitive such that the slightest touch caused his cock to jump. Mmmmmmm, I loved it when it jumped and moved by itself like it had a mind of its own! Then I took just the tip into my mouth, barely covering it with my wet lips. Ever so slowly I started to go down deeper on him, taking his cock into my mouth just a little bit and then pulling back, each time going a little farther down his smooth shaft. Mmmmmmm, he tasted so good and I loved the musky scent of his male sex! Finally I was able to take his whole cock in my mouth without gagging and was stroking him as fast as I could move my head up and down.

"Oh god Kelly!" he groaned, "You do that so good... Damn that feels incredible when you do that!"

It wasn't really surprising that my technique suited him perfectly. After all, my only blowjob experience was with his cock so my technique had developed to match up exactly to what he wanted. I'd never asked Steve how I compared to other girls that had sucked his cock before but he seemed to enjoy what I did. Every time I blew Steve, when I was finished I felt like I learned a little something to make it better the cum. Of course, it never hurt when he announced it as he liked to do sometimes! Realizing he was about to cum I almost stopped out of fear that if he did then he might not be able to fuck me right away afterwards. Then I remembered talking to his sister Sharon about just this very thing a few days earlier. Sharon couldn't help but laugh when I asked her what I should do if this were to happen.

"Oh just enjoy it Kelly!" she had said, shaking her head at me, "Sometimes I really have to wonder about you. Trust me, I've seen him stay hard after masturbating three times in a row and he has a hell of a reputation with his older girlfriends for his ability to keep on going forever. Don't worry, my horny brother is a fucking machine. You're SOOOO lucky! God I wish I knew how to convince him to fuck me!"

Of course at the time she laughed when she said it so I'd assumed she was just teasing me and not serious, at least the part about wishing her brother would fuck her. Well, I guess I'd been a little na‹ve.

With this tidbit of knowledge on my side I held his balls gently in my hand as I sucked his cock and felt him swelling ever so slightly larger in my mouth. It wasn't something I could actually see but in my mouth it was more noticeable. Steve started to groan which was a sure sign of an impending explosion.

"Oh yeah Kelly, I'm cumming!" he grunted loudly, giving voice to his impending orgasm.

Steve used both hands to hold my head firmly on his cock as his hips suddenly bucked forward, driving his erupting cock as deeply into my mouth as he could. The first load of cum emerged from his cannon, splashing against the back of my throat. This was the moment I loved best when I sucked him, feeling him release himself into my mouth, discharging his manhood onto my tongue and down my throat. I kept sucking and sucking him as he released the last of his sperm, drawing every drop from him that I could while ensuring he maintained his erection. I wasn't through with this beautiful cock today, not by a long shot! When he'd finished I let his cock slip from my mouth with an audible plop and ran my tongue around my teeth and gums, savoring the flavor of his potent sperm.

Did I ever mention I LOVE to suck Steve's cock?

of me. From the way his cock was sticking out like a tree trunk from his crotch, he was thoroughly enjoying the raunchy show I was putting on for him.

The idea of masturbating FOR Steve continued to dominate my thoughts. As I just mentioned, I'd masturbated with my parents around for years so it wasn't the first time anyone had seen me masturbate by any means. However, it WAS the first time anyone had deliberately watched me masturbated, definitely an important distinction. It was like me seeing my dad masturbating. I knew he was doing it but once I got used to it I never really stared at him doing it and besides, he was never seemed interested in me that way either when I did it with him around. After all, why would a father be interested in watching his own daughter playing with herself? I was raised that masturbation was a normal release and nothing to be ashamed of. Why should anyone have to skulk to their bedroom or bathroom just to do it?

For me it was incredibly erotic to have someone actually staring at my pussy as my fingers touched my clit and pushed into it for him to see. I don't know what was turning me on more, the touch of my hands on myself or the feeling of his eyes boring holes into my pussy. Actually, this was one of my mom's suggestion for me when I was about to have sex for the first time. She'd told me that the wetter and hornier I was before he fucked me then the easier it would be when he first penetrated me. Well, I was as soaking wet and horny as I'd ever been so I guess that meant one thing - I was primed and ready to be fucked for the very first time by my boyfriend! I glanced at the door for a moment, forgetting that my parents weren't home. I wondered if they had been if my mom or dad would have wanted to watch their daughter at this special time in her life. I would've been proud for them to see how grown up their little girl was now! Oh well, maybe later?

Those thoughts were quickly forgotten when I looked at Steve and gave him a sexy smile. I gently rubbed my pussy and said, "Did you know Steve that when I did this in bed last night I was thinking of you? I was dreaming of you touching me like this when I came."

While I continued to touch myself slowly and deliberately, Steve's eyes were fixed on my pussy and I don't think he was even blinking at this point. It made me feel good that he was stroking his cock with one hand as I knew he was as anxious to fuck me as I was for him to do it. As much as I wanted him in me though, at this moment I couldn't bear the thought of taking my hand off me... not just yet at least. I was soooooo close!

"Ohhhhhh Steve!" I moaned loudly, closing my eyes as I felt my pussy begin to surge under my fingers. It was like a bomb had been set off inside my pussy, exploding inside of me and releasing a flood of pleasure unlike anything else in the world as it quickly spread thought out my entire body. I squeezed my eyes shut, flashes of light lit up in the dark as my orgasm wracked my body from head to toe.

"I'm cumming Steve... Oh god I'm cumming!"

My legs pulled up to my chest as I rocked back and placed my palm over my throbbing pussy, pulling myself back as my hand pressed on my lightning hot pussy. My chest felt like it was on fire, reddening like a beach sunburn as I felt my face and upper chest flush from my orgasm. I put my other hand over the first, gripping on my crotch, pulling back on it to drive me into an ever deeper orgasm.

Slowly I returned to earth from whatever plane of existence I traveled to whenever I experienced an especially good orgasm. Opening my eyes, they focused on Steve who was staring at me with his mouth hanging open, practically drooling at the erotic display right in front of him. My pussy was practically screaming as I eyed his hard dick, now pointing directly at my pussy like some heat-seeking missile waiting to be launched. I pulled my hand from my pussy, curling my finger to indicate I wanted him to come closer to me.

"OK Steve, that's enough of me just dreaming about that dick in me... now I want it for real."

6. Steve Finally takes My Virginity

Do I have to even say it? Apparently not as Steve didn't hesitate for a second. He'd already been with enough girls so there wasn't any worry on either of our parts over what he needed to do. I knew that Beth had been a virgin when he'd first fucked which I thought was pretty cool as now we'd have even more in common as best friends. It wasn't like Steve had never been with a virgin before and who knows how many other girls' maidenheads he'd claimed before hers. I didn't think it really mattered one way or the other - it was MY first time and that was all I cared about. Steve reached out between my spread legs, sliding one of his fingers into my soaking wet pussy and immediately began to move it in and out like he was fucking me with his finger. I instinctively moaned at the touch of his hand on me. Suddenly I knew what I wanted... something that had never been done to me before.

"Lick me Steve. I want you to eat my pussy."

It was probably moot for me to even ask as Steve was already moving between my widespread legs. I used both hands to pull his face down into my fuzzy brown bush. As he reached out with his tongue he easily found my swollen clit and I gasped when his tongue touched me. Oh my god! He swirled around my screaming clit and then stuck his tongue as deep into my pussy as he could reach. When he again took my clit in his mouth he gently bit on it making my entire body suddenly go went rigid with pleasure and I moaned loudly.

"Oh my god Steve... that feels SO good!"

Nobody had ever licked my pussy before and the sensation was incredible! I could see my pussy wetness all over his face as he moved up and down me with his mouth and tongue. He worked his hands under me, each one now holding an ass cheek as he lifted my hips up to press my pussy firmly into his face like he was eating a pussy watermelon. As he ate me I used my hands to massage my boobs, tugging on my hardened nipples, tracing my fingers in small circles around them.

After what seemed a lifetime of this unbelievable pleasure I pulled him up to me and kissed him with my pussy juices fresh on his mouth and cheeks. I loved the taste and smell of myself on his mouth as we kissed. It wasn't the first time I'd tasted myself but it WAS the first time on someone besides myself. He was too anxious though to just make out so he quickly worked his way down back to my crotch, stopping to pay respect to my boobs, kissing my flat stomach yet again which tickling me, and then finally he was back to my starving pussy. I was in ecstasy! Wow, like why hadn't I let him do this to me before today?

I could feel my second orgasm beginning to build, first the tingling sensation in my pussy, then the goose bumps as my body shivered with pleasure, and then suddenly the explosion of pleasure once again from my pussy that quickly spread throughout my entire body like an earthquake. Surges of incredible pleasure pulsed from my pussy, coursing through my body like waves smashing on the beach. I could feel my cum gushing out of me, covering his face with my juices as he eagerly licked up as much as he could.

Simply put, I was in heaven. I was now so horny that any inhibitions that may still have been within me simply disappeared. My pussy was as soaking wet and ready as it would ever be. Out poured the words again that I knew he wanted to hear. I looked Steve square in the eyes and in a firm and unwavering voice I said to him, "Fuck me Steve... fuck me NOW!"

"Just stay like this for a moment please," I said with my teeth gritted, the pain ever so slowly subsiding.

OMG, I'd done it! My virginity was history, never to be recovered. I closed my eyes and concentrated on the unique feeling of being joined physically with another human being. He felt so big in me! It was like I could feel him in my belly! I'd dreamed for so long of this moment and it was everything I'd ever imagined... and so much more. Steve's dick was actually INSIDE of me! It was like we were one body now, joined together in the most intimate act a boy and girl can perform.

"OK... keep going," I whispered huskily as I finally reached the point where the pain was being overridden by the pleasure of his cock inside of me.

Without another word Steve began to fuck me. I saw that there was a little blood on his cock as he pulled out for another thrust and then began to stroke himself slowly in and out of me. I tensed up as he fucked me. As much as I wanted it to feel good I couldn't ignore the return of the searing pain as his cock rubbed against what was essentially an open wound inside of me.

As painful as it was to give up my virginity, at the same time there was a sensation of pleasure that began to rise to counter the pain. I have to admit that at the beginning pain was winning out by a wide margin. Then as my boyfriend continued to thrust inside of me, stimulating me as only a real cock in your pussy can, pleasure began to gain on pain and finally took the lead. Even so, it wasn't like the pain just surrendered and disappeared, it was just masked by the incredible new sensations his dick was producing inside of me. When he was buried inside of me it was like I just had to stop and allow my mind catch up to my body. He'd fucked me for a few minutes when I felt like I needed to just take a moment to yet again try and absorb what was all happening to me.

"Just hold it still in me Steve. Let me just feel your cock in me for a moment," I whispered.

It wasn't later when I was telling my parents about it that I realized how wonderful Steve reacted in that moment. They both seemed surprised that Steve had the willpower to stop at that point. I remember my mom nodding to my dad, commenting on how it was best for a girl to be with a boy who had done it before. I'm sure had it been Steve's first time he would have just kept fucking me until he came without any concern for my feelings.

"Are you OK Kelly?" Steve asked with a look of concern on his face.

"Your dad said to hurry up here but you're not even dressed!" my mom laughed, "Goodness sakes Kelly, what's gotten into you?"

I burst into laughing when she said that. It was the perfect question to respond to whether she realized it or not!

"Steve did," I answered simply.

"What do you mean?" my mom replied. Then it hit her and she reached forward to hug me.

"Oh Kelly baby! That's wonderful!"

She turned to my dad and smiled. "So our little girl is all grown up now." Then She sat down next to me and put her arm around me.

"Ok then, so tell us everything that happened! And I want details girl."

Neither of them never interrupted me as related the events of the previous day although I knew they both had to be bursting with questions. After their reactions to my telling them about my first blow job, it didn't surprise me when I saw they each were getting turned-on as I described what happened. My mom's face flushed and she subconsciously started to rub her breasts through he blouse, especially when I got to the part when Steve first entered me. My dad of course was busting out of his pants and I was a little surprised when he unzipped them and started to stroke himself in front of me! Wow, my dad was turned on listening to how Steve fucked me. Hmmmmmm, I could just imagine what he'll think when he gets to watch!

After I finished my dad left - probably to masturbate in their room, leaving me with my mom. Alone, we kissed and hugged, both of us excited over my new status. Then it got a little serious as we discussed birth control. While she hadn't said anything earlier with my dad there, she wasn't exactly thrilled that Steve had cum in me, even if it was just one burst. She promised to get me to the doctor the next day for birth control pills. Then she gave me another hug and we kissed for several minutes before she stood up to leave. The smile on her face was priceless! I hadn't seen my mother this happy in quite a while.

When she reached the door she turned to me and said, "Oh Kelly, I can't tell you how proud I am of you. Your dad and I were just talking about you last night, wondering if you would do it. Well, I guess you don't have to rely on masturbation now!"

With that she left and I reached for the phone to call Sharon. I couldn't wait to tell her what her brother had done to me! Then I put the phone back down. Nope, this was one time I wanted to see her reaction. She was going to be so jealous!

Postscript

Although I've been with literally hundreds of men and quite a few women since my first time, this was a day that I will remember and treasure for the rest of my life. Steve was the only boy I had sex with until his family moved away later in the school year and we lost touch shortly afterwards. Who knows, maybe if they hadn't moved away I might have stuck with him and not have become the slut I was? Can't say I regret what I did but just a thought...

After his family moved I was sure I'd never see him again but God works in mysterious ways. Remarkably more than ten years later his mom was transferred back to Pittsburgh and Steve chose to move back with her. To make a long story short, we reconnected, got married and now have two wonderful daughters. I think it's so romantic that I can tell people that I married my first love!

Besides the short shorts, on top I was wearing my favorite black stretch tube halter. As small as my boobs were it didn't have to be very wide so it was almost more like a headband stretched around my chest to keep my nipples covered. I liked this one especially because it was thin enough to allow my nipples to easily poke through. Best of all it was could easily be pulled up or down to get out of the way while just as easy to get back in place in a hurry of needed. In other words... the perfect top for an occasional flash. For better or worse I didn't wear a bra although sometimes on dates I wore one just to give my new boyfriend something to play with. Plus, it goes back to the allowing him something that he "shouldn't".

Along the way we were forced to stop and wait to cross a busy four-lane road. The road we were on were small with little traffic so a stoplight wasn't apparently deemed necessary. Well, whoever made THAT stupid decision should be sentenced to cross this road every day! As usual, the traffic on the four-lane was terrible this time of day and without a stoplight it was looking like it would be a bit before we had an opportunity to hurry across. Steve, never one to pass up an opportunity of his own, took a quick glance around. Seeing nobody was nearby he pulled up right next to me and the next thing I knew I felt his hand slide between my barely covered butt and the bike seat. I couldn't help but wiggle a little in response to his hand as he started running his finger along my crotch.

"Steve! People can see us you horny jerk!" I said, pretending to be annoyed while secretly turned on.

Steve knew by now that his new girlfriend loved it when he touched her "inappropriately" no matter where we were. In fact, I thought it was fun when we fooled around in public and people would stare at us as if they simply couldn't believe what we were doing. Some, especially the older women, would frown and shake their heads in disgust but most of the guys didn't seem to mind the show. I imagined more than a few went home with bruises on their sides from their wives' stiletto elbows when they were busted for looking at us! Although my mom wasn't exactly thrilled by my new thirst for erotic PDA (Public Displays of Affection), she knew better than to tell me to stop as all that would do is encourage me do it all the more!

"Who cares?" he replied with a grin, using his free hand to motion to the constant flow of traffic in front of us, "Just a bunch of horny guys heading home from work. Besides, they're going sixty miles an hour. Even if they do see us, why not give 'em something to think about?"

I shook my head in mock despair but at the same time I wasn't exactly doing anything to discourage him from groping me. As they say, actions speak louder than words! If anything I leaned even further forward and lifted myself off the seat just enough to make it easier for him to feel me up. My little movements didn't go unnoticed as Steve responded by slipping his hand even further under my butt, cupping my crotch as his fingers pressed against my pussy. Just as I started to wonder just how far he was would go I got my answer when one of his fingers started working its way under the crotch of my shorts until I felt it sliding into my pussy! I was pretty wet already from the anticipation and so he slid easily up inside of me. It was only just up to his first knuckle or so but more than enough for me to feel it in me.

"Steve!" I exclaimed, genuinely a little concerned now, "C'mon, you can't do THAT! Besides, there's someone behind us now!"

Indeed, he may not have noticed with his fixation on my butt but a huge black SUV had just appeared behind us.

"So what? You know you love it you little slut!" Steve said as he pushed his finger even further up into me. "Hmmm, somebody's horny!" he laughed as he felt the wetness of my pussy on his finger.

Yes, I WAS horny but there was still that big black SUV which had moved up until it was right behind us. Glancing back I could see that inside was the stereotypical soccer mom with a standard issue two kids and even the family dog. Both of the kids looked to be around ten to twelve years old. Well mom, it's never too early for them to learn about the facts of life! In reality, it wasn't likely that the kids even noticed what Steve was doing to me and even if they did, to them it probably looked like he just had his hand under my ass.

On the other hand (no pun intended!) while the kids may not have had a clue, Soccer Mom knew EXACTLY was going on right in front of her. Steve had been diligently working his finger even deeper into me and it felt so good I couldn't resist moving my rear end up and down just a little. Mmmmmmm, I was literally being fucked by his middle finger right there in the middle of the street! I'm sure anyone looking, including Soccer Mom, would just think he was feeling up my ass. Really, who would ever dream he'd had the nerve to actually finger me?

The sheer naughtiness of what we were doing had me dripping wet and I was thinking I might even cum when Soccer Mom evidently thought that enough was enough. She honked her horn quickly a couple of time to get out attention but it was too late as I really didn't give a hoot what she thought at this point. Heck, it wouldn't have mattered to me at this point if the whole neighborhood was watching. In fact, that would've only made it even better! Steve wasn't so calm as he jumped nervously at the sharp blare of the horn and for a moment it seemed he was going to lose his nerve as he started to pull his finger out of me.

I reached back and grabbed his hand, holding it in place. "Don't you DARE," I scolded him, "You started this you horny jerk so don't even think about stopping now!"

Instinctively I leaned my head back a bit more and moaned loudly as his finger plunged into me once again. There was no need to worry about being quiet as with all the traffic noise nobody was going to hear me anyway. Can you believe it? Good heavens I was actually starting to cum standing over my bike in full view of some bitchy lady and her bratty kids! OK, so maybe they weren't THAT bad but it made me feel hornier thinking they were.

My thoughts were interrupted as Soccer Mom honked at us again, a little longer this time. This time it was probably more out of impatience for us to get out of the way than protesting our little show. Either way, I looked back at her and grinned and wiggled my butt as best I could with Steve hand under me. My reward was a horrified look which simply made me laugh even harder. I was thinking of ways I could show off a little more to the prude but I didn't get the chance as just then the traffic finally cleared. There was no way I was about to move, not being this close, but Soccer Mom hit the gas hard and her tires squealed as if to send a message as she raced around us and somehow merged into traffic without killing anyone.

Later back home I wondered if Soccer Mom told her husband when she got home what she'd seen or least what she THOUGHT she'd seen. Better yet, I would've loved to have known what her kids were asking her about what those two teenagers were doing at the stop sign! "Mommy, why did that boy have his hand on her butt?"

Oh well, that was for later as for now I simply didn't care. My eyes were tightly closed as I focused on nothing but Steve's finger wiggling in me like a worm on a hook. Nobody was behind us now and everyone on the crossroad was flying past too fast to have time to get any real view of what Steve was doing so I used my free hand to reach down and rub my clit through the tight denim material.

"That's it Steve... make me cum," I moaned, trying not to fall over on my bike. I leaned forward, hoping he would press his finger even deeper into me but it was my shorts that were now causing more problems than anything else. Well, I DID set cutoffs rode deep into my pussy slit a little of it would stick out on both sides where the thin strip of denim made a valiant attempt to cover my pussy. Based on Steve's wide eyes it was failing miserably in its duties.

"Oh Stevie boy... see anything you like?" I called out to him in the sexiest tone I could muster.

Judging by the horny grin on his face and the quickly growing bulge in his shorts I could tell he certainly did! Evidently his little head was doing all the thinking for the big head at this point because as soon as he got up close to me he unzipped his shorts and out popped that hard cock I'd grown to love so much in the past month or so. It also had the distinction of being the ONLY cock I'd ever sucked and after Steve had started fucking me I liked to think of it as something that now belonged to me. Mmmmmmm, I loved the sound of that... it might be attached to him but it was MY cock.

Steve wasn't the only one mesmerized. Over the past few weeks I'd come to love Steve's cock almost like it was some sort of personal pet. It was so well trained... always ready and anxious for me to suck it and make it cum whenever I was hungry for it which believe me was quite often! As hard as it was to believe, I'd only started sucking his cock a few weeks ago and the newness of it had not yet even begun to wear off - hopefully it never would. Steve teased me sometimes saying that the only reason I went out with him was because he let me suck his cock whenever I wanted. While I'd laugh as if it was a joke there may have been more truth in that statement than he realized. After all, it's not just guys that date someone just for sex.

"God Kelly, you're such a crazy slut! Well, does this answer your question?" he said, waving his dick around knowing how much that excited me. "Let me guess, is my horny little girlfriend hungry for the real thing now?"

He knew full well I was as grinned broadly. Such a silly question as I was ALWAYS hungry for his wonderful cock and for that matter, just sex in general. Looking at my life at this point it was hard to imagine that barely a month ago I'd been a virgin with no opportunity in sight to remedy that dismal situation. Now it was like I was some sort of sex-crazed nympho, like a sexy rubber band that had been wound up tight over the years and now that I was let loose I couldn't contain myself! What can I say, I LOVE sex and there's no need to apologize for it!

Steve stepped up closer to me so his awesome dick was just an inch or so away from my face. We'd been riding our bikes pretty hard and I could smell the musky combination of sweat and sex which made me only want to taste it even more.

"Dang it Steve, will you just quit teasing me and come closer," I demanded. "Awwwwww, it looks so lonely and cold... do you want me to make it warm and happy?"

Steve certainly didn't need any invitation. By now he knew what I craved and besides he wanted the same thing as badly as I did so while I hung onto the swing to lean forward, he slid his hard cock into my open waiting mouth. My tongue started to wander and tease the tip just the way I knew he liked me to touch him. My tongue moved around him as my lips caressed the bottom ridge of his cock head.

Steve gasped out loud as he always did when he first felt his cock in my mouth. "Oh god Kelly, I can't believe how good you make my cock feel! Ahhhhhh, YES! Suck my dick you fucking little cunt. That's it... lick it just like that!"

OK, so maybe calling me a cunt was getting carried away but I'd complain to him about that later after he'd fucked me. Notice I wasn't thinking IF he fucked me...

Now while I may not have been sucking cock for very long, in my opinion I was already pretty darn good at it. It just goes to show that when you love doing something you learn quickly and I was learning FAST. It didn't hurt having a mother to tutor you at home, not to mention access to your dad's huge porn library where I learned all sorts of tips and tricks from watching the pros at work. It was such kick the way Steve reacted even when he even just thought that I MIGHT suck his cock. Once his dick was in my mouth it was like he was completely under my spell, willing to do anything just to get me to keep his cock in my mouth.

In terms of dick size I guess Steve would have been classified as average. It wasn't like I ever took a tape measure to him but I could get both of my small hands around him like I was choking a baseball bat. My girlfriends all like to talk about cock size and brag about their boyfriends but I really didn't care. Besides, it wasn't like I had all that much to compare being Steve's was the only one I'd ever sucked or been fucked by. In any case Steve's cock was just the right size for me at this age. He was small enough that it was easy for me to take all of him into my mouth without having to deep throat him (I wasn't ready for THAT quite yet), yet large enough to feel nice and big inside of me when he fucked me. I liked to tease him and call it a Goldilocks cock - not too big, not to small, just the right size!

Besides just sucking him I loved to bury my face in Steve's hairy crotch, holding him inside of my mouth and feeling his bushy black pubic hair tickle my cheeks and forehead. Thankfully Steve kept himself clean for me which I appreciated immensely. Mmmmmmm, he always smelled and tasted so good! At this moment I could smell the strong odor of his crotch with him being all sweaty from bike riding which was a bit of a turn-on for me as well.

Steve groaned and started stroking himself in and out as I held my head still for him. It was like he was fucking my mouth as if it was my pussy. Oh yeah, I loved the feel of his pubic hair as it hit me in the face, my mouth pushing against the base of his cock as he thrust forward into me. Steve put both of his hands on the back of my head, pulling me tighter into him as he moved faster and faster.

Letting go of the swing I planted my tiny hands on his firm bare butt, one for each cheek, squeezing his luscious tight teenage boy ass as it clenched each time he pushed himself deep into my mouth. I could always tell when Steve was getting more and more aroused from the way he would start talking dirty to me. The closer he got to cumming, the more he talked and the nastier his vocabulary became.

"That's it Kelly, yeah that's it... Take my big dick in your mouth... God I love fucking your face. You're such a naught slut, just a little fuckin' whore. Damn you look so slutty sucking my big dick!"

He just went on and on, calling me even nastier names and urging me on. It wasn't that long ago when if a guy had called me a slut, let alone a whore or a cunt, I would've been furious. Actually I STILL didn't really care much for the whore and cunt monikers but I knew Steve wasn't really thinking straight whenever we had sex so I just ignored it during those times. Now that I realized how much I loved sex though the slut label took on a whole new meaning to me. If some guy saw me as a slut then I assumed that it meant he thought I was hot and enjoyed sex. Well, I certainly wasn't going to argue with that so now being called a slut had actually become a sort of compliment for me!

Regardless of what Steve might think, the truth was I never did anything with him that I didn't want to. Yep, I was always the one in control, even when I let him THINK he was in control. After all, it was MY sharp teeth surrounding his tender cock! Fortunately for him, right now the thing I wanted most to do was suck his hard dick until it exploded in my mouth so we were both getting what we most desired.

With his lovely erect cock in my mouth I struggled to slip off my shorts but finally worked them off and dropped them to the ground such that I was now sitting with my bare-ass on the ragged swing. There was nobody around and even the closest houses were far enough away that we were hidden from view by the overgrown bushes so it's not like we were in any real danger of being seen. I slid my tube top down from my boobs around my torso and instantly my nipples tingled once that Steve had fucked me four times during one date but really that was the truth!

Steve licked his lips hungrily as he looked at me the way a starving dog would look at a raw T-bone steak. My pussy tingled as I knew what it meant when he looked at me that way. Some girls try to claim they hate it when men look at them as just sexual objects. Oh bull! At times like this I found it incredibly exciting knowing I could drive a man into this frenzied state of mind just by allowing him to look at me naked! If that made me an "object" to him then so what - so long as he fucked me. I knew what Steve wanted before he said it but I still loved hearing him say it...

"So, ready for more you little slut?" he growled at me, "God, you're SUCH a tiny fucking whore! I'm gonna fuck you... and fuck you good like you deserve."

Yep, he was REALLY horny now! I just looked up at him and grinned, the taste of his cum still overloading the taste buds in my mouth. I knew what he wanted and I also knew he loved me to beg for it so I responded, "Oh yeah, lick my tight wet pussy. Please Steve... oh gawd I need it so bad!"

Don't get the idea that this was all just for him. I really DID want it for myself so I grabbed the chains on the swing and leaned back, lifting my tanned bare legs up and spreading them as wide apart as I could. It was about as indecent as a girl could be ? exactly as I wanted. Steve grabbed me by the ankles and draped me feet over his shoulders as he kneeled down and moved in between my smooth thighs. I watched his face while he stared at my fuzzy pussy as if it was the first time he had seen it, licking his lips like a cat hungry for drinking a bowl of milk.

"Damn Kelly, I can never get enough of your pretty pussy. Wow, I love looking at it when it's all fuzzy and wet like this."

The heck with these games! I was getting way too horny to mess around much more. My pussy was throbbing as I waited for his tongue to be on me so I just grabbed his head and started to pull him towards me. "The heck with looking at it Steve! Lick it!"

I pulled his head to my horny crotch where he was only too glad to oblige me. Steve knew by now just where my hot spots were and he started to lick me all over with his wet tongue. He softly grabbed my clit between his teeth, making me almost jump right out of the swing. It was still incredibly sensitive from my second orgasm and it was like an electric shock ran through me when he grabbed it with his lips.

"Oh my god!" I exclaimed, "That feels so damn good! Keep going and don't you DARE stop until I cum!"

Steve continued exploring my pussy with his tongue as my hand reaching down to rub my swollen wet clit. The two of us worked together on my pussy until it was overflowing again with my juices and his spit. His face was wet and I could tell from the grin on his face that he was loving the smell and taste of me. Then I suddenly pushed him away. He looked totally confused but an idea had just come to my mind, a wonderfully naughty one.

"Ok Steve, I know what I want now. I want to ride you while you're on the swing. I want you to fuck me as we swing back and forth!"

Steve got this huge grin on his face. Then he looked around a bit nervously but there was nobody near us.

"Hood grief quit worrying," I admonished him, "I'm sure nobody can see us through all those trees and bushes."

Whether it was true or not really didn't matter to me as all I cared about at that moment was to quench the overwhelming desire in me to feel his dick inside of me! It was starting to get dark anyways so even if someone DID see us they probably would just see our outlines at most.

Besides, did it really matter anyway? As horny as we both were at this point I don't think we would have really cared if there was an audience watching us! As far as I knew nobody but my parents had ever seen us fucking. Of course Steve didn't know they did when we did it or he would have had a cow! As for me, I didn't mind as I knew they just wanted to be sure I was OK.

I stood up and we switched places on the swing. In the process I peeled off my tube top so if anyone should happen to stop by they would've seen me completely naked except for my sneakers. Again, the odds of that happening were really low as nobody ever played here anymore but I still loved the way it made me feel as I stood there all but nude out in the middle of a public schoolyard except for my sneakers. OK, so I knew there were a dozen homes potentially within sight of the playground if they only knew where to look although they might have needed a telescope but who cared?

Steve was naked as well by now as I took all of him in with my eyes, admiring his slim athletic body and the way his hard cock pointed up at the sky like it was a missile ready to blast off. Who cares who could see us? All I could think about was him putting that wonderful cock inside of me as soon as possible, to feel him in me as far as he could push it. I wanted to become one with him, to feel out bodies joined together closer than I'd ever been with anyone else before.

were joined together like interlocking pieces of a sexual puzzle. I squeezed down on him as hard as I could with my pussy and he gasped as my pussy grabbed onto his cock like a vise.

"Fuck Kelly, you're going to flatten my dick if you squeeze any harder!" he protested, as if he really meant it, " Oh man, you're so hot inside! My dick feel like it's on fire!"

I leaned over him and whispered in his ear, "You know Steve, I LOVE the feel of your dick inside my pussy."

Steve just grinned as I wrapped my tanned smooth legs tightly around him, pulling my naked body closer to his. With me planted on his lap like a marshmallow on a stick, Steve started the swing moving back and forth. At the height of each arc I would automatically lift up slightly and then settle back down hard in his lap at the bottom creating a natural stroking rhythm. We kept this up while I rubbed my tiny tits in his face and he sucked my hardened nipples. Wow, this was wild!

As we fucked Steve kept pumping the swing to take us higher and higher. At the peaks I was actually lifting completely off of his lap, sometimes barely keeping his cock from slipping out of me. When we hit the bottom of the arc and started going up I would press down hard on him, driving him deeper with each higher pass. I loved it best though at the top when it felt like I was literally flying with only his cock connecting us together like an astronaut's umbilical cord.

Steve was sucking my nipples harder, pulling my little tits into him when I would move away at the top of the arc. I was feeling incredible and it wasn't long before another orgasm began to well up inside of me like a volcano about to explode.

"Oh yes Steve," I moaned, "Fuck me... yeah fuck me more... fuck me fuck me fuck me fuck me!"

My third orgasm of the day swept through me like a tsunami and my pussy clenched his cock tightly, actually holding me down like an anchor to his lap for the next few peaks. I heard him groaning as I pulled his cock upward, holding onto it with my pussy as tight as I could. Finally I could feel him swelling again as he was getting ready to cum. He looked up at me and I knew he was waiting for me to tell him where to cum. He had been a good boy tonight and I knew what he liked the best and besides, it was what I loved most as well.

"Keep swinging tiger. I want your sperm to fill my pussy. Oh yeah Steve... cum inside of me!"

Even though I was on the pill now my gynecologist had warned me I should still use protection for the first couple of months but at times like this I didn't care what she said. Looking back it's a miracle I never got pregnant considering how many loads of potent teen sperm Steve deposited inside of me. For whatever reason I was lucky and I'm not complaining!

Steve kept swinging and at the top of one arc he finally started to cum. One thing I loved about Steve; it didn't matter if he had just cum a few minutes before, he always seemed to have a reserve load ready to go. If anything this time was a bigger delivery than the first as I felt him pulsing over and over, each time driving himself into me, each time leaving more of himself behind inside of me.

When Steve came it was like someone lit a match inside of me, creating a burst of heat which exploded deep inside of me that glowed for a moment and then slowly died out. When he finished he let the swing slow down until finally it stopped, allowing me lift myself and off of him.

As usual my pussy wasn't exactly thrilled when his invasive cock slipped out of me but it would just have to make do – I wanted to taste his cum again. Kneeling in front of him I eagerly milk his cock to draw out the last drop of his cum and then licking it off the tip of his cock as it came out. Mmmmmmm I loved the taste of his cum, especially when it was spiced with my pussy. It was hard to believe that just a few weeks ago I'd grimaced when his I took his cum after my first blowjob and now look at me, I was a regular cum slut! I looked up at him with my mouth open, my tongue sticking out to show him his gooey cum sticking to it.

"Damn you look like such a nasty little slut when you do that," he sighed, "I just love it when you wear my cum on you! Oh Kelly, you're fucking incredible!"

"Mmmmmmm, well I just happen to love your cum," I whispered back to Steve, "Did you know I can feel it in me sometimes when you cum?"

Steve smirked but I think it turned him on. By now it was almost completely dark and I'd been due home over a half hour ago. We dressed quickly and headed off for home. When I got back my dad caught me coming in and walked over to where I was putting my bike away. He looked over my outfit, seeming to take a special interest in the wet spot between my legs where Steve's cum had been draining on my way home.

Of course my dad knew full well what Steve and I had been doing so it wasn't like he was overly surprised or anything. Looking me over a little closer than usual, he smiled at me and shook his head slowly. As he returned to the family room and looked like naked. Besides, I was just modeling it for him so he could take some pictures of me, not like I was seducing him or anything kinky or weird.

Looking around at the other girls, I couldn't help but feel sorry for one girl who had brought along her cotton shortie pajamas! I felt even worse for her when she turned beet red after she saw what the rest of us were wearing, muttering something about how she thought it was supposed to be a "pajama" party. Sharon was such a sweet host! She went over and hugged her and then told her not to worry after which she went to her dresser and pulled out one of her spare nighties for the poor girl to wear. Even though it was one of her more conservative ones her friend seemed to appreciate the offer. Peer pressure amongst teenage girls can be a powerful force!

Once we'd changed we ran around the house for the rest of the night in nothing but our nighties. Even Sharon's mom got in on the act and I had to say, she looked pretty hot. Hers wasn't as sheer as most of ours but it was made of smooth satin that outlined her breasts like it was Saran Wrap such that her nipples were plainly popping through. Fortunately she still had the figure to look good in it so it wasn't gross or anything like that. Usually she was so conservative! So I was a little surprised she would wear something so revealing. Not that it mattered around us, but Steve and his younger brother were home as well.

Speaking of whom, even though Steve was home it didn't seem to bother anyone, certainly not me or Sharon or even her mom apparently! Most young teenage girls are natural flirts anyway and we all had a great time finding new ways to tease the poor boy. Knowing Steve as intimately as I now did, I was pretty darn sure he was getting hornier by the minute which was just fine with me as I knew it meant he was going to be good and ready to fuck me the next time we were alone. I even found myself starting to rub myself at one point when I was thinking about him but managed to catch myself before anyone noticed. It was one thing to masturbate openly at home where nobody cared but quite another to do it in front of a bunch of girls my age, most of whom I didn't even know all that well.

At one point Steve pulled me aside and whispered in my ear, "Damn Kelly, seeing all you girls in those see-thru nighties is driving me crazy. Shit, I don't know how much of this I can take. I think my fucking balls are gonna explode!"

For just an instant an image of his balls swelling and bursting ran through my head and I couldn't help but laugh which Steve took entirely the wrong way.

"Hey girl, it's not funny. Haven't you ever heard of blue balls?" he whined, "Shit, if I don't do something to release it soon I don't know what's going to happen and I'll be damn if I am going to masturbate when your hot little cunt is right down the hall."

My grin only got larger. I loved it when my boyfriend got so horny and hot which meant I knew he would do anything to have me. The only problem was that it also meant he wouldn't last long before cumming. Still, if we DID do something now I knew we wouldn't have much time anyway so what the heck, why not go for it? If we had more time I knew he'd recover almost instantly so it seemed to be a win-win for me!

"Oh well, and just what do you expect ME to do about it?" I teased him coyly. For sure I already had a good idea of what the answer would be but it was fun to tease him all the same.

"Damn it Kelly, stop being a little cockteaser just once... you know exactly what I want you to do about it!"

"Hmmm, I think my Stevie wants to fuck me," I teased him mercilessly. Just to emphasize my point, I cupped my boobs and squeezed them for him. They may not have been much but I knew he loved to touch them.

"Fuck you... don't be coy with me you little slut. You know you want it as much as I do," he teased me right back.

The intense tingle between my legs proved he was right. Yes indeed, I wanted his hard cock so bad I could taste it already! Still, he had to work for it a little bit... I looked around and rolled my eyes.

"Yeah but your mom's home silly! And what about all the girls?" I asked, trying not to let him see how horny I was. God, if he had unzipped his pants I might have started sucking him right then and there, the hell with everyone else!

Steve just sighed as if I was being stupid or something. "We don't need all night, just long enough for me to get off before I go nuts! Come down to the basement in five minutes... OK?"

I smiled at him and did my little hair flip thing that I knew he loved before heading back to the girls. It always made me feel so hot teasing him this way! Of course I had every intention of doing whatever he asked. Hmmmmmm, I wondered if Steve realized that I wanted it even more than he did! Probably so but then who cares?

So far we'd never done it with his mom in the house and the thought of him fucking me almost right underneath her bedroom was making me wet just thinking about it. It also didn't hurt knowing I'd be the only getting any dick tonight, at least so far as the party went. All I could think about was his cum shooting into my mouth when another thought suddenly came to mind, a truly terrible naughty idea which I knew would really be hot if only I could make it come true somehow.

First of all, I really wasn't worried that anyone would "find out" about me and Steve if we had sex at his house. He certainly hadn't wasted any time telling the entire school about him and me after the first time we had sex so by now all my friends knew what I was doing with Steve. What made me feel good about it was knowing that most, if not all of them would've traded places with me in a heartbeat and that included his younger sister!

Steve worked on a farm during the summer and was in great shape. His muscular body was tanned and smooth and I loved just gazing at him when he would walk around in just his shorts and even more when he was totally nude with his dick pointing straight out from his tanned hard teen body. It made me feel hot when other girls would look at him and then at me, knowing he was doing to me and wishing it was them instead. I would smile at them and put my hands all over him, signaling to them he was ALL mine!

By the time I got back to Sharon's room where the girls were all sitting on her bed I was feeling a little flushed. They were talking about their boyfriends and how they were built, with particular emphasis on what they had between their legs. Just typical girl talk. After a few minutes I couldn't keep it a secret anymore and so I told them what Steve had said to me, even the part about what he thought about what they were all wearing, and asked them what they thought I should do.

As I just mentioned, the girls that knew me already also knew that Steve and I had been fucking for weeks. Heck, Sharon was the first of them to find out as I'd called her the very next day to tease her. Even so, even Sharon looked a bit shocked that I could be so open about it all. She also knew her mom was home and how uptight she was when it came to anything about sex. What made it really funny was that her mom still thought Sharon was a virgin!

Despite Sharon's reservations, the rest of the girls thought it was a wild idea and they all urged me to go down to the basement - provided of course that I tell them all about it when I got back. Sharon was still quiet about it until someone poked her and asked her what she thought about me doing her brother. She had this shy look about it which was unusual to say the least for Sharon. Finally she worked up the courage to tell us what was REALLY bothering her.

"Sorry, it's just that I'm already jealous of Kelly for getting to fuck my brother,' she said with a frown, "The thought of him doing her right below us... well it's just too much!"

It took a few seconds for the full implications of her comments to register and then several of the girls gasped although I noted that a couple of them had interesting looks on her face as if they wanted to hear more. Then they just laughed, assuming she was just teasing.

As for me, I already was well aware of how Sharon felt about Steve and I knew she wasn't teasing in the slightest. We even sometimes masturbated together talking about what it was like to fuck him with me of course providing vivid play-by-play details. Unfortunately for Sharon, Steve just looked at her like a typical brother would for his sister which just frustrated Sharon to no end. For her to blurt something like this out showed just how much her desires for him had built up. It wasn't like she had exactly confessed to wanting to be involved with incest, but even the thought of it was too much for some of the girls.

"What? You mean you want to FUCK your own brother?" asked one girl rather incredulously. Apparently she wasn't as convinced it as just a tease. Smart girl.

"Ewwwww!" said another, "I caught my little brother trying to peek into my room once when I was dressing. The freaking little pervert. I can't imagine EVER letting him even look at me, let alone have sex!"

The rest of the girls kept silent. I wasn't sure if it was because they thought the idea of Sharon desiring her brother was interesting or disgusting. The silence was a bit awkward so I decided to step in.

"Well, sorry Sharon but he's mine tonight!" I announced proudly.

That simple declaration seemed to jolt everyone back to normal again and so I started to head out the door. Before I left Sharon pulled me aside.

"PLEASE be careful Kelly. Mom's watching TV in her bedroom. Remember the last time you did it in his room? Well I could hear you moaning while I was doing laundry in the basement so keep things quiet for god's sake!"

I squeezed her hand. "Don't worry Sharon. Besides, I promise to have a wonderful surprise for you when I get back for being such a good sport."

She looked at me with her head cocked, sort of like my little dog does when it's curious about something. I left her there wondering just what kind of surprise I had in store for her. As slutty and weird as Sharon could be at times, I don't think even she had even a clue as to what I had in store for her.

3. Steve Does Me in the Basement

I quickly sneaked down the hallway, passing Steve's mom's room where the door was mostly shut but I could just see her watching TV in bed. She had the covers over most of her but I could tell she was still wearing the hot negligee she had on earlier. Apparently I wasn't being as stealthy as I thought as she glanced up as I went by. Being I didn't want her to get suspicious I stopped and gave a little wave hello.

"Oh hi Kelly, can I help you with something?" she asked, putting her TV on mute.

"Oh no, everything's OK, just getting a glass of water from the kitchen," I replied, trying to think quickly of an excuse as to why I would be going anywhere at the moment. It was pretty lame but it was all I could come up with on the spur of the moment.

"Oh, do you girls need more to drink?"

I assured that that everything was fine, I just needed a little water. She shrugged and smiled at me before turning her attention back to her TV show. I let out a long sigh of relief as I hurried to the basement stairs and went down as quietly as I could. They were old wooden steps and even creakier than the ones in my house but I doubted anyone upstairs would've heard.

When I reached the bottom and turned the corner there was Steve, standing there just the way I'd hoped he would be - completely nude with his big wonderful cock sticking straight out from his hairy crotch, already hard as a rock! He had one hand on it and was stroking it slowly and deliberately, as if he was keeping it in a fully erect state just waiting for me to arrive. I noted there was even a hint of precum at the tip. I smiled to myself thinking he wasn't going to last long.

By now Steve and I had fucked in a number of rather strange places but this was about to take the cake. At the spot he was standing his mom's bedroom was directly overhead and I could even hear faint sounds of her TV blaring away in her bedroom. I could only imagine what she would say if she were to see her oldest child now, totally nude and sexually prepared for whatever, or should I say whoever, came his way.

"Damn, Kelly, where have you been? I can't hold back much longer," he groaned. It was all I could do not to smile as from the grimace on his face he actually DID look like he was in pain.

Just as I was about to say something about having to deal with his mom I realized that he'd been more than just keeping himself hard, he must have been full blown masturbating, apparently just in case I didn't make it. Besides the precum I'd already noticed, his thick cock was incredibly swollen and he had that dazed look in his eyes that he always got when he was ready to explode any second. Any thoughts of his mom, his sister, or anyone else for that matter immediately disappeared from my head!

"Oh Steve, couldn't you even wait for me before getting started?" I lamented, "You knew how bad I wanted it."

Steve was so engrossed in his own cock by now that I wasn't sure if he heard me or not. In any case so he didn't answer. There were times when he got so horny and became so engrossed in fucking me it was like I wasn't even there anymore, at least as a person. It was like he was just fucking me as if I was his own private pussy and whatever I said or felt didn't really matter all that much so long as got himself off. Technically that didn't really bother me as I was getting what I wanted as well. So long as he was fucking me I wasn't going to get picky with what he was thinking at the time!

Well there was absolutely no way I was going to just stand there and watch him masturbate so I kneeled down to get closer to his stiff cock. He was panting pretty hard and I knew there was no time to waste so I immediately started sucking it nice and hard. There was none of my usually "foreplay" with his cock where I would lick it and tease it with my tongue and lips. Nope, this time I just went for it and pushed my head down on him and took him all the in right from the start.

By now I'd sucked him enough times that that I knew exactly what got Steve off and he grunted as I moved up and down his cock, sliding my tongue around the tip and then letting him out for just a moment as I kissed it with my lips. His hands held my head lightly as I worked my magic, pulling me into him now and then when I hit a particularly sensitive spot.

"Oh yeah, that's it... suck my dick Kelly. God that feels so good!" he groaned, "Don't stop... suck my cock!"

Some things simply can't be rushed TOO much so despite his wishes I dropped his cock out of my mouth for just for a moment so I could look up at him. Our eyes met and I smiled up at him saying, "Mmmmmmm, I LOVE sucking your cock Steve... Now I'm gonna make it cum."

With that I started back on his cock again, bouncing my head up and down on him. Steve was so horny that he just wanted to feel himself cum as fast as possible so he made no effort to hold back. Even though I'd only been sucking on him for just a few minutes I felt his cock swell as if really was ready to burst. Steve groaned and for a moment I wondered if his mom could hear him but the TV was so loud above us that I could only hope it muffling everything else.

"Oh my god Kelly, here it comes," he groaned again, "Take it all in your mouth, take it you dirty little slut."

Steve was the first person besides my dad to call me a "little slut" in this way and I have to admit that I loved it when men I adored referred to me that way. Before Steve I would've been insulted had someone else besides my dad called me that but now when he said it I made me feel so sexy and hot to think he thought of me that way. Funny how two guys can call me the same thing for such different reasons yet I loved it either way.

Back to Steve's dick... I kept my lips tightly around him, forming a seal as his cum literally erupted from his throbbing cock like an exploding volcano. As he blew his first load into my mouth I could feel it hitting the back of my throat and the second wasn't far behind. I swallowed the first few loads but the last couple of streams of cum I kept in my mouth and savored the taste of it. When he was finally finished I gave him my best cum-eating grin, spitting out some of his cum and then sucking it back in before swallowing it all down, just the way I knew he liked me to do.

"Damn Kelly, you have NO idea how much I needed that! Seeing all of you girls running around in those skimpy nighties was fucking killing me!"

I gave him a stern look and shook my finger at him playfully saying, "Now wait just a minute buster; you think I come down here, suck you off and that's the end of it? No way, now it's my turn! I want you to fuck me you greedy bastard."

Steve glanced upstairs, a little unsure at first perhaps about how far he should push his luck but I knew his little head always won over the big head in these kind of arguments! Still, I could see that he wasn't 100% sold, at least not yet.

"So did you tell your friends up there where you were going?" he asked quietly.

"Of course I did!" I laughed. He looked surprised but I just laughed again.

"Oh don't worry, silly. It doesn't matter, they all know you do me anyway. In fact, I wouldn't be surprised if they're up there with their ears pressed to the floor right now!"

Steve nervously glanced up at the ceiling and I punched him in the shoulder with a, "Got ya sucker!"

"God damn you Kelly, you're always such a damn tease! OK... I'll show you who's boss!"

With that he grabbed me and literally tossed me down onto the couch. He yanked my panties off, almost tearing them in half in the process, and threw them aside to the floor. Putting his hands on my knees, he pressed my legs wide apart and just stood there, staring at my pussy like he'd never seen it before or something.

"God I love your pussy Kelly, it's beautiful!" he murmured with a grin. Oh yeah, I loved it when he stared at me this way. There was just something about the lustful way he looked at me that made me feel pretty and sexy the way his eyes would lock onto my crotch while he just stood there and stared at it like some alien spaceship had landed in front of him.

Steve continued his appraisal of my all but nude body as he worked his way between my open legs. Soon he was on his knees and he reached down under my ass to lift me up. Leaning forward so his cock was aimed towards my pussy, he pulled me up to him and basically plugged me into his cock like his dick was a lamp plug and my pussy an electrical receptacle. As soon as his head was into me he leaned forward and shoved himself into me as far as he could until my ass was against his thighs and his cock was completely immersed in my warm pussy - right where it belonged.

"Oh Steve," I moaned softly, loving the feeling of fullness that I got when he was in me this way, "that feels soooooo good. God I love your big cock in me! Fuck me Steve, oh yeah fuck me, fuck me, fuck me."

As I kept on rattling on like some horny bitch in heat I held onto the couch to keep him from pushing me off of it as he rammed himself into me and then pulled out of me until just the tip of his cock was in me. A couple of times he went too far and came all the way out after which he would rub his head against my clit and then up and down my pussy slit before pushing it back in me again.

As horny as I'd been all night, it wasn't long before I felt an orgasm surging through me. I felt like I was on fire as every pore of my skin seemed to sizzle with ripples of electricity. My eyes rolled to the top of my head as I leaned back and just let the waves of pleasure roll up and down my body freely. Feeling like nothing I can describe, I just moaned and almost cried out until something made me remember Seeing Steve's naked body, especially his dick which just moments before had unbelievably been so deep inside of me, was the most beautiful sight I could imagine. Once again it was all I could do to keep from saying the heck with everyone else and just laying down next to my boyfriend's gorgeous nude body and pressing myself up tightly against it. Dang it! If I didn't go now I knew that I never would and then what if his mother noticed I hadn't returned from getting my drink? I could just imagine her reaction if she only knew what I'd really been thirsty for! Reluctantly I turned away and bounded carefully up the stairs back to Sharon's bedroom where everyone was still talking about our favorite subject - boys and their dicks of course.

4. Steve Does Me Again in the Basement

Heading back to Sharon's bedroom, I had to pass by her mom's bedroom again. The TV was still on loud but she appeared to be asleep. She'd turned on her side and her eyes were closed. The covers had moved so that now she had them between her legs such that one leg was covered while the upper one was on top and exposed. The nightie has pulled up so I had a clear view of her bottom which was barely covered by her sheer satin panties. Once again I was impressed by how good of shape she kept herself for her age. What an idiot her husband must be!

Moving on, I entered Sharon's bedroom and closed the door behind me. Sharon looked at me with a surprised expression on her face. "Wow Kelly, that didn't take as long as I expected. Steve must have been even hornier than usual tonight, eh? But then I guess you were too from the looks of things."

Sharon sat up straight and grinned at me, almost like she was daring me to spill the beans. I noticed the rest of them were looking at me as well with smirks on their faces and I couldn't figure out what was going on until finally Sharon broke out in laughter which just got the rest of them to do it as well.

"Ummmmm, did you forget something Kelly?" Sharon teased me.

At first I didn't understand what she was talking about but then I noticed everyone was looking at my waist and then it hit me - my panties! Between my light-headedness after having an unbelievable orgasm and my haste to return I'd left them in the basement. Thank goodness her mom hadn't seen me when I passed her bedroom in the hallway! What would she have thought had she seen me rushing by without my panties on especially when I'd had them on last time she saw me?

merge as one, his manhood now buried deep yet again within my body as I gladly accepted him inside of me.

"God your pussy's so fuckin' tight," Steve grunted as I started to bounce on him, raising myself up slowly on my knees until he was just barely in me and then dropping down hard on his crotch. The fantastic sensation of my boyfriend's dick driving into me made me shudder each time!

Speaking of having a tight pussy, considering I'd only been having sex for a few months now it darn well should be! Steve's dick was the only one I'd ever had in me so I really didn't have anything to compare it to. Even so, it didn't really matter as I loved his cock and I was perfectly happy with how it made me feel. He knew what I liked and gave it to me when I wanted it so why would I need anyone else's?

As heavy as I was breathing I'd swallowed what was left of cum almost right at the outset but I didn't care. After all, there was plenty more where that came from! Dropping down on him yet again, this time I let my full weight push down on his groin, driving him as deep as I could inside of me and then grinding myself on him. I could feel his thick pubic hair against my bare little ass as I twisted around on his cock, listening to him groan and sigh.

Steve had his hands on my exposed hips, pushing me around like he was trying to literally drill his erection into me. I loved the feel of his fingers as the pressed into me, the touch of a handsome boy as he held my nude body that was just for him to play with and nobody else. For a moment I just rocked slowly back and forth, closing my eyes and concentrating on the feel of his cock as it worked its way around inside of me.

"I'm gonna cum!" Steve suddenly groaned.

As much as I would have normally loved him to cum inside of me, this was one time I wanted it somewhere else so to his total surprise I dismounted from his pole and kneeled on the couch next to him. Leaning over, I put my mouth over the head his cock, sealing it with my lips like it was a garden hose about to be turned on while stroking the base of his shaft with my free hand. The taste of his precum was like honey in my mouth!

"Ohhhhhh...!" Steve groaned as his hips raised up and he pushed my head down further onto his dick. The first shot of warm sperm spurted into my mouth and it was all I could do not to gag as it hit the back of my throat but I managed to keep my composure. Again and again his dick shot out more of his cum until he collapsed down onto the couch, dropping his hands to his side in exhaustion.

"Damn that felt good!" he sighed heavily as he fought to catch his breath. Meanwhile I lifted my mouth off of him, careful to close my lips around it as I did to keep his cum safe in my mouth. Normally when I did this I would open my mouth and let him see it pooled on my tongue, then swallow it down and open wide again to prove to him that I'd downed it all. Well, not this time although I could tell he was a little curious about why I wasn't following my usual pattern. Oh well, let him wonder...

Before he could say anything I remembered to grab my panties and I quickly slipped them on. They were a bit torn from when he'd ripped them off earlier but at least there was enough to keep the on me. Kissing Steve with closed lips on his cheek I rushed back up to Sharon's bedroom. Once again I passed his mother's room and thankfully saw that she hadn't moved an inch from the last time I'd seen her. I couldn't help but smile a bit to myself as I wondered what she would say if she knew I was looking at her so exposed, having just been fucked by her son and now carrying his load of cum in my mouth like some kind of naughty hamster returning to her nest.

5. Back With the Girls

"Well, I guess SOMEONE had a good time!" Sharon teased me after I shut her bedroom door, "OK girl, spill it. We want you to tell us ALL about it! I'm guessing you did more than just retrieve your panties."

So far I hadn't said a word and for a good reason. I was grinning from ear to ear like a Cheshire Cat as I walked up to Sharon with the other girls watching me intently, obviously curious as to why I was being so quiet, wondering what I was up to. Then to everyone's complete surprise, especially Sharon, I leaned over and planted a kiss directly on Sharon's mouth. It was actually the first time I'd kissed a girl other than my mom on the mouth but it wasn't THAT hard of a thing to do as one might think given the circumstances. Sharon was really hot and I'd always had a bit of a feeling that I wanted to do this but of course I'd never dreamed it would be with a mouthful of her brother's cum when I finally did it.

Sharon's eyes widened but I had to hand it to her, she kept her cool and didn't resist a bit. To everyone's amazement we were soon both putting our arms around each other as we sat on the bed kissing. The girls all giggled and a few openly encouraged us to do more. Naturally I opened my mouth as I kissed Sharon and her tongue quickly moved into mine.

It was then my plan went into effect as I still had most of Steve's cum in my mouth which I let flow onto her tongue and into her mouth. Sharon pulled her head back and she wiped her face with her hand, a look of shock on her face. It only took one look at the ooze on her hand before she quickly put two and two together and realized what it was.

"Oh my god, you can't be serious! Is this what I think it is?" she exclaimed with her eyes as wide as saucers.

Instantly, every one of the girls froze like a statue, their eyes widened as they saw stared at the cum which was now dripping from both of our mouths.

"Didn't I tell you that I was going to bring you back a surprise?" I asked with a big grin, "So tell me Sharon, how do you like tasting your brother's cum? I know you've been wanting it, haven't you?"

For a moment I didn't know whether Sharon was going to laugh, cry or slap me. In the end she was so shocked she simply stared at me. Then slowly a smile came to her face.

"Why you nasty little... " she stuttered and then finally manage to complete saying, "Oh my god Kelly, I can't believe you did this to me!

Her words didn't match the tone of her voice and I could tell that she wasn't really mad. That much was made even more obvious when she leaned over and kissed me again, this time allowing us to exchange even more of Steve's cum until finally we both swallowed what we had and then sat back again on the bed, wiping our faces with the backs of our hands.

The other girls still hadn't moved a muscle, staring at us both as if we were we were a pair of perverted freaks. It was like all the talk about boys and their dicks was completely forgotten! Apparently it was one thing to joke and tease about sucking cock, but when the real thing happened then they didn't know what to say! It didn't help the situation when you considered WHOSE cum we had shared and WHOSE brother it was either.

Eventually the eerie silence broke and once it did then it was a like a dam gave way as suddenly everyone was talking at once. Some asked me to tell them what it was like having Steve cumming in my mouth and others prodded Sharon to tell them how she felt about swallowing her own brother's cum. For the rest of the night it didn't matter what we talked about, sooner or later the conversation would come back to me and Sharon snowballing.

From the way the conversations were going I had a sneaking suspicion that more than one of them was going to be playing with herself in bed that night! As we were talking I caught Steve peeking in the room to get a look at all of us in nighties. Of course we all knew he was looking as after all, why else would we have left the door cracked open? Still, we pretended we didn't so we could flash him and tease him without being obvious that we were doing it for him. I winked and licked my lips, knowing now for sure I would be paying him another visit later that night!

I never did tell Steve what I did with his cum and Sharon that night. As I said, he never gave me any indication that he had even the slightest interest in his sister sexually and so I was afraid he might freak out or get mad at me if I told him.

As for poor Sharon, so far as I know it was the only time she got to taste her brother's cum. I'm sure she would have preferred to have gotten it straight from the source but at least it was better than nothing!

Later that night when everyone was asleep, I paid my boyfriend another visit. This time though we were in his bedroom with his mother right there in the next bedroom. She was sound asleep the entire time but even so it gave me a bit of a thrill knowing she was so close by. She was so outspoken against sex before marriage that it felt extra naughty to do it practically right next to her. In some ways I wish she had woken up and caught us but I guess in the end that would have been more trouble than the momentary thrill of seeing her face while her son was drilling the neighbor girl.

Mmmmmmm, I couldn't wait for Sharon's next sleepover, even if I didn't get much sleep!

drugs that can lead to addiction after only one use. Well I don't know if that's true or just something to scare people but based on my own personal experience, when it comes to sex I can attest that it's definitely not an urban myth! One time and I was hooked!

My transformation from semi-innocent church girl to a genuine cum-loving slut was as quick as it was dramatic. It was like overnight it became where all I could think about night and day was how incredible it felt to have Steve fuck me. For the first couple of weeks after our first time, I don't think we met once when we didn't have sex at some point. We even fucked during a church service after I'd excused myself to supposedly use the restroom. Other than my ever watchful mother, nobody seemed to notice that Steve had the same need at the same time...

Having sex with Steve also changed our relationship, at least for me it did. When we first started dating all I would do was blow him. I like to think that he kept asking me out due to my natural "gift" but it wasn't like we were boyfriend-girlfriend. Each time I pushed away his exploring hands I could tell his frustrations grew and I had no doubt that he would soon stop asking me out if I didn't put out sooner or later. He had a well-earned reputation for dumping girls who didn't but even so practically every girl in school was waiting for him to dump me.

Finally it came time for me to put out or get out. His hands were all over me and I knew he was getting past the frustration stage when he didn't even say said goodbye when he dropped me off at home. My biggest concern was that I didn't want to give my virginity to someone who would see me as just another conquest. Still, I decided to take the risk and my gamble paid off when once we started fucking he stopped seeing other girls and I was the only one he dated. Sharon was positively amazed! I can remember her telling me how she never would've believed her horny older brother would ever settle down with just one girl. In fact she seemed more than a little jealous which was a little weird but it just made me feel all the better.

Looking back I like think I was in love Steve but realistically at first I didn't love him in a truly romantic way the way my mom loves my dad. Did I have a crush on an older handsome boy who was fucking me? Heck yes! Was he the love of my life and my future husband... no, at least not yet at this stage of our relationship. Despite his rather formidable reputation he's earned with the girls he'd been with in the past, when Steve was with me he was always a gentleman. I loved how he always made me feel special when we had sex. I was so lucky to have a guy like him at a time of my life dominated by "firsts", someone who won't take advantage of my naivety.

suppose given Steve's family situation it was only natural that the first few times I invited him up to my bedroom while my dad was home that he felt a bit intimidated and self-conscious (to put it mildly). It took a bit of coaxing but eventually his horniness overcame his shyness and he became a frequent visitor to my bedroom.

While Steve may have accepted of my dad's offer to use my bedroom, I always wondered what he would say if he knew the flip side of the coin. Steve had the impression my parents were just providing us with a place where WE were safe when in reality it was more so my dad could make sure I was safe. He mostly trusted Steve but only to a point. Like it's been said, "trust but verify". Having been a teenage boy himself a long time ago he knew the urges and desires that can sometime take control of men, especially teenage boys. Steve wasn't born blessed with any superhuman powers of resistance so in my dad's view it didn't hurt to keep a close eye on us - his eye to be more exact. One of the condition of using my room was that we couldn't close the door all the way. At first my dad teased Steve (at least tried to) that it was so in case I screamed he could hear me. Well, that may be true but there's more. The reality is my dad sneaked a peek now and then just to make sure everything was OK or more specifically, that I was OK. Personally I thought it was a little overkill on his part as I trust Steve totally but hey, so long as it made my dad feel better I didn't care.

Really, why can't more parents be like my mine? Far too many girls are forced to hide everything from their parents which can lead to problems that may not have arisen had their parents been there to support them and protect them. It's no wonder that teen suicide rates are so high, especially among girls, and that teen pregnancies are as common as they are when girls are left to deal with incredible emotional and physical issues on their own!

To be sure there were lines we didn't cross at my house. For instance my parents weren't nudist so running around stark naked for no good reason was considered rude. My parents never had sex in front of me which is the only time a door was shut in our house. According to my mom some things were meant to be just between a husband and wife. I didn't need to SEE them making love as I had no doubt they loved one another. I have to admit thought having been a little curious, especially given how thin the walls are in our old house.

Taking a cue from my parents' example, I've never even thought about having sex with Steve openly in front of my parents. Technically a BJ isn't sex but I figured I'd still be crossing a line with my parents not to mention having any sort of sex in front of my parents would be a bridge WAY too far for Steve. As for me, as horny as I was at times I wouldn't have cared WHO was in the room! Oh well, you can't have everything I guess.

As I mentioned before, while Steve and I didn't have to worry about having sex privately at my house, it was a totally different situation at his place where we had to be a LOT more discreet. Steve's mom wasn't nearly as open-minded as my parents when it came to her kids having sex. In fact, the very suggestion of premarital sex was enough to get her riled up so I could only imagine what she might've said had we tried doing anything when she was around. The irony was that Steve had quite the reputation at school with the girls so it wasn't like he'd been some innocent virgin that I was corrupting. If anything it was the exact opposite so why was I getting the accusing looks? Heck, Steve was doing my best friend Beth months before he even thought about dating me and yet Marlene adored Beth!

Although Steve's mom and I got along fine when I was just Sharon's friend, it seems that once Steve and I started getting serious that things changed. Suddenly she started making little snide comments about the way I dressed, especially when my shorts ride up too high and showed off my butt or when my nipples would poke through a thin top. It was a little confusing as it's not like I was dressing any different than I had before I dated Steve. Once I could've sworn I heard her mumble something like "little slut" under her breath after she eyed me in one of my favorite cutoffs (the ones with big holes in the butt) and a tiny bikini top. OK, so I admit the top was really way too small but it isn't like there was all that much to hide. Had my boobs been spilling out the way Beth's did in the undersized tops she favored then I could understand but Marlene doesn't even look twice at her. Apparently she didn't know Steve was fucking her either!

Speaking of how being called a slut totally depends on the circumstances... when Steve or my dad called me their "little slut" I took it as a compliment in that I knew they meant I looked sexy and desirable - just what every young girl dreams of being. Alas, not so when Marlene said it as she used a completely different tone of voice that made it quite obvious she wasn't complimenting me!

Given the way things were I'm sure all hell would have broken loose if Marlene ever found out that her supposed saint of a son has been fucking his little girlfriend pretty much on a daily basis the past couple of months - sometimes even twice or more. It made it even more naughty knowing she would probably have fainted dead away if she knew about the time we did it on her bed! That was Steve's idea which I thought was a little weird at the time but since he promised to fuck me extra good I wasn't about to say protest - and he kept his word! Later when I told Sharon about it she just whined because he didn't want to do it on HER bed, LOL. There were times I really had to wonder about her.

Speaking of Sharon, what I would love to have told Steve, but never dared, was that it would be far more interesting to see his mom's reaction if she knew that her own daughter was jealous of me and would do about anything to have her older brother all to herself! Actually, it would have been just as interesting if not more to see Steve's reaction as well but Sharon had sworn me to secrecy. Not that I blamed Steve or his mom as I thought the whole "fuck my brother" thing of Sharon's was kinky at best and I was the one fucking him!

Once Steve and I started having sex regularly it didn't take long for me to discover something new about myself besides having an unquenchable appetite for his hard dick. Turns out not only was I a certified slut but quite the exhibitionist as well. Oh sure I'd always loved posing in sexy clothes for my dad but that was at home and after all, he WAS my dad so no big deal. With Steve doing me most days my self-confidence had gone through the roof and I loved displaying myself in front of everyone and anyone. At first we just did it in my bedroom or in his basement but soon we branched out. I found some of my favorite places to have sex were those that had an element of danger, someplace where someone might catch us like a movie theater or simply somewhere we weren't supposed to do it. Doing it in church was always lots of fun and really got me off, especially if I could listen to the service while we were doing it! It so turned me on knowing all those people were up there with not a clue as to what was happening right below them in a deserted classroom... I loved it and the element of danger seemed to make me cum even harder.

All in all we were just typical horny teenagers so sometimes when one of us was really extra randy we did it at times and places that weren't always the smartest. For instance not too long ago he'd fucked me in the basement of their house during one of Sharon's slumber parties when his mom was home. Her bedroom was right over us at the time and I don't know how in the world she didn't hear us but I'm guessing her TV must have been too loud. Wow, if she had decided to come downstairs and caught us it would have been all over for him - and maybe me too. Still, it was the element of risk that made it feel so incredible to have him fuck me at times like that. All I know is I really came hard that night and as I did I was looking up wondering if she could hear me moaning!

After a bitter divorce Marlene got full custody of Sharon and Steve along with their younger brother Jim. Their selfish father didn't even contest custody as apparently he didn't want any kids hanging around to interfere with him and his new harlot. Steve's mother would sometimes go off on a rant about men and how they want nothing but sex. Just to be safe, as a general rule we never did anything at his house unless his mom was gone. Sharon would be home sometimes but that's OK with me as she swore to be discreet and always left us alone - or so Steve thought.

As much as he claimed to be able to spot girls that wanted him, Steve didn't seem to know that his younger sister had the hots for her big brother. Sharon had always mentioned things like that but we all just assumed she was pulling our legs. It wasn't until her brother started fucking me that I saw how jealous she was and realized her so-called jokes weren't jokes at all! As I said, Steve has no idea but I knew that Sharon spied on us having sex whenever she could. Sort of like my dad with one big difference - she did it to get off and could've cared less about my safety! As you might imagine I never told Steve about our secret audience but often after Steve had fucked me Sharon and I would sit down together and talk about it. Sometimes we'd get so turned on that we each started masturbating while imagining Steve fucking each of us in an incestuous threesome. OK, I'll admit THAT one is more than a little weird but any excuse to masturbate works for me!

Before Sharon I'd never really thought much about incest, probably most likely because I was an only child. Now I found out that it turned me on to listen to Sharon talk about how much she wanted her brother and then to see her masturbating as she called his name... that was just plain HOT! I'd never met anyone before who wanted to have sex with someone in their own family and it seemed REALLY strange at first to have my friend getting off to thoughts of her own brother. Regardless of how bizarre such thoughts were, I really couldn't blame her. Heck, if Steve had been MY older brother I probably would've felt the same way!

Much to Sharon's frustration Steve was NOT into the incest fantasy and so far as he was concerned Sharon didn't exist unless he was trying to get information about me. She'd all but thrown herself at him but the more she flaunted herself the more he pulled away from her. Well, at least one member of the family was normal!

As much as we masturbate together neither Sharon or I even mentioned anything about having sex with each other. Given my infatuation with my boyfriend's cock I certainly didn't consider myself a lesbian. Other than some innocent pranks during a sleepover or girls-only party I've never even seen two girls doing it for real.

Sometimes I wondered what would have happened if either of us took the initiative and made a first move. I don't think Sharon would resisted given the way we kissed at her last slumber party although it didn't hurt that my mouth had been full of her brother's cum at the time! While I wasn't really turned on by the thought of sex with girls I still enjoyed masturbating with my friends - go figure! Then again, I masturbated occasionally with my mom and WE didn't have sex so maybe it wasn't that big of a deal.

In any case, Steve and I always made sure that before we fooled around at his house that his mom was definitely not going to return before we were done. Just too many potential complications otherwise!

3. An Invitation

On this particular day Steve's mom was out to get her hair done - something that typically takes three to four hours at a minimum. Sharon told Steve that she was going to be out with some friends shopping and Jim was at a friend's house so as soon the moment that the two of them were out the door Steve was dialing me to inform me that we had his house to ourselves!

Unknown to Steve, I actually got TWO phone calls, the one from Steve but also another from Sharon informing me that she wasn't really going shopping. Instead, she would really be hiding and watching us so I needed to be sure Steve fucked me someplace where it would easy for her to watch - like the living room or family room and NOT one of the bedrooms. I was in the kitchen with my mom when they both called so she asked me what all the phone calls were about. I practically giggled like a grade school girl I was so excited.

"It's gonna be so cool... Steve's mom is out at the salon and he wants me to come over," was all I said at first. My mom looked at me and shook her head in mock disbelief.

"Somehow that grin on your face tells me he didn't just ask you to come over to do homework," she teased me.

My tongue licked my lips subconsciously and I just gave her my newly patented naughty slut look. She responded by rolling her eyes at me the way she did whenever she couldn't believe something about me - which was becoming a rather frequent thing.

"I hope that was meant for Steve," she whispered softly yet there was something in her tone I couldn't quite place.

"Sorry mom," I apologized, blushing a little. Exactly what I was sorry for I wasn't sure but it seemed the right thing to say under the circumstances and she seemed satisfied with my answer.

She just waved me off and so I ran upstairs to quickly freshen up. Fortunately I'd showered earlier but my hair was a wreck so I pulled it back in a ponytail which I knew Steve preferred on me anyways. He said it made me look even younger which seemed to help fulfill some fantasy of his. Whatever. A pair of jeans and blouse was all I decided to wear as I knew it really didn't matter what I wore - it wouldn't be on me for long if I knew Steve!

With each step I took to his house the hornier I got. God, I couldn't wait to be fucked by Steve but to have Sharon watch us without Steve knowing was going to make it all the more special! I remembered the first time she'd watched. I had no idea she had until afterwards when we were talking and she brought it up. At first I felt almost violated but then I realized how turned on it made her and now I loved it all the more when she watched as well. There was just something about knowing she was watching and wishing she could have what I was getting that turned me on. As I mentioned earlier, I was finding out more each day it seemed what a natural exhibitionist I was.

4. Steve Fucks Me

When I arrived at his house Steve met me at the front door wearing my favorite outfit - absolutely nothing! Seeing his awesome nude body when he greeted me at the door for me sent a chill up and down my spine. The sly grin on his face told me he'd obviously been thinking about me as well - not to mention the massive erection he was slowly stroking. I looked behind me at the street and wondered if anyone was watching close enough to see him nude in the doorway! Steve seemed to be thinking the same thing when he retreated back into the entranceway a bit.

"Come on Kelly! Quit wasting time... get that cute little ass in here!"

No matter how many times I'd seen and touched it, I couldn't help but stare at his swollen cock as it stood at attention. When it was hard like this it also curved upward like a banana. Granted, I'd only actually seen two dicks in my life but I felt so good! I had one arm around his lower back and then I reached down to grab his tight wrestler ass and massaged it slowly.

Steve was not only an athlete but he also worked on a local farm during the summer. Mmmmmmm, there wasn't an ounce of fat on him. His bare butt was so warm and smooth - I loved the firm feel of it in my hands. We kissed for a while as our tongues explored while he played with my hair and ran his hands all over me. As he ran his fingers through my hair I shivered as a chill ran through my body. I loved it when someone played with my hair and it became literally a sexual experience when Steve did it long enough.

If we'd been at my house where I knew we had as much time as we wanted I could've stayed beside him like that for hours. Cuddling and gentle groping is a massive turn-on for me although I knew Steve's cock had other intentions. I couldn't blame him as after all, he WAS a guy which meant he just wanted to fuck me and get it over with. It was obvious from the way his cock quivered that it was demanding attention so finally Steve sat up straight on the couch while I kneeled on the floor between his knees. Holding his wonderful dick in one hand, my other hand was soon between my legs were I could feel my soaking wet pussy craving some attention of its own.

"That's it, suck my dick Kelly," Steve demanded, "C'mon, take it in your mouth and suck it!"

Ignoring his directions, I gently licked the underside of his hard cock, teasing him as he pressed it forward to try to push it in my mouth. Then I twirled my tongue around the head several times and looked up at him.

"Mmmmmmm, so do you like my mouth on your cock Steve?"

He nodded vigorously and so I continued, "Tell me how it feels."

I spit on his cock to get it wetter and more slippery so it would be easier to stroke it with my hand. Taking his swollen head in my mouth, I sucked on it like it was a popsicle, letting my tongue have its way with it. Then I took him in all the way as I allowed my hand to slide off of him just as my lips reached the base of his hairy crotch. Shaking my head back and forth with his cock pressing against the back of my throat, I noticed how good he smelled. With my nose buried in his thick black pubic hair the musky male odor of his crotch was overwhelming.

As I sucked his dick Steve laid his head back against the couch and groaned, "Oh god Kelly, that feels so good! Suck it more, suck my dick you fucking bitch!"

He really didn't have to ask as I was more than happy to do it on my own! Using my hand and mouth I sucked his cock like it was the last one I would ever have. My hand stroked it on the upward movement, following my mouth as it let him escape and then stroking him downward as my mouth absorbed him again. He felt so warm in my mouth and I loved the taste of him. His crotch had a strong musky smell that was sensual and just a little dirty at the same time. His pubic hair would play against my face and forehead when I took him in my mouth, tickling me and reminding me of where my head was - buried in my boyfriend's crotch like some sort of whore!

Steve had both hands on my head, grabbing my hair and driving my head down onto him. As he got more excited his hips started to buck up against me in time with my movements as if he was trying to fuck my mouth.

"Oh fuck Kelly, don't stop! Dammit don't stop now!... Suck it... Suck my dick!"

His voice was rising and I wondered if Sharon was getting an eyeful of how good I was sucking her brother. I could imagine her playing with herself, wishing it was her name he was calling out instead of mine.

Steve was humping my face the way he liked to fuck my pussy, driving himself deeper into my mouth with each stroke. He began to pant like a dog and suddenly he lifted himself up and pushed my head down onto him hard just as a huge load of cum ejected from his cock directly into my mouth. It was hot and slimy with a salty aftertaste and I loved it better than any steak dinner. He held my head onto him as he came again and again, each time filling my mouth fuller and fuller with his sperm.

Between his cock rammed all the way in and the ever expanding load of cum, I wasn't able to hold it all in and so I loosened my lips to let some of it spill out. It dripped down off my chin and onto the couch but this wasn't the first time the poor couch had been stained by cum and it wouldn't be the last if I had anything to do with it.

Steve must have been hornier than usual as he unleashed even more of his cum into my mouth. He gave me at least five or six full loads plus a few drops afterwards as he slowed his humping and finally settled back in the couch. Loosening his grip on my head allowed me to finally lift it up and get a good view of my handiwork. Mmmmmmm, his cock had flopped away from my lips and it took several swallows to rid my mouth of his cum. A little was left so I spit it out onto his cock and stroked him with my hand, spreading his cum all over it. Finally I licked it

It didn't take long once we started having sex to learn I particularly loved that instant when Steve's cock first violated me, when it would literally split me apart and then rub up against the ultra-sensitive wet regions just inside the entrance to my pussy. Whether it be his finger or his cock, Steve was always trying to push SOMETHING into me as far as he could as if there was a prize for getting the farthest up me. The strange truth is that it's only the first inch or so of my pussy that's really sensitive. Leaving his cock head barely in me actually stimulates me more than anything. Pushing his whole cock in me gave me the satisfaction of knowing he was coupled all the more deeply within me, sharing more of me, and thus was more of an emotional uplifting than physical.

In all fairness, pushing in deeper into me is also good in the sense that when he stroked in and out it was like a violinist taking a long stroke against the strings and thus producing more of a sustained note than a short one. Well, I guess you could say Steve plays my pussy like a violin. He pressed harder and I could feel more of him entering me, filling me with his stiff teenage cock.

Finally my butt was tickled by his bush of pubic hair and I felt his crotch pressed against my ass so I knew he was in all the way then. We were coupled together, joined as one using the most intimate parts of our bodies. As I said, feeling him deep in me made me feel wonderful in an emotional way, knowing Steve was literally mating me in every sense of the word. Steve reached around me and massaged my small breasts as I kept one hand rubbing my pussy. He loved it when I did that because his cock could feel my pussy moving as I fingered my clit. He also knew that I loved to touch myself any chance I got plus it helped me to reach a stronger orgasm than I got with just his cock in me.

"Stay there," I asked, "Just stay there a moment."

He was anxious to fuck me so I knew it wouldn't last long but I loved this moment when we first got started. On my knees with my boyfriend inside of me, I closed my eyes and squeezed down on him, marveling that this hard warm thing was filling me. It was like he was now a part of me as I accepted him. I felt so... complete I guess is the word to use. Like somehow I had been empty and missing something which now had been restored.

It only lasted a few seconds though as Steve started to literally pound my butt as his cock slipped in and out of me like a battering ram when this time I thought for sure I saw a shadow or something. Damn! If Sharon wasn't careful then Steve was going to catch her and then who knew what might happen! Actually I'd masturbated a number of times fantasizing about what I HOPED would happen but in real life things don't always work out the way we wish they would.

If that was true then I guess it meant this was real life to the max...

5. Steve's Mom Watches Us

Steve grunted as he pushed hard into me and I closed my eyes as I felt his cock fill me to where I thought I might burst. When I opened them and focused, out of the corner of my eye I saw a woman entering the room. My immediate assumption was it was Sharon and for a brief second I thought my ultimate fantasy was about to come true. Would Steve let her join us? Would he fuck us both?

Suddenly a voice rang out and my heart sank as I realized not only was I dead wrong about it being Sharon watching us, but completely screwed as well - and not in the way I was loving how Steve was doing it to me.

Obviously it hadn't been NOT Sharon that was watching us all this time. No, that would have been too lucky. Instead it turned out to be Steve's MOM! Oh... My... God!

Marlene was dressed in jeans and a white blouse - not all that unlike what I'd worn over actually except based on the outline under her blouse she obviously was wearing a bra which meant most likely panties as well. Why I even noticed that I can't say as it's not like she ever didn't have them on. Just weird things you notice when your life flashes before your eyes. After taking a few steps in she paused to take in the scene spread out in front of her. Judging by her stern expression and pursed lips I could only imagine what was going through her mind. Dang, just how long had she been watching us anyway and why did she wait until now to make herself known? For that matter, why wait at all or else why not just stay where she was and watch? Yeah, it's really amazing how many thoughts can run through your head in about one second!

"Alright you two, don't either of you move one muscle - stay exactly as you are!" she commanded. Steve repositioned himself, more to take the weight off his arms but his mom would have none of it barking out, "Dammit I said don't move!"

She sounding exactly like you'd expect a mother to sound when she finds her kids misbehaving. Now you would think our first reaction would've been to separate and hide ourselves but the shock was so great we both froze in place other than Steve's minor repositioning. It was more than just a bit weird since it left both of us

As the standoff continued I couldn't figure out his mom. What in the heck was she doing? I kept waiting for the inevitable explosion but then to my utter astonishment a smile replaced the frown as she couldn't keep a straight face any longer and she started to laugh.

"Oh come on you two, quit looking so scared, "she admonished us, "You kids can't possible believe I haven't known that the two of you were doing this, do you?"

"Actually, we DID believe it!" Steve started to protest but his mom cut him right off.

"Oh for heaven's sake Steve, park it. Everyone knew you were jerking off at camp this summer peeking at the little girls all but naked in their new bikinis. Then at the fair your penis was about to burst from your pants anytime you were even close to her. When I started smelling her pussy on your hands after you came home from a date I knew you were screwing her - you really should wash up afterwards dear and Kelly my dear, you should've warned him how sensitive a woman's sense of smell is when it came to another girl's pussy scent."

Oddly I smiled and nodded as I had to admit she was right about one thing. There WAS something about the odor of a woman's pussy that was unmistakable to another woman. At home if either my mom or I masturbated and didn't wash up good afterwards, invariably the other would notice and make a comment about it, sometimes teasing the other good-naturedly. Steve hands had been on my hips and I could feel him starting to relax his death grip on me as his mom went on. Dear god, was she going to make this into some sort of speech?

"What I get the biggest kick out of is how unbelievably horny the two of you are," she continued, "My god, you kids do it more than rabbits! Do you have even the slightest idea of what a pain it's been for me to leave the house so you can have your fun? Even then, you couldn't resist doing it right under my bedroom during Sharon's slumber party."

She looked at me with that self-satisfied, smug look of someone who knew a lot more than people thought she did. "What, I may be old but I'm not deaf and Kelly dear, you're quite the moaner, aren't you? Well, after THAT I knew it was time to do something about it."

Oh-oh, now we were finally going to get it. I had the sense a storm had been gathering while she spoke and now it was time for the lightning to strike us down. For the first time I actually felt a little scared but just when I thought it was all over for us, she laughed to let us know she was just teasing us again. Not TOO scared connection. As she had pointed out I was never one to be quiet during sex so it was natural for me to break the silence.

"C'mon, fuck me harder Steve," I demanded, "Show your mommy how hard her son can fuck me!"

Steve loved for me to talk dirty during sex but then I surprised even him when I started to talk that way to his mother as well.

"Oh god he feels so big in me Marlene, so hard," I moaned as I looked over at her in the eyes. I'd never called her by her first name before but it seemed more appropriate than "Mrs." "God I love your son's cock in me! Your baby boy always fucks me soooooo good!"

It shouldn't have surprised me when she responded the way she did but I was still getting use to the whole idea of his mom being there in the first place, let alone masturbating and talking to us!

"Yes Kelly, that's it... tell me how it feels," she said slowly and softly, "Mmmmmmm, tell me how his hard cock feels in you... tell me how it feels to have my son's stiff cock fucking your wet baby pussy."

My own mother had never been in the room even with me when I was having sex with Steve so it was almost creepy having his mom right there in front of me just an arm's reach away. And not just watching... she was telling me to describe how her oldest son's cock felt inside of me! The only way I could keep my head on straight was to pretend she was MY mom and I was telling her after I got home tonight what it felt like to have Steve fuck me.

"Mmmmmmm, he feels so big inside of me,' I whispered softly, "Oh god, I can feel his dick throbbing in me... it's so hot I feel like I'm burning up!"

"That's it Kelly... now tell me more... don't hold anything back!" she said, her voice trembling as she started rubbing herself faster. Strange as it may sound it actually made it easier for me as it was more or less the same reaction my mom often had whenever I came home and related the events of my date.

Just as I was starting to get into it, my dialog was forced to pause as I couldn't help but grunt loudly while Steve literally pounded my pussy. It must have been the excitement raised by his mom watching as he'd never thrust himself into me with such abandon before. He must've been getting even more turned on as he listened to the two of us talking about him fucking me. Between breaths I tried my best to describe to her how it felt to have her teenage son fuck me, what it was like to have the boy she'd raised and nurtured shoving his stiff dick in me now that he was all grown up.

"Oh Marlene, I love it when Steve rams it hard into me, when I feel him bang into my ass and push himself as deep inside of me as he can," I managed to gasp as I was panting now from the fucking he was giving me. "Oh yeah, he feels so warm inside of me, so big in me."

Steve must have been really getting turn-on by our dirty talk because it didn't take long for him to reach his climax. "God I'm gonna cum!" he announced loud enough for both me and his mom to hear.

Adding to my rapidly growing list of surprises, Steve's mom got up off the chair and knelt down on the floor next to us. Now I was feeling more than a little weird with her so close I could smell her - and she smelled nice! She wasn't interested in me per se, our eyes never even met. Instead she seemed to only care about watching where we were joined, seeing her son's dick thrust in and back out of me as he fucked me and reached a climax. Despite her apparent inattention to me, it still excited me in a way I'd never felt before. Sure my parents had watched me having sex with Steve, but that had always been more voyeuristic and oh so much more subtle. Now it was like we were putting on a sex show for his mom, to the point where I could almost imagine her joining in on what we were doing. Indeed, the only way this could have been any hotter would be for her to join in but obviously THAT would never happen! Really, as surreal as it may be it was one thing to WATCH your son fuck his girlfriend but I couldn't even imagine anything a mother wanting to do any more than that. For Steve to fuck his mom would've been as likely to happen as my dad fucking me - NOT something that would ever happen! Marlene was acting more like a pornographic cheerleader than a mother. It was like she was directing us in some sort of insane porn movie.

"That's it, fuck her Steve, cum in her for me! Make her cum Steve! Cum for mommy," she urged him on.

Steve groaned and pushed himself tight against my bare butt as he tried to submerge every possible bit of his cock into my pussy. He thrust himself deep into me when a flash of heat exploded inside of me and I could feel his sperm as he unloaded into me, almost like a warm stream was flooding the inside of my pussy. In response to his orgasm I came myself just as soon as I felt that first load in me, moaning as my head fell back. I wiggled my ass in circle so I could feel his cock move around inside of me.

"You like that when my boy cums in you, don't you dirty little girl?" she asked me rhetorically, "You want his hot jism deep inside of you, I can tell from the way you push into him. God, I can't believe you were a virgin just a few months ago. My oh my, what a little slut you've become... all thanks to my boy!"

It was like she was proud of her son for taking my virginity and turning me into a slut but then why not? I managed to grin at her but I couldn't speak as my pussy convulsed involuntarily, gripping Steve's cock and then releasing it as if I were instinctively trying to milk the cum from his dick. It was all I could do to breath as this incredible orgasm continued to run all through me. Being fucked by Steve was plenty enough to make me cum but having his own mother watch and encourage me was driving me to a new height, one I'd never scaled before. I wiggled my bare butt against his crotch, trying to make his cock move around inside of me. His thick coarse pubic hair rubbed against my smooth bottom like a soft hair brush.

I was totally focusing on Steve's cock in me when I heard a gasp and I looked over at Steve's mom. She was sitting back again though still rubbing herself through her jeans, the same way my mom does when she gets REALLY horny. It almost looked like she'd peed her herself from the size of the wet spot in her crotch!

"Oh my god, I can't take this any longer," his mother sighed, more to herself than us it seemed. With that she stood up and quickly pulled her jeans down and off. Surprisingly, despite my earlier predictions there were no panties underneath. Then again maybe I shouldn't have been surprised given how fast her pussy wetness had soaked through her jeans. She was older than my mom but still in pretty good shape, looking hot for her age. Her pussy was covered in thick luxurious black pubic hair which looked like it had never seen a scissors let alone a razor. Standing there in nothing but her blouse, I was amazed yet again at the incredible transformation she was making from a prudish mother to a sexy MILF. I had to give her credit - not a bad ass for a woman more than twice my age.

As usual, Steve's cock remained hard in me even after cumming and he held it still in me while I felt the afterglow of my orgasm slowly ebb away. We were both mesmerized at the sight of his sexy mother stripping in front of us as she next unbuttoned her blouse. For me it was the fascination of having this woman who had always seem so uptight, so repressed, suddenly let loose like some wanton whore. For Steve it had to be a once-in-a-lifetime experience for a boy to watch his mother stripping naked for him with god only knows what on her mind.

I nodded vigorously and she laughed at how fast I responded. Then she leaned forward and got more serious saying, "Then why don't you show me how you've been riding it when I'm not around."

I looked back at Steve who just shrugged his shoulders. If his mom wanted us to put on a show, then who was he to complain? This was a LOT different than just letting my parents peek in on us when we fucked in my bedroom. Although I didn't mind them watching, at the same time I didn't feel like I was putting on a show for their benefit. I was simply letting them watch what I would be doing with or without them. NOW, however, I was doing it at her request, for her benefit, almost like she was directing us. Of course I still wanted it for myself but there was just something about it doing it in front of my boyfriend's mother that made it feel different than anything else I'd ever done.

My thoughts were interrupted and my heart skipped a beat when I saw her reaching for the camera and start snapping photos of us again. What was she planning to do with those anyways? I guess it didn't matter, she WAS his mother so I felt pretty confident she wouldn't do anything to hurt him. Still, nobody had EVER taken pics of me having sex, not even masturbating. Oh sure my dad took some of me when I posed in the outfits he bought for me and at times he might ask me to pause for a few shots as I put them on or took them off, but that wasn't me having SEX!

In the meantime Steve had finally pulled his dick out of my pussy. As his cock withdrew I got that same feeling I always did whenever he withdrew his cock from me. First there was this immediate sensation of emptiness, like I was missing something that should be there but is suddenly gone. It's like my pussy was only really happy when his dick was in it which sort of makes sense when you figure that's what it was designed for. Then I'd feel his cum draining from me, confirming that he'd cum inside of me. It made me feel so naughty sometimes when I would stand and feel it running down my inner thigh.

In any case, I just knew I wanted it BACK in me as quickly as possible so I stood up and waited for Steve to get on his back. He didn't take long and he pulled a pillow off of the couch to put under his head so he could watch better what I was about to do to him. I started to straddle him but his mom interrupted.

"Turn a little to your right Steve... and Kelly, don't hide everything with your arm," she said, again like she was directing some porn movie, "I want to get a good shot of your erection when it first goes in her."

"Hot damn... hold it there just a second," his mother interrupted, turning some dials on the camera. Wow, talk about bad timing, I just wanted to be fucked! She got in closer and too a few close-ups of his dick with the head just inside of me now. Snap, snap and she pulled back.

"Sorry..." she said rather sheepishly, "I don't mean to keep interrupting but I've been so wanting to do this. You can continue having sex now, I'll try not to interfere anymore."

Whatever! Focusing back on the events between my legs, I let my weight down completely on him, lowering myself down on him as I closed my eyes and concentrated on nothing but Steve's dick as it slowly disappeared inside of my pussy. Not even the incessant clicks of the Sharon's camera (so THAT was what I'd heard earlier!) could distract me as I pinned myself on him like I was a butterfly in a collection.

Leaning forward, I rested my hands on his shoulders and ground my bare bottom into his hairy crotch, forcing his cock to swivel around inside of me like it was stirring a pot of soup with his cock - except in this case the soup was my pussy juices as I felt myself dripping down on his cock being so wet. Finally I leaned forward to draw my ass up which pulled his cock out of me and then I dropped my ass back down to push him back in me again. I humped his cock like that slowly, reveling in the sensations it created in my pussy as his hard cock slid in and out of me. I'd learned a few tricks from watching my dad's porn collection like not bouncing on his dick 0 that just wore you out quickly. Instead the key was to flex your hips and rock which didn't take near the energy but still provided the same relative motion.

Steve's mom was obviously enjoying the show. She'd sat back down again and raised one leg over the arm of the chair to open up her now exposed pussy and was playing with herself while she watched me fuck her son's cock. Once again I marveled at how wrong I'd been about her. This was no boring mother... she was downright obscene in the way she spread herself apart to expose herself to us.

"That is just SOOOO hot!" she murmured, just loud enough for us to hear, "God, I can't believe this... I'm watching my own son having sex!"

I grinned at her as I knew she was getting more and more turned on as she watched.

"So Marlene, do you like the way I ride your son's cock?" I teased her. "As you can see, he really does fuck me good! You should try it sometime."

OMG! As soon as I said it I wanted to take it back. What had gotten into me? Fortunately she seemed to just ignore my suggestion as her answer was to shift from just rubbing her pussy to shoving her fingers in and out of her pussy while at the same time she started to massage her breasts. She was so horny she wasn't even taking any pictures, not like she really needed any more.

I looked down and Steve's head was turned to watch his mom, his eyes fixed on his mother's hairy pussy while his cock pumped in and out of me like a rampaging piston. I could only imagine what was going through his sex-crazed mind at this moment. I was pretty sure that this was the first time he had seen his mother naked and not only that, she was masturbating like a schoolgirl in heat right in front of him. It must have been an incredibly erotic moment for them both. It didn't hurt that she looked sexy as hell too. Fortunately for me, she was his mother or else I would've been afraid he might've wanted her instead of me. Well, even if he didn't want to fuck her I could tell he was getting plenty turned on by her based on the way he was taking it out on my pussy!

Marlene was working her pussy now with both hands, one with her fingers working her pussy like a little cock and the other rubbing her clit in tight little circles. Her chest was heaving as she began to pant. Suddenly her hips started bucking like she was being fucked by some imaginary lover. Despite it all, her eyes never left us, fixed on where Steve's cock was appearing and then disappearing inside of me. It was as if she couldn't get enough of watching her son fucking me. She was muttering things to herself, bucking her hips as if dreaming of her husband or some other lover fucking her. Wow, sometimes my mom would get carried away when she did herself but Marlene was taking it to a whole new level!

Whatever her fantasy was, it must have been pretty hot because suddenly she let out the loudest moan and bent over until her head touched her knee. She kept working her pussy as she moaned again and again as her orgasm overcame her. Different women react differently at these times and hers seemed to end rather abruptly compared to my mom when she came. She still had a wild look in her eye though as she straightened up and slowly touched herself.

She had yet another surprise though for me...

"It's not fair," she said with an accusing tone directed straight at me.

6. Marlene Takes My Place

What the heck was she talking about? I just couldn't figure out what Steve's mom meant so I slowed down a bit on Steve's cock while I looked at her with curiosity. I still couldn't figure out what she as talking about but then she continued on.

"Don't you get it Kelly? I haven't been laid in ages but you get my son's hard cock every day," she said with a strange look on her face.

Marlene was staring at her son's cock now, at least what she could see of it. I noticed she was subconsciously licking her lips just slightly, her tongue just moving outside her mouth as if she didn't want anyone to see what she was doing.

Suddenly it all became so obvious to me. Wow, how could I have been so dense? I guess it must have been that the very concept was so foreign to me, so unbelievable that the thought never even crossed my mind. But the more I thought about it, the more I realized what the real story of what was happening here was. I finally realized what this pathetic sex-starved mother wanted - or at least needed. All it took was someone to break the ice for her, to help relieve her of the guilt from the feelings she couldn't help but have.

I looking back down at Steve who didn't have a clue what was being communicated almost telepathically between me and his mom. Never mind, he was a guy and wouldn't catch a hint it someone hit him over the head with it. After all, this was a boy who didn't even see how much his sister wanted him - let alone his own mother!

I smiled at Steve in that way he knew I was about to say something wild or dangerous. "Do you REALLY want to turn me on Steve?"

He just gave me that "Duh!" look that came so natural to him. I took a deep breath as I had no idea how we would react to what I was about to say. Finally I looked at his mom and then I looked back at Steve and in a mischievous voice I said, "Mmmmmmm, fuck your mom for me Steve... I want to see you fuck your mom!"

For a moment I thought maybe I'd gone too far, even for a sex maniac like Steve. His eyes widened like the proverbial deer in the headlights. His mom heard what I said also but unlike her son's reaction, she was now looking at him with the most seductive look I'd ever seen on a woman her age with her tongue slowly and openly licking her lips. She didn't make a move though, it was as if she was waiting to see what her son's reaction was going to be to my suggestion. I stopped my bouncing on his dick and sat on his lap, his cock throbbing in me, as we waited for his reaction. It was pretty much initially what I would have predicted. For a moment it was deathly quiet in the room. Then he suddenly burst out his answer.

"Huh? Are you kidding me? You want me to fuck her... my own MOTHER?" he said incredulously, "Are you NUTS?"

"C'mon, don't tell me you've never dreamed about it before," I teased him, wiggling my little ass around his stiff dick.

"Well...," he stalled and I knew I'd hit pay dirt so I kept digging as I wiggled more.

"Look at your mother Steve," I said, grabbing his head and twisting it over to face his mom, "Can't you see how much she wants it? She wants her son Steve, she wants YOU!"

"Mom????" he almost whispered, more like a little boy lost in the mall hunting for his mommy than a sexy hunk of a teenage stud.

His mother just shrugged her shoulders as if it wasn't any big deal to her one way or another but the look on her face and the hand on her crotch said otherwise. Yep, she wanted him and she wanted him NOW.

"It's OK Steve," she said in a soft, gentle voice, "You don't have to do anything you don't want to do."

"Are you kidding? I just can't believe you want it too?" Steve said incredulously, as much to me as to his mom.

I grinned and lifted myself off of him. As I felt him flop out of me I second-guessed myself a little but it would be worth it. I took a spot on the chair which his mom had just vacated. The seat was nice and warm from her bare ass sitting on it. She hesitated for a second as she approached him but seemed to regain her courage and she kneeled down next him. It was my turn to watch now as Steve's mom reached out for her son's cock, gently grabbing it for the first time since he was a baby and then she started to stroke it slowly.

It was an incredible sight to see him lying on his back nude at any time but now that his naked mom was kneeling over him, I thought it was the most erotic sight I'd ever seen. Her ass was pretty decent and other than a few stretch marks left over as souvenirs of her pregnancies, she looked pretty hot if I said so myself.

"I know I shouldn't be doing this," she said in a low voice, almost as if talking to herself. Then she looked at me saying, "You know, I've dreamed of holding my son's cock ever since I first watched him masturbate."

Steve's eye's opened wider at that remark, obviously this was news to him!

"Silly boy!" she laughed at him, "I know all about your magazines and yes, even the porn collection under your mattress! You think I don't know why you close the door to your room all the time? And besides, NOBODY takes THAT long to use the bathroom."

Steve looked at her like she was some sort of oracle exposing his life secrets as she continued, "Well, sometimes you forget to close it tight. Don't worry - I've enjoyed watching you play with yourself as you stare at those magazine girls!"

She was still stroking his cock while she was talking to him. Then she looked down at it and licked her lips.

"God it looks so good! I've been wanting a taste of this cock for a long time!"

She turned to me and in a more serious tone said, "Now Kelly, make sure you get some good shots of the first time he gets blown by his mom!"

I couldn't help but notice she emphasized the word "first" and I think even Steve caught it as well judging from the silly grin on his face. Without dwelling on it further, she began to give Steve a wicked blowjob while I snapped picture after picture of them. I hated to admit it but she was a hell of lot better cocksucker than I was. Obviously she'd had a lot more experience and I learned a lot just that one time from watching her. Steve was just groaning as she sucked and licked his cock and balls. Steve's mom looked up at him and we could both see the look of sheer ecstasy on his face.

Finally, she paused for a moment and their eyes met, "I bet you never knew your mommy could give such a good blow job!"

Steve could not even get out a reply as she once again went to work on his cock. I knew from plenty of experience that he was about to explode and started to say something but his mom recognized the signs as well and once again paused. She then stood up and leaned over on the coffee table.

"Now fuck me like you were fucking that little slut. Fuck me Steve... fuck your mommy NOW."

Steve appeared almost dazed at this point, completely overwhelmed by everything that was going on. As she WAS his mother he would have undoubtedly done anything she told him without question but in this case she had complete control over him. She got down on all fours and spread her legs apart for him. God I couldn't believe how hairy her pussy was! It was like there was this thick bush between her legs and he had to push the hair out of the way just to see her pussy.

Moving in behind her, I watched intently through the camera lens as he guided his incestuous erection into in mother's hot pussy and started to stroke it in and out of her. At her age I was sure her pussy wasn't nearly as tight as mine but at the same time, she hadn't been fucked in ages according to her announcement before so maybe she had tightened up a bit. One thing was for sure though, she definitely knew how to use it! Marlene rotated her large hips around his cock and I could almost see her pussy muscles contracting against his cock. I was so turned on at the sight of seeing my boyfriend fucking his own mother that I just sat back in the chair and fingered myself gently as I watched. I smiled to myself as I realized it was now official - my stud of a boyfriend was now officially a REAL "motherfucker"!

Steve looked over at me and grinned. "I hate to say this Kelly but you need to talk to my mom about pussy technique! Oh my God! She's incredible!"

I faked a pout but kept taking pictures of them fucking. Who could blame him for getting a bit carried away under the circumstances? His mom eventually pushed him away and then she laid back on the couch. Her one leg went up to the top of the couch while the other hung over the side. Steve was looking at her like she was the first naked woman he'd ever seen! His hand was stroking his cock as he took in the sight of his own mother, naked and horny on the couch waiting for her son to fuck her some more.

She looked at him and seeing him jerking his cock she sternly said, "Now young man, don't you dare waste that cum in your hand!"

Steve didn't have to be told everything and he recognized what his mom wanted so he got up on the couch and worked his way between her legs. Leaning over her, he slowly lowered himself down until his cock was pressing against her hairy cunt. He rubbed it up and down her slit and against her clit.

"Oh baby that feels so good," she moaned softly, "Now put it in me... I want your hard fat cock in your mommy's pussy."

She reached down and practically pulled his stiff cock into her. As soon as the head was in position, Steve thrust forward and his cock was quickly swallowed up by her hairy pussy as he pushed it even harder into her. It was so fast I barely got a shot of it! She lifted her hips up to meet her son's cock. It was like she couldn't get that the next one would be my boyfriend's mom - ESPECIALLY given the way she had always acted around me!

For a brief moment I held my breath as I wondered if maybe she wanted to try something with ME. I felt torn because on one hand I knew it would be an incredibly erotic experience but on the other hand I'd never been with a woman sexually before and I was apprehensive and not just a little bit scared. As it turned out I had nothing to worry about. It was her son she wanted, not his girlfriend.

"Thank you Kelly," she said softly.

I looked up at her with a quizzical expression. She smiled at me and explained.

"If it wasn't for you getting him to fuck you in our house this would've never happened. Steve has never brought anyone else home before so I was never able to watch him in action."

She hugged me tightly again and I could feel her bare full breast pressing against mine. Again I had the feeling that all I had to do was respond the right way and things could get REALLY interesting. Instead, I gave her a neutral hug and she leaned back again as she wasn't going to push it unless I made it more obvious I wanted it.

Actually, at the time I felt a bit of a relief that she wasn't pressing the issue. I often masturbated with my cousin but we never actually touched each other. Even at sleepovers and parties we may have done some innocent kissing and mutual masturbation but nobody ever engaged in any "real" sex. The one thing I did know after this was that the idea wasn't something I was necessarily not interested in. It just would require the right circumstances.

After that she turned her attention back to Steve. It was actually like I wasn't even there at that point. It wasn't like they were trying to be lovers or anything. She didn't even try to kiss him. I couldn't help but wonder if she was just so horny from not having sex that knowing we did it all the time had finally overridden whatever restraint that naturally exists between a parent and a child in terms of sex. She wanted a cock so badly that eventually even her own son wasn't taboo if it meant satisfying the hunger between her legs.

I sort of knew how she felt. I hadn't been having sex for all that long but even so, if I had to go more than a few days without Steve fucking me it was like it got to where all I could think about was sex. Oh sure masturbation helped a little from a physical perspective but it didn't deal with the emotional feelings I get when a guy takes me so satisfy himself with me. I can make myself cum just as good as any guy but there is something in knowing I have what he needs and can satisfy the same burning in him that can only be experienced through actual sex.

If I felt that crazy after just a few days, I could only imagine what his mom must have been holding back inside of herself if she hadn't fucked in weeks or maybe even months or more! No wonder she was willing to let her son fuck her. The amazing part to me was that she hadn't just jumped on him bed before this! Somehow I doubt that would've gone over as well with Steve though. Fucking me just seemed to make switching to his mom something natural whereas had she approached him directly it would have been more perverted than sexy.

Silently I gathered my stuff and got dressed. Neither of them paid a bit of attention to me. I guess I could understand but yet I couldn't help but feel a little bit jealous as well. I mean, Steve could have at least pretended to want me again! In his defense, his mom wasn't giving him much of a chance as she was sucking his cock like she hadn't tasted one in years as I walked out of the house.

After returning home and later when I was with my mom I naturally told her about what happened. I was a little surprised by her immediate reaction. First, I knew I completely surprised her when I got to the part about his mom as she knew Steve's mom as well or better than I did. The idea of her even letting Steve see her naked, let alone do what they did, must have been almost unbelievable to start with. It was when I made some comment about how it was hot that he would even have sex with his own mom but yet it seemed pretty weird to me that my mom got this sudden look on her face, almost like she was disappointed in me for something. I was about to say something when she brightened up and urged me to continue. I still wondered later what it was that I'd said that had made her look that way.

Postscript

That was the only time Steve's mom joined us or even watched us so far as I knew while we dated. Steve DID brag to me that he fucked his mom a few times after that day but there was something about the way he said it, the lack of enthusiasm or whatever that made me question his claims. Was he just making it up to tease me? Whatever the truth was it certainly didn't keep him from fucking me as much as I wanted it so I didn't mind.

As I mentioned, my mom and I had several long discussions about everything. She was convinced it was all preplanned and I just walked into their little trap. Then again, she wasn't there so she didn't see the expressions and body language which convinced me it was real. Admittedly it DID seem to all go off just a little too easy so maybe my mom was right? Then again she usually is.

One thing that I've always been curious about was what she did with the pictures from that day...

just dump me afterwards like I was some notch on his belt the way some guys might have. One of my closest friends had such a horror story where her guy was sweet and kind at first but once she let him in her panties he never talked to her again. Even worse, he wasn't afraid to tell every guy in school he'd scored with her and that she was a skank. Here we were over three months later and Steve was still dating me exclusively which made me feel very special. Sure he told everyone we were doing it but at least what he told them was complimentary.

For all these reasons, and maybe mixed with a little concern over having to deal with a different guy, I didn't even date another guy after our first time, let alone have sex with anyone else. Steve was still the only boy to get to home plate with me and he was making the rounds of the bases as often as he could! Sometimes I don't know who wants it more, him or me. It seemed that it's all we did whenever we got together. Even so, it seems the more we did it, the more I wanted it.

Steve's parents were divorced and he lived at home with his mom and younger sister and brother. Sharon was one of my best friends and it was thanks to her that I met Steve in the first place. Their little brother was a pain, always trying to look up my skirt or down my top whenever I was at their house. Sharon knew all about what Steve and I did but rather than being upset or embarrassed, she thought it was hot that her friend and brother were doing it. She even liked to pretend she was jealous of me but I think she just got a kick out of teasing me.

When you're a teenager there aren't all that many options when it comes to finding a place to have sex. Of course there's always the family car where Steve had screwed me a number of times in both the front and back seats but it was awkward and lost its allure after the first few times. We did it most anywhere we could get away with it – movie theaters, parks, school, church, even an old school playground. The best times, though, were when our parents were out and we had our bedrooms to ourselves and could relax and be comfortable. Not to say we always did it in a bed, but you get the picture.

There was ONE minor detail that Steve didn't know about and that was the extent to which my parents knew what he was doing with their only daughter. My mom had always been my closest friend and since I was a little girl I confided everything to her. She was the first person I told after I gave Steve my first BJ and the first again after Steve took my virginity. She taught me to masturbate and even kept an open offer to me to make use of the impressive collection of dildos she kept in the drawer by her bed (I prefer my fingers so I don't use them all that much). When I usually wore a towel or robe. Another example is sleeping in the nude. I started when I was twelve, at first to mimic my parents and then simply because I just enjoyed the comfort that comes without wearing anything to bed. However, the rules were once I got up I immediately put something on to cover myself up at least a little bit. Unless I was dressing or passing between the bathroom and my bedroom my parents didn't usually see me totally nude around the house. We only had one small bathroom so sometimes when someone was in a hurry they might shower while someone else was in there but that was about it. I never felt right about sharing it to use the toilet – some things require privacy!

When it comes masturbation, that's another thing I have a hard time understanding why most families make such a big deal out of it. Thankfully I was taught that masturbation is healthy and whether people admit it or not, something most everyone needs to do from time to time. Whenever I or my parents felt inclined, depending on how bad the need we might wait until we were alone or if the urge was that strong then we just do it where we were without embarrassment. My mom stressed that masturbation by definition is a solo event so putting on some kind of "show" was strictly forbidden. It just made sense. I mean, if I was watching a show and getting turned on by some stud, why not just do it then and there instead of putting it off until I went to bed?

Masturbation at home to satisfy an itch though is one thing. Regardless of how you might try to say differently, watching someone do it can still be a turn-on. Though he would never admit it, I knew my dad liked it when I would do it on the couch while he watched TV so I figured Steve would be the same being a normal male. Steve was quite surprised the first time I masturbated in front of him as apparently none of the other girls he dated had done so. It took some convincing on my part to get him to do it with me around but once he realized how horny it made me any inhibitions quickly disappeared.

Sitting by Steve, I couldn't help but look at his lap and dream about his lovely dick, frustrated that it was hiding from me beneath his jeans. Mmmmmmm, what I could do with it at that moment! God I loved his cock and what he did to me with it! I never grew tired of seeing him grow hard, knowing the reason for it was ME. I especially loved the feeling of it getting bigger in my mouth when I sucked him. I bet every girl gets turned on knowing it's her that's causing such reaction in a guy. It certainly made me feel incredibly hot and sexy! Mmmmmmm, I would've loved to reach down and unzip his jeans, pulling out his wonderful dick and sucking it right there and then on the couch. Yet as much as Steve loved me to suck his cock, I knew that he'd freak out if I did it with my parents in the same room so I just had to dream about it and do my best to ignore my itching pussy.

Indeed, my pussy was getting warmer by the minute as I started thinking more and more about my boyfriend's dick than the TV show. As horny as I was I knew that if he hadn't been there I would've been fingering myself by now. As much as we fooled around in public, I still doubted that he was ready to deal with me doing myself with my parents in the room! From my perspective, I would've been "doing it while my parents were in the room" rather than "doing it in front of my parents". It may have been a subtle difference but an important one.

As I got hornier and hornier I started squirming more and more. My mom sneaked a peak at me now and then, smiling and shaking her head. She knew what was going on with me and no doubt it amused her to see my discomfort. She often teased my about how horny I was all the time, even going so far as to say when I was younger that my pussy would wear out if I kept playing with it so much.

Finally I couldn't take it anymore. If I didn't get my hands on that incredible dick and get them on it soon I was going to go bonkers!

"Hey Steve, don't you think we should get started on our homework?" I asked innocently.

"If you guys want to do it down here, we can turn the TV down if that would help," my dad chimed in. As much as I loved my dad I could've killed him! He knew full well what my true intentions were and the last thing I needed now was him teasing me! He knew darn well I wasn't interested in homework!

"Mom!" I whined, pleading with her for support.

"John...," my mom said, giving my dad a look telling him to leave me alone. It was all she needed to do as my dad took the hint and went back to his newspaper, ignoring us again for the moment at least.

"C'mon Steve, let's go up to my bedroom," I said, sitting up straight and grabbing his hand.

"Are you sure...?" he asked a bit hesitantly, looking at my parents and then back at me. He didn't say anything but the message was clear.

"Stop being such a fuddy dud, just come on!" I huffed, standing up and pulling him up off the couch. I gave my parents a wave and a little smile as we headed up to my bedroom.

3. In My bedroom With Steve

With the family room in the basement and my bedroom on the second floor it was a bit of a climb but I would have scaled Mount Everest at that moment if it meant getting fucked by Steve. Once in my bedroom I immediately hopped up on my bed and laid out flat with my head on the pillow and arms to my side. Steve started to close the door but I raised my hand to stop him.

"Leave it partly open," I told him.

"But what if your parents come up here?"

"The stairs squeak something horrible so it's better to leave the door open so we'll hear them coming. Better to do that than have them surprise us, don't you think?"

It wasn't like I could tell him one of the conditions my parents had made in return for allowing me to bring him home was my door couldn't be closed. They claimed it was for my own protection so in case anything happened they would hear me. Given they were in the basement family room I frankly didn't think it mattered whether my door was open or closed but it that's all it took to get them to agree then I quickly accepted their terms.

Steve's eyes squinted as he pondered by rationalization. It took less than ten seconds and then he shrugged his shoulders, apparently accepting my logic even as twisted and illogical as it may have been.

"Well, are you just going to stand there or are you going to take my clothes off?" I teased him, rolling back and forth from side to side on my bed.

Steve took another look at the door which he had left open a couple of inches before turning back to me. One thing I loved about Steve, he was always as horny as any sixteen year-old boy could be and once his little head started to do the thinking the big one lost all control. Right now he would do most anything to fuck me and I knew it, even if it meant risking my parents catching us.

Steve came to my bedside and reached down to undo the zipper on my jeans. Whenever we started doing it I found it interesting to see where he wanted to start with me and unzipping my jeans was always a good sign. My boobs weren't exactly the most developed but my pussy and ass were light years ahead so it wasn't surprising he usually wanted to get to those first. After undoing the zipper I raised my hips up to make it easier for him to pull my tight jeans down and off my hips, we had an audience and I tried to be sure to speak up loud enough for my dad to hear me as well.

"Shit Kelly, you're always so fucking tight," Steve groaned, grunting as he kept the pressure on, pushing his dick up to the hilt inside of me. Our crotches met, the base of his dick pushed up against the outside of my pussy. Steve ground his crotch into me, our pubic hair intertwining. His thick black hair mixed with my fuzzy brown covering, tickling me more than anything else.

"Oh yes... don't move now... just stay in me," I said softly as he held himself inside of me.

Steve's cock was so erect it literally throbbed inside of me, allowing me feel his pulse deep inside of my pussy. Now and then he unconsciously shuddered a bit and his dick would jerk in me but that was OK, as it added a sense of reality that no dildo could duplicate. Finally, he couldn't hold back anymore and started stroking his cock in and out of me. At first they were full length strokes where he would draw himself out of me to the point his dick almost would slip out and then drive back in as far as he could penetrate me. As time went by the strokes shortened and got faster. I knew what that meant so it was time to make a change if I didn't want this to end prematurely.

"I want you to fuck me from behind," I gasped after we had fucked this way a while.

I'd learned that while Steve would fuck me about any way I asked, he seemed to prefer good old missionary style and left to his own devices he would've stayed like this until he came. On the other hand I tended to be more adventurous, looking for new ways to fuck all the time. One thing about my dad's porn collection - it was a great source of ideas!

Steve's cheeks puffed out as he released his breath, obviously a bit frustrated at having to pull out of me, even for a few seconds. Whatever, I didn't care as I had needs too! I simply rolled over until my ass was up in the air, facing the side of the bed where he was still standing. Spreading my legs slightly he quickly reinserted himself much more easily this time and was soon back in his rhythm again. Less than ten seconds had passed, if that much, in the changeover so it wasn't like he had anything to complain about.

The reason I enjoyed doggie style is because it allows for the deepest penetration by his dick. Missionary was my overall favorite because I O could see Steve's facial expressions. It also made him the dominate one and while I'm not submissive by nature, I enjoyed letting Steve THINK I was as it seemed he got much more inventive when he was in control.

Each time Steve rammed his hard dick in me it was like being spanked as his crotch slapped up noisily against my bare ass. God, it was like he was going to push himself up inside my throat! Steve's hands were on my bare hips, using them like handles to pull me in and then push me back out again in sync with his dick as he fucked me. I quickly used it as an excuse to turn my head and sure enough I could just make out the eye of someone peeking through the door. It had to be my dad or else my mom had grown several inches taller in the past hour or so. I would've loved to have mouthed to him, "I love you daddy" or something like that but Steve would've probably caught me and wondered what was going on. I doubt he would've understood my father wanting to watch me getting fucked, undoubtedly turning it into some kinky male fantasy instead.

"Hey, you ready for a ride?" Steve asked between pants.

Well, why not? It was more work for me of course, but I didn't doubt that he needed the break.

Steve pulled out and for a moment I regretted agreeing as my pussy felt so empty! Needing him again I quick backed off my bed to allow Steve to get up on it. He laid out lengthwise, his wet dick sticking up like a flagpole from his crotch where the base was buried in thick pubic hair. Before jumping on board I couldn't resist leaning over and taking a few mouthfuls for myself. Mmmmmmm, I could even taste my pussy on his cock!

Oh well, as much as I loved sucking his cock I loved being fucked by it even more so regretfully I let his cock slip from my mouth but I knew it would be there another night for me to enjoy it - many nights for that matter. Once on the bed I straddled his hips, sitting up straight so his cock was directly underneath me. Reaching in with my hand, I grabbed the shaft and moved it under my pussy hole. Once we were lined up I swiftly dropped my weight down to drive it into me yet again. As wet as I was and stretched from I took him easily.

Mmmmmmm, once my boyfriend was inside of me I dropped my full weight down on him until he was buried inside of me and I was literally sitting on his crotch. By swiveling my hips I could grind my pussy into his crotch, feeling his cock swivel around inside of me. Leaning forward, I dropped to support myself with my hands on either of his shoulders, letting my little boobs dangle just above his face (well, "dangle" might be entirely correct but you get the idea.

"Suck my nipples," I whispered hoarsely to him as he lifted and then dropped his hips to cause his dick to move in and out of me without me having to do much of anything.

I lowered myself down as he raised his head and he took my nipples in his mouth one-by-one, sucking on one and then back to the other. I loved my boobs to be played with and sucked, especially my nipples which could be incredible sensitive at times. Just wearing a loose shirts that moved across them as I walked was enough sometimes to harden them up like I was being laid.

Holding myself up with one hand, his mouth on my nipples and his dick in my pussy, I reached between us to finger my clit. It was so swollen and sensitive I almost jumped off his dick when I first touched it. It wasn't going to take much more to set me off, that much was for sure!

"I'm cumming Steve," I moaned as if it was necessary to tell Steve given the way my pussy was gripping his cock. Besides, I had my audience to keep informed as well.

Steve had often complained, in a nice sort of way, that when I came it was like his cock was caught in a vise from the way my pussy would squeeze down on it when I was having an orgasm. I couldn't help it, it was just a natural reaction that I had no control over. Besides I knew he wasn't really complaining.

It was all so wonderful, exactly what I had dreamed about for most of the day once I knew Steve would be coming over. After waiting for hours finally I was being fucked and sucked. My pussy was exploding, causing my entire body to break out in goose bumps as I groaned and moaned from the seemingly impossibly strong waves of pleasure that were running through every part of my nude and sweating body.

"Oh my god, you feel so good in me!" I moaned loudly, throwing my head back as I sat up on his crotch, Steve's dick imbedded in me like I was mounted on a pole. My one hand stayed on my clit as the other played with my boobs.

Steve just watched me as I kept myself going while sitting on his dick. He had told me before it always amazed him how long I could maintain an orgasm, gripping his dick with my pussy and gushing my pussy cum over him as my body flushed. Even when I had my eyes open it was like nothing was in focus, just a blur as my mind seemed to focus completely on what was happening between my legs. I swore sometimes my hair even seemed to tingle when I came really hard as the sensations spread out all through my body. Before Steve started fucking me, I used to cum pretty hard when I masturbated but those times were nothing compared to this, when a real dick was inside of me instead of my finger.

God, I loved to be fucked and at that moment all I knew was that I wanted Steve to do me as often as he could. It was like he some sort of drug dealer, the guy I went to when I really wanted to get "high" except instead of using a drug I generated my own "high" within me. I suppose it could be argued by some that the hormones and chemicals released in me when I orgasmed were no different than taking other drugs and that I could be getting "hooked" on them in the same way people get hooked on heroin. Well, if that be the case then I really didn't care - it feels great, it's legal, and I always have it with me! The only difference being the "quality" of my supply as it was always better when I got it from Steve.

Had nothing else happened my orgasm would have started winding down by now but Steve wasn't exactly taking all this lying down, if you know what I mean. Seeing me get off and feeling my pussy work his cock was enough to get Steve worked up as well and sure enough, he couldn't hold back anymore. I have to admit I was caught a bit by surprise when I opened my eyes and looked down at Steve only to see his eyes close and a moan escape from him as he came again, this time in my pussy instead of my mouth.

Some girls claim they can't feel a guy when he cums in them but most, including me, would say otherwise. Sure it may vary in intensity between guys or even between fuckings but I still feel something. All I knew as sensitive as I was at this point, it was like a bomb went off in me as his dick swelled slightly and then seemed to explode as a felt his cum spewing from him and shooting deep inside of me. It was just what I needed at that moment to revive my own orgasm, setting me off again.

"Oh yeah Steve, that's it, cum in me," I cried out, not caring how loud I was this time.

One after the other, like machine gun fire Steve emptied load after load of sperm inside of me. Rather than being smaller the second time, if anything it was like had even more than the first time when he came in my mouth. My pussy felt like it was on fire as his final shot of sperm was deposited in me. My pussy gripped him tight, like it was a milking machine attached to a cow except I was on top of him instead of hanging down below.

"More... give it to me Steve," I gasped, "I want it ALL in me... give me everything you've got!"

Steve just grunted as his strong hips lifted up as if trying to push his dick in me even further, ancient instincts kicking in making him drive his sperm deeper into me like he was mating with me. Finally he was finished and I just fell forward, laying against his chest with his dick half in me. We kissed for what seemed forever as my entire body seemed to sizzle with the heat of my passion for him. Nobody had ever made me feel the way Steve did and I just wanted him to know how much I loved it when he fucked me.

"You know, for such a little girl you sure can get heavy," Steve said gently after a while.

Still feeling a little dazed, I had no idea what time it was or how long we'd been at it until I looked at the clock next to my bed. Dang, we'd been at it for well over an hour! I wondered if my dad was still watching but there was no way to turn my head around to look without being obvious about it. In any case, he probably was gone by now since the show was essentially over.

Rolling over towards the wall, I wedging myself on my side between the bed rail and Steve's nude sweaty body. With one arm draped over his chest and one leg over his, I let my throbbing pussy rub up against his hip. It was like I was some sort of male dog, humping myself gently against him, my pussy still craving for more despite everything it had been given.

"God Kelly, aren't you EVER satisfied?" Steve teased me as he felt me humping his leg.

"No!" I answered him simply. I wasn't just being silly, I meant it. I couldn't conceive how I could ever be totally fulfilled to the point where I quit fucking because I was "satisfied". There was always a point it had to end but that was dictated by other things, not my pussy!

"I can believe THAT!" he chuckled. "I think I've created a sex monster!"

"Well, it's all your fault so now you have to live with the consequences," I said as I snuggled up against him, my small bare breast squeezed tightly against his hard body.

"I think somehow I'll manage," he replied with a laugh. "Now don't you think we'd better do a little studying?"

"What!" I exclaimed, pretending to be surprised and shocked, "The only thing I wanted to study tonight was your dick."

"It seems that's all you ever want to study," he laughed, "I feel used sometimes. Don't you ever want to be with me for more than my dick? Don't you really want to know me for who I am inside?"

He pretended to pout but then burst out laughing. Sure I liked Steve and maybe even was starting to love him. Even so, we both knew what really kept our relationship going - sex. Well, I wasn't complaining and I knew he wasn't either.

Eventually we got up and dressed. It was tempting to just put on a nightshirt since it was getting late and in the end that finally what I decided to do. Steve watched as I pulled one out from my dresser and let it drop over my head. It came down to about mid-thigh when I stood up and was made of thin cotton so it didn't leave a lot to the imagination on top.

"Is that what you're wearing to bed?" Steve asked.

"Of course not silly," I replied, "I don't wear anything to bed. This is what I wear around at night."

"Wait a minute, you sleep nude?" Steve questioned me, looking at me a little closer.

"Sure, I have since I was twelve. What's the big deal?"

"And you wear THAT around the house at night?"

"Yep!"

"JUST that?"

I looked at him like he was asking me the silliest questions in the world and replied, "Of course, what's wrong with it?"

"I mean, no panties or bra?"

"Of course not, why would I? I'm at home, not church you know."

"In front of your parents?"

"Steve!" I huffed, getting a bit tired of the forty questions routine. "What's the big deal with me wearing this?"

"No big deal... never mind," he replied, turning to leave my bedroom.

As much as I had toyed with him, I knew full well what he was thinking - I'm really not that stupid or naive you know. Most kids didn't sleep nude, I knew that, but it was the way our family slept and none of us made a big deal out of it. Besides, once we got up we put something on. As for wearing just a nightshirt without panties, like a typical guy who only thought with his dick he no doubt assumed I flashed my dad or something else just as weird and kinky. Oh sure there may have been a few times when he got an eyeful of my bottom but it was by accident IF it did happen and what was the big deal even if he did? He'd seen me naked all my life and it's not like I was putting on a show for my dad while he masturbated or anything like that.

Once back in the family room Steve stopped to say goodnight to my parents and then left from the back basement door. After watching him leave I hopped onto the couch and wrapped my legs under me to watch TV again.

"Well, did the two you get ANY studying done?" my mom asked rather mischievously.

Like she really didn't know! I turned to look back at her and rolled my eyes at her.

"Oh mom!" I whined a little. She grinned, knowing knew full well what we'd been doing up there.

"So what did you think daddy, did like seeing your daughter getting fucked?" I suddenly said to my dad, catching him more than a little off guard.

"John?" my mom said, looking at my dad with renewed interest, "Something you forgot to tell me about?"

"I... I was just making sure she was OK," my dad stammered. It wasn't me so much he seemed to be concerned about but my mom.

"Yeah right," my mom chastised him, "No wonder it took you so long to go to the bathroom."

"I just checked in on them," my dad continued in his defense, "I heard her moan so I just wanted to be sure everything was OK."

Yeah right, I knew better but I wasn't going to say anything and get in the middle of this one.

My mom just shook her head in that "I can't believe men sometimes" way she should have had patented. My dad seemed relieved to have gotten out of it so easily but turned out he was a little premature with his self-congratulations. What the heck, why not...?

"Now daddy, you didn't tell me what you thought about seeing Steve fuck me," I continued to needle him.

"That's quite enough Kelly," my mom said, surprising me by rising to the defense of my father. I could tell from her look that she was shutting down the tease anyone else. Besides, I had no doubt at some point we would find somewhere private in the house to have some fun on our own.

Checking myself out in my bedroom mirror while I waited for Steve, I smiled as I thought to myself how turned on he would be when he saw the outfit I'd picked out. To me it was the perfect party outfit - not enough to actually show anything but terribly suggestive as to what was barely being covered up. The black skirt was extremely short, even by MY standards, and it barely covered my cute little butt (OK, so I'm proud of it). I'd picked it out after seeing one my friends figure skating and realized that the skirts she was wearing would be perfect for flirting. Of course, I wasn't planning on wearing the tights she wore to cover herself up! All I had to do was bend over just a little and it would ride up my ass, revealing the skimpy black string thong I had on underneath. Granted, normally I avoid wearing panties and I especially despised thongs (think about it guys, how would you like to walk around with a wedgie all day?) Still, I had to wear SOMETHING with this skirt to avoid being arrested for indecent exposure!

On top I'd chosen a skin-tight sheer white blouse through which my black lace bra was clearly visible - which is why I was wearing the bra in the first place. A pair of black four inch strap-on heels completed the outfit. Turning away from the mirror, I look over my shoulder and smiled. This was my best "profile" as my boobs weren't developing as fast as I wished they would. It seemed all my friends had these great boobs going and here I was still trying to justify an "A" cup (well, technically a training bra but a girl can dream).

I guess that's why I loved wearing clothes that emphasized my ass. I couldn't claim any credit for it since I didn't work out, did sports, or anything like that. I guess I had to thank genetics for granting me a tight little ass that filled out my jeans perfectly. I loved Steve to touch it and hold it while we walked through the mall or when we were with his friends. Sometimes when nobody was looking his hands would wander and work their way between my thin legs and my pussy started to tingle as I remembered the last time he'd done just that.

With my eyes closed I sighed softly as my fingers pushed aside the thong and lightly touched my fuzzy pussy. God it had felt so good when he touched me! I rubbed my clit slowly as I dreamed of his fingers on me, teasing my clit and exploring my pussy. My pussy was already wet as I pushed my own finger up in me and I gasped as goose bumps seemed to break out all over me. I started to think of how later tonight Steve would be taking off my thong and licking me, tasting my pussy as my short pubic hair rubbed against his face. Then he would fuck me and I'd be moaning as I added another finger in me while I dreamed of his wonderful cock entering me. He had fucked me over at his house the day before but that now seemed like centuries ago as I continued to masturbate.

Left to my own devices, odds were I would've been lying in bed before long with my thong down at my ankles or on the floor while I fingered myself to a massive orgasm. However, that wasn't going to happen as just then my mom walked in on me, interrupting my little play time. Now I don't mean to imply that she did something bad. On the contrary, my door is ALWAYS open as I shared everything with my mom and had nothing ever to hide. In fact, she was the first person I told when Steve first fucked me! I've been masturbating for a few years now and undoubtedly she's seen me do it a number of times since we first had our mother-daughter "talk" about it. I wasn't embarrassed for her to see me playing with myself although normally she didn't make a point of interrupting me when I was doing it.

"Ahhhhhh, thinking about going out with Steve again?" she asked, a motherly smile on her face.

I paused to answer although my hand never left my pussy. While I didn't mind being polite and respectful in answering her, that didn't mean I had to deprive myself as well. "Yeah, we're going over to the Drakes tonight. They're letting Diane and Jordan throw a party tonight.

"Well, look out for yourself then. I've heard some of the other mothers talk about their parties and they seem to be pretty wild."

"Oh Mom!" I whined, "I'm not twelve years old anymore you know."

For crying out loud, wasn't that the whole point such parties, to be wild? I loved my mom dearly but sometimes she could be TOO protective.

My mom just smiled again and ignored my pleas. Then she shook her head as she took in my outfit.

"Hmmmmmm, not exactly leaving much to the imagination tonight, are we?"

"I was just hoping Steve would like it," I said defensively.

"Oh I'm sure he will," she laughed, "And I'd be willing to bet so will the rest of the boys."

"Oh don't worry mom, you know Steve is the only I let do me," I assured her.

"So, is that the thong and bra set your father bought you last week?" she asked, changing the subject yet again for some reason. He said you really looked good in it when you posed for him.

"Yeah, what do you think of them?" I asked, turning around in a circle so she could see me from all angles, "He really liked them on me. He took a bunch."

"Well, he's always had pretty good taste when it comes to lingerie," she said, nodding her head as she inspected my thong. "Although you might want to think twice about wearing that thong and skirt together if you go anywhere more public than that party."

We both laughed together at that one.

"So your dad had you pose in it?" she questioned, "He didn?t mention THAT to me."

"Well, I tried it on in the store when we were shopping but the old prude there wouldn?t let him in the dressing room so we had to wait until we got home for him to see it on me."

My mom just sighed and then laughed a bit saying, "Well it was probably better you waited until you got home anyways. The bra's not so bad but that thong..."

I knew what she was referring to but the thong was why my dad chose it in the first place. I had to be a little careful as when it rode up it practically slipped in right between my pussy lips but my dad didn?t seem to mind. Something told me Steve wouldn?t either.

My mom continued, "Well, Steve's going to be here any minute but I think you have enough time to show your dad some appreciation."

Mothers! Always trying to make sure you thank people and what not for everything. My dad likes to buy clothes for both of use, especially lingerie, and I had to agree with my mom - he DID have pretty good taste. Many a time Steve had complimented me on an outfit I was wearing that my dad had bought me although I never told Steve that it was my dad's choice. I wasn?t embarrassed to shop with my dad but I didn't want Steve to get any weird ideas. My dad may enjoy shopping for women's clothing and I got a kick out of modeling them for him when he gave them to me, but that was as far as it went. I mean really, get your minds out of the gutter; he's my dad, not my boyfriend!

Even though I would've preferred to take the time I had left to finish myself off, just to make my mom happy I grabbed my purse and headed downstairs to the family room in our basement. My dad was watching TV as usual. He looked up from a legal dossier on his lap when I walked in. His eyebrows raised and a smile came to his face at the sight of his only daughter dressed like a street walker.

"Well daddy, what do you think?" I asked as I twirled around, causing the skirt to fly up and expose the thong and 99% of my little butt.

"Well... I think you look like a brazen slut!" he teased me. "The skirt and blouse add a certain something to it."

I leaned over to kiss him on the forehead and he smacked me on my all but bare bottom playfully. "So how long will that outfit be staying on tonight?"

"Oh Daddy!" I exclaimed, pretending to be shocked, "You know I'm not that kind of girl!"

My dad laughed, "Yeah right... I just happen to know you ARE just that kind of girl!" Then he looked over at my mom who had come in behind me. "Hey Mary, our daughter here claims she's not a slut. What do you think mom?"

"Hey, don't look at me. It wasn't ME that bought her that outfit you know," she replied, shaking her head.

I turned to go but my dad smacked my bottom playfully. "Hey, no goodbye kiss?"

I looked at my mom who was wagging a finger at me for forgetting. Leaning over, I balanced myself placing one hand on his shoulder and another on his crotch. Our mouths met and we kissed, his strong arms reaching around me and pulling me in tighter. His tongue pressed against my lips which parted to allow him entrance. I felt him gasp slightly as I pressed down on his crotch, teasing him playfully.

Just then I heard a horn honk and knew Steve must have arrived. I stood up and caught my breath as my dad rearranged his pants.

"Well, at least TRY to behave yourself," my dad called out to me as I started towards the stairs. I didn't say anything but just blew him a kiss and grinned naughtily. He knew me better that! If my parents really expected me to "behave" my mom wouldn't have had my gynecologist put me on the pill!

Sure enough, Steve's car (or more precisely, his mom's car) was parked by the curb and Steve was looking out the window to see whether or not I was coming. I waved goodbye to my mom who was standing in the doorway as I climbed in the passenger seat. She grinned back at me and I had to wonder if she wasn't wishing she was in my heels.

2. Steve Forgets His Wallet

No sooner was I seated in his car than Steve looked at me sheepishly saying, "Uhhhh, sorry but we have to go back to my house first."

"Why?" I asked.

"Well, I forgot my wallet," he said lamely. I rolled my eyes and huffed a bit dramatically. Much as I loved Steve, the boy was always forgetting something. Thank god his dick was attached or he might forget THAT as well and then where would we be! Fortunately his house wasn't that far away so it was a quick trip. When we got there he turned off the car and twisted towards me.

"Why don't you just stay here while I go find it?" he offered, sticking his head back in the door after getting out. He didn't even wait for an answer but instead closed the door and headed into the house.

Well excuse me! It WAS November and I really didn't feel much like sitting out in the cold with bare legs so I decided to ignore him and follow him in where I could stay warm. Although I had a warm jacket on, it wasn't like I had all that much on lower down to keep me warm!!

It was more than just personal comfort that I had in mind. There was always the chance that nobody would be home. It wouldn't hurt my feelings a bit if we just stayed and had our own private party. With a brother and sister and a working mom the house wasn't empty very often which is why we usually ended up at my house when we wanted to have sex. It didn't matter if my parents were home as they never interrupted us and if anything, they encouraged him to come over and do me rather than going out and parking or finding some other unsafe place to fuck.

Hopefully this would be one of those rare times we could do it at his house but as luck would have it his thirteen year-old brother Jim was in the family room watching TV. At first I thought that was going to make a dud of the whole idea but Steve apparently had been harboring a devious idea for teasing his pain-in-the-ass brother.

It's incredible the difference three years can make. Whereas Steve was this mature, strong, smart, sexy paragon of a teenage boy, Jim was just the opposite. Dear God, he reminded me so much of the other boys in middle school, the perverted creeps who snapped girl's bra straps in the hallway. It seemed that Jim was always trying to look up my skirt or down my blouse. He'd even tried spying on me and his sister once when we were masturbating in her bedroom. He was such a little pervert! Another time he'd even tried to spy on his own brother when Steve was fucking me!

While I dallied Steve appeared at the top of the stairs. He took a good long look at me starting at my heels and then slowly, deliberately working his way up to my head, lingering on my crotch and boobs of course. I had no doubt at all that he was undressing me in his mind and I wanted to just scream at him that he could do it for real if he just allowed me to follow him into his bedroom. It didn't help that Steve knew it turned me on something fierce when he looked at me this way. He made me feel like I was a fresh piece of meat in front of a starving dog. One thing for sure, he was definitely getting turned on by what he saw - no hiding that familiar bulge in his pants!

"Damn Kelly," he chortled as he came down the stairs, "I thought the idea tonight was for you to tease the guys first and THEN show them the goods. Seems you forgot about step one!"

Steve came back down the stairs just far enough to give me a quick kiss and then he turned to head upstairs again to his room. He took just a single step and then paused, apparently lost in thought. Then, to my surprise, he turned back yet again to me and winked.

"You know, you look like you're in one of those moods to be extra naughty tonight. How would you like to get started early?"

Well was that the stupidest question he had asked me in ages or what? Extra naughty? I thought I was extra naughty ALL the time. After all, I rarely refused Steve when he wanted sex although that wasn't as big a deal as you might think given I asked for it more often than he did! I was under no illusions about Steve. He may be the only guy to ever fuck me but he had probably done half the girls in his class if the rumors were anywhere near true. Having just lost my virginity this past summer, I guess I'm still in the "honeymoon" phase where I just can't get enough of him.

With a little giggle I started to head up the stairs. Naturally I assumed he meant we were going to do it in his room or someone else's as we've done it in every bed in the house at least twice. To my surprise, Steve didn't move and instead he gently pushed me back down the stairs. Being more disappointed than he might know, I gave him a questioning look and he nodded his head in the direction of the family room with a sexy smile.

"I DARE you to tease my brother," he whispered softly in my ear.

My eyes widened and I looked at him like he was speaking a foreign language or something because I couldn't believe he had actually said that. Steve didn't usually even acknowledge that his brother was alive, let alone have me do anything like THAT. Heck, just a few minutes ago he didn't even want his brother to LOOK at me!

"Ummmmm, Steve... what exactly do you mean by 'tease'?" I asked him incredulously. It wasn't like Jim was on my fantasy guy list when I masturbated.

Now had we been around his friends I would have understood completely what he meant by "teasing". One of the things that turned me on about Steve was that he loved to show me off to his buddies. Steve encouraged me to flash my ass and boobs and in general, about anything else if it would make them jealous of him. Sometimes when we were walking with his guys he would plant his hand firmly on my ass and I could only imagine what they were thinking about me!

Now all that was well and good when it came to his friends, but his perverted little brother? At first, I had to admit the idea didn't really turn me on but for some reason Steve was suddenly persistent about it, as he always was when it came to convincing me to do something new for him.

"Oh come one Kelly, it's not like I'm asking you to give him a BJ or anything," he pleaded. "You know better than anyone how he looks at you all the time. Look at this as your chance to get back at him. Don't you want to show him what he's NOT getting?"

Unconvinced, I turned to Steve and pulled his hand to my boobs and looked up at his eyes. "Forget about Jim. Wouldn't you rather have these right now?"

I teased him in my little girl voice. Steve couldn't resist giving my tiny boob a playful squeeze but then he let it go and spanked me sharply on the butt. He did it so his hand swept under my skirt and hit my bare bottom causing it to sting just a little.

"Of course I'd love to have them but I know for a fact that you're going to put out for me later anyway," he said with a smirk.

I folded my arms and huffed as if I was upset over his arrogance. He seemed awful sure of his chances tonight - for good reason. I hadn't said "no" to him once since we started dating! If anything, HE was the one who turned ME down a few times.

"Oh give me a break Kelly - you know you are. Hell, why else would you be dressed up like a streetwalking teen whore?"

Now he was walking a fine line between teasing and pissing me off. In the end I had to admit everything he said was true. There was no denying that I WAS dressed like a prostitute and I WAS going to "put out" for him later. But then, it wasn't like I was trying to hide my intentions!

"C'mon Kelly, look at it as revenge for the time he tried spying on us. Just tease the hell out of him and then don't let him have anything. I can't wait for him to see what his big brother's getting - and he's NOT!"

Another look at Steve's bulging crotch told me he was getting off telling me to do this. Forget Jim - what I would've given right then to unzip his jeans, pull out his yummy cock and suck him off right where he stood!

Finally I resigned myself to the situation. If this was what it was going to take to turn him on and get me fucked extra hard later tonight, then I couldn't see any real harm in it. Like he said, it wasn't like I was going to blow his brother or anything like that. I gave Steve a half-smile and nodded my agreement. Steve patted me on my rear again, a bit softer than the last time and then he grabbed it. He started to squeeze my ass with his fingers like he was kneading dough.

"Mmmmmmm, now THAT'S the Kelly I love. I knew you'd do it. Yep, I've got complete faith in my little slut. Don't worry, I'll make it worth your while later, I promise."

With that he finally went upstairs and I couldn't help but giggle to myself. He was right, it WOULD be a little like revenge. Here was a chance to make the little perv pay for being such a jerk. One time Steve was fucking me on Sharon's bed (for some reason or another he got off doing me in other beds, especially in his parent's room). Fortunately the door hinges needed oiling and he caught Jim trying to take in a free sex show. Steve chased him off but boy was he pissed off! I guess Steve must have been madder than I had thought given what he was asking me to do to Jim tonight. It was the only reason I could come up with for his change of heart regarding his brother.

3. Teasing Jim

Before making my way to the living room, I checked myself over quickly in a mirror hanging in the entryway. Even though my blouse was already unbuttoned down to my cleavage, I unfastened two more so now it was open well below my bust, allowing the black lace bra underneath to be visible directly. Heck, only two more buttons and I could've just taken it off and gotten it over with.

Out of force of habit more than anything, I tried to straighten out my skirt but it was WAY too short to cover much of anything. Turning around, I bent over just enough to check out my bottom which made me start to debate the thong. There wasn't going to be a lot of time to tease Jim (or at least I hoped there wouldn't be) so why be coy about it? I reached under my skirt and dropped the thong down to my ankles and stepped out of it. Tossing it onto the stairs with my foot, I wondered what Steve would think when he came back down and found it?

Looking back into the mirror one last time, I saw that my skirt was still covering my bare ass, but just barely. All it took was to stand up on my tiptoes or lean over just a little to put my bare ass on display, not to mention my fuzzy brown pussy as well.

Actually, there was more to my decision to remove my underwear than just trying to be sexy. I LOVE the feel of running around bare bottomed. At home I prefer to hang around in a short t-shirt or one of my dad's dress shirts without anything on underneath. Even in public I rarely wear panties under pants or jeans. So long as a dress or skirt is long enough to keep me from getting arrested, I leave them at home and enjoy the feel of the cool air against my bare skin. Of course, the more public the location or formal the occasion, the hotter it makes me feel being with people who have no idea that I'm naked underneath.

One of my ultimate turn-on's comes when I'm at church, sitting in the pews without a stitch of clothing under my Sunday dress. I get off imagining what the father next to me would say if he knew the "innocent" looking girl next to him had nothing between her ass and him but her dress! It was usually enough to get me so horny that by the end of the service I couldn't wait to get home to talk care of myself.

Taking a final deep breath, I ran my hands through my hair, gave it a toss, and was ready for action. Walking slowly and deliberately into the living room, I wiggled my ass suggestively as I made my way across the room, taking a seat on the love seat across from his couch where he was watching some silly TV reality show. Once I was sitting down, I crossed my legs, slowly and deliberately, allowing my skirt to ride up such that it was effectively out of the picture. I could feel the seat cushion against my bare butt under me so I knew there couldn't be much hidden from his view down there.

"Hi Jim," was all I said to him, using the same indifferent tone of voice I typically reserved for him.

"Ummmmm, hi Kelly," he stammered. I thought about it for a second and realized it was probably the first time we had ever been in a room together alone under ANY circumstances which probably accounted for his apparent nervousness.

Since the moment I had walked in, his attention had shifted from the TV to my bare legs and ass. I was still wearing my jacket and it was plenty warm in their house (Steve's mom was divorced so they didn't have a thermostat Nazi in their house).

"Wow, it's sure warm in here. You don't mind if I take off my jacket, do you Jim?" I asked innocently. Yeah right, like he was going to complain if I took ANYTHING off.

He quickly shook his head so I unzipped my jacket and leaned forward to pull it off my arms. In doing so, any last chance the skirt had to cover my ass was history and I knew my blouse was hanging open enough up to show off whatever part of my bra had been partially hidden from view before. I tossed my jacket to the side and laid back against the love seat with my legs still crossed, fully aware that he could see from my toes to my butt.

Jim didn't say a word so I figured it was time to turn things up a notch. I slowly ran my hands over my bare legs, running my fingertips up my thighs, feeling the smoothness of my freshly shaven skin. I pretending to try to pull my skirt down (a useless attempt even if I had really wanted to do it) and felt my warm upper thighs with my fingers, tracing my fingernails lightly over my silky skin. My wandering fingers worked their way up until they touched my bare hips. As much as I love to play with my ass (I mean my butt, not my asshole!), having someone watch made it even more erotic for me. Reaching under me slightly, I squeezed my butt, causing a chill to run through me as I felt just a little bit of pride at the firmness of my ass.

"Do you like my legs Jim?" I asked him softly. "You seem to be looking at them a lot."

"Now Jim, just what do you think you're looking at?" I teased him, smiling to try and take the edge off my question.

Jim was still blushing like crazy but if anything, that just encouraged me all the more.

"Oh c'mon, you can speak up Jim," I teased him as he just sat there stammering. Running my hands over my legs yet again, I turned back to him and said, "Mmmmmmm, now tell me what you think of my legs."

Jim was still blushing as be blurted out, "Wow Kelly, they're great!"

Figuring that which was about all he was going to get out. I flashed him my most sexy and devilish grin. "Cool, I'm glad you like them... would you like a closer look?"

At first it was like he couldn't move, frozen in place by my offer. Then Jim nodded slightly. I waited patiently, or at least as patiently as I could under the circumstances, and he finally responded, "Yeah but what will Steve say? I thought you were supposed to be his girlfriend? You know, I thought he was going to kill me the other day just for peeking."

It was obviously up to me if anything was going to happen so I got off the love seat and slowly moved over to the couch where Jim was now sitting up. As I walked provocatively towards him, I maintained eye contact with him saying, "Let me worry about Steve; he's going to get all he can handle later. I've seen you looking at me before Jim. Don't you want me now?"

Standing directly in front of him, I slowly raised one leg and planted my foot on the cushion alongside his leg. As my leg came up so did my skirt and from the way he was concentrating on my crotch, I knew he was waiting for my thong or panties to be exposed at any moment. Well, he didn't have to wait long. God, the look on his face when he realized that I wasn't wearing anything under my skirt was absolutely precious!

"Oh I'm sorry Jim," I said, trying to sound as if something was MY fault, "I just assumed that you wanted to see ALL of me. Are you sure this is OK?"

Jim just sat there staring between my legs. He didn't even blink, as if he was afraid if he closed his eyes I might not be there when he reopened them. Odds were he'd never even SEEN a real pussy before except in a porn magazine or movie. Even though I had absolutely NO intention of doing anything but tease him, it still made me feel hot and horny knowing he would remember this moment for the rest of his life.

My pussy was getting warmer by the minute as I started to get off from him watching me so intently. I rocked on my heels, rubbing my raised thigh with my hands. Then I moved one hand up to my crotch, covering it with my palm. I ran the soft fuzzy pubic hair though my fingers as I started rubbing myself. Oh it was partly to tease Jim but right now I needed to touch myself badly as I felt myself getting hotter and hornier.

"Did you what makes me really hot Jim?" I whispered to him. He looked up at me and I could tell he probably had a dozen fantasies but in truth, had no real idea how to answer.

"Well, I love it when a guy watches me when I play with myself," I said in a low, husky voice.

Actually while I may have been teasing him, that was a 100% true statement. Steve may have been the first to actually fuck me but I was teasing my share of horny boys long before then. Even when I was a virgin it got me off to expose myself to a boy and play with myself, seeing him get so frustrated because he could only watch me and not touch, at least not with his hard dick. It also turns me on to think about how they probably masturbate later when they fantasize about having sex with me.

"So tell me Jim - and I want you to be completely honest with me," I said more sternly, looking down at him to make eye contact. "When you jerk off, do you ever think about me?"

It was a shot in the dark but somehow or another I was pretty confident of the answer. Jim's face flushed bright red again which told me all I needed to know. Well, he was REALLY going to have something to masturbate to after I was done with him!

I put my fingers in my mouth to wet them and then used them to pull my pussy lips to the side so I could twirl my finger around my exposed clit. My breathing grew heavier as I closed my eyes and stretched my head back. Using my other hand, I inserted a finger into what was now a soaking wet pussy and shoved it up inside of me as far as I could. With both hands now moving faster and faster, I started moaning softly.

When I opened my eyes, I saw him staring at my pussy, watching the job I was doing to myself with my hands. His expression was the perfect image of a deer in the headlights - eyes wide open and staring with his mouth hanging open like a fish out of water! Suddenly I stiffened and a gasp escaped from my lips. I knew that I was right on the verge of an awesome orgasm!

I leaned down and whispered to him in a throaty voice. "Oh Jim, do you want to watch me cum? DO you want to see me make myself cum?"

Jim nodded. I shuddered helplessly and my face and chest flushed as my orgasm rose quickly within me and then ultimately consumed me. "Ohhhhhhhhh, that feels so good!!!" I groaned.

If anything, that was a gross understatement. The combination of my experienced fingers working my sensitive clit, together with the added bonus of having Jim watch me, was now bringing me to an incredible "O". I closed my eyes again and allowed the surges of pleasure to run freely all through me, momentarily even forgetting about the young boy sitting in front of me watching a real girl cum for the first time in his life. My knees buckled slightly as my legs tingled and weakened like they had been asleep and now the blood was returning. I didn't stop touching my clit as wave after wave of the most splendid feelings imaginable continue to emanate as a wave from my pussy, literally filled my body with pleasure. It was almost like I was on fire but the fire was inside of me, trying to get out, making my skin quiver from head to toe.

After a minute or so my orgasm began to slowly dwindle and I pulled my hands away from between my thighs. Opening my eyes once again, I saw that Jim was frozen like a statue, completely mesmerized by the erotic show being played out right in front of him. I smiled as I held out my cum-soaked fingers close to his face saying, "Here Jim, do you want to smell my pussy?"

Despite everything I'd done so far, my offer seemed to catch him totally by surprise. Obviously a girl had never offered to let him smell her fingers after she had masturbated! Jim didn't seem to certain about it at first but then his curiosity won out and he leaned forward.

"Mmmmmmm, doesn't my pussy smell wonderful after I cum?" I said softly. Then I put my finger in my mouth and sucked on it like a popsicle. I could taste the distinct flavor of my own pussy which caused me to smile. Back when I first started masturbating I had experimented a bit at the encouragement of my mom. In the process of following one of her suggestions, I discovered how good my pussy tasted and later found that it was even better after a good orgasm.

Pushing my finger up inside of me to wet it again, I offered my cum flavored finger to Jim asking, "Here, do you want to taste me?"

From the way obedient way he nodded and I knew Jim was all mine now, my little puppet who would do anything I asked. Jim opened his mouth wide like a dolphin waiting for its fish reward. Placing my wet finger between his lips, he sucked my pussy juices off it and ran his tongue round my finger.

"You ever taste a girl's pussy before?" I asked as I withdrew my finger.

Of course I already knew the answer but I just wanted to hear him say it. Unfortunately it seemed that Jim was so overwhelmed that he'd lost his voice. He just shook his head as he licked his lips. Once again I touched myself, wetting my fingers and then tasting myself as he watched.

"Mmmmmmm... I just LOVE the taste of my pussy," I whispered as if saying it to myself but I made sure I was loud enough for him to hear me clearly. "Wanna watch me cum again Jim?"

Naturally there was no need to wait for him to reply. Like he was going to say "no"? Yeah right. Besides, I was so damn horny myself I would've done it regardless of what he said. I slowly unzipped the side of my skirt and slipped it off, leaving me even more bottomless than I was before as I stood right in front of him. Then I unbuttoned the remaining two buttons on my blouse, allowing it to spread open and expose my bra. Actually, the bra made my boobs look bigger than they actually were so I decided on the spur of the moment not to strip but to take off my blouse and keep the bra on. In the end, that left me wearing nothing but a tiny lace bra and heels.

Cupping my boobs through my bra, I squeezed them and sighed softly, letting my hands caress my flat stomach and eventually make their way until my fingers worked their way into the short brown curly that that covered my crotch. Some of my friends were already shaving their pussies but I had waited years for my pubic hair to emerge and it made me feel more grown-up to see a soft wedge of hair between my legs. I trimmed it back enough that it didn't stick out from my thongs or bikini bottoms, but other than it actually felt good to run my fingers through it at night when I lay in bed.

I could tell that Jim was about to reach out and try to touch me but I wasn't having any of that. It was one thing to tease him terribly and flaunt myself, but I wasn't going to let him do anything to me, not even touch me. The only guy who got to do that was Steve!

I decided to return to the love seat rather than use the couch as I had originally intended just to keep my distance from him. After taking a seat, I twisted and laid on my back as before. This time, however, instead of keeping my knees tight together as I had before, I lifted the inner leg up onto the top of the back cushion and let my

Jim was not just watching me, he was STARING at me, not even blinking as my next orgasm built into a crescendo within my pussy as I kept rubbing myself.

"I'm cumming Jim!" I called out to him, just to make sure he knew what was happening to me.

I gasped as my pussy gushed once again over my fingers, drenching them with my cum and running down my ass to soak into the cushion below me. My back arched and my hips lifted off the cushion as I imagined Steve's dick in me, driving himself deeper and deeper as he came in me, shooting his cum as deep inside of me as he could reach. My hips pumped up and down as I responded to his imaginary dick inside of me. Finally, I flopped back against the arm of the love seat, still with my fingers inside of me, holding them motionless inside of me. For the next few minutes, the room was deathly quiet as I basked in the warm afterglow of my orgasm.

When I finally opened my eyes, I was expecting to see Jim still staring at me so you can imagine my surprise when he seemed to be more interested in something behind me. What could be more interesting than to have your brother's girlfriend masturbating in front of you? For a moment I thought of Sharon doing it in front of her brothers - damn, now THAT would be hot!

4. Steve Gives His Brother a Lesson

Turning my head upward, I almost jumped off the love seat when I saw who else but Steve looking down at me. It must have been an interesting sight to see his slutty girlfriend all but nude with her fingers jammed up her pussy and the odor of her sex heavy in the air. At first I feared that he might be jealous or otherwise upset at me for putting myself on display this way for his brother. Instead, a broad grin broke out on his face.

"So what do you say, Jim? Is my girlfriend hot or what?" he gloated.

Jim sighed and looked at me, "Damn Steve, she's incredible."

Steve reached down and touched my pussy, making me jump as his fingertip rubbed over my clit. For a moment I thought that maybe Steve was going to fuck me right then in front of his brother! Well, if he had tried I certainly wouldn't have protested. Instead, it seemed he was more interested in taunting his brother, sort of a demonstration of what he could do to me anytime he wanted.

"Bet you'd love to touch her this way, wouldn't you Jim?" he teased his younger brother.

Poor Jim, I almost felt sorry for him as he was squirming like his hard-on must have been about to burst out of his pants. God, was he going to be jerking off nonstop tonight! What Steve didn't realize was that I was getting even more horny from the way he was touching me, even more so than from my own masturbation show I had been putting on for Jim. I curled my finger up at him, motioning for him to lower his head down to mine.

"I want you to fuck me Steve," I whispered to him.

"Sure baby, I promised you I would," he whisper back to me.

I grinned naughtily at him and shook my head. "No, you don't get it... I want you to fuck me NOW!"

Steve's eyes widened into saucers as he looked over at his brother not ten feet away before he turned back to me.

"Here?... Now?... In front of HIM?"

"Sure, why not, he wanted to see us do it before. C'mon, let's put on a show for him he'll never forget."

I guess I could understand some of Steve's concerns. In all the time we had been fucking since this past summer we had never done it in front of an audience.

Sure, there were those times in the car and in bedrooms at parties where somebody might get a glimpse but it wasn't like we were putting on a show. Steve didn't know that my dad sometimes peeked in when he did me in my bedroom and I had no intentions of ever letting him find out. All I knew was that if I enjoyed masturbating in front of boys as much as I did, I could only imagine how I would get off having sex with an audience!

Looking over at Jim, he was probably wondering what was going on here between his brother and his slut of a girlfriend. I doubted whether he had any idea of what we were really talking about, though. I grinned at him and held Steve's hand as he continued to fondle my pussy. Steve pulled away and walked around behind love seat, holding his arms out to Jim as if to say there was nothing he could do about things.

"What can I say Jim, she wants it," he said with a grin from ear to ear. "And when she wants something this bad, I just can't say no!"

This had to totally confuse Jim who had to be wondering what in the world his older brother was talking about. Then his eyes widened even further than they had when I first touched myself in front of him as I reached for Steve's jeans and unzipped them. Steve unsnapped them for me at the top and I pulled open the flaps to reveal his hard dick poking up from his crotch. Mmmmmmm, my boy was hard and ready for action! I leaned forward and started sucking on it, nothing special, just your standard head bob up and down on his dick. Taking his cock in my hand, I dropped it from my mouth and looked over at Jim,

"Mmmmmmm, his cock tastes SO good... I bet you wish I would suck yours, don't you."

Jim squirmed even more and for a moment I thought he might have taken my words as an invitation and started to get up off the couch. Fortunately, Steve wasn't having any of THAT!

"Sorry little brother, she's sucking MY cock tonight and that's it"

Being Steve was already hard and ready to go, I didn't see much use on stretching this out. I just wanted to put on a show for Jim and in any case, I knew Steve would be fucking me more at the party - a LOT more if past experience was any indication. I sat back on the love seat and put my feet up on the cushions with my legs spread apart, a perfect "fuck me" position if there ever was one.

As it turned out, my timing was about perfect. Given Steve fucked me almost every day, I was getting pretty good at anticipating when he was about to explode. He pulled himself out and I put my feet down as leaned forward to take his wet dick in my mouth. I could taste my pussy on him which just made his cock all that more delicious for me. Grabbing his dick by the base, I sucked on the head and the first inch or so of his shaft while I stroked his hard cock with my hand. It wasn't long before he was groaning and I could see him tensing up as he tried to hold back as long as possible.

"Oh shit!" he exclaimed as I felt the first load eject into my mouth.

I quickly pulled it out and let the remainder spray on my cheeks, nose and chin as one load of sperm after another spurted from his hard dick. It was a good thing I wasn't wearing my skirt or blouse as I could feel some of it drip from chin and hit my thighs. I didn't want to go out tonight with cum all over my clothes! It just seemed a little tacky!

Once he had finished, I grabbed the shaft and used the head of his dick to spread his cum over my face like lotion, smearing the gooey mixture all over my cheeks. Once I was covered with cum, I turned my head towards Jim, smiling at him as he stared at me. I must have been quite a sight with all the cum glistening on my face and his brothers dick still hard in my hand. I took Steve's cock back in my mouth again for a few last drops of sperm.

As for Steve, well let's just say that he looked like the cat who just ate the canary. God he was being evil to his brother. Poor Jim looked like he was about to cum in his pants!

"OK Kelly, show time's over," Steve said as he patted my head, "I think the poor boy's had enough for one night!"

There was a small comforter on the back of the love seat which I used as a towel to clean off my face and wipe up whatever had spilled. Hopefully his mom wouldn't notice although I bet Sharon would be checking it out once I told about what had happened. Standing back up again, I put back on my skirt and blouse and was ready to go. Meanwhile Steve had pulled his jeans back up again and was zipped and buckled once more. We were about to leave when Steve reached in his pocket and threw my thong at me.

"Forget something slut?" he laughed.

I shrugged my shoulders as if it didn't matter to me one way or the other if I wore them but I still slipped it on. Honestly, I HATE thongs with a passion, especially Finally he shot his wad and this time I kept him in my mouth, feeling his hot sperm squirting into my mouth. It tasted wonderful as always and afterwards I lifted my head up to allow his cum to drip from my mouth back over his cock like syrup on a sundae. Then I went back down on him to suck him and lick the cum back off again, only to repeat the process over again. Steve groaned as my tongue worked its way over his sensitive cock. He held my head loosely in his hands as I sucked the last globs of cum off his cock yet again.

"Damn!" he cried out, "We're going to have to tease Jim more often. Fuck! What a blowjob!"

Proudly I sat up in my own seat again, wiping the cum that had somehow made it to my chin and cheeks off with my finger and then sucking it off. I was still incredibly horny - my pussy wanted his cock again and it was letting me know in no uncertain terms how impatient it was getting! Well, there was still the party and who knows what fun we were going to have. I knew there was one thing I could count on - I was going to be fucked by Steve again in the next thirty minutes or else! It was something of a goal for him whenever we went out, to see how fast he could fuck me after picking me up at home. Our current record would be hard to beat as we had done it right in my driveway without even starting the car!

As we walked to the house I couldn't help but think about what he said about me teasing Jim again in the future. Once again, the question came to mind that maybe there might be an opportunity with Jim that I hadn't realized before. Hmmmmmm, maybe Steve would wish he hadn't opened this Pandora's box!

it’s great for the three of us. What I like best is the deck. Our house, like most homes in Pittsburgh, is built on a hilly street such that our front door is level with the front yard and street but the garage in back is level with the basement meaning our driveway has a steep drop.

On top of the garage is a deck the size of our two-car garage so it’s pretty big. You can only get to it from the kitchen in the back of the first floor. My bedroom on the second floor overlooks the deck and I’m about the only one who gets to see as it has this tall security fence built around it for privacy. The best feature about the deck - besides the fence that lets me lay out and tan in whatever I want to wear or don't, is the hot tub.

OK, a swimming pool would’ve been better but the hot tub is great. I LOVE laying in it and letting the jets flow against me. I was around eleven when I figured out that the jets felt even better against certain parts of my body! It didn't hurt that we never wore swim suits in the tub unless we had visitors.

Which was another thing I love about my life. My parents are really cool when it comes to nudity and sex. First though, we are NOT nudists and nobody runs around the house flaunting themselves. Except my Aunt Linda but she’s an entirely different subject. While nobody screams when they’re seen naked, at the same time there are rules for modesty and proper decorum that we follow. Sleeping nude or being naked in the hot tub is acceptable while eating dinner or watching TV without any clothes is not.

As for sex, I already mentioned that I lost my virginity to my current boyfriend a few months back in the summer. He was sixteen at the time and going to be a junior so I felt pretty proud of myself to attract his attention, especially given my lack of development in certain upper regions of my body. When he asked me to suck his dick in the movie theater on our first date I was scared at first because I had no idea what I was doing but I wasn't about to tell him that! No way was I going to make him think I was just some naïve little freshman girl.

The same went when Steve fucked me for the first time a few days later. Of course I couldn't hide the fact that I was a virgin, but thank to my mom’s advice and preparations I think it went off pretty well - at least it did for me. It must have been good for him too because since then we’ve done it most every day - sometimes more than once.

Which brings up another reason I’m so lucky in that I have loving parents who understand how a girl feels at my age. They both try to help me deal with my new

Which brings up one weird thing... one time his mother DID catch us but rather than MAKE a scene, she JOINED the scene. What I mean is she actually pushed me aside and Steve finished with her instead of me. I'd heard about incest of course in my dad's porn videos but I always figured it was just that – perverts in porn movies. I mean, "normal" families don't practice incest. My dad may buy me suggestive outfits and ask em to pose for him but we never actually DO anything. It's a huge gap between teasing or flirting and having sex with your father (or mother for that matter).

Nothing has ever happened like that since and from the way they both reacted after I tried bringing it up a couple of times later I know better now than to even mention it to either of them. Still, it was really weird to see him fuck his own mother!

Speaking of weird, that brings me to another thing with Steve's family – Sharon. As I said, we've been good friends for a long time and share most things. Starting a couple of years ago we've even started talking about sex and boys and lately we even masturbate during sleepovers and such as we talk about our fantasies. Since Steve started fucking me I've been sharing some of our times with my friends which really gets them hot! None of us are lesbians though, and we never touch each other, but I still think it's pretty erotic to watch my friends do themselves, especially when it's about me and Steve.

Funny thing is, the one friend who REALLY seems to get horny when I talk about Steve fucking me is his own sister – Sharon! After the second or so time I couldn't help but ask her about it and she admitted that she was jealous of me and she wished he wasn't her brother so he could fuck her.

Wow, talk about mind-blowing! Apparently she knew nothing about what her brother and mom had done and I was the last person who was going to spill the beans on THAT subject. Not having a brother, I couldn't really relate to how she felt but if it was anything like the idea of having my dad fuck me, then I just didn't understand how she could want her own brother to do it. I mean like that's your own family! Then again, to be fair to Sharon, she never actually said she wanted to fuck her BROTHER, she wanted Steve the sixteen year-old school hunk, not her brother. Still, it was pretty weird she even felt that way.

Still, the more I dated her brother, the more open Sharon became about her desires for her brother – and her jealousy of me for having him whenever I wanted him. At the same time she insisted it was all just fantasy as she could never have sex

Sure masturbation felt good but it was nothing compared to having Steve's dick in me.

"I guess not now that I think about it," I sighed finally in response to my mom's query. In any case I wasn't think about much of anything anymore than the feel of her soothing hands on my naked body.

"So are you going to do anything about it?" she asked quietly as he worked her way down my left leg.

"I don't know, what do you think I should do?" I replied. I really didn't have any idea - that was why I was asking her about it in the first place!

My mom just hummed to herself as her fingers worked on the inside of my thigh. I parted my legs more to make it easier for her to massage me there. I smiled to myself - her humming was always a dead giveaway she was thinking hard about something.

I must have dozed off as the sound of her voice made me jump.

"What about this?" she started, "You like to be watched, right?"

"You mean during sex?"

She laughed. "No, when you're doing homework... of course I meant during sex silly."

"Yeah, so what?"

She paused again as if to collect her thoughts. Where was she going with this line of thought? Sure I loved being watched when I was having sex with Steve. It was one of the main reasons I liked it when Steve came over and we did it in my bedroom. While he didn't know it, my dad would often peek in on us. After I caught him the first time he tried to tell me that he was just making sure I was safe but his erection betrayed him. I thought it was pretty cool that my dad got off seeing me being fucked by Steve so after that I always made sure not to close the door to the bedroom all the way.

"So why don't you let Sharon watch?"

Hmmmmmm, now THAT was an idea. My mom always had great ideas and this was one I never would've thought of. Having his own sister watch us? Now that would be pretty hot for me and I bet it would be just as hot for her. OK, so maybe not as much as actually DOING him but at least she'd get to see him in action.

The more I thought about Sharon spying on us while Steve and I were having sex, the more I liked the idea and the hornier it was making me. The odds of it ever horny! Just ask Steve. I figured the best way to keep him for myself was to make him fuck me so much he didn't have the strength to fuck anyone else.

When all was said and done and I was taking a shower after having finally satisfying my "itch". From past experience I knew it was only a temporary solution but Steve was coming over in a few hours which would provide a more permanent solution, at least until tomorrow.

For a brief moment I thought of telling Steve about my mom's suggestion but that idea quickly was put to bed. Steve and Sharon had the classic brother- sister relationship in that he tolerated her but that was about it. Then again, I'd seen him defend her when someone would pick on her but that was more to protect his sister than any feelings for her. There was no doubt in my mind that Steve didn't have any of the feelings for Sharon that she had for him.

Later that evening as Steve was fucking me on my bed, I was riding him reverse cowgirl with my ass facing him as I rocked on his dick. He'd already cum in me once but at sixteen that was just a warm-up for him. With me sitting on him facing the door, his vision was blocked so he didn't see it push forward just a bit.

Although I couldn't see him, I knew my dad must've been out there peeking in on us. For whatever reason it made me feel even sexier knowing my dad was getting turned on watching us. I only wished I could see the expression on his face and the look in his eye but I deliberately tried to pretend as if I didn't know he was out there.

4. Masturbating With Sharon

"Then what did he do?" Sharon asked breathlessly as I described to her how her brother had fucked me the night before. Of course I hadn't mentioned to her why I had been so horny when he arrived that I was practically stripping on the way up the stairs to my bedroom.

I'd just finished with the part where he'd cum for the first time as I was sucking his dick in a 69 position with him. Poor Sharon, I don't think she even realized how her hands had both made their way to her crotch where she had them like a clamp over her pussy. She was wearing panties but I could only imagine how wet they were getting beneath her hands.

"Well, he likes me to keep it in my mouth as long as I can, you know what I mean, like blowing bubbles with it and sticking out my tongue when it's all covered."

Sharon just nodded which made me almost crack up. Yeah right, like she had any real idea of what I was talking about. So far as I knew she had never even touched a boy's dick, let alone suck one and as for knowing what it was like to have a mouthful of cum, well she only had my word for that.

"Did he kiss you after you swallowed it?"

Like she didn't know the answer already but then she was no different than my mom when I would relate my latest date with Steve to her and she would ask the obvious questions. Steve was about as straight as a laser beam so for him to even TOUCH his cum was enough to make him grimace. To taste it or put it in his mouth – yeah right, THAT was never going to happen.

She didn't ask again as I blew off her question and moved on to how I mounted him and lowered myself onto his hard dick while watching us in the mirror over my dresser. I LOVED to watch us having sex and it was almost like I was watching another couple fucking next to us except that I was feeling everything that was happening in the mirror.

"That must have felt so good to feel him entering you," she sighed as she shifted her weight on the bed beside me.

Sharon was sitting Indian-style with her legs crossed underneath her which made it easy for her to touch herself. I noticed she had moved one hand underneath her panties while the other was still pressing down from the outside. There was no mistaking the motion of her hand – she was getting herself off.

Of all my friends, Sharon is probably the one that comes closest to masturbating as much as I do and she isn't shy about it either, at least not with me. I pretty much take the same attitude with her actions as my parents did when I would get horny watching TV or reading a magazine and started touching myself in the middle of the living room. Hey, if you feel the need then why wait until you can hide in your bedroom? Just do it!

Her last question got me thinking more though. Until now I was more interested in teasing my friend than anything else but now the mental picture of looking down and seeing my boyfriend's – and her brother's, erect cock slowly disappear inside of me was starting to make ME horny. Oh wow, the more I thought about it the more I wanted him again. Oh My God, to watch his dick sliding into me while at the same time feeling it in me, knowing he was joining his body with mine and we were coupled together as one, is the most incredible sensations I've ever felt.

“Oh yeah, his hard dick felt REALLY good in me,” I finally answered as it was my turn to push a hand into my crotch although unlike Sharon I wasn't wearing any panties under my t-shirt.

“Tell me more Kelly,” she gasped as she pushed her panties down to make it easier to rub herself, “Tell me how he fucked you... I want to know how my brother did it.”

It then struck me that not all that long ago someone else had been asking me exactly the same thing - my mother! Interesting indeed how each of them was interested in exactly the same thing yet from two totally different perspectives. For Sharon, she was satisfying her fantasy about having her brother fuck her and I was just providing the details.

For my mother... well that was a little more complicated. I never thought for a moment she was actually interested in having sex with my boyfriend so what was her motivation? So far I’d just assumed it was no different than her reading an erotic novel except this one starred her daughter and it was being told in the first person.

I had my finger inside of me now, just as Sharon had hers in her pussy, as I gave her a detailed report about what it was like having sex with her brother. At times I would open my eyes and watch her masturbating for a few moments. God she looked so sexy! I wondered if that was how I looked to my mother or father when I was masturbating in front of them? Of course I’d never done it quite so blatantly as they WERE my parents, not a best friend like Sharon.

The more I told her about her brother fucking me the wetter and hornier I got. It got so bad that I even starting looking at what she was doing, wishing she would do it to me instead. It was rather startling as I’d never touched a girl that way in my entire life - or been touched by one either for that matter. I was definitely not a lesbian - I LOVED dicks and having sex with my boyfriend. Still, my friend looked so beautiful and sensual as I watched her through my lust-glazed eyes.

Just then Sharon gasped and I knew she was cumming. Sharon literally fell backwards onto her back with her hands never leaving her fuzzy brown crotch as she rubbed herself into an orgasm. He legs uncrossed and she had her panties slid down to her knees, stretched out as she spread them against the elastic as her hands worked furiously on her pussy and clit.

Whether it was thoughts of Steve fucking me or the sight of his sister cumming from the thought of him doing it to me - and her... what difference did it matter? I soon felt my own orgasm come to life as my pussy literally erupted and radiated pleasure that soon consumed every part of me from the tips of my toes to the roots of every hair on my head. I dropped down to lay next to Sharon, both of us cumming now as we looked towards each other and our eyes met.

It was one of this moments in time where it was like time itself stood still as we each stared at the other, lips tight together as we struggled to deal with the wild emotions that were ripping through us. I saw she was starting to turn to me and I think my heart stopped for a second as wondered what she was about to do... in fact HOPED she was about to do. Had we been given another few minutes, who knows what might have happened.

“Oh gross!” a voice came from the hall. It startled both of us and our eyes lost their grip as we both lifted out heads to see what was going on.

Apparently we’d forgotten to shut the door to her bedroom tight or maybe the perv had pushed it open. Either way he’d gotten quite an eyeful but he was so immature at age twelve that he hadn’t recognized the opportunity in front of him. Two horny girls masturbating and cumming together on the couch – what older boy wouldn't love to find himself in the middle of THAT situation?

“I’m telling mom,” he taunted, sticking out his tongue.

“You do and I’ll tell her what’s under your mattress,” Sharon responded in kind. I had a pretty good idea what was under his mattress and it was apparent he did too as he skulked away without another word.

“Stupid little perv,” Sharon huffed as she pulled up her panties once again, “I’m gonna kill him someday.”

Then she looked at me, still laying on my back but my hands to my side now instead of between my legs.

“OH Kelly, I’m sorry, it was just getting interesting, wasn’t it?” she said with a silly grin on her face.

Indeed it was! And I don't mean the narration I was giving either.

“So when are you two gonna to do it again?” Sharon asked me.

“I don't know, I guess it won’t be until tomorrow now. It’s getting pretty late for him to stop to my house, even if he got here now.”“Well, just remember to tell me ALL about it girl,” she reminded me unnecessarily. Like after this I would ever forget!

5. Dealing With Your Boyfriend's Brother

I’ve already introduced him but a bit more about Steve’s younger brother. Like most thirteen year-old boys, Jim is unbelievably immature, especially when I compare him to his sexy older brother. For the most part I’ve tried to just ignore Jim even though I know he’s always staring at me like I’m some sort of alien. In and of itself that’s not a big deal to me as a lot of guys have been starting to look at me the way he does, especially since Steve started bragging to his friends about what great blowjobs I give.

A couple of weeks ago I was waiting for Steve to get ready and was stuck alone with Jim. He was being his usual self - staring at me legs and boobs, mostly at my legs since I really don't have all that much to gawk up higher up.

At the time I was wearing one of my favorite party outfits, or at least it was one of Steve’s. My black skirt was extremely short, even by MY standards, and it barely covered my cute little ass (OK, so I’m proud of it). I’d bought it after watching a friend figure skating and figured that the type of skirts she wore were perfect for flirting. Normally I avoid wearing panties when I go out with Steve but with a skirt this short I had to wear SOMETHING or I’d be arrested for indecent exposure! A skin tight white blouse allowed my black lace bra to be clearly visible. To complete the outfit I wore a pair of black four inch strap-on heels. Uncomfortable as heck but they made my legs and ass look really good.

I’ve already written in my diary about what happened between Jim and me. Well, technically nothing happened BETWEEN us as all he got to do was watch as I masturbated on the couch while I waited for Steve to get ready. Other than Steve and my girlfriends, Jim was the first to watch me touch myself this way. Well, my parents have as well but that really doesn’t count as it’s not like I put on a show for them the way I did for Jim. Even though Jim didn't really turn me on, his reaction DID - or should I say his dick’s reaction. Mmmmmmm, I love it when I see a boy get hard because of me.

Steve tried to pretend he was perturbed when he discovered what I was doing but from the way he fucked me at the party I know it turned him on. While he didn't say so, I think it made him proud that his younger brother only got to watch me while he got to fuck me. A bit of sibling rivalry?

As it turns out, Steve wasn’t the only one who knew what I’d done with Jim...

6. Sharon Confronts Me

“I can't believe you did that in front of JIM! My perverted little brother for god’s sake,” Sharon blurted out to my surprise, “And after what he did to us? How could you Kelly?”

We were just hanging out in her bedroom talking about school and boys when all of a sudden, out of the blue, she hit me with this.

“Ummmmm,” was all I was able to get out, trying frantically to concoct some reasonable explanation. I was horny and I did it, end of story. Still, do I tell his sister that?

“Don’t give me that ‘miss innocent’ look, I know you too well to fall for that crap. Save it for my brothers,” Sharon said shaking her head at me and wagging her finger. “So tell me, why in the world would you do that for JIM? Now Steve... him I could understand but JIM?”

“Oh Sharon, so let me get this straight... it’s OK for me to fuck one of your brothers but not even play with myself in front of the other, is that it?”

Sharon shifted herself so she was sitting Indian style with her legs crossed under her. She seemed really worked up and the words just blurted out of her before she realized what she was saying.

“Well yeah... what girl wouldn't want Steve to hit on her? Like you’re the luckiest damn girl in the entire school to have him all to yourself. But Jim? He’s just a nasty little pervert. I’d NEVER let HIM see me naked.”

Something about the way she was carrying on made me start to think about something I’d never considered before. She was looking to start another tirade so without thinking it through I egged her on.

“So you’ve let Steve see you naked? I thought you said it was just all fantasy and that you’d never do anything for real with your brother.”

Sharon was just launching into something or another but then it was like she finally figured out what I’d asked and her face instantly turned beet red and she didn't say another word. Hmmmmmm, seems like I struck a nerve!

“Wow, so that’s what’s been eating at you lately. You’re jealous because Steve fucks me and not you! You really DO want him to fuck you – but as your brother.”

On the one hand it made perfect sense as it explained a lot of what had been going on lately – the way she sulked when Steve was around me, the “mystery boy” she would masturbate thinking about with me but not tell me his name, and now the anger she was displaying because of what I'd done with her younger brother.

Sharon's expression swiftly changed from embarrassment to defiance.

"You can't say anything, you don't have an older brother running around in nothing but gym shorts when he's all horny for YOU," she whined, "He locks himself in the bathroom forever and I know he's jerking off about you. But will he even LOOK at me when I try to get his attention?"

She stopped there but I was guessing the answer to her final question was NO. I was feeling really strange as my emotions switched back and forth. On the one hand it was really hot that Sharon wished her brother would fuck her. I mean like that would be incest, something everyone associates with being taboo and pornographic. Only perverts and people in West Virginia do that sort of thing.

On the other hand it WAS incest. Sharon wanting her own brother would be no different than me lusting for my father yet I couldn't even imagine such a thing. Like he was her BROTHER! Most girls tell me they can't stand their brothers yet here was Sharon getting all hot and horny talking about hers. Her motivation was pretty obvious from the way her face remained flush and she was squirming on her bed. I knew my friend well enough by now to know when she was feeling more than a bit randy.

"So tell me... how have you tried to get his attention?" I asked, not sure if she would actually answer but now I was dying to know more. It was like a car race where you felt guilty wishing for a wreck but you can't wait for one to happen.

I looked at my girlfriend and then thought of her brother when he was all horny and naked, his wonderful hard dick standing up straight as he approached me with that glint in his eyes telling me that he was going to fuck me and at that point there wasn't a darn thing I could do about it - as if I wanted. It wasn't hard for ME to get his attention, that was for sure!

Sharon looked at me for a moment as if she was trying to decide if I was really interested or just trying to embarrass her. Evidently she sided with me being curious.

"Well obviously I can't do what you do and just strip in front of him," she started but I stopped her.

"How do you know I do THAT?"

Sharon giggled and grinned at me. "You don't think anyone ever watches you when you guys do it here? I'm not always gone as much as my brother thinks."

"So you SPY on us?"

For a moment I wondered if she had any idea who else had been spying on us at their house. Did she even have a clue that her mom had a keen interest in what her son was doing with his girlfriend? Even if she did, I couldn't believe she could even imagine what had happened a month or so ago when her mom “caught” me and Steve right in the middle of sex. Let’s just say Sharon isn’t the only one in her family that’s jealous of me!

“Well, if I can’t get him to do me, I at least like to watch him do you. It’s the only time I get to see him naked.”

Wow! I mean like WOW! So Sharon had watched me being fucked by her brother. Other than her mother (and that was only once) nobody had ever watched me having sex with Steve. OK, so my dad will peek in now and then when Steve is fucking me in my bedroom or in the hot tub but that’s totally different. He’s just checking to make sure I’m OK whereas Sharon was watching to get turned on. My dad made me feel secure while Sharon made me feel like a porn star.

My pussy was starting to tingle and I couldn't help but reach down and press on my crotch to try and tame it. God this was so hot. My best friend got off seeing me having sex! With her own brother!

“So tell me Sharon,” I asked in a soft husky voice, “Tell me what you think about when you watch your brother fucking me.”

Sharon had her hand between her thighs now as well. We were each wearing tight jeans which sort of got in the way but it was like neither of us wanted to be the first to make a move in that direction.

Sharon sighed as she cupped her crotch and pushed down on her clit through the denim. “I just can’t get enough of his dick. Damn it Kelly, if anyone should know how good it looks you should. It’s like he gets SOOOOO hard it quivers.”

She was right about that – I DID know. In fact I think I knew Steve’s dick better than anyone besides his right hand. Steve had quite a rep when we first started dating for screwing half the girls in class (maybe an exaggeration but not as much as you might think) but I’m pretty sure none of them had blown him as much as I have and certainly none of them had been laid as many times as he’d done me.

“Yeah, I love that too,” I sighed as I couldn't take my eyes off her hand between her legs, “I really do love that dick.”

“So is Steve’s the only one you’ve had?” she asked.

I assured her that I’d never so much as touched another cock in my life besides Steve’s. That was essentially true as there was no need to confess that six years

Sharon had lifted up her sweater to expose her solid A-cup boobs now as she rubbed them with one hand as she worked her fuzzy pussy with the other.

“Really?” she said, “I wondered sometimes if he was into that sort of thing. I’ve left mine out hope hoping he would use them but he never touches them.”

I was tempted to tell her to check under his bed or in his drawers for some of mine. Like I couldn't even count how many times he’d kept mine after a date. My poor mom complains all the time about having to buy me so many panties, at least she did until I explained why I kept “losing” them. After that she started buying me cheap “date” panties” which saved her a lot of money in the end. Hmmm, maybe I need to patent “disposable date panties”?

Instead, my thoughts were interrupted by Sharon’s groans and moans. Damn that girl was fast, she was already reaching her first orgasm while I’d barely even gotten started.

“Fuck me Steve... oh fuck me harder,” she was whispering to herself as she closed her eyes tight and pushed a finger deep inside of her wet pussy. She kept repeating it over and over as her hips lifted up and then she started to buck as if her brother was fucking her.

Now I’d masturbated plenty of times with her and my other friends during sleepovers and such before, even with my own cousin, but never like this. At those times we all did it but everyone pretty much kept it to themselves. Sure we all knew the others were doing it, but it wasn't like this situation where Sharon may as well have been showing off in front of her brother. I guess in her mind at this moment that’s just what she was doing.

I felt myself starting to get those feeling I get when I’m about to cum. Sometimes I try to push them off and make it get as strong as I can before allowing myself to let loose and orgasm. Other times I just want it so bad I try and make it happen as quickly as possible. Both ways work for me, it’s more the situation that dictates the direction I take.

I looked up from my warm crotch and saw Sharon watching me. It felt a little funny and awkward to be exposing myself like this to another girl and even more so with a couple of fingers up my pussy about ready to cum. My mom sometimes watched me back when she was teaching me how to masturbate better but I never felt the feelings in me with her that I was feeling now seeing Sharon’s eyes fixed on my pussy. I closed my eyes so I could cum without being distracted by her attention.

God it felt so good to finally cum! I pushed all thoughts of Sharon aside, ignoring that she was just a few feet away rubbing herself as she watched me making myself cum. All I wanted to think about was my boyfriend and how insanely good it felt when he touched me and fucked me. My pussy clamped down on my fingers as I imagined him inside of me, his wonderful hard dick filling me until it was like I was stuffed, then releasing his sperm inside of me, filling me with it as he pumped his dick in and out of me. God I wished he was really fucking me right now!

When I'd finished I looked up and tried to focus my eyes on Sharon - not all that easy after what had just happened.

"You were thinking about him fucking you, weren't you?" she said, more a statement than a question.

"Well, you were too," I countered and we both giggled as if sharing a secret.

I closed my legs back together, feeling suddenly more awkward at how I was displaying myself to another girl, and to the sister of my boyfriend at that. It was one thing to have my mom or dad see me masturbate. Then it wasn't so much that they watched as I did it in front of them rather than disappear to my room. Sharon, on the other hand, has WATCHED me, almost like she was a boy fixated on my pussy. I wasn't quite sure why, but it just felt a little weird.

"You OK?" she asked as I sat up and maneuvered so my legs were under me now.

I was still bare bottomed but at least I wasn't on display any longer. I noticed she hadn't made any effort to hide herself, even after her orgasm. What that meant I wasn't sure. Probably so focused on her brother that she wasn't even thinking about me.

There was a knock on the bedroom door just then and her mom said through the door that it was time for dinner. Fortunately she didn't come in as I had no idea how she would react to seeing her daughter with her legs spread far apart, her pussy glistening after a massive orgasm. Something told me it would be more than just awkward!

Sharon yelled back that we were coming (we both giggled at her pun) and then finally gathered herself up. She handed me some Kleenex to wipe myself off and then we put our jeans back on. I noticed she left her panties on the floor but didn't say anything.

“God I feel like I’m burning up down there,” she gasped as the wiggled into the tight jeans. Once she finally had them zipped up and buttoned again she grabbed her crotch, rolled her eyes and sighed.

“Oh my god Kelly, I wish I was you. I was dreaming about Steve in me but you really KNOW what it feels like.”

Really, what could I say? I was actually still trying to wrap my head around this whole “I want my brother to fuck me” thing. I feel like I’ve been brought up pretty open-minded about sex and such but incest? That was pushing the boundaries even for someone like me.

Sharon’s mom invited me to stay so I sat at the table where Jim and Steve had joined us. Wow, talk about awkward! It was like I had something different going on with each other them. Of course they all knew that Steve was doing me so it wasn’t a big deal when I took a seat next to him and he had a hand on my leg all through dinner - and a little more inside as well. I wondered if he could feel the heat of my pussy? Well, it felt like a furnace to me!

I felt even morn horny wondering what Sharon’s mom and brothers would say if they had any idea what the two of us had been doing just minutes earlier. Would Steve have maybe felt different about his sister seeing her masturbating with his girlfriend? For just a brief naughty moment I wondered if his mom would have joined us just as she had when she caught Steve fucking me. As for Jim, who really cared?

All through dinner all I could think about was Steve and how badly I wanted him - no NEEDED him to fuck me. Masturbation is OK and I love doing it but since Steve had started fucking me I’ve learned that it’s no substitute for the real thing.

Then just as we were finishing, an idea came to mind. It was brilliant!

I was helping Sharon clear the table and when we were alone in the kitchen she turned to me and grinned.

“Oh my god, were you as turned on as I was during dinner?”

I pretended not to have any idea what she was talking about at which she just rolled her eyes at me saying, “Give me a break girl, he was practically groping you through the whole dinner.”

Seeing how horny she still was, it seemed like the perfect time to offer up my idea.

“Ummmmm, Sharon...,” I started out softly.

“Yes?”

I hesitated, not sure if I should but then I remembered that look in her eyes when we were lying next to each other, enjoying our orgasms together.

"Would you like to watch us?"

I just sort of blurted it out before I lost my courage and then I stood still, waiting for her response.

"WATCH you?" she answered incredulously, "Like how would I do that? Besides, Steve would never let me do it."

"Why does Steve have to know?"

Sharon grinned widely then as the idea settled in her brain. "But how would I ever get to see you without him knowing?"

I flung my hair back and smiled at her. "It happens all the time now."

Sharon stood up straight at that remark and turned to stare at me.

"OK, like who in the world watches you now?"

Had I thought more about it I probably never would have said a word but I was just as worked up and horny as she was after our little tryst so it just came out without me thinking much about the consequences.

"Well my dad mostly."

Sharon looked at me like I had suddenly turned into an alien from space.

"Wait a minute girl, you're telling me that your own DAD watches you having sex with my brother? No way... you're just messing with me now."

I shook my head and wondered briefly what I was getting myself into. Then again, SHE was the one who was always talking about incest and having her brother fuck her. Not only that, all my dad was WATCH. It wasn't like we were having crazy sex after Steve left to go home or anything really weird like that - which was exactly what I told her.

"Still, I mean isn't that sort of creepy having your own father spying on you like that?"

"Any creepier than having his sister spying on us?" I countered.

"Touché," she granted me, "But I'm his sister, not his mother."

At that I ALMOST said something without thinking about it... something about her mom spying on us and then wanting Steve to fuck her - which he more than was ready to do. Thankfully I managed to nip that one in the bud before I said something stupid.

"So what do you say?" I asked again, trying to change the subject back to her, "Wanna watch us?"

“Stupid question,” she huffed as we started for the bedroom door to leave, “Of course I do.”

I took that as a committed “yes” and we hugged before heading out into the hallway. There was no sign of her younger brother - or older one yet for that matter.

“We’re heading over soon just come in a few minutes after we do. I guarantee you as horny as he is right now we’ll be in my bed in less than five minutes.”

“But what about your parents?” she asked.

I just rolled my eyes and looked at her.

“OK, OK, stupid question,” she said as we both giggled. We hugged again before heading to the kitchen to see if her mother has left any dessert out from dinner. As we munched on some cake I wondered if her mind was thinking the same as mine - how much I couldn't wait until later night! It made my pussy tingle all the more as I thought about it.

7. Starting in the Hot Tub

When all was said and done, Sharon’s mom asked if I wanted to stick around a little. I looked at Steve and smiled at him.

“Thanks but I was thinking maybe Steve could come over to my place for a while.”

“Well, you’re welcome to stay here anytime. There’s nothing you can’t do here that you do at home,” she replied, looking a little put off.

Oh god, if she only knew just how wrong she was!

Needless to say Steve was anxious to take me home as he knew what THAT meant - he was going to get laid. One thing about having me for a girlfriend, he never had to worry about getting enough sex! If anything I was the one pushing sometimes for more.

Before long we were back at my place. My mom was working at the hospital so just my dad was home. He was busy in the study when I showed up at the doorway with Steve in tow.

“Hi daddy,” I greeted him, “Steve and I are going to be upstairs for a while, is that OK?”

My dad looked up from the pile of legal papers on his desk and waved to Steve.

“You know he’s always welcome Kelly. Have fun.”

As quickly as I could I lowered myself in but the water was so hot I had to take a little time to adjust to it. Once I was mostly in I took my favorite seat – the one with the jet in the opposite end that I kept pointed straight at me. Lifting my right leg up and onto the lip of the tub, me left dangled to the bottom of the tub. Mmmmmmm, the jet felt so good against my pussy!

Steve wasn't nearly as bushy down there as my dad but there was still plenty there for me to play with and bury my face in while I was sucking on his cock. I'd never felt a full crotch of pubic hair before I was with Steve but it didn't take long for me to learn how much I enjoyed the feel of it between my fingers and against my cheek.

"You know Kelly, sometimes I still can't quite believe your parents are OK with all this," he said as he slowly lowered himself into the hot water, "I mean like the father of the last girl I dated wouldn't let me even kiss her in front of him! Shit, he would've killed me if he knew we were having sex."

The last thing I wanted to hear about at this moment was anything about his old girlfriends so I didn't respond, hoping he would take the hint. Meanwhile he'd moved over to the middle of the tub and was reaching out to touch me. Despite the heat of the hot tub I shivered as my lover's hands roamed all over every inch of me.

God it made me feel so sexy to have Steve's hands roam all over my body! It was like I was giving myself to him, letting him do something to me that nobody else had ever done. Sure my dad had pretty much touched all of me at one time or another but that was completely different. Like, it's hard to sit on his lap when we're in the hot tub and NOT have his hands all over me but that is nothing like this. My dad is just helping me keep my balance whereas Steve is groping me!

I closed my eyes and focused on Steve's carnal attention as his hand ran down my thigh and then back up again, moving inside such that when he reached my crotch his fingers would run over my pussy and then up and over my clit. Again, it was similar to when my dad would massage me except for that move at the end. My dad's fingers might make it all the up my leg but he always would detour just enough at the end to avoid my pussy. That's the difference between being touched by your boyfriend and your father. Sure I enjoy the way my father makes me feel good but I LOVE the way Steve adds that extra touch at the end.

With my head laying back against the tub, Steve was working on my stomach and boobs as I opened my eyes and looked up towards my bedroom window right above us. If Steve had been looking at me he would have seen me smiling but he wouldn't have known the entire reason why. Sure I loved the way he was fondling me but imagine if he knew that just one story up his younger sister was watching us through the opening in the curtains!

OMG! This was so hot and I wasn't thinking about the temperature of the water. I could only see Sharon's face and barely even that so I had no idea what she was doing as she watched. Was she just watching or was she getting horny? I wondered if she had stripped down to watch us or maybe just loosened her shorts to let her play with herself? Knowing how she loved to masturbate I couldn't imagine she was just watching the scene below her and not doing anything about it.

My eyes lowered and I noticed movement out of the corner of my eye. Sure enough, my dad was also keeping an eye on things from the kitchen door window. For a brief moment I thought about what might happen if he and Sharon were watching me together. Would they both get so horny they would masturbate together? The way things were now they might not even know the other was watching but it never hurt to fantasize about it.

"I want your dick," I gasped as Steve started to concentrate on my clit, rubbing it underwater as the jet continued to do its work as well.

Steve grinned and stood up in the tub with his erection now just inches away from my face. God it looked so inviting! He was rock hard now, his dick curving upward such that while standing it was actually pointing up to the sky. His wet pubic hair was plastered against his crotch, revealing more of his shaft than usual which only emphasized the size of his erect cock.

While I really had nothing to compare it against, I loved Steve's dick and never grew tired of looking at it. Sure I'd seen my dad's but that was only when he was masturbating from across the room or just a passing view as I would walk past their bedroom. The closest I ever got to it was actually in this same hot tub like when I would sit on his lap or he was getting in and out next to me. Even though he might have an erection then it didn't give me the same feelings as I felt now with Steve's dick hovering right in front of me. My dad's dick was hard because he was just a normal horny man. In stark contrast, Steve's dick was hard because he wanted to fuck ME with it and THAT made it so much better for me.

"Mmmmmmm, let me have that," I murmured more to myself than him as he probably couldn't hear me over the din of the jets. I thought about that and reached over to turn off the jest and suddenly it was like deathly silent in comparison.

"Ahhhhh, that's better," I said, smiling as I looked up at him and reached for his dick, "God I want that!"

I stroked it a little at first and then Steve moved in closer so I could take it in my mouth. It tasted a little funny because of the bromine in the water but it felt just fine between my lips as my tongue ran all around it.

Knowing I had an audience above me I tried to brush my hair back and keep my head tilted so Sharon would be able to see her brother's dick in my mouth. I wondered if she was licking her lips as she imagined how it would feel in her mouth instead? Had she ever even touched a dick, let alone sucked one? If so, she'd never told me about it.

As for my dad, the way Steve was standing I imagined all he was seeing was Steve's bare butt but then I wasn't as worried about what he saw so much as Steve's sister. My dad could always watch me sucking Steve another time but how often would Sharon have this opportunity?

God I felt so ridiculously horny as I sucked Steve's dick knowing I was being watched by one of my best friends AND my father. Like, this was something I would have never dreamed possible just a few short months earlier.

Mmmmmmm, I loved sucking Steve's dick. Some of my girlfriends claimed that when their boyfriends pushed them to suck theirs that they didn't really like it, especially when they came. In fact, most of them either said they wouldn't let their boyfriend cum in their mouth or they spit it out right away. Beth and I were really the only ones who seemed to want to do it for our own pleasure more so than just trying to keep a boyfriend. No doubt Steve wouldn't keep dating me if I stopped putting out but that wasn't why I did it - I LOVED doing it!

Sometimes I have to wonder about some of my friends. Like, if they want a boyfriend like mine then why complain that they have to put out for them? You can't expect a guy to take you out, buy you things and entertain you and not expect something in return? Those movie tickets cost money which means he had to work to get it. The blowjob he expects in return is easy to do so it seems to me that as a girl I'm getting the better end of the deal. Not only that, but I enjoy doing it!

Then there are those girls who are OK with blowjobs but draw the line at sex. I'm not really sure if that's not even worse than the BJ holdouts. Sure all guys love blowjobs but if my boyfriend is any sort of example, they love sex even more. If a girl wants to claim one of the more popular guys in school like Steve, then she'd better be willing to give him what he's getting from the other girls. When I started

Steve I knew his reputation so when he wanted to fuck me, it was like either do it or forget being his girlfriend. Then again, I think I enjoy it as much as he does so it's not like it's putting any sort of hardship on me!

Speaking of which, sucking Steve's dick was fun but I was too horny to do it for much longer. As I said, I wanted sex just as much as he did!

"Fuck me," I said firmly as I dropped his dick from my mouth and looked him straight in the eyes.

"Ohhhhhh, so you want me to fuck you now, eh?" he teased me.

It was all part of the games we liked to play. The evidence of his desire was practically poking me in the eye so it wasn't like he was fooling me or anything. I'd learned early on with Steve that as much as he wanted to do me, it was me asking for it that REALLY turned him on.

"God yes, I NEED you in me," I begged, playing along with the game.

Then again, it wasn't just a game - I DID need him in me right then, more than anything else in the world at that moment. It was like my pussy felt so empty and I needed something to fill it - Steve's dick.

Steve started to lower down in the water but I didn't want to have sex underwater, not with his sister watching above us. A bunch of splashing around wasn't what Sharon had come over to see and it wasn't what I wanted to show her. No.... I wanted Sharon to SEE her brother's dick in me, to see me enjoy what she could only lust for in secret. OK, so I admit it - I wanted to show off.

"Let's do it up here," I said a I pulled myself up and sat on the edge, scooting over to the corner where there was more surface to sit on.

Steve didn't seem to care one way or the other. Face it, all he wanted was to fuck me. The where and how wasn't nearly as important to him as it was to me.

I reached behind me and gripped the edge of the hot tub as I inched up as close to the edge as I could to make it easier for Steve to access my pussy. He had gripped his dick with his hand and was so eager to get it in me he practically fell when he slipped on the slippery floor of the hot tub.

"Careful big boy," I teased him, "I wouldn't want anything to happen to that lovely dick before it has a chance to get in me."

"Yeah, you like my dick, don't you," Steve growled as he moved in closer.

I smiled, wanting to look up to the window to see Sharon's face but not daring as Steve might wonder what I was looking at.

but usually it was more like this where I just leaned forward and looked straight ahead while Steve did his thing from behind me.

In this position I couldn’t look up to see if Sharon was watching but I had no doubt she was. If anything she probably had a better view of her brother’s dick in me than before so there was that to consider. If she was masturbating about her brother fucking her now I wouldn't have blamed her. So what if he was her brother anyway? It was just sex and given how good Steve was making me feel now, who could blame her for wanting some of it for herself?

When Steve had enough he pulled out and told me to get out of the tub. He laid out the towels on the deck and I momentarily hesitated. Thankfully it was abnormally warm out so after getting out the hot water I wasn't freezing as I should have been this late in the year. What made me hesitate though was I really didn't feel like laying on the hard decking. Normally we’d lay out the seat cushions but my dad had brought all that stuff in for the winter.

“C’mon, I want you to ride me,” Steve said as he laid out on the deck. Well, so long as he was OK with it, then who was I to argue?

Thankfully Steve didn't catch on to anything when I subtly positioned him to help give the best possible view to our observers. Then again, why would he ever suspect his own sister was watching and as for my dad, who in their right mind would ever think my own father would be watching me having sex with my boyfriend?

Steve had his hands behind his head to help lift it up to better watch what I was doing. As for me, I stood up and straddled his hips, dripping water from my naked body onto his. Putting my hands on my hips, I stood there for a moment and looked down on him.

“Like what you see?” I teased him, wiggling my hips. With my feet spread apart on either side of him I knew he had a great view of my freshly fucked pussy.

“Now THIS is what I call a view,” he laughed. I could see that his eyes were fixed on my crotch.

“Well, watch this then,” I said as I bent my knees and lowered myself down to him.

I reached back with one arm and put my hand on his leg to steady myself as I used my other hand to position his dick in place so it would go where it belonged – inside of me. It was a little awkward staying on my feet but I didn't want to hurt my knees on the hard deck surface.

Oh yeah! Once again I got to enjoy that initial feel of his dick penetrating me although by now my pussy had stretched out enough that he easily entered me. I literally sat down on his lap, his dick impaling me like a spike. God I loved him in me!

It was easier to rock back and forth than to lift myself up and down on his dick. The result was essentially the same with half the effort. While I enjoyed WATCHING his dick when he would slide it in and out of me all the way, at a time like this when I really couldn't see what was happening it didn't make all that much difference how much he moved in and out more so than the fact he was moving at all. It was the relative motion of his dick to my pussy that created the tingling sensations in me, that drove me NUTS!

“Make me cum Steve... please make me cum,” I cried out as he reached forward with one hand and started to play with my clit with his thumb.

It was just what I needed right then, that extra little bit to send me over the edge as I orgasmed. I leaned back with both arms behind me, hands on his thighs as I just wiggled my hips enough to let me feel his dick moving in me as I cried out with pleasure and happiness.

“My turn!” Steve announced as I felt him jerking under me. I knew he was cumming in me, even if I couldn't feel much more than his cock as it spasmed inside of me.

When we both finished I sat up straight on him again and then lifted myself up and off his dick. My knees felt like they were going to scream but I got up high enough so my pussy was now maybe a foot above his dick. Steve started to say something but I shushed him.

“Just be patient and watch,” I told him as I squeezed down. I could feel his fresh sperm dripping from my pussy and I did my best so it would land on his still hard dick. Steve saw what I was doing and grinned.

“Damn, where did you come up with this idea?” he practically giggled.

It was from one of my dad’s porn DVDs but I wasn't going to tell him that so I ignored his question and simply said, “Just shut up and watch.”

Once I had coated his dick I stood up and then kneeled on one side of him. The heck with the hard deck, I wanted this! Without using my hands, I leaned over like I was bobbing for apples and took his cum-coated dick in my mouth and then lifted my head with my lips around it to suck off all the cum I’d dripped on him.

“Mmmmmmm,” I said, which was about all I COULD say with a mouth full of cum. So much for being taught not to talk with your mouth full!

“Fuck, that is SO hot!” Steve gushed, staring at me as I swished the cum around in my mouth and then swallowed it in two gulps.

“I love your cum... I love it IN me and I love to eat it,” I said trying to act naughty.

“Well, you can have all you want,” he offered, a huge grin on his face.

It was starting to get chilly so as much as I might have wanted to go for seconds, I figured we’d done enough for today. It wasn't like I hadn’t put on a good show for my audience and I couldn't wait to get my reviews.

We dried ourselves off and then got dressed. Steve had all his clothes but then he noticed that all I was putting was a T-shirt I’d gathered with the towels - one that didn't exactly hide all that much either.

“That’s all you wear around the house?” he asked, “I mean, even with your dad home?”

“So what?” I asked back trying to act flippant.

“Well, it doesn’t even come down past your belly,” he said, “Not that I’m complaining, mind you - I could look at your pussy all day but don’t you feel funny that your dad sees you this way?”

I just shook my head and took his hand to lead him back to the kitchen door. “My dad’s seen my naked since I was born, what’s the big deal?”

“That is just SOOOO hot,” Steve grinned. I gave him a playful punch in the shoulder and said, “You’re so bad. Get your mind out of the gutter. Besides, I’m not the one messing around with one of my parents.”

Ooops, I knew instantly I shouldn’t have said that but I’d been so focused on everything else going on that I didn't think it through before I said it.

“Dammit it Kelly, I thought we agreed never to talk about THAT,” Steve said angrily.

I instantly apologized and for a moment even considered sucking him off again if that would help soothe things between us. But then he smiled and punched me back gently.

“OK, I deserved that for what I said about you and your dad,” he apologized, “That was wrong of me.”

Just as I thought he was being the perfect gentleman, then he added, “But you gotta admit, it WOULD be hot.”

“You horny bastard!” I said as I punched him - hard this time.

“Guilty as charged,” he laughed, “And I know you love it.”

We were almost to the door so I didn't say anything more. As we walked in I thought about how my dad had been watching us through this very door just minutes before. After all he had just said, what would Steve think if he knew my dad enjoyed watching me being fucked by my boyfriend?

Back in the house my dad was still working away as if he'd never left his desk.

“Have a good time in the tub?” my dad asked sweetly, as if we'd just come back from a school dance.

Steve actually blushed which I thought was so sweet. If he only knew...

I grabbed Steve by the arm and pulled him in close to me, laying my head against his shoulder.

“Oh yeah, my guy fucked me REALLY good today dad.”

I thought Steve was going to jump out of his shoes! Of course he knew my parents knew what we were doing, we'd moved past that hang-up months ago. However this was the first time I'd ever spoken about it so openly in front of my parents with him next to me.

“Kelly?” he practically choked out. Now he wasn't just blushing, his face was beet red!

“Don't worry Steve. Besides, it's not like it wasn't obvious,” he said smiling as he nodded towards my crotch. I'd wiped it clean when I dried off but evidently some more of Steve's cum had leaked out when we walked in.

Poor boy, he was so embarrassed now so rather than make it any worse I pulled him towards door

“I told you the tub was just for starts... and kissed him.”

Steve seemed uncertain now. I guess it was a lot for him to handle so I added, “I love you Steve.”

He kissed me back and let me lead up the stairs to my bedroom. This was turning into quite the evening!

8. Continuing In My Bedroom

As I led Steve up the creaky old stairs, I wondered if he had any idea that my dad would probably be outside my door later keeping an eye on us. I sometimes wondered how badly he would freak if he knew his girlfriend's father was checking on him to make sure he was treating her right. It's why my parents, my dad especially, encouraged me from the outset to bring Steve home whenever I wanted so he could make sure nothing ever happened to me. I have to admit it gives me a feeling of security as well to know my father is watching out for me when I am at my most vulnerable.

After we entered my bedroom I went back to close the door. Actually I didn't quite close it but rather left it cracked open just a bit. It was the same as I always did and Steve never seemed to notice or if he did, he never questioned anything. I turned around to see he was already stripping off his clothes for the second time. Mmmmmmm, I loved it when he was this horny. Somebody was going to get fucked REALLY good again!

I let Steve strip and jump on my bed while leaving my T-shirt on, just.

No matter how many times he'd seen me naked and fucked me, I still felt a little embarrassed at times at how I looked naked compared to the other girls he'd been with in the past. Heck, I didn't even have near the body of his own sister and he didn't give her a second glance!

God Steve looked so handsome and sexy. I just stood there and let my eyes wander over every inch of his sixteen year-old frame. There was no mistaking he was an athlete as he didn't have an ounce of fat anywhere. If anything his muscles rippled in his arms and stomach, making my pussy react as I took in a deep breath at the sight of him. He was laying on his side, his lower arm resting on his elbow as he propped up his head while the other hand was stroking his erect cock. No need for Viagra for my guy!

"You just gonna stare at me or what?" he teased me, leaning back so I could get a better view of his hairy crotch as he stroked his stiff cock in front of me.

I didn't do either but instead approached him and pushed him onto his back and then pushed his hand off his dick. Still standing on the floor, I leaned over and took his dick in my mouth with my hands holding myself off the bed. My first thought was how smooth and warm it felt, how firm yet soft it was between my lips.

"Ahhhhh, hungry girl tonight, eh?" he chuckled as he put both hands behind his head and scrunched my pillow up under it so he could more easily watch me as I sucked his cock.

He had NO idea! I wasn't hungry for his dick, I was STARVING for it. After talking to Sharon about her brother all afternoon, after masturbating about him, after sitting through dinner with him feeling me up, he had better believe I was hungry for his dick!

It was awkward in this position so I climbed on the bed and kneeled between his legs as he spread them wide apart for me. I laid down on my side, my head resting on his lower stomach as I held his dick in my mouth. Normally I would've been licking it up and down the shaft, kissing the head and letting my lips run along him. Not tonight though. Right now in the privacy of my room I wanted him in my mouth and to never let him out.

"Damn Kelly, slow down," Steve moaned, "If you keep this up I'm gonna cum. I'm not a machine you know!"

If I was ready to let him out of my mouth I probably would have made some sarcastic remark about that being the entire point of my efforts. One of the great things about having sex with a horny teenage boy was that you didn't have to worry about a "one and done", he was good for three and maybe even four loads of cum before we were done tonight. So far I'd only used up one from "the bank" so I wasn't worried.

I looked up at him as I sucked on his erection, running my fingers through his coarse black pubic hair and then caressing his hairy balls as my tongue and lips worked on his dick. I LOVE his thick thatch of hair that covers the base of his dick. Sometimes when we're out and I can't do more I just reach into his pants and enjoy the feel of his thick coarse pubic hair as it runs through my fingers. Then there was the distinct scent, odor some might say, of his crotch that stuck to my fingers such that I could smell it later.

Our eyes met and I could see the growing lust in his face as I drove him closer and closer to the point of no return. We locked onto each other, neither of us hardly even blinking as I blew my boyfriend to the best of my ability.

"Oh god, I'm cumming," Steve announced in a strained voice.

At least I'd trained him to say THAT. When we first started dating Steve would just release without any warning sometimes would catch me off guard and even make me choke or gag. I finally convinced him that by warning me I could take his cum better in my mouth and even let him see it. Apparently he liked my idea as now he almost always told me when he was at that point. Granted, I didn't get the warning EVERY time but he was getting better at remembering.

Showtime. One of the main reasons I love to suck Steve's cock isn't for MY benefit. I mean like if anything my cheeks get sore and tired and sometimes it's like he's NEVER going to cum, no matter how hard I work it. What I love is the control and power it gives me when his dick is in my mouth. I've heard some boys say that they think they’re dominating a girl during oral sex. I beg to differ. Like whose most sensitive body part is between whose teeth? I love the way he reacts when I suck his dick. It’s like he almost enjoys watching his dick in my mouth as much as in my pussy. Well, maybe not QUITE as much but close.”

Then there were times like right now when I had him on the edge and instead of him cumming in my mouth and not seeing what was happening, I took him in my hand and stroked him as I opened my mouth wide and waited for the inevitable. I didn't have to wait for long...

If this had been the LAST thing we did instead of the first, I might have made him even happier by letting him spray on my face and boobs but that wasn’t the best thing to do when we had so much more left to do. Steve has practically a homophobe and HATED cum so much that had I let him cum on my face and body he would not have touched me again in those areas until I showered. Thus after I let him watch the first couple of spurts shoot from his dick and into my mouth, I engulfed him once again and took the remainder of his sperm directly in my mouth.

Yeah, he was horny! I lost count of the number of spurts of cum he gave me. All I know is that it took me two tries to get it down, followed by a third to make sure it was all gone. At first I had been a little ambivalent about the taste of his cum but over time it has grown on me and I have to say that today I now look forward to getting a mouthful whenever I can. If anything it beats the messiness of having it spray on me.

As I mentioned, Steve was deathly afraid if his own cum so after I swallowed his down I sat back and grinned before getting off the bed.

“Ok, I’ll be right back!” I said as seductively as possible.

He knew the routine and I also knew he appreciated the extra effort on my part. Although I had yet to do so, before the night went much further I wanted to kiss him and he’d never do that with my mouth tasting like cum.

I opened the door just enough to exit into the hallway and then pulled it until it was almost closed. Normally at this point if anyone I would see my dad but sometime he came by later so it was unpredictable. Well, this time it was totally different as I looked to see Steve’s sister standing there, a grin from ear to ear. I motioned for her to join me in the bathroom where I closed the door behind us.

“I think it’s time we got you out of that T-shirt,” he murmured as he undressed me.

He started to reach for my T-shirt but I pushed his hands away. I was keenly aware of his sister watching everything and I didn't exactly feel proud of my boobs, at least not when hers looked so much better. For that matter, ALL my friends had better boobs it seemed. Sometimes I wondered why Steve ever asked me out in the first place with such tiny boobs. I mean, I have a pretty good idea why he asks me out NOW but why back then? I’ve never asked. Probably better not to know!

Actually this wasn’t all that unnatural for me. I’ve always been a “bottomless” girl, preferring to be naked below and covered above. I don’t mean necessarily displaying myself, but wearing as little as possible from the waist down. At home I rarely wore anything on my bottoms, preferring long (or even short) T-shirts and my dad’s dress shirts.

Steve started to protest but I just smiled and turned around and sat on his lap, feeling his hard dick pressed up tight against the small of my back and upper butt. I ground my bare ass into his lap, using his knees as supports to keep my balance.

“God you have such a sexy ass,” he whispered as he put his arms around me and pulled me into him, kissing my neck and ears. Mmmmmmm, music to my ears.

I turned my head to the side. I’m sure he thought it was to say something to him and he would have been partially right. It also gave me the opportunity to keep an eye on the crack in the doorway. I felt a tingle all through me as I saw an eye looking through. Was she masturbating in the hallway as I prepared to be fucked by her brother? It occurred to me that I would’ve been disappointed if she wasn’t!

I was so horny! It was like everything we did in the hot tub was not past history and we were starting all over again...

“Fuck me Steve... I want you in me now,” I said a little louder than usual. I wanted to make sure our audience could hear!

“Yeah, I’ve been waiting for this since you came down for dinner,” he growled as he grabbed me by the hips and lifted me up and over his rigid cock, “I wanted to fuck you right there on the table, I didn’t care who saw us.”

As tempting as it was to ask him if he wanted Sharon to watch, I steered clear of the topic, not wanting to do anything that might spoil the mood. I was curious about him and her but I was dying to have him fuck me.

Priorities...

Steve was holding his cock with one hand as he helped me to get positioned over his dick. I could feel the head against my warm pussy. Reaching between my legs, I spread my pussy lips apart to make it easier for him to penetrate me – an opportunity he quickly took advantage of!

"Oh god!" I moaned loudly as the tip of his dick pushed into me.

How many times had I felt this unique sensation so far? Fifty? One hundred? More? It didn't matter, it was almost like the first time (NOTHING is like the first time) and I loved it just as much every time. It was that feeling of submission, of giving myself to him. It was also a feeling of dominance, of me having what he so badly craved and now I was allowing him to take it. It was also incredibly pleasurable as the widening head of his dick pushed into me as I slowly sat down on him. I was being split apart and at times it was like there was no way he could possibly fit in me – but he always did.

I could feel the head in me now, followed by the thinner shaft as he filled me with his manhood. God, the sexiest boy in school had his dick in me! It hadn't been that many months ago when I would have never even dreamed that this could happen and now he was mine – ALL mine as I bottomed out on his cock and put my full weight on his lap.

"Oh Steve, you feel SOOOO good in me," I moaned, as much for his sister's benefit as his.

Indeed, I wanted Sharon to know how good he felt in my pussy, how wonderful her brother's dick made me feel. It was something she could only dream of as she watched but I got to have him. Mmmmmmm, I loved this!

I was about to start working his dick when his patience wore thin. Picking me up while keeping himself in me, he twisted us around until I was facing the bed and then pushed my forward with a firm shove in the back until I was on my elbows on the bed, my butt up in the air with his dick firmly implanted in my pussy.

"Love watching your ass when I screw you," I heard him say as he started to pump his dick in and out of me.

I tried to see if I could spot his sister watching us but the angle was horrible. Somehow I had a feeling she hadn't taken her eye off of us for a moment. The realization that his own sister was watching him fuck me and he had no clue about it was a totally insane situation for me. It was all so new yet I knew it was what I wanted in the future. Somehow it made it so much hotter for me knowing I was being watched and making someone horny. Until now I only had my dad watching me and that wasn't much of an erotic situation. Having his sister watch... now THAT was hot!

“Turn around,” he commanded as he pulled out of me and twisted me around before I could scarcely react.

“Lean back,” he said firmly as he spread my legs apart and pulled me up to the edge of the bed. “Legs up!”

With that he positioned my legs up to his shoulders, grabbing me by the ankles as I reached for his wet cock and all but pulled it back into me.

“You like it in you, don’t you slut?” he teased me, not letting it back in again at first, “Tell me you want my hard prick in your cunt.”

He was REALLY horny now. He knew I never cared much for the use of the word “cunt” but when he was out of control he fell into bad habits.

“Fuck my cunt Steve, fuck me hard.... God I want your prick in me,” I begged trying to use his words to turn him on as best as I could.

“OH!” I couldn't help but burst out as he suddenly rammed it into me all the way, smashing his pubic hair up against my fuzzy pussy and grinding himself into me as deeply as he could.

“You can’t get enough of my dick, can you slut,” he went on, “You want my spunk in you, don’t you? You want it bad... say it bitch.”

Had we been alone I might have said something at this point because he could get a little carried away. Slut was OK, bitch....? I knew he only said it because he was enjoying sex with me so much but still...

Despite my earlier protests, Steve reached forward and pushed my T-shirt up to expose my breasts, or at least what I had to expose.

“I love your little tits,” he gasped as he stroked his fantastic dick in and out of me. “Each one’s the perfect handful.”

I almost laughed. Oh yeah, he WAS ultra horny all right if he was saying things like that!

Steve wrapped his muscular arms around my thin legs, lifting them up as he cradled them in his elbows to allow himself to grab my bare ass. I sighed loudly as he pulled my butt up from the bed, causing him to penetrate me even deeper – if that were possible.

“That’s it Steve... deeper, as far in as you can go.”

With that he leaned over and I put my arms around his neck. Then he surprised my lifting me up.

“Hang on!” he laughed as he lifted me up and off the bed. God he was so strong! I held on for dear life as I rode his dick, like I was mounted on it as he held me up by my bottom and drilled me.

Before I realized what he was doing, he took a few steps toward the door and pressed me against the wall right next to my bedroom door. Oh my god, what if he saw his sister?

I quickly realized that the last thing on Steve’s mind was Sharon as he used the wall to help support me as he held me up and fucked me.

“Ready for it?” he asked.

I certainly didn't have to ask what “it” meant” as I nodded eagerly. “It” was what I’d been wanting all day!

Steve thrust himself upward and started to jerk as he came in me, filling my wet pussy with his second load of cum of the evening. Even thought it was not his first, he seemed to have a huge load as he pumped over and over into me.

“Suck it!” he gasped, barely able to speak as he caught his breath and lowered me to the floor where I kneeled in front of him as took his freshly fucked dick in my mouth. Oh god he tasted so good!

What turned me on even more was that my head was just inches away from the door now as the last bits of cum seeped from his dick. Well, if Sharon hadn’t gotten a good view before she certainly should be getting one now.

Steve’s sweaty body shuddered as I sucked his sensitive dick clean. The taste of my pussy on him made it all that much better. Something about tasting myself AND my boyfriend’s dick at the same time really turned me on. It was like when he would eat me out and then kiss me, the smell and taste of my pussy fresh on his mouth and tongue - only this was ten times better.

“Had enough?” I teased him as I stripped off my T-shirt finally so I was totally yanked with him.

“What do you think?” he came back with a naughty grin as he wiggled his hips so his dick moved around in front of me.

My boyfriend’s dick was making a valiant effort to recover but after cumming twice in the past half hour I knew he would need some encouragement. Well, that sort encouragement was becoming my specialty!

“Well I can go all night, the question is can you?” I taunted him as I grabbed his semi-flaccid dick and led him back to my bed like a dog on a leash.

“How old are you again?” he asked me in a wondering tone.

“No.... someone’s out there. I swear I saw someone looking in!” he said as he sat up in bed, “Oh crap, what if your dad caught us?”

I suppose in his panic that he might think that but really, did he REALLY think my parents didn't know what we did when I brought him up to my bedroom? Sure I never let him know about the open door but why would he think he had anything to worry about so far as having sex with me? I mean for crying out loud, they all but said, “Go fuck our daughter” when he came over!

“My dad would never spy on us,” I assured him, trying not to show that I was fibbing.

In a way it was true though as my dad never “spied” on us. Sure he might peek in now and then to make sure his daughter was OK, but he wasn’t like Sharon, standing out in the hall masturbating watching her friend was getting it from her sexy brother.

“Well, someone was out there so it had to be him,” he said, more accusingly this time. “I can’t believe he would watch you like that.”

My first reaction was to remind him about how his own mother had spied on us and how THAT had turned out but it didn't seem quite appropriate under the circumstances. It’s not like my dad would ever want to join in!

“I need to go talk to him,” Steve said in a determined tone, “Don’t worry, I just want to know what the story is.”

Damn, everything had been going so well and now it was all threatening to fall apart. The last thing I wanted was for him to confront my dad in this way. I could just imagine how embarrassed my dad would be to have my boyfriend accuse him of being some sort of Peeping Tom, and to do it looking at his daughter at that!

I quickly got out of bed ahead of him and went to the door and flung it open. To be honest, I was hoping like heck nobody was there and that’s just what we saw – nothing.

Steve was upset and not about to buy my story. Amazingly his cock had lost every vestige of its previous erection which told me more than anything how bothered he was. I needed to think of something – and fast before he accused my dad of anything.

Rather than try to dream up some elaborate hoax that would only fall apart some time later and make everything worse in the end, I went with the truth, or at least most of it.

“It wasn't my dad Steve... it was your sister.”

Steve twisted around so fast I thought his head would fly off.

“Sharon?”

The look on his face was total incredulity.

“No way, that’s the craziest thing I’ve ever heard. Good one Kelly but you have to do better than that.”

I moved up close to him and took my favorite dick in my hand and started to gently stroke it to try and soothe him.

“Trust me, it was her. Why do you think I took so long to brush my teeth? We were talking about me blowing you.”

Steve still wasn't buying it. “Come on Kelly, why the hell would my own SISTER want to watch us? That’s just sick.”

“Well, why would your own mother want to watch... and fuck you?” I came back with a little too quickly.

“That was different,” was all he could say.

“Face it Steve... you’re HOT!” I told him, stroking his ego now as well as his hardening cock, “Your sister is no different than any other girl, she wants you!”

Steve started to protest but I tugged on his now almost hard dick and added, “But your MINE and it really turned me on that she watched us.”

“Really?”

I smiled at Steve and tugged him back to my bed.

“Don’t you know how proud I am that you fuck only me?” I told him as we started to kiss and his hands groped me, “Don’t you understand how sexy it makes me feel that your own SISTER wants you but I’m the only one who gets your dick?”

“Yeah but still, she IS my sister,” he whined weakly as I laid back on my bed and gave myself to him, “I could never do this to her.”

I was so tempted to say, “But you did your mom,” but I knew that would have ruined everything I’d done so far to mend this situation. Steve AND his mother both refused to ever discuss what happened that day but I don’t think I can ever forget watching them.

“So fuck me Steve... fuck me instead of you sister, make her jealous of me,” I begged him softly.

Steve fucked me slowly and gently in missionary position for what must have been a half an hour or more. Rather than the hot-paced fucking we'd been doing earlier, this was slow and loving sex. God I felt so close to him and it certainly helped that we were joined as one the entire time. When he finally did unload in me for the second time (at least twice in my pussy), this time he stayed in me as his dick slowly dwindled until it was barely in me. We kissed and hugged each other, our naked bodies pressed tightly together.

Later after he had dressed I kissed Steve and said, "PLEASE don't say anything to Sharon. I'm going to tell her that I convinced you that nobody had made that sound. She's my friend and I don't want her to feel awkward around you."

Steve kissed me again and smiled as he held my head in his hands and then stroked my hair. I was still naked - I wasn't going anywhere after all so why bother?

"Anything for you Kelly... anything for my hot sexy girlfriend."

Yes, I WAS his hot sexy girlfriend and my boyfriend was the hottest sexiest boy in school! Now that I knew he was SO hot that even his own sister masturbated about having sex with him I felt all the more proud of myself. Like how many girls can say they had sex with their boyfriend while his sister watched?

I can't wait until the next time Sharon and I are alone. It was definitely interesting to masturbate for the first time with another girl the way we had and I was curious as to where it might lead. Would Steve ever get over his phobias enough to let her watch him fuck me? God that would be so hot to have her sitting next to us naked and masturbating as her brother fucks me!!!!

Sharon smiled at that. “Yeah, it felt really naughty watching you with him. You know something? I’ve never actually seen two people doing it before, at least not in person.”

Now it was Sharon’s turn to blush although I wasn't sure why. It’s not like her little fetish was a secret to anyone who knew her.

“Yeah... was that bad of me? I mean, I was watching my brother.”

Well duh, wasn't that what she wanted in the first place? So why all the guilt trip now?

“Wanna taste him?” I asked naughtily.

Sharon looked at me in disbelief. “Huh? What do you mean?”

I reached down between my legs and pushed a finger up into my pussy. There wasn't much of him left in me but there was enough for a tasting.

Sharon’s eyes narrowed and her nose wrinkled as she backed away.

“Ewwwww, that’s gross!”

I shrugged and put my finger in my mouth, sucking off the delicious coating.

“God Kelly, sometimes I just don’t know about you,” Sharon said. Then she looked down at me where my T-shirt ended.

“Like, you just sit with your father like that after a boy fucks you? I mean with THAT coming out of you?”

“He doesn’t mind,” I said with a shrug.

“That’s not what I meant and you know it. God, what’s happened to you?”

“What do you mean?”

Sharon shook her head and for a moment I thought she was about to leave but then she answered, “It’s like ever since you started doing my brother you’ve become... well you’ve become a slut. Everyone in school is talking about you now. It doesn’t help my brother practically makes an announcement every time he nails you.”

“I don’t know,” I tried to respond, “I guess I just like sex.”

“Maybe a little TOO much if you ask me.”

With that Sharon left out the basement door. I thought about what she said about me becoming a slut and smiled. She may not have realized it but that was the best compliment I’d had all day!

as best as I could. Boys! It was the perfect example of how the two brothers always seemed to be trying to get one up on the other. I got the impression that essentially Steve was more interested in rubbing his brother's face in the fact that he was getting laid every day by me - and Jim was not.

Again, this was something I wrote about before so I will just summarize the event. Let's just say for now that before it was all over, Jim not only got to watch his brother's girlfriend masturbate, but he also got to witness firsthand what his older brother was getting from me most every day. It was the first time anyone had seen Steve fuck me besides my parents and his sister so it was pretty hot for me as well.

Poor Jim, all he got to do was watch Steve fucking me; he never got to touch me or enjoy me for himself which must have driven him absolutely crazy! Although I tormented Jim that night to make Steve happy (I also had fun doing it so I wasn't complaining), it also caused me to change my mind a little bit about him, much to the horror of his sister, LOL. Suddenly the thought of someday doing something more naughty with him was no longer off the table. Indeed, it became the focus of more than a few masturbation sessions. I had no doubt that Jim was doing the same thing and it made me even hornier to imagine him stroking his cock while he dreamed of fucking me!

Fast forward about five weeks later on a cold December afternoon. I was horny as hell (as usual) so I thought I would surprise Steve at his house and see if I could get some of that marvelous dick. He'd told me earlier in the week that the rest of his family would be gone today and so he wanted to take advantage of a rare opportunity for us to have sex throughout their home. There was this little game we liked to play where we tried to see how many different places we could do it so that later Steve could visualize himself fucking me while a member of his family was doing something or another in that same place where he had been screwing his girlfriend.

Here's example of what I mean... imagine Steve fucking me as I sit on the kitchen sink. The just imagine how hot he would be the next time he watched his mom doing dishes. As he explained it to me it wasn't that he was turned on by his mom (liar - I knew differently) but rather it was the knowledge that she had no idea her eldest son had been fucking his girlfriend right where she was now working. I think it made Steve all the hotter knowing how much his mother preached against sex and now she was doing dishes in the exact same spot as where he'd fucked me!

complain. Most mothers would be preaching to their daughters the sins of premarital sex whereas my mom all but pushed me into it!

It didn't take long to walk over to Steve's and when I got to his house my heart sank - it looked like nobody was home, not even him. The front door was locked but by now I knew where they hid the key so I lifted the middle flower pot and used the key that had been hidden underneath it to open the door and I quietly slipped inside.

At first I didn't hear anything which seemed to confirm my suspicion that nobody was home. Just as I was about to leave a faint sound could be heard from the TV in the family room at the rear of the house. The closer I tip-toed through the house, the clearer I could make out the TV and I was surprised to make out the moans and groans of what could only be an X-rated porno flick. My dad enjoyed such "entertainment" and after you've see a few it's not hard to recognize what you're listening to when you first hear one.

While porn has never been a turn-on for me, I licked my lips in anticipation as I knew that it meant Steve must be missing me and was undoubtedly taking matter into his own hands - literally! For one it's not like his sister Sharon or their mom posed a threat of catching him in the act. I knew it had to be Steve because Jim was only thirteen so where would he get his hands on such a video in the first place? Yep, it HAD to be Steve and that tingle between my legs got stronger as I anticipated what I was about to find and then what I would do to him afterwards.

While on the subject of porn movies, personally I've never understood the fascination guys (and some girls I guess) have with porn films and pictures. For me they're so impersonal and fake that there's nothing sexy or erotic about them. That said, there is absolutely no doubt that Steve loves them. He keeps a HUGE stash of dirty magazines supposedly hidden in his room but Sharon knows where he keeps them and she showed me his collection one day when Steve was out. We had both giggled like grade school girls as we looked through them, trying to imagine what it would be like to let a guy do such nasty things to us.

As I said, my dad enjoys porn and sometimes I end up watching his videos with him when he takes over the TV. I find it rather interesting how he gets off from them and sometimes he even masturbates during a really hot scene. It's pretty obvious from his choice of material that he especially has a thing for seeing two girls together. That and the younger the better seem to be his criteria.

Despite what I said about porn, I have to admit that sometimes I do find myself getting excited by them. Actually, I don't know if it was the sex on the screen or but sex and more sex. At sixteen Steve was usually good for at least three or four loads before he even need any serious "encouragement".

Now the whole situation had changed. My first instinct was to just leave and never tell anyone what I'd done or seen. After all, even though I'd masturbated many times since I had teased Jim, it was all just a fantasy as I had no intention to really DO anything with Jim. He was almost two years younger than me and frankly I had a hard enough time dealing with boys my age and older let alone one younger and less mature. Besides, I still somewhat resented him for those times when he would peek in on me and Sharon. I mean if two friends can't masturbate together without having to worry about her perverted brother spying on us, what's this world coming to?

Overall I prefer boys like Steve who are a couple of years older than me. They are usually SO much more mature than the stupid jerks in my class. Unsure of whether I should leave or stay, I ended up with a compromise. Instead of leaving right away I decided to just watch and enjoy the show! Other than Steve, my dad was the only man I'd ever seen masturbating which meant I'd only watched one guy that turned me on when he was doing it. Maybe this was a chance to double that number!

There has always been something about watching Steve masturbate that just turns me on and the fact that I know he is jerking off with ME on his mind just makes it ten times better for me. I absolutely LOVE watching Steve masturbate and even though I preferred it to be when he was lusting over me, it was still a turn-on to watch at any time. Masturbation in my family has always been encouraged and treated as nothing to be ashamed about. I've seen my dad do it probably hundreds of times over the years and he watches me. For me, it's fascinating to watch my dad's cock grow when his hand fondles it and dirty thoughts fill his mind.

I sometimes wonder what it feels like to have a part of your body swell up that way but I've never had the nerve to ask him although I'm sure he wouldn't have cared. I often wonder what he is thinking when he does it. There was ONE time when I did ask him but to my surprise and shock he refused to answer me and even acted a bit upset with me for asking so I never brought up the subject again. Unlike my dad, Steve didn't mind telling me and I loved listening to him tell me all the dirty things he fantasized about me while he jerked off.

On a more clinical level, another reason I liked to watch Steve masturbate was to observe HOW he did touched himself. Like me touching my clit, I figure nobody knows better than he does what makes his cock feel good so when it's my turn to blow him or even just give him a hand job I try to mimic his own actions. It must work because he has told me many times how much better a cocksucker I am compared to other girls who have blown him. I know Steve has been with a LOT of girls before me, some of them had quite the slutty reputations as well and so for him to tell me I was better than them with the limited experience I have, well that just makes me feel so proud and good inside! I told my mom about what Steve told me and she seemed quite proud of me as well. She had shown me a few techniques of her own using one of her dildos and those were what I used to surprise Steve sometimes!

Jim was now officially the third guy I'd watched masturbating. I found it interesting, to say the least, that all three use totally different techniques. My dad likes to use lotions or oils to lube up his cock and then he strokes it up and down the entire length with his hand wrapped around his stiff shaft. Steve didn't use anything to make him slippery but then he doesn't move up and down the shaft so much as he seemed to rub the skin up and down as far as it will move. While Steve and my Dad were similar in their techniques, Jim had a completely different style. Although I'd arrived too late to see how he got himself hard in the first place, now he was rubbing his cock against his stomach using his wrist to do the rubbing, making his cock move back and forth across his stomach. His fingers never touched his cock as the majority of the time as he looked like he was buffing the wax on his car except it was his cock getting the buffing.

Well, I guess it's whatever works for you. After all, it's the same with girls. I masturbate now and then with my friends and one of the first things I noticed is that we all have our own private moves to get us off. My preference is a single finger slowly circling my clit while my friends tend to use more fingers or even the palm of their hand, all using different speeds and pressure. I also love to insert one or more of my fingers inside my pussy and pretend they are a cock that is penetrating me. I was surprised to find how many girls NEVER put their fingers in themselves so I guess it's a personal thing, just as it is for guys.

Regardless of technique, one thing WAS for sure and that was I could never watch Steve masturbate without getting horny myself. Now his naked brother Jim was having the same effect on me. I quietly slipped off my coat and laid it gently on the floor behind me. I flinched at the loud snap when I undid my jeans but Jim was apparently too preoccupied to notice. My zipper seemed to scream as I pulled it down but in reality I'm sure it was just my imagination. Once it was all the way down I slipped my hand down and inside to touch myself.

Keep in mind that if my initial plans had worked out my jeans would've been off within minutes of entering the house which is why I wore a pair that were fairly loose so they could be removed as easily possible. It actually worked in my favor even now as they were a lot easier than my tighter jeans to slip my hand down the crotch until I reached my hungry pussy. Had I worn one of my usual jeans I never would have been able to reach inside - they were almost impossible to button as it was!

At first I just lightly rubbed over my clit in a slow circular motion, not even pushing myself aside to touch it directly but just rubbing it through my skin. Once I felt myself responding I ran my finger down my slit until I reached my pussy hole which kept getting wetter and wetter each time I checked. My finger picked up some of my moisture and dragged it up to wet my clit enough more, making it slippery which allowed me to rub it more easily. I worked aside the hood and touched it directly, stifling the gasp that tried to escape me when I first touched it.

As I pleasured myself I kept my eyes locked on Jim. Even though his masturbation technique was different, it must have been effective because it wasn't long before he had brought himself to a climax, shooting his cum all over his hairless chest and flat stomach. Seeing the resulting gooey mess and the way his cock stiffened and shot its first load almost to his face was enough to initiate my own orgasm. I have always been fascinated with the way a cock can shoot cum going back to when I first saw my dad doing it. It's not even completely sexual as I just can't get enough of it. I can't even tear my eyes away when my own dad is shooting which should tell you how intrigued I am by the whole thing.

It was all I could do to keep quiet as I rubbed myself furiously, imaging that Jim's cum was shooting into my waiting mouth instead of being wasted on his bare stomach. Steve's cum was the only flavor I'd ever tasted and I wondered what Jim's cum would taste like compared to his brother's. Hmmmmmm, how it would feel as I swished in around my mouth and then swallowed it down quickly like a slimy oyster gliding down my throat?

All the while I was cumming my knees were bending under me as they weakened from the overwhelming sensation that was running through them as my orgasm surged. As incredible as it felt, all it seemed to do was wet my pussy's appetite for even more. I'd never been so close to a hard cock without being fucked by it and it was driving me bonkers not to feel it in me. (When I say "never" I should

3. Jim Becomes My Second

By now I was ridiculously horny. Jim was back at it again, rubbing his hard cock as another sex scene played out on the TV in front of him. It was time for a decision. Well, it was really not even a decision at all since there was only one outcome I could imagine. Quite simply, I knew that I was going to have sex with Jim and have it NOW, whether HE knew it yet or not!

I zipped myself up and then snapped my jeans back together again. I fluffed out my hair and walked into the room acting as if I'd just arrived and not seen anything up until then. As I came into view Jim saw me and panicked, immediately curling up in a fetal position as he tried to hide himself. I almost laughed at his frantic attempts to use the remote to turn off the porn video, as if he could hide the fact that he'd been watching. He finally got the TV off and then he grabbed his cum-stained towel from the floor and used it to hide his crotch from me.

"Kelly!" he blurted out, stammering like crazy, "What the hell are you doing here?"

"Oh my god," I said, pretending to be surprised at the scene in front of me, "I thought that Steve was in here. I'm soooooo sorry Jim!"

Looking at the now blank TV, I commented, "Hmmmmmm, that certainly was an interesting scene. Does that stuff turn you on Jim?"

Jim remained in a fetal position and with the towel clutched to his crotch all I could see was his bare ass - which was pretty cute actually! It looked pretty tempting all by itself and I found myself wishing he would give me a view of the other side of his waist! Jim didn't respond so I decided he just needed some more encouragement. I moved up close to the couch and licked my lips just enough for him so see.

"Remember the last time we were alone in this room Jim?" I purred in a sultry voice. "Have you been jerking off thinking about what I did that day?"

Jim blushed deeply which gave me all the answer I needed. I would've been terribly disappointed if he hadn't! How could any teenage boy have forgotten the show I had put on for him last month! I stood in front of the dark TV screen and cupped my small breasts through my shirt.

"Now... Wouldn't you rather see a live performance Jim?" I said seductively to him. "How about I start where we left off last time?"

Even if he had tried to pretend he wasn't interested, I wouldn't have believed him anyway so there was no sense in waiting for him to answer. I slipped off my sneakers and dropped my jeans, taking my white ankle socks off with them, leaving me bare from the ass down with just a thin flannel shirt that hung half way down my butt - just barely enough to keep my fuzzy pussy from his view.

"Why don't you go back to what you were doing while you watched those girls on the TV Jim?" I asked him. He hesitated, of course, so I pretended to pout and whined, "What's the matter, don't I turn you on as much as they did?"

That did it! In response Jim slowly laid back on his back again. The towel slid off to the side and his cock was back in view. I was pleased to see that despite whatever fears he may have had when I showed up, it sure hadn't affected his dick one iota! It was just as hard as it had been when I walked in and my mouth watered at the thought of sucking it. Somewhat self-consciously he started back to work on his cock with his hand again.

As for me, I leaned back against the TV console and started playing with myself for him to watch. Bending my knees, I slid down until I was sitting with my bare bottom on the floor, my knees bent such that my feet were still flat on the floor. I slowly spread my legs wide apart, giving him a great view of my warm fuzzy pussy. Using one hand I spread myself apart with my fingers and then with the other I played with my clit and fucked myself with my fingers. It made me feel incredibly sexy to masturbate once again for him and I loved the way he was getting turned on watching me.

Jim sat up on the couch so he could watch me without having to turn his head to the side. His cock was red and swollen again and I wondered how much longer it would be until he was cumming again. Not much if I was going to have to guess from the way he was stroking it! With two fingers up my pussy, I kept talking to Jim, trying to arouse him even more with my naughty words in addition to what I was showing him.

"Mmmmmmm, it feels so good to have something up inside of me," I groaned as I buried my fingers in me as far as I could push them. "I love a cock so much better though. I love it when I have a cock deep inside of me, filling me up so full, making me cum so hard!"

I was positive that Jim had never fucked a girl before. Odds were he hadn't even been seriously kissed yet let alone get around the bases. Well, I really couldn't say much since so far I've only fucked one guy so it wasn't like I was the most experienced girl in the world. Sure Steve had fucked me a LOT but all the same, it was always the same cock. In a way there was a sense of security for me in that as I knew what Steve felt like and how he fucked me. I loved the way he fucked me and I wanted it anytime I could get it but at this moment I found myself wondering what a different cock would be like.

"Tell me Jim," I purred to him, "Have you ever been with a girl before?"

As I knew he would, Jim didn't answer but just shook his head, his eyes never once leaving my pussy as he watched my hands doing myself. I twisted around until I was on my hands and knees and crawled slowly towards him. I licked my lips seductively as my eyes moved between his eyes and his beautiful cock.

No more words were necessary now. I knew that Jim must have been hoping against hope that I would keep coming towards him and didn't dare say anything to break the spell. He had to be wondering if this was going to be his first chance to have sex with a girl and I could only imagine the dirty things he was thinking about me. I moved in between his open legs and gently took his hand and pushed it away from his throbbing cock, replacing it with my own hand as I wrapped my fingers around the shaft. They fit easily around him - he was definitely a lot smaller than Steve, but that didn't really matter to me. I was more interested in what he had than what he didn't have!

No sooner did I start to stroke it then a burst of cum exploded from him. The feel of a girl's hand on him must have triggered him off and once again he shooting loads of cum up in the air and down on my hand and his crotch.

"Oh my god, I am soooooo sorry," he cried. "I didn't mean to cum so fast...I can't believe I did that!"

"Don't worry Jim, I understand," I said as the last of his cum dribbled from his head. I took my hand and put it up to my mouth where I licked off his cum from it. My question about whether or not it would taste different was immediately answered. Although the general taste was the same in terms of being gooey and salty, he DID have a distinct flavor. I don't know even how to describe it other than to say it tasted like cum! His eyes widened as he watched me clean all his sperm from my hand.

"You see Jim," I told him, "It's not so bad at all. Cleaning up is half the fun! Now let's finish cleaning you up - and I don't mean with a towel."

I bent over his cock and started to lick the cum from his shaft and his crotch. He was starting to get a nice bush of pubic hair around his cock and balls and some of the cum was mixed in with it. I took his hair in my mouth and sucked the cum from it. A few drops on his stomach were quickly licked up and in no time at all I had just about all of him cleaned off. A little bit had fallen onto the floor and couch leaving a stain on the couch but that was not the first time I was responsible for a cum stain on this couch! His cock had softened a little this time after he came, not completely but noticeably so. Well, obviously it was time for me to get back to work! I took his semi-hard cock in my mouth and I felt him tremble slightly as my tongue ran over his still sensitive head. I let him drop out of my mouth and looked up at his face.

"So how does it feel to have a girl's mouth on your cock Jim?" I asked him in a teasing voice. "Want me to keep going?"

"Oh god that feels so good Kelly," he moaned, "I have thought so many times about you doing it when I see you being slutty around Steve."

I didn't need a map to tell me what Jim had been doing when he was thinking of me blowing him! I started to lick his cock from the base to the head, slowing drawing my tongue along the shaft, wiggling it slightly as I worked my way up. Each time I got to the tip I would then circle around his head, running my tongue just under the ridge and then up the back where the ridge formed a "V" leading to the tip. Each time I would lick up a different path, one side and then the other, front and back, until I had covered it completely at one time or another.

Jim just moaned softly the whole time, running his hands through my hair. Then I took him in my mouth, just the head at first. I sucked on it like a lollipop, grabbing it with my lips. At the same time I reached under his cock to hold his balls, gently massaging them and running my fingers through the kinky hair that was starting to grow on them. Suddenly I plunged my head down onto him, taking all of him in my mouth until my face was pressed again the base of his cock. I think that move surprised him as he jumped and then started to groan loudly.

"Oh god that feels incredible Kelly!" he whispered in a husky voice. "I never dreamed it would feel this way!"

Well, if he thought what I was doing now was great, wait until I REALLY sucked him off. I started to literally fuck his cock with my mouth, letting him in and out in a rhythmic motion as my tongue caressed him with each stroke. He smelled sweaty from his previous exertions which was always a turn-on for me. I loved a smelly cock, the stronger the better. Jim was not all that musky but it was still pleasant to draw in his scent with a deep breath and savor it. Now and then I would stop with him all the way in my mouth and then twist my head around him as if trying to screw it into me further. At other times I would pause with just the tip in my mouth, licking his hole with the tip of my tongue and then running my lips around him. Fortunately he had just cum or I think he would have unloaded within the first few minutes. As it was he must have lasted closer to ten minutes before I felt the tell-tale signs that he was about to cum. His cock stiffened even more (if that were possible) and swelled as he prepared to unleash his load of cum once again. This time however, he wasn't going to waste his cum. This time I was there to take his load!

"OH... KELLY... OHHHHHHH!" Jim cried out as I felt the surge of his first burst of his sperm splashing in my mouth and on my tongue. All his shyness disappeared in the heat of his orgasm and he groaned as he said what he had been wanting to say to me for so long, "Oh suck it Kelly, suck my dick!"

Jim gave me about four good shots and then several blanks as he trembled and convulsed in my mouth. His hands held my head down into his cock, keeping me from letting go of it - not that I had any intention of doing so!! This was one of the times I looked forward to whenever I sucked a cock, feeling him shrinking in my mouth as drops of cum would ooze from his sensitive cock. I gently sucked on his dick and was rewarded by a convulsive jerk as it reacted to my teasing.

The pressure from his hands gradually let up and I lifted my mouth off of him. Looking into his eyes I smiled as the aftertaste of his semen lingered in my mouth. He was still breathing heavy after what was undoubtedly the best orgasm he had ever had. I wasn't finished with him yet, though. Now it was time for Kelly to have some fun! I stood up and then got on the couch next to him. Turning, I laid down with my head against the arm of the couch and my legs spread apart for him to see my wet pussy. I ran my finger up and down it to wet it and then stuck the same finger in my mouth, sucking my pussy juices off of it. I loved the taste of myself and frequently did this just about anywhere I could get away with it and few places I didn't!

"Ever lick a girl's pussy before Jim?" I asked him. He just shook his head so I decided to go another step in his sex education. "Why don't you try it with me first then?"

Jim looked hesitant at first, his lust telling him to do it but his mind questioning it for some reason. As always, his lust won over and he positioned himself between my open thighs.

"Put your hands under my butt and lift me up to make it easier for you to eat my pussy Jim," I encouraged him.

I felt Jim' hands on my ass, one on each cheek. My hips rose up as he lifted me a few inches, exposing my waiting pussy for him to lick.

"That's it Jim, now run your tongue up and down my slit... That's it, God that feels good - you're a natural!"

As Jim licked me I continued to talk to him, alternately telling him how good he was doing and then instructions on how to eat my pussy better. I used my own hand to show him where my clit was and he actually got me off once with his tongue circling around my clit. His face looked so erotic as his mouth and nose pressed into my fuzzy bush of hair. I took a peek between his legs and saw that his cute cock had hardened once again. Much as I was enjoying his attempts at licking me, it was time for the final lesson of his sex-education class!

"Come here Jim and kiss me, let me taste myself on your face and mouth," I commanded him.

We barely kissed, more like rubbing our faces together, but as he did so I could feel his hard cock touching my pussy, teasing it with the pressure of his cock head pushing against my wet pussy hole. Damn I wanted to be fucked SOOOO badly right then so without saying another word I reach down and grabbed his cock with my hand. I guided it to the entrance to my pussy until it was pressing against me and then lifted my hips up against it. His cock was still wet with my saliva and my pussy was soaking wet from his mouth so his cock slide into me easily an inch or so before he even realized what was happening!

"What the hell?" he gasped with his eyes as wide as saucers, "Am I fucking you Kelly?"

I almost laughed but managed to keep a serious face. Who would've believed that the one thing he probably dreamed about the most was likely fucking a girl, and now that he was doing it he didn't even know it!

"You sure as hell are so push it in me deeper!" I replied, wiggling my ass around to let his cock head tease the inside of my pussy.

My arms were around him as his animal instincts took over. Jim clenched his ass as he pushed himself forward to drive his dick further into me. Once he was all the way in he stopped for a moment as if unsure what to do next. I laid there for a moment as well, enjoying the feel of his cock as it violated my pussy.

"OK Jim, now fuck me... move it in and out of me," I whispered to him in a sultry voice.

Jim had seen enough porn flicks to know what to do and so he didn't disappoint me as he began to stroke himself in and out of me. It was pretty basic, just a steady in and out motion as I felt the length of his dick moving in and out, in and out, in and out. A couple of times he pulled out too far and flopped out of me. He seemed embarrassed but I smiled at him and help him to get back in me again. Although he may not have even realized what he was doing, his motion was getting faster and harder, pushing my body up into the couch more as his crotch would slam into mine.

"Don't just stroke it, try grinding it in me Jim," I coached him. "Put it all the way in and move your hips around up against me."

He was a good student and did precisely as I had told him. His pubic hair was thin but coming in nicely and I loved the feel of it against my own thickening bush. I trimmed it a bit as it grew so it didn't stick out of my bikini or panties but shaving was still a couple of years away. The added friction of our pubic hair plus the feel of him rubbing against my clit with his crotch was enough to make me ready to cum. I wanted to do it with him though.

"Fuck me Jim," I whispered, "I want to cum with you now so fuck me hard."

Jim, still silent except for his panting from his exertions, started banging me once again. Just as I felt my orgasm starting I felt him start to jerk in me like he was having a convulsion!

"Oh Kelly, I'm cumming," he said between breaths.

I could feel him start to pull out of me, afraid to leave his cum in me, but I wasn't going to let that happen. I wrapped my legs around him, pulling him inside of me again as my pussy exploded with a combination of his cum and my own as my orgasm built.

"Stay in me," I pleaded, "I want your cum in me."

Jim was thrusting slower now, the last of his ejaculations depositing themselves in me. My orgasm was just starting to peak though and I could feel my entire body tingling with the sensation I only get at this moment, that sensation that drives me to play with myself and to have sex whenever I can. It is the most wonderful feeling in the world to cum and I was overwhelmed at that moment by it all. My senses seemed to heighten, every nerve in my body was firing and it felt almost like I was on fire. I could feel every inch of his cock in me, feel it throbbing in me as it slowly dwindled inside of me. I could hear his breathing, the labored breaths as tried to recover from his exertions. Every sound in the house was amplified, the ticking of the clock in the hallway, the hum of the refrigerator in the kitchen, even cars passing by outside. My boobs were so sensitive, my nipples hard as little bullets and going nuts with every touch of his chest as he laid on top of me, trying to hold himself up on his elbows. Slowly I came back to earth and realized that I must have been breathing as I sucked in a badly needed breath of air.

"You OK Kelly?" Jim asked.

I guess he had reason to wonder. What an incredible orgasm! I was quickly learning that the quality of my orgasms varied tremendously based on the circumstances I was in. The more naughty and risky the situation, the better they seemed to be. I mean, when I masturbated I was satisfied with the results, but I never could bring myself to the peak I was just on from fucking my boyfriend's brother!

"Oh yes," I assured him, "You realize you made me cum, don't you?"

"Yea, I see girls on the movies cum but I think they're just faking. You sure you weren't faking it too?"

"Trust me Jim," I said with a wink and a sly smile, "I wasn't faking. See how flushed I am? No way to fake that."

Jim was having a hard time holding himself up without crushing me so we sat up together in the couch. He held me in his arms and I laid my head on his shoulder. His cock was soft now but it was wet as was the rest of his crotch from my pussy. I held his soft dick in my hand and then leaned over to suck it briefly. I loved tasting my pussy on a cock. Well, I loved the taste of my pussy in the first place but to have it "served" on a cock is all the better, especially when it is mixed in with his cum. Eventually I knew it was time to go. I stood up and dressed in front of him as he stayed on the couch naked and watched. I could tell he wanted to say something but he seemed afraid to ask. I had a good idea of what it was but I let him finally work up the courage to ask.

"Can we do this again sometime Kelly?" he finally managed to stammer out.

I shook my head. It was exactly what I was afraid he would ask so I figured I had better nip it in the bud straight away. "No Jim, I just wanted to do this for you after the terrible way I teased you. If you ask Steve and he says it's OK then that would be a different story."

The look on Jim's face was answer enough. I knew he would never dream of asking Steve to fuck his girlfriend so it was a safe bet for me to offer it to him. But at least it put the pressure on him and it didn't seem like I was the one stopping it from happening. Once I finished dressing, I gave him a quick kiss on the cheek goodbye and left for home. I couldn't help but think on the way back that while I had let Jim fuck me, We didn't really kiss the entire time! I wonder how many of his friends could claim the same - to have their first big kiss AFTER they lost their virginity! I just shook my head to myself and grinned. It would probably be a big surprise to whoever the girl was that kissed him as well! It certainly wasn't going to be me, that was for sure. I enjoyed being fucked by Jim but there was no way I was ever going to be serious with him. As good as his cock felt, he was still an immature kid who I really didn't like all that well. I guess it just goes to show that you don't really have to care about someone to be fucked by them! It was an interesting lesson for me...

About an hour after I got home Steve called me.

"Hey Kelly, we still on for tonight?" he asked.

Oh my god, I'd almost forgotten! This was going to be great, getting fucked by both brothers on the same day! I didn't dare tell him THAT though as we discussed our plans for the evening. Even so, I almost lost control myself as Steve told me something else.

"You'll never guess what happened today," he said. "I got home and found my little brother nude on the couch fast asleep with a porn movie in the VCR. From the looks of things he must have been having a pretty good time. It's a good thing my mom or Susan didn't find him first but you can sure I will never let him hear the end of it! God, what a pervert!!"

It was a good thing we didn't have a video phone or he would have seen the look on my face as I struggled to keep from bursting out laughing. I guess fucking me had worn Jim out more than I had realized. I wondered what Steve would have said if he had known what Jim had REALLY been doing! Oh well, I would be telling Susan everything the next time we were together and this just made my story all the better to tell!

From then on whenever I was at Steve's house and Jim was there, I noticed he quickly started sporting a nice little bulge in his pants when he saw me. I loved it that he was so turned on by me and I wondered how many times he had masturbated thinking of fucking me again. The truth of the matter is I had done myself more than a few times thinking of him so who was I to judge? I still had Steve though and he was more than adequate when it came to meeting my needs. Too bad Jim never got the guts to ask Steve about fucking me. It would have been even better to have two brothers fucking me at the same time! Oh well, that is what fantasies are for but a girl can always dream, can't she?

themselves at him. It certainly wasn't my glowing personality or astonishing good looks! While Steve never actually said so in words, I knew the only reason he kept dating me was because I put out. Thus I didn't feel guilty that this was also the main reason I dated HIM - because he was always willing to satisfy MY needs as well. Granted I DID care deeply for Steve as a friend and I knew I would never forget the times we spent together. After all, he was my "first" and nobody could do to me again what he did when he entered me for that first time. But in the end, our relationship was just a mutually beneficial arrangement and really, at our age what was wrong with that?

Sharon was Steve's younger sister, about my age and a good friend of mine. I was going to miss her as well since we had so much in common. Besides our coordinated tastes in music, clothes and such, we both lusted after her brother. The only difference was that while I got to fuck him she could only dream about it. Steve had no idea about his sister's desires - nor did he ever appear to have the same desires for her. Even so our common interest in Steve had helped to create a tight bond between us. After Steve would take me out I'd tell Sharon everything we'd done in as much detail as I could remember. Sharon knew she would never actually be able to do these things with him herself so listening to me was her way of satisfying her yearnings. More often than not we would both lie back in her bed and masturbate while I recounted in vivid detail how wonderful it felt when Steve fucked me.

Mutual masturbation was no big thing for me. Most of my friends liked to do it together and it was even something I shared with Kristi, my younger cousin. It was only for our own pleasure though as I never even once seriously considered ever having sex with any of them back then. Although when I look back I regret not taking advantage of some great opportunities, at the time we were totally into boys and masturbating together was just something we did as friends sharing a common erotic dream.

A couple of days after his mom's "announcement" I was over at their house to visit. Just Steve and Sharon were home as their mom was out of town getting acquainted with her new job and doing some house-hunting while Jim, their younger brother, was with some friends. The three of us were all in the family room watching TV with me sitting in Steve's lap on the couch while Sharon was kicked back in her mom's Lazy-Boy chair. They had all the cable channels, including some of the naughty ones, so Steve had it tuned it to a porn channel where this hunk of a guy with a cock like a horse was screwing a beautiful young girl with great tits who didn't look a day over sixteen (although I knew she must have been at least eighteen to be on this channel). I could feel Steve's cock beginning to press up against my ass so I hugged him and teased him.

"Hey sexy guy, see something you like?" I whispered in his ear, "Does she turn you on more than me?"

Steve frowned at me saying, "Give me a break Kelly! Hell, you should start worrying when I DON'T respond."

I wiggled my butt against his growing crotch, enjoying the feeling of his hardening cock. On the TV, I watched as another girl entered the room and started taking pictures of the first two.

Steve whispered in my ear, "Hmmmmmm, that's what I need, some pics of you all nice and naked to take with me so I can remember your sexy little body."

I playfully slapped him. "You pervert, I'm not going to let you take nude pictures of me. You'll just show them to all your friends!"

"Would not!" he protested.

"Oh don't give me that," I said with a laugh, "Heck, knowing you, you'd probably post them on a bulletin board somewhere and then what would happen to me?"

"I promise I would never do that," Steve said solemnly. "I mean it Kelly. I'm serious about wanting to have some naked pics of you."

To my surprise, Sharon even weighed in at this point. "Oh c'mon Kelly, you're such a little exhibitionist any other time. I mean, it's not much of a leap to go from wearing those little pieces of string you call a bikini and being nude."

She had me there. The first time I wore my bikini last summer my dad took one look and whistled. "Damn girl," he exclaimed, "Do they allow people to wear something like that at the pool these days? Maybe I need to get out more."

Actually "they" didn't since the bikini failed miserably to cover any part of my ass and there were only these small triangular patches over my nipples and pussy. I could only wear this one when I was sunbathing on our deck or at the state park lake swimming and water skiing. My "public" one, the one I wore when a bit more decorum was required, was still pretty risque but still left me with a few sexy tan lines.

Sharon sat up in her chair as she continued. "Besides, I'd love to help the two of you out. You know I've always been a camera buff so what do you say - Kelly poses, I take the pics, and then Steve masturbates to them! Sounds like a win-win-win to me!"

Actually the idea of posing in front of a camera nude was scary but yet exhilarating at the same time. I'd thought about it at times when I saw my dad's porn mags but I'd never seriously considered the idea. My parents both took a lot of pictures of me as I grew up and though some of them were in my bikini or underwear, I was never fully nude in any of them. What worried me the most was what would happen to them afterwards. I trusted Steve for the most part but he was still a guy and guys let the little head control the big head. After all, he'd step no time telling all his friends after he'd fucked me the first time. I could picture him in his new town making friends and bragging about the girl he fucked back home, then pulling out my pics to prove it. Who knows where they'd end up!

All this was running through my head as Steve ran his hand up the inside of my thigh and pressed it into my crotch. I was wearing jeans so he wasn't getting a direct feel but I was sure he could feel my warmth from the other side of them. He rubbed his hand on my pussy, pressing against where my clit was waiting for some attention. It felt good and I started thinking of ways to suggest Sharon leave us alone so I could strip out of the jeans.

"So what do you say Kelly?" he asked, "I can tell from the heat of your pussy that you're turned on. C'mon... you know you want to do it!"

"OK," I finally agreed, "But on one condition - they have to be nice ones. I don't want to look like some slut or amateur like those I've seen in this movie."

Sharon took her cue and bolted from her chair. "Hold on a second, I'll be right back!"

Both Steve and I exchanged glanced, not sure what she was up to now. With Sharon, it could have been darn near anything! While she was gone, I sat next to Steve and started to rub him through his jeans. Mmmmmmm, he was so hard! God I wanted his dick in me!

"You sure you want Sharon to take my pics?" I asked him. "What if you want to take some of me sucking you or even you fucking me? Do you want her around for that?"

Steve started to answer, "Why not? She IS my sister and..." he was interrupted by Sharon's return.

She was holding a couple of outfits. "Here Kelly, we're the same size so these should fit you. My mom and I went shopping before Christmas and she bought them for me," she said holding the first one up. "What do you think of this one?"

It was a sheer white sheer dress with a full lace front, long sheer sleeves and a sheer skirt. Obviously it was meant to wear a full slip underneath but I didn't see any such a thing with her. Still, it was pretty and I imagined it would look sexy on me. I couldn't help but wonder how she'd talked her mother into buying them for her. Even more mysterious was WHO she planned on seeing her wearing them.

"Wow Sharon, that looks great!" I exclaimed.

"Well if you liked that one, then you should really like the next one," Sharon said as she beamed at me. She then pulled out a peach colored dress with a sheer skirt and strapless tight midriff held up by thin spaghetti straps. It was beautiful! Like the white one, this one HAD to have a slip underneath to be decent but again, Sharon hadn't brought one.

"I only wore this to one party." She explained, "I bet you would look so hot in it girl!"

Sharon looked around the family room. "Ugh, this is the worst place in the world for a photo studio. Hey, let's go up to the living room. I'll get my camera and meet you guys there."

Steve and I went upstairs to their formal living room. By formal I mean the type where nobody goes in unless important guests are being entertained. I never liked it as it was overdone for my tastes but it was easy to see why Sharon wanted to use it. I figured she had her eye on a set of beautiful sheer purple curtains that covered one wall. They were very light and elegant looking as well as being sheer.

My pussy tingled as I thought about what we were considering doing. Was I REALLY going to go through with this?

2. Photos by Sharon

Sharon came in with a fancy 35mm camera, a monstrous flash and several lenses. She looked around the room and put some pretty pillows on the floor along with a light blanket for me to be on. She directed Steve to move some of the lamps to improve the lighting. It was actually starting to look like a professional photoshoot! She even had a light meter that she used to check out the final setup. Frowning at what she was reading, she told Steve to drag in another lamp from a bedroom to add more light. "Because I hate using a flash if I can avoid it, that's why." I heard her explaining to Steve, "She'll have red-eye and the whole picture ends up with this amateurish look to it. C'mon, I want these to look nice for you!"

The two of them had been so busy setting up the scene that they never noticed I'd slipped out to change into my first outfit. After some debate I decided to start with the white dress. As I wasn't wearing a bra or panties you could just make out my darker nipples through the lace front. The dark outline of my pussy was also clearly visible through the skirt (I wasn't shaving yet at that age). Looking around I picked up a silly stuffed toy dinosaur in the bedroom I'd changed in and brought it with me as sort of a security blanket.

Sharon turned around just then and finally noticed me. She grinned and poked her brother, "Hey guy, get an eyeful of your slutty girlfriend!"

Steve twisted his head around and his eyes widened as he saw me standing there. The light from the other bedroom was behind me and I knew he must have had a great view of my body silhouetted under the dress. Steve just stared at me while Sharon giggled and led me to where she wanted me to stand. She did another check of the lighting, her camera, and even fixed up my hair a bit. If I'd known I was going to be doing this I would've done something more with it. Instead it was just hanging straight down to a few inches below my shoulders. Oh well, somehow I didn't think that Steve was going to even notice how my hair looked in these pictures.

Standing there barefoot, nothing on except this dress that wasn't hiding very much, I was suddenly struck by my situation and for just a moment the butterflies in my belly fluttered. What would Steve do with these pictures when he moved? Who else would see them? What would happen if they got out and everyone in school saw them? What worried me most of all though was how would I look? While not nearly developed as much as most my friends, I didn't think I had a bad body for my age but I wasn't under any delusions of being a Playboy Playmate. I was still pretty skinny and my boobs weren't anything to brag about to say the least! Sharon must have seen the apprehension in my face.

"Relax Kelly!" she told me. "Try having some fun with this. Trust me, you look absolutely beautiful."

Steve sat down in a chair and watched as Sharon played fashion photographer. First she took some shots of me standing up including some with the silly stuffed dinosaur I'd found. Apparently they both thought it made me look "cute" holding it which was enough for me to want to put it down. Cute was NOT what I was aiming for. Then she directed me to sit down and she took some more. There was a peach piece of sheer material that had been hanging over the back of the couch for decoration which I held up to give the scene some color.

"OK, now stand back in the doorway again," she directed, "That was so hot the way the light shined through behind you."

Moving back to the entry, I started to turn for a pose but she stopped me saying, "Hold it there.... that looks so sexy! It's like you don't have anything on."

As I stood there with the sunlight outlining my nude body under the dress, I thought about how my dad had me pose in a similar outfit he'd bought for me. He hadn't been as explicit s Sharon in describing how I looked and I wondered if he thought I'd looked as sexy then as I did now. Hmmmmmm, maybe next time I should ask him!

Sharon finished up the first roll of film and reloaded it quickly. When that roll was finished she told me to change while she changed rolls and lenses. While she was occupied I went back into the bedroom and changed into the peach colored dress. Again I had nothing underneath and it wasn't like the dress hid anything! We sort of went through the same routine as before in terms of shots taken. This time though, as I lay back against a pillow as Sharon got a little more adventuresome in her directions.

Somehow I had a feeling this was going to eventually happen and even though I knew it was coming I still wasn't truly prepared. Looking over at Steve I saw he was just smiling, enjoying the show. It was one thing to have my pic taken in see-thru dresses, basically no different than my dad taking pictures of me in my thong bikini or ultra-short cutoffs. But it was still a major step to go from letting someone photograph me ALMOST showing off everything to ones where I was actually doing it. Despite my misgivings I was getting pretty horny by now and my caution was draining away so I inched down the top until it was just below the nipple on my right breast. Sharon quickly snapped a couple of shots and then encouraged me to keep going. Oh well, why not? I shrugged and pulled the entire top down until it revealed both of my breasts (or at least what little bit I had).

"Click!" went the camera over and over as Sharon captured my bare tits from all angles. In a few shots I pretended to be asleep, giving the impression that somehow my top had slid down while I was asleep and now whoever was seeing me was getting an eyeful of something forbidden. It felt really strange to have Sharon taking pictures of me like this. We'd seen each other nude many times and as I mentioned, even shared masturbation sessions but now it was more personal, more erotic. I couldn't help but wonder what would happen if it were just the two of us in the room right then. Would she make a move on me? I closed my eyes as dreams of forbidden pleasure began to form in my mind.

"Kelly, wake up!" Sharon teased, "Sheesh, I didn't realize this would be so boring for you."

I put the thoughts about Sharon out of my mind, for the moment at least, and I stood up again thinking that was going to be the end. To my surprise Sharon told me to wait in the bedroom, that she had one more outfit for me to try on. I wondered what it was going to be this time. She was back in a minute with the sheerest nightie I'd ever seen! It was like wearing something from a fairy story. Again I couldn't help but wonder where she got it and whom she wore it for! One thing was notably missing - panties. I started to say something but then realized she hadn't "forgotten" them.

As Sharon shot off some another couple rolls of pictures Steve just sat there and stared at me. His eyes seemed particularly focused on my bare crotch but then what else would I expect? Actually I would have been disappointed if he hadn't since the outfit didn't leave much to the imagination. He licked his lips now and then and generally looked like he was enjoying himself immensely. I also noticed something else was immense as well. Somehow I had a feeling I was going to get a very special fucking tonight!

Sharon shot the lost shot in the roll and I got up to get dressed. Sharon saw me starting to leave and called me back.

"Wait Kelly! I have a few more rolls left I wanted to use up!" she said to me. Then she turned to Steve and asked, "So what do you want her to wear now my horny brother?"

Steve got this devilish look and I knew the answer before it came. "Well, if I get to choose then I would say nothing - I want some nudes!!"

Even though I knew he'd say something like that I was still hoping that somehow at the last minute he'd surprise me and say something unexpected like, "That's OK. The pictures you have taken are all I want." Well, now I was on the spot. We were all hornier than hell and I couldn't help but get turned on even more at the thought of showing myself off to my boyfriend and his sister. Growing up in a home where nudity was considered natural more than erotic, I didn't mind letting people see me nude. Logic was not exactly controlling my actions at this point.

After spending the past hour modeling several outfits, which were basically transparent, making the transition to full nudity wasn't as big a step as it could've been. I'd felt so sexy posing I could only think how much more so it would be if I was fully naked. Even a sheer gown provides some security whereas being nude eliminates everything. Now it would be just me with nothing to hide behind. I'd seen my dad's porn magazines before and had always dreamed of being sexy enough to be photographed like the models in them and now it was happening! I slipped off the sheer nightie and stood there in front of the camera nude. Sharon quickly snapped a shot before I realized what she was doing.

"Go girl," she encouraged me, "Show me what you've got."

Suddenly I felt a bit shy as she started snapping pictures of me. I took a piece of sheer red material and drape it over me as I rolled around on the floor and then played with it. All the while Sharon was snapping one shot after another of me. I didn't get too slutty - no close-up crotch shots, I kept my legs together, and so forth. We also stuck to poses without any sexual acts such as masturbation or intercourse - I wanted to show a little class during my first nude photo-shoot!

I noticed that all the while Steve was watching me and rubbing himself through his jeans. Hmmmmmm, was he going to whip out his aroused cock and start playing with it in front of Sharon? I couldn't help but wonder what he would do if he knew Sharon's secret desire for him and how much she wanted her big brother to fuck her. Oh well, some guys just aren't into that sort of thing and apparently Steve was one of them.

3. More Than Just Nudes

"Last roll is full," Sharon announced. "That's a wrap folks!"

Steve clapped and finally came over from his chair. I don't know how he was able to walk with his cock swelled up so large but he managed. He hugged me and we kissed while Sharon watched.

"Ok guys, get a room!" Sharon said in a teasing manner. There was something in her tone though that made it sound like she would've been happy had we ignored her advice.

Steve was up to it to her teasing though. "Anything you say sis!" he retorted. "You know what they say... be careful what you ask for."

With that he picked me up in his strong arms and carried me off to his bedroom. I looked back at Sharon as we left the room and smiled at her. I could see her silently saying, "Good luck Kelly!" as she watched with hungry eyes and I knew she was wishing she was in my place.

Steve tossed me onto his bed where I laid in the center spread-eagle, offering myself totally to him. Whatever he wanted right then I was ready to give him, anything at all if that's what it took to feel him violating me, satisfying the hunger that was raging in me for his cock. I watched as Steve stripped off his clothes, revealing his incredible cock that was standing out straight from his body like a telephone pole. I felt my heart skip a beat knowing that it was that way because of me, knowing that it was me that was soon going to drain it of cum later that night. Steve was FINALLY nude now and my pussy felt like a furnace as he approached me. God I wanted him SO badly. All I could think about at that moment was how much I wanted Steve to fuck me!!!

Suddenly I heard a loud "click" and looked over to see Sharon standing in the doorway with her camera! Steve was also looking at her and seemed a bit perturbed at first.

"Sharon!," Steve cried out, "What the hell are you doing?"

"Oh come on big brother," she said with a coy smile on her face, still snapping pictures as she talked, "You know you want some shots of you fucking her so just shut up and fuck her."

Steve looked at me and I winked at him. Suddenly the thought of being photographed like a porn movie scene sounded damn sexy and I felt myself get even wetter than I was already.

"Do it Steve," I whispered in his ear, "Show your sister how good you can fuck me."

It was really unnecessary as Steve was so horny at this point I don't think he would've stopped no matter who was watching us. Still the room was so quiet that I knew Sharon could hear me and it felt so naughty to ask her brother to fuck me right in front of her. We both went at it as if Sharon wasn't even there while she shot roll after roll of pictures (so much for the "last roll" before!). Usually Steve always wants a blowjob to start but not today - it was straight to mounting me with no stops or detours in between. It wasn't often he was this aggressive with me where he literally just pinned me down and thrust his hard cock into me without any foreplay although I guess you all we'd been doing up there probably fell into that category. I turned my head towards Susan and her camera so she could capture my expression as her brother's rigid dick forced its way into my tight pussy. Yes, it was no longer a virgin and yes, it was receiving daily workouts but he still claimed I was the tightest girl he'd ever fucked.

While we didn't fuck all that long, I still managed several incredible orgasms as I was especially stimulated by the knowledge that Sharon was watching her big brother fuck me. OK, so it wasn't like it was the first time she'd seen us together but it WAS the first time Steve knew about it. All the times before if I hadn't known she was spying on us I wouldn't have known she was there either. Looking back I wonder what must have been going through her mind as she watched us. Was she dreaming it was her in my place? Odds were pretty good if I knew her.

All in all t was certainly turned out to be a night to remember for all of us and thanks to Sharon, one we could all remember it now in living color! Where she took her fit to be developed I have no idea and I didn't ask. Some things are better left alone. Whatever or whoever she used, she was kind enough to include a full set of prints for me as well. Years later when I was Steve's wife I would pull these out and surprise him.

Later when I returned home my mom was waiting as usual for a full report of my activities. Actually during the walk home I was practically skipping with anticipation of her reaction. I was just a little worried she wouldn't approve of it but to my surprise she just smiled and told it was a great idea. In fact, she got up and was all I could do some nights not to cry out in frustration as I lay alone in my bed at night, wishing he were in me and masturbating hard as I imagined him fucking me. So it should come as no surprise that I was floored at the news.

"Kelly," he started out slowly. He hesitated and then continued on saying, "I just found out my mom's been promoted and we have to move to be at her new office sometime at the end of February."

My whole body went rigid with shock. This was a cruel joke, one he would live to regret! It simply couldn't REALLY be true. I mean, how could he leave me? I closed my eyes as if when I opened them everything all right again. Nope, this wasn't happening! It couldn't be happening!

Steve held me tightly to him such that my tiny breasts were pressed tight against his hairless chest. Normally this would give me a chill and I would push my hips forward to press my crotch against his cock. Well, not this time. The last thing on my mind at that moment was sex, probably the first time I could say that when I was with him. I started to cry, tears streaming down my face as my body trembled from my sobbing.

Steve tried to console me saying, "We'll figure something out Kelly, don't get so upset. It's not the end of the world."

How could he say that?! It WAS the end of the world so far as I was concerned. The end of the world as I knew it at least. I'd given Steve my virginity for crying out loud. Although I couldn't say that I "loved" him yet, I figured that our relationship would mature as we grew older and I just assumed someday we would marry and I would bear his children. I had the whole thing worked out, our engagement, the marriage, honeymoon... everything! No, he couldn't just screw it all up this way, I wouldn't let him! All these thoughts were racing through my mind as I cried in his arms. No matter what he said I knew in my heart that once they left I would never see him again. They were going too far away and probably never coming back. It was over, really over, and my life was over with it.

That night we stayed in my bed for hours, just holding each other and snuggling together. We didn't have sex again that evening but instead just caressed one another and I closed my eyes as his hands slowing wandered over me and played with my hair. His cock stayed hard of course. I mean like Steve was still a horny teenage boy no matter what the circumstances! Holding it in my hand I never wanted to let go of the one thing that brought me more enjoyment than anything ever before.

Steve eventually had to get home and my mom came in my room afterwards and saw that I was crying. I lay nude on my stomach and between sobs told her the bad news. She was wise enough to know that nothing she could say would help right then and so instead she just ran her hand lightly over my bare back and butt, tracing her manicured fingernails gently over my soft skin. This was something she'd done since I was a little girl whenever I was upset or troubled and it always seemed to help soothe me and calm me. Tonight it took a little longer but eventually the tingling sensations I would feel as her fingers would run from the top of my spine to the bottom of my butt and then back up again did its work and I finally fell asleep.

Steve and I had five to six weeks left before he had to move and we didn't waste a second. We spent every moment we had together and he fucked me dozens of times. I don't think a day went by in that period when we didn't fuck. Knowing we faced a deadline we threw caution to the wind, doing it in places we hadn't dared before knowing if we didn't we would miss one more opportunity that could never be recovered. We even did it in school, sneaking off to some area where we hoped not to get caught – the stage, custodian closet, and so forth. Then after school we were at it again. My parents knew Steve was leaving and how much it meant to me so they just put up with me during this time, not complaining if I was out on a school night or came home late. I felt such gratitude for their understanding – I have the greatest parents in the world and there were times I wondered how I could ever repay them for everything they did for me.

2. The Hotel Room

Finally the night came, the last night before Steve and his family were to leave. Steve picked me up in their car and before we left the driveway, he turned in the seat and faced me saying, "Let's go somewhere tonight private, somewhere we can be alone and be just the two of us. What do you say Kelly?" he asked.

"Sure Steve," I answered, "Anything so long as I can be alone with you tonight."

We decided to do something that we had never done before - use a hotel room. There really was no need for us to in the past as we could do it in my own bedroom anytime we wanted. But tonight was special; tonight we wanted to be alone and say goodbye in a more intimate way. When we got there Steve checked in while I stayed in the car. He must've been using his mom's credit card and I was worried at first they may not let him even have a room. He must've been convincing enough for the clerk because in a few minutes he was back in the car with the key to a room. We drove around to the closest entrance and walked in.

As he fumbled with the key in the lock an older couple passed by us and I say them looking at us a little strangely. While Steve was sixteen and looked older, I certainly didn't look eighteen. Heck, a lot of people didn't believe I was fourteen even though I was only a week away from my fifteenth birthday. To my never-ending annoyance I was a late bloomer compared to most of my friends. It was always embarrassing in the locker rooms seeing their big boobs and curvy figures while mine barely filled a training bra. I was skinny and barely had a figure going making it all the more painful to look at them. Steve got the damn key to work finally and we disappeared into the room, leaving the couple outside to shake their heads at what they assumed was going on between what in their view was two teenagers fooling around. Well, if that's what they thought then they'd have been correct!

Once inside I took a look around the room. I'd never been in a hotel room like this one before. My parents rarely traveled except to visit relatives and when we did my dad preferred to stay in fancy suites that were almost like being at home. Tonight there was just a king size bed, a little round table with two chairs, and a dresser with a TV literally bolted to the top. Definitely nothing fancy but the bed was all I cared about! Steve was carrying a bag with and I was a bit surprised when he pulled out a big video camera. I gave him a questioning look. Although I'd recently allowed his sister take some sexy photos of me nude, we'd never videotaped us having sex and I was more than as little bit nervous which Steve was quick to pick up on.

"I hope you don't mind Kelly," Steve said, obviously a little embarrassed by my reaction, "You've been so special to me I wanted to remember our last time together."

Hmmmmmm, I thought about this for a while and debated what to do. On the one hand I was worried about anyone having a video of me having sex as my dad would be furious if he ever found out. He was always warning me about giving anyone anything that could someday come back to haunt me, a warning I remember to this day. Yet on the other hand the idea turned me on. I could imagine Steve watching the tape later, masturbating furiously as he remembered what it was like to fuck me and I found that the idea started to get me horny. What the hell, why not? I shrugged my shoulders and jumped up on the bed and sat cross-legged in the middle while he set up the bulky video camera on a tripod and aimed it at me. He started the camera and turned to me with that look of lust I knew so well. Whenever I saw that I knew I was going to get a good fucking before much longer!

"Hey guy," I said in a seductive voice looking at the camera, "Quit fooling around and get over here and fuck me."

We were horny teenagers so we didn't waste any time. Both of us stripped off all of our clothes as fast as we could, dropping them to the floor without even trying to keep them neat. Then we laid on top of the bed naked in each other's arms, not even bothering to pull down the comforter. Yeah, knowing what I know today that was pretty gross but I didn't know any better at the time. Steve kissed me and out tongues met, teasing each other and then I sucked on his tongue. His hands ran through my hair, sending shivers through me as his fingers played with it. I reached down between us and grabbed his hardening cock.

Mmmmmmm I loved his cock! From the very first time I tasted him back in that darkened movie theater I knew I wanted it as often as I could get it. I ran my fingers through his lush pubic hair, twisting it around my index finger and pulling on it gently. God I wanted it soooooo badly! My pussy was tingling with anticipation and I could feel the wetness between my legs growing. In response my other hand involuntarily reached between my legs and I jumped as I touched my clit, already swelling and growing more sensitive with each passing moment. I loved my pussy and played with it all the time but it was even better when I had a cock in my mouth at the same time so I looked at him and whispered, "I want to suck your cock Steve. Let me taste your hard dick."

Steve grinned - he wasn't about to make me ask twice. He laid on his back while I went down on his cock. He was about five or six inches long when he was hard which was the perfect size for me as I could easily take him all in my mouth yet he still felt great when he fucked my pussy. I licked him just enough to get him wet and then took him in my mouth quickly dropping down into his crotch until I had all of him in my mouth.

God he smelled so good! I loved the taste of my pussy and often when I played with myself I would lick my fingers or dildo. A cock tasted so much different though and I loved it almost as much as I did my pussy. Sometimes I wondered what another pussy or cock would taste like. I figured someday I would find out but for now I was happy with ours.

I laid to the side of him, my head resting on his stomach as my legs wrapped around his, pressing my crotch into his leg and humping so as to rub my clit which was crying out for attention. Steve was already moaning and groaning louder as I worked his cock. Yes... he was always easy to get off the first time! Sometimes I barely had to kiss his dick and he would shoot his wad. That was OK with me because I loved knowing he was getting that horny because of me and besides at his age he was ready to go again right away.

Tonight was proving to be no different. I'd only been sucking him for a couple of minutes when his hips raised up off the bed and he gasped for air. I held his cock in my mouth, sealing it with my lips as his cum squirted into my mouth like a toothpaste container that had been stomped on. Mmmmmmm it tasted so good! I loved his cum but even more the process needed to get it. He jerked with each load and I almost let him slip out of me but held on as his last eruption came to a close. Only then did I let his cock slip from my mouth and I turned my head up to look up at him, opening my mouth to show him the creamy white cum pooled inside. He smiled and I spit just enough of it out to form a layer on my lips and then licked it back into my mouth again, I knew that he liked seeing his cum in my mouth and when I eventually swallowed it a big grin came to his face.

"So how do I taste today Kelly?" he asked. The smile on my face told him everything he needed to know. Now that I had my taste of him it was time for him to fuck me. His cock was still standing tall, making for such an inviting scene. I straddled his hips and rubbed my pussy for him to see as he laid back staring at me.

"What do you want Steve?" I asked him innocently, "I'll do anything you desire, just ask me." Well, I knew full well what his answer had BETTER be.

"Oh my god I want to fuck you so bad Kelly," he whispered, never taking his eyes off my hand which was rubbing my soaking wet pussy as I masturbated for him. "I want you to sit on my cock and take it all inside of you."

Just the words I wanted to hear! I smiled and ever so slowly lowered myself down to his cock which was still hard as a baseball bat and pointing upwards like a missile poised for takeoff. My pussy was so damn wet I thought it was going to start dripping as his head easily parted my labia and he slipped into me like I was made for him (which I guess was technically true!). I let out a loud moan as I felt him in me, filling my empty pussy, feeling every inch of his smooth hard shaft as it disappeared into me until I was finally sitting on his lap with my bare bottom resting on his hairy crotch. Looking down between my legs I enjoyed the view and felt a chill as his cock was nowhere to be seen. Yes! Only the base of it was visible as the rest had disappeared into my scalding hot pussy. Seeing him inside of me and feeling him within me always helped to create one of the most incredible sensations I've ever experienced. It was one which I never got tired of and couldn't imagine that I ever would. I leaned forward and kissed him, feeling his cock starting to pull out of me a little bit as my ass tilted forward. I raised my butt up until he was just barely in me and then dropped back down on him again. We never stopping our kiss as I started humping him faster and more forcefully. All I had to do was lean back and forth while I was on my knees straddling him and he automatically slid in and out of me, fucking me wonderfully.

We kissed long and hard with a passion only two people in love for the first time can. Once in a while I would get carried away and lean to far forward into him and his cock would slip from my pussy. One of us would reach for his cock and put it back in me, the quicker the better because my pussy would feel so empty without him!

Steve pushed me back until I was sitting up straight and then he raised himself as well. I swung my legs forward so instead of kneeling I was sitting in his lap keeping his cock in me the entire time. We both looked down to watch his dick moving in and out of my cunt as we rocked back and forth. As before it was so erotic watching it and feeling it in me at the same time. He seemed to enjoy it as much as I did and we both looked up at the same time and giggled a bit as we realized we both were getting into it.

"Oh Kelly, look at us." he whispered. "Fuck I love watching my dick move in and out of you... almost as much as I love how it feels!"

Well, that made two of us as I moaned again and answered, "Oh god yes Steve, I love being fucked by you. Fuck me Steve, Oh my god fuck me... Fuck me... Oh please fuck me more!"

Steve lifted my hips up and moved up with me as he got on his knees. He laid me on my back, with my hips up in the air as his glorious cock drilled me like an oil well going deep. Steve held me up with his hands under my ass, pushing and pulling while he humped me such that his cock made the deepest strokes possible in and out of my pussy. I loved the feeling I got when his cock rubbed in me the way it did when he was in me this way and I could feel my pussy throbbing. My hands squeezed my breasts as they also began to tingle and I cried out with joy as my orgasm began. Oh sure I could make myself cum when I masturbated but nothing beat the orgasms I got from being fucked. Damn, I would fuck a dozen times a day if I could just to experience this.

How do I even begin to explain these feelings to a guy? It would be like a man trying to make me understand how he felt when his cock erupted. I know it must make him feel good because he will do anything for it but I have no idea how it really feels. It is the same for me in trying to describe an orgasm. When I cum my entire body feels like it's on fire but in a wonderful way. I tingle from my toes to the top of my head and my pussy feels like it is going to explode as my pussy cum gushes out like a thick flood. When I close my eyes it is like being in my own world, a sensual place filled with nothing but sheer pleasure and ecstasy. It is a world I never grow tired of visiting and one I wished I could never leave. As Steve fucked me I arched my back and lifted my hips, trying to draw his cock into me even further. A final moan escaped from me and dragged on as my orgasm peaked and then slowly dwindled. I slumped down onto the bed as Steve kept fucking me, my pussy still throbbing.

Steve pulled out of me just long enough to flip me over onto my stomach like an egg in a pan. He leaned back on his knees and pulled my legs to each side of him with my stomach off the bed, thus putting my weight on my arms and chest. I gasped as he slid his cock back into my ultra-sensitive pussy once again. His hands were on my hips as he fucked me even harder than before. He only did it this way for a while when he flipped me over onto my back again, this time to fuck me missionary style. This is actually my favorite position to be fucked in by him, especially when he was ready to cum which I could tell from the way it was swelling even more than before was not too far away. He leaned over to kiss me and I wrapped my legs around him as best I could and put my arms around his neck as we kissed fervently. He held himself deep in me and ground his crotch in to mine, his pubic hair rubbing me like a coarse brush.

"Oh god Kelly!" he gasped, "I'm going to cum in you."

Oh how I wanted him to and I cried out to him, "Yes Steve, give me your sperm. Fuck me Steve, I don't want you to ever stop." I was actually in tears I wanted him so badly. I wanted this moment to never end, to keep him inside me and never let him go. I wanted to feel him cum in me, to give me a part of himself that would remain in me afterwards.

Steve finally came as a massive explosion of cum suddenly burst from his cock and I felt the heat of it blooming in my lower abdomen as it shot up into my pussy. The whole bed was rocking as each of us pounded our hips into the other, ramming his cum as deep inside of me as we could make it go. As he came so did I and my pussy clamped down on his pulsing cock, holding him in me in its firm grip. I don't know if there was anyone in the room next door but if there was they had to hear us at this point as we gasped and cried out together like two juvenile animals in heat.

When Steve was finally spent he went down on his elbows and he felt heavy as some of his weight rested on me. I was still feeling the twinges of my orgasm and my hips involuntarily tried to keep fucking him, even as his cock began to shrink. Dang it, I could feel it growing smaller in me and drawing out of me until just the head and a part of the shaft remained in me. It felt like someone had thrown a bucket of hot sticky water between my legs I was so wet! We lay like this and eventually rolled over on our sides with our legs intertwined and arms around each other, gently kissing and whispering to each other how good we felt.

We both must have dozed off for just a bit because when I opened my eyes I saw the clock said it was after 11:00 PM already! Damn, I didn't want our last time to be spent sleeping as I had planned on doing a lot more fucking than this! I gently worked my way from Steve's arms and looked at his cock all small and quiet. It was hard to believe how big it had been not so long ago when he had fucked me so well with it. I twisted around and laid on my side again but this time with my leg over his head so my pussy was up close to his face.

As I maneuvered to put my mouth next to his sleeping cock I felt a dampness against me and looked down to see a huge wet spot in the center of the bed comforter. I smiled as I knew where THAT had come from! I wondered for just a second if the hotel would wash the comforter when we left. I figured they probably didn't which made me wonder who would be in this bed next? I imagined some lonely guy lying down in this bed the next night, too lazy to pull down the comforter with no idea how our cum had soaked it the previous night. Of course, I then realized the same probably applied to me and for a moment my skin felt like it was covered with little bugs as I imagined what other people had done on this bed before us. Oh well, I was way too horny at the moment to worry about it so I just shrugged it off and started gently sucking on Steve's flaccid cock. Mmmmmmm, I could still taste my pussy on him! What better taste could I ask for than as blend of my boyfriend's cum mixed with my pussy?

It didn't take long to get the desired response from Steve as his mouth-watering cock began to swell in my mouth just the way I loved for it to do. Before long he was moaning and then I felt his slippery tongue licking me and his hands on my ass pulling my crotch down tighter into his face. Mmmmmmm, Steve knew how to lick me just right. Well, he should with all the practice he had! To his surprise I pulled away and Steve looked at me with a "What the hell?" kind of look.

"Mmmmmmm, I want to be naughty!" I said in a teasing voice.

Steve laughed just a bit but he looked at me with narrowed eyes. "And just what does my horny little girlfriend want to do that is so naughty?" A smile came to his face as he knew how dirty my thoughts could be sometimes.

I got up and told him to get dressed while I grabbed the terrycloth robe from the closet and put in on as he put his jeans and shirt back on, a look of amusement now on his face as he realized what I was planning. Steve grabbed the video camera, which had long since stopped. I wondered how much it had captured from our earlier fucking session? I was going to have to wait until later though as Steve removed the tape and inserted a fresh one. With him armed and ready I went out to the hallway and looked around. Nobody was around so I told him to start taping and as soon as he did I teased him in the robe and eventually dropped it to the floor and posed for him naked as the day I was born by our door, curling my finger at him as if I was inviting him in like a street hooker.

We goofed around in the relative safety of the doorway as my courage grew.

It was like the courage men draw from as stiff drink only my courage was enhance by as stiff dick. From there we went to various locations around the hotel and Steve took more naughty movies of me as I played around. The first place was the little area with the ice machine and Pepsi machine. From there we hit a couple of stairwells, the elevator and even spent some time in the parking lot. A few times when we heard people coming I would throw on the robe and we would hang around aimlessly until they passed by. More than once someone would see me in my robe and Steve holding the video camera and smile at us as they realized what was going on. I bet a couple of guys were wishing they could have stuck around!

We did this until Steve ran out of tape after which we returned to the room. We watched a few of them through the viewfinder and they were soooooo hot! I couldn't wait to see them on our TV. Steve was hard as a rock again by now after watching me posing in all the hotel public areas and I was horny myself from the excitement. Well, no sense in wasting a perfectly good hotel bed! THIS time, however, I pulled back the comforter and vowed I would never again lie on or even touch one again.

We fucked again for over an hour, this time more slowly as we tried to capture forever the pleasure of being in each other's arms. I loved the feel of Steve's youthful naked body pressed mine while he played with my hair and run his fingers lightly up and down my spine. He grabbed my ass in his hands and squeezed it playfully, rubbing it and running his hands down between my legs until he could slide his fingers into my swollen pussy, rubbing the inside of my cunt and then wetting the outside my asshole with my pussy juices.

Finally it was just me laying on top of him, both of us exhausted. His cock was still in me from our last fucking but only barely as it had shot its final load in me and had finally softened up for good and no more sucking or fucking was going to revive it any time soon. My pussy was throbbing intensely from the multiple orgasms it had given me and even now when his cock would move just enough for me to feel it a shiver would run through me. Despite the wondrous feelings in me I couldn't help but burst into tears.

"What's the matter babe?" Steve asked me, confused as to why I was crying.

"Oh Steve I am so sorry," I sobbed, "It's just that I know that once your cock comes out of me this time I'll never have it in me again. Oh my god it feels so wonderful in me; I don't want to let it go! I don't want it to ever come out of me. Oh I'm going to miss you soooooo much Steve."

Steve just hugged me and pulled me tightly against him. We lay like that for a while, two lovers embracing each other, joined for just a little while longer as one. My tears gradually subsided and I realized it was really over, that this was the last time he would fuck me and I had to let him go. Reluctantly I got up off of him and stood by the bed, gazing at his sexy body while he lay there nude before me. He got up then as well and we dressed in silence, neither of us knowing quite what to say at a time like this.

Steve packed everything as we left the room I looked back at the bed, tempted to run back there and beg him to fuck me again, plead for him to give me his cock just one more time! I sighed and turned away, my heart heavy but yet feeling a sense of fulfillment as I felt his cum started to drain from me. We got back in his car and he drove me home without saying a word.

When we got to my home he walked me to the door. He held my hands and gazed into my eyes in a scene straight out of some romantic love story. My heart was pounding and I had no idea what I to say so fortunately he broke the silence.

"Goodbye Kelly," he whispered in a voice that seemed on the edge of breaking, "I'll always remember you no matter what. You are so special to me and I'll never forget the way I feel when we are together."

Steve kissed me and then somehow he walked away, leaving me sobbing again, unable to even say goodbye. I watched him with tears streaming down my face as he drove away, wondering if I would ever see him again, ever feel his arms around me, ever feel him filling me the way only a man can do.

Steve's family left early the next morning. Although Steve and I exchanged letters and telephone calls, over time they diminished as we both came to realize their futileness. Each time I heard his voice it was like starting all over again as my pussy would cry out for him and I would masturbate afterwards, wishing he would suddenly appear at my door again.

About a year after he left I realized that I'd not been in contact with him for a while and debated what to do. I started to pick up the phone and then with a feeling of determination I put it down. It was finally over between us although he will always be in my heart and I will never forget the boy to whom I gave the one thing I can never get back, even if I wanted to - my virginity.

In case you're wondering, I never saw the videos or pictures Steve took. I hope he enjoyed them and kept them in memory of me. I wonder if he ever showed his mother them - or Sharon?

I wanted. Having sex for the first time was like a blind man who could suddenly see and I simply couldn't get enough of it. Of course Steve was more than willing to accommodate my needs, thank goodness, so it wasn't like I needed to get laid by every guy in school or anything like that. But now, besides the feelings of loss stemming from losing Steve as my boyfriend, there was also the question of dealing with the sudden loss of someone who had fulfilled my newfound sexual needs.

Sexually speaking, you could say that for me losing Steve was like a smoker going cold turkey. Of course the big difference was that instead of depending on gum or a patch all I could do was masturbate - and boy did I ever! Things even got to the point where my mom commented sarcastically one day about how often I was doing it, something about how I was going to wear it out. My problem was that as much as I loved to play with myself, it just wasn't the same as having Steve's wonderful cock in me.

It wasn't just the fucking either. While I knew some girls who did it just to please their guy, I truly enjoyed sucking Steve's dick. Well to be completely honest, I LOVED sucking his cock. There was just something about taking him in my mouth, licking and sucking on him, feeling him grow and harden as he responded to me. Mmmmmmm, I could never get enough of it! I especially loved it when he would cum in my mouth. I'd swallow every drop and then proudly extend my tongue and show him my empty mouth afterwards. I loved everything about sex - and no amount of masturbation could satisfy THAT need within me.

With Steve out of the picture it was like immediately guys started asking me if I would go out with them. Although I'd dated Steve up to now, I was well aware that he'd told all of his friends about me so the word was out that I wasn't exactly a prude on a date. Now with Steve gone they probably thought I was easy pickings for a quick suck and fuck. Admittedly my pussy would tingle when they asked because I knew full well what they wanted to do to me. Despite my ever growing feelings of need, deep down I just couldn't quite bring myself say yes although it didn't take long for me to start considering taking a few up on their offers. When I looked at their crotches I'd find myself thinking about Steve and how his would expand whenever we were out together. It didn't help that they weren't very subtle about it either, leering at me when they asked if I would go out with them with one guy being so bold as to ask straight out if I wanted to go to his car and suck him off after school! The sad thing was by then I was so horny for a dick I almost said yes!

Reaching further down, my finger slid between my pussy lips. They were already bout Steve and my finger easily penetrated my pussy hole as I pushed it in to the first knuckle or so. The palm of my hand rubbed against my sensitive clit as my pussy finger circled around just inside the entrance to my pussy, stimulating the nerves that sent waves of sensual pleasures throughout me. Pulling my wet finger out, I played with my clit, using the moistness of my pussy to make it slippery. My clit created such a swell of pure pleasure I couldn't help but moan out load.

My dad must have heard me moaning because he grabbed the remote and turned up the TV volume a couple of notches. I took the hint and got up from the couch and started to walk up to my bedroom where I wouldn't bother my dad.

"Hey, I didn't mean that you had to run off," my dad called to me, "I just couldn't hear with all the sound effects!"

I just shrugged and said it was OK and turned back to the stairs. I didn't normally masturbate right in front of him although often I might just play with myself a little, not to really get myself off but just to "scratch an itch" as my mom would've said. At least up in my room I didn't have to worry that I was being too loud for him to hear the TV! Sheesh, the one time I make a little noise and he had to say something about it. It's not like I ever said anything when he jerked off noisily while watching one of his porn movies or something!

2. A Mother's Advice

The next morning my mom and I were eating breakfast as my dad had already left to go to his downtown office. Though I had to get to school soon it was nice to have some time alone with just my mom, especially when she was working this ridiculous evening shift and I didn't see her unless I stayed up past midnight. We were just talking about my school and her work when she put down her spoon and looked at me with a grin. I knew that smile... uh-oh, what was up?

"Say, I hear you were pretty horny last night," she said in a teasing voice, "Still missing Steve, eh?"

"Darn it anyways, I guess Dad must have said something," I whined in a low voice, not really sure where this conversation was headed. She'd never cared if my dad saw me masturbating before so I didn't understand why it was an issue now. I couldn't believe that he had complained about me being noisy while he was watching TV!

"Oh don't worry about your dad," she said, taking my hand in hers, "I'm getting worried about YOU. Why aren't you seeing other boys if you're feeling that way? I'm sure there are plenty who would be more than happy to take care of your needs."

"I don't know mom," I whined some more. It reminded me of when I was ten years old and she would ask me if I was starting to like boys.

"Well, I really do think you should start dating again," she said in a serious tone, "It's not good for you to keep all that tension bottled up inside."

"I know... but that's ALL they want," I complained, "Steve must've told every boy in school about me and now everyone treats me like a slut."

My mom looked like she wanted to break out laughing but she managed to contain herself. "So what's wrong with that? Be honest, it's not like you and Steve went played cards or bowling every night. Besides, if that's what people think then why not take advantage of it?"

She was right, as always. I was being a bit two-faced about everything even if she didn't come right out and say it that way. On the one hand I wanted sex with Steve every chance I had but on the other hand I still had this naive image of myself that I wasn't quite ready to leave behind.

"So you think I'm a slut too?" I asked my mom, rolling my eyes.

"Well Kelly, that would depend on what you mean by slut," my mom responded gently, "You're certainly not a bad girl, just a cutie that enjoy sex so in some people's books that makes you a dirty slut. In my book, it just means that you're a sexy slut. If I was in your shoes, I'd be proud of it. After all, guys don't call ugly girls who put out sluts, do they??

She paused as if waiting to see my reaction. I guess it made sense when you looked at it that way. After all, my dad already referred to me as his "little slut" sometimes when he teased me and I knew he didn't mean anything bad by it. Yet even so, sometimes when I passed a group of boys I could hear the whispers and when I heard the word "slut" it still made me feel a bit odd.

"So what should I do then Mom?" I asked, "Should I just go for it and start fucking other guys or go slow, maybe just dating them for a while first?"

My mom shook her head at me and grinned, "Oh no, you're not going to pin me down on THAT one! If it was me, I'd start out maybe in the middle; you know - maybe a BJ or something like that but don't let them fuck you right away. After all, you want to be a slut, not a whore."

"What's the difference?"

"What, besides the fact one gets paid and the other does it for free?"

I nodded and my mom continued saying, "Well, when a guy dates a whore he knows what he's going to get and he expects to get it, no questions asked once the negotiations are completed. Now with a slut, on the other hand, he can have hopes but not necessarily expectations as he can never be sure how far she'll go. A whore can ever really tease like a slut because a guy knows with a whore he's getting it eventually whereas with a slut there's always that question of will she or won't she? Whores sell their bodies, sluts use them."

You gotta love my mom! She always seems to have the right answer for me. On the one hand she looked out for me and tried to steer me in the right direction. Yet on the other hand she was willing to back off and allow me to make my own mistakes and experiment - so long as I didn't get hurt. It was times like this when her wisdom and guidance was invaluable to me and I left for school feeling much better about myself.

3. A Father's Advice

I wasn't at school more than ten minutes before I had my first opportunity to apply her recommendations. Doug was a senior which made very mature and older so far as I was concerned, much more than the immature boys in my Freshman class. He must've been at least six feet tall with bleach blonde hair and a tight butt any girl would die for! I was putting my coat away when he first approached me. At first I couldn't believe my eyes. EVERY girl in school dreamed about Doug and for him to even talk to a little freshman like me would keep the rumor mill going among the girls for weeks. That was worth the price of admission in and of itself!

"Hey Kelly, how ya doing?" he asked, in a deep voice that seemed so much more mature than the squeaky noises the boys my age made.

I just stared at him, unable to even speak, still not quite believing that he was talking to ME.

"Hey, if I'm bothering you, just say the word," he said, raising his hands.

"Oh no!" I finally blurted out, "You're fine!"

Yes, he was fine - VERY fine in fact.

"That's cool. Hey, I was wondering if you wanted to go out tomorrow night?" he asked.

"Ummmmm, OK, where to?"

I could have kicked myself. Who cares where he took me so long as he did!

"Well, I was thinking maybe a movie or something - would that be OK?"

Hell, he could have taken me to Wal-Mart for all I cared. Here one of the hunkiest guys in school wanted to take me out - and I was acting as if I was worried where he was taking me!

"Sure, that would be cool," I quickly replied, hoping he didn't think I was being hesitant.

"Great, I'll pick you up around eight tomorrow night then, OK?"

I just nodded but as he walked away I could just imagine my mom's reaction to the eight o'clock part. After school I rushed home but my mom had already left for work so the house was mine, at least until my dad got home and that probably wouldn't be for an hour at least. After thinking about nothing all day but going out with Doug you can imagine how horny I was by now. I made a bee-line for my bedroom and quickly stripped off my jeans and jumped on top of my bed.

Steve was great but I'd never thought I'd ever go out with anyone like Doug. First, he was older - a senior even! Half the girls in school would've killed for a date with him even though he had quite a reputation for having, shall we say, "roaming" hands. Any guy who looked like him probably could get away with that so I guess you couldn't blame him for taking advantage of it! My hands went straight for my pussy as I started to imagine how his hands might start roaming around ME.

My finger started to circle my clit as I imagined unzipping Doug's jeans and reaching in for the first time to find his cock hidden inside. I moaned softly in the stillness of my bedroom as I imagined how hard and thick he would be already from looking at me and wishing he could fuck me. So many questions... How would he feel in my hand? How would his cock taste the first time I took him in my mouth? How much cum would he shoot in my mouth? Would I be able to take it all or would it spill out over my chin? A million more questions seemed to run through my head as I plunged my finger into my pussy, imagining that it was his dick that was inside of me while my other hand rubbed my slit. My hips lifted up off the bed as I imagined raising myself to meet his thrusts as he rammed his hard cock in me over and over until I finally he came and shot his sperm deep inside of me, mating me like some animal in heat.

Fingers can be nice but OMG I wanted a REAL dick in me! For a moment I contemplated getting one of my mom's dildos out but I didn't want a plastic fake - I wanted a real cock! I wanted a wonderful honest to goodness dick, one that would grow in my mouth as I sucked it, feeling his pulse in my mouth as his hard shaft filled it, one that would unload streams of warm cum into my mouth that I could swallow as he watched.

Suddenly my orgasm struck and my hips must have raised a foot off the bed before I fell flat on my bed and groaned so loud the neighbors would've heard had the windows been open.

"Oh fuck me Doug!" I cried out to the empty room as imagined him over me as I laid in bed, his thick cock poised at the entrance to my pussy, begging him to fill it.

God it felt so good to cum! All day it took every bit of willpower I had not to play with myself in the middle of class. I was so damn horny and it felt so good to finally cum and let the tension out of me except it was more like a rubber band snapping than being loosened. I kept stroking myself, playing with my pussy and clit, keeping myself on that sharp edge where my orgasm just seemed to stretch on forever. I never wanted it to stop! My bed must have been getting soaked as I felt myself gushing over my fingers and then my cum dripping down my ass to the sheets.

Eventually my orgasm quieted down although my pussy would still quiver now and then as I laid back with my eyes closed and both hands cupping my drenched pussy. Everything was deathly silent and I could even hear the old grandfather clock ticking downstairs. Not only that, I could hear the floor barely squeaking as if someone was shifting their weight just outside my room in the hallway. My eyes immediately popped open and I lifted my head to see who was in the hallway. Imagine my surprise to see my dear old dad!

"Dad!" I exclaimed, more surprised he was home than anything else, "What are you doing home so early?"

"What do you mean?" he responded, "No earlier than usual."

I glanced over at the clock and sure enough it was. Dag it, I'd been masturbating for well over an hour! How long had that orgasm lasted?

"Guess you lost track of time," he kidded me looking in from the doorway. Given that he was seeing me with nothing on from the waist down with my wet hands on my pussy it had to be pretty obvious what I'd been doing.

"Well, now I see why... hope you enjoyed yourself!" he said, smiling at me and then turning to go into the bathroom to leave me alone once again. Well, not QUITE as alone as I thought I was before. I waited for him to finish and when I heard him opening the door I jumped out of bed and hurried over to greet him properly. As he opened the bathroom door he was met by his loving half-naked daughter who through her arms around him and gave him a big hug.

"Wow, what did I do to deserve the special treatment today?" he chuckled, wrapping his strong arms around me and holding me close to him, his hands quickly moving to cup my bare butt.

"Oh nothing special... I just wanted to say I love you," I mumbled best as I could with my head buried in his chest.

"Okay, okay," he laughed, "Why don't you put something on and then you can tell me about your new boyfriend."

I looked up at him with a puzzled face. "How do you know about Doug?"

My dad reached around and smacked me playfully on my bare bottom. "Fathers know everything, haven't you figured that out by now?"

"Oh daddy!" I pouted, scooting away into the bathroom before he could spank me again.

After I'd showered and thrown on a clean T-shirt, I headed downstairs to make us some supper. The T-shirt pretty well covered me up so at least if he started teasing me again he couldn't get in another cheap shot like upstairs! I just heated up some leftovers Mom had left out for us and we sat down at the table to eat and talk a bit. As it turned out my mom must have told him everything. I wasn't all that surprised as I don't think she hides much of anything from him. Actually I don't either, it just makes it easier when she tells him so I don't have to repeat myself.

"So how old is this boy again?" my dad asked, looking up at me from his paper he had been reading while we talked.

"Seventeen," I replied, "I think he turns eighteen in a month or so."

"Little old for you, don't you think?"

"Dad! I'm fifteen now so it's not like I'm still a little girl in middle school or something," I protested.

My dad laughed and reached out to take my hand. He smiled at me and said gently, "Kelly, I'm not trying to be overly protective, baby. I just remember what I was like when I was his age and I know what I wanted when I dated a girl like you. That may been a while ago but I doubt teenage boys have changed all that much since."

"OH daddy, it's not like I haven't done it before."

"Well, you've got a point there," he agreed. Heck, if anyone knew about me doing it he did after watching me with my Steve more than a few times in my room. I used to tell Steve the reason I wanted to leave my door cracked open was so we could hear if my parents came up the stairs. Yeah right - he had no idea what my real motive was. As I recalled one of those times I smiled to myself as I wondered what Steve would've said had he ever known his girlfriend's dad had been spying on us when he was fucking me in my bedroom. Oh my, I imagine he would've died!

"Well just be careful tonight, OK baby" I'm just guessing here but from what I saw earlier I have this funny feeling you've been a bit hornier than usual lately. This date could be like going grocery shopping when you're hungry if you know what I mean."

"Daddy! You weren't supposed to see that!" I teased him, pretending to be embarrassed that he'd caught me masturbating earlier although that was about the last thing I felt. Then I thought about something he'd said earlier that had roused my curiosity.

"So you really would've wanted a girl like me when you were Doug's age, eh Daddy?"

As soon as I said it I felt my face flush. God, did I really ask him that? What was I thinking? My dad also seemed a bit surprised as he hesitated before he answered. Undoubtedly that had NOT been a question he was expecting!

"Well... IF I was his age and IF I was going to school with you, of course I would," he finally said. "Kelly, you're a beautiful girl and sexy as hell so what boy in his right mind wouldn't want you? Doesn't hurt either that you're s bit of a slut."

I grinned and felt my cheeks flushed a little more. It made me feel good about myself that he felt that way about me. I mean, what girl wouldn't be pleased to be told such a thing, especially by her own father? It made me tingle a little to have my own dad call me a slut. Rather than be offended it made me feel more secure about myself in that if my own father thought I was that sexy then just imagine what the horny boys at school must think of me!

"Remember, though," he continued, "Just because they all WANT you doesn't mean you have to let them HAVE you. Sometimes a little tease goes a lot further than anything else. Trust me on this one. Guys are turned on more by a slutty tease who MIGHT put out than a girl who jumps in bed with anyone. Just be careful you don't earn a reputation for being a cock teaser - guys hate them!"

Knowing a bit about my dad's escapades back in high school and college I took it all as good advice and wondered how I could use it with Doug later. As horny as I was I certainly wouldn't mind if Doug fucked me but at the same time he wasn't exactly known for being discreet. Undoubtedly he would be telling everyone the next day if I put out on the first date. Oh well, not like Steve had done any differently. True, I'd only blown him the first time he took me out but that was enough.

After cleaning up the supper dishes I went back upstairs to get ready for Doug. I was still mulling over my dad's advice and in the end I decided to change the outfit I was planning to wear. My original plans included a short denim skirt and a snug white sweater with a sexy black thong barely underneath. I loved this particular skirt as it showed off my legs well and when I crossed them it didn't leave much to the imagination. The sweater was better for the time of year than a cami or tank top which I would have preferred in the summer. Still it was thin and about a size too small so it stretched over my boobs, making the most of what little I had upstairs.

Hmmmmmm, what to do? In the end I hung the skirt back in my closet and pulled a pair of worn jeans from my dresser. They were tight enough to show off my ass nicely and thin enough to let him wonder whether I was wearing anything between me and my jeans – which I wasn't planning to do. A bit ragged, it had a number of holes torn into it in just the right spots to further raise questions as to what I might or might NOT be wearing under them.

Despite the change to jeans I kept the sweater. Without a bra the material stimulated my nipples with almost every move I made which helped them poke out through the thin material. Another thing I liked about it was that it wasn't very bulky so that when Steve would pull it up and over my boobs it wasn't like I had a pillow stuffed under my chin.

As for my hair... well that was another story. It seemed it never went the way I wanted it to and I couldn't help but be jealous of all those models with full wavy hair. Granted I'm sure they have plenty of people helping to give it that "natural" look but I was still envious. As I thought about it I realized that while on the one hand I was thrilled to be dating an older boy, at the same time I wasn't so naive as to not realize he was probably just as thrilled to get a shot at a younger girl as well so I decided to go with a more youthful look than mature. Nothing like a ponytail to pull that one off!

A pair of black heels with ankle straps, just enough makeup to cover a few blemishes, a sexy thin gold ankle chain courtesy of my father, and I was ready to go! While waiting in the kitchen for Doug to come pick me up, my dad walked through and his eyes carefully inspected me, slowly moving up and down from head to toe.

"Damn Kelly, you're looking especially hot tonight," he nodded approvingly, "I like the way you've got that 'little girl' thing going with the hair. Let's see... the tight sweater's a certainly an invitation, no bra helps as well. The jeans are definitely a barrier if that's what you were going for which is fine by me as your father. All in all, I like it."

I smiled at his approval and just then I heard Doug's car pull in our driveway. I ran to the door and my dad called after me.

"Hey, don't guys come to the door anymore?"

"Oh daddy, it's the 21st century!" I replied, waving goodbye as I went out the door.

4. A Date With Doug

Not only do guys not come to the door anymore, apparently they don't open car doors either as Doug remained planted in the driver's seat while I let myself in from the passenger side.

Actually, I shouldn't say "car" door as Doug was driving a large Ford pickup truck which I had to step up high to get into. I could just imagine the view my neighbors would have gotten had I worn my short skirt! The truck had a bench seat and as we drove off I felt like I was above all the traffic being so high up in the air. Come to think of it, this was my first date in a truck!

We just made small talk as I wondered where Doug was planning to take me. He didn't seem to inclined to tell me right away as we wound our way through the south side of town.

When I had gotten in I had taken a seat on the passenger side as I would have with anyone. Since this was our first date, I figured he could make some of the moves first so if he wanted me to scoot over and sit next to him then he should ask. Since he didn't, I stayed where I was with about two feet between us. It wasn't a big deal one way or the other as it only took about ten minutes to get to the theater. He drive around the back of the shopping area to where the movie theater entrance was and parked.

"I hope you don't mind seeing a movie," he said, turning towards me after he had turned off the engine.

I just nodded and smiled, not sure what to say at this moment. Personally, we could have skipped the movie and stayed in his truck and made out all night.

God he was gorgeous! The weather was mild so he had on a pair of jeans with a faded blue flannel shirt and no jacket. For a moment I thought of my old boyfriend

Steve and then quickly put those thoughts away. Doug was so much older and he was built!

"Well, it starts in a few minutes so I guess we'd better get going," he said, breaking the silence between us. We both got out and walked to the entrance but I noticed he didn't try to take my hand or put his arm around me. Hmm, maybe he wasn't quite as forward as some of the girls claimed he was.

Doug paid for the tickets and then we went to the snack bar for some popcorn and a drink which we took with us to the theater. He led me to some seats which were in the center but towards the top of the stadium seating area. There weren't a lot of people in the theater yet and nobody behind us. Although we weren't in a crowded area, it wasn't exactly in the most private seats in the house either.

I tried to remember if this was one of the theater rooms Steve and I had fooled around in. Odds were it was as we had been her more times than I could remember. Steve liked to bring me to this particular theater as it featured arm rests that lifted up and out of the way which made life much easier when it came to being naughty during the movie. I couldn't begin to count the number of hand jobs and blow jobs I had given Steve here not to mention he even fucked me a couple of times when the theater was pretty empty.

Again I pushed out the memories of Steve and concentrated on Doug. For the time being, I may as well be dating my dad for all the attention he was giving me. We both sat in our respective seats, hands in our laps while we shared the popcorn. It was almost quaint and had I been seeing a movie with my parents, I would have been perfectly satisfied. Only problem was, I wasn't out with my parents, I was dating Doug! What's the point of bringing your date to a theater like this one and then just sit there? I knew he wasn't shy, at least nobody who ever dated him claimed he was. If anything, he was known more for going for a feel from the moment you got in the car with him!

Finally, about fifteen minutes or so into the movie, Doug shifted around in his seat and in the process his arm reached over and behind me. I felt his hand on my shoulder, just resting on it without applying any pressure. I waited in silence as thoughts of what he might do next raced through my head. God, my pussy was feeling so hot I wanted to reach between my legs and rub it but I didn't think we were quite to THAT stage yet!

Then Doug finally did what I had been waiting all night for, he reached down and started to trace little circles on the upper portion of my sweater. He didn't quite make it down to my boobs but he was getting closer. Not wanting him to get the wrong message and think I wasn't OK with it, I twisted a little in my seat so I was actually turned away from him slightly and then leaned back against him. I made sort of a show out of being uncomfortable against the arm rest and he instantly took the hint and raised it up and out of the way, letting me lean back against him. This allowed him easier access to me and he didn't hesitate to take advantage of it immediately. Oh well, I guess he just needed to get started because it was like he went from doing nothing to being quite forward, not that I minded of course.

His hand moved closer to my boobs until it was reaching the upper portion of my bosom consistently. As for me, I rested my hand on his leg and held on lightly to his upper thigh. God he felt so firm and strong! Knowing Doug would undoubtedly be telling all his buddies about our date, I decided I had better take a little initiative myself if I didn't want to be known as a girl who "just sat there". I put my free hand over his and then gently moved them both down to my breasts, planting his hand directly over my right boob and pressing down on it to indicate what I wanted from him. At least he could take a hint as my efforts were rewarded by a firm squeeze as his hand cupped my breast and began to massage it through my thin sweater.

For maybe half the movie, Doug just groped and fondled me. My sweater buttoned down the front and it didn't take long for most of them to be undone. Without a bra underneath, he had easy access to my boobs and I loved the way his large hand would cover one and cup it while his fingers would pinch and pull at my nipples. God, if only his mouth was on them - then I would be in heaven!

Meanwhile, as Doug played with my boobs I was running my hand along Doug's leg and playfully toying with his crotch a little. I never made any effort to go any further as it would have required me to be double-jointed in the position I was in at the time. Even so, he was plenty aroused and from what I could feel through his jeans, he was quite a bit bigger than Steve when it came to the cock department and Steve hadn't exactly been a miniature!

Eventually I knew it was up to me to make the next move since it would require me changing my position to do anything more. As I also knew that if I should move it would be a clear signal to Doug of my intentions so I thought it through carefully. Well, maybe not TOO carefully as I wouldn't have been surprised if my crotch didn't look like I'd peed in my jeans as hot and wet as my pussy was feeling.

I leaned forward and twisted in the opposite direction so now I was facing towards him. With the armrest out of the way, I had pretty easy access to him and I was a different story. I didn't suck him, though, and I've never touched him since then. I doubt I'll ever forget it though - not one of those things that's easy to put out of your mind!

Steve was my second cock and not only did I touch and blow him, but his was the first cock to make it into my pussy - also known as losing my virginity in case you didn't figure that one out. Over the course of the next seven to eight months, I wouldn't even try guess how many times I held his incredible cock in my hand! There was ONE time when I did his younger brother Jim, but that was more to tease him than anything else so I don't really count it as one of "my" cocks but technically I have to include him. Thus Doug was now my fourth cock, or my second ignoring my dad's and Jim's.

Finally my curiosity got the better of me. I HAD to know how he tasted, how his cock felt in my mouth compared to Steve. It may not be fair to compare two guys but I couldn't help it. I knew Steve's cock intimately, every spot where he liked it licked, how he liked it sucked, and when he preferred to fuck me instead of having me blow him. With Doug, it was all new territory and I found it to be a bit exciting as well.

I took a quick look around and saw nobody was paying us the slightest bit of attention. Inching back against the armrest behind me for support, I lowered my head to his lap until my outstretched tongue barely touched the tip of his dick. At first I just flicked my tongue on him, barely touching him yet letting him know I was around - as if he didn't already know! He obviously liked it and wanted more as I felt his hand on the top of my head and then pressure as he pushed my head down further down into his lap. The strong male musky odor of his crotch filled my nostrils as my mouth descend on his shaft, taking more of him into my mouth.

"Ohhhhhh," he moaned softly as my lips met the base of his shaft and held him there for a few moments. As I lifted my head off of his dick my lips caressed him while my tongue ran all over his nice hard shaft. I loved the way he felt in my mouth, the taste of his dick. God I missed sucking cock!

As I went to work on him, I tried to recall all the things that Steve use to like me to do to him. He seemed to love it in my mouth more than just licking the outside of it so I tried to keep Doug's dick in my mouth as much as possible. My hand held his large hairy balls and I gently rolled them in my hands, mindful of my mom's advice to never get too rough with them. Doug kept his hand on my hand, gently pressing down all the while, as if emphasizing his desire for me to keep him in my mouth.

My mom had taught me a few tricks back when I was sucking Steve to keep him from cumming too fast but I wasn't interested in trying any of those with Doug, at least not this time. If anything, I was anxious for him to cum as soon as possible. It had been far too long since I felt a stiff dick shooting its gooey sperm into my mouth. How many nights had I masturbated dreaming of this moment, wishing I had a nice hard dick again all to myself?

Doug was getting close from all the signs. He was wiggling under me little boy squirming during a sermon in church. I could hear him breathing heavier and his cock had swelled up and become like a steel pipe it was so hard. God, I could only imagine how it would feel if he was fucking me with it!

"Oh god," he whispered as his hips lifted up, ramming his dick into my mouth as if he was trying to push it down my throat. Sure enough, a few more strokes with my mouth and he started to cum, spurting a monstrous load of sperm into my mouth. I kept my lips sealed around the shaft, trying my best to keep every drop in my mouth and not waste any of it. Damn the boy had a load! He must have shot a half dozen or more good sized shots of cum followed by a number of smaller ones until he collapsed in the chair.

Dropping his spent dick from my mouth, I quickly sat up next to him and opened my mouth to so he could see his cum in my mouth, something I knew turned on Steve something fierce. I could feel it pooling on my tongue and I almost gagged as some it started to drain down my throat. Then I closed my mouth with a big grin and swallowed it down. It took a couple of gulps but I got it all down after which I showed him my open mouth, just like a little girl showing mom her that she had swallowed all her medicine, The difference was, in this case I WANTED to swallow it all down!

For most of the remainder of the movie I just leaned against his shoulder and held his nice cock in my hand. He softened just a little at after he came first but quickly rose back up again as my hand went to work on it. Meanwhile, he was back to groping my boobs, not that I minded one bit! As the movie came to a close we each got our own clothes in order, putting ourselves back together again to be "presentable" before the lights came back on.

As I sat there with the movie about to end, I could still taste his cum in my mouth, even after drinking what was left of my Diet Coke. It was interesting to compare his cum with Steve's, or at least as best I could remember his. Doug seemed to taste a bit different than Steve but it was essentially the same gooey mess when you came down to it. At least I had managed to keep it in my mouth and didn't let him spray it in my hair or face which would have been a challenge to clean up. It wouldn't be the first time I had to go to the girl's room after a movie and seen the stares from the other girls and women who knew exactly what I was cleaning off my face.

The lights finally came on and everybody got up to leave. I looked around to see if anyone had noticed but evidently not as nobody gave me that "look" I got back when Steve and I hadn't been as discreet as perhaps we should have been. Now Doug had his arm around me and I felt more like his date leaving the theater than I had when we entered. I guess there's just something about sucking a guy's cock that brings you closer together!

Back in the parking lot, this time Doug opened the truck door on the driver side for me. I slid in first and he got in after me. I snuggled up close to him as he put his arm around me. Then to my surprise he reached down and kissed me gently! It was so sweet of him to finally kiss me that I had to fight back the tears. Something about it made me feel a little less like some whore he had picked up just for a BJ and more like his date.

"Damn, where in the world did you learn to suck cock like that?" he said softly. Well, so much for being subtle.

I just smiled back at him. He didn't need to know about my limited experience. As I mentioned earlier, it wasn't like I had had THAT many cocks and of the four I'd gotten familiar with, one of them I didn't suck at all and two only once - including Doug's. Even if he knew about Steve, which he probably did, I wasn't about to tell him about the nights I spent in bed with my mom while she demonstrated her favorite BJ techniques for me using her dildo collection. While practice makes perfect and nothing beats some private tutoring.

Doug hadn't started the truck yet so I reached down and put my hand back on his crotch. He was still pretty hard and I smiled as I felt the bulge under my hand.

"You want me to do it again?" I whispered to him in as sexy a voice as I could muster.

"So you really DO like sucking cock, don't you?" Doug asked, stroking my head with his fingertips.

"Why do you say that?" I replied seductively, "What did you think I liked?"

Doug laughed as he undid his belt quickly and slid his pants and underwear down to his ankles. He wasn't waiting any time this time around, that's for sure.

"Why do I say that?" he repeated back to me, "The word around school is you can suck dick all night but I figured it was just somebody trying to brag."

He paused for a second and then a nasty smile appeared as he said, "If you ask me, I think you're a sexy little cum slut. C'mon... admit it. you are, aren't you?"

I just grinned at him as I took his shaft in my hand and stretched out on the bench seat on my stomach as I fondled his stiff cock. I didn't bother answering him but gave him my reply by taking his dick back in my mouth and took his entire shaft in with one smooth motion.

"Oh yeah, you are," Doug chuckled as I sucked his cock, "You're just a horny little cum slut."

Actually, nobody had ever called me THAT before but it didn't seem too bad. After all, I DID love cum and being called a slut by a boy was sort of a compliment given the way I liked to look at it. Now if a girl had called me that, I probably would have slapped her but coming from Doug, it was term I didn't mind at all.

Being on my stomach, Doug wasn't able to get much access to me so he took his hand and started to play with my ass through my jeans. He tried to work his fingers inside the jeans but they were much too tight to allow for any of that. It was a good thing I had worn them as if I was wearing the skirt I'd planned originally I could only imagine where his hands would be now!

Actually I COULD imagine and my pussy was tingling at the thought of something inside of it - something like his finger or even better, his hard dick that was filling my mouth about now. As I sucked his cock my mind raced as I debated what I should do. I was sure that if I was to roll over and pull down my jeans, Doug would be on top of me in a heartbeat, fucking me as quickly as possible. As much as I actually DID want that, the words of my father kept ringing in my ears.

Sucking Doug's cock was one thing. Really, I never have understood why people make such a big deal over me sucking a boy's dick. It's not like we're having sex or anything. When you come right down to it, what's the difference between sucking his finger and sucking his dick (other than I hope he enjoys his dick sucked a LOT more)? Besides, a lot of girls I know suck cock but don't fuck so it isn't like it makes you a whore or anything. In my opinion, if a girl expects a guy to pay for a movie, meal and whatever, then it's only fair that she give him a BJ in return if he wants one.

Now when it comes to letting a guy fuck me... well, THAT is something different entirely. True, it's "just sex" but I don't want to get to where the only reason guys take me out is to fuck me. I didn't feel any moral reason for not letting Doug do me, but I did feel it would not be in my best interest to do so under the circumstances. Maybe next time. If I waited until our second date then at least then nobody could say I was the kind of girl who put out on the first date!

A couple of times I could have sworn I heard people walking by the truck but as high up as we were they would have needed a ladder to see what I was doing to Doug. In any case, he didn't seem concerned so I just ignored them and kept his dick in my mouth. It was a lot easier sucking him the truck than it had been in the theater and I found myself enjoying it even more than our first time. He was right about one thing, I COULD have laid here like this and sucked him all night!

Whether it was the public location or my skills, or a combination of the two, Doug wasn't able to hold out for very long before he was cumming in my mouth once again and once again I savored the fruits of my labor as he shot another load of sperm into my mouth. This time instead of swallowing it I spit it back out over his cock so it covered it like chocolate poured over an ice cream Sunday. Once it dripped down the shaft, I put it in my mouth and used my lips to gather it back off again. Mmmmmmm, he was delicious!

I sat up, swallowed his cum and then looked at him with a chipper smile on my face. Doug may have just cum but he was still horny as hell if that look on his face told me anything at all. He twisted in the seat towards me, his jeans still down to his ankles, and smiled at me as his hand worked its way between my legs that I was holding together.

"Doug," I said in a soft but firm voice, "I've blown you twice tonight already, isn't that enough for a first date?"

I could see from the look in his eyes that the answer was a definite "NO" and he pushed his hand in against my crotch and started to press his fingers against me. This time I took his hand in mine and pulled it away but he was much stronger than me and insisted on keeping his hand between my legs.

"C'mon Kelly, you know you want my dick," he panted in my ear.

Well, he WAS right about that. Funny thing was, as badly as I craved his cock, and that's putting it mildly, there was something about holding it back from him that turned me on too. I could have easily just opened my legs and I'm sure he would have done everything for me - stripping me down, pushing me on my back, and climbing on top of me and fucking me. Yet that would have been a copout for me, taking the easy road. As bad as I wanted his dick, I could see from the almost animal lust in his eyes that he wanted me even more. At that moment I knew how a mouse felt when it was cornered by a hungry cat. It's no longer a mouse, it was lunch and right now I wasn't Kelly, I was a walking pussy to be fucked.

"NO!" I said firmly, surprising even myself with the forcefulness of my voice. Evidently, Doug had watched too many porn movies where "No?" meant "Try harder and I'll give in eventually" so he started to push me onto my back and I knew I had to do something quickly. I still had his dick in my hand so I squeezed it hard, not enough (hopefully) to hurt him but enough to get his attention.

"OWWWW!" he cried out, sitting back and pulling my hand from his dick, "What the hell was THAT all about anyway??

"I said no, didn't you hear me?" I said, folding my arms in front of me.

"Well from I've heard you never say no, or at least you don't mean it when you do," he accused me.

"Well then you heard wrong," I said defiantly. It felt good somehow, empowering I guess, to be able to stand up to him. Even though I would've loved for him to fuck me, it was almost as much a turn-on controlling him this way.

"I knew it, you're just another fucking little cock tease," he threw at me, starting to reach down for his jeans.

I reached for his dick, which was surprisingly hard for the abuse I had just given it. He started to push me away but I held onto him anyway.

"Maybe next time you can fuck me," I teased him although it was closer to the truth than I bet he suspected. "For now, let me make it up to you."

"What do you mean?"

"Well, how about I suck your dick again while you drive me home?"

Doug laughed hard now, forgetting about his earlier anger at me.

"Shit, you really DO love sucking dick, don't you?"

"Well, didn't I say I did?" I replied innocently, no differently than if he had accused me of liking chocolate ice cream.

"Then what are you waiting for?" he teased as he started the truck up.

To be perfectly honest I hadn't really expected him to do it when I burst out with my offer. I hadn't really thought it through but I figured he would just let me do him again in the parking lot. After that, I figured even a seventeen year old boy would need a little time to recuperate after cumming twice in the past thirty minutes.

It was only two minutes back to my house but I didn't let his dick slip from my mouth once the entire trip. There were a few bumps and turns where I had to be careful not to bite him but otherwise it was actually a rather uneventful trip. He hadn't cum yet when he pulled into my driveway and when he stopped I started to pull my head up so I could get out. Doug wasn't having any of THAT though and he put his hands on my head and forced it back down onto his dick again.

"Finish me off," he ordered, "You're not getting away with sucking me this far and then getting out and leave me this way!"

Actually, I was the one who would be getting out with the feeling of emptiness as I had wanted badly to be fucked tonight but all I got was a lot of cock sucking to show for my efforts. For a moment I was tempted to say the hell with it and let him fuck me right in the driveway but then I thought better of it and just finished him off. His third load was significantly less than the previous two but I enjoyed it all the same, as I was sure he did. I sat up and swallowed it down once again as he pulled his jeans up.

"G'nite Doug," I whispered to him softly, the taste of his cum fresh in my mouth. I waited, expecting a kiss at least to close out the night but he kept his distance until I think he finally realized what I was waiting for.

"Sorry babe, but I can't kiss you with your mouth tasting like my cum."

What a jerk! Here he expected me to take three full loads of his cum AND swallow it down and now he wouldn't kiss me just because there a little residual cum left in my mouth? I just frowned and with a bit of a huff started to get out of the truck.

"Good night Kelly," he called after me, "Next time, though, you know what I expect!"

It was at that very moment I knew there wasn't going to be a next time. There was something about the way he said it that brought back to my mind the way my mom had explained the difference between a slut and a whore. Doug wasn't just HOPING to fuck me next time, he EXPECTED it. So basically he'd told me he thought I was a whore and so naturally I felt offended. Even if he dad said something more like he HOPED to nail me them that would have been OK but I definitely didn't like the way he seemed to assume he was in control of me. Even as horny as I felt I was glad I hadn't let him fuck me. What a dork!

Somehow I didn't say anything else and just waved goodbye before going to my house and walking in through the lower garage entrance. It led to the basement where our family room was located and sure enough my mom and dad were in their usual positions, laid back in the their LazyBoys watching the TV.

"Hey honey, how'd it go?" my mom called out being the first to see me.

I sat down on the couch next to her chair and told her all about my date. My dad was listening in as well although he didn't say a word the entire time until I was finished.

"Well just so you know... we're proud of you," my dad said, smiling at me. "I have to say, I'm also pretty proud you took my advice!"

I slowly got up, leaned over and kissed him briefly on the mouth. It wasn't until I was back in my couch that I realized my mouth must still taste like Doug's cum but if my dad noticed anything, he didn't say a word. Hopefully he hadn't noticed.

"Well, I'm going to bed," I announced stretching my arms out.

"Yeah right," my dad chuckled, "Just like you went to bed this afternoon, right?"

"Mom!" I exclaimed, turning to her for some help with my outrageous father.

"Hey girl, don't look to me for help. After all, YOU'RE the one that can't keep her hands off her pussy," my mom replied, surprisingly coming to my dad's defense for once.

I just rolled my eyes melodramatically and huffed in frustration. There wasn't much I could do when they both ganged up on me like this so I headed upstairs to my bedroom. My dad WAS right though, I wouldn't be falling asleep any time soon. Mmmmmmm, my pussy and I had another date planned for tonight – with each other!

Personally I don't think guys have a clue as to how totally embarrassing it is to be forced to undress in the locker room or even at a sleepover and have to hide the fact that you've got the smallest boobs in the room. Yeah, I know some girls try the tissue thing but everyone knows they're doing it and that just makes it all the more humiliating. As for me, I resorted to deception and misdirection. The way that works is first you have to avoid tight tops so you don't draw attention to the little bumps on your chest where real breasts should be. That's the deception part - staying away from anything that drew attention to my boobs, or should I say lack of them.

For misdirection I relied on the only part of my anatomy I was proud of - my butt. My dad started telling me before I hit double digits that I had the cutest bottom of all my friends. Needless to say I loved to show it off to him, fishing for all the compliments I could get. Oh sure, he's my dad and dads are SUPPOSE to say those sort of things about their daughters but what girl doesn't crave a compliments regardless of who they come from? So my wardrobe entering high school consisted primarily of short shorts, bikini bottoms, tights, painted on jeans, basically anything that drew attention to my behind and away from anything higher up.

For example I found that walking around the city pool in a loose T-shirt was fine so long as it was short and let me show off my ass clad in nothing more than a skimpy bikini bottom. I mean most girls never actually goes IN the pool anyway so it worked most of the time at least. The only time my scheme failed was when some jerk immature boy splashed water on me and got the T-shirt soaking wet. Let's just say that wet T-shirt contest are for girls WITH boobs, not for those of us still wishing for them and leave it at that.

Not only were my boobs failing to keep up with my hormones, it didn't help that when I looked in the mirror it seemed to me like I was staring at a little 6th grader. Much to my never ending chagrin, it's like anyone who doesn't know me always thinks I'm at least two or three grades younger than I actually am. I've learned that this means either the desirable boys think you're still just a kid and keep clear or they're future pedophiles who are already getting off by hitting on younger girls in hopes of being their "first". It's like they just want another notch in their belts so that wasn't for me.

No... I badly wanted a boy to ask me out but not just so he could run to his friends and brag about his latest conquest and never date me again. True, Steve didn't waste any time bragging to his friends about him being my first but at least he stayed true to me afterwards. If anything I enjoyed my new notoriety, especially the way the “popular” girls were jealous that one of the hottest guys in school was doing me and not them!

Another of my best friends was Sharon who was about the same age as me. She had two brothers - one older and the other younger. Jim, her younger brother, was just a snotty brat. On the other hand her older brother Steve was two years older than us and the dream date of every girl in school. I remember going to Sharon’s house and practically stuttering when Steve would enter the room. Unfortunately he hardly even glanced at me and when he did, I could tell from the way he quickly looked away that he wasn't interested in someone as young as me, or at least not a girl with such small boobs. No, his rep was going for the “popular” big boob girls, cheerleaders and the whores - all group of which I most definitely was NOT a member.

Then a miracle happened. Sharon invited me and a bunch of her friends to a weekend campout at a sportsman club where parents had a membership. It was located alongside a small lake, nothing fancy. Her jerk of a father had dumped her mom a couple years back in favor of some twenty year-old bimbo blonde secretary at work so the only guys with us were Jim and Steve and neither of them was along by choice - a point which they reiterated many times over. For Jim it was just lack of maturity but for Steve it was a result of being TOO mature - at least from his perspective. It was like being seen hanging around with a bunch of soon-to0-be freshman girls was going to somehow damage his reputation.

Of course none of us were interested in Jim who was a little pervert. He kept trying to spy on us all weekend so we the thing he hated the most - we ignored him. No... ALL of us were competing for Steve’s attention! During the entire weekend we pretty much wore nothing but bikinis of which most were quite revealing. Alas, not even Beth, whose boobs were the largest of any of us and practically spilled out of her top several times, could get Steve’s attention, at least not for long. You can imagine how I felt wearing a T-shirt half the time so my tiny boobs wouldn't look even smaller standing next to girls like Beth who may as well gone topless for all their bikini tops covered.

With Steve barely even acknowledging our existence the entire weekend you can imagine my surprise when a week or so later he called me out of the blue to ask me out for a date. I mean like I was stunned!

Of course I said yes. Finally, this was my chance to break from the herd!

apparently was giving the best BJs in school you could have pushed me over with a feather!

Once I was able to close my mouth again after that jaw-dropping revelation, I asked her where she'd heard THAT. Apparently Steve had bragged to his friends about what he got me to do to him the previous night and that was all it took to spread the news like fleas on a dog. Fortunately for my reputation he ALSO told them that I'd done a great job for my first time so at least I didn't have to face the embarrassment and ridicule of being cast as a loser like I've seen happen to some girls who really didn't enjoy it as much as I had. I have to say that rather than being upset at Steve's total lack of discretion, I was quite proud that he thought I'd done so well that he'd bragged about me to his friends, especially considering how many other girls he had to compare me against.

As you might imagine, almost immediately my life changed - permanently. It wasn't even lunch period before guys who wouldn't give me the time of day before were now practically begging me for a date. Of course I knew why the change in hearts was taking place but hey, I wasn't complaining. I was suddenly popular!

Unfortunately for all the late comers (no pun intended) I was so infatuated with Steve and grateful for the wonderful opportunity he'd given me that I turned down every offer. I wanted Steve to keep asking me out and I wasn't about to endanger that possibility by abusing my newfound popularity.

While not as drastic as when I first blew him, things REALLY picked up not long after when Steve fucked me for the first time and my new "non-virginal" status was broadcast throughout the school rumor mill. Suddenly it was like I was finally one of the "popular" girls. It made me wonder if I'd been missing something all these years. Were they popular because they were so good looking and rich or was it they just put out? Judging by my new status I started to suspect it was more the latter than anything else. Apparently I'd been too naïve to figure it out earlier on my own.

It didn't many refusals for the boys to figure out that I was Steve's and his alone. Then things got REALLY interesting. At first I think everyone thought I was easy and ready to put out for anyone just because I did it for one guy. When they learned that it was more a case of me being in love with Steve and he was the only one I would allow to do me, it was like the pack turned on me. Now I was a cockteaser, even a whore if you believed some of the nastier notes that magically appeared in my locker. The cockteaser label stung but being called a whore REALLY hurt. The ironic thing was here I was only having sex with one guy yet some of the same girls now calling me a whore were on their backs every night with someone new.

Personally I thought it was more than just a little unfair. It wasn’t like I was putting out for everyone and then suddenly stopped. Just because I wouldn't let anyone else fuck me shouldn’t be grounds for anyone to be mad at me. As I said, the most frustrating part was that so far as the rest of the male population at school was concerned nothing had really changed. The only thing different now was I was having sex most every day with Steve! It wasn’t my fault he told everyone about it.

Eventually everything calmed down and my life has pretty much returned to normal – normal that is except for now I was getting laid just about every day after school by Steve. I was totally in love with Steve and while he never actually said it to my face, I knew he loved me as well. I mean like why else would a guy like him go exclusive with me when so many other opportunities were there for him to choose from if he wanted them?

The more I dated Steve and continued to have sex with him, the more I knew he was “the one”. I’d it all planned out for years with just one missing element – the guy... our dating, the eventual engagement and finally our wedding. Of course it wouldn't all happen right away – I was just fourteen after all! Still, in my heart I knew that someday I was going to marry Steve and have his children.

3. Changing Strategy After Steve Leaves

Yep, life really is unfair.

Just when I thought my life was perfect a bombshell dropped. Talk about being blindsided! One night after Steve and I had finished having sex we were laying in my bed when Steve casually mentioned to me that his mother’s job was being transferred to southern California and that they would all be leaving in a just a couple of weeks. At first I thought he was joking as he was so nonchalant about it. I mean like how could he love me so much as he had just done and then act like it was no big deal to move 3,000 miles away from me? OK, to be fair he’d never actually SAID he loved me but after the way he’d just fucked me I knew he did.

Well, he was serious. As I lay naked next to him I pulled myself in tightly to him so I could feel his strong nude body against mine as if somehow I could bond myself to him permanently if I only pressed hard enough. I truly felt like my entire life was collapsing. All more dreams, all my hopes just suddenly imploded. There would be no engagement, no wedding, no children... nothing!

Once the initial shock passed we spoke about staying in touch after he left but I couldn't help but wonder how it would work with us being thousands of miles apart. After he left my dad came in to check on me as he always does when I bring Steve home. He must have been surprised that I was so distressed that it didn't matter to me that I was still naked and draining Steve's cum. Any such thoughts never crossed my mind as I just hugged him and cried into his chest as my loving father caressed me all over trying to soothe my despair.

For the two weeks we had left I was determined to ensure that Steve would never forget me. It was a pretty simple strategy in that mostly I just tried have sex with him as often as possible. Wow, we must have fucked at least twice a day, even more on weekends. Through it all I took what little consolation I could knowing that after two weeks of the most intense sex that there was no way he wouldn't remember who he was leaving behind.

I'll never forget the last time Steve fucked me the night before they left. As usual when we wanted to be comfortable we did it in my bedroom. Of course Steve's mom knew we were doing it but it's not like she rolled out the red carpet. Then there was always his brother and sister to deal with his brother just acting like a perv and Sharon all jealous because I was getting fucked by her brother and she wasn't. At least my parents had the discretion and good taste to leave us alone when I would lead Steve up the stairs by the hand and wink at them as they sat in the living room and smiled at me.

If there was any doubt in my mind as to how much Steve loved me it was dispelled that night. OMG, he came THREE times - twice in my pussy and then the last time in my mouth. I would've loved to have had all three inside of me but I figured if he was going to be good for three times then he deserved a little self-satisfaction. The best part was that as soon as he finished shooting he pushed it back in me again and we just laid there for the longest times, joined together for what might be the last time. His was the only dick that had ever been in me or even in my mouth! I couldn't even imagine someone else's taking his place after the dozens (hundreds?) of times he'd put it in me. All these thoughts went through my mind as he held me tight against him with his dick imbedded in my pussy. God, it was like I never wanted him to pull out of me!

With the encouragement of both of my parents I finally started dating again but this time I followed a new strategy. I'd just turned fifteen and it dawned on me that I'd wasted a good portion of my freshman year of high school on a guy who was no longer even calling me, let alone fucking me and marrying me someday. Why limit myself to one guy if the risks were that high?

For almost eight months from the time I gave my virginity to Steve I'd never even touched another dick. For that matter if it hadn't been for seeing my dad naked with me in the hot tub I wouldn't have even SEEN one. My mom kept telling me that these would be the days I looked back on as being the best of my life so why not enjoy them as best as I could?

At first memories of being called a slut and a whore held me back but then I started to think that what was the problem with being a slut? Becoming a whore was unthinkable but being a slut sounded like fun. Besides, it wasn't like I didn't already have a bit of a rep, even if it was for being with just one guy, so why not earn it and reap the benefits?

4. How to be Popular in High School

It's only been a few months since I decided to become the class slut but I'm already reaping the benefits. Unlike most of my friends I didn't have a “real” job but then again I didn't really need one. My parents made me babysit a little just to have some pocket money but otherwise guys now but me most everything I needed. If nothing else there's always my dad who never could resist a little flirting without handing over some cash. The cool thing is I never pay for a meal or a movie unless I am out with my friends – hence the need for the pocket money. Overall it's like everything is free – at least for me.

I learned VETY quickly that the key to being popular as a slut is to know what lines to set and what boundaries to honor. It's s slippery slope to going from being a slut to a whore and I'm always conscious of that line. There are a few girls in my school who definitely fit the whore category. Even if they weren't taking money they still qualify as they would do about anything a guy asked without any morals or ethics. It's one thing to dress a little naughty and tease the boys in school, hinting at what they might get to see but never did. It's quite another to all but strip and do whatever it takes to get laid without caring what people thought of you or who saw you. Whores aren't popular, they are just used by guys to get what they want. Sluts use their bodies to get what THEY want, not what the guy wants. OK, so my mom gave me that line but it still holds true.

As part of my slut strategy in high school I'm not giving EVERY guy a blowjob just for taking me out although I would say the number who haven't gotten one is quite small. Usually there were some mitigating circumstances rather than me just saying no to sucking dick. Besides, blowjobs are quick and easy and didn't require much to get results, especially when you're talking about horny teenage boys! I usually don't even have to undress.

Sex, on the other hand, is entirely different for me. I may already have a rep for being a slut but nobody can accuse me of being a whore. So far I've already suck quite a few and am already having a hard time keeping track of them. On the other hand I know exactly how many guys have fucked me so far – their names and when and how it happened. Sex I reserved for real boyfriends – guys who actually wanted to go out with me for more than just get my mouth on their dick.

The funny thing I've learned already is that to be popular in high school doesn't mean getting laid the most. My mom, of course, had predicted as much but like most teenagers I had to learn it for myself. While being a serial cocksucker DOES get attention from the boys, being known as a skank or a whore actually turns off many of them. For some reason they don't seem to care how many cocks were in my mouth ahead of theirs but when it comes to my pussy, THEN it matters. Go figure.

So bottom line, if a girl really wants to be popular in high school then EVERY girl has the means available – right between her legs. There's really no excuse for ANY girl not being popular so long as she is willing to do what it takes. Even then it's not like she's being asked to sacrifice anything. I get so fed up with girls whining about not getting a date but then complaining that all boys want is sex. Well duh! Of course they do so why not use that to your advantage?

5. The Dangers of Being Popular

In the interest of full disclosure, being popular by being the class slut isn't always fun and games. In fact, sometimes it can become quite a chore and hard work. The situation is like you're sitting on the tip of a needle where one false move and you're plummeting down from the top.

Take for instance the need to put out on dates. Once you have the rep guys EXPECT it and they demand it. Really though, can anyone blame them? Face it, it's probably 99% of the reason they asked me out in the first place. All the other crap – the meal, maybe a movie, or who knows what else is all done with one thought in his mind – what's the minimum he has to do to get me to suck his dick? The sooner he gets THAT the better so far as he's concerned. I could probably just suck his dick in the driveway when he picks em up and he'd be happy. Thus the key from my perspective is to ensure that I get something out of it as well.

The funny part of all this is that if guys had any sense at all they would realize that I WANT sex just as badly as they want it! It's not like giving a BJ is some sort of chore or penance I have to perform to get a night out. OMG, some of the horrible movies and bad conversations I've had to suffer through when in all fairness if he'd just pulled over I would've sucked his dick right then and there and we could've called it a night.

The last thing I want is to get the reputation a number of girls like me have branded on their foreheads – cockteaser. That was like kryptonite when it came to getting boys to ask you out. Personally I have zero respect for the little bitches and they have everything coming to them that they deserve. I mean it's just not fair to lead a guy on and then snatch the ball away like Lucy with a football.

I like to think that most boys know my boundaries and limits and respect them, even if they don't necessarily like them. Oh sure as guys they always want to push the envelope a little. They kiss me and then they think they can feel up my boobs. If I were to let them under my blouse then they Would want in MY pants... and so forth. Sometimes it's a fun game to play but mostly I just wish they would respect me as person.

Perhaps the biggest potential danger is dealing with your friends. After Steve it was like I went from being just one of the crowd to being the headliner act and not all my friends are as open-minded as others.

It isn't just my friends but their parents that sometimes create a scene. As I mentioned earlier, my wardrobe pretty much consists of short skirts, tight jeans, and revealing tops. Pretty much the only time I wear a bra is when I am wearing something so sheer I have to wear one in order to keep from being arrested. It’s not like I have one set of clothes for school and dating and another for when I go to a friend’s home.

In general it isn't the father that said anything – as you might imagine most of them are quite appreciative if anything. It’s almost always the mother, sometimes a sister, that’s the one to criticize my outfits. I pretty must just ignore any criticism except for those few that call my mom and bitch to her that I am somehow causing a problem at their house or event. My mom is GREAT – she just tells them to deal with their husbands and if they were looking at teenage girls then maybe they should be taking care of them better! Like, my mom’s was the one that buys half my clothes anyway! Some of my more risqué outfits come courtesy of my dad but most of those I can't wear in public, LOL.

6. A Final Word

Speaking of my parents, I wanted to take this opportunity to publically thank both of my parents for all the love and support they have given me over the years. Without their guidance and support I would never have become the person I am today.

First I want to thank my mom. How many girls can say their mother is their best friend and confidante? If my friends are any sort of statistical sample, then the answer is, “not many”. She has always been there for me in the good times and the bad. She provides the guidance of a mother yet at the same time the intimacy of a best friend. It’s like I want to tell her everything and share everything. Indeed, who was the first person to see my masturbate? Who was the first person I told after Steve took my virginity? Who buys me sexy outfits and encourages me to flirt whenever we’re out together? Who gave me tips the day before my first real date on how to please a guy with my mouth? Who else but my mom!

Then there’s my father. Whereas my mom is my “friend”, dad is my “cheerleader”. He’s the one to build my ego when I’m feeling down. He’s the one that tells me I’m cute and sexy when I look in the mirror and hate what I see. Mom buys me sexy outfits but they are still suitable for public consumption. My dad, on the so, that any time after that when I had the opportunity to get another mouthful - I took it, literally.

As I mentioned before, I worked hard to earn a good reputation so far as putting out, but I don't mind if the boys at school know who gives the best blowjob. Since most of the girls I know are doing it to their boyfriends as well, I don't see it as any big deal. Sometimes walking the halls in school some guy will make some lewd remark to me that he has 'something big? for me which I typically just ignored. I learned quickly that the best response was to just look at him and suck on my finger briefly. While it may drive him nuts at the time, it wasn't unusual for me to find out later what he had for me!

Fortunately for a girl like me, one who LOVES sucking dick, so far I haven't found a guy yet that doesn't dream of a girl sucking his cock and I learned early on that they will do damn near anything to get me to do it. Ironically, they don't realize that I would do it anyway but I figure why not take advantage of the situation?

It's hard to keep track of how many cocks I have sucked or just jerked off with my hand since that first one but I do know that I have enjoyed each and every one. What keeps it interesting is that each one is unique with varying sizes, thickness, curvatures, color, and even different smell and taste. Some boys get so hard that they are like a piece of wood while others get large but still remain a bit flexible. While I know some girls are turned off by it, I love the odor of a boy's crotch, the stronger the musky smell the better so far as I am concerned.

Thick pubic hair is a turn-on for me as well. When I reach inside of a boy's pants I love to run my fingers through it and then smell him later on my fingers. With his cock in my mouth, I can feel his hairy crotch against my face and I love rubbing my nose in it. Then there is the best part of all - his cum. Some guys can fill my mouth to the point where it drips down my chin while others barely produce a teaspoonful. Some is thick and creamy while others are more clear and dilute. The taste is what really varies and makes every blowjob something to look forward to. Even the same guy will taste differently from one day to another. I guess it must have something to do with what they eat although I don't know why that would matter. All in all you could say I've become something of a cock connoisseur. Fortunately there always seems to be another boy ready and willing to help me in my quest for the new and different cock.

2. Getting to Know Bill

At sixteen, Bill was a year older than me and while we had not yet dated, he'd been trying to get in my pants since I was twelve. Then this summer, at my dad's company picnic, I flirted a bit with him which seemed to embolden him more. He called me later that week to ask if I was interested in seeing a movie that weekend at the local drive-in. I was intrigued as I had never been to a drive-in before. Where I lived all but this one had been closed and it never showed any recent movies but I doubted either of us cared about the movie anyway.

Since my parents didn't mind if I brought boys home, there was no real reason to go off ?parking? or such if I wanted to be alone with a guy so why endure a cheesy movie? Bill was pretty good looking and I figured it was finally time to get to know him better - in more ways than one. Besides, the idea of doing it in his car surrounded by other cars sounded like fun so I accepted his invitation.

Bill had his own car - a VW bug, which wasn't exactly the best for what I had in mind for the evening but I figured we would work things out anyway. When he picked me up I was pleased to see that he'd borrowed the family minivan for our date. It may not have been the sexiest car on the road but with the seats laid back it had almost as much room as my bed at home!

When I got in the front seat with him I noticed that the seats had already been laid down in back making it pretty obvious what he had planned for our evening! The front seats were split apart with a large console in between so we just talked about school and friends on the way there. I noticed Bill kept looking over at me every chance he could. I was wearing a tight blouse and a pair of jeans that were both a size or too smaller than what was comfortable for me. Just for him, I had decided to wear a bra and panties tonight. Usually I never bothered with them but I had a feeling Bill was going to be undressing me before the evening was over and for whatever reason, guys seemed to get turned on more by seeing me in my underwear first than just being naked under my outer clothes. Instead of perfume I had dusted my boobs and body with baby powder which made me smell and feel like a little girl - another little trick my mom had taught me when it came to teasing the boys!

3. At The Drive-In

We finally arrived at the drive-in and Bill parked the van in a relatively secluded spot away from the lights and families. He opened his window and hung some ancient speaker on the glass. He turned the volume down low as the movie hadn't started yet and all there were was silly advertisements for food and candy at the snack bar. I wasn't hungry, at least not for junk food, so I turned sideways in my seat and waited silently for Bill to make a move. He seemed a bit shy and for a while we just continued on with our gossip. Bill complimented me on how I looked and I thanked him and told him he was pretty nice himself.

There was an awkward silence and I saw him glance at the rear of the van. I could tell he wanted to say something but his courage wasn't quite up to it so I knew it was up to me to help him out unless I just wanted to watch a movie.

"Do you want to get in back Bill?" I asked softly.

"Ummmmm, do you want to?"

"Sure... if you turned the van around we could watch the movie from back there," I suggested.

It was sort of a compromise on my part. On the one hand I let him know it was OK for us to get together in back. On the other hand, I hadn't exactly thrown myself at him like some slut by adding in the comment about watching the movie. I figured Bill had to take some initiative somewhere along the line! He started the van and almost pulled out before he realized that he had forgotten to put the speaker back. Fortunately, he remembered before he broke his window or whatever and then he drove around in a half-circle such that the rear of the van was pointing at the screen. This time he didn't bother with the facade of the speaker and instead he looked at me questioningly.

I smiled at Bill and squeezed between the seats to get to the rear of the van. As I bent over I made sure he got a good view down my blouse. All he could see was my bra but his eyes were still fixated on my chest as I went by him. I imagined he was keeping a close eye on my ass as well as I went by. With my jeans as tight as they were it was like they were painted on.

The floor was exactly flat and a bit uncomfortable actually but then I noticed he had brought some blankets along with. Somehow I got the idea that this wasn't the first time Bill had taken a girl out in the van! Even so, it would have been a lot more comfortable in my own bed and I almost regretted not inviting him home instead of coming to the drive-in but a little adventure was always good now and then.

I looked around as Bill made his way back. Although it was nighttime, it wasn't completely dark with the various lights from the snack bar and even the moon overhead made it relatively easy to see once your eyes got adjusted. The van windows were tinted slightly and looking at the other cars it was hard to make out anyone inside so I figured it would be the same for anyone trying to see what was going on inside our van. Not that I minded, it was just I didn't want to put on a show for everyone either.

Bill seemed nervous as he asked me to help with the blankets. The thicker ones went on the floor while he kept another in reserve off to the side. It was early June and the evenings were a bit cool still so I was glad to see he had one for me to wrap myself up in, even if that wasn't his intention for it.

At first we sat back using the front seats for support. It was like sitting on the floor in our family room in front of the couch - just a little less comfortable. The movie was starting and we both pretended to be interested in it although each of us spent more time glancing over at the other than we did looking at the screen. Once again, I realized I needed to help Bill out a bit so I slid over to sit next to him. His arm had been to his side and when I got up close he lifted it up and tentatively put it up and around my shoulders.

I really wasn't in the mood to play 'shy boy? all night so I grabbed his hand and gently pulled his arm tighter around me like a scarf. It was even easier now to tell that he wasn't all that interested in the movie as he kept looking down at my boobs which were pushing out against my blouse. It wasn't like my boobs were that huge, the blouse was just a size or two smaller than it should have been and the buttons were straining against the pressure. I also caught him a few times looking down further where my jeans were so tight I was sure he could see my pussy mound between my thighs. I smiled to myself as his hand started to rub my shoulder and slowly worked its way down to my upper arm. Finally, a little more initiative on his part!

I didn't say a word and just sat there wondering what he would do next. Sometimes I like to be the aggressive one in which case I would turn and start running my hands over him but tonight I felt I was living out something from a Leave It to Beaver episode so it just seemed natural for him to be in control. If necessary I could always give him some help but as long as things moved along, I was willing to let him move at his own pace. In a way it was sort of cute as he seemed unsure what to do. He HAD to know what I did with the other guys I dated, I knew boys couldn't keep quiet about such things. I guess there was a difference between bragging to your friends about what you would do to a girl and then being in the situation to carry out your boasts.

Bill's hand continued to run up and down my arm and he ever so slowly worked from the outside to the inside of it. It seemed that he was afraid I was going to say no at some point and he didn't want to be embarrassed. Finally, the back of his hand brushed against the outside of my breast as his fingers stoked the skin on my arm. He quickly moved pulled as if it was a mistake but I knew he was just testing to see how I would react.

He must have felt somewhat emboldened when I responded by snuggling up even closer to him as his wandering hand moved up to my neck and hair, running his fingers through my hair. Mmmmmmm, I loved my hair to be played with! If there was anything a boy could do to arouse me without getting overtly sexual, it was to play with my hair. I laid my head on his shoulder as he twirled his fingers in it and pulled on it gently. I hadn't done anything special with it as I knew it would just have to be combed out later so it just hung down past my shoulders all straight without anything in it to get in the way. The backs of his fingers ran along the hairline of my neck, making me tingle and leaving me feeling hornier than ever.

God! How long was he going to take to get down to business? The first movie was about over and so far all he had done was barely touch my arm and hair. Not that I didn't like it but I was just curious what he was ultimately after. I had my own ideas but it was always fun to see what a boy would do on his own.

Finally a few minutes into the second movie he reached over and kissed me quickly before pulling away again. He must have been pleasantly surprised when I responded back by reaching up and kissing him back. This time we held the kiss longer and as our tongues met he turned towards me, "accidentally" brushing his arm against my breasts again as he reached around to hug me.

As we kissed, I turned to him as well and put my arm around his waist. His tongue reached out and played with mine and I sucked it as he explored my mouth with it. We just kissed for a while but eventually he worked up the courage to try anything else. Bill put his hand on my stomach, over my blouse. When I didn't resist he slowly moved his hand upwards, waiting for any sign I wanted him to stop but if I just made sure my kisses got even hotter so he would know that I wanted it.

Although it seemed to take forever, FINALLY he reached my boobs and began to massage them through my blouse. My bra was small and the blouse was pretty thin so my nipples were poking through the fabrics, begging for attention. His fingers touched them and I couldn't help but jump just a bit as it felt so good. He must have thought I was upset about it and he pulled his hand back. I reached down and pulled his back to my breasts, silently encouraging him to continue.

My blouse was unbuttoned down to my cleavage (if you could call it that) and his fingers began to touch my upper chest, running in circles under my neck. On the downward movement he would reach just under my blouse with his finger as if to try and touch my breasts but all he could do was graze the beginning of where my boobs were beginning to form. It felt good but I wanted more.

"Mmmmmmm, that feels soooooo good," I murmured to him, "Wouldn't it be a lot easier if you just unbuttoned my blouse?"

Bill didn't say anything but I saw him unconsciously lick his lips as one by one he fumbled with the buttons until finally they were all undone. He spread open my blouse to get an eyeful of my bra-covered breasts. It wasn't like there was a lot to see as they were still small but then boobs were boobs! Bill's hand quickly resumed its place on my boobs, moving from one to the other as he fondled them through the bra. We kept kissing the entire time as he squeezed and rubbed me.

"Help me with my blouse," I said to him softly.

I leaned forward and he awkwardly held it as I pulled my arms through the sleeves, leaving me with just my bra on top. I knew he would have loved to take the bra off as well but I turned back to him and kissed him again as I hugged him while his hand continued to explore my breasts. Now and then his hand would move down to my side and stomach, running his fingers over my soft tanned skin and then back up to my bra again.

The next time he did it I shifted my weight so that I could lift my upper leg up and pulled my foot in closer so my knee stayed up higher. This made my crotch more available to him and it took a couple more times before he worked up the courage to take advantage of the situation. This time his hand went down the side of my hips, over my jeans, and then on the way back up barely touched my crotch. I didn't resist and the next time he was more firm in his touch and finally, on the third time he left his hand there. I lifted my hips upward slightly so let him know I wanted him to touch me there and he left his hand still just at the top of my crotch.

"It's OK, you can take them off," was all I needed to say at the moment. I smiled to myself as he fumbled with the button holding them together. I wasn't wearing a belt or anything so once he got them undone, he just had to unzip them. I held the tops as he pulled down the zipper and the sound of it seemed unnaturally loud in the silence of the night. Bill tried to pull my jeans off by pushing down at the hips but they were much too tight to allow for that alone to get them off. I giggled a little and turned over onto my back as I helped him to pull them down and off.

I kicked off my sneakers when they got down to my ankles and soon I was left in nothing but my white bra and cotton panties. He was still fully dressed so it may have seemed sort of strange to him for me to be next to him wearing nothing but my underwear but it was fine with me. Personally, I would have preferred to just be naked but I thought it might be fun to tease him a bit first.

I turned back to him and draped my upper leg over his and put my arm around his waist again as we kissed and he held me close to him. His arm under me reached around his hand rubbed my back while his upper arm reached down and he was moving his had up and down my now exposed leg that was over his. He gradually got bolder and started to touch my ass through my panties. I knew he wanted to take them off but I wasn't ready for that yet, or even sure if I was going to let him get that far with me. What I WAS ready for was to investigate the large bulge between his legs that was threatening to burst through his jeans at any moment! I knew it was that way because of me and my pussy felt even warmer knowing he was turned on by me that way.

Bill's fingers were playing with the edge of my panties now, trying to work their way slowly under the elastic as if he thought if he went slowly enough I wouldn't notice. I smiled at him but at the same time I reached back and pulled his hand away from and placed it back squarely on my ass.

"Mmmmmmm, not yet," I murmured softly, letting him know he might have a chance later if he was patient. I took my arm that had wrapped around his waist until then and pulled it back, letting my hand rest directly on the center of the rising mountain in his jeans.

"Hmmmmmm, what have we here?" I asked him, even though I certainly knew the answer.

I didn't wait for a response but instead started to press on his cock and rubbing it through his jeans. He shifted his weight to reposition his growing hard-on. I could feel the shape of his cock through his jeans and I rubbed the shaft with the palm of my hand through there thick material.

"I want you to undress for me," I said softly. His hand on my ass pressed a little harder and he seemed to hesitate so I pushed him a little harder.

"Don't you want to take your clothes off for me?" I asked in my best "Little Girl" voice.

Bill looked around the van to be sure nobody was watching and quickly undid his jeans and pulled them down, leaving his jockey underwear on. Then the shirt was unbuttoned and off leaving him wearing nothing but his underpants. In the dim light I could see he kept himself in pretty good shape but the underwear had to go!

"Uh-uh, all the way silly boy," I teased him, snapping the elastic on his underwear against his stomach.

His cock was outlined clearly in the cotton material and the head of it was threatening to make an appearance on its own if he grew much more. Bill bit his lip, looked round yet again and with both hands, pulled his underwear down and off. I watched hungrily as his cock suddenly appeared, all hard and delicious looking. I reached out for it and grabbed it in my hand and just held it at first.

"Mmmmmmm, now isn't this MUCH better," I said seductively.

Bill was looking down at the sight of his cock with my hand surrounding it and he just nodded quickly. It felt so smooth and warm in my hand, hard as a stiff piece of wood yet I was able to move the skin up and down, letting me stroke him slightly without actually moving my hand on his shaft. I let go of it and ran my fingertips up and down it, letting the tips of my fingers lightly trace a path from the base of his cock to the very tip where his pee hole was and then back down again. My index finger ran circles under the lip of his head and I could hear him breathing heavier as I played with him.

"Like that Billy?" I asked him in a whispered voice, my eyes gazing into his as my hand caressed his nice cock. He just nodded but I wanted him to tell me how he was feeling. I wanted to hear him say how it felt when I touched him this way and especially what he wanted me to do to him. "Tell me what you want Billy... Tell me what you want me to do with your cock."

Bill's cheeks puffed out and he breathed out a long breath. "Oh wow," he gasped, "I can't believe you're touching it."

It was then I was sure of it. Yep, Bill had never had a girl touch his cock before! Damn, how could a guy get to be sixteen and never have his cock sucked in this day and age? Well, that put a whole new light on things and I smiled as I dreamed of what I could do to him.

"I want you to tell me what you want," I repeated once again.

I knew what I wanted to do but it made it so much hotter for me if the guy asked me first. I had no doubt Bill knew exactly what he wanted but he was too shy to ask me. I took his hard cock in my hand and surrounded the shaft lightly with my hand and fingers. My hand gently stroked his cock up and down, from the bottom of his cock where his pubic hair caressed my hand, to the very tip and then back down again. I wasn't going too fast or hard as I didn't want him to cum quite yet. I had other plans for that! First, though, I needed to get him to break the silent treatment and start talking to me.

"You know Billy, I will do anything you ask me to do... anything," I murmured, emphasizing the last word as I licked my lips for him to seem. I could practically taste his cock already and I couldn't wait to take it in my mouth and feel the hardness and warmth between my lips. Bill started to say something but then stopped and just stuttered.

"It's ok Billy, you can ask me to do anything... all you have to do is ask me."

"I want you to suck it," he said quickly, as if he wanted to say it but at the same time say it too fast for me to understand what he said. I looked up at him and smiled.

"You want me to suck your cock?" I said softly. I wasn't trying to question his suggestion per se, I just wanted him to say it again.

Another heavy breath and he sighed, "Yeah, suck it... suck my dick."

I looked up at him and grinned. "Watch me now... watch me suck your dick."

I pulled my hair back and out of the way so he could see my face as I slowly descended to his beautiful hard cock. First I just kissed the tip of it and the teased it with the tip of my tongue. The I ran my tongue around the head and under the lip of his smooth and pretty cock head. When I took the head into my mouth, I could hear his suck in his breath and groan slightly. I smiled as best I could as I thought to myself how he must be feeling to have a girl's mouth on his dick for the first time. How many times had he jerked off dreaming of someone doing exactly what I was doing now? Better yet, how many times would he jerk off in the future thinking of my mouth on his cock?

I let his cock slip from my lips and used just my tongue to play with him for a while. I licked his dick like a fleshy popsicle, up one side and the down the other. Sometime I would just run as mush of my tongue as I could put on his cock as I went along the length of it, then at other times I would tease him with just the tip of my tongue as I licked in little circles up and down his stiff shaft. Before I took him I my mouth again, I turned my head and looked up at him, our eyes meeting as I gazed down at me.

"Mmmmmmm, I love the taste of your cock Billy," I murmured to him, "Does that feel good?"

"Oh yeah," he gasped, "incredible!"

I smiled at him and turned back to his dick again. In the darkness it was hard to see it very well but I could smell the odor of his crotch, that wonderful mixture of sweat and male musk that I loved so much. I held his cock by the base so I knew where it was and dove back down on it, this time taking it as far into my mouth as was comfortable and I started stroking his cock with my mouth. Sucking him the way I was I knew it wouldn't be too long before Bill was ready to cum.

Sure enough, a few minutes later I could feel him pushing his hips up against me as my mouth went down on him and his groans became louder and more frequent. He wasn't even touching me which surprised me a little. I would have thought his hands would have been all over me by now but he seemed to be concentrating so hard on my blowjob he didn't even think about what he could be doing himself. I briefly took his cock from my mouth and looked up at him again.

"Are you ready to cum?" I asked softly. He nodded vigorously and I grinned saying, "I want it all in my mouth, I want you to cum in my mouth Billy."

Bill's eyes widened as I said those words guys seem to love to hear so much. Personally, I preferred it when a guy came in my mouth for no other reason than it didn't make a mess all over me. I learned early in my cocksucking career that cum dried in your hair is a bitch to get out! Not only that, but when it dried on my face and body it just made me itch until I washed it off. Although at first the taste I wasn't completely thrilled by the taste, it wasn't that bad and it didn't take long to get to where I looked forward to trying the various flavors and feel of each guy as it seemed they all were a bit unique when it came to the taste and consistency of their cum.

Of course, my all-time favorite place for a guy to cum was in my pussy, but short of that I much preferred him to cum in my mouth than anywhere else. That worked out just fine for me because I also learned early that it was music to a guy's ears to hear a girl tell him that he could cum in her mouth. It was a distant second from, "Fuck me?, but it was effective all the same.

I went back to work on Bill's dick and it wasn't long before he gasped loudly and then he groaned as the first shot of cum burst from his dick and hit the back of my throat. I hung onto his cock tightly with my lips, forming a seal to keep his cum in my mouth. Shot after shot of warm sperm emerged from his cock and soon my mouth was filled and my cheeks were puffed out with the cum in them like a hamster. His jerking stopped just as I was about to gag and I loosened my grip on his cock and let some of his cum drip from my mouth and down onto his cock.

I sat up and smiled at him, feeling the cum running down my cheek. Opening my mouth, I stuck my tongue out so in the dim light he could see his own cum pooled n my tongue as I extended it out to him. I then pulled it back in and closed my mouth. With a big grin I swallowed hard a couple of times and managed to get it all down before opening my mouth again to prove I had swallowed it like a contestant on Survivor. His eyes were like saucers and I went back down to suck the cum off of his cock that I had let drip down over it earlier. He shivered as my mouth engulfed his hypersensitive cock. Mmmmmmm, he was still hard as a rock and showed no signs of getting soft anytime soon. I sucked him like a baby on a bottle, drawing out the last drops of cum in his cock and licking them off the tip of his head. We just stayed that way for a while, his hard dick in my mouth as I softly ran my tongue around it and sucked on the head gently.

Personally, I could've laid there like this all night. I was actually in a comfortable position, laying on my side with my head resting on his stomach and his dick in front of my mouth for me to lick and suck as I wanted. He was playing with my hair again but running his hand over my back, slipping his fingers under my bra strap now and then. He couldn't quite reach my ass but I could feel his hand down most of my back and just to where he could lift up the elastic on my panties with the tip of his outstretched fingers. It was a warm night so even though he was completely naked and I had just my bra and panties on, neither of us was cold and if anything, he was sweating just a little. Just then I heard noises outside and I lifted my head up to look out.

"Shit!" was all Bill could say and he started to reach for a blanket that had been tossed to the side. Looking out the side window I saw the reason for his panic. Three kids, two boys and a girl, were running around the parking lot and heading our way. The oldest looked to be about eight and their mother was trying desperately to control them but it was like herding cats. From the looks of things, they were heading to the snack bar and our van was between them and their destination meaning they would pass right by us on their present course! The parking lot lights were out as the movie was still running and with the slightly tinted windows in the van, I doubted they would notice even if they weren't so distracted.

"Just sit still, they won't see anything," I said sharply to him.

The kids weren't hardly tall enough to get a good look and the mother was focused on trying to keep her litter moving in the general direction of the snack bar. Bill froze and we laid there silently as my neck grew tired so I put my head back down on his stomach. He must have been REALLY worried, though, as I noticed his cock was shrinking down, even though I was holding it in my hand and stroking it slowly. As I predicted, they passed right by without incident and Bill let out of long breath as if he had been holding it the hold time - and maybe he had!

"See? No problem," I said, looking up at him with a grin, "Now... where were we?"

We both laughed and he noticeably relaxed. I took his dick back in my mouth about halfway and just sucked it softly, letting my tongue play around it as I did. I took my free hand and played with his balls, feeling them through the thick pubic hair that covered them. Needless to say, it didn't take long for it to regain its former stiffness. My pussy was soaking wet by now and crying for attention of its own so I while I could have enjoyed this a lot longer, I figured it was time to move on.

I repositioned myself so I was on my side next to him and draped my leg over his, letting my crotch move up close to his hips until I could press up against him. My arm was over his chest and my boobs pressed against his side as I put my head on his shoulder. God he felt so good up against me! What could be better than to be lying next to a good-looking sixteen year-old sporting an erection that would be the envy of most of the guys in school? Well, there WAS something that could be better and that was if I was naked as well!

Bill turned his head to me and leaned down to kiss me. His arms wrapped around me and pulled me tightly against him as we kissed and kissed. I felt his hands wandering over me and this time I didn't say or do anything to discourage him from touching anywhere he wanted and as time went by he got bolder and bolder. I wanted to tell him to quit worrying and just undress me and get it over with but it seemed more sexy and erotic to let him do it on his own. I could imagine what was going through his head as each time he took a step, he would seem to hesitate as if expecting me to stop him. Of course I didn't so he must have felt a little thrill each time that he was "getting away? with something.

I held his cock in my hand, not really doing anything with it other than holding in with my fingers wrapped around it, as at first he again slipped his fingers under the back of my bra strap and then slowly worked his way around to the front of me. At first he just touched me through my bra, rubbing my boobs and feeling my hard nipple through the thin fabric. Slowly he moved up my chest and his fingers ran along my bare skin and then they began to probe under the top of my bra. Finally he had his hand slipped inside my bra until he could cup my boob and he just held his hand like that for a while, not moving it or anything but just feeling my bare boob in his hand.

"Wouldn't it be easier to just take it off?" I whispered to him between kisses.

He didn't say anything, probably afraid that I might change my mind or something if we started talking. In reality, I couldn't wait to get the damn thing off! My boobs were only an A cup at this age and a bra was totally unnecessary so far as I was concerned. I wasn't like I bounced around as I walked! Bill fumbled with the hooks in back and I was tempted to take it off myself. For crying out loud, there were only two hooks - how hard could it be to undo them?

My mind went off on a tangent for a moment as I thought about how someone should invent a bra for dating with Velcro instead of those damn hooks! My attention was brought back when I felt a sudden release of pressure around my rib cage as my bra came loose. What a relief! I let him slip the straps off my shoulders and it fell from my breasts, exposing them to him for the first time. Bill tossed it behind me and then placed his hand back on my boob again, this time without the interference of my bra. I let him play with them for a while as we kept kissing. I still had a firm grip on his cock as I just couldn't bear the thought of not feeling it in my hand as much as possible.

"You can suck them if you want to," I suggested to him softly.

Bill didn't hesitate and we broke our kiss. He pushed me over on my back, causing me to release his cock as I was flat on my back with my knees bent and feet planted on the floor. I still had my panties on but I had a feeling that was only a temporary situation. Bill got on his side and put his arm over me and then under me, holding me firmly as his head moved towards my chest. I couldn't help but gasp softly as his mouth took my boob and sucked on it softly. God I had been waiting for this!

"Suck on it harder Billy," I whispered to him in a husky tone, "You can even bite it softly."

Bill was at least still listening to me as he followed my instructions. I love to talk during sex and I kept up a continuous stream of instructions and praise as he went back and forth between my boobs. Mmmmmmm, it felt so good when he sucked hard on them! If anything, my pussy was getting even warmer and wetter as it waited impatiently for the same level of attention. Bill pulled his hand out from under me and started playing with my one boob while he sucked on the other. I moaned for him to let him know I loved what he was doing and to encourage him to keep going.

After a while Bill got the courage up to start moving his hand down from my boob to my lower body. It was sort of like when he was playing with me before, taking a small step and then waiting to see if I resisted before moving on again. I giggled as he tickled my stomach and then his hand passed below my belly button. He avoided my crotch at first, instead moving his hand to my legs, running them up to my knee and then back down again to my hips. I spread my legs apart just enough to signal to him that I wanted him to touch me there. Fortunately he took the hint and started running his fingers along the insides of my thighs, a sensitive area for me that always makes me tingle.

FINALLY, Bill reached my warm crotch. At first he had his hand on my inner thigh, allowing just the side of his hand to lightly touching me. Ever so slowly he turned his hand until he cupped my crotch in his palm. I moaned softly as he started to rub my pussy through my panties. I loved it and wanted him to know it so I spread my legs even farther apart to make it easier for him to fit his hand between my legs. My body stiffened and hips arched up slightly as he rubbed my pussy through my panties and continued to suck my boobs. Damn, I wanted him so badly! Finally I just couldn't keep quiet anymore so I spoke up.

"Tell me Billy, do you want to touch my pussy?"

Bill's voice seemed to have escaped and with his face planted on my chest it would have been hard to make out what he said anyway. He finally managed to get out a gasp that sounded like, "Yes!"

"Well... I want you to touch me."

At first he seemed unsure of what to do so I took his hand and moved it up to my bare stomach, just above the elastic of my panties.

"It's OK, you can touch me anywhere you want to," I whispered to him. My pussy tingled as his fingers slowly worked their way down inside my panties until they encountered the fringes of my short pubic hair. It tickled as his fingertips ran through the top fingers of my pubic area. I could feel his fingers exploring me, working their way around but staying too high to get down to where I wanted him. Suddenly a thought occurred to me.

"Have you ever touched a pussy, Bill?" I asked him softly. I didn't want to embarrass him but I had a feeling what the answer was going to be.

"No," he said back in a voice so low I could barely hear him, even in the silence of the van. I placed my hand over his and pushed it down between my legs until his fingers were pressing against my pussy slit.

"Down here," I whispered, excited by the touch of his hand, "you have to reach farther down."

Actually I thought it was sort of cute that he obviously had never touched a girl's pussy before. He didn't even know where my pussy really was! Well, I would let him explore for a while and then it would be time for a few lessons. He fumbled around, pushing his fingers against me until finally, by pure luck more than anything I think, he found my pussy hole.

"That's it Bill, push it inside of me."

His finger pushed roughly inside of me just a little bit. I grimaced just a little bit as he wasn't very good at it but at the same time I felt pretty hot knowing my pussy was the first one he touched.

"Feel how wet it is," I asked him, "That's because I like what you're doing and I want you."

A smile finally came to his face. He had been looking so serious until then and now that he had finally struck gold he seemed to be relaxing just a little bit. Well, now that he had gotten to third base, I didn't want him to think he had a chance to go any further and besides, this boy needed some sex education! I pulled his hand from my pussy and he looked disappointed but didn't say anything.

"Don't worry, I want you to watch me now."

Even though I was still wearing my panties, I loved the way he was looking at me. I quickly slipped them off and so finally we were both nude together. We were both so horny I don't think it would have mattered who walked by at this point although if someone had looked in through the rear window they would have had a great view of my pussy! My legs were wide apart and I was holding my hips up to make it easier to touch myself. Billy was still to the side of me and when I laid back down again he quickly put his hand back on my boobs again and shifted until he was close to me. I could feel the hardness of his cock as it pressed against my leg and for a moment I was ready to push him over and jump on top of it! I hadn't been laid for a few weeks and I was horny as well - and getting more so by the minute it seemed.

I spread my legs further part so he could see my pussy better in the dim light from the movie screen. My crotch was covered with think brown pubic hair as I hadn't started shaving yet. My pubic hair was more fuzzy than long and curly like Bill's. I looked up at him and my heart skipped when I saw the way he was staring between my legs, knowing the sight of my nude body turned him on. I reached down with both hands and used two fingers to spread my pussy lips apart with one hand and then pushed the middle finger of my other hand inside of me. I looked up at him and grinned, knowing it must have been making him horny as hell to see me doing myself.

"You know Billy, when I really want to get myself off I like to watch myself in front of a mirror... Will you be my mirror tonight?"

Can't say that I wasn't really expecting an audible answer and indeed, I didn't get one as Bill just watched me intently, as if he was unable to speak. At first I took it slow, running my finger slowly around my pussy, running little circles around my clit and pussy hole. Every now and then I would quickly push my finger inside of me and then just as quickly pull it out again. With my other hand, I played with my little bobs, cupping them with my hand and working my fingers over them like a trumpet player. My nipples were sticking out like little bullets, hard and stiff as my fingertips stroked them gently.

I took my nipples between my fingers and pulled them outward, stretching my boob out and then letting it slip through my fingers and popping back into place. I loved the way it made my boobs feel when I pulled on my nipples. I kept working my pussy and squeezed my boobs. My eyes were closed to help concentrate on my masturbating but I knew he was watching every move I made. My hips started to move up and down as I thrust my finger in and out of my wet pussy, imagining it was him fucking me.

It wasn't long before I forgot all about Bill and the only thing on my mind were the incredible sensations that were consuming me entire body as my pussy acted like a volcano, sending out waves of hot pleasure that covered me like a lava flow. As I worked myself to my first orgasm I couldn't help but gasp and moan louder and louder, holding my hips high with my finger in my pussy as far as I could push it. I shook as my orgasm ripped through me until finally I dropped down and relaxed, a look on contentment on my face. I kept one hand on my crotch, slowly circling my clit as the aftershocks of my orgasm continued. I felt like I was in an oven, as if I was burning up. God I loved to cum!

"Get on top of me," I whispered to him, my eyes still closed as my pussy cried to be fucked. Bill put his arms and leg over me until he was directly over me. He tried to lift himself off of me but I could feel the weight of him pressing against me still. His cock was pressing on my lower stomach and I could feel it moving slightly as he wiggled on top of me. I reached down and grabbed his dick, rubbing the head against my clit which sent another wave of pure pleasure through me.

"Fuck me Billy... I want you to fuck me," I said, almost pleading with him to do it. God I needed his cock inside of me!

"I... I... I can't," he said, sounding like a little boy more than a strong teenage boy. What the hell? I pulled his cock towards, my pussy, trying to get him to push it into me.

"No Kelly, I can't do it," he lamented, "What if you get pregnant?"

I looked up at him and our eyes met. "Billy, I'm on the pill so you don't have to worry about that."

"You're on the pill?" he gasped, "Oh my god, how many guys have you fucked?"

"It doesn't matter... I want you to do me now."

"Pleeeeeease Kelly," he begged, "I can't do this... it's wrong."

It dawned on me that he was serious, that he really did NOT want to fuck me. I was speechless. I couldn't believe he was turning me down after all I had done for him this evening! Actually, I couldn't believe he was turning me down, period. What kind of teenage boy didn't take advantage of a girl that wanted him to fuck her – and asked him point blank to do so?

"At least rub it against me," I bargained.

If nothing else, maybe he would do it and then "accidentally? fuck me. Hey, I was desperate to get fucked! Bill didn't say no to that, at least, and I felt his cock pressing against my pussy. As he thrust himself forward, it slid easily along my wet pussy lips and I felt the shaft running over my clit. My body shivered, going from being too hot to freezing cold all of a sudden.

Goose bumps broke out all over me as he rubbed his cock up and down my wet pussy. A few times I felt it slip down and press against my pussy hole and for just a moment I thought he was going to give in and push it in me. I had to say one thing for Bill - he had in credible restraint for a boy his age! He held himself up and off of me as his hips did the work. Anyone looking in would have thought that he actually WAS fucking me! God, so close and yet so far! As he went on, his strokes became faster and I realized that whether he was consciously doing it or not, he was masturbating himself against my pussy.

"That's it Billy, rub your hard cock against my wet pussy," I whispered in my most naughty tone of voice, "Make yourself cum for me... cum all over my pussy!"

It wasn't exactly what I had been wanting but when he finally came it was better than nothing. His warm cum spurted out of his cock and the first load went halfway up my stomach with most of the rest collecting on my pussy. God I was going to be a mess! Billy groaned and grimaced as his cock spit out one load after another onto me.

"Mmmmmmm, that's it Billy, cum on me," I said, encouraging him to make a mess out of me in spite of my better judgment.

You would never have known he had just come earlier in the evening from the size of the load he deposited on me. Finally he let out a loud breath and collapsed to the side of me, his throbbing dick pressed up against my leg again. He hugged me and we kissed, celebrating his orgasm. After he had caught his breath, he looked at me with this fearful expression.

"You're not mad at me, are you?"

"Oh my god no, that's OK Billy, I understand."

Actually, I did NOT understand but I wasn't going to burst his bubble and ruin the evening for him. My pussy felt SO empty, like it had been cheated in some way. Billy noticed then that the movie was about to end and he seemed nervous that people would see us when they left so he smiled and kissed me. When we got dressed I found a good use for panties finally - to clean up the mess he had left all over my lower abdomen. Of course, I didn't bother trying to put the messy things back on again nor did I bother with the bra.

I wrapped up the panties with the cum inside as best as possible and stuffed my underwear into my purse. I squeezed myself back into my jeans and just left my blouse hanging outside instead of trying to tuck it back in again. We both crawled back to the front seats again and I lowered the mirror down to see myself. My hair, as expected, was a mess but for once it's lack of any body worked in my favor as I easily brushed it back out again. I hadn't fooled around with much makeup which again worked in my favor tonight.

Bill drove out of the theater lot and I realized I had no idea what movie was just ending! Although I remember looking at the sign outside, it couldn't have been very good as I don't remember what it was and didn't even record it in my diary later. On the way home I reached over to him with one hand and started playing with his cock through his pants again. I was pleased to feel it immediately begin to harden again in response to my touch. I started to undo his belt but he put his hand on mine, stopping me.

"Are you nuts Kelly? We're in the middle of traffic!"

"Your point?" was my simple response as I went back to work on his pants.

The traffic was pretty light this late at night and the van was pretty dark so the odds of anyone seeing us were slim at best. Besides, I didn't care if someone did see us. If anything the thought of someone in a car next to us watching me as I gave Bill a blowjob made me hot and wet just thinking about it!

"Oh my god, I can't believe this," he groaned as I unzipped him and released his hardened cock from its prison.

I leaned over the console and started to give him another blowjob. God I loved his cock! I only wished he had fucked me with it but at least I was getting another chance to suck it again. I took him all the way into my mouth and for several blocks just laid my head on his lap with his cock pushing against the back of my mouth, sucking on it like a giant popsicle. The bouncing of the van was enough to move him in my mouth such that I didn't have to do much more than just hold my head still and let it slide in and out on its own. It wasn't long before my efforts paid off as we waited a stoplight.

"Oh damn Kelly, I'm going to cum!" he groaned. Then I felt him jerk and he said, "Oh my god, I think the guy in that car can see us!"

I really couldn't have cared less about anyone else at that moment. All I could think about was the cum that was about to start spurting into my mouth. Since Bill had already started to climax, so there was no stopping this train now that it had left the station, no matter what might be happening outside. My pussy tingled as he started to cum and I took the first couple of loads in my mouth. Then I lifted my head and let him drop from my mouth, letting him hit my face with the remaining ones. The majority of his cum was in my mouth by then so it was enough to cover my cheeks and nose but without enough force to get into my hair or on my clothes.

"What the hell are you doing Kelly?" he said as I quickly sat up and looked to the car next to us.

Sure enough there was a guy who looked to be in his forties or so staring us. The streetlight at the intersection shined on my face and I know he must have been able to see the cum on my face. I smiled at him and licked some of the cum on my lips. Just then the light turned green but he made no effort to pull away. I stuck my tongue out at him and hoped he could see Bill's cum pooled on it. Finally I swallowed it down and turned back to Bill who had been watching my little show.

"God, you really are a slut, aren't you?" he said although it was more of a statement than a question.

I took some napkins out from the glove box and cleaned off my face. Bill's wet cock was still sticking out his pants but at the same time he was staring at me with eyes wide open.

"Well, isn't that what the other boys say about me?" I responded coyly.

"Yeah but I thought it was just all talk... God, you're insane!" he said, suddenly switching topics and laughing, "What if that had been someone we knew?"

I just grinned and finished wiping myself off. It was clear that he really loved getting his cock sucked even if the circumstances were a bit "dangerous". In fact, I sucked Bill's cock quite a few times after that. He quickly adopted my love of blowing him in public places and more than once we almost got caught, but it wouldn't have been nearly as much fun otherwise.

Much to my disappointment, Bill never did fuck me. We discussed it a few times and I learned that he had quite the religious side and claimed to be "saving himself for marriage". Personally, I've never been able to quite understand the concept as I don't care who someone had been with before me, it's the here and now that's important. Whether or not he kept to his guns until marriage, I have no idea, but I had to give him credit for having a LOT more resolve than your average teenage male (or any guy I've known for that matter). Even though I made it clear to him that he was more than welcome to fuck me whenever he was ready, it never even came close to happening. Actually, it was this quality about him that has helped me to remember Bill over the years. Bill has the distinction of being the only guy in my life that I made a conscious effort to have sex with me that refused my offer (not counting Brad Pitt of course).

REAL sex was. Thankfully my new boyfriend was ready and willing to give me all I craved.

Unfortunately Steve's mom's job was transferred to California so they all moved away in the dead of winter. After a short period of mourning (OK, maybe I'm being melodramatic but it felt that way at the time) I was back dating again. Since the end of my freshman year, I'd been dating John almost exclusively. He was my age, at least for the moment, although his birthday was such that it put him a year ahead of me in school. On our first date we did it in the backseat of his parent's car and it certainly wasn't our last time! Mostly we did it either in his car or one of our bedrooms, but we were always on the look-out for any opportunity to add in a bit of extra excitement. As John attended the same church as me, he would be attending the annual picnic as well. Hmmmmmm, maybe there was something to look forward to after all!

The morning of the picnic my irritating alarm clock buzzed and so I reached over to turn it off. I tossed off the covers with every good intention of getting out of bed but then I remembered what day it was and flopped on my back. The cool morning air felt good on my naked body (I'd been sleeping nude like my parents since I was twelve) as I rubbed my eyes with both hands and tried to clear my head. One thing for sure, nobody can accuse me of being a morning person! Given a choice I'd stay up well past midnight and then sleep in until noon every day if I could!

As so often would happen when I did this I felt something familiar stirring between my legs. Not for the first time I marveled at how my rational head could hate mornings so intensely yet my always horny pussy seemed to love them. If there was one time of day I had to say when I'm consistently hornier than any there time it would have to be when I first wake up. Maybe it was my body's way of compensating for my head's reluctance to get up, I don't know. All of which led me to be in the condition I was in now - my head telling me to go back to sleep while my pussy demanded attention! What I DID know was that at moments like this my pussy could be relentless in its demands.

From past experience I knew it was useless to try to fight it so I looked down at my nude body in the dim light peeking through my curtains. As I mentioned, I'd been sleeping without anything on now for the past three years. At first it was just a twelve year-old was just trying to act older by mimicking her parents (who never wore anything to bed). Once I got accustomed to it I found that it was comfy not being restricted by anything and so now the only time I wear anything to bed anymore is during sleepovers and such when I am with people other than my parents. I kept a nightshirt next to my bed so when I got up I could throw it on quickly.

My mother didn't approve of casual nudity around the house and insisted I wear SOMETHING, even if it was just a T-shirt that didn't even cover my butt. It's not like my parents have anything against nudity. We've always used the hot tub without swimsuits since I was just a little girl but then we had towels and robes to wear when we weren't in it. As a general rule, I was raised not to be embarrassed by nudity but at the same time not to flaunt it either.

As my hand reached between my legs to touch my aching pussy, I heard my parent's alarm clock go off and eventually caught a glimpse of my groggy dad stumbled across the hallway to the bathroom which was directly opposite my bedroom. He was naked and sporting his usual "morning wood" so I knew what his intentions were. Sure enough after he'd closed the door behind him I heard him peeing and then the toilet flushing. Whatever... I quickly put him out of my mind as I had better things to think about.

As I started to slowly rub my clit it responded by sending shivers throughout my body. It was like it was telling me if I treated it nice it would do the same for me. I spread my legs a little further apart, imagining my latest boyfriend was touching me. In my dream he was on top of me now, his hand on his wonderful erection as he guided it towards my crotch, getting ready to penetrate me and make me feel whole again. My middle finger slipped into my wet pussy hole as I imagined him slipping into me, making me gasp and I moaned.

"Yes John, fuck me... fuck me!"

God it felt so good! I was concentrating hard on my pussy so it startled me to hear a chuckle coming from the hallway. Opening my eyes, I saw my dad standing there in the doorway. He was wearing a terry robe now but it wasn't tied together so I could still see most everything - at least everything that counted when it came to determining how he was feeling. Based on the massive erection poking out from the robe it didn't take a rocket scientist to figure out my mom was about to get "lucky"!

"Oops, sorry baby," he said when he saw my eyes were fixed and then realizing what was inadvertently on display. "Ummmmm, your mom's waiting for me," he offered as an explanation for his arousal but it wasn't necessary as I'd already assumed as much.

"So anyway, you were saying?" he teased me after rearranging his robe.

"Oh Daddy!" I protested, "You know very well what I was thinking about!"

It was just like my dad to tease me this way. Could I help it that my dad had the same first name as my boyfriend who'd been fucking me lately? I certainly hadn't been thinking of my own dad fucking me!

"I know baby, I know. Well, have fun!" he teased me as he disappeared out of sight and I heard the bedroom door closing behind him. Yep, my mom was going to get some this morning!

The only time my parents usually shut their bedroom door was when they made love. I guess it was their way of keeping it as something special just between them. Over the course of the years I'd seen enough of them nude and even watched them masturbate (especially my dad) but I'd never seen them actually having sex. Sure my mom would sometimes grab his dick in the hot tub or something like that just to tease him, but it wasn't like she gave him a BJ or anything else overtly sexual.

Masturbation was handled much like nudity in at home. It was considered OK, in fact my mom almost insisted I do it sometimes when I was annoying her with talk about how I couldn't wait to be with my boyfriend again. In any case it was still not something to be flaunted. I'd say "respect" was the operative word. For instance if my dad just happened to walk by my room and saw me masturbating like he did this morning, more often than not he just ignored me. It was the same if I was in the family room while he was watching a porn movie or there was some sexy actress on TV (his current favorite is Amanda Tapping of StarGate - she can get him erect almost instantly!). If he felt the need to masturbate I just ignored him. I mean really, what would be the point in making him wait until later to take care of himself?

Hopefully by now you're getting an idea of what life at home was like at the time for me. I HATE it when people say I live in an OPEN home or lifestyle. When people use that term they typically are referring to some kinky porn-movie style arrangement where silly people run around naked all the time having sex any time or place without any regard for someone else's personal respect and decency. About the LAST thing I would say if asked to characterize my family would be to use the word "open". My preference is simply to say we respect each other and love on another such that things like nudity and masturbation simply aren't even issues to worry about. My mom makes bigger stink over me throwing my dirty clothes under the bed than not wearing them in the first place. The only times I remember her fussed with me regarding masturbation was when I was little and would start playing looked it also had this sometimes annoying tendency to ride up between my pussy lips when I was sitting, letting my dark fuzzy pubic hair peek out on both sides. Although some of my friends were already shaving their pussies I'd been waiting all my life for hair like my mom's to sprout between my legs. The last thing I wanted to look like was some twelve year old girl again!

Recognizing the futility of even trying to get them past my mom's ever watchful eyes, instead of my new slutty shorts I picked out a pair of hemmed denim shorts which came down a couple of inches on my legs. Although to me they were super conservative I was well aware they were still pushing the limit by church standards. At least they were borderline so I didn't think anyone would actually make an issue of them like what happened when I tried wearing a skimpy bikini at church camp. THAT had created quite the stir and my mom wasn't too pleased to have to drive out to bring me a different suit.

With the shorts on a pink tank top finished off the outfit - no bra for me today. After all, it was a picnic so why wear one? It wasn't like my boobs were all that big anyway. Probably the only reason anyone would notice I wasn't wearing one was the way my nipples tended to harden and push out with the slight provocation. Even so, a bra wasn't necessarily assurance that they wouldn't poke through a thin tank top.

My pink sneakers and a gold ankle chain (another present from my daddy) finished off the outfit and I reached for an elastic band for my ponytail. With my hair secure I looked in the mirror and smiled. John was going to like what he saw today! Maybe if I was lucky, he would get to see me WITHOUT the clothes as well! I wasn't exactly sure how that could happen at a church picnic but you can't blame a girl for dreaming.

"Um... young lady, aren't we forgetting something this morning?" I heard from behind me. I spun around and there was my mom. She was still in her robe although unlike my dad she tended to tie hers together more around the house. I looked at her as if I had no idea in the world what she was talking about.

"Don't give me that little miss innocent look, you know perfectly well what I'm talking about."

"But mom! I hate wearing one," I whined like a little girl. Well, it may be effective with my dad but my mom wasn't buying it for a moment.

"It's church dear, even if it IS outside today. We can't have you looking like the neighborhood slut, can we? You should show a little respect." Actually, I could have cared less if the old fuddy duds at church DID think I was a slut or whatever. It wasn't like I had a reputation for being a conservative-dressing virgin anyway. It was obvious that my mom wasn't going to take no for an answer so I huffed and stormed over to my dresser. Pulling open the top drawer, I made a show of having to hunt for a bra, as if it was something I wore so rarely I couldn't find one (which wasn't all that far from the truth actually). Finally, like a magician pulling a rabbit from a hat, I pulled out a basic white bra and held it up for her inspection.

"Well, that's nice but how about putting in on?" she laughed. "You can't exactly just carry it around."

A final roll of my eyes and I pulled off my tank top, handing it to her to hold. Mom stood there with her arms folded, dangling my tank top out from her finger like a warden watching a prisoner strip. Wrapping it around my waist, I snapped the bra together, then spun it around and lifted it up and over my boobs, finally putting my arms through the straps and pulling them up to my shoulders. With the bra in place, I reached out for my tank top. As she handed it back my mom looked at me shrewdly.

"Hmmmmmm, so let me make a wild guess, no panties either?"

"Mom!" I whined even more than before. "Come on!"

"Well, I guess I can live with it since you at least picked out a decent pair of shorts to wear," she compromised. "By the way, that tank looks great on you!"

My cheeks warmed slightly as I pulled the tank back over my head and pulled it down at the bottom. It was just barely long enough to reach my shorts when I yanked down on it but as soon as I started walking around it drifted back up, exposing an inch or two of my tanned flat belly. Again, this was pushing the limits of the church dress code which banned bare midriffs but a girl's got to do what a girl's got to do.

"OK, better now?" I asked, putting my arms out so she could see the bra through my top. Actually in a way it looked almost sexier seeing my bra clearly outlined under my thin tank top than just my nipples poking through. Speaking of nipples, as I had expected they were still popping through, although less than before.

"OK, you pass inspection young lady," my mom said, doing her best army sergeant imitation.

We both laughed and hugged. I loved my mother, even when she acted too "motherly". In her heart she was doing what she thought best for me and I knew compared to most moms I knew I was pretty lucky to have her.

With that we both headed downstairs to where my dad was loading up the card table and chairs so we would have a place to sit for lunch after the service. The park had a picnic tables but not nearly enough for everyone so people were encouraged to bring their own seating arrangements.

"Wow, congratulation honey," my dad said to my mom, "I see you convinced someone to wear some underwear today." Although he said it to her, I knew it was more a tease directed at me than anything else.

"Well, not everything," my mom replied, looking at me sternly as she pretended to be severely disappointed in me.

My dad wrinkled his brow and then walked over and grabbed my bottom with one hand. "Ah yes, the case of the missing panties once again. So what's the excuse this time? Let me guess... Left them in your boyfriend's car?"

"Oh daddy, stop it!" I protested, swatting his hand off my ass like it was a bug. He was always grabbing my butt, probably because he knew how much it annoyed me.

2. Arriving At the Picnic

Once we were packed it only took about ten minutes to get to the park where it appeared that we were one of the first families to arrive. The men from church had already set up the trailer and chairs. A large skirting had been placed around the trailer to hide the wheels and frame and just add some ambiance to the entire affair. Bleachers were set up on the stage for the choir and microphones and speakers were already in place with some geek walking around saying "test" into them over and over again. Judging from the number of chairs, they must have been expected quite a turnout today although at the moment there couldn't have been more than twenty or thirty people hanging around.

"Hey Kelly!"

A familiar voice called out for me and my heart skipped a beat as I recognized my boyfriend John. I spun around and ran up to him, putting, my arms around his neck and hugging him like we hadn't seen each other in months. I wanted to kiss him (ALL over) but my mom wasn't far away and I saw the look she was giving me - "Behave!"

"Wow, you're looking HOT this morning!" John declared, giving me the once over.

Because he was a guy he couldn't help himself when his gaze paused a little longer than would normally have been appropriate on my ass and boobs. It was fine with me actually. One of the things I loved as I grew older was the way men looked at me. It was funny how they would pretend not to do it but I knew they were and sometimes I encouraged them, if you know what I mean. I still can remember the thrill I felt the first time I caught one of the dads at church staring at my ass!

"You're not looking so bad yourself," I said in reply.

Indeed, he didn't. John was wearing denim shorts as well but his came down just below his knees. He had on a short sleeve shirt with some outlandish tropical pattern on it that looked a little out of place at church but then who was going to care, it was a picnic after all.

"I know, I know, my mom picked out the shirt," he said sheepishly. I guess I must have been a little more obvious with my eye-rolling than I thought when I first noticed it.

I looked around and it seemed nobody was watching us so I leaned up on my tip toes and tried to whisper in his ear. John bent down to make it easier for me.

"I want you to fuck me!"

John straightened back up again and it seemed it was all he could do to keep from bursting out laughing.

"Hey, what's so funny?" I demanded, crossing my arms in front of me.

"Oh no, don't take it wrong Kelly. It's just that... well it's just so YOU, you know. Good ol' one-track mind Kelly, always thinking about sex."

"Well, I thought that's what you liked about me," I retorted, pretended to pout as I rubbed my toe into the ground. "Would you have even asked me out otherwise?"

"Oh for sure!" he said, grabbing my upper arm. "It's just sometimes you still surprise me. I've never met a girl quite like you before."

I looked around again and reached up for him again. "Well, maybe I can surprise you even more later," I teased him.

"Kelly!! Get over here and help out a little!" my mom yelled for me.

"Well, gotta go," I said softly, "Don't forget what I told you I wanted."

"Yeah, like any guy could forget THAT!" he laughed.

I headed over to where the food was being set out for the pot luck dinner after the service. Why do women get stuck with this crap? The guys were just hanging around shooting the breeze while the women were doing all the work!

3. Servicing John During the Service

Despite the sexist distribution of work, or maybe because of it, eventually everything was ready. By then the number of cars in the parking lot had grown considerably and there was quite a crowd beginning to form. Someone got up on the stage, grabbed the microphone and asked for everyone to take their seats.

"Mom, can I sit with John?" I asked.

My mom frowned as she looked me in the eye, searching for the ulterior motive she was sure was lurking there. Either she didn't see it or she ignored it. Either way, she sighed and conceded the inevitable. "Well, you promise to be good?" she asked. It was more of a demand than a question.

"Mom!" I whined for the umpteenth time today already.

"Don't 'mom' me young lady, you know exactly what I'm talking about."

"I won't get in any trouble, don't worry," I promised. Well, it wasn't the same as promising to behave myself. I was just promising not to get caught!

"That's not what I said Kelly and you know it," my mom reprimanded me. Obviously I wasn't being as clever as I'd thought. Before she could continue, I gave her a kiss on the cheek and waved her goodbye. The last I saw of her she was watching me run off, shaking her head at me. Well, I doubted I was any different than she was at my age!

John was waiting for me outside the tent area and we started following the crowd towards the hillside where the service was being held. As we approached, he suddenly veered off and made a bee-line for the back of the trailer.

"Hey, where are you going?" I asked.

"Just hurry up and follow me before someone see us!" he hissed back at me, pulling on my arm.

I looked around and nobody seemed to be paying any attention to us as they tried to find their seats and chatted with one another. We quickly got behind the trailer and he ducked underneath. I hesitated for a moment but he waved me under.

"Come on Kelly, hurry up!"

One last look and I bent over to join him. The bed of trailer was actually pretty high and there was more room under there than I'd expected. Along with some empty boxes there were a few blankets piled up, evidently used to pack up the speakers and sound system plus whatever else was being used for the service.

"Over here Kelly," John whispered to me, leading me to a spot behind the boxes. I was surprised when I got behind them to find several blankets laid out already, almost like a private picnic. It was dim but there was still plenty of light to see by. With the boxes piled the way they were, anybody walking by would have no idea we were there.

"Well, what do you think?" John asked, obviously quite proud of himself. "I checked this out while you were helping your mom. Should be the perfect place."

It was all happening so fast. Sometimes I can be a little dense and this must have been one of them as I looked at him with a quizzical eye. "Perfect place for WHAT?" I asked, not really thinking about it before I said it.

John looked over the boxes as if to make sure nobody was around and replied, "To fuck you, of course. Isn't that what you said you wanted me to do to you earlier?"

"Here? Are you NUTS? There's people on the other side of that curtain for god's sake," I exclaimed, barely catching myself in time to keep from being overheard by one of the things I loved about blowing a guy - it didn't matter what size your boobs were or what your body dimensions were, sucking cock was all about technique and with all the practice I'd had over the past year or so I felt that I was far ahead of the curve in at least THAT category.

I could still remember the first BJ I'd given John. Being I was only fifteen, he was probably expecting it be rather amateurish and maybe even to where he would have to tell me what to do. Well, I put THAT concern to rest as soon as I had him in my mouth. The reaction I soon got from him made it one of those moments when I've really felt proud of myself!

There was a limit to how long I could go on teasing him as he wasn't the only one that wanted my mouth on his cock! The smell of his crotch filled my nostrils as I took in a deep breath of his musky manhood. My hands were under his butt and I wanted to just pull him up to my mouth like a watermelon and eat him all up. When I couldn't take it anymore I bent down just enough to lick the tip of his now rock-hard dick with my tongue. As hard as the shaft was I marveled at the silky smoothness of his cock head against my cheeks.

A few twirls of my tongue around the head and I took the tip between my lips as if I was kissing him. Then slowly, EVER so slowly, I took him into my mouth in one long, smooth motion. Inch by inch he disappeared into my mouth. He was still growing and I could feel the shaft hardening and growing in my mouth as I sucked him. Then I looked upwards and saw him looking down at me, watching me take his growing dick into my mouth like a wet pussy.

"Oh that feels so good," he moaned, so softly I could barely hear him. I prayed that he would stay quiet and not forget himself and say something out loud that could be heard on the stage or in the congregation.

His dick felt SO good in my mouth. Somehow the knowledge that literally hundreds of people were just on the other side of a barrier not much different than a bed sheet who had no clue what was going on under the trailer made it all the better. Having an "audience" versus blowing him in a car was like listening to a stereo station after a mono station. It made me wonder if they actually SAW me what that would be like - surround sound maybe?

If we'd had more time I could've just laid there on my stomach and sucked on his wonderful cock for hours, like a baby with a pacifier in her mouth except this one was fully loaded and primed! As it was, we had maybe an hour at most, even less now that the service had started, so there wasn't a lot of time for such luxuries.

feeling his shaft slide along my clit, sending the most incredible sensations through me. My legs started to feel like they do when I sit in a wrong position and they go to "sleep" and then tingle when they wake back up again. I shivered like it was freezing out instead of a warm June day working its way to be a hot one.

John had his hands on my bare upper thighs, running his fingers up and down the smooth tops of them as I kneeled over him. Leaning forward, I kissed him as my boobs lightly touched his chest under me, teasing my nipples and making my boobs feel great. Our tongues met and I good feel his cock twitching under me, anxious to be inside of me. Well, I wanted it in me too so why wait any longer?

Reaching down I grabbed his dick and centered the head under my pussy hole. I wiggled my hips to work his head into my pussy, feeling it stretching my pussy hole part as the poor thing valiantly tried to resist the monstrous invader. It was a losing battle, one I was glad to forfeit though. Pressing down harder on his quivering dick, I felt it almost pop into me as his head passed into me and his thinner shaft was free to follow.

"Oh John," I whispered in his ear, racking back and forth on him to drive him in deeper.

I sat up which had the effect of suddenly pushing him even further and it took every bit of my willpower to hold back the loud moan that was trying to escape from my mouth. "I love your hard dick inside of me," I mouthed more than whispered to him.

John grinned and turned his attention to his crotch where he could see his cock as it disappeared up inside of me. Sometime I prefer to bounce on his dick but this time I just wiggled on him like I was trying to scoot across the floor or something on my butt. I could feel his cock moving around in me, my clit rubbing up against his crotch just enough to stimulate it further.

Usually when John fucked me the methods and locations might vary but the sequence was fairly predictable. Typically I would suck him and he would cum pretty quickly having all that horniness pent up inside of him. Then he would fuck me and I would cum and eventually he would cum again, sometimes making me cum again with him. As it turned out, today looked to be pretty much like it was following the script. So far I'd blown him until he came and now I was fucking him and it appeared my orgasm was about to take off any minute now.

Wonderful pulses of what I can only call pleasure kept going off inside of me like a fireworks and then spreading out to all the ends of my body. These were getting more and more intense and faster as well. A sexual tension was building within me like a rubber band being stretched to the breaking point. There was a balloon blowing up inside of me and it was almost to the bursting point. Suddenly the dam burst and I was flooded with the most incredible sensations. It was like I was transported to another world as everything around me faded away and there was nothing but my pussy and John's wonderful cock buried inside.

How many more ways can I try to describe what is fundamentally indescribable? Most women know what I'm trying to say but how can a man ever possibly understand how I feel when I reach an orgasm? How would you describe color red to someone who has been blind from birth? Men tell me when they cum they feel an intense sensation in their dick and maybe in the crotch area along with a general sense of euphoria. In contrast, my orgasm may originate in my pussy but once it gets going it's like my entire body has been doused with gasoline and lit on fire, only instead of pain it's more enjoyable than anything else I have ever experienced.

Maybe because I'm always saying how much I love sex, people have asked me if I'm a nymphomaniac. Personally, I don't think so although I guess it's debatable. The one thing I WILL admit to is being "addicted" to my orgasms. There is something set loose in me in the process that makes me feel better for literally HOURS afterwards. Perhaps a drug addict might be able to relate to what I'm saying. Although I've never taken drugs, I can imagine it must be a similar experience. All I know for certain is that if I go too long without one, it affects me physically and emotionally to the point I get terribly irritable and depressed.

At first I just sat still, my body mounted on John's dick like a butterfly in a collection. The waves of bliss kept washing over me, threatening to almost drown me even. After the initial surge, I started to rock slowly on his cock, using his dick to stimulate my pussy while my finger slowly circled my exploding clit. My hips moved in tight circles, letting John's dick circle in me, touching every part of me. His crotch must have been getting soaked with my cum as it felt almost like I was peeing on him at one point when my cum seemed to pour out of me.

"I'm cumming again," John whispered, bringing my attention back to him. I'm sure he whispered it softly enough that nobody could have heard him but in my heightened state it was like he shouted it at me. I started humping his dick, driving him deep into me as I encouraged it to give me the only thing missing right now – his sperm in me.

"Ahhhhhh," I moaned softly as I felt him start to cum in me. It felt wonderful but the best part for me was just knowing he was doing it. It was the culmination of everything we were meant to be, the act of procreation, the male mating the female. Of course I'm not saying I want to get pregnant - God no! It was the ACT that gave me gratification, not the results. Something about it was so primal, so uncivilized. Just think about what it means for a man to release his sperm in me, to leave it behind and for me to keep it in me. Can there be any wonder it makes me cum even harder when he does it?

When John had finished I leaned back over him again, eventually laying on top his chest with his dick still within me although it was slowly withdrawing from me as it shrank. Now and then it would twitch or jerk, sending a jolt from my pussy to remind me of his cock in me.

"God I love it when you fuck me," I whispered in his ear.

John was too exhausted to respond but it didn't matter. His cock was still in me, surrounded by a mixture of his sperm and my cum. THAT was all I really cared about at the moment. I felt good although I really couldn't say I was satisfied. For that matter, I can't say I've ever been totally satisfied after sex. To state that would mean I was ready to stop, that I'd had enough of his cock to make me ready to quit. Well, how could I EVER be that way? Even now, as good as the afterglow of our sex felt, I would have gladly accepted another cock!

Meanwhile, the service had been progressing relentlessly and it sounded like the sermon was about to wrap up. From what I'd seen in the bulletin earlier, there would be a couple of songs and then an invitation before it was over so we still had at least ten or fifteen minutes. Why waste them?

John's dick was now about out of me, having dwindled significantly after his last ejaculation in me. I lifted myself off of him and moved back down between his legs again. John's cock looked so delicious! Even in the faint light I could see the wetness from it being covered with our cum. I bent down and took his dick in my mouth, marveling at how soft it felt but yet how good it tasted. Really, what tastes better than your own pussy on a guy's dick?

John jerked involuntarily as I sucked on his now small but sensitive dick. Sucking him when he was soft like this was totally different than when he was hard. Rather than having to deal with him poking against the back of my throat, this was more just tasting and smelling him, feeling his dick squirm and twist in my mouth like some large worm as I moved it around with my tongue.

Soon I heard the pastor giving the invitation for anyone to come forward and I knew we had better get going if we wanted to be ready when the time was right. Reluctantly, I let John's dick flop from my mouth and looked around for my shorts. John found his underwear and shorts and got dressed as well. I watched him as he pulled up his shorts and underwear and felt a momentary sense of sadness as his lovely dick disappeared from view. Oh well, I was sure I would be seeing it again before too long.

Before I slipped my shorts on, I used the blanket to wipe off my pussy so it wouldn't look like I had peed in them or something. I squeezed down and tried to push out as much of his cum as I could. It would drain out sooner or later so as much as I got off walking around knowing it was in me, I didn't want to raise any questions either. Even if nobody else did, I knew my mom would notice and it wouldn't make her happy for me to be so slutty at a church picnic.

John took my hand and led me out from under the trailer. We joined in with the crowd as the people dispersed. Nobody saw us emerge and it was as if we'd been in the service the whole time. I smiled at the irony. Actually, I had been AT the service but it was John that had been IN me.

4. After the Service

"Kelly, where in the world have you been?" my mom asked as I approached her and my dad.

I couldn't help but look at John and I tried not to smile but all that did was turn it into more of a smirk. Maybe it was the flushness of my face or John's guilty look, or maybe it was just a mother's intuition, but regardless of how she seemed to immediately size up the situation.

"Good grief girl, I should've known. You PROMISED you'd behave," she sighed.

"No, I promised I would be GOOD," I reminded her. Then I grinned at John and added, "And I was, wasn't I John?"

John's face reddened like after a first day at the beach sunburn. He had no idea that I'd told my mom everything about our previous dates and that I would eventually clue her on one what happened today later when we got home. I doubted any of his other girlfriends had alluded to him having sex with them right in front of their parents! For some reason it made me feel naughty, but in a good way.

John looked at my dad, probably figuring he was in for it now but my dad just shook his head with a resigned look on his face as if he didn't know what to say so saying nothing was probably best.

John had to leave to meet up with his family so I walked back to the picnic area with my parents. When John was out of sight my mom leaned over and spoke to me softly.

"OK, you can tell me all about it later but I just HAVE to know - where did you do it?"

"Where else? Under the stage." I replied simply.

My mom looked horrified and for a moment I thought she was going to say something but then she seemed to think better of it and instead just rolled her eyes at me. My dad must have had overheard because he joined in as well.

"Oh Mary, don't get on her case. Remember where we did it during church once?"

"John!" my mom responded instantly. Then she hit him in the shoulder playfully with her fist. "Don't go giving her any ideas; she already has plenty of her own!"

By then we had reached the food tent. The rest of the afternoon went rather uneventfully. I couldn't wait to get home. First, I was anxious to tell my mom all about what John and I had done. Most of all I wanted to hear more about what she and my dad had done at church. My dad was right in that I had lots of ideas myself but it never hurt to get a few suggestions! The question was, would I tell John where I got the ideas from?

rewarded with a nice view of my small breasts - something made easier by the fact I rarely wore a bra to work. I liked to tease him in the hall or at his desk by rubbing up against him and was usually treated to a noticeable swelling in his pants by the time I left.

Between working for my dad and being married with children Don was cautious not to respond in any real way. Of course this only encouraged me to be even more daring. I started "forgetting" to pull my skirt down when I sat in his office and slowly crossed my legs to show off my tanned legs. Then I'd spread my legs just enough to hint that I might not be wearing any panties. Needless to say he never protested and I think he considered my flirting just innocent fun by a teenage girl. Even so, I would get hot thinking that he might be masturbating at night dreaming about what he wanted to do to me if he was a teenage boy again.

One day I overheard my dad talking to my mom about work and the subject changed to Don and his family. My dad was telling my mom that Don's marriage had not been all that great lately and he was worried about his performance at work. I knew from office parties and other functions that while Don kept himself in great shape his wife had really let herself go over the years. It seems she just got heavier with the birth of each of their three children.

Once I overheard Don joking with the guys that he had twice the woman he had married except he wasn't laughing when he said it. I thought about my mom and how she looked fantastic in her skimpy bikini. She loved it when people mistook her for my older sister. I just don't understand why women think that once they have a man trapped in marriage that they can gain a hundred pounds and still expect their husband to want to have sex with them. In my opinion if their hubby gets frustrated and seeks out sexual satisfaction from someone else then she has only herself to blame.

A few days later I was in Don's office helping him file some paperwork when I remembered what my dad had said about him. For whatever reason I was feeling especially daring at the time so I struck up a conversation. Moving over to his desk I picked up a picture of him and his wife and looked at it for a few seconds and then turned to him.

"So Don, what's your secret to staying married for so long?"

Don didn't even look up from his work to respond. "It's really not that hard once you're married as long as I've been. Things become routine, you know your roles and responsibilities, obligations that have to be met, kids to be raised. I guess it becomes more of a partnership after a while."

"Gee, that doesn't sound very romantic. Seems more like something you HAVE to do than WANT to do."

Don sighed and his pen down. He looked up me with this distant look on his face. "Well Kelly, if you really wanted to know, most guys like me have no choice. I've actually got a pretty good life right now and a divorce would ruin me financially. There's this huge mortgage, car loans, credit cards, not to mention two kids in college and a third not too far in the future."

He paused for a second, as if he couldn't believe he was telling me all this. "Besides, why are you so interested all of a sudden? After all, your dad's been married as long as I have so why not ask him."

A hint of a smile was on my face when I replied to him. "Well, I know you like it when I tease you so I was wondering if it was just because you found it interesting or maybe you weren't being satisfied at home."

"Damn Kelly, don't you think you're being just a bit nosy now?"

Oops, a little TOO much I guess. I pretended to pout and left him alone in his office. I wasn't used to being put off by men so I knew Don was going to be seeing more of me than ever now. For the next couple of weeks I made a special effort to tease Don every chance I could get. I didn't do anything too terrible but he was getting plenty of opportunities to check me out.

One day I went in his office to deliver some mail and he looked upset about something. I thought maybe he needed something to take his mind off of whatever it was so when I put the mail on his desk I leaned way over. Just before entering his office I'd unbuttoned a couple more buttons on my blouse so he was getting a fairly unobstructed view of my boobs, small as they were. To my surprise, he slammed his pen down and looked at me angrily.

"Dammit Kelly, now stop it. I can't take it anymore so please just quit doing whatever it is you think you're doing and leave me alone."

Whoa! I certainly hadn't expected that! I must've looked pretty shocked because he quickly got up and apologized.

"I'm sorry Kelly, it's just that things haven't been going so well at home and then to come to work and have you teasing me just makes it all the worse!"

I sat down on the chair next to his desk and just listened. I also made it a point NOT to button my blouse.

at the office Saturday night but their regular sitter wasn't available. He said he would really appreciate it and that I could even use their hot tub if I wanted. My dad was with us and he encouraged me to accept the offer saying he would also appreciate it since he really needed Don that night.

I agreed and that weekend walked over to Don's house as it was only a couple of blocks away. I had babysat for his daughter before and she was never a problem so I knew it was going to be an easy assignment. This was the first time though I'd been offered the use of the hot tub!

As I had anticipated, their daughter was a pleasure to baby-sit and after I put her to bed I decided to take up his offer regarding the hot tub. I hadn't bothered to bring a bikini since I knew I'd be alone and like ours at home the deck had a high security fence so nobody would be able to see me. I stripped off my clothes and left them on the kitchen table. Walking out onto the deck nude, the cool night air felt great on my skin and I could feel little goose bumps rising all over me.

I carefully uncovered the hot tub and stepped into it gingerly. The hot water felt great as I slowly lowered myself in. With the night air being so cool, the hot water working its way up my legs made my skin tingle while the parts of me still in the air kept their goose bumps as the contrast between the two temperature extremes made me feel even colder on top. The water reached where my legs joined and I hesitated for a second, letting myself become accustomed to the water. Don kept his tub a bit hotter than my dad did ours so it took me longer than usual to work my way in.

Finally I took the plunge and let my pussy dip into the water. It felt so hot I had to pull up for a second and let it cool again. Then I tried again and this time the warm water caressed me, trying to work its way into me like a lover. My ass was soon covered and my torso felt the shock of the heat that surrounded it. I watched as I lowered my breasts under. My nipples were already like magnum bullets and the heat made it feel as if someone was pinching them, but in a good way. I gasped as a series of pleasurable sensations ran up and down my body.

Eventually I was in up to my neck at it was then that I took a quick plunge completely under the surface to wet my face and hair. I was finally in and it felt soooooo good.

The hot tub had a bed-like section molded into it that I laid back in. There was a jet at my feet so I positioned myself such that it was pointing straight at my pussy, letting the air and water mixture gently massage me. Together with the heat it was like the world's greatest lover giving me oral sex - much better than my shower massager. I just laid there, eyes closed and motionless, enjoying the sensations that would come and go inside and out of me. My hands casually played with my boobs like a young schoolboy groping on his first date.

As I looked up and saw the darkened windows of the house above me, I imagined Don spying on me from one of them, watching me secretively while my clit was gently massaged by the continuous stream of water. I pictured him standing in the bedroom, looking out the window through a slit in the curtains with his hard cock in his hand, stroking himself as he watched me masturbating, dreaming of fucking me. My hand moved from my breast to my clit as I began to get down to some serious masturbation.

Between my hands, the jets and the hot water I brought myself to a great climax, dreaming of Don cumming all over his hand, jerking his cock furiously was I writhed in the water with the pleasure of an orgasm that just wouldn't stop. Slowly my pussy calmed until I could lay back still again instead of humping like I was a whore being fucked as I had during my orgasm.

3. Don Joins Me in the Hot Tub

I checked the time on my watch and saw it was getting to where Don might Returning if he finished early so I went back into the house and got dressed. It turned out to be just in time as Don walked in as I finished pulling my jeans back on. Seeing my wet hair, it was obvious to him what I'd been doing.

"So Kelly, looks like you've been in the hot tub. Like it? We just put it in a few weeks ago."

"Oh yeah, it was great. Thanks for letting me use it. We have one at home too and I use it every chance I get."

"I like using it after a stressful day at work like today. Matter of fact, I was thinking on the way home about getting in it when I got back." Don hesitated before he continued, as if not sure whether he should say something. It could have been the look in his eye but really it was the look of what was growing between his legs that tipped me off to his intentions. Don looked like he was about to lose his courage though so I took the initiative.

"Would you like me to join you?" I offered softly, smiling at him.

Predictably his lust quickly won out and he put his arms around me and bent over to kiss me. I rose up on my toes to meet him and felt the shirt rise up over my bare ass as I did. Our open mouths met and each of our tongues searched for the other, lightly touching and finally invading the other's mouth. I could feel my small breasts pushing against his bare chest though his shirt that I was wearing.

Don reached below the shirt and held my firm smooth ass (that I was soooooo proud of) with both hands, pulling me tightly against him until that I was able to feel his stiffening cock pressing against my flat stomach. My hips wiggled back and forth as I rubbed up against his swelling cock. It was such a passionate kiss! We held it for a while and then parted, each of us taking a breath, a bit lightheaded from the realization of what we had just done.

Don gently took my hand and led me to the hot tub. He entered the hot tub first, settling in across the tub from me and then watched me as I walked slowly towards the edge of the tub. As I expected, my hardened nipples were poking straight though the flimsy shirt material and with the deck lighting behind me I knew he could see my small naked body clearly outlined underneath. I stepped into the tub and sat across from him. This time I slipped in quickly, letting the hot water strike me fast this time rather than the slower, more sensual manner I had entered before. It was so weird, like we were horny teenagers at a drive-in, hotter than anything for each other but both waiting for the other to make the next move. As we talked about something so inane I don't even remember what it was, I felt my leg brush up against his and it was like an electric charge went between us.

I almost couldn't believe this was happening! Wow, I was in a hot tub with a man older than my father, three times my age, wearing nothing but a wet shirt that was now completely transparent. Teasing him in the office and even at home was all in good fun. Then all of a sudden I realized this was more, this was the real thing. If I went any further I would be helping a man commit adultery for god's sake - violating one of the Ten Commandments! Not only that, but what about his kids? What would his boys say if they found out their supposedly stodgy old dad was screwing a girl younger than their girlfriends? Most of all, what about his wife? Did I really even have the right to do this to her, to take her husband from her in this most intimate way? It was amazing how these and other thoughts raced through my mind in what seemed like hours but in reality were mere seconds.

Then I remembered how it was his wife that changed the rules. She was the one that corrupted her religion to the point where she no longer could satisfy her husband in bed. The more I thought about it the more I felt justified in whatever I did to her husband. Don was a decent, hardworking man who deserved to be given the things he craved and desired. Well, if she wouldn't satisfy him then why shouldn't I? It was at that very moment, more than any time before, that I knew I truly wanted Don to fuck me. It wasn't something just to dream or fantasize about anymore - I really wanted to give him something that I knew he would cherish for the rest of his life.

On the other hand, his wife had always been nice to me and I had no desire whatsoever to do anything that would hurt her in any way. Actually, I felt that I might be saving their marriage if anything. I mean, if things were to the point in their marriage where Don was out looking for someone else to have sex with, maybe it was best that he fucked me and got it out of his system before he had a real affair. To be completely honest, it wasn't just about Don though. If nothing else, I was sure it would be something I would remember for the rest of my life as well!

With renewed determination I moved over next to him, pushing myself through the water until I felt his body pressed against mine. We kissed again as he put an arm around my shoulders, pulling me tightly against him with a sudden burst of passion it caught me off guard. It was like he was now committed to this, no more half-moves or concerns. It was at this moment I knew that Don was going to fuck me before the night was done and there was nothing that could stop what had been put into motion. Even if I changed my mind, which I was hardly about to do, I knew I was going to be fucked by him one way or another. He moved his other hand down under the water to lightly stroke my inner thighs, running his fingers up and down each of my legs. Then he moved his hand to my breasts, massaging me gently though the wet shirt and squeezing my nipples. I moaned softly as my breasts tingled from his touch.

"Ohhhhhh Don," I moaned the way I had been when I was dreaming earlier in the hot tub about how I wanted this to happen.

I turned and slowly worked way down his chest, kissing and licking him. As I did he reached down and slipped off his suit. I could take a hint so I reached down and next thing I knew I was holding his hard cock! The only other cocks I had held were of teenage boys and I was pleasantly surprised to feel how big and hard he was. I lowered my head into the water and took his cock in my mouth. I don't think he was expecting that but he adapted quickly to the situation, raising his hips to bring me out of the water so he could watch me as I sucked him.

My tongue swirled around his shaft as I moved up and down, never letting him out of my mouth. I had seen his cock trying to burst so many times from his pants, dreamed so many times of sucking it, that I was not going to let it go for an instance. My eyes looked up at him and I smiled wickedly as he told me what a fantastic job I was doing.

"Oh God, Kelly that feels incredible!! Nancy is only woman I've ever been with and she hates oral sex. I have dreamed all my life of having my cock sucked by a beautiful girl!"

I hadn't realized until then that he had never had a blow job! Oh my god, I was the first girl to suck his cock! If anything, I was more determined now than ever to make it a memory he could carry with him forever. His cock tasted a bit funny from the chemicals in the hot tub but that didn't stop me from taking him all in my mouth until my face was pressed against his wet pubic hair. My tongue swirled around his head, driving him nuts from the pleasure I was giving him. He was groaning so loud I hoped there was nobody around to hear him.

I'd given my first blow less than a year ago but in that time since I must have sucked cock a hundred times or more so I felt I was pretty damn good, especially for my age. I could tell from the swelling of his cock that he was ready to cum but I did not want him to yet. I had more plans for that poor underused cock. I took him out of my mouth with a sly grin.

"So Don, am I was as good as you had hoped for?"

"Quit being coy Kelly. You know damn well how good you are!"

Alright, so he caught me fishing for compliments. Well, any girl likes to know when she is pleasing her man. Now it was his turn to return the favor. I sat up on the edge of the tub with my legs spread wide for him. I took the shirt off - it wasn't hiding anything anyway and it felt funny plastered to my skin anyway. For a moment he just sat back and stared at my young teenage body, almost as if in disbelief.

"Well," I laughed, "are you going to just look at me or do something?"

"Sorry Kelly," he apologized, "It's just I want to remember this moment, the first and maybe the last time in my life I'm with a gorgeous nude teenager who is waiting for me, waiting for me to fuck her. God it's like I'm in some sort of dream and I'm so afraid I'm gonna wake up!"

Don moved up towards me and massaged my breasts with one hand while the other reached down between my legs. He fingers found my pussy and worked their way under my hood to my clit, which was dying for his attention by then. My hips one hand down and started rubbing my clit, causing it to move the inner walls of my pussy against his dick. Between his cock, my hand, and his mouth on me I came yet again, this time even harder than before! Don was banging me like a wild man now, pumping his cock in and out of me furiously. I knew he couldn't last much longer and finally he couldn't hold back anymore.

"Oh fuck, I'm going to cum," he cried out loudly.

Again I hoped nobody was out tonight or Don was going to have some explaining to do! Don instinctively started to pull out of me, not wanting to cum in me and get me pregnant. What Don didn't know was that my mom had taken me to the doctor the day after I lost my virginity and I had been on the pill ever since. There was nothing like the feel of a man cumming inside of me and I wasn't going to let Don do it anywhere else. I wrapped my legs around his ass and pulled him towards me.

"Cum in me Don!" I begged him, "Fill my pussy with your hot sperm."

A deep shiver suddenly ran through his entire body. It was like he had tapped into a hidden well of cum that had been building for twenty years. He squirted time and again straight into my little pussy, shooting streams of spunk into me that felt like small heat bombs going off with each ejaculation. He pushed hard against me, trying to drive his exploding cock even deeper into me, instinctively trying to deposit his seed as far inside of me as he could. Again and again he thrust into me, each time swelling and exploding, each time driving me closer to yet another orgasm until finally I came again and I lost all sense of time and reality as my mind clouded with sheer lust and pleasure.

All I could think about was the feelings that were enveloping me from head to toe, emanating from where his cock was buried in me. It must have been like what drug addicts feel when they are on a high, nothing else mattered at that moment, all I could think about was how absolutely wonderful I felt at that instant. He finally ran out of cum and he pressed himself tight to me.

We rolled over and I was on top of him, laying on his chest with his slowing shrinking cock in me. I could've stayed like that forever the way I felt at the time. We were both exhausted but feeling wonderful, our naked bodies pressing against each other's. His hands slowly wandered all over me, caressing me lightly. What he didn't know was that I was still not finished. My fantasy still had a few parts that needed to be fulfilled.

"Come on Don, let's go to your bedroom."

"Oh my god Kelly, I don't know if I can do it again."

"Let me worry about that. Let's go!"

4. Doing It on Their Bed

We ran naked across the deck and into the house where I headed straight upstairs to his bedroom. Looking around I could see a number of pictures of him and his wife, just his wife, and the whole family. Seeing them made me feel so naughty thinking about what they would say if they could see who was in the bedroom with him now. It was easy to recognize her dresser with all the jewelry and perfume bottles on it.

Don watched as I rummaged through the drawers and quickly found her underwear. She was probably at least twice my size so there was nothing that would even remotely fit me but that wasn't the point. I didn't plan to wear it to the store, I just wanted him to fuck me while I had it on. I picked out a bra and a pair of what looked to be new panties. I slipped them on and laid on the bed. Actually I had to or they would have fallen off they were so big on me. I put my hands inside the panties and started to play with myself in front of Don.

"What do you think your wife would say if she knew I was doing this in her panties?" I asked him, teasing him worse than he had ever been teased before.

"Damn Kelly, you know what she would say. You're such a damn tease!"

He was still flaccid so I knew I had to get to work if he was going to fuck me again. At his age I wasn't even sure if it was possible but it never hurt to try. I moved to the side of the bed where he was standing and laying on my stomach I started to give him another blow job. He was so soft I was afraid it might be useless when I started to feel a bit of response in my mouth. He may have never been able to do it twice before but then he never had the motivation I was providing! It took a while but eventually he was back to his erect and horny self again. His crotch smelled of bromine from the hot tub but I didn't care, I was more interested in feeling him growing in my mouth, expanding such that each time I went down on him it took a little more effort to get him to fit.

When he was ready I got on my hands and knees with my ass at the edge of the bed. Still standing, he quickly found my pussy and his cock was back where it belonged - deep inside of me. As I rocked back and forth with the force of his remembers how he fucked me. I even daydream of him being in bed with his wife, imagining me sucking his cock like she wouldn't. Would she have any suspicion as to why he had this huge hard-on?

It wasn't until the lust had drained from my body and I was thinking more clearly that I fully realized I was directly responsible for leading a responsible father and loving husband into the sin of adultery. Could he ever look at his wife the same way again, knowing what he had done behind her back? What if his wife ever found out? Would I be responsible for their divorce if she did? I soon put these thoughts out of my mind. After all, I didn't rape the guy or anything. I wasn't the one with the wedding vows to consider so if he chose to fuck me then that was his responsibility.

As it turned out that was the one and only time Don ever fucked me. During the summer I continued to tease him in the office but we never carried it through again. When I met his wife at the summer company picnic I felt a moment of panic but I realized she had no idea what her husband had done to me. We actually had a great conversation although the topics were just small talk. It would have been more interesting to have compared notes about her husband's cock but somehow I doubted that that was going to be a suitable conversational topic!

So summer was again in full bloom and I was enjoying myself. During summer bikinis and cutoffs became the standard uniform for me and my friends and we were all having a great time teasing the boys and sometimes enjoying the fruits of our labors. Most of us had lost our virginity by now although I was probably at the upper end of the scale when it came to number of partners. My best friend Beth was ahead of me but that was because she was known for being a party girl whereas I preferred more the one-to-one dating routine.

Before I knew it, it was time for that annual rite of passage - church camp. I'd been going to church camp every year since I was eight and I've always looked forward to going back again. There was so much to do - horse riding, swimming, crafts and worship. Being fifteen now, this would be my last year so I was looking forward to being the senior group finally.

Actually I was excited about going for a few other reasons as well. During the last couple of years me and the other girls my age had started flirting with some of the counselors at camp. We were barely teenagers so it was all pretty much just innocent fun and nothing really happened, at least not that I knew about. Oh sure a few girls claimed to have "gone all the way? but for the most part I figured they were just boasting and there wasn't anything behind the bravado. As for me, this year I was no longer a virgin and so my intentions were to go way beyond flirting!

Being fifteen now also meant that some of the younger counselors wouldn't be all that much older than me. If there was one thing I'd learned since last summer it was that your average boy would do just about anything for even a chance at getting in my panties (when I wore them). Besides, doing it at church camp just seemed so naughty even to think about it.

2. Sunday - Seeing Mark for the First Time

My bags were packed and I was ready to go (I think there's a song in there somewhere). During church there was a special sendoff for all the kids leaving for camp. Afterwards my parents and I stopped home for lunch and to pick up my suitcase. From there it is a two-hour ride.

While I could've taken the church bus with most of the other kids, traditionally my parents had always taken me to camp so as to be sure that I was all set up and OK for the week. I didn't have the heart to tell them that I was fifteen now and didn't more cleavage to fill it out properly, the bottoms were not much more than a piece of triangular clothe with thing strings holding it on. It left little to the imagination to say the least. When I modeled it for him he took a bunch of photos, just as he always did when he brought me home one of his "special" outfits.

"My goodness, now where's the one we bought you special for camp?" my mom mumbled as she tossed my other bikinis in to her purse for safe keeping.

Reluctantly I pulled out the suit she was talking about from the very bottom of my suitcase. Ugh, I hated it!! It was one-piece which was bad enough but it covered my ass and boobs completely making me feel like I was wearing a straightjacket when I had it on! It was like something from the stone age.

Oh well, the only consolation was that at least all the other girls would have to wear one just like it as well so I wouldn't have to be embarrassed to wear such a stodgy thing. My mom took it from my hands put it in the drawer along with my underwear.

"So what else did you sneak in here you naughty little girl?" she said with a smile. She looked around to be sure nobody could hear her and added, "You know, just because you're not a virgin this year doesn't mean you can run around looking like a slut. This IS church camp you know."

Looking through my things, she ended up confiscating a couple of skimpy tube tops and one pair of my cutoffs, my favorite pair too in that my ass hung out both sides when I walked. Then she rummaged through my things one more time before giving up. She looked me in the eyes and asked, "What, no bras?"

"Mommmmmm!" I protested, folding my arms in frustration.

Mom shook her head but at least she didn't press the issue. She and I were always fighting over this issue. I hated bras with a passion and generally never wore one unless she forced me to like when we were going to church. It wasn't like I was all that well-endowed anyway to where I required one.

In all fairness, it wasn't that she wanted me to wear a bra ALL the time. Heck, if anything she actually encouraged me NOT to wear one much of the time although she did give me a few pointers on when to wear one to tease boys more. As I mentioned, usually the only time she really pushed the issue was when it came to church activities.

So far as dress codes go, our church isn't nearly as extreme as some I've heard about but even so it's still pretty strict when compared to school. Even though the camp rules did not specifically require that girls had to wear bras (most weren't old enough to need one anyway), there was always the general statement about "proper and appropriate attire? that could be interpreted just about however the Camp Director wanted.

As it turned out my mother proved yet again how well she understood me. She reached in her purse and pulled out one of my newer bras.

"I figured you'd "forget" one of these so I brought one for you. I know you won't wear it during the day but you should at least wear it to the evening services. That's only proper."

I let out an overly dramatic sigh and quickly hid it in my drawer where I had every intention of it remaining for the rest of the week. What my mom didn't know wouldn't hurt me!

Everything was finally ready and my parents kissed and hugged me goodbye. My dad lingered back for a minute and whispered in my ear in a conspiratorial tone.

"Now try and behave yourself Kelly. Please don't do anything crazy and get yourself in trouble, OK? I don't want anything embarrassing like that Reed girl last year."

He was referring to the scandal of the summer last year where a girl was caught naked in the shower room doing herself. It caused quite a stir which I thought was rather hypocritical at best. Like, how many girls weren't relieved that it hadn't been them that had been caught? And not just the campers. I bet more than a few of the counselors spent some "quality time" alone in the shower room as well. From what I heard they weren't always alone either.

I looked at him with my best "innocent girl" look and licked my lips slowly. "Of course daddy, don't I always behave?"

My dad laughed as if there was something funny about what I'd said. Then he winked at me before patting me playfully on my butt and leaving to catch up with my mom.

Although I didn't tell my dad everything I did, no doubt my mother kept him well informed. Besides, it's not like he didn't encourage me much of the time! Sometimes I think he got a kick out of me, maybe even reminding him of how my mom would behave back when they were in high school.

It hadn't really hit me until a few days earlier, but in looking back since last summer I hadn't gone a full week without sex since my first time with Steve. That is if you forget about the month or so after he left when I was depressed and feeling nudity at church camp!) and I began to masturbate as I laid on my back in my top bunk.

It was dark in the room and I tried to keep quiet but there is only so much you can do in such times. Besides, from a few little moans and the rustling of sheets I knew that I wasn't the only one with a finger on her clit at the time!

When I finally came it was all I could do to keep from crying out as I dreamed of Mark cumming in me, his big fat cock shooting stream after stream of his hot sperm into my tight pussy. I'd never seen it course but in my imagination it was the biggest dick I'd ever seen. As my fantasy cock, he could cum as many times as I wanted and never ran dry or go soft.

I was so damn horny once wasn't going to be enough so I rolled over on my side and brought myself to another climax, even better than the first. I tasted my fingers and sniffed, taking in the sweet aroma of my pussy, imaging how his cock would taste after he fucked me.

I finally fell asleep imagining Mark lying nude behind me, spooning me with his hard cock pressed against the small of my back and his arms wrapped around me as he held my boobs in the alms of his hands, squeezing my hardened nipples between his fingers.

3. Monday - Dreaming About Mark

Early in the morning our counselor woke us up. We put on our robes and took our toiletry bags as we walked in line to the central bathroom. Fortunately the toilets had doors because as usual I'd woken up so horny I had to do something or go nuts.

Although I'm definitely not a "morning person" (just ask my mom after when she tries to get me up for school), I usually wake up "needy". After last night and talking about Mark with the other girls, and then dreaming about him as I masturbated myself to sleep, I was extra horny this morning.

I hooked the wooden door, lifted up my T-shirt, dropped my shorts and took a seat on the thrown of an ancient but fortunately clean toilet. Nature called so first I peed but then I was ready for better things. Spreading my legs, I leaned back against the back of the stall and reached between my thighs with my right hand, rubbing my clit slowly at first but quickly building up speed.

There have been times when I've masturbated for hours, just laying on my bed, cumming several times and eventually working myself up to a stunning climax which would leave me totally exhausted but oh so satisfied. At other times masturbation was just a quick means way to relieve myself of the overwhelming sexual tension that was threatening to overload me. These quick and dirty orgasms worked for the short term but naturally didn't give me near the satisfaction of an extended masturbation session.

This was one of those times when I needed to get off quick so in less than five minutes of fantasizing about waking up to the feel of Mark's cock pressing against my pussy, I drew a deep breath and let that wonderful sensation I get with any orgasm flow through me.

When I was finished I quickly pulled down my T-shirt, adjusted my shorts, and opened the door to go the rows of sinks where Beth, my very best friend, has just finished brushing her teeth.

"Feeling better?" she teased me with a smirk nudging me playfully in the side with her elbow.

"Whatever DO you mean?" I replied with all the innocence I could put in my voice.

"Oh give me a break girl; I'm your best friend, remember? I know what you do when you wake up in the morning. Look at your face in the mirror - you may as well be wearing a neon sign saying, 'Look at me, I just did myself!' You're something else Kelly."

I looked at my reflection in the cracked mirror and sure enough, I WAS pretty flushed. I flashed her a toothy smile and brushed my teeth while she stood there shaking her head in mock shame over the sinful deeds of her best friend. Yeah, like she probably hadn't just done the same thing herself and just happened to finish faster than me. I'd slept over at her house enough times to know her morning routines well.

When I was finished at the sink I followed Beth to the shower room where modesty was not an option. The room has two stainless steel shower trees with several heads on each so everyone had to shower together. For me it was no big deal as I was long accustomed to being nude around people.

Growing up, nudity wasn't something to be flaunted but at the same time not to be ashamed of nor made a big deal over. For me to see my parents nude or vice versa was simply a non-event. As I got older I noticed my dad would look at me a little longer than he had when I was younger but who could blame him? After all, he may have been my dad but he was still a guy. Besides, he never did anything overt or to embarrass me.

Most of the younger girls were obviously were raised in more conservative homes and for a few an open shower was actually a traumatic experience. I knew girls when I was in high school that never showered after gym class, figuring it was better to make it through the day with lots of perfume and deodorant than to be nude in front of the other girls.

Going a whole week at camp without a shower was a different story although I knew girls that had done it, depending on the daily swim at the lake with maybe a discrete wash-down at the sink to make it through until they could go home to the privacy of their own bathroom. Seemed pretty silly if you asked me.

Beth and I stripped together and stepped into the shower. It was pretty crowded with everyone trying to get ready the first morning so it was all but impossible NOT to bump up against other girls as you made your way through the mob. I knew from past experience that it would get better as the week went by as everyone learned to schedule their time better. Today, however, it was wall-to-wall naked girls.

Beth and I managed to get a showerhead for ourselves and we pressed together to share the lukewarm stream of water. What is it about camps that they NEVER have really hot water in the showers anyway? My nipples hardened instantly when the lukewarm water struck them and I noticed that Beth's were doing the same. She was fortunate in that Mother Nature had blessed her with the biggest boobs of any girl our age. In the meantime I was "cursed" with one of the smallest pair.

As I watched Beth soaping down her breasts and running her hands over them, I couldn't help but feel jealous of her as I always was whenever I saw her nude. As we twisted and turned under the shower her boobs would sometimes accidentally rub up against my naked skin. Once our nipples even rubbed against one another's and I felt a shiver run through me.

My eyes met Beth's and for just a moment I wondered what it would be like to feel her naked body against mine in a more private setting. The moment passed almost instantly and then we were out of the shower to make room for someone else. We got back to our clothes and dried off. Beth handed me her towel saying, "Dry off my back, would you Kelly?"

She turned and faced away from me as I rubbed the towel over her. I got down to her butt and rubbed it with the towel as well. I wasn't even thinking about it when I moved down and started to dry her off between her thighs. Beth instantly flipped around with a sly grin on her face.

"Now Kelly, watch it! Someone might think we were more than just best friends!"

To be honest, somehow that didn't seem so bad right then but before I could reply our counselor came bursting in.

"Hey you two, get going! Everyone else is ready for breakfast and you're holding things up!"

We quickly threw on our shorts and a brand new camp T-shirt. My mom had insisted on buying me a shirt that was a bit too big knowing it was a losing battle with the bra and she didn't want my nipples to be so obvious. Well, it hung on me like a feedbag!

As I walked I realized that it actually wasn't all that bas as being so loose it moved across my nipples with each twist of my hips as I stepped so it was like someone was playing with them every step of the way heading to the dining room. Damn, my nipples were like little hard pencil erasers by the time we took our seats.

The shorts were quite conservative for anyone making them ultra-conservative for me, coming almost six inches down my legs. Once again my mom had bought a pair that were a bit on the big side whereas usually I wore them a size too small if anything.

When I had first looked in the mirror I just wanted to cry. Oh my god, I looked exactly like the stereotypical image of the nerdy virgin church girl! My heart sank as I wondered how I could ever entice Mark to look my way dressed up like this? Oh well, at least everyone else was more or less in the same outfit so I didn't look totally out of place.

It was also interesting to see that I wasn't the only one without a bra! Actually, the majority of the girls seemed to have "forgotten" theirs as well, even some of those with the larger busts like Beth. The one good thing about it was that if she could get away without one then nobody was going to say anything about me.

My group's turn at the waterfront wasn't until the middle of the afternoon which was nice because by then it was blazing hot and the water felt great. Mark was the head lifeguard and upon seeing him I immediately wished I were wearing my regular bikini. Even with my absurdly conservative suit (did all girls REALLY wear these things at one time?) I was hoping against hope that he was looking at me a little more than he did the other girls as I tried to add a little extra wiggle to my walk when I thought he was looking our way.

Mark was looking pretty hot himself in his long swim trunks with his tanned and muscular body. Of course, I wasn't the only one who couldn't take my eyes off of him! As we were leaving after our lessons I turned suddenly and caught Mark looking away quickly. I was pretty sure he'd been staring at my tight ass again and the thought of it made me even hornier than I already was.

***************

That night after the evening service we gathered again in the low light of the cabin for our nightly chat. Everyone was excited about the first day and inevitably the discussion turned to the waterfront with special attention to the head lifeguard.

"What a hunk!"

"Oh my God I think I'm in love with him!"

"Did you see those muscles, I want soooooo bad to see him working out!"

The accolades and fantasies went on until finally Beth said, "Hey Kelly, you're being awfully quiet. So what did you think of Mark?"

I don't know whether it was just a moment of stupidity or I just wanted to impress the other girls with my "maturity" but for whatever reason, without thinking I closed my eyes and said in a dreamy voice, "Mmmmmmm, I couldn't take my eyes off that bulge in his swimsuit!"

For a second it went deadly quiet and then everyone started to giggle and whisper. Even though it was nothing nearly as bad as what some of them had been saying the night before, we'd been alone then without our counselor.

Our counselor, a really nice girl who was a senior in college, didn't seem to know quite what to say. My face turned red and I ran to my bunk and threw myself in it. I was crying with embarrassment when my counselor sat down next to me. The rest of the girls were still on the other side of the room, probably talking about what a slut I was. She put her hand on my head and stroked my hair gently.

"It's OK Kelly, I know how you feel. He IS pretty handsome and I've had some thoughts about him like that myself but you simply can't say those type of things in front of everyone, especially here."

I turned over and faced her, tears staining my cheeks. She hugged me and we had a long chat about dealing with the emotions and feelings that all girls have when they are growing up. Finally she gave me a big hug and invited me back to the girls. We walked over and for a second everyone stared at me but before long we were all

Mark knew exactly what I was talking about and he turned just a bit red as he told me to get going and catch up with the other girls.

Later that day I told the other girls what had happened and they all giggled although I was pretty sure they didn't believe me, or at least they didn't believe he was really as interested in me as I thought he was. I chalked it up to them just being jealous of me.

Later, as I was resting in bed, I found myself thinking of Mark again and remembering how he looked at me when he didn't think I noticed. I put my hand between my legs, imagining that it was Mark's hand instead. As I rubbed myself I dreamed of Mark giving me a private lesson on the dock - private lessons in advanced fucking that is.

My finger rubbed my clit faster as I dreamed of him stripping off my swimsuit and fondling me, touching me lightly all over. I fantasized about his hard cock and what it tasted like, of how it would feel pressing against my pussy lips, spreading them apart and exploring deep into my wet pussy.

Finally I came as I imagined him exploding inside of me, filling me with his hot cum until it overflowed my pussy and ran out of me along his cock.

As I laid there with my eyes shut, feeling the afterglow of my orgasm, I was feeling SO horny for him. As I tried to catch my breath I knew that I couldn't just keep dreaming about him - I had to have him. I wanted his dick in me for real, not just in my imagination. Surely he would think I was sexy and want to fuck me if I offered myself to him. I might not be as hot as the girls his age but still, I couldn't imagine him ever saying no once he knew what I wanted.

My mind was still clouded from having just cum that I wasn't thinking as clearly as perhaps I should. Without thinking of the consequences, I silently got out of staying in must my shorts and T-shirt.

Hurrying before I came to my sense and realized what I was doing and maybe lose my courage, I found myself sneaking over to the staff area to check out Mark's cabin. At the moment that didn't matter. I wanted one thing and nothing was going to stop me until I had it.

***************

When I got to the circle of cabins where the counselors stayed I saw there were signs on each one with their names on them. Well THAT certainly helped as it would have been rather difficult to explain why I was in the wrong cabin.

I just smiled and walked over to him with a pouting look on my face. "Are you trying to say that you weren't thinking about me? Don't I don't turn you on? It sure looks like it!"

"No, no Kelly, that's not what I meant..."

"So were you jerking off thinking of me or not?"

"Ok, I was. But I didn't mean anything serious by it."

"So you were just laying here playing with your cock, talking about me sucking it and you fucking me and never once did you want it to come true?"

"Ok, so I admit it. You know damn well you've been teasing me from day one and today you were so hot I couldn't help but think of you tonight. I know you didn't slip by accident and you know full well it was no accident that I grabbed your tight little ass when the opportunity arose. So quite playing innocent, I bet you're fucking every boy in school, aren't you."

I sat down on the bed next to him and put my hand on his crotch. I was happy to feel his hard cock through the thin fabric. Evidently, even though he was embarrassed he was still pretty horny because it was hard as wood! Typical boy.

"Well, not EVERY boy... but I've had my share," I said with a sly smile.

"Don't worry Mark, I enjoyed watching you jerk off. I was especially turned on when I realized it was me that you were thinking of. I mean, what girl wouldn't be thrilled to know a guy like you thought she was hot enough to jerk off to?"

"Really? You aren't mad at me? You aren't going to tell anyone are you?"

I reached inside his boxers and held his warm cock in my hand. Despite everything, he was still hard as a rock and I was reminded of Steve who, no matter what happened, never seemed to lose his erection until he came – and then often not even then. It felt so good in my hands, especially after the all the times I'd already dreamed of holding it.

"Now why would I be mad at you? Look, I'll make a deal with you. I won't tell anyone that you were masturbating about me if you let me suck your cock."

I almost laughed as a series of varied expressions appeared on his face. Disbelief at first was replaced by an almost scary look of deep lust. His cock certainly wasn't getting any smaller as I gently stroked it. It was so much bigger than any of the others I'd held, more like grabbing a large cucumber instead of a carrot. The more I stroked it the more his resistance disappeared.

Finally I got him past the gag point and I could feel his cock sliding down my throat as my face met the base of his cock. I had ALL of him in my mouth finally. I wiggled my head to make him move around in my mouth. It felt like nothing else I'd ever experienced and the best part was I could tell that Mark was in ecstasy!

"Oh my god Kelly, that feels incredible! You're a natural born cocksucker. I bet you suck every cock you can get your mouth on."

I just smiled at him as I let him move in and out of my mouth. I bobbed my head up and down on him, making a loud slurping sound as I sucked his wonderful cock. Damn he tasted so good!

He was moving his hips up and down in time with my rhythm, helping to drive him cock deeper into my mouth which each stroke. He tasted wonderful and his crotch smelled so sexy. I teased his balls with my hands, gently fondling them as I sucked his perfect cock. They were all hairy and I loved running my hands through his pubic hair, twisting it in circles around my fingers.

Mark's breathing shortened and his body was stiffening - I could tell he was about to finally cum and my pussy tingled with excitement.

"Don't stop Kelly! For crying out loud whatever you do don't stop now! God I am going to cum so hard. I am going to cum in your sexy little mouth. Damn I wanted to do this every time you wiggled your cute ass for me at the dock."

His body tensed tight as a spring as his hot cock swelled in my mouth. Suddenly his whole body stiffened like a board and then he started jerking as I felt his first load of hot cum spray into my mouth and pool on my tongue.

I never let him loose, clamping down on him with my lips to seal his cum inside of my mouth. Mmmmmmm, it tasted soooooo good! After he finally stopped I let his cock slip from my mouth and I opened wide to let him see his cum inside.

"Oh wow Kelly, that is exactly what I was dreaming of, seeing my cum in your mouth and then watching you swallow it."

I just smiled and closed my mouth. I swallowed several times to allow his cum to wash down my throat and then I opened wide again to prove it was all down in my stomach. Then I took his now softening cock into my mouth again. It was so sensitive after cumming that he jumped when my tongue run up the backside of it, hitting the sensitive area below his head. A few more drops of his cum leaked out as I sucked on it. Finally he was done and I sat up and wiped my lips with my hand.

"Well, wasn't it better this way than to have to just dream about me?" I asked.

"All I can say Kelly is that it's pretty obvious you've had plenty of practice and I'm jealous as hell of your boyfriends."

I got up and left silently, blowing him a kiss as I went out the door and took one last look at his hairy cock. I didn't even have to dress as the whole time I had left my clothes on and he never even saw me naked. Oh well, that left something for him the next time.

Mark probably figured this was a one-time thing but he was mine now and I had no intention of this being the last time. If anybody found out what we'd done we would both be in trouble, especially him as he would be screwed - and not in a good way. I hate to say that I would have blackmailed him but let's just say I planned to be quite demanding the rest of the week and he'd better do what I asked - everything I asked!

5. Wednesday - Mark Fucks Me

At morning breakfast Mark was once again assigned to our table. When he came by me I caught his eye and I thought it was cute that he blushed just a little bit. He didn't say anything to me but seeing him again conjured up memories of the previous night. As my eyes roamed to his crotch, a place I was now more than just a little familiar with, I felt myself getting wet as his muscles rippled through the tight T-shirt he was wearing. Damn, I couldn't wait for our afternoon swim session!

That afternoon at the waterfront I noticed Mark was eyeing more than he ever had. It seemed everyone time I turned he was staring at my ass. Granted, there wasn't much else to stare at further up but I did what I could to give him the best views possible of my butt.

It turned out that I wasn't the only one who noticed his attention to me. That night during our girl talk time before bed I was teased by the girls about Mark's increased interest in me. Memories of his dick cumming my mouth filled my head as I just smiled. If him staring at my bottom got this much discussion going, just imagine what they'd be saying if they knew what's I'd done last night to earn his attention!

When the lights went off I laid in bed trembling with anticipation. First, I'd never been fucked by someone as old as Mark. Putting that together with the fact that we'd be doing it in the middle of church camp was almost too much for me to bear. It was killing me but I knew I had to wait a while before I dared to leave the cabin.

Well, I couldn't just lay there without doing SOMETHING so I started rubbing myself, dreaming of how it would feel the first time Mark entered me, stretching me apart as his monstrous dick head penetrated my wet pussy. When I finally came my fingers reached deep into me, becoming his cock in my mind as my pussy exploded with pleasure. The heck with everything, I couldn't take it any longer - I needed to have him and quickly so I slipped out, pretending to head for the bathroom but instead making a detour to the forbidden counselor area.

Once I got there I quickly sneaked around to Mark's cabin and slipped inside without anyone seeing me. Imagine my surprise to see not only Mark but another guy as well! Then I recognized him from the maintenance crew and saw that the two of them were playing cards. The guy looked at me with a wondering eye while Mark looked like he had seen a ghost.

"Shit! Kelly, what the hell are you doing here?" he asked incredulously.

The other guy looked at me and then at Mark, the look on his face was priceless! He grinned and said to Mark, "Way to go dude. Now this is what I call maid service."

"Damn it Greg," Mark responded, "It's not what you think you horny bastard. Get out of here and don't you dare whisper a word or Pastor Donovan will find out what you did to his daughter last week."

Greg had a smirk on his face as he left. As he passed me by he took a long look at me from head to toe and then said, "You know honey, if ol' Mark here can't satisfy you I'm right next door."

"Get out Greg - NOW!" Mark yelled. Greg looked me over one more time, shaking his head as he left and muttering something like, "Damn nice piece of ass." Then he was gone, shutting the door behind him.

"OK Kelly, let me ask you again. What in the world are you doing here?"

"Oh quit being so coy Mark," I chastised him as I slowly approached his bed. "I saw you looking at me today and I KNOW you enjoyed last night. Don't tell me that you don't want more. I know I do - a LOT more."

"Yeah but I can't do this Kelly," he said with a look on his face that said he wanted to. "Dammit, I could get fired... or even worse. Look, last night was a mistake so why don't you go back to your cabin before you get caught in here."

"Well... then just be sure we don't get caught," I said as I reached his bed and sat down on it with one leg up on the bed folded under me.

Then I looked at him with the most lustful and naughty expression I could muster, saying, "I really want you to fuck me Mark. Right now. Right here. I want you to fuck me better than I've ever been fucked before. Please fuck me... don't I turn you on?"

If there was one thing I'd learned early in my burgeoning sexual "career", it was that there is one thing that gets a guy going more than anything and that's to hear a girl ask him to fuck her. Well, Mark was proving to be no exception.

The bulge in Mark's shorts was getting bigger by the second and despite his protests to the contrary, he was looking at me more and more with that lustful look guys get when they start seeing me as an object to be taken and used. Some girls complain when men do that, claiming that they want to be treated as a person, not a sex toy. Frankly, that was EXACTLY what I wanted right then, to be Mark's sex toy and have him play with me.

My body was tingling all over with anticipation as I lusted for him, wanting him to use me to satisfy his naughtiest desires, to think about nothing but his sexual desires and use me to fulfill them. I wanted him to want me, to desire me, to show me just how much he thought I was pretty and sexy.

Without further hesitation, I stood up and quickly undid my shorts and dropped them to the floor. My T-shirt was more like a nightshirt, momentarily at least covering my ass and pussy from his view. Then I stepped up close to him, spreading his legs apart so I could stand between them.

Taking his hand in mine, I pulled it under my T-shirt to my pussy, pressing his hand firmly against me. His willpower totally disappeared as I felt his fingers instantly begin to explore, to find the seam where my clit was hiding and then work down until he was at the wet entrance to my pussy.

I moaned softly as his finger pressed until he was inside of me, wetting his finger with my pussy juices and then pulling out to wet my clit.

"That's it Mark, you know you want me. Fuck me... Oh fuck me Mark."

Mark slid his other hand under my T-shirt and grabbed my ass, squeezing it in his big hands and lifting me up on my toes. I pulled my T-shirt over my head so I was finally naked in front of him, with nothing but my sneakers on. It was just the opposite of last time when he was the one who was undressed and I was completely clothed. It made me feel so sexy being naked in front of him, like I was giving myself to him for his pleasure and enjoyment.

God his fingers felt so good in me! I could feel my pussy getting wetter and wetter each time he toyed with my clit. Oh yes, it was SO much better to have him actually touching me than to just fantasize about it in my bunk.

Mark let go of me and worked his way backward on his bed. I reached over him and tugged on his shorts, trying to pull them off. He raised his hips for me, making it easier to get them off. He had white jockey shorts on underneath and they were the next to join the growing pile of clothes on the floor and there it was, his wonderful massive cock standing up like a missile ready to launch. I reached for it and held it in my hand, smiling at him with the joy I felt inside as I climbed up on the bed next to him.

"Mmmmmmm," I said to him, "I remember how good you tasted last night. I've been looking forward to some more of this fella all day!"

I bent down to his crotch, taking his cock in my mouth immediately. I drove my mouth down on him until my lips met the base of his cock. His hair was so thick it practically smothered me but I loved the way it caressed my cheeks.

I took a deep breath and savored his strong odor that was thick and musky. I let him out of my mouth slowly as I came up, my tongue licking him as he went by it. When just the head was in my mouth I sucked it like a baby's binky, running the tip of my tongue against the tip of his cock.

While I sucked him I held his balls in my hand, massaging them gently and running my fingers though the hair that surrounded them. His hands were on my head, helping me to time my efforts with his thrusts as he tried to drive himself deeper into my mouth each time. This time though I wanted more than just a blowjob, he owed me a good fucking after last night and I was going to see that he paid his debt.

Mark was still on his back with his shirt on so I swung my leg over him and straddled his waist. I could feel him pressing up against me, his cock probing my crotch to find the entrance to the place it loved to be. I rubbed myself against him, feeling him sliding across my clit, keeping him wet with my pussy.

"I bet you get pretty horny watching those girls all day in their swimsuits," I teased him.

"Oh hell, sometimes I think I'm going to explode," he groaned, "Nothing but a bunch of teases wiggling their asses and tits. Drives me crazy... Oh what the hell, I wanted to fuck you from the first time you gave me that slutty little ass wiggle."

With that he reached around and grabbed his cock. I lifted myself up so he could position it under me and then lowered myself down into him. He missed the first time and I had to lift back up again for a second try. This time he hit my asshole and I immediately jumped up.

"Uh-uh, bad boy!" I scolded him. "That's not for play. Come on, I'm not THAT tight!"

This time I reached down and spread myself open for him. The tip of his cock pressed against my pussy hole, this time hitting it dead-on center and so I pushed down harder, driving him into me. Oh my god it felt so good to feel myself spreading apart for him. It hurt at first as I'd never had anything that large in my pussy before but soon I could feel his cock sliding into me, filling me as I'd never been filled by anyone before.

The momentary pain was quickly replaced by the most intense feeling of pleasure imaginable as I took him all in until my ass was planted on his hairy crotch. Oh yeah, this time instead of his thick bush tickling my face he was tickling my bare pussy and butt. My pussy squeezed down on his cock as hard as I could. God, it was like he was pushing up into my stomach!

"Damn Kelly, you feel so tight... so good!" Mark groaned as I started to bounce on him, trying to take a bit more of him each time, getting that last fraction of an inch of his cock inside of me.

Reaching down again I played with my clit, quickly driving myself to an orgasm that drenched his crotch with my pussy juices. I wanted more though, much more. I was not even close to being satisfied yet after all the dreaming and masturbating I'd done this week imagining myself doing this very thing. Oh yeah, I was being fucked by the sexiest guy at camp and I loved it!

Mark grabbed my bare hips and I leaned down on top of him. Then we rolled over on our sides and I lifted my upper leg over his. He started humping me, pounding my ass with his crotch as I looked down to watch his cock as it appeared and then disappeared into my pussy. It felt so amazing to feel his dick sliding in and out of me as I watched it, almost hard to believe what I was feeling in me was actually the same thing I was watching.

Mark put his arm around me and played with my tiny boobs, squeezing each one in his hand and grabbing my rock-hard nipple between his fingers. It wasn't long before my next orgasm hit and then yet another. It was like getting hit with two waves of pleasure from opposite directions, coming together deep inside of me, crashing into one another and spilling their loads of pure bliss into me.

My entire body was tingling like when your leg falls asleep and then starts to awaken. All I could think to say was to keep begging him to fuck me, to fuck me harder and harder and never stop.

Without warning Mark pulled out of me and for a moment it was like I felt so empty, like something had been taken from me. He wasn't done with though, as he twisted me around onto my back as he got off the bed. Grabbing my ankles Mark pulled me to the edge of the bed until my ass was almost falling off. He lifted my legs up until they rested on his broad tanned shoulders. Mark then grabbed his angry-looking cock and pressed the tip of the head back against the entrance to my hungry pussy.

"Ready for some more cock Kelly?" he asked. What a stupid question!

"Shove that in me before I grab it and pull it in!" I demanded, "Fuck me!"

Mark didn't need to be told twice. He slammed into me, driving himself in my hot and wet pussy over and over again. His hands gripped my ankles, lifting me up until my ass was off the bed. My hands played with my boobs while Mark fucked me even harder than before. God, was he ever going to cum? I could only imagine what a load he was preparing for me! As if he could read my mind, I could feel him start stroking faster and from the swelling inside of me I knew he was getting ready.

"Oh god I'm ready! Where do you want me to cum, Kelly?" he asked.

"Cum in me Mark," I begged him, "Fill my tight pussy with your cum!"

It really didn't matter as he couldn't hold back any longer anyway. The first surge of cum erupted from his ejaculating cock deep inside of my eager pussy. The heat of the explosion inside of me was just what I needed to cum again and yet another orgasm rocked me.

Again and again Mark drilled me with his cum, filling me with it until finally he stopped pumping and just stood there with his cock deep inside of me. He was breathing so hard he couldn't say anything other than a series of groans.

As for me, I just laid back with my eyes closed, trying to take in every sensation, to absorb ever feeling that was emanating from my freshly fucked pussy as his cock would periodically throb in me, sending shivers up and down my spine.

Finally Mark pulled his spent dick out of me and pushed me up on the bed further so he could nestle up to me, his warm body pressed against mine.

Even though I was exhausted, there was one thing I wanted not matter what. Indeed, I'd dreamed too many times about it to miss it now. I turned around until my face was in his smelly crotch, taking his softening cock in my mouth and sucking on it gently. His whole body shook as I continued to nurse his ultrasensitive dick.

I wondered if he had any clue as to how badly I wanted to taste him after he fucked me, to taste the mixture of both of us on his shaft that had just been inside of me.

Mmmmmmm, I loved the taste and smell of my pussy and to have it combined with his cum and the overwhelming odor of his crotch was simply heaven on earth for me. There was even a treat for me as a few drops of cum leaked out as he softened.

Any other time and place and I'm sure I could've continued sucking on him, reviving his cock for another round of fucking. However I knew only too well that I had to get back to my cabin before someone raised an alarm so I got up and quickly dressed. Mark just laid on the bed with his beautiful cock laying on its side for me to gaze at affectionately. God I loved that dick!

Suddenly a look of desperation came over him. "Oh my God I can't believe I just fucked you! I mean, it was wonderful and you were great but we didn't even use a rubber for god's sake!"

I smiled and said, "Don't worry Mark, I'm on the pill."

Mark looked so relieved after hearing that and as I pulled up my shorts he watched as my bare ass was covered up.

"Damn you really do have one hell of an ass Kelly!" he announced.

If only he knew how good that made me feel inside! My boobs aren't exactly my strong point making my ass my favorite part of my body. Short shorts, tiny skirts, painted on blue jeans - I loved to wear anything that showed it off as much as possible. I wiggled my butt for him and then slipped out the door.

Back in my cabin I sneaked back to my bunk and lay there thinking about what I'd just experienced. God my pussy was throbbing! I really wished he could have fucked me again - or maybe his friend? Eventually I fell asleep with my hand cradling my crotch, feeling my pussy pulsing and dreaming for another round of fucking from Mark.

6. Thursday - BJ Under the Dock

That morning I was brushing my teeth next to Beth again. She took a look at me and smiled.

"Wow girl, you certainly seem happy this morning. I haven't seen you this happy since the last time you got laid."

It was too good an opening to pass up so I gave her a sexy smile and winked at her. Her mouth dropped open and she covered it with her hand.

"Oh my God!" she whispered, "You didn't! With who... Mark? You're kidding!" I just nodded and continued to brush my teeth as if it was the most natural thing to do.

"Damn Kelly, you really ARE a slut. Like, every girl here has dreamed about him, me included, but leave it up to you to go off and actually do it! Well, you're just going to HAVE to tell me all about it when we get home you naughty girl!"

We both giggled. I trusted Beth totally. We'd been best friends as long as I can remember and we each knew things about the other than nobody else would have even dreamed of. Beth had even confided to me one day that she was turned on by my dad! Now THAT was a little out there?, even for me, but I knew she was just teasing me at the time. Like, my dad certainly got an eyeful of her at times, especially in the hot tub, but he would never have sex with her.

For the rest of the morning I wasn't paying any attention to the other activities as I plotted about how I was going to make today's visit to the waterfront an experience both Mark and I would never forget. I was literally soaking wet with anticipation as we walked down to the waterfront and midway through our time there the opportunity I was waiting for finally arose.

Mark was in the water, hanging on the edge of the dock facing the shore. I walked up to him and knelt down by him.

"Don't you dare move," I said softly, "Are you ready for a BJ?"

His eyes widened and he started to say something but before he could I jumped in and was underwater. It was typical lake water, clean but only with a few inches of visibility so neither he or anyone else could see where I was. I turned and swam under the dock until I found him. Before he knew what was happening I pulled his swim trunks down to his knees and felt my way up his legs until I had his incredible cock again in my hand.

I needed air by then so I surfaced under the dock where nobody could see me. It was totally against the rules to swim under the dock but then I'm sure it was against the rules to be holding the head lifeguard's erect dick in my hand as well! I could hear Mark trying to whisper to me from above.

"Damn it Kelly, stop! What if we get caught?!"

I didn't say anything, figuring actions speak louder than words. Besides, I was sure that once my mouth was around his horny cock that he wouldn't be so anxious for me to stop!

I took a deep breath and dove back under. I started to suck his cock which was already hardening from my holding it and his anticipation. So much for not wanting me to suck him! Actually I had never done this before so I wasn't quite sure how it was going to work out. His cock tasted like lake water but that wasn't going to stop me. It still had that familiar feeling of smooth skin with that wonderful hardness underneath and the head still had that nice rim to run my tongue under.

Over the next five to ten minutes I alternated between sucking him and then stroking him as I caught my breath. Once someone came up to Mark and started to talk to him just as I lowered myself under the water. As I sucked his rock hard cock I tried to imagine how he was managing to hold a conversation while at the same time one of his sluttiest campers had her mouth locked around his stiff cock!

Normally when I'm intent on just getting a boy to cum I can usually get results within five - maximum. Today, though, I was starting to wonder if I was going to be successful at all when finally I got the reaction I was hoping for. His head beginning to swell in my mouth and his hips involuntarily starting to buck as he tried to drive himself deeper into my mouth, like he was trying to fuck my mouth.

Fortunately, I'd just taken another gulp of air when he came, thick streams of cum shooting into my mouth. After a few shots I needed air and had to let go before he was done, leaving him to squirt the rest of his cum into the lake. It left like trails like slender white worms swimming through the water.

This time when I surfaced I was next to him on the outside of the dock. When I opened my mouth he could see his cum still on my tongue.

"God Almighty Kelly, swallow that before someone sees you!"

Well, I had no plans for it to go to waste so I did just as he said. Then I pulled myself out of the water and started to walk away but Mark hissed at me. I turned and he motioned for me to come back. He nodded towards my stomach and I looked down. Right smack in the middle of my suit was a big blob of cum. One of the loads he shot into the water must have hit my suit. Nobody had seen it yet so I jumped back in and washed it off of me. Now THAT would have been a bit tough to explain had I made it back to the beach without knowing about it!

This time when I got out I checked my suit over and all was clear, I winked at Mark and wiggled my ass for him as I went to the beach. With the erection I left him with it didn't surprise me that he didn't get out of the water for a while afterwards!

On the way back to our cabin Beth came to my side and whispered to me. "Where did you disappear to back there? You're supposed to be my buddy and I couldn't find you. Good thing they didn't have a buddy-call!"

Well, there was little danger of a buddy-call when the lifeguard was getting a BJ but of course she didn't know that - yet. Once again I winked at her and smiled like I had earlier this morning. Beth reacted the same as before, holding her mouth with her eyes wide open and then she started to giggle.

"No way Kelly," she said, "You're just teasing me now. Not even you would do anything down there. Besides, he was in the water by the dock most of the time."

I just smiled and as we walked she suddenly gasped and looked at me again as she started to realize what I had done. "No!," she exclaimed, "You didn't!... Oh my god!... you rock girl!!"

We laughed and hugged and I promised to fill her in on my entire event when we got home. I had a feeling we'd both be masturbating something fierce together when I did!

While I had hoped to have another night with Mark, this was our last night so there was a big bonfire and worship service in the woods. Our counselors then took us back to the cabins and we had an all-night discussion about our week at camp.

Everyone was being a good little girl, sharing about what a spiritual week this had been for them. Well, it had certainly been a spiritual experience for me as well, just not the same type as they had! I sat there in the circle dreaming of what it would have been like to be in Mark's cabin right then, feeling him fucking me instead of trading these silly stories that weren't probably true in the first place. Hmmm, what would our counselor have said if I told her MY most spiritual experience had been having the biggest dick ever inside of me last night?

It was really late when we finally went to bed. Of course it's never too late for one last round of masturbation, especially after spending the evening dreaming about being fucked. I was exhausted by the time I fell asleep but what a day it had been!

7. Heading Home

It was the last day of camp and thus the last day at the waterfront. I was ready for something really reckless today but when we got there I was devastated to find out that Mark was already gone. One of the girls in an earlier session had fallen and hurt herself and as the head lifeguard he had to take her into town for medical care. Oh well, so much for Operation Lifeguard Tower!

That evening my parents came to take me back home. My dad grabbed my bags and helped me out to the parking lot. Mark must have just made it back as he was standing with the other counselors saying goodbye to everyone so I introduced my parents to him, telling them that Mark had taught me a lot this week.

Mark was a bit flushed but imagine how much he would have been had be known I would soon be sharing everything I'd done at camp with my mom – and I mean everything!

Well, so much for Church Camp as next year I would be sixteen, too old for the kid's programs. Hmmmmmm, maybe someday I can be a counselor? I think I would be pretty good at teaching the girls a few things... don't you?

2. Preparing for a Date With John

It was a Friday night and I was in my bedroom getting ready for another night out with John. He didn't have anything special planned, just a movie and maybe some dessert afterwards. Looking in my mirror, I smiled as I imagined what was ahead of me. My denim skirt was tight and short, just like I knew John liked them. It hugged my hips tight and then flared out with a ruffle at the bottom to make it more girlish rather than slutty. Underneath was a pair of simple white cotton panties. Underneath my white tank top was a black tube top which was clearly visible. My hair was pulled back into a simple ponytail and I had just the minimum makeup on. A pair of pink sneakers finished off the ensemble.

Actually, each piece had been selected with a specific motive in mind. The skirt, of course, was for easy access. I learned early on that trying to get a pair of jeans off in a theater could be quite a challenge! The white panties were for John's sake - lending that "little girl" imagine to me that was enhanced by the pony tail and light makeup. I could have gone braless under the tank top, letting my nipples show through instead of the tube top.

Instead, the tube top lent a little bit naughtiness to the look, clearly visible yet saying he had to work a bit if he wanted my boobs. The sneakers were actually functional in that it was a lot easier to squat down in front of him in the theater with those than it would have been with heels (like I would ever touch my knees to those filthy floors!).

Suddenly I felt a tingle in my pussy as I imagined John pressing up against my panties, then moving them aside to explore my wet pussy. I closed my eyes and stood there with my hand pressed up against my crotch, feeling the warmth that was building up. Although I had masturbated earlier this morning, it had still been a few days since John had fucked me last and I was feeling a bit anxious.

As much as I loved touching myself, nothing beat the feel of a real dick in you. Several of my friends were still virgins and I often marveled at how they could deny themselves. God, if I regretted anything it was I waited as long as I had!

With a half hour or so until John was due, I figured why waste the time? I got on top my bed and laid back against my pillow. Soon my hand was back between my legs and rubbing my clit through my panties. This was silly - John wasn't here so the heck with the stupid panties! I pulled them down to my ankles and let my knees spread apart. My fingers moved through my pubic hair, spreading it apart to reach my clit and pussy slit. God it felt so good! For the next ten or fifteen minutes, I played with myself, imagining it was John touching me, licking me, even fucking me.

When I finally came, I plunged my fingers into me as far as I could reach, remembering how good it had felt the last time John had fucked me and driven his dick in me as far as he could when he came in me. John loved the fact I let him fuck me without a condom. He claimed I was the first girl he had ever actually cum inside of as all the rest of them made him wear a condom.

When people discuss the pros and cons of condoms, the conversation seems to always dwell on the guy such as the loss of sensation. How come nobody cares about the girl? When a guy cums in a rubber he may as well not cum at all so far as the girl is concerned. I want to feel his sperm spew into me, feel the gentle warmth as he fills me with his hot cum. John loved it as well and so he came in my pussy most of the time with the only exceptions being when I was blowing him somewhere where he couldn't fuck me.

As I laid there with my heart pounding, the afterglow of my orgasm still burning inside of me, I became aware of what else was going on around me. Our house is fairly old with hardwood floors that squeak if so much as a mouse runs across them it seems. I could have sworn someone was in the hallway. My bedroom door was wide open, as it usually was, so I called out to find out who was out there.

"Someone out there?"

I expected it to me my mom so I was a bit surprised when my dad poked his head around the corner.

"Just me baby," he said with a smile. "I take it you're going out with John tonight?"

I nodded and he just shook his head and laughed softly.

"And you couldn't wait another thirty minutes?"

"Dad!!" I protested, trying to sound innocent but obviously caught with my panties down – literally.

It wasn't like he had never seen me nude or masturbating before. Now don't get me wrong, I don't run around the house nude or put on masturbation shows for my dad, but at the same time I don't hide it when I do it either. The same went for my parents. Although I have never seen them actually having sex, masturbation isn't something they hide and nudity, when appropriate, is OK.

"You know, I don't understand why you don't just spend the evening here. I would think your bed has got to be a LOT more comfortable than wherever you're going to be doing it tonight."

"John still gets nervous about it Dad," I tried to explain. "God, if he knew you watched us sometimes I think he would shrivel up and never get hard again!"

We both laughed and he came in to give me a quick hug. Actually, it made me feel secure to have sex with my parents home. At least I knew nothing bad was going to happen to me with my dad surreptitiously checking in now and then.

"Don't forget your panties!" he teased me as he left my room.

I just pretended to be shocked that he would even say such a thing which just made him laugh all the more at me. Actually, he was right and so I pulled them back up and then got out of bed to check myself again in the mirror after my little bit of self-indulgence.

3. Sex in the Parking Lot

John soon picked me up and we had a great night. The theater was pretty full which somewhat limited what I could do to him. In the end, he had to settle for just a hand job as it would've been all but impossible to get down and suck him without drawing undue attention to us. Not that he complained! John groped me the entire movie as much as he could get away with and by the time the movie was over my pussy was soaking wet with the anticipation of his dick in it.

Once the movie was over, no sooner were we back in his car than I was leaning over for his zipper with the intent of attacking his cock right then and there.

"Whoa!" John exclaimed, "I guess somebody's horny as hell."

"Oh just shut up," I muttered, trying to get his zipper down but for some reason having a heck of a time getting it started.

"Why don't we get in the back so that console's not in your way?" he offered.

I was getting frustrated with his zipper and lack of help as well so I just huffed and threw the door open, almost hitting some poor woman walking her kids back to their car. I smiled at her and apologized and as soon as she turned away I opened the rear door and hopped in, all ready to go. John was close behind, entering from the other side and closing his door behind him.

"Take those damn jeans off," I demanded, "God, I've never had so much trouble with a guy's zipper before!"

John just grinned at me, apparently amused for some reason at my frustration. My pussy was killing me! It needed some attention and soon. Meanwhile, John had pulled his jeans off along with his underwear and was sitting back in the seat with just his shirt on which, for the moment at least, was covering his dick from view. The lighting was poor where John had parked, which I doubted was just a coincidence on his part, but I could see enough to reach over and grab his cock under his shirt tails. I was pleased to find him hard and ready to go!

"God, I've been wanting to suck this all night," I murmured as I leaned over and took the head in my mouth. John immediately let out a slight groan and I knew he had been wanting the same thing.

"Mmmmmmm, you like my mouth on your dick, don't you?" I teased him, holding his hard cock in my and while I looked up into his eyes with my mouth next to his dick.

"You know damn well I do!" he retorted. "Now quit yakking and suck it. If you want me to fuck you, then you'd better suck my cock good."

Somehow I doubted that anything I did, or didn't do, wouldn't deter him from fucking me before the night was over but I indulged his ego. I kneeled on the back seat, bent over his dick with my ass up in the air, sucking his cock like it was a hot day and I had to lick a popsicle to keep it from dripping.

"Oh yeah, that's the way I like it," John groaned as I sucked hard on his cock.

His hand managed to wander over my back and down to my ass, lifting my skirt and grabbing my ass through my panties.

"I don't know why you bothered wearing these tonight," he complained, working my panties down my butt and thighs to my knees, "Since when do you wear them anyway?"

I just let him grumble as I worked on his cock. He plunged his finger into my pussy and I almost bit into his cock as the sudden release of pleasure it created in me overwhelmed me. I wiggled my ass with his finger in me, trying to tell him I liked it without taking his cock from my mouth.

"Cum in my mouth," I said quickly, releasing his dick just long enough to beg for his cum.

His cock tasted so good in my mouth! Having it in my hand for most of the past hour or so without being able to even so much as suck it had been as much torture for me as it probably was for him. On second thought, I was the one who suffered the most as he at least got to cum! All I could do was lick his cum off my hand afterwards. It was like waving a steak in front of a dog and not letting her have a taste except to like what was left on your fingers!

John moaned even louder when I took his entire dick in my mouth until my face was pressed against his crotch. I wiggled my head around it, letting my tongue press against it as I held it there for as long as I could hold my breath. I loved the feeling of his smooth shaft as it slid along my lips when I raised my head back up again. I tried to pause a second to catch my breath but John wouldn't have any of that.

"Don't stop NOW for God's sake," he groaned, "Almost there...just a little more...hurry up and put it in your mouth!"

Well, that was a little understated as it turned out. No sooner did I get his cock back about half-way in my mouth than his dick erupted like a fountain spewing fireballs at a Fourth of July fireworks show. My lips tightened around his pulsing shaft, trying to keep every drop of his warm salty sperm in my mouth. Overall I was largely successful as only a little bit leaked past and dribbled down my chin.

John's finger was still up my pussy but as he had neared his orgasm he had just held it there with his hand gripping my ass. With everything happening in the last few minutes I had almost forgotten he had it in me until he came and his grip tightened on my butt. I felt his finger twist in me which only served to remind me what I REALLY wanted from John tonight.

I went to sit up and he pulled his finger out of me. Turning sideways on the seat, I had my legs wrapped under me with my panties still holding my knees together. I probably should have just pulled them off altogether but I hoped it would turn John on to see them partially on me. I looked at him and opened my mouth, careful not to let his load of cum escape. There wasn't much I could say with a mouthful of cum so I just smiled as he looked at his sperm pooled on my tongue. Closing my mouth, I took a big swallow and got most of it down with the rest disappearing with the second effort. I opened my mouth to show him it was empty and he just sighed.

"Damn, you really do like that stuff, don't you?" he asked. I could tell from the tone of his voice that HE certainly didn't, or least didn't even like the thought of tasting it.

"I don't know, I guess it's pretty good once you get used to it," I replied with a grin, "Actually I like the process of GETTING it the best."

"Well, I think I can handle THAT," he said with a little laugh.

"Ummmmm, didn't I just say to shut up?"

John started to say something again but the look on my face shut him up this time. He just shook his head and grabbed me by the shoulders, pushing me back into the rear corner of the backseat so my head was supported by the door and cushion. John lifted my legs up onto the seat and pulled my panties down around my ankles and then threw them in the front seat.

"Like I said, I don't know why you even bother wearing them," he laughed. I started to say something but he put his fingers to my lips and said, "I know, I know... shut up and fuck you."

THAT was better. FINALLY he was getting the picture. I dropped one leg over the side of the back seat and raised the other one to the top of the seat back. Actually, except for my panties I was still fully dressed! John still had his shirt on but it was no match for his erect cock as it poked out and through the shirt tails.

Reaching out for his dick, I grabbed him as he worked his way into position. It was a little awkward at first as he tried to balance himself but I held his cock to my pussy hole and waited for him to push it in. His cock head was pressing against my pussy as it practically screamed for him to come inside. Fingers are only good for when you don't have a dick available!

I heard him take a deep breath and just as I could feel him beginning to push harder, voices came in from somebody right next to us. John froze and I strained my head to see over his shoulder to see if I recognized anyone. Although we both had enough clothes on now to hide anything naughty from view, our position would have been hard to take for anything other than what it was - two teens fucking in the back seat!

"Ignore them," I pleaded, "Come on... fuck me dammit."

Let's see... teenage horny boy with huge erection has choice between worrying about people outside the car or following the directions of his girlfriend who is insisting that he fuck her. Like there was a decision to be made here! Once again I felt the pressure of his cock head between my legs and finally my pussy relented and opened for him. His dick head slipped in and was quickly followed by the remaining portion of his shaft until I felt his crotch pressed up against mine with his long curly pubic hair smashed against my fuzzy pussy.

"That's so much better," I moaned softly as he held himself still inside of me. My pussy gripped his shaft, holding onto him as if it never wanted to release it. "God you feel so good inside of me!"

As he started to stroke himself in my pussy, I reached down and toyed with my clit, rubbing it in tight circles with my fingertips. My other hand cupped my boobs through my tube top, squeezing my nipples between my fingers. After being so horny for the past couple of hours, this wasn't going to take long!

"Ohhhhhh John," I moaned, "Make me cum... Make me cum so hard."

John was pumping me harder and faster, oblivious to the outside world even though several times we heard voice of people as they walked by the car. If any of them saw anything they played it pretty straight as we never had a single instance where somebody challenged what we were doing.

My pussy exploded and my cum gushed over his cock as my orgasm struck hard. It was incredibly intense although short-lived. My pussy squeezed down so hard on John's cock he actually begged me to let up on it a little but I wasn't listening that closely. All that existed or me at that moment was between our legs - his cock inside of my pussy.

"Oh... my... god," I moaned as it seemed it would never end. "Feels so good! Fuck me John... fuck me more!"

Gradually the feeling in me died down and I laid still, feeling John's cock throbbing in me. He had pause while I was cumming, watching me cum and listening to me tell him how I felt. Seeing that I was about over my orgasm, he started pumping his cock in me again, in and out, in and out, using a steady even motion with all the relentlessness of an oil rig. It was just pure fucking, plain and simple. Nothing fancy, no weird positions, neither of us saying a word, just his cock inside of me.

Again I heard another group of people approaching but this time John didn't stop but instead just kept fucking me slow and steady. It was almost like he was pacing himself, seeing how long he could fuck me before cumming. I could see the shadows of the people on the windows as they walked by and I couldn't help but wonder what they would say if they knew what was happening inside the car they were walking by. Then, maybe they DID know and were just ignoring us. What if it was someone we knew, someone who might recognize John's car?

Amazingly, John kept fucking me and I was starting to wonder if he would cum again. Not that I wanted him to stop. There was something unique about what he was doing to me now. Most of the time he fucked me it was a lot of furious movement followed by a rapid climax. This was more like a nice backrub, a slow but steady series of pleasurable sensations that coursed thought me like waves emanating from my pussy. Frankly, he could have gone on all night and I wouldn't have minded! But that wasn't to be the case.

"Oh god I'm gonna cum soon," he groaned, the first words he had said to me since he started fucking me. He started to shift his weight as if he wanted to pull out of me but that wasn't part of my plan.

"Stay in me John," I whispered to him, just loud enough for him to hear me over his panting and the slapping sound of his cock as it slid in and out of me. "I want you to cum inside of me."

As much as I loved the taste of his cum, nothing gave me more satisfaction than when he came inside of me. There is something emotionally fulfilling about having a male emptying his sperm in me, almost like he is mating me. Of course being on the pill eliminates any possibility of that being fulfilled, but the concept is still exciting. There is also the simple matter of it feels good. Depending on the size of the load and who knows what internal factors, I can feel it release in me as a sensation of warmth within my lower abdomen. It fades away quickly but then is followed by another. It's hard for me to believe that the dick I see disappearing into my pussy is spewing sperm into my pussy and that is what I'm feeling!

Finally, I know guys love it when I tell them to cum in me. The reactions by both Steve and John when I first told them they could fuck me without a condom AND stay in me when they came were priceless! Apparently I was the first girl for either of them that willingly did it and I'm sure it enhanced my reputation when they talked about it with their friends.

"Ohhhhhh," was all John said as he shoved his cock deep in me and held it in as far as he could. I knew what THAT meant - he was getting reading to cum again.

"That's it John, cum in me," I encouraged him, "Fill my pussy with your sperm."

He groaned as his back arched and he laid his head back. Then released himself into me, shooting his load of sperm into me. I felt that familiar warm feeling inside of me as he slammed his hips into me over and over again. I didn't stop talking to him the entire time as I told him how good he felt in me, how I wanted him to fuck me over and over again. Finally he was finished and he fell forward against me, his arms barely keeping his weight off of me.

We laid together like that for what seems like an hour, his cock in me as it slowly dwindled, We kissed and touched, running our hands and fingers over the other. Finally he got up and my pussy had this strange sensation when his dick finally pulled out, as if it was empty or something like that and needing filling again. I could have gladly let him fuck me more if he had wanted but by now I think he had enough of me for one night.

"That was SO good," I murmured to him finally. He kissed me one last time and got up and off of me. John struggled to get his underwear and jeans back on. I decided to just leave my panties off as they would just get wet and full of cum otherwise as his sperm drained out of me so what was the point?

Once we were both ready, we each got out on opposite sides of the car and quickly moved to the front seat. I didn't notice anyone looking at us but if they had, it would have been pretty obvious what had been going on here, especially if my hair looked at all the way I was afraid it did. My purse was in the front seat so I pulled out a comb and tried to fix it up enough to be presentable.

The drive home was uneventful. Neither of us said much as I think we were both fairly overwhelmed by our evening so far. John walked me to the front door and gave me a good night kiss. As he kissed me his hand reached under my skirt and he cupped my pussy.

"John!" I protested, "What if the neighbors are watching?"

"Oh yeah, like you really care, 'Miss Exhibitionist'," he teased me, "Or how about, 'Miss I Walk Around Wearing Next to Nothing'."

"Well, still," I replied lamely. What could I say, it wasn't like I was a prude or anything. I'm sure the neighbor boys - and dads, would enjoy the view.

John gave my pussy a final little pat and returned to his car. My parents were still up when I went in and my dad stopped by my bedroom after I had undressed and gotten in bed.

"Well, well, so did my little slut enjoy herself?" he teased me. "How many times did you make him cum?"

"Oh Daddy, you know better than to ask that!!" I protested. If I only had a nickel for every time I've had to respond to him that way!

My dad just chuckled and said, "Well, I guess I'll just have to wait until you tell your mom about it so she can tell me."

I rolled my eyes dramatically but I knew he was right. Since my very first date I'd always given my mom a detailed 'report? on my dates as soon as I got home. She was even the first to be told after I lost my virginity! I didn't mind that she told my dad everything. A few times I had tried telling him directly but it got a little surreal seeing him get hard hearing about his own daughter's date! Sometimes he would make little remarks like he had just now but in general, he didn't ask me much about my sex life, more like a little tease now and then.

"You know, you should invite him along to the lake tomorrow."

"Really? Can I?" I asked incredulously. My dad had never offered to let any other boys come along on one of our lake trips before so apparently he must like John. This was SO cool!

"Sure, I'll take care of your mom, so don't worry about her."

THAT was a help. It wasn't so much my dad that limited who got invited but rather my mom. I guess it was one thing for her daughter to go out and get laid by her boyfriend but inviting him along so he could do me didn't seem to thrill her. Well, if my dad approved of it I was sure he could convince my mom.

"Thanks Daddy!" I exclaimed, jumping out of bed and hugging him. Of course I was nude, just as I always am in bed since I was around twelve. It didn't bother me for him to see me naked After all, I WAS his daughter so what was the big deal? It certainly didn't seem to bother him as he never averted his eyes or seemed embarrassed to look at me! My dad hugged me back and then playfully spanked my on my bare bottom.

"Well, you two had better behave yourself tomorrow - don't make me regret this!"

I couldn't wait to call John. His parents must have wondered why I would be calling so late but I wanted to be sure to catch him before he got up and went off to do something. He didn't seem as thrilled about it as I thought he might, especially when I told him we would be going with my parents (like duh, how else would we get the boat there?). In the end he did exactly what I knew he would - he agreed. Boys are SO predictable!

Back in bed, I had a hard time getting to sleep as I imagined all the things I would love to do with John the next day. Most of them were pure fantasy - nude waterskiing, doing it on the boat with my parents watching, and so forth. While these sort of things would never happen for real, at the same time I had a few more realistic expectations. I mean, it would be a darn shame to spend an entire day wearing my skimpy bikini, flirting with John and not get laid somewhere along the line!

4. Driving to the Lake

The next morning I woke up horny as hell. Actually, it's nothing unusual for me to wake that way. By nature I am a "night? person, preferring to stay up late and sleeping in late (apologies to Ben Franklin). Yet for whatever reason, my body seems to be naturally at its horniest (is that a word?) when I first wake up. As a result, more often than not I find myself masturbating before the sleep is even out of my eyes and this morning was no different. If anything, my "need? was even more intense as I recalled my agenda for the day!

Once THAT was out of the way, I took care of my morning bathroom rituals and got dressed for the day. My first dilemma of the day was deciding which bikini to wear (hey, it's really not that easy making these kind of decisions!). I had several, each more or less geared towards a specific event or location. For anything to do with church, I had a conservative number that was more 'two- piece? than bikini. Actually, even that was pretty liberal as not too many years ago they allowed only one piece suits!

At the other extreme of the bikini sluttiness rating scale was my tanning bikini. I only wear this one out on our private deck as the public pool dress code required SOME material other than string to cover your ass. Finally I picked out my one of my favorites, a jet black bikini which showed off my figure but at the same time somehow managed to cover all the "required" areas.

Slipping on the bikini, I tied the halter strings behind my neck and then the waist strings. Over the bottoms I added a pair of white shorts that were extremely short but still looked classier than my cutoffs. I pulled my hair back into a ponytail again as it was easier to ski with it out of the way. The bikini top was enough, at least for this situation. No point in covering myself any more than necessary.

By now my mom was yelling up the stairs for me to get going. Just as I got down to the driveway, John pulled up and as he approached I loved the way his eyes roamed over me. If he wasn't careful he was going to be sporting an erection though his bathing suit! Not that I would have minded but I am sure it would've embarrassed him in front of my parents (although I bet my mom would have gotten a kick out it). We all piled in the SUV and headed out to the storage barn where we kept the boat.

Soon we were on our way and for the next hour or so it was mom and dad in front with John and me in back seat. John was sitting behind my dad so I scooted over to the middle so I could be next to him. My parents tried to get John engaged in light conversation but he was shy with them around and so eventually they gave up and resigned themselves to talking to each other for the rest of the trip. That was OK with me as I snuggled up next to John, taking his arm and wrapped it around my neck. He seemed hesitant at first, resting his hand on the seat back instead of on me as I had hoped.

Looking down at John's crotch, my mind painted a mental picture of his cock hiding underneath. Then I thought, why just imagine it when it was right there waiting for me? My parents were yakking about something or another, not paying any attention to us, so I took advantage of the situation. It wasn't that I was worried about my parents? reaction, they would probably have encouraged us, it was John that I was worried about. Face it, most guys aren't accustomed to playing around with a girl while her parents are in the car with them.

When I placed my hand squarely on his crotch, John looked down at me with his eyes wide open and I could see from the look on his face that he wasn't sure if I was just teasing him or being serious. He soon got his answer when I started to rub my hand in little circles and grinned mischievously at him.

"Kelly, what are you doing?" he whispered to me.

"Don't worry, they can't see anything," I whispered back.

"You say something Kelly?" my called back. She didn't turn around to try to look back at us, thankfully, and the big front seats in the SUV served as a pretty good shield anyway.

"No mother, we were just talking," I responded which seemed to satisfy her and she went back to chatting with my dad.

I turned sideways, curling my bare legs and feet under me on the seat. My right hand was still massaging John's cock through his pants and despite his weak protests, I was definitely getting the response I was hoping for as the tent in his shorts slowly rose like there was a balloon under there being pumped full of air. His shorts had an elastic waist rather than a belt and zipper which made them easily accessible. I wondered if that was that a deliberate choice by him or just my lucky day? I slipped my hand under the elastic and he quickly put his hand over mine to try and stop me from going any further.

"Kelly... your parents!" he whispered, looking towards the front seat with his eyes.

I responded by giving him one of my classic eye rolls and shook his hand off mine. What he didn't know was that my parents wouldn't have turned around unless I asked them to. Indeed, John had no idea how much they knew about our relationship. My parents were cool enough to be discreet when necessary and this was one of those times when it was necessary. Personally, I thought it was pretty hot knowing I could do just about anything with him and not worry about "getting caught? whereas he was clueless about the real situation.

Taking a break from my "assault? on Mount Dick, I took his hand that he had draped over my shoulder and pulled it down to my breasts. Placing the palm of his hand over my nipple, I pressed his hand against my boob. Given it was barely covered by my bikini top, it was almost like getting a feel of my bare breast. Instinctively he started to pull away but I held him tightly and finally he conceded and started to squeeze my boob. Good boy! Really, how many boys can say no when a girl put his hand on her boob, regardless of where they were at the moment?

Actually, I could have just stayed the way we were now, me leaning up against him with my head on his shoulder, my feet curled under me. I felt secure with John's arm around me while his strong hand cupped my boob. It reminded me of when we first started seeing each other and we would make out on his parent's couch. I loved the way he tentatively moved his hands over me, trying to see just how far he could go before I said no. He soon learned that word wasn't in my vocabulary, at least not when I was being groped by a boy!

Meanwhile, my hand was back under the elastic waistband of his shorts and moving downward. My fingertips encountered the start of his pubic hair and I paused while I let them run through it to tease him a bit. It felt so curly and coarse and I could just imagine the cock that was surrounded by it! Pushing my hand down further, I touched the tip of his cock head and then the shaft. Gripping his dick in my hand, I snuggled up against him and felt his grip on my boob tighten as he reacted to my touch.

We stayed in that position for most of the rest of the trip down there, John's hand on my boob and mine on his cock. I'm sure I could've pulled his shorts down and sucked him off without my parents saying a word; hell, I probably could have sat in his lap and let him fuck me! However, going that far would have probably raised some questions that were best left alone. Plus, I didn't want John to get the wrong impression and think that there was anything kinky between my parents and me. It was one thing for them to encourage me to have sex and enjoy myself, quite another to do it with them. There are some lines just don't get crossed, not even by me.

5. Out on the Boat

As my dad slowed for the exit to the state park, my mom shifted and started to turn around to face us. John's hand was off my boob instantly but I kept my hand under his shorts, not wanting to let go of his warm, hard dick.

"Well, we're about there!" my mom announced. If she noticed my wayward hand or misplaced bikini top, she didn't let on, much to John's relief, I'm sure.

I gave John's dick a little squeeze as if to say goodbye. It was only temporary though, as I was confident I'd be seeing a lot more of it before the day was done! I pulled my hand out from his shorts and straightened out my bikini top to cover my boob again. My dad pulled into the line for the boat launch which seemed to stretch out forever. As it looked like it would be quite a while before we launched, we all got out to stretch and get the boat ready. John went back to help my dad with the cover and straps while my mom and I looked on.

"Well, it looked like the two of you were having a good time on the way down here!" she giggled as she gave me a hug around the shoulders.

"Oh mom!" I responded but I couldn't keep the grin from appearing on my face.

"I have to give you credit though," she started out, pausing then as she waited for me to look at her with a questioning expression before she finished. "Holding on to his cock all that time and not sucking it must have been killing you!"

Mothers! What are you going to do about them? My mom knew how much I loved giving BJs and in fact, she and I had spent some considerable quality time together with her dildo collection as she gave me a few pointers and criticized my technique.

"Well, not that I didn't WANT to, but I think it would have freaked him out, Mom."

"Oh yeah, and I suppose he thinks your parents don't know he's screwing their daughter I bet."" she said with a bit of a laugh.

"Yeah, exactly," I giggled back at her.

Gradually the line went down. John and I took up a position near the boat launch and had a good time watching the fools trying to launch their boats. Someone should produce a reality show from this as it never ceases to amaze me how much people will spend on a boat and then be clueless as to how to use it. Watching them try to back their boat down the launch was priceless! Then there are the idiots who forget to put the drain plug in. One dummy even forgot the tie down straps! Oh well, it helped pass the time until finally my dad was next in line so we went down to help out. My dad backed the boat almost all the way in and then let my mom do the rest while he drove the boat off the trailer (needless to say, he wouldn't let me have a hand in backing it in given my total inability to comprehend mirrors!).

With the boat launched successfully, my mom pulled the trailer out of the water and drove off to park while John and I jumped on board and waited for her to return. Now that we were in the boat, I immediately pulled my shorts off, revealing my tiny bikini bottom to John. It was the first time he'd seen me in this particular bikini as I wouldn't dare wear it at the public pool. It made me tingle all over the way his eyes focused like a laser on my all but bare ass! Of course he'd seen it plenty of times before but there's just something different about showing it off in public. What really amused me was that even my dad couldn't help but take a look for himself and he saw me around the house and in our hot tub all the time.

My mom returned in a few minutes and once she was in the boat my dad took us out into the middle of the lake to get things started. My mom peeled off her top and shorts and I just shook my head as John's eyes wandered her way. My mom was getting close to her forties but she could still turn heads! Frankly, I just hope I looked as good as her in a bikini twenty years from now. I knew she liked to show off a bit and I was sure she knew that John was getting an eyeful from the way she sat and crossed her legs in front of him.

For the next couple of hours we boated around the lake and did some water skiing. An avid snow skier, John had never been on water skis before and he wanted to try. After a couple of nasty falls and dunkings he said the heck with it and switched to a tube. We had brought two of them and so we both had a great time "fighting? each other as we tried to knock each other off our tubes. I usually won, although I think he let me in a few cases, but there was one time when he got me good and I flew off my tube and somersaulted over the water's surface. All in all though, it was a lot of fun. John professed to be impressed at my slaloming skills but I think he just liked watching me in my bikini being pulled by the boat!

By now we were all getting a bit tired and hungry so my dad headed back to the marina to fuel up and have some lunch. My mom had packed a picnic lunch so we walked over to the beach area where there were some picnic tables that were still available. It took about a half hour or so to eat lunch after which my dad set up some lawn chairs, announcing his intention to "let his food settle? which was just his way of saying he wanted to take a nap. My mom wanted some sun herself so she took another chair and set it out of the shade overlooking the beach.

6. The Beach

"Hey, why don't you two go swimming?" my mom suggested.

I looked down at the beach and saw it was pretty crowded. There was a floating dock in the deeper section where you could dive off but that was practically filled with people. Kids seemed to be everywhere although I did see a few teens and adults walking around, most of which probably had kids or brothers and sisters in the water that they had to keep an eye on. I frowned and looked at John.

"Well, I don't know, looks pretty crowded."

"What the heck, let's try it. Looks like fun!" John responded. He was certainly a lot more enthusiastic about the idea than I was. Frankly, I would have rather gone off to somewhere more private and had some fun of a different sort!

Outnumbered, I shrugged and gave in as it really didn't make that big of a difference one way or the other to me for the moment. I was confident that sooner or later we would do it so this was just a temporary setback. My mom mentioned the air mattress in the back of the SUV and so John ran back to the parking lot to get it. Fortunately my dad had blown it up before we left home so it was ready to go when he got back.

"Ready?" John asked. He really DID seem to be looking forward to this, although for the life of me I didn't understand why. I enjoyed sunning at the beach but I was a few years past the stage where swimming around in the dirty lake water gave me any special thrills.

As we made our way down to the beach, we passed several families having picnics of their own. Of course most of the guys turned their heads as I walked by as I probably had the skimpiest bikini around at the moment. John must have noticed them as well because he held my hand and pulled me a little closer to him. Inside I felt sort of special, like I was part of some tribal ritual. It wasn't so much he was protecting me as he was showing off to the other males, letting them know I was his.

Personally, I thought it was sort of cute. At least he wasn't pulling me along by my hair!

Before long we were out in the warm water up to our knees. I dropped down on the air mattress and stretched out on my stomach with my arms hanging over the sides to move myself along. With just the strings of my bikini showing and the little thong barely covering any of my ass, someone might have thought I was nude at first glance. I looked up on the beach and waved to my mom to see if she was watching us. She must have been since she waved back almost immediately.

John grabbed my ankles and pushed me out into deeper water. As the water got past his waist and covered his shorts, his hands released my ankles started instead to stroke my bare leg up and down between my ankles and about mid-thigh. He didn't get as close to my ass as I would've liked but it felt good all the same. As time went by, he got more little adventurous and his hands moved up a little further until finally he brushed up against my almost bare bottom.

"John!" I exclaimed, pretending to be self-conscious, "There are little kids right over there who can see you!"

"Who cares," he shrugged, "Let them get their own girl!"

We both laughed and then without warning he flipped me over and dunked me. I made it back to my feet and pushed him backwards and before long we were pushing and shoving playfully. He had the advantage since the water was up higher on me than him since he was taller but I still managed to hold my own. Somewhere along the line his hand grabbed my ass and he gave it a good squeeze.

"Damn you've got a fucking great ass," John sighed. He looked around to see if anybody was paying attention to us but it didn't look as if anyone cared what we were doing. By now we were in pretty deep and I was almost up to my neck so it wasn't like anyone could tell see he was doing anyway.

"So you like my butt, eh?" I teased him, wiggling it in his hand.

"Damn right I do, and I love to play with it!"

"Well, am I stopping you?" I teased him. "I don't recall saying no or anything like that."

John turned to me and kissed me briefly as he looked me in the eyes and replied, "Tell me Kelly, do you EVER said no?"

Well, not often, especially when it came to sex. True, most guys I sucked didn't get to fuck me and even those were told a few things were off-limits but I would have say that in general, I'm a pretty accommodating girl!

Anyway, what was good for the goose was good for the gander so I reached underwater to his crotch and grabbed his dick through his shorts. His shorts were loose and baggy, making it easy to get a grip on what was becoming a sizeable erection inside.

"Ha! I think somebody's horny," I said in a sing-song taunting style.

"Well, what do you expect after watching you run around all but naked all day? he huffed. "God, I can't believe your parents let you wear this suit in public!"

I smiled because he had no idea what I was thinking just then. Gee whiz, if he thought THIS bikini was risque, he should see the one I wear when I tan on our deck, the one my dad calls "Kelly's little slut bikini?. The first time my dad saw me in it I thought his mouth would never be able to close again from the way it dropped open. My mom had actually picked it out for me and I sometimes wonder if she didn't do it just to tease my dad!

"Hey, were you checking out my mom today?" I teased him. John seemed a little embarrassed by that and even with all the sun he'd been exposed to today, he still looked a little redder in the cheeks.

"It's OK," I assured him, "I know she's a MILF."

"Kelly, how can you call her that? She's your mom for crying out loud," John protested. I just laughed harder and grinned up at him.

"Oh don't pretend to be so innocent," I chastised him. "She looks good and she likes to show it off a bit. No harm in that, is there? Oh, and in case you're interested you should know she loves my dad and hasn't ever cheated on him - not even once,"

"Uhhhhh, I never said I wanted to do anything with her!" John quickly pointed out.

I laughed and gripped his cock a little tighter as if to make my point.

"Well, you better not!" I said sternly, "I'm the only girl in my house you get to fuck! Speaking of which..."

John grinned and this time he certainly DID know what I was thinking about. Obviously the feeling was mutual - we both wanted him to fuck me.

"Hmmm, you know anywhere around here we can do it?" he asked, his eyes sweeping the park area.

Suddenly an idea formed in my mind, a naughty idea, a REALLY naughty idea. A couple of kids passed by on inner tubes and once they were well away from us I turned to John and grinned broadly at him. We'd been going out long enough for him to recognize that smile.

"Uh oh, now what nasty thoughts are running though that pretty little head?"

"Don't move," was all I said in reply. Taking a deep breath, I dropped down under the water where I reached for his shorts and with one pull, dragged them down to his knees. Caught by surprise, he started to reach for them but I already had his cock in my hand with my other arm around his legs which I used to pull me closer to him so I could take his stiff cock in my mouth. I can't say the taste of his cock mixed with lake water was the best concoction I'd had in a while, but at this point, who cared! I sucked it for a few seconds and came back up to get some air.

"Shit Kelly, what the hell are you doing?" John hissed at me as I caught my breath. He reached down and pulled his shorts back up again. "For crying out loud, there are people all around us!"

"And your point is..."" I responded, pretending not to have a clue what he was talking about.

"Well, you just can't DO that here!"

"Oh... and why not?" I teased him, giving him my best innocent little girl look and tone of voice.

"Well, what if someone figures out what we're doing?"

"Maybe if you would just shut up and do me without making such a fuss, they might not."

"Wait a minute," he said, a look of comprehension appearing, "You mean you want me to FUCK you? Here? Now?"

"Sure, why not?"

"Someone will see us," he repeated himself, "Shit, if nobody else does, your mom's watching."

"Oh? And what makes you think she doesn't know you've been screwing her daughter?"

"I guess I really never thought about it is all," he said lamely. "I just assumed she didn't."

"My mom's not stupid, you know," I chastised him, "I mean, who do you think took me to the gyno to get me on the pill in the first place?"

He started to respond but I'd had enough of this already. I wanted to be fucked, not debate it.

"So, you gonna do me or not?" I demanded. It was a silly question as there was absolutely no doubt in my mind what he would say. In my first year of having sex, I hadn't met a guy yet who said "no? when I offered myself to him!

"C'mon John, you mean you wouldn't fuck her if you could?"

"The only girl on this beach I want to fuck is you," he said quietly. I sensed a little frustration in his voice and dropped the banter about the little girl. I was just teasing him and I didn't want to get him upset, not now at least! I knew he was saying that just because he thought it was what I wanted to hear but I knew better from the way he kept glancing her way.

I suddenly gasped as he pulled his finger out of me and started rubbing my clit. I was so damn horny I almost came right then and there. Sure it was crazy to be out here in the middle of the swimming area with my bikini bottoms in my hand and my boyfriend's finger toying with my exposed clit under the water. On the other hand, it was incredibly erotic to have all these people around me and not one of them knowing what John was doing to me - or about to do if I had anything to say about it.

"I want you to fuck me now," I whispered to him, just high enough for him to hear me over the screams and cries of the crowd.

"You really sure about that?" John questioned me. Sheesh, what was it with him? You would think it would be the boy pushing the girl to do it and that she would be the one who was cautious, not the other way around!

"Dammit John, I've been waiting all day... are you going to fuck me or not?" I demanded, getting a little frustrated. My pussy was practically cramping it needed a cock so badly and while his finger felt good, it just wasn't doing the job. "Geeze, I never thought I'd ever have to beg you to screw me!"

"Shit, you really DO want it bad, don't you?" he said, as if he hadn't really understood my "condition? before this point.

"Well duh!" I replied, rolling my eyes and letting out a melodramatic huff. It was beyond "wanting? it - I NEEDED it. If I had to go back to the shore without having his dick in me first, I might just scream with frustration!

John looked around for what must have been the hundredth time before bending down and lowering his shorts. I really couldn't see what he was doing through the dark lake water but hopefully he was only dropping them enough to free his dick as it would have been embarrassing for him if he lost them.

"OK, help me out here," he whispered as he nestled in behind me.

I could feel his bare crotch pressed up against my ass and his cock between my legs like I was riding some fleshy pole. I reached down between my legs to move his cock to the correct position to enter me. Having never done it in a lake before, I had no idea what exactly to expect but I figured it would be similar to getting fucked in our family hot tub - something John had done to me several times already.

FYI to any girls interested in doing this - lake water doesn't lubricate nearly as well as your natural pussy juices! His cock pushed hard as he struggled to force his way into me and I grimaced just a bit. God, it was almost like being a virgin again! Finally his cock head pierced me and then it was as if he was splitting my hips apart as his dick spread open my pussy.

Thankfully, once he was in me the pain disappeared and from then on all I could think about was his wonderfully hard cock working its way up inside of me. As he pushed it in his shaft rubbed against the walls of my pussy, stimulating me and sending out intense feelings of pleasure throughout my entire body. Fortunately, the water was holding me up as my legs felt weak under me and had I been standing on shore I might have dropped to my knees.

"Oh god John, that's it," I encouraged him, "Fuck me deeper... push it in me... I want it all the way in me!"

Between the force of fucking me and the buoyancy of the water, John literally lifted me off my feet. My hands gripped the air mattress tightly for support as my feet dangled unsupported as I was held up, literally impaled on his cock. Now that he was in me things went smoother and he shoved his cock deeper into me until his crotch was up against my bare ass. Once there, he held himself still in me as we both paused to take in the moment.

"Mmmmmmm, this is so HOT!" I exclaimed, gripping his cock tight with my pussy as two little boys went swimming by with their arm floats on.

"Damn, I can't believe I'm fucking you... right in the middle of all these kids!" John muttered to me.

"Well, are you just going to stand there with your dick in me or what?" I whispered back, rotating my ass against his groin as best I could without falling off the air mattress.

John held onto my hips and pushed me forwards in the water which caused his dick to pull out of me and then he pulled me back to push himself back in again. The air mattress was making little waves ahead of me as I slowly went back and forth over the surface of the water. It wasn't exactly the most thrilling technique or style, but under the circumstances I certainly wasn't going to complain.

In any case, it wasn't the actual fucking he was giving me that was turning me nearly so much as the fact he was fucking me with at least a hundred people within earshot of us! Granted they didn't know what we were doing but the point was they COULD and that's what was getting me off.

My mom was still watching us from the picnic area and though we were quite a ways away, I had a feeling she knew what was really happening, more so than the rest of the people on the beach. I waved at her while John slowly stroking himself in and out of me, wishing I could just call out and tell her what he was doing to me. I just hung on to the air mattress as John did most of the work.

It had to be a little awkward for him as he had to thrust his hips back and forth under the water without appearing to those above the water that he was fucking me. Face it, a guy doing a girl from behind has a pretty obvious look to it!

"Hey, what are you doing?" he exclaimed as he reaching for my arm to hold it down.

"I'm just waving at my mom. Why, something wrong?"

"I guess not... just seems weird," he muttered under his breath. Whether he was really concerned or not, who knew? What I DID know was that he didn't stop fucking me and THAT was what was the most important thing to me at the moment.

Just then moment a Frisbee hit the water about three feet in front of me and scooted over the surface directly towards me. A boy, maybe twelve or thirteen, was hustling toward us with the clear intention of recovering his Frisbee. John pulled out of me and I dropped to the lake bottom. Standing there in the water up to my chest, bare-ass with my bikini bottoms in hand, I kept my cool and reached forward to grab the Frisbee, almost exposing my nude ass in the process. I gave it a tossed towards the kid who caught it. He grinned at us and thanked me before turning around to swim off again. I wondered what he would have said had he known he had been close to a girl with a bare pussy than probably at any time of his life!

"Shit, that was too close," John sighed, standing next to me now, "God Kelly, this is really crazy you know."

"I don't care, why did you stop fucking me?" I asked.

"Kelly! The kid was right on top of us, what if he had dove down or something and seen us?"

Boys! They can be so stupid sometimes. Like the kid would've seen anything in this water anyway.

"Well he's gone," I declared, "So you just gonna stand there or what?"

"You really like being fucked, don't you?" John whispered to me as he got back behind me. This time he got himself in me unassisted and resumed fucking me.

almost there! I was about to cum and from the way it was building up it was going to be a good one!

A few more rubs on my clit and I leaned forward on the air mattress, almost forgetting myself and almost letting my ass float to the surface. Not that much less would be visible even if I HAD been wearing my thong, it was the principle of the matter. I bit my lip to keep from crying out as my orgasm struck me.

Even though I knew John was watching me, for the next few minutes it was if I was alone without a soul near me as it was just me and my raging pussy. My orgasm was brief but intense. Rather than taking my time and pacing myself like I would have had I been home in bed, I rubbed my clit furiously, forcing my orgasm to peak quickly. A few minutes later and the intensity level had already dropped significantly.

"Damn, that must have felt good," John observed. I couldn't speak but just smiled and nodded at him. I looked out at where my mom was sitting and wondered if she realized what had just happened. As many times as she had seen me masturbate, she certainly should have!

"Well, you ready to go back in now?" John asked.

Reluctantly I nodded and ducked under the water to pull my thong back on me again. Standing up, I straightened it out until I was as presentable as possible with so little material. I reached over and felt his dick through his shorts again. Damn, the guy was erect again!

"Ummmmm, John... isn't something poking out?" I asked innocently.

John sighed and gave me his patented "are you stupid? look I hated but I knew what he meant. Poor guy! As a girl I could get laid and afterwards just pull my thong back on and walk out of the water without anyone the wiser. It was going to take an act of God to get John's dick to go soft again! He appeared puzzled as to what he should do.

"Well, you could always fuck me again," I suggested mischievously.

"You'd like that, wouldn't you," he sighed as he shook his head in disbelief at my endless desire for sex. "I think we've pushed it about as far as we can, don't you?"

I pouted and licked my lips seductively at him but he just ignored me and looked around for the best way out.

"Why not just use the air mattress to hide yourself, silly!"

The light bulb went off in his head finally and he nodded. With that I started walking towards the beach with John in tow behind me. Sure enough, as we exited the water he held the air mattress strategically positioned to hide his bursting crotch as much as possible although I think a few girls still got a treat based on the way they looked at us. My thong was soaking wet, of course, so any of John's cum that might be draining from me wasn't going to be visible but my pussy still tingled sharply with the memory of his wonderful dick in me.

When we got back to the picnic area John dropped the air mattress but immediately went over to the cooler to grab something to drink - and no doubt to hide his still bulging crotch from my parents. My mom pulled me aside and grinned at me.

"Well, it certainly appeared that you two were having a good time out there."

"Ohhhhhh, I guess you could say something like that," I teased her. I knew she wanted to hear the details, just as she did after any date I went out on. Sometimes I'm convinced she is reliving her teenage years once again vicariously through me!

"I know what it looked like but you guys didn't really DO it, did you?"

I just grinned at her and her jaw dropped. Well, if nothing else it was good to see I could still surprise my mom now and then.

"Why you dirty little slut!" she said, putting one arm around me and hugging me. "I have to say, THAT"S something I've never done!" She looked at me with a naughty smile saying, "God, you must have been so turned on out there. I can't even imagine what it must have been like! Weren't you nervous at all someone might catch you?"

John returned as she was finishing up and I noted that his erection was down to where it just looked like he was well endowed. My mom pretended not to notice but I caught her glancing at him and then looking at me and winking. It made me wonder what my dad would say later when she told him. Who knows, maybe he and mom would be taking a dip themselves before the day was over!

Eventually the four of us went back out on the lake again for another couple of hours. John couldn't keep his eyes off my mom, especially her boobs. It actually made me a little jealous and a bit self-conscious as I knew her breasts were so much better than mine. At fifteen I still had the boobs of a thirteen year-old when I compared myself to my friends and seeing John's interest in my mom's breasts just made me all the more aware of my shortcomings in that department. Well, if nothing else, I had the better ass! My mom's wasn't nothing to sneeze at but still, she had twenty years of gravity working against her.

In some ways, I found John's interest in my mom a bit hilarious. Like, she is my MOM and I have never even fantasized about her being with anyone but my dad, let alone a boyfriend of mine who was less than half her age. And what is it with boys that makes them fantasize about older women anyway, especially when they have a girl like me dying for them to fuck her?

Speaking of my parents, I have never actually seen them fucking but my mom talked about it enough that I knew they enjoyed sex. At the same time, my parents have always had an extremely rigid stand when it comes to adultery. It was quite simple, they didn't do it, not even with each other's "permission?. I suppose people would think that given their attitudes about nudity and masturbation that they would enjoy mixing it up with other couples.

What these people need to understand is that my parents also have strict Christian values which means there was no way any extramarital sex was ever going to happen! There was also one side benefit that worked in situations like today – I didn't have to worry about my mom ever stealing a guy from me!

Finally we were worn out, having done probably even more than we could handle for one day My arms were tired from skiing and my legs felt like I'd just run a marathon. As a result, the drive home was about as uneventful as it could be. I fell asleep within a few minutes of hitting the expressway with my head on John's lap and my bare legs and feet stretched out on the back seat. There was a definite lump under my head and under different circumstances I would have probably turned and sucked him all the way home like a baby with a pacifier. Well, I knew it was always available to me so for now, sleep was more important.

7. Back Home Again

Later that night I'd been in bed no more than ten minutes when my dad knocked on the door frame and stepped into my darkened room.

"Yes daddy?" I asked, not quite sure what he wanted.

"Your mom just told me about your little adventure this afternoon," he said with a grin. "Were you just pulling her leg? Don't worry, I won't tell her, just curious is all."

Well, I didn't have to say anything as even in the dim light my big smile and the twinkle in my eye told him everything he needed to know.

"Damn, somehow I had a feeling you weren't," he said in a low voice, as if more to himself than to me. Then he perked up and looked at me with a more stern look on his face.

"Well, let me just say two things, little miss horny. First, I know it appealed to your slutty side and I'm sure it was thrilling to do it and not get caught, but did you ever think even ONCE about what might have happened if you HAD been nailed - I mean caught."

My smile dwindled as he went on. Really, about the LAST thing I had expected was a lecture from him. Usually he was turned on when he heard about my dates!

Then his stern face suddenly broke and he smiled broadly at me saying, "And I just want you to know, that was one of the hottest things I've heard about in a long time!"

It was then I noticed his boxers were sticking out. Damn, my dad had an erection going!

"Ummmmm, dad!" I snickered, pointing at his obvious condition. It was sort of weird seeing my dad sporting an erection while he was talking to me. Sometimes he got that way when we were in the hot tub but then it was easy to ignore him and I just chalked it up to the hot water and jets. After all, they got me horny as hell too!

Although I had seen him hard many times before when he masturbated, under the circumstances he seemed a little embarrassed that I had caught him this way and so he turned to go.

"Well, sorry about that but don't forget, your old man IS a guy too!" he said in a soft voice.

The tails of my pink blouse were tied up in front to convert it into a make-shift halter. It was completely unbuttoned so the knot was the only thing keeping it together and when I leaned forward it would pop open enough to where someone might think they could peek down and see my growing boobs. Well, at least a few of the boys thought so since they would turn around and walk past me again, this time slower and a lot closer with their eyes down, pretending not to be looking but doing all they could to get a peek at some teenage boobs. Of course I acted the entire time as though I was totally oblivious, letting them think they were getting away with something naughty.

Actually I was hoping that they got a good look so that they would masturbate that night thinking about me. I love the thought of a boy hiding in the bathroom with the door locked, jerking his hard cock while he dreams of fucking me while his sister is yelling at him to hurry up and asking what's taking so long. Finally he cums all over himself as he dreams of cumming in my open mouth just after I told him what a great cock he has and how badly I wanted him to fuck me.

I was getting hornier by the minute as I sat there thinking about how much power a girl like me has over a boy to make him do such an act. It wasn't the fact that they would be masturbating later that turned me on so much as they would be masturbating about ME. Having a guy look at me and get all hard and horny just from the sight of me, knowing nothing else about me but when he can assume from the way I look and dress, is one of the greatest compliments I can get. Yep, being a teenage girl is so cool!

My fantasies of hordes of young teenage boys masturbating about me was interrupted when I was startled by someone touching my shoulder from behind. John had finally returned and he had this excited look on his face. He sat down across from me and leaning forward, whispering to me in a conspiratorial tone, "Kelly, I just had a great idea. Let's do it in the men's room!"

What? I looked at him as if he was nuts and actually that's exactly what I was thinking. He saw my reaction so he kept talking. "Don't worry, there was nobody in there the whole time I was gone. Besides, we won't do it out in the open. There's this huge handicapped stall complete with handrails that has plenty of room for us to do it."

No matter how you sugar coat it we're still talking about the men's room and lord only knew when it was last cleaned. Although the concept was hot I just couldn't imagine doing it on a toilet. Uncertain how to respond, I remained silent with this "you must be high" look going and so he started to plead with me saying, "C'mon Kelly it'll be fun; a lot better than sitting out here teasing those poor boys!"

I blushed slightly as I realized how blatant my actions must have been. Damn, imagine what might have happened if someone like my pastor had walked by me? I looked at him as if I had no idea what he was talking about, causing John to laugh at my reaction.

"Don't even TRY to act all innocent with me girl. I was watching you for the last few minutes - and so were half the guys in the food court! You were loving it and you know it! God Kelly, you can be such a sexy slut when you turn it on."

I couldn't help but smile at his compliment but I had to shake my head in disbelief when it came to his wacky idea. Was he nuts or what? It wasn't the idea of doing it in a public place; heck, it was me after all that suggested doing it in the water at a crowded beach not too long ago. No, what concerned me the most was the idea of being fucked in a dirty men's room. Face it - men miss! The girl's room wouldn't be any better. It's downright disgusting what women will do out of fear of touching their butts to a public toilet seat!

Looking at my watch I saw we still had a good hour before we needed to get to the theater. My mind began to drift off as I dreamed of John's cock and what we might do during the movie, about how good it was going to feel to have him touch me and fondle me while we slid down into our seats in the darkened theater. Depending on the crowd I might blow him and if conditions were just right, maybe even let him fuck me.

I imagined him stroking in and out over and over again while the couple in front of us ate their popcorn, oblivious to what was going on right behind them. Would they notice the smell of my pussy as he played with me as it got wetter and wetter? Finally thoughts of him cumming in me, creating hot flashes that burst inside of me like fireworks going off as his sperm spewed out his sexy cock as it remained buried deep inside of my pussy. "Hey Kelly? You still there? Ummmmm, Earth to Kelly!"

My thoughts were interrupted as I realized I had drifted off into some erotic daydream. Damn, now I was even hornier than before! The need to be fucked was overwhelming me, like an addict needing her next fix. What the heck, why not go for it? I mean, how bad could it really be? It wasn't like I would be laying on the floor or anything. Before I could change my mind I stood up and took his hand. My grin as all he needed to know I what I wanted. As we left the table I turned to him, still shaking my head.

"You know Johnny boy, I can't believe I'm agreeing to go along with this. Heck, I've never even been IN a public men's room! All I can say is you'd better make damn sure nobody catches us!"

It was almost comical the way John had this huge grin on his face and from the obvious hard-on he was developing it was obvious that he was horny as well.

2. In the Restroom

John held my hand as we walked down the long hallway to where the restrooms were. At the moment there was nobody around so I stood outside the doors while John went in to check out the men's room. A few seconds later he opened the door and motioned with his hand for me to come in. One last look to be sure nobody saw me and then I quickly slipped inside and took a look around.

It felt weird to be in the men's side with the urinals all lined up. I was relieved to see that it looked quite clean and had apparently just been serviced since even the garbage cans were empty. John was standing by the last stall which had a double-wide door and a handicapped sign on it. It was huge! I guess it needed plenty of room for a wheelchair to move around plus it was lined with stainless steel rails. The walls went within two inches of the floor, which also made me feel a little more secure. I've been in some public restroom where all you had to do was lean over for a view of the woman next to you. This was much better in that I couldn't picture someone lying on the floor in a public bathroom just to peek in. Then again, we WERE in the men's room...

"Hurry up Kelly, get your cute little butt in here before someone comes in!"

The thought of some old geezer walking in and seeing me standing there was more than enough to get me moving and I scurried into the stall. Once I was in John shut and locked the door behind us. It took just one giggle to find out how the sound echoed off the tiled walls. John's eyes widened and he whispered to me, "Shhhhhh! Quit giggling! Anybody out there will be able to hear everything!"

I moved up close to John and put my arms around him. He was about six or seven inches taller than me and so I had to look up with my head back to see his face. It wasn't so bad when I was in heels but today it was just my sneakers and they didn't give any boost at all.

"Well... now that we're here what was it that you wanted to do to me again?" I asked, as if I didn't already know.

John reached down and kissed me with all the passion of a horny teenager as his hands worked their way down my back and finally to my butt where he fondled my ass through my jeans. Just then we heard the door open and someone walked in. There were some steps and then a long sigh of relief. He must have been using the urinal because I couldn't hear the sound of him peeing the way I did when my dad used the toilet at home. The entire situation as so bizarre I had to cover my mouth to keep myself from laughing out loud at the whole crazy situation.

God, I was actually in a public restroom, a MEN'S restroom at that, getting ready to be fucked by my boyfriend and now some strange guy just a few feet away was pissing into a urinal as if nothing was going on next door to him.

After the momentary distraction I went back to what I REALLY wanted. Unbuckling John's belt, I unzipped his jeans and pulled them down along with his boxers to his ankles. His shirttails were hiding his crotch so I reached through them where I grabbed his ever stiffening cock.

Mmmmmmm, it felt so warm and smooth! I licked my lip and couldn't wait to taste it! Outside I could hear the guy washing his hands as I crouched down and looked at John's dick as it stuck out straight into my face. God it looked so big this close up! The head was smooth and then turned into his shaft, stiff with his veins bulging out.

My tongue reached out and I lightly flicked it along the tip of his cock, like I was tasting a popsicle before eating it. Holding it by the shaft, I rubbed the head along my cheeks and face, even over my forehead. I could smell the thick muskiness of his crotch as he got excited and even hornier by the minute.

The poor boy must have been dying for me to take his cock in my mouth. Odds were he didn't know who bad I wanted it now too. Enough playfulness, time to get down to business! Taking John's cock in my mouth, I buried my face in his smelly crotch as I sucked on the entire length of his now hardened shaft. His pubic hair brushed lightly against my cheeks, tickling me like a feather running across my skin.

John groaned just a little and I almost choked as suddenly remembered the guy on the other side of the door. Oh well, he probably figured John was constipated or at the very least, enjoying a nice dump. Hmmm, I wonder what he would say if he knew I was giving John one of the most erotic blowjobs of his life?

It was about a year now since I first started sucking cock and with all the practice I was getting, I felt I was becoming pretty good at it. John was clearly enjoying my efforts! His hands ran through my hair and then he pulled my head into his crotch, pushing his cock into my mouth as far as I could take it. My hands reached around him and grabbed his bare butt. I squeezed his firm ass with both hands and marveled at the firmness of him. I love a hard ass on a guy and John's felt so good in my hands I could have held onto it all night.

John started pumping his cock into my mouth like he was fucking my pussy except now it was in my mouth. I loved the feel of his groin as it bumped into my face whenever he pressed himself as deep as he could into my mouth. Just then I heard the door open and then it was quiet as we had the room to ourselves again. I let John's cock slip out of my mouth and we both laughed at what had just happened.

"Damn Kelly, that was so hot! I mean, shit, you were blowing me while he was just on the other side of that door! Do you think he had any idea what was going on?"

I just shook my head and grinned after which I went back to work on him. I wasn't going to waste any time chatting when I had his cock available to me. John certainly wasn't complaining, that's for sure! His cock was now standing up straight, pointing upward like a missile preparing for takeoff, making it easy for me to lick up the back of it from the base to the head. I slurped it up like a kid with a dripping ice cream cone except this one was hard, warm and wet with my spit. As I started from the bottom and worked my way to the tip he shuddered when I passed over the bottom lip of his head and ran my tongue in circles.

"Oh god Kelly, you are an incredible little cocksucker! Fuck! I just love it when you run your tongue around me like that."

I may not have sucked a hundred cocks (YET!) but enough so far to learn that every guy likes his cock sucked differently. There was simply no right or wrong way to do it. The key, I learned, was to adapt to him by paying attention to his reaction. Even if he doesn't say anything, a guy gives enough clues through the reaction of his body to tell you when you are doing it the way he likes it. Once I realized this (I guess my mom had mentioned it to me on one of her "lessons" but of course I had to find out for myself) it didn't take long for me to acquire quite the reputation with the boys for being the best cocksucker around, at last for my age.

ankles. As usual I wasn't wearing panties as it made it so much easier for him at times like this. I lifted one foot at a time to allow him to slip them off of me and he hung my jeans up on a hook on the back of the door. I turned around and grabbed the rails again letting him have a nice view of my bare ass. I wiggled it suggestively to him as I spread my legs apart and leaned forward to expose my hungry pussy. John reached between my legs and ran his finger up and down it, wetting my clit with the moisture from my pussy. With his other hand he guiding his rock hard cock to my pussy like a heat-seeking missile - and boy was my pussy one heck of a hot target for it to lock onto!

Just as he was about to fuck me the stall door rattled as one of the boys knocked repeatedly on it. A little voice called out to us, "Hey, who's in there?" At that moment, with his swollen cock pressed against the entrance to my pussy, and on the verge of entering me, not surprisingly John wasn't interested in fooling around with some kid's curiosity.

"Go away kid! I'm busy in here!'

The boys all laughed and I heard some whispering with the words "beating off" standing out. I turned my head upwards and John grinned at me as I mouthed the words, "Fuck me!" to him and he smiled even broader than before in return. What was it with guys that all a girl has to say is, "fuck me" and they become like total idiots, forgetting things and not paying attention to anything else?

John's cock head pressed harder against me but his missile guidance system was off kilter so I reached my hand between my legs until I lightly touched the cock that wanted so desperately to enter me. Using my fingers, I spread my wet pussy lips apart to make it easier for him to enter me. Once he felt his cock beginning to slide into me, John pushed forward against me, driving him stiff cock deep inside of me. He kept pushing until his crotch was pressed up against my ass and I wiggled it just a bit to make his pubic hair move and tickle my butt.

Now that he was in me, John started pumping himself in and out of me, forcing me to grab the rail tightly to keep my balance. My ass pushed back to meet his thrusts and drive his cock deeper into me each time he lunged forward. As John fucked me faster I could hear his crotch slapping into my ass as well as the slurping sound of his cock as it slid in and out of my dripping wet pussy.

Evidently, I wasn't the only who could hear these sounds as suddenly there was a bunch of whispering and giggles from the other side of the door and soon there was another knock on the door. "Hey mister, whatcha doin' in there?"

You've got to give credit to John - he kept fucking me and never missed a beat in spite of our "audience". In fact, I think he was actually even more turned now with them listening as he fucked me.

"Wouldn't you like to know? Now get out of here you little perverts!" he yelled through the door. We could hear the other boys teasing the one who had knocked, calling him a "homo" and other silly things I guess that's how boys at that age talk to each other. John leaned forward even more against me as he reached around and started fondling my breasts again, squeezing them gently and lightly pinching my nipples between his fingers. He used them like handles to hold me and pull me back against him as he fucked me harder and harder.

In the meantime, I was getting off knowing the kids were listening intently outside the stall, not to mention the amazing sensations being generated within me by John's cock as he screwed me. My pussy exploded with a searing hot feeling which then spread throughout my entire body. Wave after wave of intense pleasure coursed through me as I came incredibly hard.

It was one of the most intense orgasms I'd experienced in a long time and my God it felt so good! It was times like this, when I was being fucked hard and experiencing an orgasm as intense as this one that made me glad I wasn't "saving myself for marriage".

John kept driving his cock in and out of me, in and out as relentlessly pounded my pussy as it gripped his cock so hard he could barely pull out of me. All I wanted at that moment was for him to keep fucking me and never stop. I wanted these feeling to never end, to just fill me with the most intense pleasure a woman can feel. God I loved to be fucked!!

I was brought back to earth by the sound of the restroom door opening as the boys left. I guess with the short attention span of boys that age that they had heard enough of whatever they thought was going on and were off to whatever trouble they could cause elsewhere.

Once again is was just John and me in the room again - perfect timing! I was almost dizzy with pleasure at that point and all I wanted was to concentrate on what he was doing to me with his wonderful cock. With my eyes closed I matched his rhythm, bouncing back and forth against him in time with his strokes. Then he stopped suddenly and his cock was out of me! He sat down on the toilet seat with his legs as wide apart with his pants still around his ankles, sporting his erect cock that was glistening in the bright lights with dampness of my pussy juices.

cum, squeezing his cock in a death grip with as my body tensed and then convulsed from the fabulous feelings that were filling me inside.

The guy outside suddenly laughed saying, "Hang in there guy, I know how you feel!" I would have loved to have unlatched the door to let him know how very wrong he was in his interpretation of John's groan but fortunately I couldn't reach the handle or who knows what might have happened! As it was the guy washed his hands and left almost as quickly as he had come in.

In the meantime I was still mesmerized by the lingering effects of my last orgasm. With my legs now straddling him I humped John's cock, bouncing on it like a bull rider. He helped by lifting my up and down from the waist and lifting his hips in time with me.

"Damn Kelly," he moaned, "I'm cumming now!"

Sure enough he was. I sat still to feel the full effect of his pulsing cock as it spit its load of sperm deep into me. I don't think I will ever get tired of that sensation, the feeling I get when hot cum is squirted deep inside of my cunt. Some of the cum drained down out of my pussy onto his cock and when he was finished I got off of him and sucked his sensitive cock, making him jump each time I took it into my mouth.

Damn he tasted good! Nothing like a smelly cock covered with cum and pussy juice! I kept sucking him as he shrank in my mouth, becoming smaller and softer for me. Finally he was limp and I dropped him from my lips. I stood up and gave him a long kiss, my pussy still throbbing with the aftershocks of my orgasm.

We both quickly dressed. John took a peek out the door to make sure that nobody was out there. He thought the coast was clear and so we both darted out of the rest room. I was surprised to say the least to find the whole little tribe was still out in the hallway, goofing around like boys always seem to do. You can imagine the look on their faces when they saw me leaving with John! John and I just laughed and smiled at them as we went back to the mall area and headed off for our movie. I would have loved to been able to listen in on what those boys talked about after we left!

So far it had been a wonderful date with John and the prospect of sitting next to him in a dark movie theater after our little adventure in the restroom was looking more promising all the time. I started to dream of what I could do to him in there. Hmm, maybe our little group of boys would be in front of us!

chewing on my tennis shoe while I was standing on the fence trying to touch them! There were plenty of other places to explore as well; couple of buildings for tractors and other equipment, an attachment to the barn where the milk was stored, and a big corn crib.

The corn crib was my second favorite place to play. The whole corn was stored in two bins on each side and in the middle was a ladder leading into the ceiling over where I could jump down into a big bin full of shelled corn. It was more fun than the plastic balls at Chuckee Cheeze! Out in the pasture was an old chicken coop. There hadn't been chickens in it for years and in past summers we had turned it into our private clubhouse. Our favorite place to fool around was the hay loft in the main barn. Depending on the time of year it had varying amounts of hay in it and at this time of year it was pretty full after the summer baling. We would climb up a thick hay rope and then drop down into the loose hay piled below. My grandfather caught us one time and about had a heart attack but we that didn't stop us from doing it when he wasn't around.

Today was a perfect hot August day so we were both wearing as little as possible to try and keep cool. Unfortunately there weren't any boys around as they would have enjoyed seeing us in nothing but our short cutoffs and tiny bikini tops that left little to the imagination. This far into summer our tans were at their peak and Kristi's blonde hair was bleached out to where it was almost white.

As she ran ahead of me to the barn, I couldn't help but notice that she'd grown up a lot since this time last year. She was still more petite than other girls her age which made most people guess her to be a year or two younger than she really was. Her cutoffs seemed to get shorter every year and her cute little bottom was more than just peeking out from them as she ran. Kristi's boobs barely needed a training bra – if she wore one, but when she wore a bikini top as small as the one she was wearing today, what little she had was displayed at its best. I noticed that as she was running her nipples would peek out over the edges until she adjusted the bikini top back over them. There was only the two of us so she didn't seem to be as concerned about being seen and so by the time we arrived at the barn doors it got to where she was almost falling out of her bikini top. As we stood there panting, trying to catch our breath, she reached down and pulled the top back up over them as if nothing had happened.

My outfit wasn't much different except my shorts were cut a bit higher than hers to where there was barely enough material in the crotch to keep them from “Hey girl, looking pretty hot these days!” he said with a playful wolf whistle mixed in.

He turned away but not before his eyes ran up and down me a few times more. I couldn't help but feel really slutty which in turn made me feel good inside. If my own dad was turned on by my outfit I could just imagine what the boys would be thinking when they saw me! My mother’s came out then, apparently having reached a truce with her mother-in-law. She gave me another once-over and just shook her head in resignation. “Quite an outfit, hun. I hope you appreciate what I do for you! By the way, I hope you remember to shave if you plan on wearing that in public anytime soon, looks like you’ve been lazy lately.”

I rolled my eyes in my best “Oh mom!” way. I huffed a bit and sat down in a kitchen chair, spreading my legs apart for her to see. The shorts almost disappeared as they pulled tight into my pussy and then I saw she was right, there were a few short pussy hairs sticking out. I was not yet shaving totally then – another year before that. I did try to keep it trimmed up and shaved so there was no pubic hair poking out. My mom just huffed and waved me off.

“Well, go on and get out of here; no sense in worrying about it out here. Oh, and be sure to cross your legs in public when you wear shorts like those! I don't want any mothers calling me to complain that my daughter’s flashing her boy!”

2. The Barn

I finally made it through what was starting to seem like a gauntlet and joined Kristi. As I mentioned, we ran to the barn with Kristi in the lead. After we arrived and had caught our breath it was Kristi’s turn to speak.

“Did you see the look on grandma’s face when we walked by? I felt like the Church Lady was glaring at us!”

I giggled as I recalled her in my mind. “Yea, I once overheard mom and her arguing about my clothes but at least she doesn’t say anything to us.”

Kristi had a naughty grin on her face. “By the way, did you catch the wink grandpa gave your dad?”

My mouth and eyes widened. “No way, cool! Wow, guess he’s not so stuffy after all.”

We both laughed at the idea of our stern old grandpa sneaking a peek at his young granddaughters. Wow, Grandma would have killed him if she knew! We eventually got to the barn and checked it out. There was still the same old wooden ladder that led to the hayloft. The steps were worn and smooth and I remember when we were younger how scared I would get climbing up them. They once seemed so high and the steps so far apart but now it was just a quick hop up them to get to the hay loft. Kristi walked over to the steps and put one foot on the bottom rung.

“Want to see what’s up in the ol’ hay loft cuz?”

Without waiting for a response she was climbing up the ladder ahead of me. I followed her and when I looked up I had an incredible view of her tight little ass. I smiled slightly as I thought about how many boys would kill to have this view! Like me, Kristi disdained panties and also like me, her hygiene had gotten a bit sloppy lately and I could see some fuzzy brown hair poking out from the crotch of her shorts. I knew from seeing her getting dressed and in our hot tub that Kristi was not a “true” blonde; her pussy hair was a light brown color that seemed to be getting darker as it filled in. Actually, the last time I saw her naked was a few hours earlier when we got up and shared the bathroom.

Nudity was not something we were ashamed of in my household although my mom had always warned us to be more discreet at our grandparent’s house. I remembered noting that Kristi’s pubic hair was filling in more all the time. It was still more fuzzy than hairy at this point but definitely had filled some over the past few months. As I stretched for each rung I could feel my own shorts pulling in tight which caused them to rub up against my clit, feeling like someone was fondling me as I climbed. From the looks of it Kristi’s shorts were doing the same to her and I could imagine how she was feeling.

Kristi was still a virgin and while I’ been telling her all about my own sexual experiences, we hadn’t done anything more than just talk and joke about sex. Even so, I knew she masturbated regularly from the talks we had although we had not done it together. As for me, I had sex for the first time when I was fourteen and since then had been with a number of boys but I’d never been with a girl a sexual way.

While the thought of a lesbian experience had crossed my mind, it was more of an academic exercise than a sexual fantasy. My girlfriends and I were always having sleepovers where typically we wore next to nothing while we talked about boys and what we wanted to do with them. It wasn't unusual for the conversation to get pretty naughty which often led to us masturbating together. We never did anything sexual with each other like actually touching or kissing each other.

done it a full year earlier than me! I WAS shocked by a different feeling entirely, the feeling I was getting between my legs thinking about how she must have looked when she did it for the first time.

“Wow Kristi, like when were you going to tell me about it or what?”

Kristi smiled a sexy grin and launched in a detailed description of how her boyfriend had fucked her in her own bed for the first time. The sexy part was that I knew Kristi and her mom had been sleeping together since the divorce, so when she said she was fucked for the first time in her own bed, that also meant in her mother’s bed as well! As she went on, leaving no detail out, I found myself picturing her in bed with her boyfriend, offering herself to a boy in that special way a girl can only do once in her life. I thought back to my first time and the mixture of lust and fear that I felt as I watched him hold his cock and guide it towards my waiting pussy.

As Kristi described him penetrating her, violating her virginity. I recalled the moment when my hymen was torn along with the sharp pain that accompanied it. I had reacting instinctively by trying to push him away to stop him from hurting me anymore. The immense pleasure that I was feeling soon overwhelmed any thoughts of wanting him out of me and I pushed my hips up towards him, trying to draw him in me even further.

As I listened to Kristi describing how it felt to have a cock filling her virgin cunt for the very first time, I realized I had been subconsciously thrusting my own pussy forward as I tried to draw in an imaginary cock. I could tell the thought of recalling it was arousing her as well. As she whispered to me how he finally entered her completely, the base of his cock pressed up tightly against her crotch, her hand drifted down and over so as to be between her legs. I looked down at her crotch so she would know I could see what she was doing and she quickly pulled her hand up and her face flushed. I took her hand and moved it back between her legs saying, “Don’t worry Kristi, I do it all the time. My parents don't mind me seeing them do it and you shouldn’t be ashamed to do it in front of me either. Besides, my friends and I do it together at sleepovers and parties and we are closer than I am to them.”

I paused for a few seconds to let that sink in before going on. Her hand stayed between her thighs but wasn't moving. I could tell she needed a bit if encouragement so I asked, “Would it help if I did myself as the same time?”

Her eyes widened at my suggestion and then a coy smile appeared. A sudden urge came over me and I leaned over to give her a kiss on her lips. Nothing earth shaking, but definitely more than what first cousins would normally share. At first

3. Back at the House

Eventually we got dressed and headed back to the farm house. My mom was in the kitchen with my grandma as we passed through. She looked at me a bit strangely and for a moment I felt like she was looking straight into my soul and somehow knew everything that we had been doing.

“Are you OK Kelly? You both are a bit flushed – you didn't get too hot out there did you? You know you need to be careful not to get sunstroke!”

I wasn't about to tell my mom just how “hot” we had gotten when my grandma was standing right behind her. We just said we had been in the hay loft which was technically true. My mom gave me an odd look and I knew that when we got home she would be expecting the “real” story” My mom loved to hear about my sexual exploits and I think she lived vicariously through me. Well, wait until she heard this one! I wondered what she would say when I told her about my secret desires to have sex with Kristi?

Kristi and I played similar games together for years after that. We kissed and hugged but never actually touched each other in a direct sexual way until a few more summers went by but that is another story. In the meantime we just enjoyed our erotic times together, masturbating while we told each other about the boys we had been with and how it felt when they fucked us or when we sucked their cocks.

Mmmmmmm, I love my cousin!

took my hand out and smelled his strong musky odor on my fingers. I love the smell of a man's crotch, the stronger the better.

Then I slipped my hand back into his jeans to find what I really was hungry for - a tasty cock! Typically he was already hard by now but once in a while I would get to him early enough to where it was still soft which was my favorite way to start. Feeling his cock warming as he began to swell and grow, like a balloon being blown up, was mid-boggling for me. I thought it was incredible that he could change that much, that it could go from this flaccid little sausage to a throbbing, long, and oh so hard cock that just begged for my attention. I looked into his eyes and smiled as I saw his eyes roll back as he enjoyed the way I stroked him.

I asked him if he wanted me to suck him, knowing full well he was dying for me to do so. I couldn't help but giggle a bit when he stuttered out a yes, unable to say anything more while I held his cock. I loved the power I had over him when I held his cock. I knew then he would do anything just to have me suck it! Being able to hold his cock and have that much control over the emotions of a guy made me feel so sexy!

It was time to stop teasing him. After all, I wanted his cock in my mouth just as badly, if not more, than he did! He pulled down his pants and shorts and his cock was standing straight up into the air, as hard and stiff as the Statue of Liberty. I licked my lips in anticipation. God it looked so inviting! I couldn't wait any longer to take it in my mouth so I slipped his head between my lips and ran them around it, licking the tip with my tongue inside my mouth. He groaned as I licked the back side of his cock where I knew from experience he was so sensitive.

Mmmmmmm, he tasted wonderful and his skin was so smooth and soft it just glided in and out of my mouth. I took him all the way in until my face was buried deep in his hairy crotch. I twisted my head around him, letting him out just a little and then back don until my mouth was against the base of his cock. I could feel him against the back of my throat and I loved hearing him groaning in pleasure as I sucked on him. Holding his balls in my hand, I gently playing with them like two hairy walnuts. If I did this too long he would cum and I had more plans for his cock before that happened.

I laid in my bed as I kept dreaming about him fucking me, picturing myself being fucked like a little slut, like the teenage whore I dream of being sometimes. I had two fingers in my pussy and was squeezing my little breast in my hand, feeling the hardened nipple between my fingers. My thumb was rubbing my clit and I was soaking wet with lust. Then it finally happened, the feeling I wanted soooooo badly, the wonderful and oh so glorious sensation of my orgasm as it built to a crescendo and then I exploded.

God it felt so wonderful, so incredible as my entire body seemed to tingle with pure pleasure. My back arched upwards as I moaned softly and let the waves of pleasure roll through me. I kept touching myself, keeping myself on the knife edge of my orgasm, just at that point where I could barely take it anymore but still enough to keep it going as long as possible. My God! I could feel my pulsing pussy cumming, gushing out over my fingers and soaking my sheets. My pussy involuntarily squeezed down tight onto my fingers, gripping them the way I held a hard cock as it pumped its hot cum inside of me raging pussy.

I realized deep down that I was becoming addicted to this feeling, possibly even addicted to sex in general, I found that the more I fucked and masturbated the more I wanted it and frankly, I didn't care what that meant, only that I wanted it and would do anything for it, literally anything. After all, how could anything that felt so unbelievably good possibly be wrong? At times like this, when I was delirious with the pounding sensations coursing through my entire body. Right then I would have fucked every boy in class if that's what it took to satisfy me!

3. My Resolution

That was the one and only time I ever let Annie do anything like that to me. Even though I loved it at the time, the next morning my sanity returned and the whole event seemed more like a dream. In fact, it seemed so crazy that I had to wonder at first whether or not it WAS a dream since I couldn't believe what I'd done. Never in my life had I ever imagined that I would allow an ANIMAL to lick my pussy. Not only that, but it made me cum as well.

As much as I loved sex, even I had enough sense to understand that there had to be a line somewhere that you don't cross and if sex with animals wasn't on the other side of the line, then what was? Sure, I'd seen pics of girls sucking dog and horse cocks and girls being fucked by various animals on the Internet. While I found them interesting from an intellectual perspective, frankly they were way over the top for me and didn't turn me on.

After this day it would have been easy for me to question my morals and beliefs but I was raised differently from that. If I didn't do something firmly now then I could easily start down a slippery path that would lead to such activities... and more. To me, it is like the issue of drugs. I don't have to try drugs to know they are bad for me. It's the same with bestiality – I don't have to have sex with an animal to know it's perverted and wrong.

Even though I vowed never to repeat such a thing again, erasing the memory of what I had done was impossible. I would never forget that for this one time in my life I let a little dog lick me and make me cum. The question is, if I never do it again, does that make it OK?

my friends where anything serious happened between two girls other than a tentative kiss or VERY brief touching, followed immediately by tons of giggles and mutual embarrassment. I hate to burst the bubble of all the American Pie enthusiasts, but that's the straight dope about Truth or Dare. Most people I've talked to about it have similar memories (when they're being honest) although I'm sure a few had more risque experiences.

As I got older, the need for games like Truth or Dare faded away when my friends and I started having sex with our boyfriends (and girlfriends in a couple of cases). Thus talking openly about sex no longer seemed "naughty" or embarrassing. Now that I was fifteen and a sophomore in high school, my last Truth or Dare game was behind me - or so I thought. Then one day I was having lunch with Beth at school when she brought the subject up.

"Hey, remember the last time we played Truth or Dare?"

Now where did THAT question come from out of the blue? I looked at her with my eyebrows raised, wondering what was going on considering we'd just been discussing the upcoming Thanksgiving break, nothing to do with sex or even being naughty. Even so, I couldn't help but smile as the memories came back and played in my head

"Oh, you mean the time we made poor Nancy kiss you?"

Beth practically spit out her food as she laughed. "Yeah, I thought she was going to die of embarrassment. Poor girl, she was always so shy about that sort of thing."

"OK, so what about it?"

"Well, you know Bill, don't you?"

Actually, all I really knew about Bill was that he was some senior that Beth had been dating lately - and screwing as often as possible as well from what she'd told me.

"Oh yeah, the guy with the big dick, right?" I teased her.

It was just a shot in the dark as I had no idea how well-endowed he was. Knowing Beth, he was probably good-sized as she had a penchant for guys with large cocks. I use to tease her that it was too bad we hardly had any blacks at our school. (Please... I was just teasing - don't send me e-mails calling me a racist!)

"Oh, so you DO know him," she giggled. "Well anyway, he's been pushing me to do a threesome with him. He's heard about you, like who hasn't, so last night he asked me if you would do it."

"Do it?"

"You know, join in with us."

Beth had been my best friend and all since I could remember and we shared a lot over the years. Still, I couldn't help but frown a bit. I'd done a threesome before, but it was with two boys and there wasn't another girl involved. Even though Beth claimed to have been with other girls, I was strictly for boys at the time. OK, so sometimes we would sometimes masturbate together when we both got horny but we'd never actually touched each other, at least not with any sexual intent. It was no different than what I did with most of my friends. Thus the idea of a threesome with her and her boyfriend was a little unnerving for me.

"So what's he expecting us all to do together?"

Beth sighed, sounding a little frustrated, and held my hand. "Ohhhhhh, I think see what the problem is. You think he wants to watch the two of us together, don't you?"

"Well duh, isn't that what most boys want to watch? Two girls getting it on?"

Beth just smiled. "Well I'm sure he wouldn't STOP us if we did but really, he just has this thing about wanting to fuck two girls at the same time. Apparently he's never done it."

Still, I was still not too sure about it. I couldn't put my finger on it, but for some reason it all sounded a little fishy to me.

"Can John come?" I asked.

John was my current boyfriend and we'd been doing it quite a bit. One thing I really liked about him was that he was pretty adventurous when it came to sex. We'd already done it at a church picnic, in the water at a beach full of people, and even in a mall restroom at the mall. I guess I just thought it would be better if another guy was there to keep both girls occupied so there wouldn't be so much pressure for Bath and me to have sex together.

Beth pursed her lips a little and I could tell she hadn't been ready for THAT question. Frankly, I had the distinct impression that she was hoping maybe the two of us WOULD do something but I just wasn't ready yet to have sex with a girl, not even my best friend. Bottom line, I LOVED being fucked and girls don't have dicks. Sorry, dildos just aren't the same, at least not for me.

"Well, I guess if he says it's OK... then when do you want to do it?" Beth asked, apparently figuring it was better to compromise than get nothing.

"Yeah... how about Friday night?"

"Well, it's the day after Thanksgiving so would that be OK with your folks?" Beth asked, "I know you guys always have a lot of family over for the weekend."

"I'm sure it would be OK - just so long as it's not at MY house!" I said with a bit of a laugh. "Now THAT would be a bit tough to explain to the relatives."

2. Masturbation Contest at School With Beth

From there we went on to other subjects that were much more fun for me to discuss, like the last time Bill had fucked her and then I had to tell her all about my last date with John. By now we were both so ridiculously horny that I would've started fingering myself had I not been in the middle of the school cafeteria. Actually, a few more minutes of this and I might not even care about THAT! There was always the restroom, of course, where I'd retreated more than a few times in the past to let off some steam.

"Hmmmmmm, are you thinking what I'm thinking?" Beth asked with a mischievous smile.

"Well, we still have ten minutes," I teased her, "That enough time for you?"

"Duh! We'd better get going," Beth replied, picking up her tray, "Hey! Bet I beat you this time."

Of course she was referring to a friendly competition that had developed over the past few years between the two of us. Sometimes when I masturbate I like to spend a long time playing with myself and teasing myself before I cum. Then there are other times when I'm horny as hell and I just want to cum and get it over with as fast as possible. It was times like this when Beth and I would sometimes "compete" to see who could get herself off the fastest. It was usually a pretty tight competition (no pun intended) but I claimed to hold a slight edge although I had no doubt that Beth would have hotly disputed my assertion.

We quickly dumped our trash and headed for the girl's restroom. There were a few other girls in there but fortunately the last two stalls were empty so Beth and I made a bee-line with her getting in the last one and me in the one beside it.

"First one out wins, right?" Beth checked with me just before closing the door.

She hadn't bothered to lower her voice much and at least one of the other girl must have heard her as she turned to look at us with this look of disgust. You could say Beth and I each had a bit of a "reputation" at school and while it was fine with the boys, some of the girls were snotty about it. We just ignored the little bitch and closed the doors behind us. There wasn't much time before classes started again but I had a lot of confidence in myself - practice makes perfect, right?

Even though time was a premium, I still took the time to quickly wipe off the seat. Face it, there are some things you HAVE to do in a public restroom, no matter how much of a hurry you're in. I sat down on the seat, the cold plastic of the ring making me jump just a little. Reaching down, I pulled up my plaid skirt and bunched it up around my waist, revealing my pale blue cotton panties underneath. They may not have been the sexiest things in the world but they were comfortable and most of the time at school, that's what counted for me. Guys don't seem to understand that most "sexy" clothes are also uncomfortable as hell! You wouldn't catch me dead in a thong unless I planned to show it off to someone! With my left hand I pulled my panties to the side which allowed my right hand to dive in and get to work.

The secret to reaching an orgasm, especially when you're masturbating, has little to do with the physical act - it's is all in your head. For instance, say I'm sitting next to a guy on a couch, watching a movie while he fondles my pussy. If it's a good movie and I'm not really into what he's doing, it doesn't matter WHERE he touches me or HOW, I may feel really good but I'm not gonna cum! Then again, I can be at the pool with my eyes trained on some hunk of a guy like a heat-seeking missile, fantasizing about how good his cock would taste and then how it would feel in me. It's at times like this that about all I have to do is rub my pussy up against something, even a table leg, and I'll reach orgasm on the spot!

Unlike girls, guys seem to be all physical when it comes to getting off. Hell, I can make a guy cum in his sleep just by sucking or stroking his dick! Guys can't even control their cocks enough to keep from getting hard in awkward situations. Heck, I bet you could strap a guy down and promise him a million dollars if he can hold back and I could still make him cum with a half-hearted blowjob.

With me, the biggest thing about reaching orgasm is that I have to WANT to cum. No amount of stimulation or fantasy is going to make me cum against my will. From there, it's all about what I'm thinking, even more than what I'm physically feeling. Heck, I can all but cum just from having someone stroke my hair in the right situations. Of course, proper stimulation never hurt although most guys haven't a clue how to touch or lick a pussy, especially the teenage ones who seem to think speed and intensity are the keys.

Usually when I masturbate I'm not in a hurry so I'll think about my boyfriend or some guy who turns me on and gradually work myself up. There are times when it's as much about the journey as reaching the destination. However, the first thing I do when I'm starting to masturbate with the intent to cum as quickly as possible is to think about something really naughty. Doing it in public places, flashing a teacher, those sort of things. The trick is to get my body on the edge of an orgasm without even touching myself such that when I DO, it doesn't take much to push my pussy over the edge.

The other girls finally left, leaving Beth and me to ourselves, literally. In the quiet I could hear her playing with herself, her breath already gasping slightly and sounding forced. Too bad the stalls were so small. When we did it together we would usually sit opposite each other so we could watch the other touch herself. I loved watching Beth masturbate and it turned me on when she got visibly horny watching me do myself. Had we been together it would likely have gone faster for both of us but knowing she was doing it next door to me was still a help.

As I played with my clit I found myself thinking about Beth's offer to be with her and her boyfriend. Bill WAS quite a hunk and I could imagine how good he would probably fuck me. Would Beth be playing with herself in front of us as her boyfriend fucked me? My mind started to wander more to thoughts of her playing with her pussy than Bill fucking me. How did she smell? Did her pussy taste like mine? How would her clit feel like under my tongue? How far could I push my tongue up into her wet pussy?

With that thought I shoved my middle finger deep into my pussy and gasped. Usually I would have been imagining someone like Bill fucking me but now I caught myself wondered what it would feel like for Beth to do push her finger into me instead of mine. Unlike some fumbling teenage boy, I would bet that she would know how to touch my clit, how to rub it just the right way. She would know how to let her tongue flicker over my clit, how to tease it just the right amount to make it send shock waves of pleasure through the rest of my body, like the epicenter of an giant earthquake.

God my pussy was SO incredibly wet! I easily slid a second finger into me. Again, instead of imaging a big cock forcing its way into me, I thought of Beth adding another finger in me, then a third and maybe even more. When it was covered with my pussy juices she would offer it to me to lick, letting me taste my own pussy on her fingers and then lick the rest of it off herself with a smile.

Was Beth dreaming of me now or maybe she was fantasizing about her boyfriend fucking me? I could hear her skirt rustling next to me as we both masturbated furiously. What would she say if I stepped into the stall with her and kneeled in front of her and started licking her bare pussy? A involuntary gasp escaped from me and I tried to hold back a second, not wanting to alert Beth as to how close I was getting.

Then it happened, that incredible feeling I get when my orgasm first hits me. It's like a sudden electric shock that seems to emerge from my entire body simultaneously. It doesn't really have a point of origin even though it's my fingers in my pussy that seem to be generating it along with my fertile imagination. I felt my pussy swell and tighten down on my fingers, then suddenly gush a flood of pussy com over my hand. It was all I could do to keep from crying out and declaring to the world what was happening to me.

If I had more time I could have kept it going for a LOT longer. However, I knew classes were going to start any minute now so I rushed things along a bit. My pussy was still throbbing as I unrolled some toilet paper and wiped up the cum that was dripping from it. I straightened out my panties and stood up to drop my skirt back down. My legs almost buckled at first as my panties rubbed up against my ultra-sensitive clit. It took every bit of willpower I had to keep from sitting back down and doing it longer. Just as I opened the door I heard a gasp from the stall next to me. I smiled to myself as I thought of her cumming and then smiled even broader as I knew I'd beaten her to the punch.

By the time she was out of her stall I'd already straightened out my hair and was checking my makeup in the mirror. My face was still pretty flushed but that would go away in time.

"Damn girl, how the hell did you do it so fast?" Beth gasped, the aftereffects of her own orgasm apparently still in operation.

"Ohhhhhh, I had some help," I teased her. She looked at me accusingly, as if I'd cheated somehow. "I meant I had this great fantasy to dream about.

"Oh really? And when was your best friend going to hear about this so-called great fantasy?"

I just winked at her and led the way from the restroom where we split up to go our classes. As I walked my pussy was still excited and it was almost as if I had a vibrator tucked up in me or something. Mmmmmmm, if I wasn't careful I'd be back in the restroom again to take care of a "girl problem". Somehow I made it through the afternoon without having to masturbate again although there were a few close calls, especially when I talked to John and imagined how good he would fuck me the next time were together.

3. "Convincing" My Boyfriend

Beth called me that night and gave me the news that her guy was OK with me bringing John along with. Of course, there was just one tiny issue remaining - would John want to? This wasn't the sort of thing you asked your boyfriend over the phone so I called him and asked him if he wanted to come over to talk to me about something. Now if you don't think I have John wrapped around my finger, consider that he was standing in my bedroom less than fifteen minutes later!

"So Kelly, what did you want to 'talk'' about?"

John's tone of voice definitely implied that he thought it was all just an excuse by me to get him over to suck his cock or something. Granted, I understood why he might have that idea but it wasn't the case tonight, at least not at the moment. Seeing his dick hardening under his jeans was a bit distracting, to say the least, so I knew I had better get through things before it went from a distraction to an obsession.

It was then I realized that I hadn't really thought this out and for moment I felt panicky as my mind went blank. Well, sometimes it's best just to be forthright and come right out with what you want to say.

"How would you feel about getting together with Beth and her boyfriend?"

John looked at me, obviously unsure of what I was asking.

"Well, I guess that depends on what do you mean by 'getting together', I guess," he replied, "You mean like a double date?"

I took a deep breath and went for it all. "Well sort of... I meant having sex together with them."

John's face went through a series of contortions as he seemed puzzled but yet turned on by what I'd said.

"Just so you know, no way am I EVER doing it with another guy," he protested.

I gave him a kiss and smiled at him, saying, "No you silly boy, I meant that you and he would trade between Beth and me."

"You mean your best friend Beth?" he verified. I nodded and then he grinned, a little TOO broadly if you asked me. "You really don't mind watching me fuck her?"

Typical guy, thinking about his dick first. I couldn't help but notice there wasn't any concern on his part about ME being fucked by another guy. Apparently all he could think about was the chance to fuck Beth. I didn't see what the big deal was myself. Knowing Beth, all he had to do was ASK and she probably would have let him fuck her anytime he wanted. It's not like she was picky or anything! She'd had sex with a lot more guys than me. They loved her big tits, a point not lost on me when I looked in the mirror at night and despaired over my much smaller versions. My dad use to tell me I was "perky", but he wasn't the one I was trying to get to fuck me!

"I guess can live with it," I answered him. "So what do you think?"

"Hey, whose idea was this anyway?"

At first I hesitated to answer but I knew he would find out the truth sooner than later so no sense making anything up. Taking a deep breath, I explained to him what Beth had told me. As I talked I noticed John's attention seem to be wavering, his eyes more on my boobs and crotch. By the time I was done I was pretty convinced he wasn't listening to a word I was saying.

"So that's how I got herpes," I said nonchalantly as I sat down on my bed. As I suspected, he wasn't listening to a word I'd said and so I just huffed. Boys, they're all the same. They have just one thing on their mind, 24-7, - sex. It was a little frustrating for me as it wasn't like he had to be worried about whether or not I was going to put out for him later or anything so the least he could do was listen to me sometimes!

"Ummmmm, Earth to John, come in spaceman John!"

Well, THAT finally seemed to get through as John shook his head like he was coming out of a daze, which was probably a fairly accurate description of his mental state at the moment.

"What's your problem," he asked, apparently totally unaware of what he'd been doing subconsciously.

"Nothing at all, nothing at all," I sighed, putting out my arms for him to signal it was OK for him to get in bed with me now.

We spent the next hour or so screwing around, literally. John wasn't a bad fuck, actually probably one of the best I'd had so far in my limited sexual "career". He DID have this thing about wanting to shoot his cum all over me which irritated me sometimes, but tonight he was a gentleman and kept his dick in my pussy when he came which made me happy.

"So are we on for Friday night?" I asked him as I lay under him. His cock was still hard in me, even though he'd cum twice already inside of me. It felt good sometimes to just lay together like this afterwards, jus the feeling of his dick in me with his body pressed uptight against mine. There was just something that made it more intimate for me when I Laid next to him like this, literally joined together. It meant so much more to me than having him pull out and just hug me. Heck, my dad hugs me so for John to stay in me meant a lot to me.

"Yeah, I guess so, whatever you want."

Knowing John, I would have to remind him later as odds were he wouldn't remember anything of this conversation later. What happens to guys when they cum anyway? It's like their minds disengage and go off-line such that they don't remember a damn thing later except the fucking part. THAT they don't seem to have any problem recalling, especially when telling it to all their friends the next day at school! Needless to say their memories seem to be a bit enhanced as well, especially when it came to how many time they'd made me cum. If only it was true, I wouldn't mind!

John eventually got dressed and left me laying nude in my bed. I stretched out on my back, letting my naked body cool off a bit as I closed my eyes and contemplated the day's events. All-in-all it wasn't that all unusual except for the discussion I had with Beth about doing it with her boyfriend.

4. A Mother-Daughter Chat

I was wondering how that was going to work out when I felt someone sit down on the edge of my bed. Opening my eyes, I saw my mom there in the dimming light.

"Hey mom!" I said softly with a smile.

"Well, THAT was pretty quick tonight. So I guess he must have been hornier than usual," she observed, "And what was all this about Friday night?"

"Oh mom, nothing," I sighed, "just something Beth is cooking up."

Evidently she had at least been listening in at the end of my time with John. It's not like the walls between our bedrooms were all that thick, more like paper it seemed at times. It went both ways too. I'd never seen my parents have sex but that's not to say I haven't HEARD them, especially considering what a moaner my mom is when she cums.

"Well, if she's behind it then I can only imagine what it could be."

I scooted over so she could sit better on the bed. Then I explained to her what Beth wanted to do, ending with John's agreement after he'd just fucked me.

"You know, I think you really like this guy, don't you?" she asked with a gentle smile.

Despite myself I felt my face redden. Honestly, I didn't think I was in love with John but still, I had been feeling some pretty strong emotions lately when we were having sex. Was it love... or just growing lust? So far as I was concerned, lust was the winner so far.

"Well, he certainly seems to be taking care of you 'needs' from what I can tell. So how many times did he cum tonight?" she inquired.

It may seem odd to some people that she would ask me such a thing, but people have to remember that my mom has always asked me about my dates from the first one I went on with Steve. For some reason it seemed important to her that she knew where each boy came (my pussy, mouth, etc.) and how many times.

Rather than tease her as I sometimes do, I just grinned and held up two fingers. My mom shook her head, almost more it seemed from wishing it had been her than worrying about me. Well, I guess even older women can still dream about a teenage boy sometimes!

"Did he stay in you afterwards?"

I nodded and she smiled knowingly. "He seems to care about you a lot, doesn't he," she said as more a statement than a question. "I remember your father doing that with me once we started to get to know each other better..."

Her voice trailed off and her eyes had that distant look as if she was recalling her teen years with my dad. I leaned back and spread my legs, letting her see John's cum as it was still draining from my pussy."

"Yeah, he certainly DOES like you," she commented as her attention went back to me. Seeing me with my legs parted for her she just rolled her eyes with that "what am I going to do with you" look that mothers are so good at giving their kids.

"Well, he's a very lucky boy to have you as his girlfriend is all I can say," she said, finishing up our conversation. "Still horny?" she asked, turning back as she started for the door.

Rather than answer I pushed my finger into my pussy and lifted my hips yup against it as if I was being fucked. "Guess I should have known better than to ask," she sighed, leaving the room shaking her head.

Indeed, even though John had just fucked me so well it hadn't been enough for me so I started masturbating, dreaming of John fucking me yet again on my bed, but this time with my mom watching, getting herself off at the site of her daughter being fucked by this teenage boy. Too bad my mom took her marriage vows so strictly. I bet John would have been happy to fuck my mom alongside of me! Oh well, if there was one thing I was 100% sure of, it was THAT would never happen. Still, it made a great fantasy to masturbate with as I laid back and played with my pussy.

5. Getting Ready

Friday couldn't come fast enough. Thanksgiving was the usual uproar of relatives running amuck. I noticed that this year especially, both my uncles seems a lot more interested in my "assets" than ever before. Well, even if they WERE my uncles that didn't mean they didn't have the same desires and urges as any other man so I didn't take it as being perverted or anything like that at all. In fact, I MAY have been a little guilty of teasing them just a bit but it wasn't anything over the top.

Friday was a holiday so I slept in although it wasn't that easy with everyone rushing in to the bathroom across the hall from me. It seemed like my room was so much smaller as I had my bedroom door shut as a courtesy to our guests. It was one thing to sleep nude with the door open when just my parents were home but my grandmother and aunts on my dad's side most likely wouldn't have appreciated it in the same way. I'd even worn panties around the house the previous evening for the first time in ages!

Beth had arranged to pick me up around 2:00 that afternoon and for once she was there right on time as the grandfather clock in our living room sounded. Running downstairs, I kissed my mom and grandmother goodbye. My grandmother looked at me like a drill sergeant doing an inspection and then turned to my mother with a stern look.

"Goodness Mary, you let your fifteen year-old daughter go out looking like THAT?" I barely heard her whisper sharply to my mom.

Actually, personally I thought I was dressed fairly conservatively. My jeans were certainly tight, especially in the butt, but at least they were high enough not to show off my butt crack like some of my other pairs did. Heck, I was even wearing a thong, albeit not much of one, but at least I had one on. My tight white blouse, one of my favorites, was probably her major concern. It had some lace and was quite sheer which allowed the black bra I was wearing underneath to be clearly visible. Still, it WAS a blouse and I WAS wearing a bra so what was the big deal? My bikini shows a LOT more and nobody complains about IT (well, my grandmother probably would if she ever saw it). A pair of black heels were on my feet, again nothing special or slutty and only a few inches high. My hair was hanging loose, straight as usual over my shoulders with nothing in it. Even my makeup was understated - a little blush and some eye shadow with a light colored red lipstick.

Well, I didn't wait to hear what the results of THAT conversation were and instead just waved and headed out to Beth's car. Her dad had driven her over which explained her not being tardy for once. Usually her mom drove her around and she was ALWAYS late it seemed.

With a quick wave to her dad, I joined Beth in the backseat. He dad gave the once over, like most guys do when I walk up to them, and I noted he had the car mirror adjusted so he could keep an eye on things in the back seat. I liked to tease him, even though Beth really didn't appreciate it when I did. Heck, I liked to tease most any guy so why make an exception for him?

As for Beth, she was dressed almost the same as me, only she had on a pale pink blouse with NO bra underneath. It was a little funny actually. The girl with the smaller boobs had on a bra while the one with the big ones was practically popping out of her blouse! Actually, normally on a date with John I wouldn't have worn a bra and typically not bothered with the thong either but I figured today was sort of a show-off day and wearing them gave me more to tease the boys with later. Obviously Beth was coming in with a bit of a different strategy!

"So, where are we heading?" I asked as she hadn't bothered filling me in with that little tidbit of information before now.

"Bill's house. His family's in Florida or somewhere for the holidays and so he has the place to himself."

It take about twenty minutes to wind our way the twisting streets of the south side of Pittsburgh but we finally made it to his house, or least his parent's house. Wow, it was quite a place! From the looks of things it was almost new and all the homes in the neighborhood looked like they were quite expensive. Beth's dad parked on the brick driveway and I noticed that there weren't any other cars there so that meant John was late - as usual. The idiot would be late to his own funeral someday.

Bill must have been watching for us because as we approached the front door it opened and Bill was there to greet us. He was dressed in jeans and a flannel shirt with sneakers, pretty standard gear I guess. As the door opened, I heard Beth's dad drive away, apparently satisfied we were OK now that someone had answered the door.

6. Playing the Game

"Hey, can't believe you girls actually made it!" he exclaimed as he reached out to hug Beth.

"And you must be the infamous Kelly," he said to me, unabashedly giving me the once over from head to toe, "I've heard a LOT about you!"

I looked over at Beth who just shrugged her shoulders. I guess it was a compliment judging from the hungry look he was giving me.

Bill shut the door behind us and we took a seat in the kitchen around a large wood table, waiting for John to make his appearance. Knowing his track record, I wasn't surprised when it was another fifteen minutes before the doorbell rang and Bill went to let John in.

With the four of us there, Bill offered some drinks and snacks. I declined the beer and wine, settling for my favorite - Diet Coke. Bill went for a red wine while John grabbed some foreign sounding beer from Japan. It was probably expensive but from the looks of the house, I didn't think the owners really worried much about grocery prices. Beth shared the wine with Bill, stealing a sip from his glass now and then. We talked about school for a few minutes but I could tell from the glances everyone was making that we were all just waiting for someone to make the opening move. It was Beth's party but it was Bill's house so both John and I waited for one of them to get things rolling.

"You know what I haven't played in ages?" Beth finally cracked the ice, "Truth or Dare."

Both guys groaned simultaneously and even I couldn't help but roll my eyes a bit.

"Oh quit whining you guys," she said sharply, "You all know the rules so let's get started. Bill, Truth or Dare?"

Beth jumped right into it so fast we didn't have a chance to argue against it. It was such a childish game. Sure it was fun at slumber parties or whatever as a way to be naughty but still stay within certain bounds. But at our age we didn't need this hassle, did we?

Bill looked at Beth, stammering at first as if unsure how to answer.

"C'mon, which do you want?" she pestered him.

"Oh alright, Truth," he sighed as he finally gave in.

Beth wiggled in her chair as if she was a lawyer preparing to launch her attack on a key witness. She looked at me and grinned, evidently feeling quite good about herself at the moment.

"Hmmm, who is sexier, me or Kelly?"

Gee whiz, talk about going for the jugular it right off the bat! Normally you start out with a few softball questions and let people get comfortable before you dig in for the tough ones. Oh well, we weren't kids anymore and this was all just a prelude to the sex we all knew was coming, so why not? It wasn't like any of us had to be coaxed into anything.

"You are of course," he replied. Really, how else COULD the poor guy have answered? I wasn't going to just let it go by though.

"Well, we'll see how you feel about that later, won't we?" I said seductively. John shot me a warning glance but I just smiled at him disarmingly.

"OK Kelly, what's it going to be?" Bill asked.

I opted for Truth, figuring it would be better to start out slow because who knows what he might have dared me the way things had gotten started already.

"OK then, how many guys have you fucked?"

Well, this certainly wasn't starting out the way my old Truth or Dare sessions did at a slumber party! At those, when a question came up like that it was usually at the end and it typically meant the end of the game since we would all just giggle and nobody would answer.

Bill was impatient as I pretended to have to think about it, using my fingers to seem as if I was counting them in my head.

"From what I hear, you don't have nearly enough fingers girl," he taunted me.

Actually, that was quite an exaggeration. So far I'd only been fucked by four guys and of those, two of them had been one-time affairs. Steve was my first real boyfriend and after he took my virginity, my pussy was his pretty exclusively until he moved away, save for one time with his brother that was more to tease his poor brother than anything. There was that one time with a guy from my dad's office which was pretty bizarre, considering he was older than my dad and married. Thus John was actually only the second guy to fuck me on a regular basis and just the fourth to do me. I suspected what Bill had heard were overblown tales from guys I'd dated whose dicks I had sucked. Granted, I LOVE sucking cock but I've always been pretty picky about who fucks me which tended to make the numbers quite skewed. Honestly, it would have taken me some time to figure out how many guys I'd blown already but fucking was pretty easy - and fit on one hand.

"Just four," I announced, holding up four fingers.

John looked at me a bit strangely, probably because he was wondering who they were. Of course he knew about Steve since he went to our school at the time and wasn't shy about telling people what he did with me. It was the other two that he had no idea about and I wasn't about to tell him either, at least not here in front of Beth and Bill. Then again, as my best friend Beth knew about all of them but still, Bill didn't need to know.

It was my turn now so I just looked at John expectantly and he also went with Truth, no real shocker there! I asked him the same question that Beth had asked her boyfriend and surprisingly (NOT!), he named me as being the sexiest. Beth just grinned at him and I knew she was thinking the same as what I'd said to her boyfriend earlier. Well, go for it girl!

Again, it was no big surprise that John asked Beth how many guys she'd fucked. What WAS a surprise was her answer and how quickly it came.

"Ten!" she announced, clearly proud of the fact she more than doubled my count.

I looked at her with amazement. How had she managed to do so many guys already? Someday I would learn about her penchant for sex parties and multiple partners but on this day it was a mystery. It would have helped to have known, though, as I would have understood better why she was so willing to include John today.

Well, so much for round one. As far as I was concerned, that was enough and we could just strip and get down to it and quit wasting more time on a childish game. Beth, however, was of a different mindset.

"OK, one more time around so make it good," she declared. "Let's go the other way around this time."

Turning to John, she licked her lips and asked the proverbial cliché, "Truth or Dare?"

John wasn't about to be a wimp but he wasn't going to fall for her trap so he took dodged whatever bullet Beth likely had ready for him and asked for a truth question. Beth had a look of disappointment and I knew I would have to ask her later what she had planned if John had accepted her Dare. It wouldn't have surprised me if she made him suck Bill's dick but I knew THAT would never happen, no matter WHAT game were playing, so it was best it never got to that point.

"Oh well then, let's see... how many times a day do you masturbate?"

John's face reddened and I think he may have wished for a moment he had gone for the dare but if my suspicions were correct, he was still better off. Besides, what is it about guys and masturbation? Everyone knows they ALL do it (at least all the ones I know, including my dad) and they even joke about it but ask them something specific and they clam up like they're doing something dirty.

Another thing that frustrates me is that most guys love to watch me masturbate (well, make that ALL guys, at least up to now) but when I ask them to do it for me they get all embarrassed. It's so silly. Like, I masturbate all the time with my friends. It's nothing sexual between us, just something we enjoy doing together. Yet I've NEVER seen two guys masturbate together and when I've even mentioned it to them, it was like I was asking them to commit suicide. Oh well, I guess that's just men for you.

"Alright, maybe once a day," he said in a barely audible tone.

"Oh come on!" Beth derided him, "You have to tell the truth!"

Bill frowned and glanced briefly at Bill, who seemed to be getting a kick out of John's discomfort.

"Two or three times a day, satisfied?" he practically spat out at Beth.

He looked at me with this "forgive me" puppy dog look and I wanted to laugh. Heck, I masturbated at least that often so what was there for him to be embarrassed about? There was certainly nothing for me to forgive him. Heck, if he WASN'T masturbating about me a couple times a day I would have been disappointed.

Obviously relieved to be finished with his obligations and wanting to move on to another subject, John looked at me and smiled. Hmmmmmm, now what did my naughty boyfriend have up his sleeve for me? Since it was him and not Bill asking me, I decided to go for the dare, trusting him not do ask me to do anything weird.

"I dare you to lick Beth's pussy," he said with a grin. Bastard! That's what I get for trusting a horny guy. Damn, look what he did to me. Now what?

My question was quickly answered as Beth seemed all too willing to drop her jeans as soon as she heard his demand and before I even said a word she was sitting back on her hands with her knees spread, exposing her pussy to me. In the good old days it was considered risqué to ask a girl to kiss another girl and if things REALLY got out of hand, maybe touch her but I'd NEVER been asked to do oral sex on a girl before. Then again, I WAS a little curious and it wasn't like doing it one time as gong to brand me a lesbian or anything.

"Ummmmm, is this OK with you Beth?"

What a dumb question! I have no idea what possessed me to ask it but as soon as it was out I clasped my hand tightly over my mouth, embarrassed by my naive question.

"It's perfectly fine with me, in fact it's always been," she answered in a surprisingly soft tone.

She looked like she was actually WANTING me to do it. I'd heard that she was OK with girls but we never discussed it a lot as she knew how I felt about the subject. Well, I was about to get my first lesson!

The guys watched intently as I crawled on all fours over to where she was sitting on the floor. The closer I got, the wider it seemed she spread her legs for me. Her pussy was shaved most of the way with a small triangle of pubic hair right above her pussy slit.

As for me, I still had most of mine although I did trim it down to keep it inside my bikinis and thongs. I noticed that more and more girls were starting to shave theirs and I knew I probably would sooner or later. It was weird. For years I couldn't wait to get hair down there and now I was thinking about shaving it off just when it was starting to fill in nicely!

The room was deathly silent as I neared her crotch. With my face about two inches above her pussy I looked up at her and Beth smiled at me.

"You can do it," she encouraged me, "Just pretend it's yours."

I could smell her sex now, that distinct odor of a pussy when a girl gets horny. For whatever reason, women seem to be able to smell it much more than men. I've been in rooms with other girls and the place practically stank of pussy yet the guys seemed oblivious to it. My mom use to tease me about it when I came home from a date, picking up on it right away while my dad would look at us like he had no clue what we were talking about.

I took in a deep breath and plunged down to her pussy. At first I just stuck out my tongue and let it touch her clit. Actually, the first thing that ran through my mind was that she tasted just like me. I had been curious if another girl's pussy would taste the same. Guys cocks typically had as similar texture and taste but their cum varied drastically, even the same guys at different times was different. Maybe it was the same with girls, that they tasted the same at first but when they came it was unique. I just knew I wouldn't be finding THAT out today, that was for sure.

"That's it, now lick down lower," Beth instructed me. "Put your whole mouth on me."

I did as she instructed me and licked down to her pussy hole where I pushed my face in as tight as I could so I could get my tongue in her. Beth's hips were starting to move around as she clearly seemed to be enjoying what I was doing to her. It was enough, though, for me so I sat up and wiped her pussy juices from my face the back of my hand.

"Ahhhhhh, so it that all?" Bill was the first to ask.

"Hey, nobody said for how long," I said, stating my case. Really, it was Truth or Dare, not a lesbian sex video.

Actually, Beth looked more disappointed than the guys. Oh well, my curiosity was satisfied and that's what counted so far as I was concerned. It was my turn again. Bill, evidently trying to upstage John, asked me for a dare. Hmmmmmm, payback time! Beth may not have had the chance to ask this but that didn't mean I couldn't.

"Well, if you guys liked seeing me lick Beth's pussy, then it's only fair you suck Bill's cock, don't you think?"

Now THAT took them by surprise - all three of them actually. Both guys stared at me and then at each other as their faces registered the shock and revulsion they both were feeling. It was funny in that I don't know which one was the most horrified, the potential giver or the receiver. On the other hand, Beth was clapping her hands with glee.

"Cool Kelly, that was great!" she giggled.

"No way," Bill protested, "Ain't gonna happen."

John didn't say anything but I could tell he as just as determined as Bill was.

"Well, if you don't do it then you don't get to fuck Beth and me," I reprimanded him. Yes, it was time to raise the ante.

In truth, I expected the boys to cave in at that point. Really, like what was the big deal? It wasn't like I was asking to give him a BJ and swallow his cum. Besides I wasn't asking him to do anything he wouldn't want ME to do. Nonetheless, it was a lesson for me in just how homophobic boys can be. Both of them steadfastly refused. It was obvious that nothing was going to budge them either.

Rather than make an issue of it, we just quit the game as obviously it was getting out of hand, even from the onset. I think Truth or Dare requires a little more innocence and naivety to be truly fun. In this situation, it was just a prescription for problems.

7. The Contests

It was rather interesting that so far the only one of us that had undressed at all was Beth and she was just bottomless. So much for your stereotypes about Truth or Dare games! For a few moments we all just sat around as if unsure of how to go on to whatever we were going to next. Beth had apparently expected the game to go in a different direction but now that it had ended on such a strange note, it was like everything she had planned needed to be reinvented. Well, leave it to Beth to be the first to make a move.

"Tell you what Kelly, I bet I can make your boyfriend cum faster than you can make mine."

I looked at her with a rather bewildered look while the two guys grinned from ear-to-ear. Now THAT was a new one for me. Sure I'd gotten pretty good by now, learning how to either speed up or slow down a guy when sucking him, depending on my mood at the moment, but I'd never done it as any form of contest before.

"What's the matter, afraid I'll beat you?" she teased me.

Well, I wasn't going to sit back and let her bash my cock-sucking skills. She may have fucked more guys than me but I was willing to bet I'd sucked more dicks than she had. In fact, I was rather proud of my ever-growing reputation at school.

"Watch and learn," I responded rather egotistically.

Turning to Bill, I huffed and pointed at his pants, saying, "Well, what are you waiting for? Do you want me to suck your cock or not?"

Both Bill and John stripped off their jeans as fast as they can. I noticed they both wore the same underwear - Hanes jockey shorts. I ALSO noticed that both pairs of underwear were having a hard time restraining their wonderful erections! It would be interesting to see how their cocks compared and in a few more seconds I got my first look. Actually, they both looked quite similar. Neither of them had a future in the porn industry as their cocks were average at best, but what they lacked in size they certainly compensated for in terms of stiffness.

What was amusing, at least to me, was the way they both stripped off their pants without ever once looking at the other guy. Sheesh, once again I had to wonder what was it with guys that they were so self-conscious of another guy's dick? It's not like they didn't all have one after all. Neither had anything to boast about but then, neither did they have to be embarrassed. I had certainly sucked more than a lot of cocks that were a lot smaller than theirs.

Both guys stood up and faced their assigned contestant. I'd never sucked a cock in front of another guy before, especially not one I was dating at the time. Well, technically that wasn't 100% true as my dad would sometimes peak in my bedroom when I was blowing a guy without him knowing it; but I knew he was just checking up on me so that really didn't count.

"Ready?" I asked Beth as I kneeled in front of her boyfriend.

Beth had taken a position in front of John. She hadn't bothered putting her jeans back on or taking anything else off. I had to admit she looked really cute kneeling in front of my boyfriend with her bare ass sticking out behind me.

"I'm ALWAYS ready to suck a cock," she teased in return.

That was good enough for me. I reached out and took Bill's dick in my hand and then took it in my mouth as quickly as possible. Usually when I give a blowjob I like to play with his cock a little, run my hands around it and let my fingertips glide up and down the hard shaft, my fingernails just barely touching him. Then I would use my tongue and tease the tip of his dick and lick his shaft and balls, taking in the musky odor of his crotch like the scent of the forest after a rain.

Not so today! Not generally a "hand" girl, I prefer to rely on my mouth and tongue to make a guy come. It's a little slower but then usually I'm not in such a hurry either. Today I was giving the hand job AND the mouth job at the same time, stroking his shaft with my hand while my mouth worked the upper portions of his dick, especially the head. I loved to run my tongue under the lip, feeling the soft smoothness of his cock head in my mouth against my lips.

"Damn you're good!" Bill gasped as I worked his cock.

I glanced over at where Beth was sucking my boyfriend, just in time to see her glare at Bill for making such a comment about a girl other than her.

"Hey, your girlfriend's not so bad herself," I heard John say back to Bill. Bastard, what was he doing complimenting another girl's BJ right in front of me? He knew how protective I was about my reputation so he must have been saying it just to tease me. Oh well, I guess I could live with fibbing a little to make Beth happy.

I was actually starting to feel a little dizzy as it was hard to breath while I was bobbing up and down on Bill's dick so fast. I felt his hands on the back of my head, pulling me into him more and I knew just what he wanted. Pausing a second to catch a breath, I let go of his dick and started to take him into my mouth completely. He wasn't THAT huge so I was sure that I would be able to get him all in and sure enough, my lips bottomed out against the hairy base of his dick and my face was buried in the thick pubic hair that formed around his crotch.

"Oh shit, that's it, take it all," he groaned as I twisted my head around his hard shaft. God he smelled and tasted so good! If someone could only figure out how to bottle the musky scent of a guy's crotch during sex, I'd be first in line to buy a case of it!

Bill grabbed my head and held it still while he started fucking my mouth. His hips swung back and forth as he rammed his cock all the way into my mouth and then pulled back until just the head was between my lips. A couple of time he really pushed it in hard and I thought I might gag but he was doing it so fast that before anything bad could happen he was already out of my throat on a backstroke.

"Shit, I've always wanted to do this," he said, almost like a growl escaping him.

I had no idea of Beth was watching or had heard what he said as it took all my concentration to take his thrusts. It was like he was banging my pussy the way he was fucking my mouth. Deep, fast stroked that slammed his crotch into my face.

This was less a blowjob than it was a face fuck but hey, if it got the desired results, I was all for it!

As horny as Bill was, combined with the excitement of deep-throat fucking me, it was amazing he held out as long as he did. There are days when I like to lay on the couch next to a guy with my head on his lap and just suck his cock slowly for hours while we watch a movie or TV. Today wasn't one of those days!

"Oh god, I'm cumming!" he gasped.

I had fully expected him to ram his dick in my mouth as far as he could and I was actually worried for a moment that I might choke or gag when he came given how far his dick was in my mouth. It turned out to be a needless worry. I don't know if he did it for himself or just to tease Beth, but regardless of the reason, he pulled out of my mouth and started spraying his cum all over me, like a firehouse that had been let loose and was spraying all over the place. The first shot almost missed me it was so forceful but I could feel it land on the top of my head and could only imagine the mess it was making in my hair. From there he splattered my blouse right over my boobs, my face, and one random shot finally made it to my outstretched tongue. To my chagrin, almost all of it ended up somewhere on me BESIDES my mouth.

"Crap Billy, couldn't you have held out a LITTLE while at least?" Beth whined.

I looked over and she was stroking John almost absentmindedly, a look of disgust on her face as her eyes bored holes into her boyfriend who had just cum all over her best friend. It wasn't the fact he came on me that she was pissed off about, it was the fact he came so fast and she lost her bet with me. Like me, Beth hated to lose which is probably one reason we seldom competed directly head to head (no pun intended).

"Sorry babe," Bill said sheepishly as he shrugged his shoulders and lifted his hands up. "You know, your friend gives one HELL of a BJ!"

"Hey, you gonna finish mine or what?" John complained. Who could blame him as everyone seemed to be more worried about Bill than him.

"Well, now that you've done him, how about getting over here and help me get your guy off," Beth suggested.

What I really wanted was to get to the bathroom and wash off Bill's cum before it started to dry and got all itchy and congealed in my hair. I'd never sucked a boy's cock next to another girl before, though, so the temptation was too much to turn down.

"Why don't you take off those clothes? Yuck, you're a MESS!" Beth exclaimed as I started to kneel next to her.

"You too then," I countered.

She only had to take off her blouse while I stripped off all of my clothes. My blouse had numerous cum stains on it and really should have put in the sink to soak but this didn't seem to be the opportune time to play housekeeper. With the both of us nude, we kneeled side by side in front of John. I felt Beth's smooth nude body against mine and my pussy started to tingle. It wasn't like it was the first time as we sometimes laid next to each other in our bikinis or even nude during sleepovers but THIS was different.

There wasn't any more time to think about Beth as John's hard dick was waiting for us. We traded back and forth, sucking his cock on time while playfully debating who got to lick him the next. Bill sat back on one of the chairs and watched. Once again I couldn't help but smile at his actions - or lack of them. My dad wasn't afraid to let me see him masturbate. After all, didn't ALL guys do it? Yet here Bill was, more than just a porn movie to get him off, and he wasn't about to touch himself in front of us. From as hard as his dick was, I had to believe that he WANTED to masturbate. It was amazing to witness how deep cultural taboos had been drilled into him.

It took only about another four or five minutes before John couldn't hold back anymore. I let Beth get most of his cum, well actually all of it for that matter. Then she turned to me with a grin and I knew what was coming. Thoughts of a slumber party came to mind when I tricked the sister of my first boyfriend to swap his cum with me came to mind as Beth reached out to kiss me. Sure enough, she hadn't swallowed John's cum but had instead held it in her mouth so she could give it to me. It was more a show for the guys than anything between us so we hammed it up a bit, me laying back with my mouth open while she let it drip from her mouth into mine.

Now that both guys had cum, Beth and I looked at each other and it was if we could read each other's minds. I was horny as hell by now and I knew she had to be. They guys had both cum and even though they weren't THAT old, it would still probably be a little bit before they were back in action, so to speak. Just enough time for Beth to demand a rematch....

"Hey, did you guys know me and Kelly like to see who can make themselves cum the fastest?" Beth teased the guys.

Well, THAT was certainly one way of getting their attention again. It was typical Beth. Now me... I would have probably talked about it with her first, worked out the details, and then bring it up slowly with the guys but that wasn't Beth's way. She was always going straight for the throat, no holds barred, nothing held back. Sometimes it got her in trouble but at times like this, it was an admirable quality.

"You guys play together?" Bill asked while john just stared at me, as if he was seeing someone he didn't recognize. It wasn't that either of them appeared put off by the implications. No, they both seemed to be turned on if the quickened pace of their "recovery" had anything to say about it.

"Well, we just masturbate... we don't play TOGETHER, if that's what you were thinking," I stepped in to squelch that line of thinking before anything further developed.

While I'm sure both of them would rather see me and Beth locked in a 69, the idea of the two of us masturbating for them seemed enough for them at the moment. I gave Beth "the eye" and giggled saying, "You sure you want to embarrass yourself in front of your boyfriend?"

Beth knew me well enough to recognize when I was teasing her, but she picked up on the act and retorted, "What's to be embarrassed about? You're the one that should be worried. I'd of beat you last time if it hadn't been for my dad checking on us."

Now realize that I had NO idea what the hell she was talking about, it was all ad-lib from here on out. The boys, though, were eating it up, taking it all hook, line and sinker. Each of them was sitting there, subconsciously holding their cocks like it was a security blanket from their youth while they stared at us both with their mouths hanging open. It might've been sexy if it hadn't been so pathetic!

"We were under the covers Beth," I mock protested, "I don't know why you felt you had to stop. Don't blame me for taking advantage of your pit stop."

What the heck, may as pile it on. I could only imagine the nasty images running through the guys' minds now. Only one thing made me stop and think, why had Beth picked THIS fantasy to tease them about? I knew she didn't have anything going for her dad, THAT would have been really weird and Beth was a kinky girl , not a perverted one.

"Let's go... first one to cum wins," Beth challenged me. She immediately laid back on the flair with her back against the couch next to where her boyfriend was sitting. She put her knees flat on the floor and spread her knees apart, then started playing with herself right in front of the three of us.

"Better get going Kelly, I'm gonna beat you this time!" she said, her voice already a low moan as her fingers toyed with her clit. Not about to be beat at what I considered my own game, I sat down in one of the chairs across from the couch, lifting one leg up onto the arm of the chair and leaving the other dangling off the end, my foot on the floor for balance. I nestled into the corner of the stuffed chair and proceeded to go to work. I was so damn horny I thought I was going to jump out of the chair when I first touched myself!

"Holy crap!" gushed John, ""Can you believe it?"

Both Bill and John were staring at us, their eyes going back and forth between the two of us like they were watching a tennis match. I closed my eyes to concentrate more on my pussy and how it felt to be touching it. I could hear Beth moaning from across the room but I knew it was just a show for the guys. When Beth was REALLY about to cum, I knew from experience that she became MORE quiet and then let loose really hard once she got off.

Usually when I was in a hurry like this to cum, I would think about being fucked by my boyfriend Steve back when I was fourteen and still new to sex, or I would recall somewhere John had taken me to have sex where we almost got caught. Today though, my mind couldn't get over those few seconds my mouth was covering Beth's wet and warm pussy. God she had tasted SOOOO good! If she had called me over to her right now, I doubt that I'd have the courage to go through with it, but in my fantasies I can dream anything and for the next couple of minutes, I imaged spending all that time with my face on Beth's pretty pussy.

It worked....

Between being so horny to start, my first taste of Beth's pussy (Albeit a quick one), then sucking the guy's dicks and now masturbating while Beth was doing the same right across the room from me with two guys staring at us with their eyes wide as if afraid to miss a single moment, was it any wonder my orgasm was quick to cum. Beth didn't stand a chance!

"Oh god I'm cumming!" I moaned as I stroked my fingers in and out of me while with my other hand I diddled my clit.

Indeed I was, right in front of the three of them. It wasn't like I had never masturbated in front of anyone before, but it felt different this time for some reason. When I masturbated with my dad in the room, that's all it was - me masturbating while he as in the room. He never responded to me, never tried to "help me", in fact he rarely even acknowledged what I was doing, if he did that at all. Bill and John were totally different. They were erect because of me, actually stroking themselves (although I'm not sure they really realized what they were doing with their minds clouded so with lust for me and Beth), they were getting off because of me! Now THAT meant something to me.

I placed my palm over my hot crotch, pressing down over it with both hands, trying to get my breath back as my orgasm began to wane. Poor Beth, she never stood a chance! I wonder what she would have said had she known what image I had used for "motivation"!

"Ha! Beat you again Beth," I gloated, barely able to get the words out as I tried to catch my breath. I looked at the guys and grinned naughtily, putting my pussy-cum covered finger in my mouth and sucking on it like a tiny dick. "Well, guys, enjoy the show?"

Like I had to ask!

8. Finally Fucked

The whole thing made me feel really slutty and thus a LOT horny. When I feel this way, sucking a cock again wasn't going to hack it, I need to be FUCKED! With a couple of renewed and hard dicks within arm's reach at the moment, I didn't think it was going to be much of a problem either!

"Let's go to my room," Bill suggested as he grabbed my hand and started pulling me towards the stairs. Evidently the idea of swapping girlfriends had already been decided.

Why waste the time? Besides, fucking in the living room with the large picture window overlooking the street would be so much hotter! I resisted him and tried to stand firm saying, "Why not stay here and do it?"

Bill looked at me and then at Beth and John, "You wanna do it in front of THEM?"

"Well, let's see.... I just sucked your dick in front of them and now I masturbated in front of you all. Hmmm, THAT seemed to be OK," I countered, "So what's the big deal about fucking me in front of them?"

Bill looked at Beth again and then it struck me. It wasn't that he was concerned about HIM fucking ME with an audience, he didn't want to see his girlfriend being fucked by another guy. Apparently it was bad enough to know he was doing her but seeing it right in front of him was going too far. Sheesh, it wasn't like they were married or the two of them had never fucked anyone else before. Suddenly another idea dawned as my thoughts raced through my head.

"How many girls have you fucked Bill?" I asked him quietly, trying to keep Beth and John from overhearing us. They were already going at it on the couch, pawing at each other like two kids on a first date. So much for my boyfriend's loyalty! I bet the horny bastard couldn't wait to get a hand on her big boobs and ass!

Bill seemed suddenly embarrassed. "A few," he answered but from the way his eyes looked down and the tone of his voice, I knew instantly he was lying.

"Beth's the only girl you've fucked, isn't she?" I asked softly, more of a statement really than a question as I knew the answer even before he sheepishly nodded.

"And it bothers you seeing someone else do her, doesn't it?" I said with a glance at the couch where it looked like he was already doing just that. God, they weren't wasting any time, were they? I tried to be respectful of Bill's feelings. For crying out loud, at his age and with his looks you would've thought he'd of already fucked a dozen girls. Beth never told me that he was a virgin when he did her the first time. The yet another light bulb went on over my head. Did Beth even KNOW? Oh my god, I was sure she didn't or else she would have bragged about it long ago. This was just too precious!

Bill glanced over again at the couch. From where we were we could only see the back of it but you could see just enough to know John was fucking Beth. Since she had never finished herself after I had won the masturbation contest, she must have been on the cusp of an orgasm as it was and with John fucking her so fast and hard from the get-go, that was all she needed to go the rest of the way.

"OK, maybe we should go to your room," I said, taking his hand in mine this time.

Bill looked so relieved it was almost comical as he led me up the stairs and down the hallway. On the way we passed a room that simply HAD to be a girl's room judging from the pink walls, flowers and boy-band posters plastered on the walls. I tugged at him to stop.

"Whose room is this?" I asked, nodding towards the open door.

"Oh that's my sister's," he answered, pulling me to continue down to his room but I tugged back again.

"That's it Bill, I can't wait for you to put that big cock in my pussy," I encouraged him. It never hurt to inflate the guy's ego a bit and nothing seemed to make a guy feel better about himself than to compliment his dick.

Bill climbed on the bed and kneeled between my legs. I dropped my legs over his shoulders and used them to pull my hips upward, exposing my pussy better for him to work with it. He leaned forward and I felt the tip of his dick touch me, just lightly at first as he let it rub over the slick surface of my pussy.

"Don't tease me with it Bill," I begged him, "Fuck me... fuck me NOW!"

It wasn't just a show for him although that was certainly part of my intent. I really DID want him to stop teasing me and fuck me! Bill got his dick in the right position finally and if I'd had the right leverage I would've pulled him forward and driven his dick into me myself. As it was, the ball was in his court and I waited for him to make that forward thrust which would impale me on his dick. It was certainly no surprise that I didn't have to wait long.

"Oh yeah!" I moaned as he began to push himself into me.

There was no faking or embellishment, it really DID feel good when his dick forced its way into my tight little pussy. I was so wet there was little resistance and besides, despite my statements earlier about the size of his cock, he really wasn't all that big but he was more than adequate.

"Yes Bill, that's what I want," I moaned softly as I closed my eyes so I could concentrate on what was happening between my thighs.

"Wow, you're really tight," he grunted as he pushed harder to drive his dick deeper inside of me. Hmmm, was I tighter than Beth?

Once Bill's stiff dick was in me it was easy from there. At first he pushed my legs back so I was actually laying on my upper back and shoulders with my hips completely off the bed as he drove himself downward into my pussy. My arms stretched out behind me and I grabbed the bed railing for balance as Bill drove his cock like a piston in and out of me. I could clearly see him fucking me as I looked down and up to where his dick was appearing and then hiding once again in my little pussy. I loved seeing it and feeling it at the same time, although it was hard to imagine that the same dick I was watching was also causing the incredible sensations inside of me.

"Let me ride you," I panted after he had been at it for a while.

Bill didn't respond as he fought to catch his breath but after he pulled out of me, rather unceremoniously, he sat on the edge of the bed and planted his feet on the floor. I took stock of the situation and straddled him with my knees on the bed, facing him such that my small boobs were practically pushed into his face.

"Suck my tits," I told him as he buried his head in my cleavage, or at least what I liked to imagine as my cleavage.

Alternating between my boobs, he first just licked my nipples and then took them into his mouth, sucking on them and even biting them softly. Mmmmmmm, Beth must have taught him well when it came to handling boobs!

Meanwhile I lowered myself down into his cock, using one arm around his to hold myself from falling backwards to the floor while my other hand has a grip on his shaft, guiding it to my slowly descending pussy. As I approached his dick I felt it touching me and wiggle it around to get it into my pussy hole after which I dropped down on him suddenly, driving his dick in me quickly before he even realized what was happening. Before he could do anything, I twisted myself around such that my legs were out from under me and stretched out in front of me, leaving literally sitting on his lap with his dick poking up inside my pussy like a moth in a collection.

"Mmmmmmm, your nice dick feel so good in me," I purred contentely, rotating my hips just a little to move his dick around inside my pussy.

Bill put his hands on my waist and literally lifted me up and down on his cock, like I was some sort of naughty doll with his dick inside of it. He was stronger than he looked as I figured he would tire out in a couple of minutes but the boy was strong, keeping at it for what must have been five to ten minutes before he finally gasped and let me drop back down in his dick again. It was sort of like you here of people getting extraordinary strength when a loved one is trapped under a car except in this case it was Bill's lust for me, his desire to fuck me, that was the driving force.

"Mmmmmmm, that was nice, do me from behind now," I instructed him.

Bill helped me off his lap and I saw his cock pointing up to the ceiling, glistening into the light with the wetness of my pussy all over it. For a moment I was tempted to start sucking it again but my pussy was crying for it even louder so I leaned over the bed on my elbows with my feet on the floor. My butt was facing up to him and I spread my legs apart to give Bill a better view.

This time it was Bill who guided his missile into me as I looked back underneath me to try and see his dick approach my pussy. At first he hit my asshole and I was afraid he might be getting some kinky ideas but he apparently was just "lost" in the landscape of my ass for a moment as he soon found his way back to my pussy hole again. He rubbed himself up and down my pussy lips a couple of times before taking aim at my pussy and next thing I knew, I was being pushed forward as he started fucking me yet again. Bill held my waist with his hands and I moved forward and back, trying to stay synchronized with his natural motion.

All I could do at this point was gasp and moan and sometimes get out something about his dick in me and how good it felt. It wasn't anything very coherent, more just my feelings breaking loose now and then and expressing themselves for all to hear. He seemed to enjoy hearing it as he would grunt or gasp after I said something.

Turning my head back over my shoulder, I smiled at him as he pumped away at my pussy.

"I want you to cum in me Bill," I grunted as best I could between his banging of my pussy, "Cum in my mouth this time."

It was a nice thought but Bill apparently had other things in mind. His stroked quickened and he showed no signs of getting ready to pull out so I could spin around let him cum all over my face and mouth.

"Oh god," he moaned as he gripped my hips so tight it was almost painful.

Suddenly I felt it, that unmistakable feeling you get when a guy is discharging his cum into you. Mmmmmmm, Bill apparently had decided to cum inside of my pussy instead of doing it in my mouth.

"Oh yeah Bill, cum in me," I cried out, holding myself as still as I could so I could feel each load of cum being released in me.

Even though he had cum not that long ago downstairs, this load of cum was still more than respectable as he unleashed over a half dozen decent shots of sperm inside of me.

"Oh god, that felt so good," he moaned after he had finished cumming in me and pulled out.

Apparently too exhausted to stand any further, he flopped down on the bed with his head back on the pillow and his arm outstretched. Amazingly, his dick was still hard and I bet I could have gone at least one to two more rounds with it.

As for me, I was feeling pretty good and when I stood, I could feel his cum drip from my pussy to the carpeting below. I couldn't help but imagine what his sister would think if she knew what had been deposited on her carpeting! Then again, how would Bill have explained the wet spot on the bed where he had fucked me earlier!

"You came in me without a rubber. Ever do that before?" I asked him.

Bill just shook his head. "No, that was my first time. Beth always makes me wear one. But she said you took protection and that is was OK to stay in you."

It was interesting to know that Beth had apparently been giving Bill instructions on how to fuck me before today and that he had taken them to heart.

"Did you like cumming in me?"

"It felt different, just something about knowing my stuff was going in your pussy, I guess," he stammered, as if unsure of how to express his feelings.

"Let's go see how Beth and John are doing," I told him, jumping out of the bed still stark naked but now with a load of Bill's cum in me.

When we got downstairs, Beth and John were still going at it. One thing I knew for sure, both of them had been with multiple people over the past year or so at least. Beth was riding John who was laying on the couch. She was facing away from him while he played with her butt as she pumped her pussy up and down on his stiff dick. Bill didn't seem to be bothered so much by the site of his girl being fucked. Probably had something to do with that load of cum that was still draining from me.

I enjoy talking during sex and I could be filthy if that turned the guy on but usually I just enjoyed telling him how I felt and how he could do it better. Beth, on the other hand, was apparently s real slut during sex. God, she was swearing up a storm and yakking nonstop between loud groans and moans. It actually sounded like some cheap porn flick was playing expect in this case my best friend was doing all the talking, not some stupid porn whore. I knew Beth was a little more foul mouthed than me at times, but I never imagined anyone could curse and answer the way she was while being fucked.

"Does she talk like that when you fuck her?" I whispered to Bill as we took a seat at the table and watched.

Actually, HE took a seat while I sat on his lap. His dick was still hard so it felt good pressing up against my ass. Bill started fondling my boobs as we both waited to see what was going to happen.

Although I thought Beth was on birth control, maybe she was either fibbing or didn't trust it because as John was about to cum, she hopped off his cock and knelt on the floor so she could stroke his dick the final few times it needed to make him cum.

"Ohhhhhhhhh!" was all John could get out as he started to spray his cum all over Beth.

She had it pointed at her chest so almost all of it struck her boobs. None of it hit her in the face or got in her hair which surprised me a bit as I had expected Beth would have been a bit of a cum-slut.

"You boy has a GREAT dick!" Beth crowed in triumph once John had finished cumming. She got up and walked over to where Bill and I sat, showing off the coating of cum that was all over her boobs and chest.

I got up and patted Bill's cock affectionately. "Well, your guy's cock wasn't nothing to sneeze at either."

That about wound things up as I grabbed some kitchen towels for Beth and I to clean up with. I would've liked to have seen the look on Bill's mother's face when she did the wash next time and smelled the dried pussy cum and sperm on her best towels!

Beth called her dad who was there literally in minutes to pick us up. When he arrived, Beth and I headed out, leaving the boys behind. I couldn't wait to get home and tell my mom about my latest adventure! Not only that, I wanted to find out why Beth hadn't warned me that Bill was a virgin his first time with her. Something told me, though, that she didn't have a clue about THAT. I couldn't wait to see the expression on her face when I dropped that one on her!

I saw. My boobs may have been slower than I wanted in developing, but my ass was definitely on a different time scale. Every guy I dated commented on how nice and firm my ass was and it was definitely my best "asset"! Thus I loved to wear anything that showed it off - tight pants, short skirts, cutoffs and, well, you get the picture.

My hair was a bit of a mess so I quickly ran a brush through my hair and then hurried to my parent's bedroom. There on the bed was my mom and I couldn't believe my eyes - she had on the identical outfit I did! Of course her boobs were a LOT bigger and her pussy was much hairier than mine so it fit her differently. Regardless of all that, all I could think at the moment was how beautiful she was and how sexy she looked in that outfit! Sure, I'd seen my mom nude all my life, including a few outfits as revealing as this one, but there was something about being in the same outfit as her that made me feel different than I had before.

Next to the bed, my dad was taking pictures of her so she didn't notice right off the bat that I had entered the room but when my dad's eyes widened as he saw me she looked to see what he was staring at and realized I'd entered the room. She turned and saw me in my matching outfit and then gave my dad a glaring stare. Obviously he had not told her about my gift! She didn't look so much mad or anything like that, more confused than anything else. My dad just waved her off, laughed and motioned for me to get in bed next to her.

"So what do you think Mary?" he asked, "like mother like daughter?"

"Johnnnnn," she said as I got on my knees next to her, "Just what do you think you're doing?"

My dad just grinned even wider and started taking photos of us. I have to admit that felt a little odd at first. Over the years my dad had photographed me many times, including when I was wearing outfits he had bought me, but never in one even remotely as revealing as this negligee. Even though I was accustomed to him seeing me naked, it was always in a non-sexual way and I certainly had never posed for him being this close to being nude!

As always, my mom handled everything. She helped put me at ease by making me pose the same as she did. Once she had us both on all fours and told me to wiggle my butt. The sight of his wife and daughter showing off our butts in front of him made my dad laugh and soon we were all giggling and laughing together. I couldn't help but notice that my dad had quite the erection by now which gave me a feeling that our little photo shoot was going to be ending pretty soon. Sure enough, my mom couldn't keep her eyes off of my dad's cock as it pushed its way out of his pants and soon she whispered in my ear, "Don't you have to get ready for Greg dear?"

Even though I may have been half her age, I could take the hint! I kissed her on the cheek and hopped off the bed. I didn't need to be told to close the door on my way out. Although I loved my parents and it was good to know that after all these years they could still behave like horny teenagers together, sometimes it was annoying when they got horny and left me behind to fend for myself.

Feeling a little left out, I returned to my bedroom and took off the negligee, carefully folding it and placing it in the box it had come in. I laid back on my bed, naked once again, and if I listened closely I could just make out the sounds of my parents making love through the wall between our bedrooms. Hearing my mother moaning made me think about Greg and how I was going to be moaning later on myself when his cock was deep inside of me. Mmmmmmm, from the wetness between my legs I realized that I was even hornier than I'd thought!

My hands began to play with my boobs as I closed my eyes and remembered the first time he fucked me. It was back during Christmas break and he had stopped by to take me out to a movie. My mom had answered the door and teased him a little about taking me out. Then she told him that since I wasn't ready yet that he should go on up to my bedroom where he found me sitting at my desk wearing nothing but a bathrobe and a smile, putting on my makeup. Seeing me this way, he looked a bit surprised but if he'd known me better he would've realized that the situation was even more unusual since typically I don't bother with the robe! Well, little did he know that my mom and I had planned this all out before he had arrived.

Laying back on my bed, I squeezed my boobs harder as I remembered about how we kissed and the way it felt as he groped and fondled me, his hands exploring me and reaching under the robe. My hands wandered over my stomach and down between my legs, repeating the motions that he'd made that day. Goosebumps appeared and I shivered when my finger barely touched my enlarged clit as I imagined it was Greg's finger once again, reaching down my slipper pussy clit until he could push it inside of me. I pushed my finger inside my wet pussy and gasped as my hand pressed against my clit at the same time.

We certainly didn't waste any time that day getting into my bed. At first he was a little shy about leaving my bedroom door open but I insisted and once we started fucking he soon forgot all about it. Between my fingers playing with my pussy, my other hand pinching my nipple, the sounds of my mom crying out in the room next door, and finally the memory of how Greg's stiff cock had felt that first time he pushed it into me, I was soon on the verge of cumming. I pushed a second finger into me and immediately was rewarded by a flood of memories of how it felt to have his big cock drilling its way deeper and deeper up inside my tight pussy. It felt like he was splitting me open and stuffing me with his cock as he pushed himself even deeper into me.

As I started to cum, I thought about Greg fucking me in my bed, pumping his hard dick in and out of me like a pile driver and then quickly cumming. My pussy was on fire and my entire body broke out into goose bumps as I recalled the warm sensation of his cum bursting from his cock deep inside of my pussy. I moaned loudly and lifted my hips high off the bed as I pressed up against his imaginary cock, trying to get him even deeper into me as he released one load after another of his sperm into me. I will never forget looking over his shoulder and seeing my mom with her head poked around the door, smiling at me and giving me a thumbs up!

Greg collapsed on top of me with his cock still imbedded in me and never noticed the big grin I returned back to my mom. As I did back then, I just laid still in my bed, the afterglow of my orgasm running from head to toe. The only thing missing now was the burning feeling of his throbbing cock while it was still in me and yet again it made me think of our upcoming date tonight. Mmmmmmm, I hoped he was as horny for me as I was for him! Knowing Greg, I was sure that wasn't going to be a problem!

I washed up in the bathroom and sat down at my desk to fix my makeup. My hair was a bit of a wreck, to say the least, and although I seem to be always complaining about it being so straight, it was times like this where it proved to be helpful in that with just a few quick strokes of my hairbrush and it was back to its usual straight, down just past my shoulders, completely unglamorous look. With a few quick shakes, I dusted a little baby powder over my boobs and pussy. For whatever reason, I've found that guys seem to like Johnson's Baby Powder more than my most expensive perfume. I don't know, maybe it makes them think I'm even younger than I am. To be honest, it wasn't something I figured out on my own but rather a helpful hint from my mom and Aunt Linda.

My mom and I had gone out shopping earlier and she bought me this beautiful dark blue strapless dress for me to wear tonight. I loved it because it had enough support in the bust to make me look like I had boobs twice their real size! Like a sexy glove, it clung to my body as if it was painted on over my torso and from there him this sexually excited, it always ended up the same way – me leaving them so he could fuck my mom.

Of course I'd heard of fathers and daughters having sexual relationships but it was obvious to me at the time that my dad wasn't interested in me that way. I was proud that he thought I was sexy and pretty but it never crossed my mind it might be anything more than that. I just loved being his little girl!

2. Dinner and The Incline

My thoughts were interrupted when Greg pulled into the driveway and I stood there waiting for him at the door. What the heck, I was dressed up like a lady so why not have him treat me like one and walk me to his car from the door! Greg was dressed nicely in a handsome suit that looked like it was brand new and he looked really sharp. He opened the door for me and then closed it as I got into the car and we were off. I looked back and couldn't help but smile as I wondered how long it would be before my parents realized I had gone. Well, for their sake I hoped it wouldn't be for a while yet!

Greg drove me to dinner at a fancy restaurant overlooking the city. We parked and then rode The Incline up the steep hill from the parking lot to Mt. Washington. Several other couples were in the cab with us and it was a quick ride to the top. From there it was a short chilly walk to the restaurant but fortunately I was wearing a warm jacket that helped. Once inside the host looked at us a bit quizzically and once he seated us I realized why. We were by far the youngest couple in the place and probably half the age of the next youngest. Looking at the menu I realized why. My God, the prices were exorbitant! I sucked in my breath and Greg must have noticed.

"Don't worry Kelly," he assured me holding my hand across the table, "I wanted tonight to be special and you're worth it."

Well, it was indeed a wonderful dinner. The whole thing took close to three hours and we had a great view of the city at night looking through the full length windows that lined the outside of the restaurant. Greg was a perfect gentleman throughout and the waiter even treated us like adults and not a couple of teenage interlopers crashing the fancy restaurant. Although we didn't have any wine, which undoubtedly helped to keep the tab low, I stole a peek at the bill afterwards and saw it was close to $100! Well, this certainly qualified as the most expensive dinner anyone had ever bought me.

We headed back to The Incline Back and this time there were no other passengers on board. Having ridden it many times, I knew the trip only took a few minutes but why waste such an opportunity? As soon as we got in the car I slid close to him in the seat and put my hand on his crotch. This was actually the first time all night anything sexual had come up between us so I figured he had to be horny as hell waiting for me.

I looked Greg in the eyes and he smiled back at me which was all I needed. I quickly unzipped his pants and reached in for his cock which was already starting to stiffen. The car lurched and we started down the hill as the cable slowly lowered us. I leaned over and took his cock in my mouth and started sucking it, nothing fancy as we didn't have a lot of time, just a simple up and down motion as my mouth pulled on his cock and my tongue ran all over it. He got hard almost instantly which was amazing considering how big he was when he was erect.

A thought suddenly went through my head, "Where does the blood come from to fill this big thing?" I only dwelled on this for a moment as I glanced to the side and saw the other car was about to pass us. The Incline had two cars on the same cable such that as one car went up the other went down. This meant they always passed right in the middle of the hill and it was traditional for the passengers in one car to wave to the others. I kept sucking Greg though and as we passed we both waved to the other car. It looked like there were at least three other couples dressed like they were fresh from some fancy party and at first I don't think they could quite believe what they saw.

Suddenly I saw two of the women put their hands to their face and the guys were pointing at us. It only lasted a moment though as the other car quickly passed by and Greg was laughing so hard it was hard to keep him in my mouth. I buried my face in his crotch until I had him all the way in my mouth and his pubic hair filled my face and the laughing stopped as he gasped.

"Oh fuck Kelly, that is incredible!" he groaned, "That's it, take it all in your mouth."

I wiggled my head around his cock and I could feel him beginning to swell and I knew he was about to cum. If I had a few more minutes I am sure I could have gotten him off but just then the car lurched and I knew we were at the end of the trip. I sat up and wiped the spit from my mouth as he quickly put himself back in and zipped up his pants. We were just in time as the doors opened and the next group of people were waiting for us to get out.

Greg stood up and I almost laughed out loud. His cock was so hard it stuck out from pants and it had to be obvious to everyone he had one hell of an erection! Two middle age couples were there and it was obvious from the way their eyes widened and the studiously avoided even touching us as we got out. One of the women looked at me and I quickly licked my lips seductively. She quickly looked away and I had to bite my tongue to keep from laughing at her discomfort. I looked back as we left the station and I could see them all talking and looking back at us. I could just imagine what they were saying.

3. The Hotel Room

It was freezing so we quickly crossed the bridge over the road and got into his car. I really wasn't sure what was next but he headed to Station Square and after the brief ride pulled up to the Sheraton where the valet opened my door and let me out. Greg gave him the keys and the valet look back at me with a bit of a question in his expression. I was obviously not even eighteen and with the dress I was wearing there was only one reason the two of us would be spending the evening in a hotel room! It turned out that Greg had checked in earlier before he picked me up so we avoided the clerk at the desk and any questions he might have. Instead we went straight to the elevators and up to our floor.

We stood there holding hands as the elevator ascended. We actually had not said a word to each other since pulling up to the hotel and Greg had not mentioned even going to one before so it was sort of surreal to be heading to a hotel room together. Greg broke the silence and leaned over to kiss me gently.

"I know we haven't discussed this but I didn't think there would be a problem. If you don't want to just say so and we can leave right now."

I put my arms around him and then let one hand slip down between his legs where I got a handful of his balls and cock and gently squeezed them. He was still a bit erect and I knew it wasn't going to take much to push him over the edge.

"You know how I feel Greg," I whispered back to him, "Don't worry, I want to."

That was all we said from that moment until we got to the door of our room. Despite my horniness and the sexual lust I'd been feeling for Greg all evening, I still felt a little tense as he put the key card in the door. I'd been fucked in a lot of places by a number of guys but this was the first time a guy had brought me to a hotel room for the explicit purpose of having sex with me. Was this how it felt to be a hooker? Greg wasn't paying me in cash but in a way what was the point of dinner really? Wasn't that actually just his way of paying me for what he really wanted from me tonight, to fuck me

I was under no delusions that Greg dated me for my witty conversation or bubbly personality. Like every guy I'd ever dated, Greg wanted me for just one thing - sex. It wasn't that I minded, what else would I expect from a teenage boy. Even if I dated a guy who I didn't have sex with, I still knew from the looks he gave me and the bulge in his crotch that he wanted me. It was different tonight for some reason, like I was making a transition of some sort although I wasn't quite sure even what it was.

Greg had to enter his card a couple of times before the light would turn green on the door and he was just about to give up when an older guy, looking like your typical businessman staying at yet another hotel, stepped out from the room opposite ours to head down the hall towards the elevators. He took a good look at me and then at Greg and I could have sworn he winked at Greg. Horny old bastard was probably wishing it was his room I was going to!

Greg finally got the door open and we slipped inside. It wasn't anything special, a couple of beds, a small table, and a dresser with a TV on it. On top the TV was a guide for the in-room movies and a remote. Before we got in any further the bathroom was right by the entrance and suddenly I felt this tremendous urge to pee. I told Greg I needed to use it and closed the door behind me. I didn't mind my parents watching me use the bathroom but I was raised with enough modesty that I didn't want my boyfriend to watch. In addition, I liked sex but I wasn't kinky and any thoughts of doing anything in the bathroom with a guy other than maybe showering together or using the sink- top was totally off limits for me.

I noticed that there was a robe hanging on the back of the door and so I slipped my dress up over my head and kicked off my heels. I loved the way the heels made me look but God they hurt! It seemed a shame in a way that I wasn't able to make use of my bare ass under my dress to tease Greg in some way but I knew someday I would get another opportunity with somebody. I sat on the toilet and felt that intense sense of relief that comes when your bladder is about to burst and you let lose that first flow of pee. A big sigh erupted from me and I put my hand to my mouth as I didn't want Greg to think I was starting anything without him!

When I was finished I checked myself out in the mirror and debated the robe. On one hand it would be sexy to leave wearing nothing but my heels but I nixed that idea. Then I WOULD be a hooker for crying out loud! Instead I wrapped the robe around me. It was huge and came down past my knees and completely covered me. The terrycloth felt good though and I wondered if Greg would let me take it home. One more look in the mirror and I took a deep breath and let it out slowly, my cheeks filling with air as I released it. My hands lifted up my air and fluffed it out over the robe and I was as ready as I ever would be.

Stepping out into the room, at first I didn't see Greg. As I moved in farther I saw he was already in bed under covers. One look at the chair with his clothes draped over it and I knew there wasn't anything under the sheets but him! He had the TV remote on the table next to him and was looking through the movie guide. Suddenly a funny thought ran through my head. I had been fucked a couple of times in a movie theater and in fact had given my first blowjob in one. It was almost as if tonight I was in a private theater with all the room and comfort I had dreamed of during those cramped times when we struggled to get positioned in the dark.

"Hmmmmmm, is there something on that's more interesting than me?" I asked coyly.

Greg seemed nervous at first and then realized I was just teasing him. I sat on the side of the bed and took the guide from him.

"Let me see," I said as I looked it over, "Here's a nice family film. What do you think?"

Greg laughed and reached up for me. He pulled me down next to him although I was still in the robe and he was under the covers. He hesitated for a second and then seemed to gain courage.

"Do you like porn movies Kelly?" he asked. "I always thought it would be cool to watch one with a girl."

If I'd been totally honest I would've told him flat out that I didn't - which was the truth. My dad had quite a collection and he enjoyed watching his share so I'd seen them before. Although it was obvious they turned my dad on from the way he got himself off as he watched, they never seemed to have that effect on me. My mom and I talked about it and she agreed with me but tried to make me understand my dad's reaction. In a way it helped me because it helped me to realize why the boys got so turned on when I teased them and flirted with them, even though at times it seemed a little silly to me. It also helped me understand, even if I didn't like the answer, why men didn't seem to realize what it took to get me off. Sure I could be brought to an orgasm if a guy fucked me and played with my clit long enough. But for me, and my mom totally agreed with me on this one, a good orgasm was 90% mental and 10% physical.

Some of my best orgasms so far had not been necessarily with the hottest guy or the one with the best "technique". For me it had more to do with how and where we did it than how he touched me. Naughty sex in a theater made me cum much harder than doing me in his bedroom with nobody home. Seeing two people fucking on the TV didn't do a thing for me because I wasn't involved. Now if I was to watch say my best friend and her guy doing it, THAT would certainly be a different story because I could relate to them. Simply watching a couple of whores (yes, I consider the guys whores as well in porn flicks) fucking in front of a camera crew on a set wasn't the least bit sexy so far as I was concerned. There WAS one thing though that porn flicks were good for though. I did learn a few good techniques watching the "pros"!

So anyway, instead of spoiling his plans I gave him a sexy smile and licked my lips. "Mmmmmmm," I purred, "you pick one out and let's watch it together."

Greg didn't hesitate, he had obviously figured it all out while I was in the bathroom and he turned on the movie. It had just started and sure enough, two girls were fucking some "lucky" guy. I wanted to laugh but I bit my lip instead. The usual guy fantasy. I liked to be alone with a guy to have sex. Why would I want to share a cock with another girl? I guess it was sort of like porn movies, maybe someday I would just to please some guy just as I was watching this now to please Greg.

Greg turned out the lights in the room so the only light was from the flickering glow of the TV screen. I laid next to him and his hand began to work its way slowly under my robe. They reached my boobs and I felt him squeeze each one and play with my nipples. A tingle ran through me as my nipples responded and hardened between his fingers. I was on my back with Greg on his side and he took his other hand and started playing with my hair. God I loved that! Stroking my hair was almost better than playing with my boobs. Almost mind you!

I wasn't watching the movie but rather closed my eyes and enjoyed the feel of his hands groping me. I could still hear the soundtrack though and the moans of the girls filled the room as Greg began to explore the rest of my body. I untied the robe and let it drape open. I could see my nude body outlined in the dim light and Greg's hand as he moved it over my stomach and down my side, over hips and then down my leg as far as he could reach. His hand turned back and this time was on the inside of my thigh and I jumped as it tickled just a bit. He was almost to my crotch when he gently massaged my inner thigh while at the same time his fingers worked through my hair and played along my ears and neck. I felt so relaxed and comfortable.

Greg threw the covers off of himself and helped my arms out of the robe such that I was now completely out of it and laying on top of it on the bed. He slid over towards me until I felt his warm naked body pressing up against mine. His cock was rock hard and pressed against my hip like a warm thick rod and his hips moved in a slow thrusting motion to make it rub up against me. I spread my legs more for him and he took the hint, moving his hand upwards until he cupped my pussy in his large hand. His fingers moved around my pussy as his palm pressed against my clit. I moaned softly as I felt myself reacting inside, getting warmer and more moist with each movement of his hand. Neither of us said a word as he fondled me gently.

It was so opposite to the wild scene on the screen where this guy was fucking a woman so hard it looked like he was going to drive himself right through her. I was loving what Greg was doing though, gently touching me and running his fingers now through my pussy hair, twisting it in small circles and running it around my clit. Then his finger began to press harder and work its way between my pussy lips until he found my hole and pushed his finger just a little inside of me. He wet his fingertip and used my wetness to lubricate the rest of my pussy making his fingers glide over my clit and driving me straight to my first climax. My hips surged upwards and I gasped as suddenly my pussy was on fire and my entire body felt like an electric shock had surged through me.

"Oh god, that's it!" I cried out, "Don't stop... make me cum Greg!"

I bounced my hips up and down like I was being fucked and he somehow kept his hand on my crotch, his finger now pushing its way inside of me while he worked his thumb on my exploding clit. I reached down and grabbed his cock, holding on to it like it was a life preserver as I drowned in my orgasm. My other hand clutched my boob and I squeezed it tightly. This was what I loved about sex, what I craved, what I needed. I could barely breath and finally I collapsed down in the bed and just let the waves of pleasure course through me. I was panting and trying to catch my breath as Greg pushed himself harder into my side. I knew what he wanted and I wanted it too.

"Fuck me Greg," I whispered as I looked into his eyes, "Fuck me now."

Greg pushed me over on my side facing away from him and his hand worked its way between my legs from behind. He pushed himself up against me until I could feel his rock hard dick pushing against my ass. I lifted my topmost leg and placed it over him. He reached over me and between my legs to grab his cock and direct it to my pussy hole. I could feel the head pressing up against me now and I wanted nothing more at that moment than to feel it in me, to feel Greg violate my most private place, to couple my body with his. I reached down to help him and the tip of his cock began to split apart my pussy.

"Push it in me Greg... fuck my pussy... fuck my cunt," I begged him.

Greg groaned as he pressed his hips into my ass, forcing his cock to penetrate me. Greg had the biggest cock of any boy I had fucked yet and when he entered me it was like he was splitting me apart. I felt my crotch spread apart as he pushed himself slowly inside of me. This was the moment I looked forward to whenever I masturbated and thought about being fucked – that first time he entered me, feeling him put a part of his body inside of mine. It was so incredible for me to feel myself filling inside and realizing it was his cock that I was feeling as it probed my body and pushed its way even further up inside of me. Finally I could feel the base of his cock up against my crotch and the feel of his thick pubic hair against my smooth bare ass.

"Oh fuck Kelly, you're cunt is so god damn tight," he groaned as he tried to push even harder against me.

He started stroking himself in and out of me, slowly at first and the gradually building up speed. His hand wrapped around me and cradled my boob as my head was down against his other outstretched arm. The damn bed had a squeak somewhere in the mattress and as he started banging me harder it got louder and louder. I played with my clit as I felt his hot breath on my neck while he fucked me. Damn it felt so good and after having dreamed of it so many times today it was almost like I was in heaven as he was finally fucking me hard.

Greg suddenly pulled out of me and twisted me over on my stomach. He lifted up on my hips and I got up on my knees, knowing what he wanted. His hand spread my pussy apart and once again I felt the fullness of his cock push its way into me from behind.. I rocked on my elbows and knees in time with his thrusts, helping to drive him deep into me. Greg held my by the hips and pushed and pulled me as he went in and out of me, driving his cock until he was slapping up against my ass and then pulling out until his cock was barely in me. A couple of time he overdid it and his cock would flop out of my pussy. I would cry out for him to get back in me and he was soon back at work, screwing me with his cock.

"Fuck, I'm going to cum," he groaned. I wanted him to cum in my pussy but he pulled out and grabbed my hair, yanking my head to his cock. "Open your mouth slut," he demanded, "I want to cum all over your face you little whore."

I gladly did as he told me although I wasn't sure if he was just talking dirty or if his true feelings about me were coming out in his lust. Being called a slut I didn't mind – I worked hard to earn that moniker but I wasn't any whore! My mouth was only an inch or two from his cock and he was stroking himself with his hand. I opened wide just in time as I watched a stream of creamy cum spew from his cock and hit my open mouth perfectly. My tongue could taste the cum that pooled on it as another stream erupted followed by even more. He hit me on the face and then one shot went on my hair. I grabbed his cock with my mouth and was able to take the last couple of loads directly into my mouth, feeling his cock throbbing as it shot its final load down my throat. I held onto his cock, sucking the last few drops from it as he put his hands behind my head and pulled me tight into his crotch.

"Suck it bitch," he growled at me, "Drink my cum, swallow it like a good little slut."

I could smell heavy odor of his sweaty crotch as my nose was buried in his pubic hair, a thick mixture of male sweat combined with my own pussy juices. His cum tasted extremely salty and bitter but I loved it and swallowed it eagerly as I sucked on his now dwindling cock. I glanced over at the TV and smiled to myself. The girl was being sprayed with cum by two guys and god, what a mess they were making on her! I could feel Greg's cum on my face and chin and I could only imagine the mess it was making of my hair. Why guys like so much to cum on a girl's face is beyond me. I figure it must be a domination thing or something like that but since they obviously loved it so much I just reconciled myself to putting up with the mess.

Honestly, I much prefer to feel a guy cumming in my pussy or at least IN my mouth but most guys still want to see it ON me. Maybe it also has something to do with being afraid of getting me pregnant even though I had been on the pill since I was fourteen. I hate condoms, they are so unfair to the girl. The guy gets to do everything he would have done anyway but the girl doesn't get to feel his cum as it shoots from him. For crying out loud, what's the point of letting a guy cum with his cock inside of you if you can't feel it when he dumps his load in you? I know, guys also complain that condoms diminishes their enjoyment but I figure it can't be all that bad since they cum anyway. With all the talk about condoms, I have yet to hear anybody express and concern about the girl who is robbed of that wonderful feeling deep inside if her when a load of warm cum is being released in her.

Greg dropped to the bed on his back and spread his arms out to his side. He let out a loud groan saying, "Damn the was incredible Kelly. God you're SUCH a good fuck!"

I ended up using the sheet to wipe my face off after which I snuggled up to the side of him, half on him and half off with my upper leg draped over his such that my pussy was pressed up against his side. My upper boob rested on his chest while the other was squeezed between us as I laid my head on the top of his chest and just held on to him, feeling the warm afterglow I always got after a good fuck. He had one arm under me and his hand cupped my buttocks, squeezing my ass softly as he pulled me up tight against him. His other hand played with my hair against and I felt a tingle down my spine as he pulled softly on it.

My pussy was throbbing like a beating heart and to be honest, I found myself wishing he would fuck me again. Unfortunately, from the look of his now flaccid cock, it didn't appear like that was going to happen anytime again soon. I held onto his soft cock with my hand as we just stayed together that what, neither of us saying a word but just relishing the feeling of being next to each other in this intimate way.

I could have easily fallen asleep this way but I had no desire to spend the night with him. Sure, I loved to be fucked by Greg but I didn't want him to get any ideas that it was anything more than that. For goodness sakes, we hadn't even kissed the whole time we were in bed tonight! It was just good old sex between us and as for me, I was more than happy with just that. Feeling the urge to go potty, I got up out of bed and went to the bathroom.

As I passed the mirror I took a peek and saw that my face was flushed beet red and my hair was an absolute wreck! I took a comb and tried to get his cum out of my hair before it dried any more. From bitter past experience, I knew that nothing was harder to get out of your hair than dried cum. The stuff seemed to be bullet proof and water repellent! Eventually I gave up and washed out the comb and then washed the remaining cum from my face. Returning back to the bed, I noted that Greg hadn't budged and inch and if anything, I could hear the hint of a snore!.

"Hey horny boy, get up and take me home!" I called out to him, shaking his shoulders to wake him.

Greg just grunted so I went over and shook him. He finally sat up and reluctantly began to get dressed. I started back to the bathroom to get my dress when I looked at the TV again. Two girls were going at it now and so I paused to watch them for a moment. It was interesting as I had never been with another girl and the only pussy I had ever tasted was my own. I'd masturbated with a number of my friends over the years but we never touched each other. Watching the two on the screen I wondered for a moment what it would be like to kiss another girl and lick her warm pussy? Boys tasted different and their cum especially varied a lot in taste and texture. How much different would another girl taste compared to my pussy? I shrugged my shoulders and went to get my dress. I pulled it over me and straightened it out. My heels were as uncomfortable as ever and I was ready to go.

Greg hadn't bothered putting his tie back on and he still looked a bit disheveled but at least he was up and ready to go. We left the room and headed for the lobby. Waiting for the valet to get his car, I felt like every guy around us was looking at me as if they knew exactly what Greg and I had been doing. Instead of feeling embarrassed though I found myself getting turned on by it. I liked knowing that every last one of them was probably jealous as hell of Greg and that if I would let them, each and every one of them would fuck me in a heartbeat. It was almost scary to have that much power over men!

Our car finally arrived though and Greg drove me home in about fifteen minutes. I sat next to him on the way and he drove silently with his arm around me, gripping my upper arm with his strong hand. Once back in our driveway, like a gentleman he walked me to the door where he kissed me goodnight.

"You were absolutely fantastic tonight Kelly," he said as he held my hands. "You're definitely the sexiest girl I've ever known."

I felt my cheeks warm as I blushed involuntarily at the compliment. "Thank you Greg, for a wonderful evening. You know, you're not too bad yourself."

We both just grinned and then he slowly turned back to go to his car as I went inside. My mom was in the kitchen drinking coffee and so I went back to see her.

"Hey girl, pretty late aren't you?" she said but it was with a smile. "Have a good time?"

I grinned and said in reply, "Oh yeah, we had a great evening."

"Well, it must have been pretty wild," she said. I looked at her with a quizzical look and she started to laugh softly at me. "Kelly, you really do need to clean up better before you come home. God, how did you get so much cum in your hair?"

I put my hand to my head and she laughed harder. "Got ya! Well, it must have been pretty wild if you were worried about that so c'mon and sit down girl, tell your horny mom all about it - and I want all the details girl!"

I sat down with my mom and we talked for the next half hour, just mother and daughter. My mom loved to hear about my dates and I think sometimes she lived a bit vicariously through me since more than once I know she went to her room and masturbated afterwards. Although I suspected she hadn't told me everything, from what she did confess to it sounded like she had some pretty wild teenage years and I hoped someday to find out more about them.

I was exhausted though so finally I begged her to let me get to bed. I stripped off my dress and plopped into bed, pulling the covers over me to keep my naked body warm. My hand found its way to my pussy and I feel asleep holding myself, dreaming of Greg's cock in me. This was definitely my best Valentine's Day ever!

do these days and try to pretend that if she ignored it then it wouldn't happen. And people wonder why we have so many teen pregnancies!

My mom's dealings with my sex life were in line with my parent's overall philosophy towards parenting. Not that they were uncaring or overly permissive. If anything at the time I would've said exactly the opposite as if anything their rules seemed rather restrictive to me. What I'm thankful for today, and how I plan to raise my own children as well, is that they didn't ignore those topics that might upset them or cause them worry, such as me going out late with friends or even having sex. Instead, they addressed such issues head-on and in doing so established clear rules and boundaries. These allowed me a lot of flexibility yet at the same time set very clear expectations along with disciplinary actions if I failed to follow them.

A prime example of such an area was my wardrobe. True, some people might have considered my outfits a bit on the risque side and for sure my Aunt Sheri (my dad's youngest brother's wife) was always making her obnoxious opinions known. At despite my Aunt's declarations to the contrary there WERE rules and boundaries my mom set which she expected me to follow. For example, in grade school I was always required to wear panties any time I was away from home. Not that I was anxious to run out and flash people but at the same time I've always enjoyed the feeling of being bare under a dress or skirt.

While the pantie rule was inviolate, at the same time my mom never pushed me when it came to bras. Of course it wasn't like I was blessed as my best friend Beth was who was already a C cup in 8th grade. My tiny boobs were a constant source of embarrassment to my through my of my high school years until Mother Nature finally visited me in my college years. Fortunately I learned early on that guys weren't nearly as obsessed with your boobs if you gave them other things to focus on instead! To this day I avoid bras whenever possible although when teaching they are a requirement. When going out, face it - they come in handy at times when to comes to teasing men.

LOTS of other rules and guidelines were imposed on me growing up, most of which had nothing to do with sex of course. Bed time, keeping my room clean, housework, etc. were all spelled out for me. That's what you get when you're the only child of a lawyer I guess. My point being was that despite the heavy-handedness in some areas, my parents didn't go overboard and dictate things to me unless they were really important.

seeing my dad masturbate so my mom dealt with the situation like she does everything else - directly.

Did I saw I saw my dad masturbate? Well, pretty much all the time! Again, he's a man and men masturbate, same as women do. If he was watching porn or even if he was just turned on by a woman on TV (Amanda Tapping on StarGate was one of his favorites) he'd jerk off, just as any man would if his wife didn't mind and my mom wasn't about to say anything since she sometimes did the same. Heck, I would masturbate when he was around as well but it was never like I put on a show or intentionally did it so he could see me. When you're raised such that masturbation is perfectly normal when you felt the need you just did it.

So was my dad curious about me sexually? Of course he was. He was my father after all and all fathers (or at least all fathers should) care about their little girl's well-being. When I would bring a boy home and take him to my room for sex I knew he would sometimes check up on us and even watch a little bit. After all, wasn't my safety the whole point of my parents encouraging me to have sex at home rather than some back seat or other potentially dangerous place? Just knowing my parents were around was enough to keep most guys in line in terms of doing anything bad. Even so I felt better knowing that my dad was right outside my door keeping an eye on me just in case.

That's just a few points to help people understand why it never occurred to me that my dad wanted me sexually. Of course eventually things changed and to this day we have the most loving and respectful relationship a father and daughter can share. Still, I sometimes regret my tween years as being time lost forever when we could've been doing it. It's really more about him than me as I would've fulfilled his needs and desires sooner than I eventually did.

2. Best Friends Forever

Without a doubt nobody has had a better BFF than I've had in Beth. We're almost the exact same age and have known each other since we were little girls after having met in preschool. While we definitely don't share the same thoughts and opinions on everything, we both respect the other and never make judgments.

Unlike me, a single child, Beth had a brother so I would often hear her tales of woe and misery about the "abuse" she would have to tolerate from him. Of course that wasn't anything physical, just the normal sibling rivalries I think every family thing is that it was like we both just needed one of us to break the ice as no sooner than she saw what I was doing than she was doing the same to herself. Before long we both had driven ourselves to incredible orgasms.

While after that it became pretty routine to touch ourselves whenever we got horny, the idea of touching each other never came up, not even jokingly. Sometimes we'd be next to each other as we did it and maybe even cross our legs over one another's but that was just what best friends did. Heck, I never even touched her boobs let alone her pussy. There was no kissing, staring at each other... nothing like that which seems most guys expect when I tell them about it. It was nothing more than two best friends sharing thoughts and experiences and doing what came natural. It was even better once I started having sex and could tell her about my own experiences rather than just my fantasies.

Beth and I were pretty much inseparable as teens. We went to the same parties and even double dated a few times. Beth was always more a party girl than me and often while I would be just blowing guys she would allow a guy to fuck her as well. Little did I know back then the sort of parties she'd be bringing me to years later!

On double dates we would both suck our guys and there were a couple times we even both had sex with them. However, we never swapped dates or did anything together. Rather it was more like we just happened to be in the same car, hotel room or bedroom. I can't say I never watched her and I know there were times she got off watching me, yet it was not that I wanted to join in, I was just curious! After all, she WAS my best friend so why wouldn't I be interested?

Unfortunately Beth's mom was a lot more up-tight than mine so that was one area where I know she felt like I was the lucky one. Beth always wore a bra but at the same time with the size of her boobs it was sort of a necessity more than anything else. While at home she would sometimes sneak into a really small bikini (until her mom saw it a least), she was required to be much more discreet at the local community pool than I was with my smaller girls. Likewise with her school clothes. While she has always had great legs really short skirts were sharply controlled by her mom. For some reason low cut outfits were never an issue with her mom though regardless of how much cleavage she exposed - go figure...

As I said, Beth and I were ALWAYS together and she has been more of a sister to me than just a girlfriend. We often would spend the night at each other's house which and I knew pleased my dad as he was turned on by her boobs. It's not like he went out of his way to hide his enthusiasm yet he also never did anything that would were alone together and not just because we were both horny if my parents were around.

In some ways I was actually more uncomfortable teasing my dad with Beth than with her dad because I felt like I being a little bit dishonest. Things that Beth would do to turn him on certainly did, but not in the way she assumed. For instance, while sometimes we would hint at what we were about to do together when we headed up to my room, she had no idea my dad saw me regularly as I did with him so it wasn't like he didn't have a pretty darn good idea of what was happening behind the closed bedroom door.

It was all good fun and being it WAS our dads not to mention we didn't have to worry about carrying through with anything. I think we would have both been shocked to know what our dads were REALLY thinking, or at least mine. Sure my dad didn't try too hard to hide his erection, but the idea that he might be thinking more than just being turned on by two sexy teenagers was something that never crossed our minds. If anything, we would both joke about it and laugh together later when we would talk about my dad's inability to control himself as well as her dad could.

This night wasn't all that much different than any other night when Beth would stay over. She showed up at the door with her bag dressed in tight jeans, sneakers and a plaid blouse under her jacket. I just grinned and nodded at her chest where she had the blouse unbuttoned enough to reveal her white bra underneath.

"Your dad mind that?" I teased her, knowing the answer but not being able to resist.

"Oh Kelly, if he said anything then he'd have to admit he noticed which means he'd have to have looked at my chest and you know he NEVER looks at his daughter's boobs."

"Yeah right!" I giggled as I ushered her inside and shut the door before my dad could yell about letting all the heat out.

"Damn girl, staying the week?" I joked poking at her bag. It wasn't just a tiny overnight bag but more like a small suitcase!

"Hey, a girl can never have too many things to wear," she huffed, pretending to be insulted. Yeah, like she had to tell ME! My dad was always complaining about how much I would pack to go anywhere.

"Oh, and since when do you wear anything much when you're over here?"

Her reply was a rolling of the eyes.

"Hi Beth, good to see you again," my mom greeted her as she came from the direction of the kitchen. We'd finished supper just a short while ago and she was probably still straightening up.

"Hi Mrs. Wells."

"Oh Beth, how many times have I got to tell you to call me Mary?"

I just shook my head. Like EVERY time she came over they went through the same little routine. Beth ALWAYS referred to my parent as Mr. and Mrs. and my mother was ALWAYS telling her to be less formal. Some things just never change.

"Bring your suit?" my mom asked.

"Of course!" Beth gushed with a grin.

"Great, John's out in the tub right now and I'm sure he'd appreciate the company."

With that we both headed up the stairs to my room where I shut the door behind us.

"Wait till you see what I got," Beth said excitedly as she put her bag down on my bed and unzipped it. Reaching inside she grabbed a couple pieces of small cloth with strings and held it up to me proudly.

"My mom would KILL me if she knew I bought this but I saw it on-line and just HAD to get it."

Taking it from her, I held it by the strings and smiled. Oh yeah, no way her mom would even let her out of the house with it in her bag, let alone wear it. Damn, it was like there was practically nothing in my hands!

"Think your dad will like it?" she teased as she started to undress.

I nodded and answered, "You know better than to have to ask me that you dirty little slut. Like what man wouldn't?"

By now she'd stripped naked. Damn, for someone I'd seen nude probably thousands of times, not to mention seeing her in all sorts of sexually-oriented circumstances as well, I still couldn't help but pause and admire her nude body. Gawd she was hot! Sure, her ass was quite a bit bigger than mine yet at the same time it wasn't flabby and I knew it got a lot of looks whenever we were out together. Funny how some guys go for the tight perky butt like mine but at the same time there are a LOT of them who go for the more "rounded" look.

"Oh my dad would probably faint if I wore it around him. Shit Kelly, your dad is so cool. I wish mine were more like him sometimes."

I caught myself before saying something about how I was sure her dad would appreciate her outfit just as much as mine and that it was just that my dad wasn't as inhibited when it came to expressing his appreciation for how me and my friends looked. It's not like she wasn't aware of it - all my friends liked to joke about my dad's wandering eyes.

It was my turn to show off so I pulled out one of my newer bikinis from my dresser drawer. Seeing how naughty Beth's was I wanted to match up with her as best as possible. Then again, when I saw her adjusting the top I once again felt that frustrating feeling as her boobs practically spilled out of it. Even as small as my top was there was no way I came close to filling it out the way Beth did hers.

Well, sometimes it's best to acknowledge your own limitations and not to compete when the outcome is inevitable so I put back the top and instead reached in my other drawer for one of my tank tops. Choosing one of my smaller white ones, I pulled it on over my head, stretching the material out as it barely fit. Well, technically the way it stretched tight against me it didn't fit but that's why I chose it.

"You're wearing THAT?" Beth asked as she pulled on her thong and tied the strings on each side. Oh yeah, her parents definitely would NOT have approved. From behind the only thing visible was the string across her hips as the middle string was lodged deep in her ass crack. From behind she may as well have been bottomless and even in front the thin material pulled tight into her pussy resulting in a perfect camel toe.

"Yeah," I sighed, "With THOSE hanging out I figure why bother."

I nodded at her large chest and she automatically looked down and saw that the edge of her nipples were showing so she adjusted it until they were barely covered.

"Oh Kelly, you can be so silly sometimes," she huffed, shaking her head, "Damn, I can't seem keep this over my nipples. You don't think this is TOO revealing for your dad, do you?"

Considering wearing ANYTHING in the hot tub was out of the norm where my father was concerned I wanted to tell her that I was sure my dad wouldn't care. Of course I wasn't about to tell her we used it naked when it was just family.

Looking out my bedroom window I saw my dad was just lying back in the tub, totally oblivious to what we were saying about him up above.

"C'mon Beth, you know my dad loves to be teased. Trust me, he's gonna LOVE that top."

Beth shrugged, still seeming a little uncertain. This was by far the most revealing suit she'd ever worn while at our house and I was getting the idea she was starting to have second thoughts about it.

"Let's hurry up and get going before he gets out," I urged her.

My best friend smiled and reached over to kiss me on the cheek.

"Love you Kelly," she whispered in my ear. I knew what she meant and I would often tell her the same. There was nothing more to it than just two best friends expressing their care and respect for the other.

A couple moments later we passed by my mom in the kitchen on the way to the deck.

"Whoa, now THAT's a thong," she teased Beth, "Nice ass girl."

Beth actually blushed! Then again, I could never imagine HER mother saying anything like that about my butt, let alone hers.

My mom continued, "Now I hope you two sluts don't have any ideas about stealing my husband away from me. After all, any man can only be tempted so much and one look at you girls..."

She let her voice trail off and I think Beth was thinking she might be serious.

"Oh Mrs. Wells, you know I would never..." Beth started to say but my mom just reached out and hugged her.

"Gotcha!" she said softly to her and she tried to reassure my poor friend.

"Coming in with us mom?" I asked hopefully.

My mom was dressed in her usual home attire - shorts and a loose T-shirt and I knew underneath she always wore panties and a bra. She could simply shed the shorts and T-shirt as it wouldn't be the first time she'd gotten in with me and my friends in just her underwear. Other than the fact it tended to be a bit revealing when wet, it's not like it was any different than wearing one of her bikinis.

"Nawwwwww, I think the two of you are going to more than enough for him to handle today as it is," she joked as she headed out of the kitchen, leaving us behind. "Now behave yourselves!" she called out just as I started to open the back door.

We both looked at the other and giggled. Yeah right, like we ever would do such a thing. No doubt my mom would've been more surprised if we actually DID follow her order.

Opening the back door, I stepped out onto the deck. It was actually built up over the garage as our house was built on a typical Pittsburgh lot - on the side of the hill. While the front door was level with the street our driveway sloped down such that the garage was actually at the same elevation as the basement making for a pretty steep drop. With the deck over top that put it at the same level as the neighbor to one side while almost a story higher than our neighbor on the other. My dad had put up fencing around the deck such that it was all but impossible for either of them to see us although I suppose the people behind us across the valley could get a pretty good view with a high-powered telescope. There was no reason to be concerned about that I suppose as we'd never had any cause to worry in all the years my parents had lived there.

With the hot tub at the opposite corner of the deck from the kitchen door we had to walk across the deck to get to where my dad was lounging in the hot tub so it wasn't like we'd be sneaking up on him. He had the jets going though so it was sort of loud and with all the swirling water it was impossible to see under the surface although I was sure he had on a swimsuit since he knew that Beth was going to be coming over.

"Hi dad!" I greeted him enthusiastically as we approached. I was rewarded with a big grin as he stood up from the water to greet us.

"How's my baby girl doing?" he asked as he leaned over to give me a big hug. I didn't get much of a chance to answer as when he looked over my shoulder he obviously got a good look at Beth.

"Wow!" was his only response but it was the way he said it that spoke volumes.

"Pretty hot, don't you think daddy?" I teased him as he stood up straight again to face my sexy best friend.

It was almost comical the way my dad tried to appear as if nothing was unusual, business as usual, that sort of thing when at the same time his eyes were roaming up and down Beth's all but naked body. I couldn't help but note that they seemed to spend most of their time on her boobs but then who could blame him? I mean like how many sixteen year-old girls have natural boobs a large as hers yet still full with hardly a hint of sag? Even if they did, when would he get such an exposed view of them? It wasn't like Beth's top just exposed cleavage. Let me put it this way... side boob, under boob, you name it boob, she was working it! To top it off the bikini top wasn't lined. Whether by design or she had removed it I wasn't sure but in any case her nipples were poking through like it was mere tissue paper trying to cover them.

In case you haven't guessed, if there was ever any doubt when it comes to T&A my dad was a "T" man all the way! Given Beth's ass was even more exposed than her breasts, I'd say the prosecution rests its case. All of which tends to be a bit disheartening to me given I was barely into a B cup at the time and even then that was as much wishful thinking as reality. And to think people wonder why to this day I tend to dress such that my top is covered and my butt is exposed. Running around the house I was never naked but unlike my cousin Kristen who never seemed to wear a top when she was over yet always had on panties or a bikini bottom at the minimum, I was just the opposite. Bottomless was always my preferred state, just as it is now fourteen years later. Even though my boobs now are a solid B and even a C depending on the brand and style, I still tend to dress such that my legs and ass are showcased to draw attention from my chest.

"Well, you girls going to just stand there and get chilled or join me?"

It wasn't exactly the middle of July and indeed, I was starting to feel chilled in the March cool air even though it was a little warmer than it had been recently. One "benefit" was that both Beth and my nipples were hard as little rocks which I hoped my dad would notice. If I couldn't dazzle him with my bust size then the least I could do was show off my stiff nipples.

My dad reached out and we each took a hand to help us in without killing ourselves. I gasped at the shock of the hot water and stood there standing on the seat such that the water was only up above my knees.

"Oh my god that's so hot!" I exclaimed. I suppose it wasn't any more so than normal but after being cooled off by wearing so little in the chilly air the contrast was even greater than normal.

"You'll get used to it," my dad tried to encourage me.

Beth was also taking her time lowering herself in but after a few minutes all three of us were in up to our necks. Well, not so much my dad but he slouched down in the water such that only his head was visible. Each of us had taken a corner where the jets were located and I could feel the water and air mixture pummeling my back. Mmmmmmm, felt so good! Plenty of past experience had taught me that it felt even better when I was facing it with my legs up over the edge but that would have to be left to another time since Beth was with us now. My dad always got a kick out watching me but Beth would have undoubtedly wondered what the heck I was doing masturbating in front of my own father. For me it was just natural but I could see how someone raised in a more prudish environment might easily get the wrong idea, especially if my dad started jerking off as well while he watched me. It wasn't like he helped me or anything weird like that but people always want to jump to conclusions even when the facts aren't there to support them.

"Sit on my lap Kelly?" my dad invited me grinning.

Instinctively I looked over at Beth who just smiled sweetly. It wasn't like this was our first rodeo after all. She'd been in the hot tub with my dad and me since we were little girls so this was nothing she hadn't seen before.

Working my way carefully so I wouldn't slip, I finally got myself seated in my dad's lap. It didn't surprise me at all when I felt something stiff pressing up against my butt. Heck, the way Beth was looking I would have been amazed if I hadn't! In a way it felt a little weird having his swimsuit covering it though. I mean like with my thong I may as well have been bare-bottomed as I normally am in the hot tub but in most cases I felt my dad's dick directly on me as we wouldn't have a suit covering it. Not that it really mattered one way or the other I guess. It was just that it all seemed so unnecessary. Like why did my parents always insist that we wear suits just because someone outside our family was over? It really use to trouble me when I was younger as it was almost like they were embarrassed to be naked around other people when at the same time I was always told that nudity wasn't anything to be embarrassed about. When I got older I better understood the situation yet at times like this I still couldn't help but question things a little. Heck, Beth and I may as well have been naked for all our bikinis covered. And as for hiding my dad's dick, it wasn't like it wasn't obvious whenever he had an erection and Beth certainly knew all about THAT.

Oh well, I suppose it was how my parents wanted things and like every other kid in the world I finally just gave up trying to figure out how adults did things and went along for the ride. It was just at times like this when it really made me think about it again.

"So do you like Beth's new top daddy?" I teased him leaning my head back to get my mouth near his ear so he could hear me over the jets.

My dad just grinned so I wiggled on his lap such that my butt rubbed on his erection.

"Never mind... I can tell," I teased him again and this time he just rolled his eyes and pretended to be exasperated with me. It was a look I seemed to get a lot from him these days!

Things sort of settled down after that and for a while we all just enjoyed the feeling of the hot water rolling over our bodies. Had I just been with my dad I would've been working my way up to one of the jets and enjoying it even more as it worked on my pussy but that was another no-no so far as my parents were concerned which sort of annoyed me. Maybe even more so than the no-nudity rule. Heck, Beth and I masturbated all the time when we were together so it wasn't like it was some big secret. True, I don't think she ever saw her own dad jerking off but it wasn't like my dad was exactly shy about it when I was around so what was the big deal if Beth saw him too? So if it was just me and Beth then I could get myself off or if it was just me and my dad then I could as well. But bring the three of us together and all bets were off. Oh well... another oh well!! LOL

Sometimes I knew my dad would cum when I was on his lap, especially if I teased him badly enough, but there was no way that was going to happen today with his suit insulating his dick from my all but bare bottom. I especially liked it when he came in the hot tub as his cum would swirl around in long stringy ropes. Most of the time it was sucked in by the filter but sometimes it would catch on me and I'd have to swish it away. My dad would tease me whenever that happened saying I was trying to catch it but really, it was more a mess than it was worth.

Sometimes Beth would get an invite to my dad's lap but apparently not today as time wore on and I started feeling overheated from being in too long. Too bad as I could just imagine where his eyes would be staring down over her shoulder as she ground on his dick. When we were younger she was really shy about doing anything like that as undoubtedly her dad would never have allowed it. Over the years though she has become more like my sister in many ways than just a friend and along with that much of her shyness around my dad has disappeared - hence the all but non-existent bikini she was wearing today.

We were looking pretty red like lobsters so my dad suggested we all take a break. As we all stood up I couldn't help but notice my poor dad's erection poking out through his suit. Poor men, they just can't hide when they're horny! LOL!! Personally I thought it was pretty hot that he was this way over Beth. Oh yeah, I had a pretty good idea what he was going to be doing in the not too distant future!

We grabbed our towels and wrapped them around us as the chilly air seemed even more so after the hot water. Hurrying into the house we headed up to my room while my dad went to his, shutting the door behind him. I grinned to myself, knowing we wouldn't be seeing him for a while.

4. Fooling Around

"Oh my god, that felt SO good Kelly," Beth gushed as we stripped out of our wet suits, "I so wish we had a hot tub."

Just as I was about to make some sarcastic remark about how she had a full sized swimming pool for once I actually kept my mouth shut. My mom would have been so proud of me!

"Too bad your dad was there, that jet in my back would've felt a lot better someplace else," she continued with a smirk.

Again I somehow managed to stifle a lewd remark about how my dad would've LOVED to have watched. Sometimes it could be SO frustrating not being able to tell even my best friend in the whole world everything about my family life. It wasn't like we were doing anything wrong yet I understood that not everyone was OK with certain things. Still, Beth and I pretty much shared everything - including a few boyfriends on double dates, so it wasn't like I was worried about saying anything her. Even so my mom would've killed me I'm sure if I broke the family circle of trust. Dang it though, it wasn't like my dad was having sex with me or anything weird or kinky like that! I mean like what's the big deal with a little masturbation?

"Speaking of feeling better someplace else, you should've been sitting on my dad's lap." I teased her, not being able to TOTALLY ignore everything that had been going on earlier.

Beth giggled and her face actually turned a little red to my complete amusement.

"Oh my god Kelly, was he...?" she asked, her voice tapering off before she had to utter the final words.

"Oh yeah... totally," I answered smugly as I finished drying myself off.

Beth had finished ahead of me and so she draped her towel over the back of my desk chair. She was still giggling like a little girl.

"Oh gawd Kelly, like that is SO cool... my dad would NEVER do anything like that!"

I looked at her with more than a little bit of skepticism in my eyes. Last time I looked her dad was a male, just as my dad was.

"Well your dad's just WAY too uptight," I observed.

"Oh, and it's like YOUR dad isn't just as bad as mine in his own way," she refuted me, "Really girl, what's worse - my dad acting like he's ignoring us or your dad being so blatant about everything? At least my dad isn't teasing us."

Damn, what an opening! I immediately thought that this would be a great time to tell her just how blatant my dad could be when he was REALLY horny but again fear of my mother's wrath held me in check.

"Well, at least my dad's TRYING to be honest," I countered, "Personally I think it's pretty cool that he's not afraid to show his feelings."

Beth openly laughed out loud at that. "So speaking of feeling, does it make you horny when he gets like that when you're sitting on his lap?"

I didn't need my mom's guidance to answer that one! This was starting to go WAY past where it should have.

"Oh Beth!" I exclaimed, "Like he's my DAD... ewwwww!"

Indeed, while I knew my dad had his private fantasies and from all the porn he watched I had a pretty good idea what his interests were. Still, it's a massive leap to go from fantasy to reality and if there's one thing my mom drilled into me from the time I started masturbating was that ANYTHING was ok so long as it was just a fantasy. So yeah, it might be a little erotic to think about my dad's erection pressing up against my bottom, especially when we were alone and the bathing suits were off. At the same time the idea that anything like that might REALLY happen was totally off the table so far as I was concerned. That would be incest and last I heard it was something only perverted fathers (and porn stars) did, not to mention illegal in all 50 states.

Beth huffed at my response and said, "Sheesh Kelly, don't go getting your panties in a bunch girl... as if you ever wear them. You DO have to admit that your dad isn't exactly like most dads when it comes to this discussion."

Beth was my BFF so she got to see lots of stuff nobody else did when it came to my dad and so I couldn't really argue with THAT as she was right. The facts were that I didn't know of ANY other girls whose dad would show off an erection right in front of her. But then again, who knew what those same dads did in the privacy of their bedroom or bathroom? Like who at our church (again, other than Beth) for instance would ever think that I often sit on my dad's lap with his bare cock slipping up and down my butt, sometimes even spurting cum on my back? It was probably best they didn't as no doubt somebody would want to try to turn it into something perverted and then who knows what sort of ridiculous accusations might result.

Beth reached into her bag and pulled out a sexy nightie.

"Hey girl, what's THAT?" I asked accusingly as I pointed to the offending nightie. Oh sure it looked really cute but hey, rules were rules. Sleeping at Kelly's house meant sleeping nude.

Beth knew better than to argue on this point so instead she just shrugged and put it back in her bag. Then she stood up and faced me, naked as the day she was born only now she looked a heck of a lot sexier!

"OK... this better?" she sighed as she put her arms out and twirled around in the middle of my bedroom as if putting on a show for me.

"Hey, we agreed that when we're at your house I would wear something to bed at night so it's only fair at my house you conform to MY dress code," I said firmly.

Beth rolled her eyes answering, "Yeah but I don't know of anyone else but you that sleeps in the nude!"

"Well, my parents do."

Beth giggled again and came back with, "You know exactly what I MEANT so don't feed me that line girl. OK then, if you're going to be that way, so who else in our circle of friends does?"

She had a point but I didn't care. I'd started sleeping sans PJs about four years earlier and was immediately hooked. Like it simply felt better, not to mention it made masturbation a whole lot more convenient and when you did that as much as I did it meant something. The point being the main reason I slept nude was simply because it felt better and had nothing to do with anything sexual.

"Oh you know you like it girl," I pushed her a little, "You would do it at home I bet if you could. Plus it's not like I run around this way all the time, just in bed."

"So if you only get naked to go to bed, why can't I put on my nightie until then?"

With that I grinned mischievously and our eyes met as I replied, "Because I don't know about you girl but I'm horny as hell and intend to do something about it."

"Oh crap Kelly," my best friend laughed, "if that's the case you can make then you should be a nudist because you're ALWAYS horny!"

"Oh, and like you're not?" I shot back.

"Touche!" Beth laughed.

Jumping up on my bed naked to take a seat, I patted the mattress beside me and motioned for Beth to join me. She glanced at the door, I guess to make sure it was closed securely. Yep, she knew my dad all too well! Then she plopped down next to me and crossed her legs Indian style just as I was sitting.

"Damn girl, when you gonna shave that stuff off?" she asked, nodding towards my pussy. I trimmed it pretty close so it wasn't like I exactly had a forest growing down there like my mom's crotch, but I certainly wasn't baby smooth bare like Beth.

"I don't know, it scares me I guess," I said rather unconvincingly, even if it WAS somewhat the truth while not the entire story.

"Well, it's really no different than doing your legs."

I jabbed her with an elbow. "Exactly, and I thought I was giving blood last time I did mine," I said, albeit exaggerating a bit.

"Well, maybe we could do it together next time you're over at my place."

I gave her an odd look that should have conveyed by thoughts about THAT! Did she mean like help me? No girl had touched my pussy since I was a little girl in the bath tub. Boys... oh yeah - LOTS. Girls? NO. I may have been a slut - and proud of it, but I certainly wasn't a lesbian.

"Oh I didn't mean do each other silly!" she laughed as she finally figured out my flustered expression.

I wasn't convinced though but didn't push it, instead I sighed melodramatically with relief. There were lots of things I did with Beth but touching her pussy? Nope! Not going to happen! Oh sure we've kissed many times, especially when boys were watching but that was more to get THEM turned on, not us.

As usual in these circumstances, I was the one to lead off. It wasn't that Beth was shy about masturbating in front of me - quite the opposite if anything. It just seemed I was always the one to start first for some reason and over the past few years since we'd started doing it together it was like we'd established an unspoken rule - Kelly starts first.

Well, I may have dried off my outer skin but there was denying I was wet inside! Between my dad teasing me and now all this talk with Beth I was uber horny. My pussy was wet to the touch and I wasted no time rubbing my index finger between my lips and settling down on my clit.

"Ummmmm," was all I said = and all I NEEDED to say.

Now that I'd started Beth wasted no time. Without a word she quickly put her left hand between her smooth bare thighs. With our legs spread open sitting in this position it was easy for her to press a couple of fingers against her baby-smooth pussy.

"Oh yeah, now THIS is good," she sighed as I saw her close her eyes and rub herself slowly.

"Thinking about that hot new guy in 3rd period History?" I asked suggestively.

Beth opened her eyes just long enough to look at me and grin answering, "No but that's not exactly a bad idea Kelly. Shit he's a stud!"

I grimaced a little at her language but didn't say anything. It wasn't like I was perfect in that regard but Beth was more than a bit less sensitive about swearing. It wasn't that I was some sort of prude, I just thought it was something most people shouldn't do so I tried to avoid it whenever possible.

"I hear that bitch sitting next to him has been blowing him after school," I said.

"Oh you mean Claire, the fucking cheerleader bitch?" Beth asked crudely and then apparently reasoned that the answer was obvious. "Yeah, I hate her but do you think she really blows him? I hear she's such a fuckin' cock tease."

I had to agree - what wasn't there to hate about the bitch? Blonde and gorgeous with boobs that rivaled Beth's, her dad was filthy rich and she was always dressed in something new and expensive while driving her little red BMW convertible to school that daddy had bought for her sixteenth birthday. Of course she was a cheerleader, it was inevitable. If course she dated half the football team (if not all), again inevitable. Was probably screwing them too - not that I was opposed to THAT in principle.

"Mmmmmmm, I wouldn't mind blowing his cock though," I sighed trying to change my thoughts before getting myself upset.

"Screw that!" Beth retorted as her hand moved faster now between her smooth silky thighs, "I'd love to ride it. God, did you seem him the other day in those ridiculous jeans?

Speaking of mmmmmmm, the memory of how those tight jeans had outlined what looked to be a rather spectacular dick was being broadcast in my head as I played with myself.

Beth laid back in the bed against a couple of pillows with her legs spread wide apart and both feet planted on the mattress. I couldn't help but notice she had two fingers already inside of her pussy. Wow, she was hornier than I'd thought when we'd started and we'd just gotten started!

"Oh yeah!" she sighed, now all but oblivious to me even though I was right next to her. Lord only knew for sure what images were in her mind at that moment although I had a pretty good idea - probably a lot like the ones in mine!

It was my turn to lay back now and our knees touched as I spread mine wide apart to make it easy to masturbate. God it felt so good to push my middle finger up inside of me as I imagined it was my boyfriend's hard cock drilling into my pussy. OK, so maybe his was a little on the small side but in the end it's the thought that matters!

Beth gasped loudly causing me to pause for a moment and open my eyes to see what was happening. Wow, she was already having her first orgasm of the night and we'd been at it for what, maybe ten minutes at most? And I thought I was the one that came fast! Well, in all fairness usually I was but tonight Beth seemed especially horny for some reason.

I was about to close my eyes when something caught my attention out of the corner of my eye. I glanced at the mirror over my dresser and saw my door in the reflection. Sure enough, it was cracked open. What Beth didn't know was that my dad had jimmied the handle years ago so it never actually latched shut. Not that it was hardly ever shut in the first place but it came in handy at times like this when he wanted to open it without having to turn the handle and alert whoever was with me. Typically this was one of my boyfriends and he was checking to see that everyone was OK. I had to admit it helped me to enjoy sex a lot more knowing my daddy was right outside my door ensuring that I was safe.

It didn't surprise me that my dad would be checking in on us tonight though knowing how my dad was infatuated with Beth. Plus it wasn't like it was any sort of secret what we were going to be doing in my room – especially after what had gone in the hot tub. Although I couldn't see him, I had a pretty good idea what he was doing in the hallway as he watched Beth masturbate. Well, just so he didn't grunt when he came like he usually did when he masturbated! Poor Beth, she would probably be totally embarrassed if she knew he was watching her.

I say that he was there to watch Beth as it wasn't like he would have had to sneak around to see me doing it. As I said, my bedroom door was never shut except when I was having sex with someone so if he wanted to see me masturbate all he had to do was walk by. Most times though it was when I was either doing myself on the couch as we watched TV or in the back seat while we were traveling so I usually never saw him much outside my bedroom.

It's hard to explain in words so let me just say that for one reason or another, knowing my dad was getting off watching my best friend in the whole world fingering herself to an awesome orgasm was making me all the more horny as well.

It wasn't long before my own orgasm rose up in me and I gasped as the wonderful sensation filled me from head to toe. Gawd it felt so damn GOOD! After I'd cum I opened my eyes and saw Beth watching me with this giant grin on her face.

"What the heck are YOU watching?" I teased her, "What are you now, some kind of lezbo?"

Beth giggled - she certainly seemed to be in a giggly mood tonight.

"Did you know you curl your toes when you cum?" she asked. It was more an observation than a question.

"Oh do I?" I asked in reply. Actually, my dad had mentioned this to me before and sometimes I actually felt a little distracted when I would masturbate in front of him, trying NOT to curl them. Not sure why. Guess I just felt better when I wasn't so predictable!

"It's actually kind of cute," she smiled. Then she continued, "So does it bother you to be watched when you masturbate?"

It took every ounce of willpower not to laugh. I also made a deliberate effort NOT to look at the mirror while the door was still cracked open. Me bothered if someone watched me? If she only knew! Heck, as much as I get watched maybe the real question should be does it bother me if somebody is NOT watching?

"What's the big deal? Everyone does it?"

"Well my mom doesn't," she replied quickly and firmly.

"Oh I bet she does!" I argued. "EVERYONE does."

"Nope, not my mom," she insisted, "She caught my brother once and you would've thought he'd committed murder or something. Claimed it was a sin and only perverts do it."

"So I guess that means your dad has to hide when he does it," I laughed.

Beth almost choked on that one. I guess the very image of her dad jerking off was too much for her to handle. If she only knew what MY dad was probably doing at this very moment!

"So you think your parents do it then I take it?" she asked.

The technically correct response was, "I KNOW they do because I see them do it all the time." My politically correct (and actual) response was, "My mom and I have talked about it.... you know... THE TALK."

"So your mom discussed masturbation with you?" Beth asked incredulously, "Shit, my mom just handed me a book and told me to read it. It was like reading a silly instruction manual only more boring. Didn't even have pictures!"

"We just talked about it," I countered defensively.

Actually that was pretty much true. Sure when I first started she gave me a few pointers that included a "demo" but that was back when I was eleven. Since then other than the occasional reminder to make use of her substantial collection of vibrators she kept in the bedside chest, I would just see her doing it now and then although not nearly as often as my dad did it.

"Well, I've said it before... your parents are so cool!"

I wasn't going to argue with her on that point!

"Ready for a back rub?" she asked?

Like duh! One thing I loved about Beth was her famous back rubs. I didn't even answer but instead flopped down on my stomach with a pillow under my head.

"I guess THAT answers my question," she laughed as she reached over to my nightstand for the lotion bottle I always kept there.

I couldn't see my door or mirror in this position so I deliberately laid such that Beth would be facing away from the door. My dad had probably "finished" by now if I knew his routine but no sense in her seeing anything she didn't need to.

The bed bounced as Beth maneuvered herself such that she was straddling my hips. I could feel the warmth and wetness of her pussy as she pressed down to lean forward to start on my back.

"You know, you COULD have wiped yourself off first," I teased her.

Beth laughed a bit and responded, "Why? Then I wouldn't be able to do this so easily..."

And with that she wiggled her hips so her wet pussy slid along my bare butt.

"BETH!" I scolded her, "What the hell are you doing?"

Like damn, what had gotten into her tonight anyways? Certainly not her favorite boyfriend's dick so maybe that was the problem - she was just overly horny and couldn't control herself.

"Feels good so just shut up and enjoy it," she ordered me.

Well, it DID feel kinda good...

Beth worked on my back for almost thirty minutes, working my shoulders and neck and then down my spine and the lower regions over my tailbone right above my butt crack. A couple of times I thought she was going to go even lower but I was so horny it was undoubtedly just an over-active imagination. Still, the very thought of it felt a little weird yet at the same time wasn't doing anything to make me any less horny.

Then it was my turn to do Beth's back. She stretched out on my bed with her head on my pillow, her arms wrapped around it like she was hugging it. God I was so jealous looking at her nude figure! I was what my dad liked to call "petite" which to me was just a nice way to say I was little - especially when it came to my breasts. While not nearly as small as they were a couple of years ago when I'd been thrilled that a boy even wanted to play with them as small as they were, they still barely qualified me for a B cup and on dates when I wanted to show off what little I had an A-cup worked just fine.

Beth, on the other hand, was what some guys would refer to as "full-figured". Not that she was fat or even all that overweight. Maybe a few pounds here or there might not hurt but at the same time she had curves where I only dreamed of having. Her bare butt was practically taunting me with its smooth round shape and even laying down she had enough side boob showing that her full sized C cups (maybe D?) were in full evidence.

When I would compare my body to my best friend's, it was sort of interesting to not just think about how we looked naked but our clothes were different as well. No matter what she wore, you could be sure it was low-cut to show off as much cleavage as she could get away with. With her butt being a little large, she leaned towards tight jeans or shorts more so than skirts or dresses which hugged her tight and worked almost like a bra for her butt - shaping it and holding everything where it belonged. Speaking of bras... she ALWAYS wore one mainly for support but also for comfort. While I couldn't really relate, she was always telling me how sometimes she wished they were smaller so her back wouldn't hurt at times. Yeah, like she expected sympathy from me!

On the other hand, when you have a small chest like me you wear different clothes. My dad liked to say my boobs were "perky" which was actually pretty accurate. While I never got them to jiggle the way Beth's did, at the same time it pretty much negated any necessity for a bra in that they held themselves up pretty much on their own. I'd always had nipples that would harden at the slightest provocation so without a bra they would often poke through which I knew was a hit with the guys.

Where Beth wore clothes to emphasis her best asset - her chest, I leaned more to those that drew attention lower down - my butt and legs. Short skirts were a favorite as well as short-shorts. I LOVED to be bottomless and so went without even panties whenever I could although most of the time that contradicted my obsession with short skirts. Even at my age where people pretty much just rolled their eyes no matter what I wore it wasn't like I could get away with flashing my pussy. Honestly, I wasn't interested in that anyways as my mom had always told me that it's what you DON'T show that often turns guys on more than what you do.

Even around home I tended to wear things like my dad's shirts, sweatshirts, or anything that hung loose on me while allowing me to run around feeling the air on my butt. Not like he ever complained except when I would steal one of his newer shirts. Being loose on top while offering a tempting view at the bottom drew attention exactly where I wanted it and away from where I didn't.

Oh well, I sort of sighed to myself as once again I looked at my nude girlfriend and wondered why she had won the boob lottery but that was life I guess. I swung my left leg over her thighs and assumed a similar position to what she'd used with me. Scrunching up a bit so I could each her shoulders, my pussy was rubbing right against her butt as I started to work on her shoulders.

"Ohhhhhh... that feels SO good," Beth sighed.

"Shoulders hurting? That's what you get for having those big girls," I teased her as I worked my way down to her shoulder blades. The smooth skin of her back was so soft and warm!

"Shoulders?" she mumbled into the pillow, "Oh yeah... those too. I was referring to something warm and wet on my ass!"

What a tease! Well, two could play that game so I deliberately rotated my hips to rub my pussy on her. Now I have to admit... it felt pretty good down there.

"Still horny?" she said turning to look up at me over her right shoulder.

I gave her my best, "Like duh!" look and she just buried her head back into the pillow laughing.

I quit my teasing and got serious, kneading her back with my hands. I'd never claim to give the best back massages but it's not like she ever told me she wasn't happy with me doing them for her. As I moved down, I let me hands slide down her sides until my fingers were massaging the sides of her boobs. Beth seemed to like it, stirring under me as I worked my way under them just a little.

"I'll give you exactly an hour to stop doing that!" she giggled.

For whatever reason, that snapped me out of the trace I'd seemed to fallen into and I quickly pulled my hands out from under her boobs and returned them to her lower back. I had to inch myself back off her butt now and sat there with her upper thighs supporting me. I put one hand over the other and pressed down over her tailbone and rubbed her in small circles as she laid there still with an occasional moan escaping.

"Lower," she instructed me.

Well, why not? I scooted back a few more inches and went to work on the top of her butt in about the general region where her bikini would have started. Beth wiggled under me as if trying to hint for me to go even lower so I placed the palms of each hand on one of her butt cheeks and started to squeeze them.

"That's so much better!" Beth sighed, "Now lower."

Well, I wasn't quite sure if she really understood just where my hands were. Any lower and I'd be practically between her legs! Instead I went the other direction until I was rubbing her hips and upper butt regions.

"Chicken," she taunted me.

Well what did she expect? Any lower and I'd be massaging her pussy and surely she knew it. Sheesh, what a tease!

I spent maybe another twenty or so minutes working on her back until finally my hands just couldn't take any more. How do those professional masseuses do it?

By now we were both pretty much out of it. I think Beth even fell asleep towards the end and I know a couple of times I would find myself still with my hands resting on her back after drifting off for a short bit.

"I really am tired," I confessed as I got off of her and stood up by the side of the bed. Beth rolled over, her boobs flopping over to each side (something mine didn't do). Her hands went down to cup her pussy.

"Me too but I don't know if I can sleep I'm so fuckin' horny," she practically whispered. Yeah, a few more minutes and she'd be out like a light.

Before that though I needed to make a quick call across the hall. Mother Nature was calling me! I told Beth I'd be right back and as I started towards the door Beth cleared her throat to get my attention?

"Yes?" I asked, not sure what she wanted.

"Forgetting something?" she smirked.

What the heck was she talking about? Then I saw her glance towards my nightshirt.

"It's just across the hall, be right back," I told her.

"But your parents' bedroom is right next to it."

Like I didn't know.

"They won't see anything," I scoffed. What I meant was they wouldn't see anything they didn't see every other night but Beth might not have understood that so I left it off where I did.

Ignoring her after that, I stepped out into the hallway to the bathroom, closing the door behind me so Beth wouldn't have to worry about being naked in plain sight. Now why didn't it surprise me to find my dad standing in the hallway, a big erection poking out through his short?

"Somebody turns you on, doesn't she?" I teased my dad.

My father appeared a little sheepish but I knew he had a thing for Beth. Not that I ever worried that he might ever DO anything as I knew my dad (and my mom for that matter) would never have sex with anyone else given their stand on adultery, especially an underage friend of their daughter. If anything I thought it was sort of cute the way he seemed to fawn over Beth, like most of the boys at school did for that matter.

"Thank you," I said, giving him a hug as I pressed my naked body into him.

As usual, he responded by grabbing my ass with both hands and squeezing it playfully. Such a tease!

"For what baby?"

I got up on my tip toes as he leaned over enough for me to kiss him on the cheek.

"For being such a good daddy. I always feel so safe with you watching out for me."

I turned and he patted me on the butt as I slipped into the bathroom. As I sat down and had a moment I thought to myself that he really didn't have to keep an eye on me when I was with my best friend the same way as he did when I had a boyfriend over but I guess it had become such a routine now for him that he wasn't making exception. Whatever, it really didn't matter I guess.

I finished my business and by the time I was done my dad was in bed with my mom. From the looks of things he wasn't wasting any time! They were under the covers in any case and no doubt the door would be shut shortly. My parents might not exclude me from much but that was the one line they never crossed. I'd never seen them having sex! My mom explained to me that when they had sex they were making love - a difference I would understand some day when I had a husband, and when they did it was just between the two of them. Well, I might not ever have SEEN them but that didn't mean I never HEARD them, LOL.

Back in my room, Beth hadn't moved - she'd fallen asleep flat on her back! As much as I hated doing it, I shook her awake as she was planted in the middle of the bed without leaving room for me. Bad enough I only had a twin bed but she at least had to give me my half!

Beth just grumbled, not even waking fully as she rolled over on her side and faced the wall as I climbed in next to her, facing the opposite direction. Even now the bed was crowded with our butts pressed tightly together. Mmmmmmm, that butt might belong to my best girlfriend but it still felt pretty sexy against mine!

As I laid there ready to fall asleep I could hear my parents in the next room. Our house is pretty old and the walls are opaque which is about the extent of privacy they offered. Unless you spoke in a whisper the folks in the next room could hear every word and so I could clearly make out my parents going at it like school kids. I smiled to myself. Good thing Beth was asleep. I could just imagine her thoughts if she heard my mom telling my dad rather explicitly what she liked! Yeah, she might be old but she sure knew how to turn on my dad.

Or so I thought.

The next morning as we dressed Beth looked at me at one point and grinned.

"So... do your parents always do the nasty so loud?"

Well, I'd never really thought of it in quite those terms before...

"I thought you were asleep!"

Beth grinned ever broader and shook her head saying, "How could ANYONE sleep with all THAT going on? That was so crazy."

As I finished dressing I turned to her saying, "So maybe next time I sleep over at your house we can listen to them."

Beth just rolled her eyes. "Like I've NEVER heard my parents having sex. I'm not even sure they still do it."

We both laughed. Well, maybe her parents wouldn't supply us with anything fun and crazy but then there was always her younger brother...

nudist. To me it feels unnatural, almost forced, as if you're pushing yourself onto someone else. Maybe that's why if I AM nude around the house then it's almost always when I'm alone.

To help illustrate what I'm saying, here are some examples. While it was considered normal for us to be naked in the hot tub, that was because my dad said he didn't want us to contaminate the water with our swim suits rather than any desire on his part to ogle his naked wife and daughter. We never just lounged around nude in the family room watching TV. For one my mom simply didn't consider it to be hygienic and besides not to mention it just felt better to have a little protection on.

In another case, if my dad was taking a shower I wasn't afraid to do my hair in the bathroom nor did it bother me for him to shave while I was in the tub or shower. We were naked only because it wouldn't have made any sense to wear anything, not because we wanted the other to see us nude.

As a little girl I went to bed wearing the same things all little girls did - pajamas, nighties, and so forth. I started sleeping nude when I was turned twelve; not for any sex-related reasons but more because that was how my parents had always slept. Like most kids when they were going through puberty, I was always trying hard not to be a "kid" anymore. Once I tried it I found that it just felt better to sleep naked and so I have done so ever since. It want something I usually even thought about until I would spend the night at a friend's house and have to wear pajamas or a nightshirt. Such times served to remind just how uncomfortable and restricted it made me feel not being naked. Still, even at home I keep a nightshirt or a robe by the bed to put on when I get up so I don't have to run around the house nude.

In today's world plagued with so much pornography on the Internet and media, too many kids are becoming addicted to porn or even worse, de-sensitized to it. Thus today it's all the worse when parents add an element of mystery and intrigue by condemning sex or portraying it as something perverted or taboo.

In stark contrast, my parents brought me up to appreciate the not-so-subtle differences between porn and art, to recognize the joys raised by eroticism over the tastelessness of vulgarity. Today I can appreciate eroticism but pornography turns me off, especially today's obsession with cheap "amateurs", "interviews", "castings" and other supposedly "real" situations that anyone can tell are just cheap whores. At least the "vintage" videos in my dad's porn collection bothered to at least try to instill a little plot and story line.

Speaking of nudity and sex, it's always seemed a shame to me that when it comes to sex that most parents shroud the topic in mystery, treating it as taboo and putting their kids on a guilt trip if they catch them so much as masturbating or just playing around. Fortunately for me, my parents have always been totally open about sex, yet all the while stressing respect AND responsibility. Thus while I may have been much more aware of sex when I was growing up in comparison to most kids, I was undoubtedly much more responsible and prepared to handle it when I grew old enough to start doing more than just talk about it.

Although my parents never actually made love in front of me while I was growing up, I knew they did frequently as it was the only time the bedroom door was closed. Heck, they may as well have just hung out a sign saying "Stay out, parents making love!" Rather than being embarrassed of my parent's having sex, I feel that one of the greatest gifts my parents gave me throughout my childhood was the security that came from knowing that my parents are totally in love with one another - physically as well as emotionally.

When it comes to masturbation, I consider it a totally different topic from sex. Masturbation is a natural act that allows a person to deal with the inner needs and emotions that we all have as a result of being created by God as sexual beings. Even though almost everybody does it, society still treats it like a forbidden ritual. Personally I think making someone feel guilty about masturbating is counter-productive. Not only will you not stop them, but it may well result in creating an unhealthy attitude and lack of respect for their own sexuality.

I don't really remember exactly when I first started to explore myself. I DO know that I didn't deliberately masturbate until I was eleven but that's more because my mom remembers it more than me marking it on my calendar or anything like that. In fact, my mom was the one that taught me to masturbate (well, some things come natural but it never hurts to get a few pointers). She even offered me the contents of her toy drawer next to the bed but I've always preferred to just use my fingers.

My parents (especially my dad) masturbated frequently and they made no effort to hide it yet there was NOTHING kinky or perverted about what they did. The key was that like nudity, they didn't flaunt it either. Basically if the mood struck them, they did it - it was really that simple. Also, they did it discretely so I was not like my dad put on a show for me just because he was turned on by Amanda Tapping of StarGate fame. In fact, most of the time he masturbated around me I didn't even know he was doing it.

One of the many problems created when sex is treated as secretive and taboo is that most people who are raised that way instantly assume that if someone is nude or masturbates around someone else, that there is some inference of a desire for a sexual relationship. Well, that just goes to show how wrong impressions get started by people who don't know what they're talking about. I NEVER felt that way growing up. If I saw my dad masturbating because he was turned on by a movie or picture of beautiful woman, I didn't assume that he wanted to have sex with ME, I knew that he was just horny. My mother had a drawer full of vibrators next to her bed which she used frequently.

As for myself, whether watching a sexy movie or I was just feeling horny, I've never felt inhibited from touching myself wherever or whenever I needed to in order to release the sexual tension built up within me. The key thing is that I was taught that discretion was just being polite, not that I needed to hide anything. Since I usually would just reach inside my pajamas or under my skirt without making a big show of it, why not do it when you need to rather than wait to go off and do it in private? I would bet that most of the time my parents don't even know I'm doing it!

Basically I learned most everything I needed to know about sex from my mom. She was also the one who got me on birth control when I became sexually active. Unlike most girls who have to hide what they do with their boyfriends from their parents, when I gave up my virginity at the ripe old age of fourteen I couldn't wait to get home and tell my Mom all about it. After that she insisted that I tell her everything did on my dates with every guy I've been with - and I do mean EVERYTHING. She use to joke with me that my telling her such stuff was the price I had to pay for my birth control pills but actually I think she lived vicariously through me.

My parents knew just about everything I did when I was growing up, mostly because I never felt the need to hide anything from them. Rather than preach to me about abstinence and other ridiculous notions that are a total waste of time, they generally encouraged me to take advantage of the opportunities of adolescence and enjoy myself.

My mom especially loved to sit in bed next to me after I came home from a hot date and listen to me as I would describe every detail of what the guy had done to he was enjoying it immensely! His hands were on her head, pulling it into him, forcing himself deeper down her throat.

Instinctively I turned away out of respect for their privacy. As I said, my parents were open about almost every area of their lives except for their lovemaking which had always been something special that they reserved for just between the two of them. The only problem was that I couldn't help myself – something inside me seemed to be compelling me to watch them. It was like I was hypnotized, my body reacting on its own without me controlling it.

Like in a trance, I turned back to the window and looked down at them as they began to make passionate love. My mom was in a doggie position with her hands on the edge and her bare wet butt facing my dad as he banged her hard from behind. I couldn't quite make out his dick as it penetrated her, but the motions they were making were unmistakable. Oh yeah, he was fucking her!

It wasn't like this was the first time I'd seen two people having sex. Many of the parties I was going to often involved somebody doing it. This was different though as this wasn't two of my friends or even two strangers going at it. This was my mom and dad! I knew I should feel guilty spying on them like this but I couldn't tear my eye away. How often had I heard them doing it through the wall between our bedrooms but this was the first time I was getting to see what was happening when I heard those moans and groans.

After a while they reversed positions to where she was seated with her legs spread wide open while he moved in between them. My mom used her fingers to push aside her matted wet pubic hair. Watching him approach her I just stared, afraid that if I blinked even once I might miss something. My mom used her hand to skillfully guide my dad's erection into her hairy pussy. I drew in a sharp breath as for the first time in my life I actually could see my father's dick penetrate my mother. She threw her head back and arched her back as he thrust himself deep inside of her.

Speaking of pussies, there was a growing sensation in my own as I imagined how my mom must be feeling at that moment, feeling her hungry pussy being filled by her lover's swollen cock. I didn't matter whose it was, it was in her and that was what counted.

I watched intently, frozen in place as my dad fucked my mom over and over, including several positions I'd never tried. The more I watched the more I was realized that I was getting incredibly turned on! To my astonishment and even a bit of embarrassment, my pussy was getting wetter by the second while my mouth was dry like a desert. It didn't help either that I hadn't been fucked tonight the way I' hoped and expected to be. Stupid guy! I wonder if he had any idea how horny I was tonight and how badly I'd wanted him to fuck me? In any case, seeing my parents making love brought out all the horniness that had been building up in me during the course of the evening.

Suddenly the most astonishing realization struck me. It was as if in the blink of an eye something just clicked inside of me, like a switch that had laid dormant all my life but was suddenly turned on. I couldn't believe it. Oh my god, for the first time in my life I was feeling a genuine sexual attraction to my own parents! Sure there had been times I might get horny seeing my dad jerking his cock, especially when he would cum and spray all over himself but it was more that it reminded me of being laid by my boyfriend, not my dad jerking off. Masturbating with your mother is a great way to spend an evening, but it's not like we even touched each other - or even mentioned it.

My mind churned as I started to think about how in recent years that my dad was getting an erection more and more often when he saw me nude or playing with myself, or at least he wasn't hiding it as much as he use to. Until now I was appreciative (and a little amused) that he was turned on by me yet I knew deep down that it meant nothing more to him personally then when he would get horny from some anonymous slut in a dirty video. It couldn't have been ME, his daughter, that he was getting hard thinking about, it was the "girl" he saw. In a way, I guess you could say I considered myself a facilitator, not a participant, of my dad's sexual fantasies. That's a LONG ways from having sex with him!

Watching my parents making love for the first time in my life, I realized that what I was feeling now was something entirely new for me, something I'd never even fantasized about let alone hope would come true. It was a little unsettling even as for the first time in my life I was being turned on by watching a dick that wasn't just some boyfriend or a boy making a move on me, it was my DAD'S cock that I was thinking about.

It's really hard to describe my feelings then. It wasn't that knot I get in my stomach when I see a boy's nice dick and I want it so bad I could scream. This was something I'd never experienced before. For the past two years I'd had sex to please one person - ME. The only time I sucked a dick or let a guy fuck me was when there was something in it for me. Now, for the first time in my life I wanted to have sex to please someone else. For the first time I didn't want to just pretend to submit to someone just to make it fun for me, but rather because I wanted to give myself totally and completely to someone - my father.

Yes, I wanted to give myself to him. I wanted my dad to do the same thing to me that he was doing for my mother. Just as he was showing my mother his love to her as her husband, I wanted him to show his love for me as my father in this intimate way. But more than anything else I wanted to please him in the same way I could tell that my mother was pleasing him. I wanted to be the best daughter I could possibly be for him, attending to his needs and desires as I knew only I could do.

To be sure, it wasn't like I was simply horny for my dad, it wasn't that way at all. Face it, my dad might not be in that bad of shape but we're still talking about a guy more than twice my age, not a hunk at school. This wasn't lust, this was love. Not the sort of love I felt for my first boyfriend Steve but the love of a daughter for her father.

Of course, no matter how you view the emotional implications, in the end it was still SEX that I was thinking about, just that now it was all about sex with my DAD. As much as I felt these new feelings in me, there was still a part of me that was shocked beyond words that I could even be thinking this way. Like, what kind of kinky, perverted girl would want to suck her own father's cock? How could I even THINK about my dad fucking me, let alone do anything about it for real? What would my parents think of me if they knew how I was feeling right now?

Even worse, at least so far as my sensibilities went, it wasn't just a blow job that I was thinking of giving him. Noooooo, I wanted my dad to fuck me! Despite my rationalizations that what I was watching was a mother-father thing, not just sex, I still couldn't help but feeling hot but yet there was this other side of me that was trying to tell me that such feelings were wrong. But yet the more I thought about it the more I had to ask, why? Just because he was my father didn't mean we couldn't share our most intimate feelings. So it was incest? So what?

My parents and I had discussed a lot things regarding sex as I grew up but incest was one topic that was NEVER mentioned. It wasn't like they didn't want to talk about it, the subject simply never came up. I certainly wasn't going to be the one to initiate it. Until a few moments ago the very idea never even crossed my mind.

Then I thought about it some more. While my parents had never encouraged anything whatsoever regarding incest, at the same time I don't remember them once ever coming right out and telling me that it was wrong either. You would think that if they considered it inherently wrong that they would have said something about it, just as they had about other things they didn't think I should to do.

Sheesh, you can imagine how confused I was at this moment as I grappled with the conflicting feelings that were emerging, feelings that were so new to me yet so incredibly sharp, so overpoweringly strong, I was feeling totally overwhelmed by them. A part of me was urging me to immediately strip and join them in the hot tub but at the same time, it scared the heck out of me to even think about it. What would they say? Would it repulse them? Would they think I was some kind of pervert? So many things were going through my head that all I could do for the moment was stand there motionless, staring at my naked parents below me as they made love.

The more I watched my mom and dad, the hornier I got. Like, who can watch two people they love and adore making love without getting turned on? With each thrust of my father's dick into my mom's pussy, I became more and more convinced that I wanted him to do that very same thing to me.

My fingers began to touch me as my body instinctively responded. Feelings of lust and desire arose in me that I'd never felt before, at least not in this way. All my life I'd loved my father and would do anything for him. Was this any different? Suddenly I began to understand more about why I was feeling the way I was. I realized that there was something I could give him the nobody else in the world could – his own daughter! I wanted to please my father but I couldn't help but wonder if he would accept the gift I wanted to give him.

As I stood there by the window, watching them intently, I began to play with myself. My right hand reached under my short skirt and moved aside the skimpy thong I was wearing. My fingers quickly found my swelling clit and then I pressed my middle finger between my pussy lips and up inside of me as I watched my father's hard cock moving in and out of my mother's hot hairy pussy. As my finger pushed inside of me, for the first time in my life I imagined it was my father's dick as he entered me. The very thought made my pussy tingle!

It didn't take long before I was so worked up it was all I could do to not run down there and join them! Eventually my dad came and I watched as he sprayed his cum all over my mom's face and hair as she stroked his cock with both hands. Using his cock like a squeegee, she wiped as much of it as she could into her mouth and gently sucked him some more as he softened. Oh my god – I came so hard when she did that! My legs felt week and I leaned against the wall to keep my balance as my orgasm swept through me.

All I could think about at that moment was my dad's cock, how it would feel in me, how it would feel for him to erupt in me and pour his seed into my pussy - his own daughter's pussy at that. What would it be like to have your own father fuck you? Would he even do it? Had he ever dreamed of fucking his own daughter? Would he want to cum inside of me?

Eventually they kissed passionately for the longest time after which they grabbed their towels and headed back towards the house. Damn, I couldn't let them know I'd seen them, let alone masturbated as I watched them! Good grief, what would they say if they knew their own daughter had just masturbated while dreaming of having sex with her father?

So much of our relationship was based on trust and mutual respect, especially in dealing with sexual matters, so how could I possibly explain my new feelings for my dad? Even worse, as far as my parents were concerned making love was something intimate that they'd always kept as something special between the two of them and now I had violated that privacy. How could I ask them to trust me if they ever found out what I'd just done? I was no better than a Peeping Tom.

In a state of panic I quickly stripped off my clothes and threw them under the bed (where most of my dirty clothes seemed to end up anyway) and slipped under the covers. When they came upstairs to their bedroom, I heard the floorboard squeak outside my room and I knew that someone must be checking me out. Even though the light in my bedroom was off, the hall light was more than enough for anyone to see that I was in bed.

My eyes were tightly shut as I pretended to be asleep but I could still imagine them looking at each other, probably wondering how long I'd been home and if I'd seen them. Acting as though they'd just awakened me, I slowly opened my eyes, blinking at the light and flashing what I hoped was an innocent smile. As it turned out only my dad was standing there, silhouetted against the hallway light. He was still nude from being in the hot tub but his erection was long gone.

"So when did you get home baby?" he asked softly, "Kind of early, isn't it? Everything OK?"

I explained how the party had been a bust and that I'd just gotten home a few minutes ago. He looked at me and I wondered if he could see how flushed I remained from having just masturbated so hard. The light was probably too dim though and if he suspected anything he didn't certainly show it.

My dad stepped in my room and gave me a kiss on the cheek.

"Well, sleep tight baby," he whispered.

"G'nite daddy... luv ya."

How many times had he done this in the past? Hundreds? Thousands? Yet for the first time I was distinctly conscious of the fact he was nude and his cock was literally just inches away from my head. Although the circumstances were no different than so many times before, it was like being Eve in the garden, aware of her nudity for the first time when before that it wasn't even something she thought about.

I couldn't help but glance at his crotch and look at his dick hanging there in the dim light. Had I really imagined sucking that very cock and him fucking me with it just a few minutes ago? It was the same dick I'd felt under me when I sat on his lap in the hot tub, the same one that he would stroked while watching a sex girl on TV. It hadn't changed but I certainly had. It might be the same dick I'd ignored before, but there was no ignoring it anymore.

At the same time he was acting so normally that it made me wonder if I had someone imagined everything, that it was all just a weird dream. That simple, innocent kiss while standing there naked beside me without a hint of sexual intent made me feel as if he'd woken me from a dream and none of what had just happened was real. Yet I knew better. It WAS all real and I looked away from him quickly, not sure of whether I should be looking at it that way or not.

If my dad noticed anything unusual about my actions he didn't make any indication of it before leaving to go to their bedroom. Alone again I just laid there and let out a long breath. OMG, did he have any idea what I was thinking when I looked at his exposed crotch? Thank goodness the lights were dim and he couldn't see how flushed I was.

As I replayed the events of the last hour or so I found the heat between my legs returning and before long I was going at it again. I dreamed that my father hadn't left but instead of kissing me, he had taken his cock and rubbed it against my lips, demanding that I suck him.

It wasn't long before I came as I imagined sucking my dad's cock while he stood there by the side of my bed. I fell asleep with thoughts of being in the hot tub with them, of letting my dad fuck me as my mom watched and played with herself.

Afterwards I dreamed that he told me what a good daughter I was and how much he loved me - and how he especially loved fucking me.

3. Debating Incest

The next morning I woke up and for a moment I thought everything that had happened the night before was just an awesome dream. If anything, I felt guilty for having spied on my parents and even guiltier still for imaging those things with my dad. It wasn't fair of me to think that he would ever do such a thing to his daughter. What kind of father did I think he was that he would actually fuck his own daughter?

As I usually did in such circumstances, I prayed for a while, asking God for His guidance and especially His forgiveness. When I finished praying, it suddenly became clear to me, as if God was already answering my prayer. The Bible says to honor you mother and father. Well, how much more could I honor my father than to submit myself to him? It would be almost like I was sacrificing myself for him except in this case it would be for his pleasure.

At first I was troubled by the adultery aspect. Regardless of what they may have done before marriage, once my parents took their wedding vows they'd never had sex with anyone else (at least, that is what I thought at that time). Was fucking your daughter really the same as being with another woman?

The more I thought about it the more I realized that it wasn't the same thing at all. For goodness sakes I was his DAUGHTER, his own flesh and blood, not some outsider that he would lust for and then take in violation of his vows to his wife. In fact, I slowly came to the realization that my dad DESERVED to fuck me, that as my father he even had the RIGHT to do so. Thus by withholding myself from him, as I had for so many years, was that a sign of disrespect on my part?

For the next few nights I continued to debate this with myself and in doing so, found myself rubbing my pussy constantly as I replayed over and over how my dad made love to my mom that night. No matter how conflicted I might start out, in the end I would always fantasize about having my dad doing those same things to me. I couldn't help but dream about what might have happened if I'd surprised them by jumping in the hot tub while they were still making love. Would they have let me join in and made it a genuine family night?

The more I thought about it the more I realized how badly I wanted him to do to me what I watched him do to Mom. It may have seemed crazy before but I knew now without a shadow of doubt that I wanted my own father to fuck me! I wanted the best, she was adamant that it had to be MY decision, even if that meant it never happened.

My mom's was not wrong very often, but this was one time I feel she overreacted. Actually that's being too kin. My mom was WRONG and because of that I'd lost years when I could have been pleasing my father. Her situation with her father had been a LOT different. She wasn't even having sex yet when her dad had come into her bedroom when she was only fourteen and taken her virginity without even asking. Although she hadn't resisted, at the same time it wasn't something she had expected or was truly prepared for as her mother didn't discuss sex with her.

Well, my dad certainly didn't need to do anything like that with me, but he COULD have at least let me know how he felt. It was SO frustrated as I thought his apparent lack of interest in me sexually was genuine. Often I think back about how it would have been so much easier if he had just told me his true feelings so I could have offered myself to him as a daughter should to her father.

Oh well, the things we would change in the past if we could! However, with things as they were I found myself debating once again whether I shouldn't just come right out and ask him. Boy, I could just imagine how THAT conversation would go... "Hi daddy, wanna fuck me?"

For the first time I sympathized with some poor boy trying to work up the courage to ask a girl to a dance. Guys never turned me away so I'd never experienced such an intense fear of rejection. As much as I wanted my dad to do me, if he turned me down I think I would've been totally embarrassed and devastated. It was unthinkable!

The "problem" I was facing was that I was almost certain by now that he was turned on by me. The more I thought about it, the more I started to think that he was probably masturbating by fantasizing about me. Yeah, so that meant he was a normal male jerking off to the image of a teenage girl but did that really mean anything so far as me personally?

My parents had taught me at an early age that fantasies were just that – fantasies. Anything goes so far as fantasies go so long as you understand where the line is between fantasy and reality. Therefore, even if my dad WAS jerking off while thinking about me, even if I DID turn him on when I masturbated in front of him, even if he did get off seeing me having sex, none of that necessarily meant that the fantasies he was having about me would ever translate into reality. I'm sure most fathers fantasize about their teenage daughters and don't ever have sex with them so why would my dad be any different?

There was something else that made me hesitate as well. The more I thought about it the more significant it seemed to me that as open about sex as my parents were, the one thing they had never discussed was incest. Actually, until now I hadn't thought about it one way or the other. Was there a reason? Was this one thing that was out of bounds for discussion, even for my parents?

Then again, was I reading too much into what they did NOT talk about? It was like some of the arguments I use to have at school where people would draw conclusions from what the Bible did NOT say. Even though it bothers me when people do that, here I was, doing the same thing regarding incest.

Maybe we didn't discuss incest because they never wanted me to misunderstand any of their actions to mean anything other than showing their care and concern of their daughter? If THAT was the case then was it right for me to be thinking and doing these things? What if they were offended by my new thoughts and feelings? I'd always been open with them and they'd always encouraged me to experiment but this would be REALLY new!

As the days went by, things got to the point where I almost gave up on the while idea until I remembered the times my parents and I would discuss the difference between being erotic and vulgar. They taught me that it was the mental side of sex that had as much impact on the results than anything. My mom once told me that it was the intentions and goals of each person that made more difference in how the sex was than anything physical. She pointed out that strippers have always known this which is why they just don't strut out naked from the start - that it was the anticipation that turned on men more than anything else.

As all these different thoughts were mixing themselves up in my head, I realized that the answer for my dilemma was somehow linked to all of them. For me to appear before my father nude was NOT erotic, it was just me without any clothes on, no different than any other time. Somehow I had to find a way to make him see me not as just another naked teenage girl, but as his sexy daughter who wanted nothing more than to please her father in whatever way he wanted her - and I mean WHATEVER way he wanted.

I was terribly excited by this "revelation" and so I decided to first experiment by trying a few more subtle moves and test his reactions before doing anything more forward. I even sorted through his porn collection and watched a few "Taboo" videos

My mom looked up from her magazine a few times and peered over her reading glasses to see what was going on. Actually, nothing was happening. Although my dad's dick now felt like a hard pipe sticking up underneath me, neither of us made any indication that we were aware of it, or of how my boobs against him might be making him feel. I guess from her perspective, it was no different than any other night. If she could read my mind she would know it was a LOT different for me!

The longer I sat on my dad's lap, the hornier I could feel myself getting and I needed badly to rub my pussy. Now THAT was one thing I'd NEVER done before - masturbate while I sat on his lap. Playing with myself on the couch while my parents watched TV was one thing, but doing it on his lap was something else entirely. Sure there had been times when I was horny on his lap and had gotten off so I could relieve some tension, but it wasn't my DAD that was making me horny at the time, or not that I realized. This was the first time in my life that I was horny as hell while sitting on his lap when I could say that HE was to blame for it!

Well, if there was ever an opportunity to be more erotic with my dad, this was it. Once again I couldn't help but sympathize with how a boy must feel when he is sitting next to me in a car or the theater, wanting to touch me but afraid to make that first move. Now it was me that wanted to make the first move. Damn, working up the courage was not nearly as easy as when I had fantasized about it earlier in the day.

After about thirty minutes or so of debating, I was still too chicken to do anything but sit on his lap. My dad was starting to shift his weight around, a sign that I was indeed not as little as I use to be and starting to get heavy on his lap. I knew it wouldn't be long before he "suggested" I get off and let the blood return to his legs or some other silly comment. Usually that meant getting off and taking my place on the couch across the room. Time was running out and if I was going to make a move I needed to do it soon.

I closed my eyes and took a deep breath, trying not to alert him but needing to focus and channel my sexual energy. Here goes nothing! I took my left hand and reached down between my legs and cupped my warm pussy. Using my middle finger, I rubbed my clit slowly, causing a slight gasp to escape through my closed lips before I could stop it.

"Hmmmmmm, I think somebody's a little extra horny tonight! Boyfriend not taking care of you lately?"

My dad didn't say it very loud but my mom heard it anyway and I saw her eyebrows raise just a smidge as she looked over and saw where my hand was. She didn't say anything but I noticed that she started looking over our way a lot more often.

"Oh daddy, you know better than that.... Well, maybe a little."

My finger touched my clit and pressed down on it, sending a shiver through me which my father obviously could feel as tightly as I was pressed up tightly against him.

"Ummmmm, seems to me like it's more than just a little, don't you think?"

I opened my eyes and saw my dad was looking down where my hand was moving between my legs.

"You don't mind, do you daddy?" I whispered in his ear, "I don't want to bother you."

My dad chuckled, "Don't worry, you're not bothering me at all. Hey, a girl's gotta do what a girl's gotta do, I guess."

He didn't say anything more but his arm that had been resting on the armrest behind me moved and wrapped around me. His hand was on my bare upper thigh and for a brief moment my heart raced as I thought maybe he was going to move it further over and "help" me but he just rested it on my leg.

As I continued to masturbate, all I could think about was what my dad might be thinking. I'd never done anything so overtly sexual with him before. Sure it was just me touching myself, not as if I'd reached down and grabbed his erect dick. Even so, I'd never played with myself while he was touching me, even if it was innocent.

My pussy was soaking wet as I thought about what must be going through my dad's mind at that moment. Was I turning him on? Did he have any idea why I was doing this now? Was he thinking about touching me, maybe even fucking me? His dick certainly wasn't getting any softer so something nasty must have been going on to keep his dick hard for so long!

"Um, Kelly, don't you think you should be doing that on the couch and not pestering your dad?"

Evidently my mom had figured things had gone far enough. Technically she was correct - it was just common courtesy. While I was brought up that masturbation was nothing to hide, at the same time it was STILL a personal thing and needed to be treated as such.

I wondered if she had any idea WHY I was doing this? Was she just correcting my manners or was she trying to keep me from seducing her husband? Normally I could go to my mom and discuss anything but for the first time I felt uncomfortable bringing up the issue with her and so I'd not told her about any of my thoughts or concerns.

"It's OK Mary, she's not bothering me," my dad said, trying to defend me but my mom would have none of it.

"Yeah, I bet! Kelly, I said that's enough!"

There's no arguing with my mom in such circumstances. Reluctantly I pulled my hand from between my legs and gave my dad a peck on the cheek before working my way slowly off his lap, making sure I rubbed my ass against his dick as seductively as possible.

Once I was off his lap, I looked back and saw his dick was raising his pants up like a circus tent pole. My mom noticed as well and the look she gave my dad would have shriveled the erections of most men but my dad just ignored her.

It was tempting to move over to the couch and finish myself off there but something told me I'd pushed things far enough for one night. Instead, I made my way to my room where it only took a few minutes of furious pussy play to make myself cum like a flood as I dreamed of my dad's hard cock pressing against my bottom. God, it has only been an inch or so away from my pussy but yet it may as well have been a mile. What would it take to get it closer?

Later on I heard my parents coming up the stairs to go to bed. I felt a bit nervous, waiting for my mom to come in and give me her standard lecture on "inappropriate" behavior that she pulled out whenever she thought I'd stepped over the line.

Surprisingly, neither of them made an appearance. Instead, I heard the door shut and it wasn't long before the sounds of their love making were coming through the thin wall that separated our rooms. Listening to my mom cry out as she came, I couldn't help but smile to myself. If anything, something told me my mom owed me one for getting my dad so horny!

The following evening my dad was sitting in the kitchen and I slowly walked by wearing a t-shirt that was so short that I couldn't even start to pretend it was even partially covering my bare bottom. As I walked by him, I wagged my teenage ass at him in a provocative manner. Well, I guess there's not much of any OTHER way to wag your bare butt when you come down to it.

My dad responded by laughing and slapping my naked butt with the open palm of his hand, making a loud smacking sound. It sounded a lot worse than it felt but I wasn't going to let him know that.

"Daddy!" I exclaimed playfully, "That hurt! Don't spank me!"

My dad laughed and put his hand on my hip to pull me closer to him. His other hand reached around to cup my naked ass. His open palm and fingers started to rub it in little circles in the same area where he had just smacked me..

"There, does it feel better now?" he asked, same as he did when I was a little girl when he would rub my knee after a fall.

"Daddy!" I giggled like a little girl, "Are you playing with my butt?"

It was really more of a statement than a question since it was obvious that was exactly what he WAS doing. Just then my mom walked in and her eyes glared at my dad.

"John! Just WHAT do you think you're doing?" she said in a sharp tone.

My dad looked a bit embarrassed but he still managed to give me on last squeeze before he took his hand off of me. I reached down and gave him a kiss on the forehead. Standing back up, I tossed my hair back and started to walk out but just before I was left the kitchen I turned back.

"It's OK mom... I liked it!"

Oh my god! I put my hands to my mouth, not quite believing I'd actually said that out loud. Twirling around, I giggled and ran out before either of them could respond. I had no idea what they said to each other but I would've given about anything to eavesdrop just a little!

Back in my bedroom, I plopped on my bed face down and reached behind to touch my bottom. Thoughts of my dad's hand rubbing me caused a warm feeling to run through me. I couldn't recall him ever touching me quite that way before. Certainly I'd been spanked before - I wasn't THAT good a child growing up! There were even times when he had patted me on the bottom for encouragement but never before had his hand lingered in quite this way and certainly he had never rubbed it before like he just had. Hmmmmmm, maybe there was hope after all!

While my dad seemed to be responding the way I'd hoped, it was my mom that had me confused. Talk about mixed messages! On the one hand she would scold my dad and me when we got too playful, but then later she acted as if nothing had happened. Was she really offended by what I was doing or did she feel obligated to act like she was?

Over the next few days I became more and more blatant in the way I would rub up against my dad. What I found REALLY interesting was that as I became more aggressive he in turn started to be more open about looking at me, even grinning at times when I would wear some ridiculously skimpy outfit and parade around in front of him.

One of my favorite outfits to wear around the house has always been a simple long t-shirt that's not quite long enough to cover my ass - and that was when I was standing. Of course when I sat down or bent over it was instantly obvious I had no underwear on (not that I ever wore any at home).

Another of my favorite evening outfits was just as simple if not quite as blatantly revealing - one of my dad's dress shirts. Sometimes I would steal one from his closet and then wear it for the evening. They were comfortable and later in life I even took a few to college with me. He would grumble sometimes about it but I knew he was just teasing me. They hung loose on me and the tails would cover my ass and pussy from view but the sides were cut to show off my hips and legs.

Now, though, I starting to run around without buttoning them and even though they were still so baggy that that they covered me most of the time, when I laid on my back on the couch or sat in his lap they would open up and expose me to him.

Things seemed to stall, though, until one morning I crossed the hall from the bathroom to my room after a shower just as my dad left their bedroom to go into the bathroom (an amazing coincidence if I say so myself). I pretended to slip on the hall carpet and fell into him so he had to grab me to keep me from hitting the floor. His hands felt so strong on my nude body and as he held me against him.

"Wow, you really ARE growing up, aren't you."

I didn't say a word but just pressed my small boobs against him and gave him a big hug. He had his arms around me and I noted that his hands slipped down until he was cradling my ass in them. His cock was pressed against my stomach and even thought it was flaccid, I could've sworn that I felt it stirring. We just held each other for a few more seconds until suddenly he turned to go into the bathroom. Somehow in that moment I felt like something had silently been conveyed between us. Was he signaling that he'd gotten my "messages" and that all I had to do was let him know so he could be sure? Had the moment I had been dreaming of, yet dreading at the same time, finally arrived?

I figured it was finally time to just make a more straightforward move and see what happened. For the rest of the day it seemed all I could think about was the upcoming evening and what I hoped would happen.

Finally evening arrived and my dad was back in the family room watching TV and reading the local newspaper. His Lazy Boy was tilted back with the footrest up. This time he was wearing just a ragged pair of old college gym shorts. They were faded and full of holes and my mom had threatened numerous times to throw them out every time he wore them; but for whatever reason they were his favorites.

My mom had left to go shopping about ten minutes earlier and knowing her, I figured she wouldn't be back for at least a few hours.

As soon as my mom had left I changed into a thin white cotton T-shirt. It was even shorter than even the version I normally wore which essentially left me walking around totally bottomless. Of course I was wearing nothing underneath so my trimmed pussy was on full display. Not only was the T-shirt way too short, it was also a few sizes too small such that it was stretched so tight it might as well have been painted on. Even my small boobs looked bigger than usual as they stretched out the material even further and my nipples were clearly outlined through the thin cotton cloth.

God! I was SO nervous yet at the same time unbelievably horny! My pussy throbbed as I took a deep breath and slowly walked down the stairs to the basement family room.

"Hey daddy! How are you feeling tonight?"

"Great Kelly," he replied automatically, not even looking up from the newspaper he was reading. Then he glanced up and I saw him do a double take as he saw what I was wearing.

"Damn Kelly, hate to be the one to tell you this but I think you outgrew that T-shirt a couple of years ago!"

I gave him my sweetest little girl innocent look and pretended to pout

"Why, is there something wrong with it daddy? I can go change if you want me to."

It was all I could do to keep a straight face at how fast my dad shook his head.

"On no - don't bother. It's OK I guess."

He tried to laugh to make it appear he didn't care but at the same time I noticed he was looking at me in a way I hadn't quite seen before. If there is one thing every girl learns early, it's how to interpret the way a guy looks at you. Rather than the usual "daddy look" (how else can I describe it?), it was more the way the boys look at me when they're horny and want nothing more than to fuck the daylights out of me.

Whenever I was with my boyfriends I always got a thrill when I saw "the look" because I knew it meant I was going to be fucked before the night was over - if I let him. Still, I have to admit that it seemed a bit strange to have my own father look at me that way but yet I hoped that the outcome would be the same! I found myself getting turned on more by the minute which encouraged me to continue on with my plan.

Instead of going directly to his lap as I'd done the week before, I curled up on the family room couch which was on the opposite side of the room from his recliner and closer to the TV. I couldn't really see him while in this position but I knew he could see me clearly. My T-shirt rode half-way up my stomach as I tucked my legs under me which meant he was getting a great view of my bare ass!

We both watched TV for a while, neither of us saying anything and just pretending it was another typical evening. Now and then I would reposition myself as if to make myself more comfortable. Of course, each time I made sure he got a better view of my ass and what was becoming a wetter and wetter pussy.

I could feel my pussy beginning to throb as I thought of my own father watching me, looking at me and hopefully wanting me, maybe even lusting for me. It wasn't like my dad had never seen my pussy before yet somehow there seemed to be a huge difference between he SEEING my pussy and LOOKING at it as he was now

In the past when we were nude together it was just part of the situation - usually in the tub or bathroom. There wasn't anything sexual intended at those times unlike the current situation. It was one thing to discuss it but I was fast learning firsthand what it meant to be erotic. Well, if intent was a factor in creating a sexual situation then I was certainly guilty!

My dad turned to one of the adult cable channels. There was a soft porn movie playing and although I'd never been a big porn fan I knew he enjoyed them and so I tolerated them. The really hard core ones turned me totally off so he usually didn't watch them when I was around, although there have been a few that were actually quite instructional!

As we watched I laid on my back and spread my legs wide apart as I started masturbating. God I was already so wet! I heard my dad's chair rustle behind me and I had a good idea why without having to look back! In the past I would've thought it was the movie that was turning him on but now I wondered what was turning him on more - the movie or me? Well, there was only one way to find out for sure...

I stopped playing with myself and stood up, licking my pussy juices from my fingers. That in itself wasn't so odd but the way I looked at him while I did it was certainly new. I looked back and indeed, my dad's rock-hard cock was sticking out from his shorts. He was stroking it with his hand and for a few minutes I just stood there watching him as he masturbated. The only difference was this time I knew it t was more than just my dad getting himself off. Plus, this time I stood there wondering what it tasted like and how it would feel inside of me!

Goose bumps rose up all over me as I was within an arm's length of my dad's erect cock and for the first time in my life I looked at it in much the way I looked at other men's cocks - as a sexual organ I craved rather than just my dad's penis. I almost leaned over to move his hand out of the way and substitute my own but I needed one final confirmation. Despite everything I still needed him to make a move towards me that meant he wanted me and wasn't just playing around with me.

"Hey dad, I'm going up to my room. I need to take care of something," I said with a sly grin.

"Oh? Anything you need help with?" he quickly responded - maybe a little TOO quickly.

At any other day or time I would have thought he was asking about homework or such but now I wondered if he meant something else - something more personal perhaps? The look in his eyes suggested it wasn't homework he was interested in and I noticed his cock was harder than ever.

"Maybe, it's up to you," I responded cryptically. It could be read in a number of ways. Which way would he respond?

It was indeed now up to him. What more could I do to signal my intentions and desires without writing it out on a sign and walking around him like a girl between boxing rounds? If nothing happened now it would be disappointing but at least I would finally know one way or the other how he really felt about me.

I slowly walked out of the room without pulling the t-shirt down so it was up around my midriff, leaving my entire bare ass exposed for him to watch. I could practically feel his eyes staring at it as I left. My heart was pounding.

What would happen next?

5. First Time Sex With My Dad

Maybe I was reading him totally wrong, but I'd fucked enough boys in the past couple of years or so and seen the look in their eyes that told me what they wanted. Now I'd seen that same look in my dad's eyes for the first time. As I left the room I had a feeling in my gut (or was it really in my pussy?) that my dreams of smutting myself to my father, of having him demonstrate his love for me by fucking me like he fucked my mother, were about to come true!

Once out of sight all vestiges of my nonchalant attitude disappeared as I flew up the stairs to the second floor where back in my bedroom I quickly peeled off my T-shirt and flopped back on my bed against the pillows.

Facing the open door, totally naked with my legs spread wide, I closed my eyes and started to play with myself. God I needed that so bad! Yet as good as it felt to touch myself, all I could think about was whether or not was I finally going to feel my dad's dick between my legs instead of my fingers.

After a few minutes I glanced briefly at the open door only to see nothing but the bathroom door on the opposite side of the hallway. My heart sank as my hopes crashed. My worst fears were being realized. Oh my god, he wasn't going to come to me! What an idiot I was to think my father would really want me in that way.

Despite my panic, I was still SOOOOO horny that I couldn't hardly stand it! I closed my eyes tightly shut and grabbed my pussy with both hands. Damn, I had been SO sure that I was going to be fucked by my dad and it was hard to imagine that all I would be doing was just masturbating now.

Then I heard a squeak of the floor boards and I opened my eyes just enough to see my dad standing there, outlined in the doorway. He must have sneaked up the stairs and my heart leaped to my throat as I saw he was stroking a huge hard-on as his cock was stuck out of the opening in his shorts. He just stood there watching me playing, stroking his cock like he did when he watched women masturbating in one of his nasty porn movies. Our eyes met and somehow we each knew that this was the moment of truth. My hand froze on my pussy as I held my breath, waiting to see what he would do next.

Suddenly he stopped stroking himself and turned away as if to leave. "Damn Kelly, I'm so sorry. I really shouldn't be here now.... not like this. Please don't tell your mother what just happened."

"No daddy, please stay," I pleaded, "I don't want you to go."

I couldn't let this opportunity slip through my fingers now. I KNEW he wanted me. I wanted to open the window and scream out to the world that MY DAD WANTS TO FUCK ME! I reached my arms out to him and said, "Oh daddy... you MUST realize by now what I want."

My daddy turned again and this time came into the room and stood by the side of my bed as he looked down at the me. I was thrilled to see that his cock was still sticking up and out of his shorts, looking as rigid and lovely as I'd ever seen it.

I drew a deep breath and whispered, "You know daddy, I've been dreaming of this ever since I watched you and mom in the hot tub."

He just nodded and smiled and then moved even closer to me. "Yeah, we figured you must have seen us from the way you were so flushed afterwards. Is that why you've been acting the way you have lately? You know, I have to admit, I've been incredibly turned on by your teasing lately."

He looked at me with narrowed eyes, as if he was really concentrating. He took a long breath, held it and then let it out slowly/

"Tell me Kelly... are you SURE you really want to do this?"

"Oh god yes daddy."

"Tell me what you want then... I need you tell me what you REALLY want, deep down inside."

My eyes opened wide and my heart was racing. This was it, this was my chance to tell my dad once and for all how much I wanted to give myself to him. I'd prepared an entire speech for just this very moment which I'd practiced over and over for the past week. Suddenly, my mind went blank and all I could feel was there ache in my pussy and the pounding of my heart. What I finally said was totally unscripted and came from my heart.

"Oh daddy. I want to give myself to you... I want you to take me... Oh daddy I love you so very much and I want you to do whatever you want with me! I want so bad to be a good daughter for you... I just want to make you happy."

"And what do you want me to do to you when I take you?"

I thought I was going to explode with frustration. He HAD to know that I wanted him to fuck me badly and yet he was being so damn cautious! My dad may be a lot of things, but stupid isn't one of them. Surely he must realize what I wanted to do for him so why was he making me tell him over and over, and in such detail? Why didn't he just fuck me and get it over with?

I gave him the most lustful look I knew how when I replied, "Oh yes daddy, YES! Come in me now. Push yourself into my pussy. I want soooooo bad to see and feel my daddy's hard cock in me. Fuck me daddy... fuck me."

He STILL hesitated! Looking back, who could blame him? This wasn't something that he could ever take back, something that he could ever undo or pretend had never happened. This wasn't just sex, it was incest. It was almost like losing my virginity all over again - a once in a lifetime thing.

"Come on daddy!... Don't up want you to feel your daughter's little wet pussy squeeze you?"

I let my words sink in a bit and then slowly and softly I whispered to him in a deliberate tone. Maybe he needed me to be more of a slut and less of a daughter, more of someone to fuck and not someone he had held in his arms since she was born.

"Do it to me... fuck me... I want to feel you inside of me!"

"Oh yea baby, keep telling me what you want."

"Shove your hard cock in me, fuck me hard daddy, fuck me like you've always wanted to."

That seemed to find the right spot as I appealed to the pent-up lust that had been building in him all these years. I knew for certain now, without a trace of doubt, that my father wanted to fuck me. My heart raced as I realized that all these years it wasn't the porn movies or movie stars that had been turning him on, it was ME. It made me feel so proud, so wonderful, so sexy, and yes, so... loved!

I lifted my hips up against him as if I was trying to force him into me. He didn't hesitate any further and with a grunt he pushed his cock into me. My god! At first I thought he was going to split me in two he was so big! I watched in fascination as my dad's cock slowly disappeared, inch by inch moving inside of me for the very first time.

While I watched him entering me I could feel him at the same time, feel him filling my cunt with his dick. I focused completely on his dick entering me, trying to sear it into my memory for all time. I never wanted to forget this moment, as I watched and felt my own father's cock inside of me.

"Deeper daddy... put it all the way in me. Give it all to me."

Finally he was completely in me, buried to the hilt with his hairy crotch pressed tight against me and his cock completely out of sight. He held it still at first and I could feel him throbbing deep inside of me. I almost couldn't believe it, this had to

OH MY GOD! My dad wanted to cum in me! I wanted his cum in me. No, it was more like I NEEDED his cum in me, needed him to burst in me like a hot flood being released from a broken dam. This was the moment that would show me just how much he REALLY wanted me, how much he REALLY loved me. Hearing him tell me he wanted to mate with me was the last straw as a tremendous orgasm swept through me like the blast from an atom bomb.

God, I thought I had cum hard before but it was nothing compared to this. I had never dreamed I could cum this hard! I lost track of everything, where I was and what the time was. It was like being on another planet, if not another universe. I felt like I was floating, my body felt weightless composed of nothing but wave after wave of the most intense pleasure I could ever have imagined. My pussy clamped down on his cock like a vise, trying to hold onto him and never letting him go.

"Oh God, fuck me daddy!!" I cried out as I felt his cock responding to the tight grip of my pussy.

"FUCK ME!" I screamed out to him, wanting so bad for him to cum in me while my orgasm was peaking.

My dad didn't disappoint me. His breathing was fast and heavy as he tried to talk to me, "OK here it is, oh lord - I'm cumming in my little girl!"

His back arched and his head pulled backwards as a loud groan escaped from him. He thrust himself into deeper into me with each load of his cum. It seemed he would never stop as load after load exploded from him, his incestuous sperm emerging from his cock and shooting deep into his daughter's welcoming pussy for the first time.

As he kept stroking his cum began to leak from my pussy and I could feel it dripping down my ass onto the bed sheets. My orgasm, which had just started to wane, picked up in full force again as my cunt clamped down on his cock, literally squeezing the cum from him. A final moan and he just held himself completely inside of me, trying to catch his breath.

"Oh my God I never dreamed fucking my daughter would be feel so good! How do you feel baby? How did it feel to have your daddy fuck you?"

At first I didn't know if I could even speak but the words burst from me like a flood.

"Oh daddy, I loved it. I'm so happy that you fucked me. Ohhhhhhhhh, you feel so hot inside me now! Please stay in me for a while! I love the feeling, being one with you, joined with you, feeling a part of your body inside of mine. Oh daddy I love you so much."

It was like I couldn't stop talking now, like I had to keep telling him over and over how much I loved what he had done. It was all true, my dad WAS joined with me. Father and daughter were one for the very first time, joined in the most intimate way possible, coupled in way very few fathers ever get to experience with their daughters. My father's cum was in me, a part of him left behind as sign of his love for me.

After he'd cum and his sexual tensions had been released, his mind, clouded with a sexual lust he'd never experienced before, began clear. As it did, my dad seemed to realize just what he had just done to his little girl, how he had violated his own daughter's sexuality in a way that could never be undone. It's not like I was so innocent and hadn't had sex before; but he knew that as my father, fucking me was much more serious than fucking almost anyone else and that the responsibility was his. We both knew it and I was glad when he spoke again, glad to see he didn't regret it or felt bad about doing it.

"Oh my God, I can't believe this. I just fucked my own daughter," he sighed.

But just as quickly a hint of the old lust was restored and he grinned at me saying, "But dammit, it was incredible. God you're an incredible fuck."

He started to pull out of pussy but I pressed up against him, trying my best to keep him in me. The way I felt at that moment, he could have stayed in me forever! I looked at him and kissed him. Not a "family" kiss but the passionate kind that he would get from a lover. My tongue slipped into his mouth and he responded in kind. For the first time we kissed as a father and daughter who had shared their most intimate feelings and bodies. Our nude bodies pressed against each other and his cock throbbed with his pulse inside of me.

"Oh Daddy, I wanted this just as much as you did. From now on I want you to take me anytime you want. Fuck me whenever you want - every day or even more if you need it. I love you daddy, doesn't what we just did prove that to you?"

My father looked at me and smiled. "You don't have to do anything to prove your love for me Kelly - don't ever think that. I love you no matter what. It's just so incredible to be able to express ourselves in this way. Mmmmmmm, now why don't you just lay back and relax while you feel me inside of you."

I did just that and for the next few minutes felt as satisfied and secure as I had ever felt in my life. After all, here I was in bed with my father's cock nestled inside of me, his sperm draining from my pussy as the aftershocks of my orgasm slowly died down.

Eventually, of course, he had to slip out of me and my pussy felt so empty at first without him. It was like suddenly a part of me was missing and I wanted nothing more at that moment than to have it back inside of me. I remained in my bed as my father went back to bathroom and then down to the family room. As I drifted off to sleep I dreamed of how it felt those first few moments when he first came inside of me. It was so hard to understand. I'd had plenty of boys ejaculate when their dick was in me but this had been different.

My last thoughts were that there was one thing I was sure of and that was my life had just changed forever. It would never be the same again with my dad – and I was .happy about it. My daddy had shown me his love and I couldn't wait for him to do it again... and again... and again!

scale. This wasn't just another round of sex, this was my FATHER fucking me, showing me his love for me as his daughter in a special way.

The only part that sometimes bothered me was the thought that we were doing it behind my Mom's back. I'd never kept anything of any consequence secret from her before and what could any bigger than me fucking her husband? It wasn't that I thought she would mind, but it was like when I was trying to get my dad to fuck me for the first time - I just didn't know how to tell her. I couldn't just open up a conversation with, "Hey mom, guess what? Dad just fucked me."

When I lost my virginity I knew she was probably waiting for it to happen so it was easy to tell her about it at the time. Somehow I didn't think she was standing back and waiting for me to tell her that her husband was fucking her daughter. Actually, I expected that my dad would tell her and that she would come to me and talk about it. It was a bit of a surprise to me that he didn't tell her, which just made me all the more tentative. If he wasn't telling her, then maybe that was a good reason for me not to tell her as well.

2. Mom Confronts Me

Have you ever tried to keep a secret from your mother? I mean a really secret type of secret, one that meant something big to you. It's a silly question but I'm sure your results were no different than mine was in this situation. It wasn't long after my dad and I had established our new relationship that I started getting this funny feeling that my mom was more than just a little bit suspicious. I suppose it didn't help that my dad was getting a monstrous erection every time I walked anywhere near him - even more than her had been before. Finally one day my mom called me into her room as I passed by.

"Hey Kelly, have a seat on the bed next to me." She put her arm around me and gave me a warm hug. "So tell me girl, how's the ol' sex life been lately?"

The question didn't surprise me the way I imagine it would most girls. As I said before, my mom and I discuss everything - and I mean everything. I tell her about all of my dates and what happens, including the "naughty" parts I doubt most girls would feel comfortable telling their mothers. But my mom has always been cool about it. She listens intently to me and if anything even pushes me for more intimate details. Sometimes she would flush a bit but it I knew it wasn't from being embarrassed - it was obvious that my horny mother was getting stimulated listening to her daughter's latest sexual exploits. It was OK with me, actually a bit amusing as I assumed she was somehow reliving her youth through me.

"Well, it's been pretty good until recently," I replied. "You know I just broke up with Greg after that stupid party where he got all drunk so I've been pretty much on my own since then."

My mom nodded in an understanding way. "Hmmmmmm... I've been so worried about you ever since the two of you got into that silly argument. Don't forget that I was your age once and you've got your mother's genes so I know how much you need sex."

She laughed a bit at that and it helped to takes some of the edge off the seriousness of the conversation. Then she continued with, "Sheesh, from what you were telling me it seemed that Greg must've been doing you almost every day!"

I started to say something but she cut me off before I could get anything out. "Kelly, since you're not getting the real thing, don't forget that you can always use my toys. I know you don't like them all that much but I just wanted to remind you in case you wanted to use them until you find another guy."

Despite myself I couldn't help but roll my eyes a bit. For goodness sake it wasn't like I couldn't get laid anytime I wanted it if I really wanted it badly enough. There were plenty of boys at school more than willing to help me out so it was just a matter of being selective.

Rather than bragging about my options I frowned just a bit responding with, "No thanks mom, I just can't seem to get myself off with them as well as I can by myself. Don't worry, I won't go off and do anything stupid."

Then mom then took a deep breath, took my hand and looked me straight in the eye. From out of the blue she asked, "Kelly, I want you to tell me the truth. Have you and your dad been having sex?"

Needless to say I was caught totally off guard at her abrupt change in conversation so I imagine the shocked look on my face was more than enough confirmation for her. How had she been feeling knowing suspecting that her husband he was doing it with her own daughter? I sat there with my mouth hanging open like a fish out of water, totally unsure of as to how to respond.

"OK, then let me ask it more in your terms... Kelly, is your dad fucking you? Is my husband having sex my daughter?"

Despite how it might seem, there was something in her voice that reassured me. She wasn't being threatening or accusing, more like curiosity. It was as if she already knew the answer but she wanted to hear me say it. It didn't hurt when she grinned and hugged me again.

"Ahhhhhh, don't look so shocked," she said nodding her head knowingly. "So how long have the two of you had been doing it? How often does he fuck you? Every day or what? Tell me how you got started... Who started it?"

So many questions, she seemed ready to burst with curiosity. Taking a deep breath I tried to explain to her how I'd watched them making love in the hot tub and how deeply it affected me at the time. Then I described how I tried to seduce him in the weeks afterwards by wearing skimpy clothes, flashing him, and making lots of sexual remarks, all the while trying to see if he had any sexual interest in me.

Finally I told her about the night I teased him by lying on the couch in my t-shirt, giving him a sexy view of my bare ass after which I went to my bedroom and masturbated, waiting to see if he would take the bait. Long story made short, he did and that night my father fucked me for the very first time.

My mom listened without saying a word the whole time, muttering an "Mmmmmmm" now and then and licking her lips when it got hot. When I finished describing our first time together she couldn't hold back any further and interrupted my narrative.

"Oh my god Kelly! That's so incredible! So tell me, how often does he do you now?"

For whatever reason it was making me extremely horny to realize that my mother was getting so turned on by what she was hearing. While I'd assumed she wouldn't be totally opposed to it, I never would've guessed that she would WANT my dad to fuck me. I really wasn't sure where to go with this. Was she REALLY turned on by this or was she just pumping me for more information? She seemed genuinely interested so I felt I had to take her at her word. We'd never discussed incest in the past, not even as a general topic let alone anything more personal. For some reason she always changed the subject whenever I mentioned it.

Well, I was in too deep to back out now so I decided to go for it... "Well mom, I hope this doesn't upset you, but he fucks me almost every day. There have been a few days when he even did me twice! I guess you could say we do it about any time we're alone together."

Mom just gave me that all-knowing smile again and asked, "Haven't you feel strange, or even a bit guilty, doing it behind my back?"

hadn't planned on telling you until next week so this should be fun! He still thinks you don't know anything about what's really been going on."

With that she left me sitting in my bed, pondering all she had just told me. Somehow I knew that there was more that she hadn't told me. My goodness, how I could I have been so naive and blind all these years?

Then I laid back and started to masturbate…

4. Fucked by My Dad

Later that night my dad and I were in the family room watching TV when mom called down the stairs saying she needed to do some shopping and would be gone for a few hours. It was all I could do to keep a straight face as I realized what her true intentions were. As I'd come to expect, no sooner was she out the door than my dad moved over to the couch, taking a seat next to me. His hand pressed between my legs, seeking out my pussy as he fondled and groped me.

"C'mon baby, don't you want your daddy to fill up that empty little pussy of yours?" he teased me with a naughty grin.

His words made me shiver with anticipation as I looked him in the eye and saw the sexual desire and lust that was there whenever he was horny for me. A big grin came to my face as I licked my lips in anticipation. This time, though, it was not just about the great fucking I knew I was about to get that was making me horny. I was thinking further ahead and wondered how it would happen. In the meantime, it was time to please my father and I knew exactly how to turn him on!

"Mmmmmmm, yes daddy... fuck me!"

Those words never failed to get a rise out of him (literally) although I don't think that this time he needed any help judging from the erection he already was sporting. Without another word, he gathered me up in his arms and carried me off to their bed where he literally dumped me on the bed and then stood back from the edge as he quickly undressed.

Following his lead, I stripped off the loose t-shirt I'd been wearing and scooted over on my side to the edge of the bed where I waited impatiently for him to finish. As his pants and underwear came down I licked my lips in anticipation as his hard cock was freed and stood up and away from his handsome body. It made me tingle as I realized he was that way because of me.

pushed its way inside of me and then started to stroke in and out of me like he was fucking me with it.

"Damn you're wet!" he chuckled, "I take it that somebody horny for her dad to fuck her, am I right?"

Holding onto his cock, I let my mouth slip off just long enough to respond saying, "Oh yeah, anything you want Daddy - anything."

"Move over," he commanded as he pushed me back onto the bed.

My dad got in bed himself and laid on his back, his wet cock glistening in the soft light and standing up straight as a missile ready for lift-off. He motioned for me to get on top and I knew what he wanted. I straddled his chest and leaned back over his crotch, taking his cock back in my mouth once again. I liked to take him in my mouth from this direction as the curvature of his dick helped it to go down my throat more easily.

In the meantime, I lowered my ass over his face where I felt his hand spreading me apart and his tongue started to lick my pussy. I almost jumped off him when it reached my clit - damn it was sensitive! At first he just flicked his tongue over it but then he pressed harder with the flat of his tongue along the length of my pussy slit.

I wanted to scream, it felt so good, but I had my own duties as I sucked his cock relentlessly. When I took it all in my face as pressing down on his crotch, his thick pubic hair covering my face. I loved the smell of his crotch, a mixture of seat and sexual musk. My breasts rubbed against his stomach as I worked on his thick cock. The hair on his body tickled the nipples on my boobs if I rubbed them just right as I slowly rocked back and forth.

Oh my god, I could feel it in me, that insane feeling I always get when my orgasm is almost there but not quite. It's like dangling a carrot before a horse, or a meal before a starving man. I closed my eyes and concentrated on my dad's mouth that was pressed against my crotch. So close... yet not there!

I held my mouth still on his cock as I practically willed myself to cum. Then his tongue hit just the right spot and suddenly it was like my pussy literally exploded in a wave of the purest pleasure a woman can experience. Soon my entire body was shivering like I was naked outside in winter and then just as fast I felt like I was burning up, like someone poured gasoline on me and lit the match.

Yes, I was burning up but it was a fire fueled by lust and pleasure as my dad sensed what was happening to me and his tongue moved even faster over my pussy and clit. I could feel the wetness of my orgasm gushing out of me. The thought of it pouring over his face and into his mouth made me tingle. It was so all intense that I couldn't breathe and so I had to let his dick flop from my mouth as I gasped for air like a fish out of water.

"Don't stop!" I begged him, practically sobbing as I sat on his face, pushing my pussy even tighter against his mouth where his incredible tongue was driving me insane!

"Oh god, I'm cumming so hard," I was finally able to cry out as my voice seemed to be overwhelmed by the need to moan as loudly as I could.

Indeed, I wanted nothing more than to feel the throbbing of my pussy as it sent wave after wave of the most wonderful sensations imaginable through me from my toes to the longest hair on my head. I wanted my dad to hear me, to know how good he was making me feel.

Finally I collapsed on him, my entire weight bearing down on his body as my arms and legs simply failed to support me. As I laid there, my face up against his throbbing cock that looked so big when I was this close to it. As my orgasm began to slowly recede, my aching pussy began to get that feeling it gets when it needs something in it, a need that can only be properly satisfied by a man's cock. In this case I was looking at the cock it wanted - my dad's!

I twisted around until my position on my dad was reversed and I was lying face to face on him. I felt his cock rubbing up against my stomach as I moved upward to kiss him. As our tongues met I could taste my pussy on his mouth and imagined how it must have been when I came all over his face. While we kissed I ground my pussy up and down against his rigid cock, feeling the hardness of it against my clit. Feeling how stiff he was, I could only imagine the desires in him. God, my dad must want to fuck me SO bad right now!

"You want it in you, don't you," my dad said with a smirk on his face. He wanted it just as bad as I did but yet he was making it as if I was the one needed it.

"Mmmmmmm, you know I do daddy!" I whispered hoarsely back to him.

"Beg me to fuck you," he said in a demanding tone, "Tell me what you want me to do to you."

Like most guys, I learned quickly once I started having sex with my dad that he seemed to like it even more when I asked him to do me. It wasn't like he didn't already know. My dad knew full well that he could have me anytime he wanted and do anything he desired, I'd made THAT clear to him from the start.

Once his dick head had pushed its way in, the rest of his hard shaft slid easily in behind it. As his cock moved inside of me, the shaft rubbed against the walls of my pussy like a bow over the strings of a violin only instead of creating beautiful music, it stimulated the sensitive nerve endings resulting in the most incredible feelings of pleasure imaginable. I could never get enough of these sensation; a guy could fuck me all day and I still can't imagine being satisfied completely.

Looking back at my father and realizing that it was HIS cock that I could feel deep inside of me just made it all the more wonderful. From the look on his face and the groans as I lowered myself onto his dick, he was enjoying it just as much!

"Jesus Christ, that feels so good!" he gasped, "You're so fucking tight!"

Suddenly I stopped rocking on his cock and just sat still with his hard cock pulsing and throbbing deep inside of me. He looked at me and asked, "Hey baby, something wrong?"

I squirmed a little bit around his cock before I answered. "Daddy, is it wrong for us to do this behind mom's back?"

"Don't worry Kelly, I've been keeping your mom satisfied. I'm sure she has no idea."

5. Mom Joins In

I couldn't hold back any longer. I started to giggle which was the signal for my mom to enter the room from the hallway where she'd been watching us the whole time! My heart almost burst as I looked at her beautiful body, nude and looked positively gorgeous.

My mom walked slowly over to the bed where I was sitting on top of my dad's stiff cock. Seeing her nude lithe body at the same time I had her husband's hard cock buried in my horny pussy was almost enough to bring me to another orgasm right then and there!

Mom looked at my dad and grinned. "Well John, looks like you're enjoying fucking our daughter. Don't you think it's time for me to get involved?"

My dad had such a look of surprise on his face it was priceless! Of course he knew that she knew about everything so he wasn't embarrassed about the situation and he made no effort to do anything about fucking me in front of his wife. Instead, he seemed to be just surprised by my mom's unexpected appearance more than anything else. Then I remembered that my mom had said they were going to wait another week before letting me know she knew.

My mom grinned at my dad and took his hand as she continued saying, "Sorry to surprise you dear, but I just couldn't any longer!"

My dad looked up at me, his cock still as hard as ever inside of me. Then his expression changed from one of surprise back to the lust that turned me on so much to see. He reached out and grabbed my mom's bare ass, pulling her closer.

"Well honey, if you really want her so bad, then what are you waiting for?"

My mind was racing the entire time they were talking to each other. Somehow I had the feeling my parents had set this whole thing up. How far did their plan go? Was it just this or was everything back to the hot tub scene all some sort of plan on their part? Whatever it was, I guess it didn't really matter. The end results were fine with me and I wondered what my mom would do next.

Well, my mom didn't hesitate to get involved, that's for sure! She quickly jumped in bed and straddled my dad's face, lowering her hairy pussy down to his waiting mouth and facing me as I started to rock on my dad's erect cock buried deep inside of me.

As my dad licked her pussy she kissed me and ran her hands all over my sweating body. I loved the feel of her touching me, especially as she lingered over my boobs, touching my nipples lightly and sending tingles up my spine. She also started to moan softly as my dad's talented tongue worked on her – I knew from my own recent experience just how good he was!

Then I saw my mom looking down at my crotch, staring at her husband's cock in my pussy. I realized that this must be a special time for her, the first time she'd seen her husband's dick inside of her daughter's pussy. As a mother, how did this make her feel? It's not like she had never seen him having sex with another girl but it was one thing to see him fuck her sister, while I was their only daughter.

"Oh Kelly, I've always dreamed of this... I've always wanted to see my daughter's pussy filled with her father's cock deep inside," she whispered in a husky voice. "I can't believe I'm finally seeing it for real."

I smiled at her, "Oh mom, it makes me feel so much better to have you here with us."

"I love you Kelly," she whispered, and then suddenly gasped as my dad must have hit an extra sensitive spot on her pussy, "Oh God John, that's it, right there!"

"He's a good pussy licker, isn't he?" I said with a big grin on my face.

kept the door closed but the walls were thin enough to let me hear most of what was going on. If anything, seeing my mom cumming on my dad's face just revived my orgasm, which had been starting to drop from its peak, and I was cumming hard again!

How my dad kept from letting loose during all this was beyond me. To have his wife and daughter both on top of him, his wife's pussy on his face and his cock nestled in his daughter's pussy must have been incredibly hot for him. I felt so good inside, knowing how good I was making my dad feel. This was what I really wanted more than anything - to please him and do whatever he wanted for him!

My mom's orgasm was waning and she moved off his face and laid on the bed next to my dad. She kept touching herself though and I knew how she must be feeling, wanting to keep her pussy going.

"Fuck her John," she whispered to him, "Show me how you fuck our daughter!"

My dad grinned and reached out for my hips. He lifted me up and I followed his lead and moved off of his cock. His head pulled through my pussy hole and then suddenly my pussy was empty and suddenly I felt like crying at the emptiness. It wasn't to stay that way for long, though, as my dad flipped me over on my back and spread my legs apart. With one last look at his wife, he lowered himself over me and without even using his hands, pushed his cock up against my pussy. It was too high at first and so he let it slide down my pussy slit until it was just in the right place and then he pushed it quickly back inside of me.

I was so wet and already a bit stretched out from having in me just a few seconds before that he easily slid all the way into me. He held himself up and off of me with his arms as his hips swung in and out to drive his dick in and out of my hungry cunt.

"That's it John," my mom called to him as she masturbated while she watched, "fuck her... fuck the little slut."

I think that was the first time my mom had ever called me a slut. My dad, on the other hand, used it all the time and his favorite pet name for me was "my little slut". With my dad, I loved to hear him call me that because it made me feel good for him to treat me sexy. When my mom called me that, though, I realized she meant it - she thought I was really a slut! Cool!

My dad leaned back and lifted my legs up and over his shoulders. He twisted me around enough so my mom had an open view of my ass and his cock as it fucked my pussy. I could tell from the way his cock was swelling even more in me and from his hips thrusting upward faster and faster, driving himself even deeper into me, that dad was really getting turned on and was going to cum at any moment.

"Quick mom! He's going to cum - mouth or pussy?"

It was a rather surreal thing to ask your mother, THAT was for sure, but it made me feel so slutty and sexy to ask her that. My mom thought for just a moment, obviously distracted by her hand on her pussy as she watched us. "Swallow his cum girl. Show me what you can do."

My dad took the hint and after a few more strokes to get himself at the edge he slipped his cock out of me and immediately moved up and kneeled beside my head, holding his took his rigid wet cock just above my mouth. I opened wide and he pushed it into my mouth, letting me taste the wetness and flavor of my pussy all over it!

He pulled it back out and started to stroke his dick, holding it just an inch or so above my waiting mouth. He had never done it this way before but rather would let me suck on him until he came. Then I realized what he was doing - putting on a show for my mom. He must have wanted her to see him spray his cum into my mouth so she could see me actually taking his cum. Now I really felt like a slut, or some whore in one of his porn films! Well, so long as I was my daddy's whore, that was fine with me.

It didn't take much before he tensed up and began to shoot his cum into my mouth. My mom could see that he was cumming and encouraged me.

"That's it Kelly, keep it all in your mouth. Take your daddy's cum for me!"

The first couple of shots hit my mouth on target, covering my tongue with sperm. He must have been having a hard time keeping his aim once he started cumming, though, as the next couple missed and landed on my cheek and chin. After that he let me suck on him as the remaining few loads discharged directly into my mouth.

I looked over at my mom as I kept my lips sealed tight around his jerking cock, feeling the final few loads of his hot cum I my mouth. He kept cumming though and I couldn't believe how much cum he had! Finally he was done and laid there with a big grin on my face and a mouthful of his cum, some of which was now dripping from the corners of my mouth to join that which he had hit my face with.

My mom stopped playing with herself and rolled over to kiss me. When our mouths were joined I spit his cum into her waiting mouth. My dad was totally mesmerized by the sight of his wife and daughter trading his cum between them.

focus and it was like I going blind. I couldn't worry about it, I was too overwhelmed with everything else happening to me. My pussy usually gushes when I cum hard but this time it was like I was releasing a flood.

For a moment I thought I was going to the bathroom but then I saw it was my cum that was all over my mom's face and hair. Just when I thought she was going to have mercy on me, she thrust two fingers up inside of my pussy and I was off to the races again as her mouth gripped my clit between her lips.

How long this went on, I have no idea. I honestly didn't think I could go on any more and I just laid there motionless, my mom's tongue still flickering over my pussy slowly but deliberately. Sensing my total surrender, my mom lifted her head up and moved along side of me, holding me in her arms.

"I love you Kelly," she said softly in my ear.

At that moment, I was sure she did! It took a few minute for my breathing to slow and my entire body felt like I had just finished a complete workout by some sadistic trainer. I could have laid there the rest of the day, just feeling the aftermath of this incredible orgasm. My mom, though, had other ambitions.

"Your turn dear," she said with a grin, "One good orgasm deserves another you know."

God, she wanted me to move? Somehow I managed to get up and as I did, I looked down at my mom. My exhaustion disappeared as I took in her beautiful body. My only hope was that I had inherited the genes that made this woman look like someone at least ten years younger than her. Her large breast weren't as firm as they were when she was a teenager, but they still held their own and her nipples were several times the size of mine. Her stomach was as flat as mine, thanks to endless workouts at the gym, and her legs would have been good enough to be on the Dallas Cowboy Cheerleader squad.

Then there was her pussy. She had never shaved it in her life although she trimmed it as needed for her bikinis. It was dark dense thatch of curly black pubic hair and it looked incredible sexy. I realized then that that was where my face was going to be in just a few moments and my pussy throbbed at the thought of it.

"Show your dad what you can do to your mom," she encouraged me.

Damn! I'd never tasted another girl's pussy and here I was about to take my own mother's cunt in my face! After what she had just done to me, needless to say I was concerned that I wouldn't do it well enough but I would give it my best.

I maneuvered between her legs so my head was between her smooth firm thighs. I looked at her hairy cunt, still glistening from my dad's licking and her playing with it, open and waiting for her daughter to taste. With a deep breath, I lowered my face to her crotch, running my tongue around her. I'd never tasted another pussy other than own and she tasted so sweet with a scent that was strong and musky. Her hair tickled my nose as I licked her clit and pushed my tongue as far into her as I could. My mother loved it and so did I.

"That's it Kelly... lick your mother's cunt... Mmmmmmm, taste my pussy."

I ran my tongue around her clit which was all hard and swollen by now. Then took it in my mouth, tugging softly on it. My mom let out a load moan as her hips raised up to meet me.

"Oh my god!" she moaned, "I love that soooooo much! Look John, see our daughter sucking my clit? Damn she's good!"

Her moans kept increasing and I looked up to see my dad started to play with her boobs, sucking on her nipples one by one. She grabbed his now reviving cock with one hand and pushed my head into her tighter with the other. When she finally came her hips bucked so hard that she almost pushed me off the bed! I could only hope hers was half as intense as mine had been! She gasped and moaned.

"Don't quit, make me cum again! Oh god I want to cum again soooooo badly!"

Following her example, I inserted my fingers into her pussy and sucked on her hard clit until her orgasm caused her to cry out in pleasure. My mouth as feeling a little soar but I didn't want to quit until she was satisfied.

Finally, without a word she pulled me up to her and I laid on one side of her while my dad was on the other, both of us kissing her and fondling her. I pushed up against her until my still sensitive crotch was against her hip while I saw my dad's cock was nice and hard again, laying against her stomach. For a moment I thought about how it would feel to have him back in me again but I wasn't sure how much more I could take at one time.

6. An Incestual Lifestyle

Well, you could say our concept of family night was now a bit different than it had been in the past. Just teasing! Actually, it was only on rare occasions that we were a three-some as I preferred to be with one or the other. As time went on, I had sex with my dad at least 90% of the time as compared to my mom. I guess that is to completely naked with his cock already hard, swollen with his lust for me. After I'd finished, I would usually slip on a t-shirt and head down to the kitchen to see what was for supper.

Today, instead of a meal cooking there on the kitchen table was a note from my mom saying she would be working late and that my dad and I should go out for dinner. Just then I heard the garage door opening and knew my dad was home – OMG he was early!

My heartbeat jumped and I felt a twinge between my legs so I hurried down to the basement and ducked behind the laundry closet. Stripping off my T-shirt, I hid there naked as I waited anxiously for him to come in. My nipples were rock-hard and I licked my lips in anticipation of having something warm and hard between them soon.

The basement door slowly opened and then I heard it shut as my dad come in and headed for the stairs. He walked by the laundry closet without seeing me and so I sneaked up behind him and jumped on his back putting my arms around his neck and my legs around his waist. He knew instantly what was going on and started to laugh at my little surprise for him.

"Whoa! What's with you today Kelly?"

"Oh daddy, I've been dreaming all day about you coming home tonight so I wanted to greet you and let you know how much I missed you!"

I lowered myself down and he turned to look at me. His eyes focused on me, looking at me from head to toe but stopping a bit longer to take in my naked boobs and pussy.

"Damn Kelly, you really are SO fucking hot. Trust me, you have NO idea what a turn-on it is for me to see my little girl naked in front of me, just waiting for her daddy to fuck her."

I reached and grabbed his crotch through his pants. Indeed, he certainly was turned on! His cock was rock hard and ready to burst right out of his pants.

"Well daddy, if you know what I want and you like it too what are you waiting for? C'mon – daddy's little girl wants to be fucked!"

Playfully, I took his hand and pulled him towards the couch in the family room. Of course he didn't resist one bit! When we got there he sat down on the couch and I laid on my side next to him. I immediately went to work on his belt buckle and then his pants. After I unsnapped his pants and lowered the zipper, I reached in and slid my hand down under the elastic band of his Jockey underwear.

At that point I had him all in and my face was pressed against his crotch as his pubic hair tickled my cheeks and nose. After a day's work he had a strong musky odor of sweat and sex that I loved. Some girls I know won't go near a man until he's had a shower and such. Well, not this girl– I want to smell a REAL man, not some smelly bar of soap. Mmmmmmm, I love the musky odor of a sweaty male crotch. Granted I expect him to be clean, but after a day of work nothing smells as sexy as hairy crotch.

I've also learned that hairy men smell stronger than those who shave. Sometimes I just reach inside of a man's pants and run my hand through his hair and then pull my hand out and draw in the odor of him on my fingers. My mom has similar tastes as me and she always loved it when I would come home from a date and she could still smell the guy that had fucked me on my hands. Yet I wanted far more than just giving my dad a blowjob though. After all, I hadn't dreamed all day of him fucking me for nothing! I let his cock fall from my mouth and looked up at my dad.

"Fuck me now daddy," I whispered to him. "I want it soooooo bad... please fuck me."

"Oh god Kelly, I love it when you say that. Tell me again what you want... Tell daddy what you want him to do to you."

"Mmmmmmm, I want your warm hard cock inside of me daddy, deep inside my pussy. I want to feel my father cumming in me, filling my hungry pussy with his love... Oh daddy, please fuck me... please fuck me daddy... show me how much you love me."

My dad took in a deep breath and let it out. He took me and maneuvered me on top of him, straddling his bare legs. I could feel his cock pushing up against my pussy, straining to get in, wanting to be in me.

"Yes Kelly, daddy's going to fuck you... oh yeah, daddy's going to fuck his little slut right now!"

With that he raised his hips up to me and pulled me down towards him. My wet pussy easily spread apart for him and I could feel the head of his cock splitting me open, making way for the rest of him. I swiveled my hips slightly to make his cock move against the walls of my pussy, stimulating the sensitive nerve endings just inside my pussy opening which made me tingle from head to toe.

well. From the sounds of it, "taken" was the correct term as well. In my case, I like to say that I "gave" my virginity to Steve because it was a willing act that I pursued as much as he did. When you're only twelve and ten, as my mom and her sister were when my grandfather first had sex with them, it's hard to say it was consensual, at least not at first.

Another interested fact I learned regarded my father. Even though I knew my dad had dated both sisters in high school had fucked them both, it was still a little bit of a shock to learn that they'd never stopped, even when both sisters were married. Well, at least now I had a better understanding as to why my aunt's marriage had ended in a divorce so early on! It also explained some of the unexplained "drop-in" visits by my aunt - and why she always seemed to need my dad's personal help with her real estate contracts when her firm had plenty of its own lawyers.

Perhaps the most erotic thing for me to learn, though, was that my mom and aunt had been playing with each other practically from the time they started masturbating! It made me think of my cousin Kristen and me, and how we had been doing it for years since out first time in a barn loft. Still, Kristen and I had never actually touched each other in a sexual way except maybe for a quick tease or to flirt with a guy.

My Aunt Linda looks great and I'd always suspected much of her success in selling homes had less to do with marketing and more to do with her "personal touch". Imagining her and my mom together was enough to make me wet instantly and I couldn't help but wonder how it would be to be with them both together.

Actually, a few days before I'd learned a LOT more about Aunt Linda than my mom knew about. Soon after I started sex with my parents my aunt approached me. Evidently my mom had trotted off to her right away to give her the news about me and Linda wanted in on the action. I figured what the heck and went along. It was fun but I still hadn't told my mom about it and every day that went by just made it all the harder.

The guilt in me was piling up as normally I never kept any secrets from my mom. I knew somehow or another I had to tell my mom soon but the right moment just hadn't seemed to have presented itself. It wasn't like I was afraid that she would be upset that my Aunt Linda and I had sex, just that she wasn't involved!

One morning, after my dad had left for work, my mom and I were spending some quality "mother-daughter time" in her bed together. Naturally our discussion soon led to the events of the past few weeks. My mom had always been my best friend and confidante so at times like this, when my whole world seemed to be turning upside down, it was nice to be able to have someone like her to turn to. Even though I felt good about what I had been doing, it was still hard for me to bring up the subject so my mom finally broke the ice.

"So Kelly, now that you've been doing it for a few weeks, I'm curious about something. How you feel about having sex with your mom and dad?"

My eyes averted from hers briefly. Sure, I had expected her to bring it up for discussion, but not in such direct terms and certainly not right off the bat. As always, my mom read my face like a book.

"It's OK honey," she assured me, "You've always known you can tell me anything so don't be afraid to tell the truth. When I was your age and my dad was doing me, we had my mother's approval but she never joined in which made things rather awkward at times. I just was wondering how it feels having sex with BOTH of your parents?"

Yep, talk about getting right to the point! Well, that was my mom for you. I sighed softly and then recovered my composure and smiled at her.

"Oh mom, I don't even know what to say," I stalled, trying to think of how to express the feelings that had been unleashed in me the past few weeks.

How do you describe such a thing? It was like trying to explain the color red to a blind man. The only thing I had going for me was my mom DID know what it was like to be fucked by her father so it wasn't a totally new concept for her to comprehend.

By now I had been fucked by quite a few boys and sucked so many dicks it was hard to keep track of them all. Actually, that was what led me to start keeping a diary! This was different though, not just another notch on my so-capped chastity belt. No, this wasn't just yet another guy with a horny cock fucking me for our mutual pleasure - it was my dad!

As for sex with my mom, like most of my girls I knew I sometimes masturbated with my friends at sleepovers and such but I never actually had sex WITH a girl so it was definitely a new experience for me. Of course, when your first lesbian sex experience is with your mom, that makes it a bit more complicated, to say the least. My mom waited patiently for me to continue.

"Well, I think you know how much I enjoy sex," I started out as my mom smiled at what was probably my understatement of the year, "But when I felt dad inside of

We both giggled at that but it was true. Maybe it was because he was older and more experienced than the boys I'd been getting drilled by lately. Maybe it was just the emotional high I was riding whenever he fucked me. All that mattered was that my father really knew how to make a girl feel good. More than a few guys I knew from school could use some lessons from him!

"Well, it's true!" I giggled even more as we kissed again briefly, "I mean, dad just seems to know just how to do me to make me cum so hard it's almost unbelievable!"

My mom grinned and smiled at me, nodding her head in agreement, "Yeah, the horny bastard's always been pretty good in that department."

I looked back her and grinned when another question came to mind.

"How does it make you feel though, mom?" I asked softly, "I mean, what do you think when you see your husband fucking your own daughter right in front of you? Doesn't it bother you at all?"

My mom's eyes seemed to sparkle as she answered with a sly grin, "Nahhhhh, quite the opposite in fact. You have no idea how hot it is to see his cock buried in you. I mean, I got so freakin' wet the first time I saw him fuck you!! Did I tell you that when I realized he was actually cumming inside of you, well it was almost enough to make me climax right then and there!"

She paused for a moment and then grinned mischievously at me. "You know, as much as he and I talked and dreamed about him fucking you over the years, I'd always wondered if he would actually go that far. Face it, it's one thing to fuck your own daughter but god, to actually cum in her... now THAT is something entirely different, protected or not."

2. Sex With Mom

As she spoke I felt her hand reaching down between my smooth legs and I automatically spread them apart just enough to give her better access to my crotch. Even though I knew it was coming, I still couldn't help but jump just a little as her fingers began to explore my hot pussy, running up and down my wet pussy slit and over my sensitive clit. Even so, I didn't say a word as she continued.

"As much as I love seeing him enjoying you, don't forget that he's not the only one getting a rush from licking a teenage pussy. After all, it's been a long time since my sister was your age," she said softly in my ear as I jumped again when her finger could watch as she looked up at me briefly and smiled sweetly. Then she lowered her face to my pussy and her tongue slipped over my clit and I wanted to scream out as my hips reacted by thrusting upward against her face.

The next few minutes, I really have no idea how long it lasted, were incredible as her tongue and lips worked their way around my pussy. It was as if she could read my mind and knew exactly what I wanted at every moment - when to go fast, when to go slow, when to lick hard on me and when to just tease me.

"Oh my god mom," I moaned even louder this time, "Don't stop... make me cum mom. Oh fuck, PLEASE make me cum."

She didn't say anything, nor did I really want her to. All I wanted was for her to keep licking and kissing my pussy the way she was, never stopping, never pausing. As much as I loved to masturbate, it was nothing compared to what my mom was doing to me now and definitely another level over what any man had even dreamed of making me feel.

"Oh yeah, that's it!" I gasped.

My hands pressed her head tight against my pussy as my orgasm struck like a hurricane making landfall. Every pore of my body seemed to explode as it was like I was on fire but with the heat of pleasure, not pain.

"OH MY GOD!" I cried out, lifting my hips up against her, trying to ram her face even tighter into my exploding pussy as I felt myself gushing pussy cum, almost like I was peeing.

I tried to open my eyes, to watch my mom as she drove me even higher, but it was impossible as my vision narrowed and it was like I was about to pass out. It got to the point where I couldn't even respond and I just collapsed on the bed, my arms and hands limp at my sides as I just let the waves of my orgasmic pleasure roll over me, washing over me.

It seemed like my orgasm was never going to end and frankly, I didn't want it to, but all good things eventually do and unfortunately this time was no different. I was gasping for air as I tried to catch my breath and finally I was able to focus on the wonderful person between my legs, my incredible, amazing mother.

"Oh mom...," was all I could get out. There was so much I wanted to say to her, so much I wanted to tell her but my voice failed me.

My mom lifted her head from my cunt and slipped her wet fingers from my pussy. I didn't move a muscle, not sure they would respond even if I tried. My mom moved back along side of me and cuddled up close. Her face was over me and I could smell my sex on her wet cheeks. As we kissed I could taste myself on her mouth and tongue - god it was so hot to taste my own pussy on my mother's mouth! We laid together like that for a while as we both slowly calmed down once again.

"Oh mom...," I started again but she put her finger on my lips to shush me.

"Don't say a word dear," she murmured softly, "I know."

3. More Secrets Revealed

We kissed again and all I could think was what a fantastic mom she was. As I settled down I found that I was still curious about a few things so I asked, "I want to know more about how Grandpa fucked you and Aunt Linda. What did Grandma REALLY say about him doing the two of you?"

My mom smiled and her face flushed slightly - just the memory seemed to be enough to get her hot again. "Well, I'm sorry now about it but your Grandpa was doing me for over a month before she found out."

My eyes widened as this was news to me. I had assumed that my grandmother would have known from day one about what her husband was doing with her daughters but apparently that wasn't the case. Wow!

My mom saw my expression and sighed, "Needless to say, things were a little tense at first."

Well duh, I guess they would have been! I waited for her to continue, wanting to know how things had been worked out.

"Fortunately, once your grandmother realized how much it meant to me, plus the fact that he wasn't forcing me to do anything, she eventually accepted it. I would have to say, though, that I don't think she ever completely approved of it. That's probably why she never had sex with me nor would she ever watch my dad when he fucked me.

"How did that make you feel?" I asked.

"Well, of course I wished she would have joined us. I never felt completely right about having to do it out of her sight. I didn't feel it was wrong yet when she would look at us as she left the room I sometimes wondered."

My mom perked up and hugged me tightly then. "That's why I wanted it to be different between you and me. I've always wanted for us to be able to share your dad and be together as a family - in every way."

I did indeed remember that night; it was the first time in my life I had touched a male penis. It was also the LAST time for another six years until I held my boyfriend's for the first time. What was important to me, though, was that I now had even more respect than ever for my dad. God, what willpower he must have had to wait so long before he finally fucked me! All those times I use to sit on his lap, sometimes with panties and other times without. It must have killed him not to fondle me. Yes indeed, now THAT is what I call willpower.

My mom continued...

"The major difference between my relationship with my father back then and yours with your dad today is that in your case, I've known about everything from the beginning and not only did I approve of it, I'm involved as well."

A thought came to mind and I grinned mischievously.

"I think dad's going to be wanting it a LOT!"

I meant just to tease her so I was a little surprised when my mom solemnly nodded in agreement.

"Well Kelly, to be honest I know all too well that your dad will be fucking you a lot. After all, he may be your father but he's still a man. In case you haven't noticed girl, he loves fucking a tight teenage pussy and if you let him, I think he'll screw you every day! My only hope is that that our times together will be less about the sex and more intimate, the way a mother-daughter relationship should be. I never had that with my mother."

I was flooded with even more questions at this point and was trying to figure out what to ask first. There was one thing though that was most in my mind that I had to find out about. "Tell me more about Aunt Linda."

"Mmmmmmm, your Aunt Linda.." The way her eyes got this gleam in them and how she said it made it seem like she was thinking about her favorite dessert rather than her younger sister.

"First, remember that Linda and I have been 'close' since we were barely teenagers - well, she was ALMOST a teenager I guess.

Being the older one I was the first to have oral sex with a boy. Needless to say she wanted to know all about it and it wasn't long before she as doing it as well, two years younger than me mind you! I guess the advantage of being the younger one is you get to do things at an earlier age."

"But what about dad?" I asked, "How did you two deal with him?"

between my legs. There was another question that was still weighing heavily on my mind though.

"Ok, now I understand better why she and Kristen are over here all the time. But what about Kristen? Does she know anything about all of this? Does she know her mom is fucking her aunt and uncle?"

My mom shook her head slowly and looked sort of sad actually. "No, Kristen is just like you were a few weeks ago. For now we've all agreed that she experience sex on her own and develop her own morals and opinions without us forcing anything on her. Maybe someday but since she's not our daughter we need to be especially cautious with her. Besides, the two of you seem to be getting along just fine." Mom gave me a sly smile with that last zinger!

I looked at her and wrinkled my nose a bit. I hadn't known that she had any idea of how Kristen and I had been playing around together. It wasn't like we were having sex as we'd never touched each other but both of us loved watching the other masturbate. My cousin was cute as hell and seeing her getting herself off was an incredibly erotic sight to behold!

"Oh don't play innocent with me you little slut! I know all about your "special" times with her. I don't blame you, she must look really hot fingering that little pussy of hers."

I blushed a bit at this. After telling me all of this I was curious as to what my aunt knew about what had been happening recently between me and my parents. I asked my mom and she smiled.

"I don't keep any secrets from my sister so she knows everything. In fact, I couldn't wait to tell her!"

That made it interesting as even though she'd told my aunt about me having sex with her, my aunt had not told her sister about what she was doing with her niece! I knew that somehow I was going to have to spill the beans but so far, the opportunity just hadn't presented itself.

My mom reached over and kissed me on the mouth, lingering for a few moments which let me feel the fullness of her lips against mine. I could still smell my sex on her and I wondered what my dad would say when he came home and kissed her. Would she still smell of me? Would he notice?

4. Aunt Linda Joins Me and My Mom

A few days after this conversation, my aunt stopped by while my dad was at work so it was just me and mom at home. I was up in my room chatting on my computer when my aunt came in and stood behind me. She didn't say anything and instead started to run her fingers through my hair. I loved the feeling I got inside when somebody did that and I leaned my head back with my eyes closed to enjoy it. As I relaxed my aunt finally started talking to me.

"You know Kelly, your mom told me that you know all about us now. God, I wanted so bad to tell her about the other day!"

I giggled at that and replied, "I know, I felt the same way. What are we going to do?"

My aunt took my hand and motioned for me to get up.

"Well, I think your mom has her own ideas about that which should work out for all of us."

I looked at her with a questioning gaze, unsure of what she was trying to say. Needless to say I was certainly interested in what was being planned so I just nodded. Keeping hold of my hand, she led me into my parents' bedroom where I was surprised to see my mom lying on her side on top of the covers. She was totally nude and looked incredibly sensual. My aunt turned and faced me.

"I think you know what this is all about, don't you?" she asked with a big grin.

I most certainly did! What I didn't know was how they wanted to do it so I stood there and waited for her instructions.

"Here Kelly, sit at the end of the bed and watch us."

I did as I was told as my aunt sat next to my mom and they started kissing like two teenagers in the backseat of their parent's car. First it was just a short kiss on the lips and then they met again, this time their mouths open and tongues exploring each other. God they looked so hot! It was hard to believe that they'd been doing this since they were barely teens! Then again, seeing them together maybe it wasn't really so hard.

My mom began to fondle my aunt's breasts through her shirt. Both of them had spectacular breasts, especially considering that my mom's were a 38D at the time with my aunts being smaller but perkier. My aunt arched her back to bring her breasts forward for my mom to fondle. Then my aunt unbuttoned and removed her shirt, all the while maintaining her lip lock with my mom. They hugged and their naked breasts touched and their nipples looked hard as ever as they rubbed against each other.

Eventually they split apart just long enough to strip off the rest of my aunt's clothes after which they lay back again on the bed, totally naked in each other's arms.

My mom looked over at me and winked when she saw me watching. Then she turned her attention back to my aunt. She positioned Linda on her back and began to kiss her all over, starting with her face and neck. She reached her breasts and sucked her nipples, pulling on the gently with her teeth. Aunt Linda moaned softly - obviously she loved her nipples played with that way.

Slowly my mom worked her way down my aunt's tummy. She kept herself in great shape and her stomach was tanned and flat. Finally my mom reached her crotch area but moved around it over to her hips and then worked her way down my aunt's legs. Eventually she worked her way back up, this time kissing and licking the inside of Aunt Linda's thighs. She spread her legs to make it easier for my mother as she approached her crotch again. This time mom didn't bypass anything.

My aunt's pussy hair was trimmed but still quite hairy. It was so damn hot seeing my aunt's curly black pussy hair covering my mom's face as she worked her way to Aunt Linda's pussy lips! I realized then as I watched that this was the first time I had ever seen my mom tasting a pussy other than my own. From the moans coming from my aunt she was obviously going a great job. How well I could relate to that!

"That's it Mary, lick my cunt. Show your daughter how good her mother eats pussy."

Well, I knew from my own experience just how good my mom was but it was nice to see her doing someone else just as well. My mom had her face buried between my aunt's thighs while Linda had her hands on my mom's head, pulling her tighter against her pussy.

"Oh my god Mary, nobody licks my pussy like you do. God I am cumming, lick me you bitch!"

My aunt's hips raised up off the bed and then back down again as her back arched. She cried out as her orgasm consumed her, rippling through her body like waves of pleasure. She bucked her pussy up against my mother's face as if she was trying to drive a cock deeper into her. My mother just grabbed her ass and pulled her into her face, licking her and driving her tongue into her. Finally my aunt just laid back and let her legs drop. My mom lifted her face, which was soaked with pussy juices and turned to me.

"OK Kelly, let's see if you can make her cum again."

I was horny as hell by now and had been hoping that I would be asked just this very thing. I licked my lips subconsciously as I stared at my aunt's soaking wet pussy, her legs spread wide apart and her wet, glistening pussy lips open and waiting for me. Her pussy hair was soaked and matted down tight to her crotch. Damn I wanted her!!

Grinning at my mom demands, I moved over to where she was getting out of my way. Kneeling between my aunt's sexy long legs, I ran my hands up and down each of her thighs. They were so soft and smooth and she moaned softly as I ran the tips of my fingers over them. Aunt Linda was looking down to her crotch, watching my every move and then she reached her arms out to me.

"It's alright Kelly. I want to see my cute little niece sucking my clit and licking my pussy. Do it Kelly, lick my pussy the way you lick your mom's."

I put my hands on the bed on each side of her hips. I was on my knees so I just had to lower my head to her crotch. Damn she smelled so nice! Other than my own, the only pussy I had been this close to was my mother's and I was beginning to realize that I would love the smell of any woman's pussy - something I would think about more when I was lying in bed.

I gingerly stuck out my tongue and ran it up between her pussy lips. The taste of her was even better than her scent! I reached her clit and circled my tongue around it. It was already hard from the efforts of my mother and she jumped into my face when I touched it with the tip of my tongue.

In the meantime, my mother was right next to us, watching and enjoying everything.

"Well... what do you think Linda?" she teased, "Is my daughter a natural pussy licker or what?"

Aunt Linda laughed just a bit. "Well Mary, you were definitely not exaggerating when you told me how good she was at this, especially for someone who licked her first pussy just a couple of weeks ago! Damn, she's incredible!! Only natural. I guess, as she's your daughter."

It made me really hot to listen to my mother and aunt comparing how I licked their pussies. They were right about one thing though - I loved licking pussy and it felt so natural for me to do it. My aunt was pulling my face into her again as she began to reach another orgasm.

"Oh damn Kelly, that's it; oh just keep doing that and don't stop for an instant! She cried. Then she looked over at my mom and gasped, "She's about got me there Mary, your daughter's tongue is going to make me cum soooooo hard. Oh fuck! This feels so fucking good I can't hardly stand it!!"

My tongue was as far into her pussy as I could push it when she suddenly came. Her pussy juices flooded my face as she cried out and pulled my hair while her entire body tensed and she bucked under my mouth. It seemed she would never stop as her orgasm just went on and on, with my mouth locked on her pussy the whole time.

When Aunt Linda finally calmed down she pulled me up to her face and we kissed. My face was wet from her pussy as I felt her tongue run over mine and inside my mouth. As I laid on top of her my mother came over and lay next to us, running her hands over the both of us. Aunt Linda and I were still kissing each other like two lovers meeting for the first time after being apart, a kiss filled not only with passion but with lust as well.

My mom poked my aunt to get her attention and she broke our kiss to see what her sister wanted.

"Why don't you sit on her face while I take care of her pussy?" my mom offered.

Her tone was as matter-of-fact as if she as inviting my aunt for tea and telling her where to sit. Only in this case, she was telling her to sit on her daughter's face! So far, not even my mom had done THAT!

"Sure!" my aunt agreed and she quickly sat up and straddled my chest.

I could feel the wetness of her pussy against my chest as she rotated her hips slowly, rubbing her crotch against me. Her wet pussy was only inches in front of me and I could smell the strong scent of her sex. I held her ass in my hands and marveled at how firm she was, even at twice my age!

Of course I couldn't see what was going on lower with my aunt all but sitting on my chest but I could feel my mom positioning herself between my legs. She lifted my knees up until my feet were planted on the bed and then pushed my knees apart so far as to almost hurt.

In the meantime, my aunt wiggled her way forward until her pussy was within reach of my outstretched tongue. She leaned forward and grabbed onto the headboard and lifted herself up slightly on her knees such that her pussy was right over my face.

I'd never had a pussy on top of me this way before although a few guys liked to be on top when we 69'd. Personally, I prefer to be on top so that is where I am 99% of the time with a guy.

In this case, I didn't mind someone being on top of me as all I had to do was lay my head back on the pillow and my aunt dropped her cunt down to me for me to lick.

I could taste her pussy cum from the orgasms my mom and I had induced in her and I noted she seemed stronger than my mom for some reason. I guess pussies were like cocks - each had its own taste and smell. Actually, the stronger odor seemed more erotic. It wasn't dirty or bad, just more potent.

As I held my aunt's ass I her hands and tasted her hairy pussy, I could feel my mom doing her magic on my own pussy. It was so hard to concentrate as both women competed for my attention.

"That's it Kelly," my aunt said hoarsely, "lick my pussy. Let me grind it in your face!"

True to her word, that's exactly what she was doing as her hips rotated in a slow circular motion and she pushed her pussy down harder on my face, forcing my nose up against her clit while my tongue worked its way inside of her as best I could reach.

My mom suddenly stopped licking me and I could feel the bed moving as she got off and then the sound of her dresser drawer opening. What was she up to? Apparently, the same thought was running through her sister's mind.

"What are you up to now Mary?" she asked.

I couldn't see what was going on but then my aunt started to giggle. My eyes looked upwards and I saw her looking down at me with a nasty grin on her face.

"Looks like you're gonna get it now girl!" she exclaimed and I wondered again what was going on but all I could see was my aunt's crotch. Suddenly I felt this pressure against my pussy and it was like I was being fucked but there was only one problem - neither of the two people in the room with me had a dick! Well, apparently there were other options available!

"Say hello to my friend," my mom snickered as the pressure increased against my pussy.

God, it was like a huge cock was trying to stick itself in me! I felt it press harder and then it pooped through, forcing my cunt open as my pussy surrendered to the violation. What the hell was going on?

Then, as I felt it moving further inside of me, I realized what was happening. My mom was fucking me with one of her dildos! She had quite a collection and although she had offered them to me since I first started masturbating, I never really took to them very much, preferring the real thing or my fingers.

I felt the bed bounce and then my mom's legs were scissored with mine and I felt the dildo in me moving about as something else was going on. I looked up at my Aunt with another questioning look. She looked over her shoulder at whatever my mom was doing and grinned.

"Ahhhhhh, I take it your mom never introduced you to our favorite toy?" she teased me, "Here, take a look."

She lifted up off my face enough for me to look under her ass and down my body to where I saw a sight I had never seen before. My mom was facing me with her legs crisscrossed with mine such that her pussy was up against mine. We'd been in this position before where we rubbed pussies but there was something very different this time.

This time there was a dildo between us - in BOTH of us. What I mean is, we both had the SAME dildo in us! I had never seen this toy in her box, it must have been one she saved for special occasions - apparently when she was with her sister at least. It was wild, almost like she was fucking me except this was no strap-on. Indeed, with it being in her we could each feel every movement the other one was making so it was as if we were fucking each other!

My aunt dropped back down again so I could go back to eating her out.

"So, how's that feel Kelly?" she asked, "I LOVE it!"

She may have asked me a question but she didn't lift herself off enough for me to say anything so I just blinked and nodded to her. I didn't know exactly how to feel.

On the one hand I was enjoying the taste of my aunt's pussy but at the other end, literally, I was being fucked by my mother - and I was fucking her! The combination as almost overwhelming and I soon was on the cusp of my orgasm as my mom pumped her end of the dildo in and out of me as if she as my father rather than my mother.

"Fuck me mom!" I was screaming in my thoughts, unable to express my desires as my aunt pursed her pussy down even tighter to my face as she prepared to cum only thing I envy about them is they get to wear skirts in school that would get me tossed out if I dared to wear anything like them.

I may have a 4.0 average but Mathletes? Please, give me a break.

I could go on but you get the picture. Now if they formed an Experimental Sex Club or School Slut Club, not only would I be a founding member but more than likely president!

Sue I might miss out on certain social events but being outside of these sort of things does have benefits a well. Perhaps one of the biggest is being able to avoid the relentless pressure to raise funds. It seems you can't walk down the hall without being tripped up by someone selling something. It's become totally ridiculous!

Outside of school activities we live in town so 4H or Grange wasn't really ever an option. I've never even been a Brownie or a Girl Scout. No particular reason, just never got into that scene as none of my friends did. As a result - no cookie sales! Now change that to nookie sales and I bet that I'd be the top salesgirl.

While it may seem a narcissist, I have to admit that my primary activity in school is boys - or more what boys could do for me given the right "motivation". It's funny how when a boy does nothing but chase girls he gets congratulated and encouraged yet when a girl does the same thing she's called a nymphomaniac. Think about it, has anyone EVER called a boy that?

Even as self-absorbed as I may have been in school, I still couldn't totally avoid the fund raising scene. So what area was my pitfall? Actually it wasn't really school but close enough - church!

My parents are quite religious... well, my mom more so than my dad although he fakes it pretty well - at least well enough to be asked to be a Deacon at least. Given the significance church and religion plays in our family life I guess it was only natural that it rub off on me. I've always been very active in church. As a Born-Again Christian since summer camp a couple of summers ago, I take my faith VERY seriously and almost never miss a Sunday School or church session or a Wednesday Youth Night. I read my Bible every day and do my best to use the gifts I've been given in a manner pleasing to God.

Like almost every club or group these days, money is always an issue for our church groups. The only problem is that most of the common and well-received fund raisers have already been "taken" by others. The Girl Scouts did cookies, the football team sold fruit, the band had the candy franchise, the Boy Scouts the soda monopoly at the local fair, and so forth. We weren't nearly as organized as the militaristic band so who was going to organize us and what would we sell?

Every year it seemed the parents went through the annual budget ordeal. Each year someone came up with some new wacky idea and each year we ended up doing the same thing... car washes. Inevitably it fell on a rainy day and it always seemed like a lot of work for not a lot of money. Still, what other option was there?

The only good thing about the car washes has been the past couple of summers when I finally earned a spot on the street. LOL, what I actually mean is I grew into the spot. Now I get to be one of those girls you stare out wearing a bikini or shorts waving at the people driving by to draw them in. For me it was an honor to be finally chosen when I was only fourteen, especially given I didn't exactly have the biggest pair of boobs in my class. Much to my chagrin I was still a virgin. Steve wouldn't fuck me for another month although I had no idea about THAT at the time but I certainly knew how to flirt which was the primary skill required for the job.

My first summer I wore my skimpiest bikini bottoms and then on top I chose a bikini top but wore a cutoff T-shirt that just came down over my boobs. I wasn't all that anxious for anyone to see how little my boobs were and the extra cover actually served as an optical illusion by hiding them which somehow made them seem bigger. The only problem was the youth pastor made me go home and change into a bikini bottom that was more a bikini and less a thong. Party pooper! My mom was pretty pissed off as she had bought them new for me just for the car wash.

Last year I was once again on the street, jumping and waving at the guys driving by. Once again I had to face the wrath of our youth pastor who said my outfit was obscene and not suitable for a church function. I was a little pissed off as it was one of my favorite bikinis and I knew it would help to attract more customers and we got into a bit of an argument before my mother stepped in and told me to change quickly.

Working the street for a carwash must be a lot like a hooker working the street in that you learn pretty quick not to waste your time on vans and soccer moms. Face it, the only reason half the people stop is because they're related to someone in the group. As for the rest, in general it's a never-ending line of perverts hoping to see the sexy teenage girls up close in wet T-shirts. Let's be honest - we weren't out there to draw in our relatives!

This year my parents got roped into the committee planning the annual carwash. I can't say either of them were too thrilled about the idea but my dad was a wasn't wearing anything. That really pleased me as I loved to show off my butt to my dad because he always had something nice to say about it.

The top of the cheerleader outfit was cut so short it barely covered my boobs when I was standing still and the slightest movement would cause it to ride up and show off the underside of my perky boobs. With no bra or lining, my nipples pressed though it like it was Saran Wrap. Of course it had come complete with pom-poms although I had no idea where those had disappeared off to over the past year.

One thing I hadn't thought about - it was a year old and even back then it had been a size too small. I struggled to get it back on again. Apparently in the past year I'd grown a little bit although I like to think of it in a positive way. My boobs were at least a full cup size bigger and my ass, always my best "asset" was even fuller than before. All this and not to mention I'd grown another inch or more taller.

Pulling my hair back into a pony tail, I chose a pair sneakers which is what a "real" cheerleader would wear. Little while anklet socks, a gold ankle chain, and a touchup to my makeup and I was ready.

"Looks like you've outgrown that outfit," my mom chuckled when I presented myself for her inspection, "Heck it was too small on you last year! How did you even get it on?"

"So what do you think mom? Good for a daddy pick-me-up?" I asked, fishing for compliments.

"Well, it will certainly get something up," she laughed and then turned more serious adding, "I'm sure he'll appreciate it."

3. Making My Dad Feel Better

"Hey dad, how about this outfit for the girls working the street this year?" I asked the moment I opened the door to his study and walked in.

My dad was behind his desk looking at something on his computer, probably porn if I knew him at all. Whatever it was he seemed to be quite enamored with it but then he looked up at me and smiled.

"Whoa! Now THAT would draw in customers for sure," he laughed, "As well as the local police for indecent exposure, child molesting, and you name it."

My father, ever the lawyer.

"Daddy! Are you saying I'm a child?" I pouted as I twirled to raise the skirt and expose my bottom to him.

4. The Car Wash

The Saturday of the carwash was here and looking out the window my dad cursed as the rainclouds passed, leaving the ground soaking wet in its path.

"So much for THAT forecast," he grumbled, "Partly cloudy my ass. This is ALL cloudy."

"Don't worry honey, it's early. Maybe it will clear up by this afternoon," my mom tried to console him.

I just stayed at the kitchen table eating breakfast. This seemed to be one of those discussions I was better off avoiding.

My dad just muttered under his breath and took his usual seat at the head of the table. He was just wearing a baggy pair of boxer shorts, typical wear for breakfast, at least in the summer.

Meanwhile my mom took a seat next to me in her standard morning wear - a bra and panties. Why she put on a bra in the morning for breakfast was beyond me. Sometimes she might wear a slip or cami or even a T-shirt in which case she MIGHT leave off the bra but that was a rare case. One thing was certain - she wouldn't be caught dead running around without her panties!

Actually it's sort of interesting how much that varies between families and even women within families. I mean in terms of what they wear around the house when nobody else is around but family. I just described my mom but then when you look at her sister, my Aunt Linda is practically a nudist who never wears much of anything at her house - or ours for that matter. The odd thing is she's not a nudist, at least not away from the house, and has never practiced that sort of lifestyle with anyone outside our family.

Seeing how two sisters could be so different, it shouldn't be much of a surprise that their daughters would share different perspectives as well. I was always "miss bottomless" as my dad would call me growing up. I hated to be without something over me on top, even if it was the slightest of shirts or a bikini top (no bras). At the same time I simply love the feel of being bottomless. In contrast, my cousin Kristen (my Aunt Linda's daughter) was a topless girl - when she wasn't nude like her mom. A pair of panties, a thong, boy shorts, anything worked so long as she was free from the waist up.

So anyway...

"If you're going to wear something that short you really should put a towel down when you're at the table Kelly," my mom fussed, just as she always did when my bare butt was on the kitchen chairs. It was a never-ending battle between us and nowadays I think she said it more out of habit than any hope of me listening.

"So, everything ready?" my mom asked my dad.

My dad nodded as he ate his cereal. He swallowed and answered, "As much as can be. Now we just need the weather to cooperate."

"So what are you planning on wearing this year Kelly?" my mom turned her attention to me, "I hope we can avoid the scene from last year. That was a little embarrassing."

"Mom! That was SOOOOO stupid. There wasn't anything wrong with my bikini, everything was covered," I protested.

"Not by much," my dad muttered into the next spoonful of cereal.

I just gave him one of my patented putting looks and finished my breakfast. As I headed upstairs my mom grabbed me by the hand and issued me my orders.

"Like I said, let's not push it this year, OK?"

I huffed and sagged my shoulders. "Mommmmmm!"

She looked at my dad who just shrugged. He was being smart and staying out of this one.

"Well, not TOO far then, OK?" she compromised.

I leaned over and kissed her cheek and waved to my dad as I wiggled my bare butt at him and headed for my bedroom.

Actually I'd been thinking about my outfit all week and it had been the subject of an ongoing debate with myself. Sure a bikini can be hot but too many people are overly opinionate about them. Just because it doesn't cover your ass doesn't make it obscene, no matter what my pastor might say. Still, it was a losing argument as each of the past two years attested.

Instead I chose a different approach. Besides, bikini girls are so cliche. OK, so I chose another cliche but at least it was different - the naughty farm girl. It wasn't like I didn't have plenty of high cut, low-riding denim shorts to choose from. Heck, I had an entire drawer of them!

On top instead of a simple T-shirt or bikini top I selected an old cotton cowgirl shirt I dug up at a Goodwill store. First I cut the sleeves off at the shoulder, then when I put it on I use the tails to make a knot under my cleavage while leaving all the

A few hours later we were at the Wendy's where the wash line was set up. Thankfully the sky had cleared and if anything, now my dad was thankful for the rain, hoping it had messed up everyone's clean cars so now they needed washing.

The usual group of girls grabbed the signs and headed for the curb to start drawing in customers. They seemed surprised at first that I wasn't joining them but then just shrugged it off and went running down, giggling and laughing all the way. For a moment, seeing how happy they were and knowing what they'd be doing, I wondered if I'd made the right choice.

"Come here Kelly, let me show you what to do," my dad called out to me.

Most of the washers were guys and most of them had experience from past years so they had everything set up and ready to go. It pleased me to no end to see them staring at me as my dad led me to the side. I'd sucked maybe half of them while a couple of lucky ones had fucked me in the past. Judging from how they stared at my ass I was pretty sure most of them would if I gave them the chance.

My dad gave me a bucket of soapy water and a sponge and then instructed as to my "duties". In a nutshell, the idea was for me to stay near the front of the car and on the driver side whenever possible. My dad gave me a number of ideas, like leaning over the hood towards the diver - careful not to lean down too much so my boobs would hang down naturally and not be squashed against the hood. He also recommended I keep the bucket up by the driver's front tire so when I needed to soap my sponge I could just bend over with my ass facing the driver and give him a nice little bonus for getting his car.

"I'm sure you can come up with some ideas of your own," he finished. I adjusted my top to allow it to open a little more and he just sighed, "You know, you're an even bigger slut than your mother was at your age... and that's saying a LOT!"

I grinned at the compliment and replied, "Trained by the best then."

My dad slapped me on the butt, careful not to longer too long with everyone watching and we returned to the group.

"Hey Kelly, ready for another round?" one of the guys called out to me as I broke away from my dad and continued on alone.

I recognized him as a guy I'd let fuck me a few months before. We'd done it pretty hot and heavy for a couple of weeks and then I got bored with him and cut him off. He was one of those guys who likes to brag about his conquests but if he thought that telling the whole school about how I fucked and sucked him would make me mad, he had it all backwards. The way I saw it, a little advertising never hurt!

Soon we were open for business. The first cars to come through were mostly our parents. My mom even drove her car through. None of this interested me and I looked down at the street and saw the girls jumping around and shouting to the cars going by. So far this wasn't exactly working out as planned.

Then a black Lexus drove up. My first reaction was he was going to be sorry as I can't say we ran the best car wash in the world and that black paint would show every mistake we made. Nonetheless, when he drove up to one of the mothers was collecting the money I saw that when he rolled down the window that he looked to be maybe in his thirties or early forties. From what I could tell through the glare of the midday sun on his windows he looked to be alone. Hmmm, maybe I could help out with this one.

Grabbing my sponger and bucket, I waited until one of the boys sprayed the car down and then rest of us descended on the car like locusts. Following my dad's advice, I started from the front. Filling my sponge with soapy water, I leaned forward to clean up as high as I could. As warm as it was it felt good to feel the cool water on the hood soak through my cotton top. Looking up, I saw him watching me through the windshield and we both smiled at each other.

Moving back, I stood up more upright but still tried to lean over enough to tease the driver with a cleavage view. Of course he couldn't see my boobs but hopefully he saw enough to make him wish he could.

There wasn't a lot of time left so I stood up and moved to the driver side, dropping my bucket by the tire. I didn't have to look down to know my wet top was plastered against my boobs and I could only hope that my nipples were popping through. Turning around, I bent from the waist to wet my sponge again. Funny how long it took me to squeeze it out with my butt sticking up in the air!

Before I really got to do anything the guys with the hose was rinsing and I backed away. I was already wet enough without getting sprayed from a freezing cold hose. As I did I glanced at the driver and smiled at him. I was pleased to see that he was watching me and he smiled back. He drove forward to where the kids with towels were standing by. I saw him open the window and hand out a tip before he left. How much? I had no idea but I hoped I'd done my part to help.

As I was standing there waiting for the next car I sensed someone behind me and turned to see our youth pastor who wasn't looking all that happy.

"I see you're going for the Spring Break look this year," he started out with his arms folded in front of him, "I guess you must have been in a rush this morning and just happened to forget a bra, am I right?"

Why he always picked on me I could never figure out but I wasn't a fourteen year-old anymore and not as intimidated.

"I never wear a bra," I retorted, "And judging from the way you look at me I would think you would know that."

That didn't help my case but it made me feel better.

"I won't even honor that with a response," he said firmly, "I've already had two mothers complain to me about you and..."

"WHY?" I cut him off, "Last year you complained my bikini bottom was too small so I wore shorts this year. Look, I'm completely covered on top - more than half the girls down there."

"Don't give me that Kelly, you know what I'm talking about," he said as he nodded towards my boobs.

I wasn't going to let him get away with that so easily so I stood up straight and pulled my shoulders back which served to only make my boobs push out even more against my shirt.

"No, I do NOT know what you're talking about, why don't you tell me?"

He didn't have the nerve to say it out loud which was so funny to me that I almost laughed but I fought to keep a straight face.

"So you think this is funny, do you?"

I smiled and nodded which only pissed him off all the more.

"Well, just watch it. I don't want to see any slips or 'accidents', got it?"

I tried to express my astonishment at his assertion, as if I couldn't believe he would think I was capable of such an outrageous act.

At that he just walked away, probably to try to calm down the complainers. I wondered if they knew that I was actually quite proud of myself to have created such a reaction. It's when the other mothers DON'T complain that I worry.

Despite my more naughty thoughts, there really isn't a great deal I could do more than just tease in this situation. I'd of loved to be able to lift my top and rub my boobs against the windows when they were all wet and soapy but I know that there are certain lines that can't be crossed. As it turned out, what really DID work out for me wasn't so much the drivers but the other boys. I quickly realized that my attempts to grab the attention of the drivers was actually getting more from the boys than the drivers who had their windows covered with soapy water half the time.

The guy who was being most blatant was the same guy who had fucked me a while ago. It made me remember how we'd done it and the more I thought about it and looked at him, the more I found myself wondering exactly why I'd put an end to it. I guess sometimes I get picky or even a little bitchy so if the guys isn't doing quite what I like then why not just go on to the next one. It wasn't like I didn't have enough to choose from.

It was maybe half-way through the two hours that the event was scheduled to last that he made his move. I was standing back out of the way while he was rinsing the car. When he was done, rather than shut off the water he turned and sprayed me square in the chest.

"You jerk!" I squealed as I put my arms up over by boobs to protect myself. God it was cold!

Having now shut off the water, he moved over to me and looked around to see if anyone was watching.

"Nice tits Kelly."

I dropped my arms so he could get a better view and replied, "You should know Ryan. Miss 'em?"

Ryan grinned and checked to be sure the next car wasn't in place yet.

"What I miss is fucking you."

"Well why don't you?"

His eyes widened and then narrowed as he suspected I was just messing with him.

"Well it wasn't ME that stopped us from doing it."

We were interrupted by the next car, a large minivan. Ryan soaked it down as I just hung back and watched. Ryan seemed to be racing to wet it down after which he was next to me as quickly as he could.

"So what's the story? You horny again?"

We both laughed as that had been a running joke while he dated me. Basically every time he asked me if I was horny I would say yes and then I would suck his dick or let him fuck me, depending on what our options were at the time. Sometimes it was just a boob flash but one way or the other he got a response. So now was he trying to play the game again? Only one way to find out...

"And if I am?" I teased him.

Ryan looked around scoping out the area. It wasn't like we were in exactly a private setting so I didn't know what he could possibly have in mind, Besides, I hadn't fundamentally made up my mind that I even wanted to have sex with him again. Yes, I WAS horny but there were plenty of other alternatives, just not as available as he was.

"Follow me," he said, handing the hose off to one of his friends, "That is... if you dare."

Those were fighting words, even though I knew he was saying it just to push my buttons. Oh well, what could it hurt?

My dad was helping out with the drying line as it seemed to be the choke point at the moment. I saw him looking my was as I followed Ryan towards the entrance to Wendy's, smiling as if he knew what I was going to be doing. Well, he most know more than I did at the time.

Once inside, the cool air-conditioning felt even colder against my wet top and boobs. I glance down and my nipples were plainly evident. Oh well, so what? Meanwhile, Ryan worked his way over to the side where the restrooms were and I immediately knew his intentions. Well, it wouldn't be the first time I'd done it in a public restroom.

Ryan seemed to hesitate, as if not sure which one to use.

"Check out the little boy's room," I whispered in his ear.

There was a method to my madness. Think about it and the answer is obvious. If you're going to get caught, is it better to be a horny guy who, if anything, would want to stay and watch, or some soccer mom who runs out and complains to the manager? Can you imagine men complaining that a girl was in their restroom? Can you imagine women NOT complaining if they found a teenage boy in theirs? I think the answer is easy to figure out as to which one was better to use.

Ryan went in and came out with a frown. "Busy," he reported glumly.

"Just be patient," I told him, knowing it was hardly something he wanted to hear.

It was only a few minutes before the guy left and I gave Ryan an nudge. He hesitated so I brushed him aside and pushed the door open myself. Without waiting for him I headed directly to the stall in case he wasn't the next one in. Thankfully, he was right behind me and then he shut the door behind him.

Checking things out, it wasn't exactly the best men's room I'd ever been in so far as privacy went. The divider only came down to about a foot off the floor and the

At least the guy washed his hands and he left without a word to us. I wanted to rush this along so I started to stroke his dick with my hand as I concentrated my lips and tongue on the head of his cock. My efforts were soon rewarded.

"Oh my god, don't stop," he groaned, his knees bending slightly as his orgasm began to rise in him.

I didn't and in a few seconds I felt the first surge of cum erupt from his dick into my mouth, hitting me on the back of my throat causing me to cough a bit but I kept my lips sealed around his dick to keep it from spilling out of mouth.

At that moment the door outside opened again and this time it sounded more like a herd than the single set of feet from before.

"Someone's already in there daddy," a high-pitched voice whined, "I gotta go!"

"Just wait, I'm sure he'll be out soon," a deeper voice responded, undoubtedly his father, "Just use the urinal."

Ryan was still spasming slightly as he reached the end of his ejaculation. One thing about a man, when he starts cumming NOTHING can stop it! Heck, once he gets close nothing can stop it. I looked up at him as I sucked off all the cum I could from his dick. He was switching back and forth between looking at me taking his sperm and the door, probably wondering what the dad would say if his sons caught us doing this. Personally I thought it would be fun!

"I need to do number two," the kid whined. God, talk about annoying!

"You'll just have to wait," his father said.

I wiped my mouth with some toilet paper as Ryan regrouped. Now what? Ryan clearly was flustered but then he wasn't the one in the opposite sex toilet. Oh well, what was the big deal anyway?

With a grin for Ryan, I unlatched the door and stepped out. A kid maybe six or eight years old was standing just outside, hopping up and down like he was about to crap his pants.

"Daddy! There's a girl in here!" the kid announced as if it wasn't obvious enough.

I didn't say a word and neither did Ryan as we squeezed by the father.

"Kids!" he muttered under his breath and then added, "Get a room next time."

We stepped out and nobody seemed to notice that I was exiting the men's room. Well, that was simple enough. We quickly left the restaurant and headed back for the carwash.

Ryan was walking briskly alongside me. "Wow, I can't believe we just did that! I thought for sure that guy was going to rat on us.!"

As for me, I'd never been worried. Odds were much more likely that he'd wished his son hadn't been with him as maybe he might have gotten some for himself. I wondered if he would be masturbating about that very thing later at home.

"Where have you guys been?" the youth pastor asked when we got back.

"Had the use the restroom," Ryan explained.

"BOTH of you?"

I acted as if I had no idea what he might be alluding to and answered, "You know how it is... power of suggestion and all."

He wasn't buying it, not for an instant, but then what could he say?

So he left it and we went back to washing cars.

5. Celebrating Success

After our two hours was up, they called back in the girls from the curb and shut down the water after hosing everything down and rinsing out the buckets and stuff. My dad announced that we'd set a new record - almost a thousand dollars! Evidently there had been some pretty huge tips! I just hoped that after all the hard work that I'd been responsible for a little of the haul.

I was about to get back in my dad's SUV to head home when he put up his hand to stop me.

"You're soaked young lady, please put down a towel before you get in."

Him and his precious leather seats! I grabbed one of the dry ones that somehow had missed being used and laid it out on the seat before getting in.

"So how did I do daddy?" I asked. OK, so I was sixteen and long past the "daddy" stage but I knew my dad loved it when I called him that.

My dad laughed before composing himself again to answer. "Pretty damn good other than REALLY causing quite the scandal with some of the mothers. Sheesh, you should have heard some of their comments - almost as bad as your Aunt Sheri."

My Aunt Sheri was about as opposite as she could be from my Aunt Linda. First, she was the wife of my dad's younger brother whereas Aunt Linda was my mom's younger sister. I guess the easiest way to describe her would be to say take everything about my Aunt Linda, turn it around completely, and you have my Aunt Sheri.

Whereas Aunt Linda was practically a nudist and loved sex, I sometimes wondered if my Aunt Sheri had only had sex twice in her life - once for each of my cousins. She considered most everything about me to be scandalous and irreverent, always giving my mother an earful about how she disapproved with the way I dressed, the way I acted and pretty much everything else about me. Wow, the commentary musty have been pretty heated if my dad was comparing them to my Aunt Linda. Cool!

Turning sideways on the seat with one leg under me, I offered, "It was a LOT harder than I thought it would be daddy."

"Why is that?"

I just shrugged and answered, "It's not like I could flash them or anything - too many people all around. And then they had their windows closed most of the time and couldn't even see out.

"Well, I can guarantee you caught a few pairs of eyes," he said with a sly grin as he glanced over at me, his eyes checking out my wet top.

"Sort of hard to miss I'd say," he teased me, reaching over and tweaking my nipple through the wet clinging material. Then his hand moved down to my thigh and his fingers worked between them and rubbed up against my warm pussy.

"Hmmmmmm, so warm down here yet so cold up there," he teased me.

"Daddy!" I responded, trying to pretend to be embarrassed. As if ANYTHING he did to me sexually could ever be embarrassing.

"So what was with you and Ralph earlier? You two disappeared and when you came back it was pretty obvious SOMETHING had gone down."

"His name is Ryan, Daddy," I corrected him to start, "And as for what went down, that would be me."

My dad looked deep in thought for a moment and I couldn't help but hope he was paying attention to the traffic.

"Did you ever bring him home? He seems familiar."

His middle finger started to press against my clit though my shorts and I playfully smacked him with the palm of my hand while at the same time enjoying the attention.

"Maybe you just don't recognize him with clothes on," I offered and we both laughed.

My dad just ignored me and moved his hand back up to my boobs and squeezed it through the wet top.

"Can't really blame me, it IS sort of hard to keep track of them all," he teased.

"Daddy! I don't bring home THAT many boys!"

"If you say so," he chuckled as we pulled up to a stop light and he lowered his hand when the woman in the minivan next door started to stare.

Once we took off again the traffic lightened meaning once again his hand was planted on my boob.

"You're soaked, why don't you take that thing off?"

I knew where he was going but I figured why not play along so I answered with, "Daddy! People might see me!"

This time he really laughed and replied, "Yeah like since when did you let THAT bother you?"

"Well. Maybe if you ask nicely."

It was his fault for making it a game. Had my dad just come right out and told me to take it off I would've had it on the seat in a heartbeat.

He sighed and gave in saying, "Alright, PLEASE take your top off."

I loved it when he got this way, all horny and totally uncaring about anyone else that might see his daughter topless. It was all about him and his needs.

"Why?" was all I said in response to his request.

"Shit, because I like look at your boobs, that's why!" he huffed.

Good enough for me. In a second the top was off and laying on the center console, leaving me bare from the waist up. It DID feel a lot better to get that wet clingy thing off and at the same time, it was a little titillating to be driving through town with by boobs hanging out.

"You know, your boobs have really been looking good these days Kelly." My dad said as he squeezed my nipple.

I was slouched down in the seat just enough that anyone driving by would see my bare shoulders but not my chest. It was OK to be suggestive but outright public flashing can get a little dangerous. Be just my luck the next car was an unmarked police car. I like the way my dad was touching me, making me hornier by the minute.

Oh what the heck... reaching down I dropped my shorts. My bare bottom was now on the towel as I was for all practical purposes nude. Looking over at my dad, I smiled to myself as I saw the look in his eye as he glanced over at his daughter's naked body in the seat next to him. It was sort of funny. Not so long ago I would never have guessed what he was really thinking. Now it seemed so obvious! How could I have not put it all together?

"Somebody's horny," my dad teased me in a sing-song voice, "What's the matter... Ralph didn't fuck you well enough?"

"Daddy!" I pouted, "I keep telling you his name was Ryan!"

"Ralph, Ryan, whatever... does it really matter?"

Fathers can be so silly at times!

"Well, we didn't have sex, all I did was suck him and even that was fast because people needed to use the stall."

My dad grinned at that one and I could imagine the mental image he was building.

"Did he cum?"

"Daddy!" I whined, and this time justifiably, "You know me better than that."

"OK, OK, silly question," he said cheerfully, "So judging from how you're acting now I bet you didn't get off?"

"Noooooo...." I sighed as I started to masturbate. God, this was so naughty! I could see the cars passing by literally just feet away, totally oblivious that a naked girl was playing with her pussy.

"Well, I'll leave you be then... until we get home... deal?

Had I been thinking straight at the time instead of a being lost in a haze or hormonal stew I would have realized that he was setting himself up for the best of both worlds - watching me masturbate and then most likely fucking me as soon as we got home. Oh well, again, what did it matter?

As I finally came, I looked out over my shoulder and smiled broadly at the guy driving next to us. Wow, here I was achieving orgasm and he was just driving along without a clue.

By then we were at the turn to our street so I lost contact. A few doors down my dad entered made his way down to the garage. There was no sense in getting dressing just to walk in the house where I knew the first thing I would do is take them off again and dump them in the laundry.

"Do I dare ask?" my mom asked as I came through the door where she was folding laundry.

I went up to her and smiled, kissing her before looking back to my dad coming in through the door after closing the garage door.

"Daddy wants to fuck me again," I said proudly. OK, so he hadn't SAID it but I think his intentions were pretty clear.

My mom looked over at my dad who just shrugged and then at me and then back to him again.

"Dinner will be ready in an hour so whatever you two have planned you'd better get moving," she sighed, turning back to her laundry.

Having been doing it for just over a month, I still felt this thrill talking to my mom this way. It was still sometimes hard for me to believe that my dad really did want me that way, that he really wanted to show me his love in such an intimate and pleasurable way.

Well, I wasn't going to complain as I took my dad by the hand and led him to my bedroom.

kept getting smaller the older they got. The last thing I wanted was any pubic hairs poking out - that wasn't sexy, it was just trashy so far as I was concerned. I was also wearing thongs more and more when I went out on dates and some of them were pretty sheer so it was easier just to shave it all off and be done with it.

For whatever reason I found that guys seemed to be turned on more anyway by a clean pussy and so long as I shaved every day it stayed smooth and soft as a baby's little behind. Only problem was, it's a pain to do it every day so I tried once to shave less often and I quickly discovered that my skin would turn red and break out (which was definitely NOT a turn-on for the guys) plus the stubble itched like hell!

Once I was clean and dressed I met my dad downstairs where he was eating breakfast with my mom. My mom looked at me and although she tried to look stern she couldn't pull it off and a smile came to her face.

"Now Kelly," she laughed, "how do you expect any work to get done today in the office if you're prancing around looking like that?"

I threw my hair back and giggled as I gave my dad his good morning kiss - not just a peck on the cheek like most girls would give their dad, but a full-mouth, tongue-to-tongue sensual kiss. I placed my hand on his crotch as we kissed and as I pressed down I could feel him stiffen noticeably. Once again my mom had to butt in or else who knows if we ever would have gotten to work!

"C'mon you two sex fiends, don't start something you can't finish and you know you don't have time to finish anything this morning."

My mom patted me on the butt playfully adding, "After all, you have all day once you get there." Her hand lingered on my ass and started to rub it and I knew my mom would have been happy for me to stay home and spend the morning in bed with her but she understood our plans for the day and so she let go before SHE started something we couldn't finish!

I stood up and my dad grinned. Although we hadn't explicitly mentioned it, we both knew today's trip to the office was going to be quite a bit different than any other had ever been before and we were both excited - a fact that was quite obvious when I looked at his crotch.

I bit my lower lip and then licked my lips slowly, sensually, teasing my dad to show him that I was indeed thinking about it. From the large bulge in his crotch I had no doubt he was looking forward to work a lot more than usual this morning!

We got in his SUV and he headed for downtown. Traffic was heavy as was typical for this part of town and the lines leading to the tunnel were even longer usual. I could tell my dad was getting frustrated from the way he was mumbling under his breath so I undid my seatbelt and leaned over the front bench seat until my hand was between his legs.

"Don't get so upset dad," I said in my best teasing voice, "After all, being stuck in traffic can have its benefits."

I rubbed him through his pants and was pleased to see a smile come to his face in place of the frustration. I could feel him start to grow as I massaged him and he let out a long breath.

"Now quit teasing me Kelly," he laughed, "can't you see that there are cars all around us?"

Well, that didn't matter to me. I'd sucked many a boy's cock in traffic before and with the heavily tinted windows in my dad's SUV there was no way anyone could really see anything very well anyway, at least not enough to know for sure what was happening. Besides, even if they could see that would even be better as we put on a show for them although they wouldn't know it was a man's daughter who was giving him the blowjob.

Undaunted by his half-hearted protesting, I unbuckled his belt and then expertly unzipped his pants, spreading them apart and then reaching inside his underwear searching for his cock. I felt his coarse pubic hair between my fingers and my pussy tingled as my fingertips touched his cock. I reached in further until I was able to grasp his thick shaft in my hand. He was still a bit soft but I could feel it hardening as each beat of his heart filled his cock a little bit more. I pulled his underwear down until his cock was freed and I could see it behind the steering wheel.

Mmmmmmm it looked so good and I couldn't wait any longer to taste it so I leaned over further and took the still swelling head in my hungry mouth. The skin of his cock felt so smooth against my lips and the scent of his crotch was still strong from the soap he had used during his morning shower.

"Good God Kelly, just what do you think you're doing?" he moaned.

Well, he might have been ACTING like he wanted me to stop but he certainly wasn't DOING anything to stop me. Rather than answer in words I let my tongue and mouth do the talking for me as I took his now hard cock completely in my mouth until my face was buried in his thick black pubic hair.

The closer I got the more his natural musky odor overwhelmed the soap smell and I took in a deep breath to savor the masculine scent. I reached my hand deeper

I let his cock slip from my mouth being careful not to make a mess by letting his precious cum spill from my mouth. It was more than just wanting to keep it all as there was the practical matter of not getting cum stains on his pants.

As I savored the taste of his sperm in my mouth, I slowly stroked his cock with my hand. He was still pretty hard and more sensitive than ever as I sat up and smiled at him. Then I opened my mouth and proudly let him see the results of my hard work. Well, my "work" and his "hard" I guess would be the proper way to put it!

"Damn Kelly, you know you really are a slut," he said with a small laugh, "Shit! I mean what's hotter than to see your own daughter with a mouthful of her daddy's cum!"

After he said that I swallowed it all down and licked my lips with a nasty grin on my face. A little extra protein never hurt in the morning! By now his cock was pretty soft - which was good as we were exiting the tunnel and almost across the bridge by the time he had his pants back in place. The traffic sped up a cars split off in all directions and before long we were at the parking garage where he rented a space. We got out of the car and walked together towards his office building. "Mmmmmmm," I purred as I licked my lips, "Now THAT was the nicest trip downtown I've ever had daddy. Did you enjoy it?"

My dad patted my butt, lingering just long enough to be inappropriate had anyone had been there to notice which unfortunately there was not. Then he looked down at me with a nasty grin.

"Baby, I would actually look forward to the morning traffic if I had you with me every day!"

I giggled and licked my lips like a cat after good meal. I couldn't help but grin myself as I realized it wasn't really a bad analogy since I actually did have a hungry pussy and had just eaten a great meal!

3. The Office

We rode the elevator up to his floor along with several other men. I could almost feel the guys staring at me and I had no doubt that all of them were thinking the same thing - how they would love to fuck me. Well, maybe not the gay guy in the corner!

It's so incredible to be a woman and have this power, I'm talking about the power to make men do almost anything just to satisfy their all but uncontrollable desire to have me. Of course I pretended not to even notice and just left them to their fantasies as we arrived at our floor and we got out. My dad couldn't hold back his laughter any more as we walked toward his suite.

"I couldn't believe those guys back there," he said, "I wonder if they realized that you were my daughter when they were staring at your tits and ass!"

We both just laughed but in reality I would've loved for them to know I was his daughter - and what I had just done for my dad on the way to work. I bet they would've creamed their suit pants right in the elevator if they had even the slightest clue what was causing the aftertaste that was still lingering in my mouth.

There was no time to say anything else as he opened the door to the suite for me and we walked in to be greeted by Mrs. Ulrich. The absolute stereotypical church lady, I'd known the old bitch for most of my life and have always wanted to call her that but never seemed to get the courage. She was always carrying on about the sins of the world and such but Dad put up with her because despite her annoyances she was a damn good executive secretary who knew where all the bones were buried so to speak. My Dad may sign the paychecks but there was no doubt that it was Mrs. Ulrich who ruled the office.

Mrs. Ulrich had never approved of the way I dressed and from her first reaction I could tell today was no different. She looked at me over her glasses with eyes that felt like they were boring right through me. Her lips were pursed think and I knew exactly what she was thinking about my outfit.

Oh well, I didn't really care what the old bat thought of me so I just ignored her as I always did and followed my dad into his office where I dropped my purse on the dark leather couch. My dad was already on the phone and I knew he was basically out of reach for the next few hours so I went out to see what I could do to help and perhaps what trouble I could cause as well.

My first stop was the mail room where I helped the girl in there sort out mail and even volunteered to hand it out. I didn't mind these tasks as they gave me an excuse to wander around the office where I was able to meet everyone sooner or later. As I said, it had been a while since I had been here so for most of them I was anywhere from six to nine months older that the last time they'd seen me.

Before I got too busy I went to the restroom and checked myself out in the mirror. Despite what Mrs. Ulrich might have thought I felt my blouse was too conservative so I undid the two more buttons which let it open down to the bottom of my cleavage. Admittedly my boobs weren't the anywhere close to being as big as I would have liked but they were still pretty perky and my nipples were hard as little bullets thanks to the rubbing they got against the fabric of my blouse.

Keeping my eyes on the mirror I turned and looked back at my ass, my most prized asset. My boobs may be still in dire need of growth hormones and my legs still had not filled out the way I would have liked, but my ass was tight and shapely even if I said so myself.

Whenever I walked by a group of guys I noticed that more of them would stare at my ass than anything else so I tried to dress in way that showed it off to its best advantage. Basically that meant anything tight and form fitting and the jeans I had on definitely fit the bill. If they were any smaller I would have needed to spray paint them on!

One of the first offices I stopped at was Don's. It was almost a year ago that he'd fucked me but I remembered it like it was yesterday and I was sure he did as well. Don was the first older man to fuck me, at least the first older than eighteen, and the only married guy so far to cheat on his wife with me. I say "so far" as I have always wanted to do it with another married guy but so far the right opportunity just hadn't presented itself to me. Still, I could fantasize about it – which I often did when I masturbated.

Even though Don would never even discuss it with me later, every time I saw him after our little affair all I could think about was that night when he fucked me at his house. Don had never cheated on his wife before then and I think he felt guilty about it afterwards, not to mention that he had done it with a girl who was only fifteen years old at the time – and his boss's daughter at that! Don probably would've fainted if he knew that I had told my parents everything about us immediately afterwards and I wondered what he would say if he knew that my dad was now doing me.

When I dropped the mail off at Don's office he looked up absentmindedly and then the look on his face totally changed when he realized who it was in front of him. He quickly averted his eyes and just mumbled a thank-you before returning to his work. I felt a little disappointment in that he didn't say anything else or at least take a better look at me but I could tell he was still trying to act as if nothing had happened between us. Well, he could act but I bet something between his legs wasn't ignoring me.

For the rest of the morning I tried to do whatever I could since I knew the office was busy from the way the filing was backed up. As much as I wanted to help out, in all honesty I think I disrupted things more than anything. All the guys liked to talk to me and frankly I loved the attention which didn't help matters.

It was all just fun though and I had no intentions of doing anything further than some playful teasing. No, today I had someone else in mind at the office who I wanted to please.

4. Sex in My Dad's Office

Noon came around quickly and so I went to my dad's office to see how he was doing. I hadn't seen him all morning as it seemed there was a constant stream of people in and out of his office and I didn't want to get in the way. The place cleared out quickly as it was a nice day and everyone seemed to want to go out for lunch and enjoy the weather. After the last person FINALLY left my dad's office I went in and plopped down onto his couch.

"Busy day daddy?" I asked.

My dad got up from slowly behind his desk and let out a heavy sigh as he stretched out his legs and arms. "Yes, sometimes I wonder how we're going to get to all these cases." Then he smiled and added, "Hey, I appreciate you coming in to help out although according to Mrs. Ulrich's report to me I'm not sure how well our office productivity fared this morning thanks to you."

He laughed a little at that but we both knew what he meant and I was glad he didn't mind. I loved to flirt and tease guys and this morning had been like taking candy from a baby! My dad walked over to the office door and turned to me as if expecting me to get up and follow him out.

"Well baby, do you want me to take you out to lunch or what?" he asked.

No, his erection was because of ME which put an entirely new perspective on everything.

Just a few weeks ago I never would have even dreamed that my dad could have such feelings for me and now here he was standing in front of me with one thing so obviously on his mind - how bad he wanted to fuck ME!!! I can't even begin to properly describe how it made me feel to know my own father had such feelings.

Then I heard the words that meant so much to me...

"Oh Kelly, yes... I want you... I want you soooooo badly right now."

My heart was pounding with excitement as I took him in my mouth and sucked on my dad's dick gently to start. At first I kept my hands off his cock, using just my mouth on it while I fondled his hairy balls softly with one hand and played with my boobs through my blouse with the other. My nipples were SO sensitive!

"Damn girl!" he said with a chuckle, "Nothing like getting right down to business. Crap, all I could think about this morning was the way you blew me on the way in. That was so fucking hot having my daughter with her head in my lap while with all those cars were around us! I kept looking at the other drivers, wanting to shout out to them that I was getting the world's best blowjob from my daughter."

He hesitated for a second as a gasp escaped from his mouth when I squeezed his balls carefully and suddenly sucked as hard as I could on his cock.

"Mmmmmmm, oh Kelly, damn that feels so good! I can't believe what a great cocksucker my daughter is!"

From what other guys had told me I knew that I am more than just pretty good at sucking cock but to hear my dad compliment me was music to my ears. My mother had been eager to teach me a lot when I first started having sex plus in the past couple of years I've blown virtually every guy I dated so I've had LOTS of practice. Needless to say, I've never had any trouble finding someone to help me improve my technique!

I learned early in my sexual "career" that ALL guys LOVE having their cocks sucked. I don't know if it's more for the actual pleasure they get or the feeling of dominance they assume they have when a girl kneels down in front of them and sucks their penis, then allowing them to cum in her mouth or all over her.

So far as I'm concerned it's actually me who is the dominating person during a blowjob since the guy will do almost anything to convince me to suck him. When I have a guy's cock in my mouth I think of how much control I have over him at that moment. After all, one false move with my teeth and well... you get the picture!

As I sucked my dad's cock I could feel it harden even more and swell. Cocks fascinate me in the way they react to what I do to them. Feeling a guy expanding in my mouth is incredibly erotic for me. Each inch that it grows serves as further confirmation of how I'm turning him on, making him lust after me, making him want me, making him desire me more with each stroke of my mouth. A guys can SAY anything but it's what his cock DOES that means the most to me. Of course when he tells me at the same time his cock is reacting that just makes it all the better.

My dad held my head with both hands and started fucking my mouth like it was a pussy, stroking himself in and out of my mouth as he held my head still. He was fully erect now and when he shoved it all the way in it would hit the back of my throat. His furry crotch pressed into my face when he pushed in and I could smell him as his crotch odor was much more stronger now than it had been earlier in the morning.

It was incredible! I mean, we were in the middle of his office with who knows who just outside the door and here I was kneeling in front of my father with his pants at his ankles, sucking his cock like a cheap office slut! His cock was hard as a rock now, filled with his passion for me as he fucked his daughter's mouth. He wanted to fuck more than just my mouth though, which was just fine with me!

"God I want to fuck you now," he gasped, "Strip off those jeans and bend over the couch."

He pulled his cock from my mouth and I licked my lips with the aftertaste of his cock. I pushed off my heels with my feet and then obediently pulled off my jeans and stood there in front of him, nude now from the waist down.

"Put your heels back on," he urged me.

I bent over and slipped my heels back on. His request didn't surprise me as I knew guys loved to fuck me with my shoes on, whether they be heels or sneakers. I could be totally nude but they still seemed to prefer I have something on my feet, especially when I had on high heels. Well, whatever turned him on was fine with me.

Turning around, I leaned forward against the arm of the couch, spreading my legs apart enough to give him a great view of my ass and wet pussy.

"Oh fuck what a pretty pussy you have!" he exclaimed, "I've GOT to get a taste of that."

It wasn't like I was stopping him!

With my head hanging down I couldn't see anything but I could feel his hands on my hips and then his tongue was on my pussy, licking me between my legs from behind. I reached down between my bare thighs with one hand and started to rub my sensitive clit as my dad's tongue licking up and down my slit.

Oh it felt soooooo good to feel him lick me! I moaned with ecstasy as my dad's tongue did its magic on me. His hands moved to my ass and he squeezed my bare butt cheeks and massaged them. Then I felt him spread them apart and his tongue moved up from my pussy to my asshole and I could feel the tip of it playing with me.

Wow, he'd never done this before - for that matter nobody had. I have a basic repulsion to anal sex for a number of reasons. Basically I don't ask for guys to do anything with my ass since I wouldn't do it for them. A few of them tried but I always pushed them away and so long as they could still fuck me I found that guys didn't complain.

While my first instinct was to pull away, my dad held onto my hips and held me in place. Wow, this felt wonderful! The tip of his tongue teased my asshole and as he spread my cheeks apart further he was able to press his tongue into my hole!" I moaned, "What are you doing to me? That feels wonderful... make me cum daddy... make me cum hard."

I could tell from the feeling in my pussy and the overall tension in my body that I was on the verge of a massive orgasm and with a few more licks of his tongue and the touch of my finger on my clit I was over the hill and into the land of ecstasy.

I felt my pussy creaming as he licked every drop of my cum as it gushed from my pulsating cunt. My boobs felt like they were on fire and my whole body broke out into goose bumps as the world drifting away and I was floating in some sort of dream world as my climax consumed me. I never wanted it to stop and I rubbed my clit furiously to bring me even higher.

"Don't stop daddy! Don't stop!" I begged. He didn't answer which was fine with me as I didn't want his tongue to leave my pussy for even a moment.

In the middle of my orgasm he stopped licking me and just as I felt panicked that he was stopping I realized why he did it. I couldn't help but groan loudly as the head of his hard cock suddenly drove its way into my pussy followed by the rest of his shaft and just like that he was completely inside of me. The feel of my dad's dick as it filled my pussy made my orgasm surge again and I was panting quickly as I tried to breath while my entire body seemed to be crying out with pleasure.

"Oh fuck me daddy! Fuck me... fuck me... fuck me...," I kept saying over and over and over as I pushed my ass back against his cock as he drove it into me. I was all but overwhelmed as physically I was feeling out of this world while at the same

God I was so flushed! If I walked out now everyone was going to wonder what we'd been doing. I wondered if they would even think of the possibility that we had sex or if they would ever even be able to conceive that an act of incest had just occurred right in the middle of the place.

I knew that the office must reek of the smell of sex but luckily I found some air freshener and sprayed the room liberally. Although people might wonder why it needed to be sprayed, it was better that than letting them smell the scent of sex that was overpowering the room and confirm any suspicions they may have.

The rest of the day went rather uneventfully. My dad had promised to fuck me again later that night but I had no intention of waiting that long. There was a big parking garage waiting for us and I made a silent promise to myself that we wouldn't be leaving it as quickly as he was expecting to!

Mmmmmmm, wait until mom finds out how my day at the office went! I had a feeling this evening was going to be very interesting...

When he came he would leave a huge load in my mouth and then he would stay just as hard for a second round inside my pussy.

I once told my mom that I could have sucked his cock every day and still wanted more! I think she was more amused than anything at my exuberance over Kevin. If anything she teased me by constantly reminding me about him, asking me if I was missing it when she saw me getting horny and masturbating.

Thanks to his wonderful cock, Kevin was the first guy who I really enjoyed suck him more than being fucked by him. Given I'd only been fucked by six guys before Kevin, counting my dad, I guess it wasn't exactly a huge group for comparison.

2. The Drive-Thru

One day Kevin picked me up in his car for a trip to the mall. I loved to shop not to mention the mall presented all sorts of opportunities to fool around and show off. There were usually plenty of father's and older married guys that loved to stare at me when I wore something provocative. It was even better when I saw their wife get pissed off because of the attention they were giving me. I always wondered how many of them would masturbate later that night about me or maybe even think about me when they were with their wives in bed.

Kevin's car was an old beater but it had one feature I liked - a bench front seat with no middle console that allowed me to sit tight up against him while he drove. I hate center consoles! Whoever came up with the idea must have never had a girlfriend who loved to give him road head.

It was a hot summer day so I was wearing my favorite cutoffs, the ones my dad said made me look like a slut. I had cut them so short that you could see the bottom of my ass while I was standing. When I bent over - well you could just say it was obvious I wasn't wearing any panties.

By now my tan was in full summer mode and my legs were finally losing their thin knobby look. I loved showing them off either in daring cutoffs like these or skirts that were supposedly way too short. Really, is there such a thing as skirts that are too short?

One of the best things about these shorts were that they were so tight in the crotch you could literally see them pull into my pussy crack when I was sitting down. I heard people call it the "camel toe" look which to me sounded gross but I guess it was a fairly accurate way to describe the look. When I crossed my legs or walked the material rubbed my clit so it was like I was masturbating everywhere I went!

My dad liked to pretend that he didn't like me to wear this pair of shorts in public but I knew it turned him on something fierce anytime I wore them. All I had to do was put them on, wiggle my ass in front of him, and next thing you knew he was fucking me. At least that's the way it seemed some times. Not that I was complaining mind you.

On the way to the mall Kevin announced that he wanted to grab a bite at a McDonald's. It seemed silly to me as the mall had a food court. I also warned him that it was lunch time so the drive-thru would be crowded but like most guys, he could be bull-headed sometimes.

Sure enough, when we got to the place there were over a dozen cars at the drive-thru line but Kevin didn't want to get out and go inside so he pulled in at the end of the line and we waited... and waited. It was ridiculous how slow the line was moving!

Kevin didn't mind the wait because the whole time we'd been driving around I'd had my hand planted firmly on his crotch, slowly rubbing his incredible cock through his jeans. He was bulging nicely and shifting in his seat trying to get comfortable as his dick swelled inside his constructing jeans.

Dang it, I couldn't believe how slow the service was - no wonder the line was so long. I was beginning to think we would never get to the window. So much for fast food! After a while I decided to make the wait worthwhile so I laid down on the seat facing the back with my feet pressed against the door and my head in his lap. I put my hand back on Kevin's crotch and looked up at him. His eyes met mine and he smiled, knowing what was going through my naughty mind.

"Why you dirty little slut," he said with a big grin, "Don't you ever get tired of sucking my cock?"

I smiled back at him and shook my head saying, "Now you know the answer to that one Kevin. Besides, you know you love it so quit complaining!"

I quickly unsnapped and then unzipped Kevin's jeans. After that even with his dick in full erection mode it was easy for me to reach in and pull out his perfect cock. Kevin had learned by now never to wear underwear on a date with me - it just got in the way!

Like every boy I knew, Kevin absolutely loved his cock to be sucked. It made me feel good when he told me that I was the first girl to make him cum just by sucking him. I had yet to be the first girl to suck any guy's cock but so far it was unanimous - I was the best they'd had and I was proud of my growing reputation among the boys at school.

I gazed at Kevin's wonderful cock and admired the way it curved slightly when it was hard. It was pointing straight up like a yummy popsicle, except this one was warm and tasted better, not to mention the creamy filling waiting inside!

"Mmmmmmm, I just love this cock!" I exclaimed softly as I held it in my hand, feeling the warmth of it.

I just laid there curled up in the front seat, my head on his lap and slowly started to suck his cock in my mouth like a tasty lollipop. Kevin didn't shave or trim his pubic hair which was just the way I loved it. It was a hot day and he had been sweating so his crotch had a strong odor and his cock had a salty taste of sweat, all of which made me horny as hell.

As I sucked him I could feel the blood throbbing into his dick, filling it and making it even larger if that were possible. His erection filled my mouth like a large sausage only this one was warm and tasted better.

I slowly took more of him in my mouth until my face was buried in his lush pubic hair. I enjoyed the feeling of his curly hair against my cheeks and mouth. It tickling a bit and I knew he liked to look down and see my face covered in his hairy crotch. I suppose it was no different than me enjoying the sight of a man's head between my thighs as he ate my pussy.

Finally I felt his cock hit the back of my throat but there was still a couple of inches to go so I relaxed and let him slide down my throat. I almost gagged at first but then he was down me and my lips were at the base of his cock.

"Oh my god Kelly," Kevin groaned, "I love it when you do that! Damn girl, you can really suck cock!"

I still had to breath so I pulled my head up and looked upward to his face. He grinned at me and I felt so sexy knowing how good I was making him feel with my mouth and tongue. I started to lick his cock like an ice cream cone, starting from the base and working all the up to the tip.

Mmmmmmm he tasted so good and I loved the way his soft cock skin felt when it was stretched so tightly. Now I was happy that a line was moving slow!

Unfortunately, we eventually were the next in line so Kevin nudged me. "OK girl, we're almost there. I REALLY hate to say this but time for a break."

I took him out of my mouth just long enough to say. "Sorry, you haven't cum yet and I'll be damn if I am going to work this hard and not get my reward!"

I immediately went back to do some more serious cock sucking. Well, this was a bit on the wild side, even for Kevin. He didn't mind me sucking him in the mall restroom, dressing rooms, or even at the movie theater but at all of those places it was the close proximity of the people that made it hot, not that they actually saw us. This was different as it would be impossible for the person in the window NOT to see what was going on when we got there.

"C'mon, Kelly, you've GOT to be kidding. There's a kid in the window and he'll see you!"

My response was to go down on him even deeper. I wasn't kidding, I was dead serious. By now I was so horny I don't give a damn about some stupid kid in the window. I has hungry as hell for his cum and I wasn't about to let anyone stop me from getting it.

Guys seem to think that girls don't get as horny as they do. Well, they're wrong. There are times when I get so horny and hungry for sex that I find myself doing things that I normally never would have dreamed of doing. This doesn't happen very often but when it does I've learned that it's useless to try and fight it.

Well, this was one of those times. The heavy odor of his crotch combined with the taste of his dick had me starving for his cum. We could've been anywhere at the time and it wouldn't have mattered - he was going to cum in my mouth before I was finished and that was that!

"Oh fuck Kelly, you are going to get us in soooooo much trouble you little bitch but I don't care - suck it girl, make me cum!"

I guess I don't need to say that Kevin was now in the same state I was - he wanted to cum as badly as I wanted him to!

When we got to the window I couldn't see but I knew the kid giving us our order probably couldn't believe his eyes! He must've seen me in Kevin's lap with my head moving up and down in his lap. Kevin told me later that probably assumed we were faking it as some sort of joke on him because he tried to be cool and just ignore us as Kevin paid him and got his change. Looking back, I guess my head and hair obscured his view of my mouth on Kevin's cock so he figured at first that it was all a practical joke.

Just as the boy leaned out to hand over the bag, Kevin couldn't hold back anymore. He groaned and his hips jumped up off the seat as he came right in my mouth! I felt his hot spurts of sperm hit the back of my throat and collect on my tongue. God he tasted so good!

Meanwhile, the kid was still holding the bag out the window, his eyes fixed on me as Kevin's cum started to drip onto his hairy crotch as it was leaking from my mouth. I let Kevin's cock slip out of my mouth so I could lick the cum off of it and then I sat up in the car so the kid could see Kevin's throbbing cock, all wet from my mouth and still covered with his slimy cum.

Then there was me, Kevin's cum dripping from the corners of my mouth and down my chin as I smiled innocently at the window guy. Realizing now that I had really HAD been blowing Kevin and that he had just witnessed a guy cumming in his girlfriend's mouth, all he could do was blurt out a gasp of surprise.

Feeling really naughty now but even more turned on, I gave him one of my sexiest grins and stuck my tongue out so he could see what was left of Kevin's cum on it. I waved to him and spit a little out, just enough for him to see it bubbling on my lips. The I used my tongue to gather it back in and swallowed it down.

Kevin knew he'd better get going before I did anything more so he just smiled at the poor kid, winked and then quickly drove off. I don't know if the boy told anyone at work what he had seen but I would be willing to bet nobody believed the poor guy if he tried!

Kevin was laughing the whole way to the mall from there. "Damn Kelly, you are something else! I've never felt so hot and so scared at the same time as when I came right in front of that guy. Then to see me with my cum dripping from your mouth... Geeze you are such a fucking little slut sometimes - and I love it!"

By the time we got to the mall parking lot Kevin was ready for more so we never did leave his car! I didn't care, fucking him in the back seat in a crowded parking lot was much more fun!

But that's another story...

her wearing those same nighties and using the dildos! After that evening I fantasized more than once about being with one or both of them.

Back to my original thoughts... Babysitting was just one way I satisfied my voyeuristic instincts. We live in a typical Pittsburgh neighborhood in that it's on a steep hill. Each house is about one story lower than the next as you go down the road in front of our house. Not only that, our neighbors on the opposite side of the street and behind us are significantly above and below us, respectively. You can see that from the garages - ours is in back of the house attached to the basement since you go downhill on our lot while the folks on the opposite side of the house enter their garage from the front.

One of the results of all this is that nobody has a direct view across to their neighbor which affords a bit of privacy, especially if your uphill neighbors aren't around much as was the case with our situation.

One of the things I love about our house is the hot tub on our deck. Thanks to the hill we live on, the deck, which is on top of our garage, looms about twenty feet over our neighbor's back yard giving us an unobstructed view of everything that goes on while they usually don't even notice us since we are so high above them. Technically our other neighbors have the same view of us but they're an older couple and seldom venture outdoors much so we never worry about them watching us.

Since the tub is in the corner of the deck, when I'm in it I can look over the side and effectively spy on the neighbor's house. This led to some interesting times...

2. New Neighbors

When I was growing up there wasn't much to see next door so I pretty much ignored the neighbors but that all changed when Kathy and Rich moved in last year. They were in their late twenties with a young daughter which provided me with the perfect babysitting opportunity.

I usually "explored" most homes where I baby-sit and it's amazing some of the things you find in the bedrooms and my neighbors were obviously into some kinky things based on the videos and paraphernalia they kept in the bedroom. Since their daughter was too young to understand, and they evidently trusted me not to go looking through their drawers in their bedroom, they didn't hide it. I had some good times watching their videos and even tried on some of her naughty lingerie a few times but that's all another story.

Our new neighbors also loved to party and hardly a weekend went by that I didn't lay in my bed late at night trying to sleep despite the loud music and talking. It didn't help my bedroom was on the back corner of the house that was closest to their back yard and I could hear everything that was going on. Normally I fell asleep before the party ended and nothing out of the ordinary seemed to ever happen so over time I tended to ignore them.

It was a Saturday night in the middle of July of my sixteenth summer and another party was in full swing next door. I was out on the deck after supper and out of general curiosity I took a peek down to check things out. It all looked quite ordinary with perhaps twenty to thirty people just hanging around with drinks in their hands. They all looked to be about Kathy and Rich's age - mid to late twenties or so with maybe a few couple older than that but nobody my parent's age or anything even close to that old.

It was a hot and humid evening so a few of the guys had their shirts open and a couple had even taken them off. Fortunately, they were the ones I would've chosen with cut bodies and nice tans. It was also obvious that they knew they were good looking as well, a trait that I find annoying in guys.

The girls were mostly wearing loose blouses, halters, bikini tops, or something similar. Kathy was in shorts and a bikini top which left little to the imagination. She had great boobs which looked to be natural as well (that opinion was also supported by the more unobstructed view I had of them in several of their home videos!).

Seeing Kathy's breasts just made me all the more self-conscious of my own small boobs. Mine were firm and perky and I didn't get any complaints from the guys when they played with them, but what I would've given for another cup size or maybe even two!

Other than a few naughty thoughts about some of the guys at the party, it was really more boring than anything else to watch so after a while I went back inside and didn't think about the party again for the rest of the evening. I went to bed around midnight and gave thanks for the air-conditioning which allowed me to keep my windows shut to block out most of the noise from next door.

Somewhere around 2:00 I woke up for some reason and in the silence of our house I could faintly heard something outside my window. Even Kathy and Rich's party typically ended by now so my curiosity again got the better of me and I slipped off my sheets and stepped out of bed. Looking out the window, I could hear just hear the voices but couldn't quite make out what they were saying.

The bright backyard lights had been turned off leaving just some ornamental lighting which wasn't quite bright enough to allow me to see what was going on. This was unusual so being the nosy person I am, I slipped on a t-shirt (I've been sleeping nude since I was twelve) and went out quietly downstairs.

I carefully opened the kitchen door leading to the deck, making sure no lights were on which might tip off someone to my actions and silently moved across the deck to see what was going on. I stayed down low and looked through the rails in case someone looked up and saw me silhouetted against the partly cloudy sky.

The moon was covered by clouds at the moment but it could reappear at any moment and as bright as it was I wasn't taking any chances. Their backyard was lined with bushes and fencing for privacy so nobody could see what was going on - that is nobody but me since I was the only one up high enough to be able to look down into their back yard.

I'm sure they never expected that anyone from our house would be up this late, let alone peeking down at them, no more so than I was ever concerned when out on my "private" deck.

The lights were pretty dim but my eyes quickly adjusted until I could make out pretty clearly what was going on - it certainly wasn't their typical backyard party! Two people were sitting in lawn chairs while two others were laying together on a blanket on the grass. The people in the lawn chairs were Rich and some other guy while on the blanket was Kathy (I would recognized her long hair anywhere - it was down to her ass at least) and another woman. The guys each looked to be holding a beer while they watched what was going on in front on them.

At first I thought they had stripped down to their shorts but then Rich shifted his weight enough to allow one of the lawn lamps to shed more light on him and I realized they were nude! Not just the guys - the girls were as well! I almost let out a gasp as I realized they weren't exchanging recipes either - they seemed to be putting on a show for the guys.

My eyes squinted as I tried to make out better what was going on when somebody answered my prayers and the clouds covering the moon passed on. It was full and bright enough that I could have read a book had I been so inclined. Well with the show the moon revealed, reading a book was the last thing on my mind!

Oh my God, they were both so hot! The other girl looked to be about the same age as Kathy with the same great figure. I knew Kathy was hot from her videos and pictures but I'd never seen her naked for real. Now not only was I seeing her in person, she was with another woman!

It wasn't like it was the first time I had ever saw two women together. I had been having sex with my mom and her sister for months now but this was different. I'd never been with another girl "just for sex" nor had I ever seen two women together except in my dad's porn movies so this was quite an eye-opener for me - literally!

As Kathy and the other girl kissed and fondled each other, I noticed that the guys were evidently getting quite turned on as well. Each of them had their hands in their lap and from their motions they were obviously stoking themselves as they watched their women going at I together. It was too dark for me to see their cocks but I knew what Rich's looked like and I imagined it all nice and hard with his hand stroking up and down the length of it.

Many a time I had masturbated when I babysat for them, watching Kathy sucking his cock while wishing it was me in her place and now it was out in the open just a matter of feet away from me! My hand subconsciously reached under my t-shirt and I began to slowly rub my boobs as I watched the two guys jerking off.

I love to watch men masturbate, especially when they are doing it because of me. In this case I wasn't in the equation but it was still hot to see them doing it next to each other, obviously turned on by what was happening in front of them.

I don't know how long they had been going at it before I saw them so what they had done in terms of foreplay and such I would never know. Whatever it may have been, they'd moved on past that stage and were into it pretty heavy.

Kathy was licking her friend's pussy and from the way she was going at it, and the reaction of her friend, I had a feeling this was definitely not her first time with another girl. As I watched them I felt my pussy getting warmer and wetter by the minute and it wasn't long before I had one hand between my legs as well as on my boobs.

My finger touched my clit and I almost cried out despite myself at the sensations that it drove through me. As it was, I nearly lost my balance being crouched down as I was and if it hadn't been for the hot tub I would have fallen over and made a racket. God, now THAT would have been embarrassing!

As it was when I held myself up with one hand on the hot tub cover it reminded me of how the warm water always made me feel so good and so I carefully pushed the cover over just enough to allow me to get in. Dropping my T-shirt to the deck leaving me naked, I slowly slipped into the hot water and when it reached my crotch it was like my pussy was in heaven!

As impossible as it may have seemed, it made me feel even hornier than ever. I would've loved to be able to turn on the jets and feel them pulsing against my clit as I typically do whenever I'm in the tub. It sure beats a shower massager any day! The only problem was that the pump is loud and it would've surly alerted them that something was going on next door.

Fortunately the system always runs to slowly to circulate the water and there was just enough flow for me to feel it against my sensitive clit if I moved up close to the nozzle. I lifted my left leg up on the side of the tub and positioned my pussy up close to the jet. With my left arm over the side I could look down from the tub and see them while I felt the jet softly caressing my sensitive clit. I just had to be careful not to splash when it started to get me really going!

When I looked back down I saw that while I'd been getting in the tub the wives (I just assumed the other couple was married for some reason) had moved into a 69. Both husbands still had their cocks in their hands now and were stroking their hard-ons faster than ever as they watched their women in front of them.

I was watching just as intently the whole time. Actually, I was hoping that I would soon get to see them fucking their wives. Other than my parents, I'd never actually watched two people fucking and knowing they had no idea that I was watching just made it all the more erotic for me to contemplate.

I reached behind me with my right hand and slipped my middle finger up my asshole as I let the jet continue to softly massage my pussy. I almost cried out from the sensual feeling I got as I pushed my finger in even deeper. I've never had anal sex but when I'm in the shower, or especially in the hot tub, having my own finger up my ass can be incredibly stimulating under the right circumstances! It certainly wasn't something I did very often but I was so horny at the time it just seemed the natural thing to do. Even so, it wasn't long before I pulled it out and went back to my "normal" masturbation routine.

I closed my eyes as I plunged two fingers in my pussy, imagining the guys were taking turns fucking me as my orgasm hit me. My body stretched out and it was like a vise was on my chest and I couldn't breathe as the most incredible sensations a woman can experience rushed through me from head to toe. I could feel the warm water from the hot tub entering me as my fingers stroked in and out of me like a dick was fucking me and indeed, that was exactly what I was imaging at the moment.

An especially strong surge of pleasure went through me and my back arched upwards and then collapsed, making a loud splashing noise. I should have checked to be sure they hadn't noticed but I was too consumed with my own personal pleasure at that moment to care.

Eventually it died down and I was left all but submerged in the tub, panting as I tried to catch my breath. When my head cleared I remembered what was going on below me and lifted myself up enough to get a view again. Evidently they hadn't heard me or just ignored it because they were still down there and if anything, it looked like things were about to progress to the next phase.

Rich had stood up and was now standing over the two women, still stroking his cock which I could now see in greater detail. God, he must have been turned on because his dick was standing straight up and looked even better in person than it did on tape. His wife was on the bottom with her friend on top and I licked my lips in anticipation as I realized he was getting ready to fuck his friend's wife first.

The other guy just sat in his chair and watched as Rich got on one knee and straddled Kathy's head, lining up his cock to the girl's pussy. Kathy was still licking it and she laid her head back as Rich moved in closer. His balls looked to be hanging right in her face as his dick pressed up against the girl's crotch. I could only imagine the view Kathy was getting, seeing her husband's ass hovering above her face with his hard dick about to enter her friend's pussy.

Rather than fuck her though, Rich first dropped his cock down to Kathy's face and she took him in her mouth. She was only able to take about half of him in but both of them obviously were enjoying it. Once she had wetted his cock with her mouth, he lifted up and took it out of her mouth and once again held it up against the girl's pussy.

Rich didn't fool around and immediately drove himself in her to the hilt. She stopped licking Kathy as she let out a long, loud moan of satisfaction. Who could blame her - I would have done the same if that nice cock had been rammed into me that fast! Actually, her moans were the first thing I had heard since I had started watching. I suppose that they were trying to be quite so as not to alert the neighbors but little did they know they were too late!

I kept playing with myself and shifted my position to let the jet hit different spots on my pussy as I watched. Seeing Rich fuck her was hot but to see him doing right above his wife's face was something else entirely. She evidently wasn't bothered by it and neither, apparently, was the girl's husband. He was still sitting down and it appeared that he has now just holding his dick instead of actively stroking it as he had been before. Evidently the sight of his wife being fucked by another guy while licking her friend's pussy was holding his interest even more than masturbating!

It would've been a sign of unusual restraint had the other guy just remained a bystander. Just as I was beginning to think that maybe he was just the weird voyeur type, he stood up and I hear him saying something to the three of them but couldn't quite make it out.

Whatever he said, they must have gone along with it as Rich pulled out of the guy's wife and the girls separated. Both girls got on their hands and knees next to each other and the guys moved in behind them. Interestingly enough, neither of them was going to fuck his own wife but instead it was going to be a classic wife swap.

Sure enough, neither of the wasted any time and in moments they were both banging away at the other guy's wife, gripping the girls by the waist and thrusting their cocks in and out of them. Now and then I could faintly hear them slapping against each other as the guys would ram themselves deep inside their partner. It was fun to watch but I couldn't help but wish that I was taking the place of one of the girls. God, a good fucking was just what my pussy needed at the moment!

They fucked doggy style for a while and then Rich laid down on the blanket while his friend's wife rode him in what was my all-time favorite position - cowgirl. She was facing him, her bog boobs hanging down to his face where he was holding them and licking them as she fucked his cock.

I like being on top as it gives me control of the dick inside of me. Too many guys seem to think that once they are inside that all they have to do is ram themselves in and out like a piston and that will satisfy the girl. Well, all that does is make me feel like I am some kind of living sex doll - NOT a compliment by the way.

I like to control the depth that his cock is in me, the speed of the strokes and when to just let it sit still inside of me while it throbs with his heartbeat. Sometimes I like to left up until he is barely in me and then twist around in circles so his rub rubs just the outer areas of my pussy while at others, it is better to plop down hard on him, driving his cock as deep as it will go in me and then grind my crotch down on the hairy base of his cock.

I guess I should clarify one thing, cowgirl is the most FUN sex position for me. For intimacy I enjoy good ol' fashioned missionary style. Having the guy over me, controlling me and controlling his cock in me at the same time is more of an emotional thing for me than anything, especially when it is someone I care about like a boyfriend I am close to or most of all, my dad.

When a man cums in me, I prefer him to be in this position if I care about him as it makes me feel he is being more intimate with me than some faceless guy that I can't see behind me.

Apparently they felt somewhat the same way as after a while they switched around until the guys were on top while the girls were on their backs. There was a little variance in that Kathy was evidently more into having her legs up in the air, draped over the other guy's shoulders while the girl Rich was fucking spread her legs out wide and planted her feet on the ground with her knees spread even further out.

As for me personally, I like to wrap my legs around a guy as much as possible and pull him tightly into me, especially when he is cumming. This can get tiring so I tend to use both alternatives - feet in the air and feet on the ground.

I was afraid of splashing again as I played with myself so I carefully got out of the tub and sat naked on the edge while I continued to watch them. I spread my legs apart and started playing again with my sensitive pussy still dripping from the hot tub. My other hand was holding my boob, feeling my hardened nipple through my fingers. I love to cup my breast in my hand and grab my nipple between my fingers, holding tightly to the nipple as I massage myself.

I sometimes did the same thing with my pussy, placing my clit between two fingers as I cupped by crotch and let one or more fingers enter just inside of me. I am incredible sensitive just inside of my pussy hole so between the feeling of my clit between my fingers and my other fingers toying with my pussy is amazing. I first masturbated when I was twelve and over the years I learned to bring myself to an orgasm in minutes when I am in real need of one - a need I seemed to have more and more as I got older!

I was curious as to whether they would cum inside of each other's wife or not. I knew Kathy was on the pill - she kept them on the stand next to her side of the bed, but who knew about the other girl? Neither guy had put on a condom from what I'd seen so what would they do when the time came?

As it turned out they both pulled out together and the wives got on their knees and started sucking their friend's husband. At this point I had thought they might revert to their own spouse but evidently they were going to go the whole way with just the other person's mate.

That was kind of cool for me actually. My parents would never have done such a thing as what I was witnessing as they believed firmly in their marriage vows and would never commit adultery like my neighbors were doing. Even if everyone agreed it didn't matter - fucking another man's wife was forbidden by God. After all, it made the Top Ten in the Bible! It was one thing to have sex with another woman in your family, it was not committing adultery in their eyes so long as it was a direct family member. My parents believe strongly in the concept of family and sex in that context was just a way of expressing love and respect for your relatives.

Each wife now had her mouth on the other husband's cock and they alternately stroked and sucked their guy. From the way they were holding the cocks in front of their faces with their tongues hanging out, both of them wanted the guys to cum in their mouths.

That was my preference as well. First, although I realize many girls would differ with me on this, I like the taste of cum. Even more importantly, I HATE having cum all over me as it just makes a sticky mess and when it dries it itches. The absolute worst is to get it in your hair. Once it dries it is a royal pain to get out and if you dare to try and brush it out, well be prepared for a lot of pain!

It wasn't much longer before the guys came. Rich was first and I watched as his body jerked as his cum started out into the mouth of his friend's wife. It was only a few seconds later that the other guy started filling Kathy's mouth with sperm judging from the ay his ass was thrusting into her face.

God I wished they were cumming in my mouth instead! As I dreamed of the taste of their cum I came again, this time even harder than the first. I could barely breath as it felt like every nerve in my body was suddenly tingling like a foot or leg that had fallen asleep, only much more intense.

I kept watching them though as the wives traded and sucked the remains of their husbands' cum from their cocks. My hands were still touching me, just enough to keep my orgasm simmering. I love to see how long I can keep myself going. The initial intense waves usually subside rather quickly but I have learned to keep the glow going for quite a while by pacing how much I stimulate myself rather than letting it all out of me at once. By the time their cocks were soft I was still feeling the aftershocks but they gradually calmed down.

The four of them went into the house so I guess the show was over for the night. I carefully replaced the cover on the hot tub, picked up my t-shirt and walked slowly back in the house. Once back in bed I fell asleep almost immediately, a feeling of total satisfaction in me.

I woke the next morning a bit tired still and my mom asked if I slept well. I gave her a coy smile and told her I had a great night. She looked at me a bit strange but probably figured it was just a teenager thing and let me eat breakfast in peace.

Later that day I was out on the front porch when Kathy walked over to me. She asked if I was available to baby-sit the next weekend because they had a party to go to. I said sure and she warned me that they would probably be home late. I was fine with that - more time to explore and try out her negligees and dildos!

Then Kathy dropped in a casual comment the floored me, saying that after last night I probably knew why they were going to be late. I must have turned bright red because she laughed and told me not to worry, that they all knew I was watching and that it just made it all the more erotic for them. She said they hoped that I was pleasuring myself as well and was getting as much satisfaction from it as they were.

I didn't know quite what to say and my silence only made her laugh more. Kathy told me they were having another party in a couple of weeks but since I was only sixteen they couldn't let me come over. Then she smiled and said that I was welcome to watch the after-party events afterwards again if I wanted to.

Kathy giggled this, apparently she was as turned on herself as I was by the prospect and then she twirled around and went back to the house as if nothing had happened. I was still a bit embarrassed but then the more I thought about it the hornier I got. Mmmmmmm, I couldn't wait until their next party!! forbidden for god knows what reason at our public pool) but it still bared the vast majority of my teen ass.

By now I had quite worked hard and acquired a deep tan and when I looked at myself in the mirror I couldn't help but be pleased with what I saw. Sure, my boobs could always be bigger, but overall my figure was a lot sexier than it was last summer and I enjoyed the way the boys would look at me whenever I walked around in my bikini or cutoffs pretending not to notice their lewd stares. My dad had commented as well how great my ass looked especially. Of course, he got to see ALL of it! Jon came by while I was lying on my stomach but with my head turned I could tell he was once again staring at my ass. Well I wasn't about to complain. After all, wasn't that the whole point of wearing next to nothing - to draw attention to yourself? The only thing better would have been to be totally nude but I had little doubt as to how long I would be around should I try that little stunt!

"Hey Jon," I called to him in a soft voice, "See anything you like?"

Jon never looked away for a second and didn't appear to be the least bit embarrassed having been caught looking at me that way. He just grinned and squatted down next to me.

"Wow! That's a damn fine ass you've got there Kelly," he said. "Yep, you're certainly looking hot this summer!"

Then he just smiled and walked away leaving me wondering if I would ever hear from him again. Was he just being nice to me or was there a spark of interest in the tone of his voice? Was he really enamored with my butt or was he just trying to get past me without offending me? Did that bulge in his crotch twitch a little when he saw me or as that just wishful thinking on my part?

We didn't cross paths for the rest of the day as he was surrounded with the older cheerleaders that seemed to swarm to him like flies. Well, I was pretty sure that none of them could blow him the way I would if he would just give me a chance!

I left the pool a bit disappointed to say the least.

2. Mom Makes Me Feel Better

My mom must have recognized something was up when I got back home.

"Hey baby, what's the story?" she asked, "You look like the whole world is against you today or something."

I just shrugged at her and headed up the stairs to my bedroom to change. I untied my top and let it drop from my boobs to the floor where it was quickly joined by my bottoms. I stood in front of my mirror and looked myself over critically. I doubt there is a teenage girl in the world that likes what she sees when she looks in the mirror but I had to grudgingly admit it wasn't all that bad. My hair was a wreck but what could you expect after having it tied back in the hot sun all day?

I cupped my boobs like I was weighing out two tomatoes, wishing they were more like two grapefruits! My breasts were firm and perky with average size nipples and a nice profile, they were just too small to satisfy me. My dad was always trying to make me feel better about them, telling me a handful was just perfect - why waste any more? To be honest, I had never heard a complaint from any boy that I had ever dated but then I doubt that really means anything since so long as it has a nipple on it and he could touch it, I think your average horny-toad boy would be happy as could be!

My pussy, all white in a small triangle where my bikini barely hid it from the sun, was clean shaven without any redness or bumps from shaving. I found that so long as I shaved every day it was OK but if I let it go for more than a couple of days it would get all irritated and ugly after I shaved it back off again. I don't know how long I had been standing there when I heard something from the door behind me. I looked around and there was my mom giving me the once-over herself.

"You know Kelly, you're quite a pretty girl," she said with a smile. I loved my mom, even if I knew she was telling me what I needed to hear to make me happy.

"Oh Mommmmmm," I sighed, rolling my eyes as I huffed.

Accepting compliments has never been one of my strong points and it embarrassed me a bit to hear her tell me I was pretty. Funny, but it never bothered me when a boy told me I was pretty or what not. What else would they be telling me when their goal was to get in my pants? From my mom it came from the heart and meant so much more to me.

3. Jon Calls Me

My mom gave me a kiss and left the room. I threw on some clothes and went down to help her with dinner. Imagine my surprise when the phone rang and my mother answered only to give me a sly grin and a wink. My god, it was Jon!!

At the sound of his voice all thoughts about telling him to stick his dick in a meat grinder suddenly vanished and my pussy felt twinge as I imagined him at the other end of the phone. He asked me out to see a movie!!! Needless to say I agreed, too quickly upon retrospect but who cared at the moment? I hung up the moment and squealed like a six year-old at Disneyworld. My mom just shook her head and smiled at me.

"So, I take it he asked you out tonight?" she said with her hands on her hips. I just nodded as I couldn't talk from the excitement I felt. "So I assume you plan to get laid tonight then?"

"Mommmmmm!" I said in mock exasperation.

My mom just winked at me and turned back to the stove. I just squealed again and ran up to my room to start getting ready. My hair needed major surgery and my pussy needed a fresh shave. I wanted to be smooth as a baby's little bottom for Jon!

I picked out a tight yellow tank top that contrasted with my tan nicely and a pair of my favorite cutoffs ripped high such that my ass was clearly visible. Except for my sneakers that was the extent of my wardrobe - no bra or panties tonight! If Jon couldn't take the hint then there was no hope for the boy!

Later at supper I was so excited I couldn't hardly eat. My dad, home now from work, looked over at my mom who I caught winking back at my dad and rolling her eyes my way as she did.

"So Kelly," my dad said slowly, "What's your plans with this Jon boy tonight?"

"Daddy!" I scolded him, "He's not a boy, he's eighteen. Besides, you know perfectly well what my plans are for him!"

My dad chuckled at that. Yes, if anyone did, he certainly knew!

"So what's the matter, daddy's cock doesn't satisfy you enough?"

"Oh daddy! You know better than that!" I said, slapping him on the shoulder playfully. I tried to give him my patented "little girl" look and held his arm in my hands as I looked up into his eyes. "You made me feel so special last night."

Indeed he had! There was nothing compared to being in my dad's arms with his cock deep inside of me. It made me feel so loved and secure, like nothing else in the world could. When he would cum in me later I knew I had satisfied him in a way that only his daughter could and it made me feel wonderful knowing he respected me enough to give a part of himself to me. It was hard to explain to him that all I wanted from Jon was a good old fashioned fucking!

I didn't care if Jon respected me or not when he fucked me and came in me, I just wanted to be his slut and feel sexy knowing I was hot enough to make him cum. There was sex for intimacy - like with my father, and there was sex just for the fun of it - like what I use to do with Kevin. Now I wanted to just have some old-fashioned fun with Jon. It didn't mean anything so far as my relationship with my father. My dad was my father, not a boyfriend or lover and I knew that would always be his little girl, no matter how old I got or what I did.

My mom stepped in at that point. "OK you two, don't start something you don't have time to finish. Besides Kelly, isn't that your new boy-toy pulling into the driveway now?

4. The Movie Theater

Sure enough, by the time I looked out the window Jon was getting out of the car to come to the door to pick me up. When I opened the door his eyes quickly looked me over from top and bottom and I could have sworn I heard a low whistle but he quickly regained his composure.

I was about to leave when my dad made an appearance. I looked up at him and frowned but he insisted on seeing Jon before we left. They introduced themselves and shook hands. My dad just smiled and started to leave but then turned and called back to him.

"Now remember son, that's my little girl. Don't do anything I wouldn't do with her!"

My face must have turned beet red with that little remark. I was sure Jon noticed but he probably assumed, wrongly, that I was embarrassed by a father being overprotective of his only daughter. Imagine what Jon might have said if he knew that in effect, my dad had just encouraged him to fuck his daughter instead! From the way he kept glancing at me, somehow I didn't think he needed any encouragement. Girls don't dress for a date the way I was dressed unless they had one thing in mind.

It was just short drive to the theater and on the way we just made some small-talk about school. Since he was a year ahead of me he had different teachers than I did but he knew most of mine from his previous year. We compared notes and had some laughs at the good, the bad, and the ugly of the school teaching staff.

Soon we arrived and like a gentleman, Jon paid for everything which was good since I hadn't brought a purse and there was no way I was carrying anything in these shorts as tight as they were. Actually, not bringing a purse was an oversight, not one I typically made. It never hurt to carry a little makeup and "girl" things with you but tonight I was so excited at the prospect of getting laid that I left home without my purse.

Upon entering the theater Jon led me to the back row off to the side of the projector so the idiot in the projector booth couldn't see us. At first we just sat there eating popcorn and watching the trailers and advertisement. Once the lights went down for the last previews and then finally the main feature, it didn't take long for Jon to take things to another level.

The theater was relatively new with arm rests that folded up into the seat, allowing the two of us to sit next to each other with nothing in between. Jon put his arm around me and so I shifted myself closer to him and then leaned in towards him. I felt his hand grip my bare upper arm and his fingers traced over my arm lightly, slowly working their way more inside until his hand would "accidentally" brush against my boobs.

I knew Jon had long since noticed my lack of undergarments from the way his eyes kept wandering from the screen to my chest. My boobs were not very large but my nipples could get hard as bullets when I got excited and the thin cotton tank top material did nothing to hide the fact.

After a while I put my hand on his leg, letting my fingers slide just a little between his legs, just enough to tease him but not to actually touch anything too sensitive. I noticed his jeans had quite a bulge and I imagined what his cock must be like underneath all that heavy denim.

I couldn't help but be a bit disappointed when that was as far as we went in the theater. I'd masturbated earlier in the day thinking of sucking his cock during the movie so I was sort of hoping he would at least fondle my boobs! Jon's reputation was not exactly one of being shy nor did he believe in abstinence from the stories I had heard about him so I was a little curious what was going on.

As we left the theater I found myself wondering why he hadn't tried anything and was actually beginning to consider having to make the first move - something I hate to do with any guy but sometimes necessary if you were going to get what you wanted.

5. The Corn Field

After the movie we got back to his car and it was then that things finally started to warm up. His car was an older model with a bench seat so I was able to scoot over and sit next to him. He put his arm around me again as we drove away from the theater but still kept his hands off my breasts, which were dying to be touched by then.

I noticed he was heading out of town and I was curious where we were going but I decided to let him do whatever he wanted. After a few miles he pulled over on an old country road and then turned into a dirt farm road leading into a corn field. The corn towered well above the car by this time of the year and when we were out of sight from the road he stopped the car and turned off the engine.

Jon turned in the seat towards me and looked me in the eye. "Well Kelly, what do you think of this spot?"

I played a bit coy with him at this point, allowing him to make the moves.

"Hmmmmmm... I guess it depends on what you had in mind."

Kevin just laughed softly at that saying, "Oh c'mon Kelly, you can quit the innocent schoolgirl crap. You've got quite a rep for being be the best fuck in school so what's it going to be, keep playing around or shall we both get down to doing what we came here for?"

I tried to act like I had no idea what he was talking about but he wouldn't have any of it.

"Ahhhhhh, you don't fool me Kelly. I saw the way you looked at my crotch today at the pool. Face it, you want to be fucked as badly as I want to screw you so how about showing me that slutty side of you that you try to hide so well as school?"

Well, I shouldn't have been shocked or even surprised at his outburst and I wasn't. He was right; the reason that I wanted Jon to ask me out was because I heard he had the biggest cock in school and I wanted a piece of it. Besides, it's not exactly like I was the school virgin. I knew the guys talked about me and who wouldn't be proud of the reputation I had with them.

I thought for a moment and decided what the hell, what was there to lose? Besides, I was horny as hell after sitting in a theater for almost two hours thinking about sucking his cock the whole time so why waste any more time?

Neither of us said another word after that, we both knew what we wanted. At first we just kissed and made out but Jon had loftier ideas. It wasn't long before his hands began to wander and he started to play with my boobs. Essentially, he groped me.

I lifted up my tank top up and over my head so I was topless, exposing my perky breasts to him. His large hand was able to cup one of my small boobs and he squeezed it, rubbing my nipple between his fingers as he did.

"Hmmm, nice tits Kelly. Just the perfect size. Damn your nipples get hard!"

I licked my lips as my body tingled from the attention he was giving me. "Why don't you suck on them? Go on... taste my nipples with your tongue."

Jon leaned over and took almost half my boob into his mouth and sucked on it hard. I pushed him off just a bit. "Hey you little wildcat, not so fast. Be gentle with them. They like to be spoiled."

Jon licked all around my nipples and then softly took each in his mouth and pulled on them, teasing the tips with his tongue. It was still pretty warm even this late at night but I could feel goose-bumps raising all over me as he sucked and licked my boobs for the longest time.

Looking down I could see a huge bulge in his jeans. He was certainly hard and my god, he must be huge! I touched his cock though the denim and rubbed it up and down. I knew he wanted me to reach in and bring it out but I had another idea.

"What do you say let's do it outside?" I proposed to him. "It's a great night and I've never been fucked in the middle of a cornfield before!"

Jon didn't waste any time and we both got out of the car in seconds. The moon was full that night, so much so that I think that I could have read a book by moonlight. Since I was wearing nothing but my cutoffs and sneakers at this point, with the right moonlight I knew he had a great view of me. If anything, the dim light seemed to accentuate my tan even more making the small tan lines on my boobs clearly visible.

Jon leaned back against the car hood as I took a position about six feet in front of him where I started to tease him. I played with my bare boobs for a few minutes for him and then I unsnapped my shorts and unzipped them, leaving them on though. I continued to play with my breasts while I swiveled my hips slowly for him. I turned around so my back was to him and leaned over with my legs straight, giving him a great view of my ass, which I wiggled suggestively for him.

"Ready to see more?" I asked.

He didn't have to say a word, the look of pure animal lust on his face told me everything I needed to know. I stayed leaning over and pulled my shorts down to my ankles, revealing my firm bare ass to him. I was sure he could see the thin white stripe that went down my ass where my small thing bottom normally covered me.

I put one hand on each half of my butt and spread my cheeks for him so he could see my pussy and asshole better. I looked around and saw him rubbing his crotch in anticipation so I called out to him, "If you like what you're seeing so much, why not show me what you do with yourself when you get all hot and horny?"

Jon didn't miss a beat. Acting as if it was the most natural thing in the world to do, he immediately opened his jeans and dropped them, along with his dark-colored boxers, to the ground. He pulled his shirt up and over his head and then stood there naked in front of me, a huge hard-on sticking out from his crotch like a flagpole. He never took his eyes off of me as he started to stroke his cock slowly.

God he was so hot! I love to watch a guy playing with himself, particularly when he is doing it to himself because I was turning him on so much. For whatever reason, it seems that most many guys are too self- conscious about touching themselves to do it in front of a girl so I love it when guy like Jon had the self-confidence (or overblown ego, too soon to tell) to masturbate in front of me.

Inspired by his lovely cock, I stepped out of my shorts and put one hand between my legs to do a little bit of self-gratification myself! I started to run my fingers up and down my slick pussy slit, finally pushing them one by one into my warm pussy until I had three of them working inside of me.

For the next few minutes I just finger-fucked myself while he continued to stroke his erect cock. As much as I loved to touch myself, God I wanted that cock soooooo badly! Finally I couldn't hold back anymore so I stood up, walked up to him, and pushed his hand aside so that I could hold his cock with both of my hands. Damn he was bigger than he looked in the night! My hands could barely go around it and it felt as solid and hard as a tree branch.

"Here, let me take care of you," I suggested to him.

With the dirt road, if you could call it a road, beneath us I wasn't anxious to kneel down and get all dirty so instead, I just bent my knees and crouched down in front of him until my face was level with his cock. He felt so good in my hand, so hard and warm! His crotch was covered in a dense patch of black curly pubic hair and I could smell his musky crotch odor as I put my face up closer to him. I could've taken him then and there but I wanted to hear him beg for it first.

"Do you want me to suck it Jon?" I asked softly, as if it was the most natural thing to ask at that moment - and indeed, maybe it was! "Just tell me what you want me to do Jon... I'll do anything you ask, you know... anything at all... anything."

"Oh god Kelly," Jon said in a husky voice, "You're incredible."

He hesitated, as if he didn't believe my promise to him but then he went for it and said, "Suck my cock. Yeah, suck my dick you fucking slut!"

As for me, I was only too happy to oblige. Finally, after hearing from the other girls how great his cock was, here I was getting it for myself in my own mouth!

Mmmmmmm, it was everything I had dreamed of and more. He wasn't the longest I had ever seen but he was incredibly thick and hard. I licked it from the tip to the base, first on one side and then the other, and then finally along the curved back side where I knew so many guys were so sensitive.

I was rewarded with moans from Jon, which just encouraged me to do more for him. Spreading my mouth wide I took him in slowly. As I did I licked his cock inside of my mouth until finally I had him all in and I was licking the tops of his balls. I sucked hard on him, savoring his huge cock. Jon moaned almost continuously now as I stroked him in and out of my mouth. He was starting to swell again but I didn't want him to come yet so I squeezed the base of his cock and took my mouth of him.

I stood up and looked up into his eyes. "Alright Jon, it's your turn now. Show me how good you can eat pussy."

Jon grinned at me and from just the way he acted U had a feeling I was by means his first pussy to taste. Excited at the prospect of being eaten well, I jumped up on the hood and put my feet on the bumper. Spreading my legs wide, I used both hands to spread my pussy apart to give him a great view of me.

Jon put his hands on my inner thighs and pushed my legs even further apart. Lifting my legs, he draped the over his shoulders which kept me from sliding down the hood. His hard cock was sticking out straight from his hairy crotch as he leaned over and put his head smack between my thin legs.

Even though I was ready for it, I still jumped a little as his tongue made its first contact with my waiting clit. He put his lips around it and pulled gently, tickling it with his tongue at the same time. Yep, mine was certainly not the first pussy he had licked!

Mmmmmmm, unlike so many boys in school, this guy actually knew what he was doing! I was curious for just a moment how many of those cheerleaders he had tasted but my thoughts soon returned to reality as Jon tongued me for what seemed hours, even running his outstretched tongue inside of my pussy which felt like a small cock was fucking me. His tongue actually felt longer than some of the cocks I had felt in the past!

Jon finally pulled his head out from between my legs and looked up at me. His face was wet with my pussy juices and in the moonlight I could see it glistening, making him look so sexy and hot I just wanted to jump him right then and there!

"That's enough of this shit," he growled, "Time to fuck you... ride my cock you little bitch."

I giggled a little at that while Jon got up and sat on the hood next to me. I turned and straddled him, kneeling such that I was facing him with his hard cock just inches below my soaking wet pussy. He was so close to me that I could almost feel his cock drawing me to him like a string magnet next to steel.

"Hmmm, are you sure you're ready for my pussy?" I teased him with a sensuous look, "Well, you had better be 'cause I'm going to ride your cock like it's never been ridden before!"

Jon just grinned at my threat and so I reached down and held his cock in place while I lowered myself quickly down onto him. Again, I was ready yet I involuntarily gasped as his huge head split me wide apart like the Jaws of Life opening a crushed car.

Oh my god, I thought he was going to tear me in half! Fortunately I was so soaking wet his dick slid into me without that much trouble. Besides, I was so damn horny at the moment for some cock that it didn't matter how much it hurt at first, I just wanted a hard dick in me.

I felt like I was going to explode from the way he filled me so completely. He was incredible; it was easily the best cock I had ever had, even better than my dad's. Finally, I had him all of it in me and so I rested all of my weight onto him, driving his dick into me as far as I could.

"Damn you're fucking tight Kelly!" Jon exclaimed, "If I didn't know better I would've thought I was your first!"

Despite my best efforts I couldn't help but laugh a little at that one. He was far from my first and yet I prided myself on my tight pussy. I rarely used a dildo, normally masturbating with just my fingers so the only "outside" thing that typically penetrated my pussy was a cock - the very thing it was designed to accommodate.

Frankly, I don't think I could take all the credit though. As thick as he was he probably would have been tight in my mom's pussy! After one child and decades of heavy dildo usage, some of which were quite monstrous, her pussy wasn't anywhere near as tight as mine, one of the reasons I knew my dad liked to fuck me although a minor reason at that.

His cock was throbbing in me as I started to rock on it, forcing it to stroke in and out of me in the process. I looked down to see his thick bush of pubic hair against my smooth crotch and it tickled me as bit as it rubbed against me. His cock would disappear inside of me and I loved to watch it as it reappeared and then re-entered me again and again. I reached down to massage my clit as I kept rocking back and forth on his wonderful cock.

God, it was everything I had been hoping for - and more!! Finally I came; a long, surging orgasm that made every inch of me cry out as if I had been soaked in gasoline and someone had lit a match. I cried out louder as I closed my eyes and allowed waves of the purest of pleasures roll through me, surging out from my cock-filled pussy like waves spreading out in a pond when a rock is dropped in. The just kept on, a relentless flow of one after another, each more intense than the one before it as I squeezed his cock tight with my pussy.

"Oh god!" I cried out, loud enough for anyone nearby to hear but that wasn't much of a worry a far out in the middle nowhere as we were. "Yeah, that's it Jon!... Fuck me!... Dammit fuck me harder."

Jon grabbed my ass with both hands. He was on the edge of the hood and he slid down to his feet, holding me up so he never stopped fucking me. He stood in front of the car, lifting me up and down on his cock like he was in the gym pumping iron. Well, those workouts must have done some good because he held me up like I didn't weigh anything, stroking himself in and out of me.

I had my arms around his neck and my breasts rubbed against his hard chest, making my nipples tingle yet again. Jon was starting to pant and he lowered himself so I could stand on my feet and lift myself off his cock. The feel of his cock leaving me was incredibly intense - God I wanted it back in me!

"Turn around... That's it, now put your hands on the hood," he commanded. "Good, now spread those pretty legs and let me see that nasty cunt."

I did everything just as I was told and was rewarded by the head of his cock once again seeking the entrance to my starving pussy. He rubbed himself against me, not quite entering me but running his wet cock up my ass crack and then back to my clit. I couldn't take this for much longer - I HAD to have it in me.

"Oh for crying out loud fuck me you bastard!" I exclaimed out of sheer frustration, "Stop playing around and put that cock in me!"

Jon just laughed, being a bit of a bastard now as he withheld what I wanted so badly. It was cruel; he knew I wanted to be fucked and even though he undoubtedly wanted it as well, he controlled his cock and he was obviously enjoying making me beg for it.

"You want more of this dick, eh bitch? You like a fat dick... don't you. God you really are nothing but a little fucking whore, aren't you! I wonder just how many guys have fucked this little cunt? Eh? From what I hear, quite a few. Well my little whore, I'm going to fuck you like one now!"

It may sound like he was being nasty now that I describe it yet as horny as I was, he could have called me anything and I wouldn't have cared so long as he fucked me. I turned my head and wiggled my ass against his engorged cock. "Well, I can take anything you've got so quit stalling and fuck me. Fuck me you asshole!"

Without any warning Jon suddenly lunged forward and drove his big cock completely into my open pussy in one rapid movement. Totally unprepared, I gasped and then cried out, both from the sharp pain and then from the intense the pleasure of his dick in me. Damn it, he still felt huge as he split me apart like I was in childbirth.

Usually after being fucked for a while my pussy would be more open and easier to penetrate but not with his fat cock. His incredible surge violated my poor pussy as if I was being raped and it overwhelmed me to the point it set off another orgasm. I moaned loudly, crying out loudly as I begged him over and over to fuck me. It was like a relentless chant of "Fuck me", yelling it out over and over again as it was all I could think of, all I wanted, all I HAD to have.

The world closed in and all I could see and feel was Jon and his cock as my orgasm aged on within me. It was so intense it didn't last long but I wanted more and fortunately Jon was willing to give it to me.

Jon was stroking even faster and harder now. "Alright Kelly, it's my turn to cum now. Get ready - I'm going to fill that tight pussy with more spunk than you've ever had before!"

Damn him, I wanted it so bad! All I could think about was the feeling of his tremendous cock splitting me apart one moment and then withdrawing and letting me close together again the next. I was rocking back and forth in rhythm with his thrusts, driving him into me even deeper each time.

Suddenly he drove himself hard into my ass and held himself there, his hands on my waist, pulling me into him even more.

"Oh god I'm cumming!" he bellowed, "Take it Kelly, take it all!"

Suddenly a hot flash exploded inside of me as his first stream of cum emerged and was deposited in me. Then another and yet another, each like a small grenade exploding with a burst of heat deep inside of me.

I could feel his cock pulsing as it forced even more of his sperm into me. Finally he stopped and just held himself in me, breathing heavily. I moved forward to let his cock slip out of me and then turned around and squatted down so I could suck his cock. He jerked involuntarily as my tongue lightly touched his sensitive organ.

I took him into my mouth and savored the flavor of the mixture of our cum, served on a fat cock. I could feel his cum starting to drain from me and run down my leg. Using my fingers, I scooped it off my leg and put in into my mouth, enjoying my "dessert". His cock slowly softened in my mouth and finally I let him loose and stood up in front of him, a huge grin on my face.

"Well Jon, did I live up to my reputation?" I asked coyly, feeling a bit of cum dripping from the side of my mouth.

"Fuck Kelly, you are without a doubt the best piece of ass in the entire school!"

I smiled as it made me feel really special to hear him say that. I knew Jon had fucked practically all of the cheerleaders, if not all of them, and I loved it that he thought I was a better lay than any of those bitches. Well, I may not be able to do a cartwheel but I certainly knew how to suck and fuck!

We put our clothes back on and got back in the car. I could still feel some cum on my leg and more was draining from my pussy, which was creating a large wet spot in the crotch of my shorts. My nipples looked like bullets pressing through my top. If a cop stopped us now there would be no doubt what I'd been up to!

It only took about ten minutes to get back to my place. I gave him a quick kiss and got out of the car to go back into the house. My parents were asleep so I just dropped my clothes next to the bed and laid down, thinking back over the events of the night.

I touched myself and shivered as my clit was still swollen and sensitive. I lay there for a while, masturbating slowly as I remembered how Jon's fat cock felt so wonderful inside of me. I eventually brought myself to another orgasm and then was finally able to go to sleep.

Despite the great sex, Jon and I never went out again after that night. I had a feeling going into the evening that I was going to be just a notch on his belt, something to brag about with the guys. Well I didn't care as he was a notch in my belt as well!

One thing I WAS sure of - from the way he fucked me I knew my reputation was going to be even better now!

(Jan 17) Chapter 37: High School Chemistry Class

Robin (16)
John - my dad (37)

Most people don't remember their high school chemistry class as being a lot of fun. Well, they didn't have Robin as their lab partner!

1. About Robin

A lot of people have asked me if I use to tease my teachers or otherwise fool around in school. The reality is that I did a lot more at church and community functions than I ever did at school. My goal was to be a teacher someday and I especially wanted to teach in my old school district so it really wouldn't have been to my advantage to have anyone on the staff associating me with something controversial when I was a student. Despite the sensationalism in the media, the vast majority of teachers do NOT have sex with their students and doing so is NOT considered a career enhancing move. Of course, that doesn't mean I was exactly an angel all the time either. Far from it.

In my senior year of high school I took an advanced chemistry class. I wasn't looking forward to it but my guidance counselor said it would look good on my college application. As it turned out, there would be more chemistry in the class than the syllabus described, although I doubt it was the type that the school intended.

The classroom was really more of a lab. Square tables were set up two across the room and four deep with spots for four students at each one. Each one had a top made of some dark black impenetrable material with a sink in the middle and connections for gas for the burners. A number of drawers with locks were built in for us to store our materials in.

Instead of chairs or desks, we had to sit on these tall and uncomfortable stools with no backs and just a small round top. It was one of the older classrooms in the school, not much different from when our parents went to school here. In other words, long overdue for remodeling.

On the first day of class I was running late and at first I thought the class was full. Actually, it was just the front of the classroom where the door was that was filled and the last row of stools was empty. I found myself seated at one of the lab tables in the rear of the classroom next to Robin.

Robin was one of the hottest girls in school with a well-earned reputation as the school whore. To me there is a big difference between being a slut and a whore. As a slut, I used my body to MY advantage to get the things I wanted. On the other hand, Robin was a whore who just let boys use her for their own pleasure. I suspected she used drugs which might explain why she allowed herself to be so degraded.

That said, Robin was beautiful. She was slim with an olive complexion that bespoke her Italian heritage along with long dark wavy hair. While I didn't think I was all that bad looking, sitting next to her I had to admit she was in a class of her own. Robin had fantastic slim legs that I would have killed for, a shapely ultra-tight ass, and perfect C-cup breasts.

To top it all off, Robin knew just how to show everything off to its fullest advantage. Her skirts were always as short as the dress code allowed and usually shorter. I don't think I ever saw her once in a dress or skirt that even came close to her knees, no matter what the weather or circumstances.

The few times Robin wore jeans they looked like they'd been shrink wrapped on her. Now I love tight pants myself so I know just how difficult it can be to get them all the way up. Typically it involves a process where I lay on my back on my bed while sucking in my stomach and pulling them up as hard as I could. In Robin's case I hadn't a clue how she got into hers or what kept the seams from bursting once they were on.

Robin's blouses were always a size (or two) too small and they were usually cut low enough to show off lots of her ample cleavage. If not, she would leave enough buttons undone to accomplish the same effect. Usually she wore a bra but I think it was more to show off the bra than for any support it might offer. All of them looked like they came straight from Victoria Secret.

Not only did Robin dress provocatively, she knew how to act the part as well. She had this subtle way of crossing her legs and letting her skirt "accidentally" ride up practically to her ass, acting nonchalant yet knowing full well every boy in the room was staring at here - not to mention more than a few girls and some of the teachers. Then she would switch legs and briefly flash a pair of sexy panties or a miniscule thong. More than once I would have sworn she wasn't wearing anything at all!

By virtue of our seating arrangement Robin and I were lab partners so we talked in class but outside of the classroom we never socialized. She hung around with the "bad" crowd and never went to church so far as I knew. I didn't smoke or use drugs which also put us in different social circles.

In comparison I tried my best to be your typical "church girl" to the general population although I had a pretty solid reputation among the boys if which I was quite proud. They knew, many from personal experience, that I was willing to suck just about any cock I could get my hands (and mouth) on. It was a bit of a naughty reputation but one I was actually quite proud of and had worked hard to get!

I had no doubt that Robin knew all about me but we never discussed anything along those lines and since our social lives were so diverse it didn't really matter anyway. I think we pretty much had sex with different guys so we couldn't even compare notes.

So far as my school wardrobe went I liked to be a bit suggestive but in comparison to Robin I was a downright conservative catholic schoolgirl. For me, it was all part of my strategy where while I didn't mind having a slutty reputation with the boys but at school I wanted to maintain a solid reputation. Of course that' didn't mean away from school I didn't have more fun with the way I dressed. One of my favorite hobbies was teasing boys so when my younger cousin Kristen and I would go shopping at the mall, all bets were off.

My standard school "uniform" was a tight pair of faded jeans with a cotton blouse or fleece. On occasion when I was feeling particularly randy I wore a skirt but usually within a few inches of my knees and wore panties instead of a thong.

Once away from school I "lost" the panties whenever possible. I especially enjoyed going to church in nothing but a light dress with nothing underneath - no hose, slip, bra or panties. There was something about shaking hands with the minister after the service knowing I was completely exposed under the thin material of my dress that made me tingle every time.

Our chemistry teacher, Mr. Miller, was relatively new and this was only his second year as a full-time teacher. He wasn't married and really not all that much older than some of his older students. Heck, I'd fucked guys twice his age! He wasn't bad looking either and I have to admit I spent more than one chemistry class dreaming about being held up after class for some "personal" tutoring.

It wasn't just me that was interested in him either. Mr. Miller definitely had Robin's attention and she made no effort whatsoever to hide the fact. She was "available" and there was no way he couldn't have known it. Robin had the advantage that everyone already knew she was a whore so she didn't care that we all saw what she was doing. Actually, I got a kick out of watching this little cat and mouse game between her and Mr. Miller where she was the naughty feline and he was the poor mouse being teased unmercifully by her.

Mr. Miller liked to lecture from the back of the room. It was something he did in all of his classes but in our class he had the added entertainment of Robin who would flash her legs and boobs as far as she could get away with. She was always going up to him when he was at his desk to ask a question, making sure she was leaning over as far as possible so he got a great view of her awesome breasts down her unbuttoned blouse.

I had to hand it to Mr. Miller though, he dealt with everything Robin threw at him extremely well and always in a professional manner. He never responded in any way to Robin's treachery, not even when she got carried away and literally rubbed her breasts against his shoulder as she would lean from behind to show him something.

Mr. Miller was no dummy and obviously knew the best way to deal with someone like Robin was to ignore her because it was his attention she really wanted. I'm sure she wanted his attention AND his cock if she could have it. I had it on pretty good authority that Robin had fucked several of the teachers in her high school career and there were even some rumors about her back in middle school.

Academically she wasn't the brightest bulb on the string yet somehow she made the honor roll every semester. Robin may not have the highest SAT scores but that didn't mean she was dumb! Sometimes "street smarts" can trump "book smarts".

2. Class Pervert

The second semester had just started and once we were seated I thought that I heard someone messing around in the small lab room directly behind our classroom.

There was a door leading to it right behind the lab table where Robin and I sat with blinds that were always shut. I'd taken a brief peek in there shortly after classes had started to quench my curiosity but since then I'd never ventured back into the room. It was not much more than an oversize closet with some lab equipment and a sink.

Today was the first sign I'd ever seen or heard that anyone ever used the mysterious back room. The door opened briefly and Mark, the senior class nerd, stepped out and went to Mr. Miller's office.

Mark was so far ahead of everyone else that apparently he spent most of his time in self-study classes since he'd already aced all the regular classes in his junior year. Mark was the perfect image of the school nerd; short and dorky looking, shy to the point of being afraid of girls, and always managed to dress funny without even trying.

It would've shocked me if he wasn't still a virgin as I'd never heard of anyone ever going out with him. He was always quiet as a church mouse and after the first week or so I had forgotten all about him. One day when we were getting ready for class, Robin looked at me and giggled a bit.

"What's so funny Robin?? I asked. I looked down at my clothes and asked, "OK, did I spill something on my blouse?"

Robin giggled again and shook her head. Then I noticed that her eyes were pointing to the rear lab room. She leaned over and whispered to me, "Did you know that nerd Mark has been watching us from the lab room? I've noticed that the blinds move a little whenever I let my skirt ride up."

I looked at her with wide eyes and said, "You've got to be kidding! What do you think he's doing?"

"Well," Robin replied with a sly grin, "I think the little pervert's jerking off while watching the two of us through the blinds."

Then she gave me a sly grin and asked, "So what do you say? Want to help me tease the stupid peeping Tom?"

"What do you mean?" I asked.

Robin gave me a truly wicked grin saying, "Just make sure you wear a short skirt tomorrow and follow my lead."

The class was about to begin so we had to be quiet. Sitting there trying to pay attention to Mr. Miller, my mind kept wandering to what Robin had said. I had to admit I was intrigued and during the rest of the class I felt more than a bit turned on as I dreamed up various possibilities. It didn't hurt that Robin was going to be involved. As much as I loved to tease boys, even I could probably learn some lessons from Robin.

3. Home With My Mom

After school, I couldn't wait until my mom got home from work. My mom was my closest friend and I shared everything with her. Who taught me to masturbate? My mom. Who was the first person I told when I lost my virginity? My mom. Who got me on the pill immediately afterwards? Do I need to say? She loved to wait up for me when I was out on a date so I could tell her all about it - the more details the better.

It was like she was reliving her high school years through me but I didn't mind. There are things I can't tell even my closest girlfriends at school but with mom, nothing is off limits. My mom had sex with her dad as well as with her sister so she was able to relate to my situation with my dad. Of all the people I knew, my mother was one the most wise and moral of anyone and I trusted her advice and usually took her suggestions - and later wished I had those times when I didn't.

My dad was working late as usual so it was just me and mom for most of the evening. She'd brought home supper which we shared while watching TV in the family room. Both of us had changed out of our clothes and I was wearing one of my dad's newest shirts while she had on a long nightshirt that fell well below her knees.

"You know, your dad's gonna have a fit when he see that on you," my mom teased me, "He's only worn that shirt once."

"I know, why do you think I picked it?" I replied and we both giggled, "Besides, I doubt he'll complain TOO much."

My mom just shook her head in mock resignation. I knew she was just teasing me as after all, she was the one who mentioned my dad had some new shirts in the closet. I loved wearing men's shirts in the evening, even if I took them off when I went to bed. They were loose and comfortable and sometimes I didn't even button them up, depending on my dad's mood for the night.

After some small talk I turned to my mom and told her about Robin's suggestion for me. I told her about Mark and how Robin thought he'd been masturbating in school.

"In school?" my mom said incredulously, "I can't believe anyone would be that stupid. Maybe in the restroom but not in class."

I explained to her how the lab room was isolated in the rear of the class and how the window was protected by the blinds. Even so, I could tell from the look on her face that she still wasn't buying it. I had to admit, I'd never seen anything myself but why would Robin lie about something like that?

"Well, I've heard more than a few things about that girl," my mom huffed, "It wouldn't surprise me that she just wanted to get you in trouble. You know, I was told she was doing it with your old principal - right in his office!"

I just laughed. Everyone in school had heard that one and while Robin would never confirm or deny it, it WAS true that he had resigned under some rather bizarre circumstances so who knows?

"Well, I don't see what harm it could cause," my mom said, finally giving in to me, "Just don't do anything with your teacher - OK?"

I promised her and went over to her chair and gave her a kiss. We hugged and for the rest of the evening we just watched TV while I did some homework. My dad was really running late so I ended up going to bed before he got home so he never got to see me in his shirt. Oh well, maybe the next night?

I slipped in bed and the sheets felt cold against my bare skin but quickly warmed up as the comforter captured my body heat. I was tired but thoughts about the next day kept my mind churning and I felt a familiar twinge between my legs. The more I thought about it, the more excited I was getting and it wasn't about teasing some poor boy.

No, my thoughts were centered around someone else - Robin. God she was so sexy and beautiful. I would've given anything to have a body like hers! Everything I had, she had just a little bit better. Her dark hair was long and natural wavy while mine was to my shoulders and straight regardless of all attempts I'd made. My boobs were slowly appearing but hers were right out of Playboy - full and firm with nipples that always seemed to be poking through her clothes. My figure wasn't all that bad but she was classic with a perfect waist and hips. Her legs belonged on a lingerie package while mine still thin and filling out. Most times I was jealous of her but with the lights out and me laying nude on my bed, I imagined what it would be like to be with her.

4. Masturbating About Robin

Other than my mom and aunt, I'd never had sex with another woman. Sure I've masturbated numerous times with my cousin and friends but we never touched each other when we did it.

I couldn't help but wonder what would it be like to touch Robin, to feel her perfect body pressed up against mine, her large boobs against my own and our pussies pressing up against one another.

As thoughts of Robin's sensational body filled my imagination, my hand moved between my legs and I raised my knees up and spread them apart as I began to touch myself while my other hand slowly caressed my boobs. My finger ran tight little circles around my clit and I gasped when I pushed it inside of my wet pussy, drawing the lubrication up and out to wet my clit more. God it felt so good to touch myself!

As all my friends will testify, I LOVE to masturbate and typically did it at least once or twice a day although more if I was particularly horny. It had nothing to do with whether or not I was getting laid - I just loved to do it. Sometimes I would do myself after a guy fucked me and had fallen asleep or otherwise lost interest after coming. It was more unusual for me NOT to do it in the morning than it was to do it. Unless I had a desperate need to use the bathroom, I almost always masturbated before I even got out of bed. Different people have different times when they are naturally horny. For me, it's right after I've woken up. Sometimes before I rub the sleep from my eyes I already have one hand between my legs!

It didn't take long for me to get myself worked up to the point of having an orgasm. Usually when I cum I am dreaming of being fucked by somebody or sucking some incredible cock but in this case I imagined myself in a 69 with Robin with me on top. As my pussy burst with pleasure I dreamed of Robin's tongue playing on my sensitive clit while my face was pressed between her incredibly soft thighs and my mouth over her well-fucked pussy. As my pussy cum gushed from me, I dreamed of Robin licking it up like a cat at a bowl of milk and then she was cumming as well, drenching my face with her tasty cum.

Once my orgasm had died down I collapsed in bed and panted while I tried to catch my breath. God, what could feel better than an orgasm? Not even drugs could possibly make me feel this good although if it was anything like this, then I could sympathize with drug addicts as I was addicted to my orgasms as much as any heroin addict. The best part was, masturbation was legal and I could do it anytime I wanted!

5. Sucking My Dad's Dick

The next morning I woke up and after my typical masturbation session and washroom duties, I was back in my room debating what to wear. I wasn't really sure what Robin had in mind and again I wondered if she was just pulling some practical joke on me.

Well, I finally decided that I had nothing to lose so I picked out one of my shorter skirts, one that my dad had bought me a little while back when we were out just having some fun. I'd had never worn to school before because it was several inches shorter than the school dress code allowed and it wasn't like the dress code was all that conservative to start with.

With a skirt this short, odds were that someone would be seeing underneath it more than once during the day so I decided to wear a relatively conservative white thong. It wasn't the sexiest I had and covered my ass more than most of my thongs did but it was still better than wearing panties. Going without anything underneath my skirt would've been a lot naughtier but I was out to have fun, not get suspended and sent home before homeroom was over!

Gathering my books and coat, I went downstairs where to my surprise, my dad was sitting at the table drinking coffee.

"Hey Dad!" I said with a note of surprise, "What are you doing here so late?"

My dad grinned and explained that my mom had told him all about my plans for the day. "Well, you couldn't expect me to just go to work without seeing for myself what you chose to wear, could you?" Then he looked me over and smiled when he saw my skirt.

"Hmmm, I remember buying you that one," he said, licking his lips just a bit, "I ALSO remember what you did with it when we got home!"

I giggled at his comments and indeed, I remembered as well how I'd worn it just long enough to strip if off as he watched my every move. My dad got up and eyes, the way his tongue played on his dry lips, the way his fingers stroked gently through my hair. He was my father and he was all mine.

Seeing his dick in front of me was exciting. I reached out with my tongue and touched the tip of his cock, flickering it over it like a snake reaching out to sense its surroundings. The scent of his crotch still smelled of the soap he'd washed it with just an hour earlier but the musk of his sex was beginning to emerge.

I held his cock by the base, his pubic hair peeking out through my fingers as my mouth surrounded his cock and I slowly took it in until about half of him was in my mouth. My lips tightened around him and I began to slowly stroke his cock in and out of my mouth.

"Oh god Kelly, that feels so good," my dad whispered hoarsely to me. He took my head in his strong hands and began to push and pull me into his crotch, setting the pace for my cocksucking.

"Deeper... go deeper," he called out softly to me, "Take it all in your mouth."

At the same time, he pulled my head more sharply into his groin, forcing his cock down into my throat. I almost gagged the first time but I relaxed my throat and took him in. He pulled me head even harder into his crotch, forcing every inch of his cock into my mouth and throat. Just as I was about to cry out for air, he pulled me by the hair away from him and I gasped loudly as I tried to catch my breath.

"Again," he commanded me, "Take it again... ALL of it."

He didn't wait for me to respond but instead forced his cock back into my mouth again. He repeated this several times, pushing his cock into my throat and then allowing me to just catch my breath long enough before shoving it down me again.

"Now suck just the head and stroke me," I barely heard him say.

I did as he said, taking just the head of his stiff cock into my mouth with my lips sealing just down on his smooth shaft under the lip of his head. I started to stroke his cock with my right hand, sliding easily up and down his shaft which was still wet from having just been in my mouth. I just kept stroking him and stroking him, until finally my arm began to tire and so I switched hands.

I was beginning to think he was never going to cum when I heard him groan loudly.

"Don't stop... oh god don't stop now... I'm cumming!" he called out loudly.

Suddenly I felt his hairy crotch pressing into my face and then his cock shot out its first stream of incestual cum into my mouth. I felt the warmth of it striking the back of my throat and beginning to fill my mouth. He kept cumming and cumming as I tried valiantly to keep it all in my mouth but it was too much for me to hold.

I couldn't swallow with his cock in my mouth so I loosened my lips enough to let it spill out and drip down my chin onto the floor below me. Finally he finished and I let his spent cock slip from my mouth. It took several tries to swallow it all down and I knew it would be a while before the strong aftertaste cleared but that didn't matter - I loved it. Looking up at my dad, I saw he was smiling as he stroked my hair away from my face.

"Did you like that daddy?" I asked in a soft voice, "Did I make you happy?"

My dad lifted me up to my feet and looked into my eyes. He smiled and kissed me on the cheek (he was never one for tasting his own cum).

"Oh Kelly... you are the most wonderful daughter any father could ever ask for," he said in a low deep voice.

That was all he said but it was enough for me. I'd pleased my dad and what more could I ask for?

I went to the kitchen to wipe off my chin and then came back to clean up the cum that had dripped to the floor. Grabbing my school stuff, I gave my dad a peck on the cheek and said goodbye.

It was only a few blocks to school so wasn't long before I was walking down the halls, wondering if anyone had a clue as to why I was smiling so broadly so early in the morning. The aftertaste of my dad's cum was still strong in my mouth and it reminded me of how good it had made me feel when he came. I wondered if he was thinking of me know as he was driving to work? All in all, not a bad way to start out the day!

6. Robin Takes My Panties

Even though I wasn't exactly the most conservative dresser in school, this particular skirt was not part of my typical wardrobe and I loved the extra attention I was getting because of it. A couple of the older female teachers gave me a second look and at one point I was sure that I was going to called into the principal's office or something but thankfully nothing happened. I guess they knew me well enough by now to know it was better to ignore me than to call even more attention to me.

Later, as I was walking down the crowded hallway heading towards chemistry class, Robin caught up with me from behind, grabbed my arm and pulled me over against the lockers. Her flash was flushed and she seemed to be extremely excited about something. She looked around and then whispered in my ear softly, "Nice skirt Kelly - can't believe they're letting you wear it. Now hurry up and come into the girl's room with me."

She didn't say anything else but just kept her grip on my upper arm and literally pulled me inside. Once the door had closed I was surprised that we had the place all to ourselves. It was almost time for the bell to ring again so I guess everyone was in class instead. Robin stood back a couple of feet from me, looked me over and nodded in approval.

"Damn Kelly, you really look hot in that skirt! You know, you should wear that one more often."

Before I could answer she just grinned circled around behind me saying, "There IS just one little bitty thing to do before class though..."

With that she reached under my skirt and before I could react, she'd pulled my panties down to my ankles. My eyes widened and for a second I was too shocked to say anything. Robin just laughed at my reaction.

"C'mon, lift your foot Kelly so I can get these off. Hurry up before someone comes in!"

As you might imagine, I was taken by surprise and in my confusion I couldn't help but do what she said so I lifted each foot and then she stood up with my panties dangling from one finger.

"Cute panties Kelly - your mom buy these for you or what? Don't worry, wanna see mine?"

With that she lifted up her own skirt to reveal she was also not wearing anything whatsoever underneath! I couldn't help but notice she was also completely shaved as well with a little rose tattoo right above her clit. I didn't have time to make out what the writing was above it as she turned around to show off her ass.

"So tell me Kelly, you like my ass?" she said with a smirk, "I mean, you look at it so much in class I figured you wouldn't mind a better view."

My cheeks burned as I blushed while she quickly dropped her skirt back down and straightened it out. Robin rolled her eyes and giggled again at me. "Oh c'mon hun, gimme a break. I've heard all about you so don't pull that innocent schoolgirl crap with me. Come on, let's go have some fun in class."

Thankfully she handed my panties to me and I stuffed them in my purse just in time as group of freshmen girls walked in. Robin and I just looked at each other and I couldn't help but giggle nervously. Even though I often went without panties to school, I'd never done it while wearing a skirt this short and I felt incredibly self-conscious as we walked down the hall to the classroom. I could feel my bare ass rubbing against the fabric of my short skirt and knew it wouldn't take much bending over for someone to see that it was all I had on.

Remembering Robin's earlier comment, I was indeed more than a little surprised that neither of us hadn't been sent home today for wearing such revealing outfits. Well, maybe not so surprised about Robin. Most of us figured she had to be screwing the half the school board to get away with some of her antics.

As we entered the classroom, Mark pushed his way by us and disappeared quickly into his little room. Even as abrupt as he had been, I knew he had to have seen our outfits and I had this premonition that he'd be keeping even a closer eye on the two us today.

7. Masturbating in Class

As luck would have it, Mr. Miller announced he would be showing us a really boring film. Actually he didn't say it was boring but those were the only type you see in science classes. "Boring science class movie" - sort of redundant when you think about it. He turned off the lights and the room was dark with the only light coming from the projector located in the middle of the room plus whatever made its way past the window blinds.

My eyes quickly adjusted to the dim lighting and it was enough such that I was able to make out everyone in the room although not enough that I could've read anything. Mr. Miller took a his usual seat at his desk at the front of the room, leaving Robin and me to ourselves in the back of the room.

No sooner had the movie started than Robin turned towards me and shifted on her stool slightly, just enough to pull her short skirt up high on her thighs. I figured she hadn't gotten me to take my panties off just to watch her tease, so with a hint of a smile on my face, I did the same. I crossed over my left leg so she would be able to a full view of my upper thigh as my skirt hiked its way upward.

Normally I would've tugged it down but in this case I shifted my weight which just made it ride up even higher until I was literally sitting bare-ass on the stool.

Robin smiled naughtily and turned directly towards me. Uncrossing her legs, she spread them apart just enough for me to see her crotch.

My eyes were now fully adjusted to the light, enough such that I could just make out the slit between her legs and I felt my own pussy starting to react. Not to be outdone, I did the same with my legs so now both of us had our eyes on the other's crotch. From that point on, I don't think either of us looked at the movie again!

Robin's eyes motioned to the back door and I glanced out the corner of my eye to see what she was trying to point out. Sure enough, there was a slight opening in the blinds and I could have sworn I saw someone peeking between them.

Hmmmmmm, so Mark was indeed watching us... well that just made the game all the more fun! I wondered if Robin was right about Mark. Did he really jerk off behind the door while he watched us? Was he doing it now?

I felt myself getting wetter as I imagined him with his pants unzipped and his stiff cock sticking out, stroking it with one hand while he pushed aside the blinds just enough to witness Robin and me teasing each other. Hopefully he was watching as I love it when a boy jerks off for me, knowing he's all hard and horny because of me. Seeing a guy cum all over his hand as he fantasizes about fucking me has got to be one of the most erotic things a guy can do for me.

I wondered if Mark was going to cum soon, spilling his warm cum over his hand as he imagined himself being with Robin and me, the two of us sucking and fucking him like he always dreamed of but had never experienced.

With these opening moves it was apparent that Robin and I now had a little game of dare going on between us. From the beginning I should have known that I didn't have a chance in one-upping her but even so, I would've still tried.

Robin placed one hand between her legs and started rubbing her bare pussy. Once again I took the dare and now both of us were rubbing our pussies.

Before she could do more, I decided to go one up on Robin and so I slipped my middle finger up into my pussy. It went in easily as I was soaking wet by now and it caused me to shudder slightly, forcing me to stifle what was almost an audible gasp. I quickly looked around to see if anyone had heard anything, not sure if I'd actually done anything or not.

Oh well, I must now have as everyone was watching the film, everyone but Robin that is. I think I even took Robin a bit by surprise; she probably figured she would be the leader in this little game. Not to be outdone, Robin slipped two fingers inside her slutty pussy and then started fucking herself with them slowly.

God she looked so hot! This was crazy... I couldn't believe we were doing this in class!

The film was supposed to last twenty minutes or so and by the clock that meant it was about half over so there wasn't a whole lot of time left. Robin gave me a demure smile which I took as a warning that something else was coming. Sure enough, she pushed her fingers as far as she could into her pussy, left them in for a few seconds, then pulled them out and put them in her mouth to taste her pussy juices. My eyes widened but I wasn't ready to cry uncle yet.

I repeated her moves and both of us grinned at each other, knowing we were being really naughty yet totally thrilled by the experience.

The game continued as I rubbed my clit faster and faster while Robin doing the same. Once again, I couldn't believe we were actually doing this!! On one hand I was a little scared that someone was going to catch us yet at the same time I had this incredibly voyeuristic thrill I get whenever I'm doing something naughty in public. The difference was this was the first time I'd ever done anything this blatant in class.

I'd rubbed myself a little before in class but never actually masturbated like this. The combination of sensual sensations and erotic feelings was driving me to what I knew was going to be a great orgasm and I wasn't about to stop for anything at this point. Hell, I was so horny I think the projector could've stopped and the lights come to give everyone a view and I STILL wouldn't have stopped. There was no way I could be this close to an orgasm and not get there!

I felt my face flush and my pussy began to drip cum onto my stool as I closed my eyes and let the waves of pleasure overwhelm me. It took every bit of willpower not to gasp or cry out when what felt like a jolt of electricity shocked my entire body as my orgasm came to its climax. I pushed my fingers deep into my pussy, dreaming they were a fat cock that was swelling in me as it started to shoot its load of sperm deep inside my welcoming pussy. In the back of my mind I realized I where I was yet instead of dampening my climax it just made it rise even higher. My god, I was climaxing right in the middle of chemistry class!

Slowly the burning sensations died down and the tingling in my pussy faded away. I opened my eyes to see Robin staring at me, her mouth still open slightly after watching me cum. Her eyes were like saucers and when she saw me looking at her a huge grin came to her face. She was licking her lips and I had a feeling that if we had been alone things would have been getting pretty interesting about now.

I let out a deep breath and put my fingers in my mouth, savoring the flavor of my cum. God it tasted so good! As much as I enjoyed male cum, nothing beat the taste of a pussy - especially my own.

The movie was almost over so we straightened ourselves up and adjusted our skirts. By the time the lights had come back on we just sat there looking all cute and innocent as if nothing had happened.

Mr. Miller was eyeing us with this questioning look and I wondered if he suspected anything. I don't see how he could have from the front of the room yet at the same time I could feel the flushness that was still in my face so he had to be wondering what had caused that. Combined with our outfits was he putting two and two together? If so, he never said a word and the rest of the class went on as normal although my pussy was so sensitive I had to keep my legs crossed to keep it happy.

8. After Class

When the class was over we hung around until Mark came out. Robin winked at him and I gave him a sexy smile. Mark blushed instantly before he could look away. He had such a guilty look on his face we knew he must have been watching us. He hurried out of the room but Robin went back into Mark's private little lab room. I followed her wondering what she as going to do. When I entered she was looking though the trash can.

"What in the world are you looking for?" I asked.

'I know it's in here," Robin replied as she rummaged through the paper. Suddenly she grabbed something and cried out, "Ah ha! I knew it!"

I looked at what she was holding - it was just a wadded up piece of paper towel from the dispenser next to the sink.

"What in the world are you talking about Robin?" I asked, totally mystified.

Robin sniffed the paper towel and handed it to me. Immediately I could see it was stained with a creamy, faintly yellow substance and when I smelled it I knew exactly what it was. After all, I'd smelled and tasted it dozens of times in the past, not to mention just this morning. Someone had recently cum in the paper towel and I knew it could've been only one person - Mark. We both looked at each other and broke out laughing.

"Oh my god Kelly," Robin exclaimed, "Well, I don't blame the little pervert for jerking off. Even I couldn't believe the show you were putting on! Damn girl, I never dreamed you would get so carried away you little slut!"

Coming from Robin, that was quite a compliment so I just smiled and looked behind us. The classroom had emptied and nobody was in sight. I reached up to her and planted a kiss on her mouth. She never hesitated, responding back to me with a passion and lust that confirmed what I'd suspected earlier.

We held it for a few seconds and then released, smiling at each other as we both seemed to be a bit surprised at ourselves. Robin gave me a wink saying, "You know Kelly, you're one hot little bitch. You wouldn't be interested in getting together sometime, would you?"

From the sly look on her face and the way she teasingly licked her lips, I knew she wasn't interested in just chatting! I'd never done anything with another girl and so I panicked just a bit.

"Ummmmm... thanks Robin and I appreciate it but no thanks. So... are you going to the restroom to put on your panties?" I asked, looking to change the subject

Robin laughed saying, "Not today, why do you think I only pick classes with male teachers? Besides, you've got me so horny now I'm going to have to take it out on a few of the poor guys today or I may just burst!"

We left the classroom and went our separate ways. I decided the hell with it, why not leave my panties off? To make sure I didn't chicken out I dumped them into a waste can along the way. My heart skipped a beat as I thought about what would happen if someone saw my bare ass but just the same I felt that familiar twinge in my pussy I get whenever I'm doing something naughty.

It had been a lot of fun and even though I doubted we would ever do such a thing again, I would never look at chemistry class the same way again!

I doubted Mark would either!

(Apr 13) Chapter 38: Fun in a Grocery Store

Story codes: f-solo veg exhib
Me (17)
Kristen - cousin (14)

It seems funny to me that of all my diary entries this is the one people seem to have the hardest time believing. Well, I guess I can understand why but that still doesn't make it any less true. Admittedly it represents what was probably our wildest day at the store but that's why I wrote about it and not some other day. This just goes to show you what happens when two sluts try to outdo one another!

1. Growing Up With My Cousin

My Aunt Linda (my mother's younger sister) was divorced early in her marriage. Apparently her husband wasn't as able to deal with her family obligations as he claimed when they got married leaving her with the horrible choice of having to choose between her family and her marriage. She was raised the same as me in that that your priorities in life are God, family and marriage so she really didn't have a choice when it came down to it.

My Aunt's experience definitely served as a lesson to me when it came time to accepting my own marriage proposal. Before I said "yes" I made sure my husband understood my obligations as a wife AND a daughter. Fortunately my husband has dealt with it better than hers did. Steve may not like being included when I am with my dad but at least he isn't afraid to take advantage of the opportunities he now has with my mom!

So anyway, as a result of being a single mother, Aunt Linda and my cousin Kristen pretty much spent most of their time over at our house which made them more like a second mom and younger sister than an aunt and cousin. I never really was as close to my aunt as I was my own mother but when it came to my cousin, we've been inseparable since we were little girls.

whipped puppy. Is he looking at girls like me now and secretly longing for those years when he had so many wasted opportunities?

One look at his wife and it's easy to see why he might be thinking such things. Why is it that so many wives no longer seem to care about themselves after the third child and years of housekeeping? Without hardly realizing it she's been steadily gaining weight until she's now literally twice the girl he'd married.

What was once daily sex is now maybe once a week, or even less leaving masturbation as his primary, if not ONLY, outlet for relieving his sexual frustrations. If she's like what most husbands have told me about their wives then she hasn't sucked his cock in years. Sex is limited to the missionary position and only in bed with the lights out.

With all that I can just imagine the filthy thoughts he must be thinking when he sees a girl like me walking down the aisle. Does he look at my ass and long for one more shot at his glory days, praying for just one last opportunity to feel the warmth of the soft body of a hot young slut like me instead of the nasty rolls of fat his wife now has to offer. Was he wishing he could feel his neglected cock deep inside my tight shaved teenage pussy instead of his wife's stretched-out hairy cunt, now all but hidden between her thick fatty thighs?

As he walks down the aisle does his cock stir as he stares at my boobs, dreaming of how they would feel in his hands as I suck the last drops of cum from the incredible orgasm he'd just experienced thanks to my fantastic blowjob? Does he realize that when he looks at me when he thinks I don't see that I know full well his eyes are on me?

3. The Drive to the Grocery Store

It was the spring of my senior year of high school and I'd just turned seventeen. The often unpredictable weather at that time of year was beautiful today - perfect to shed the heavy winter clothes and break out the slutty shorts and halters.

Preparing for one of my "adventures" was not something I took lightly. Kristen and I both liked to wear skimpy shorts and revealing tops such as t-shirts cut off just below our bust line. The bras and panties remained home of course and all we added was a cute pair of white sneakers. I preferred to tie my hair back in a ponytail to give me that "school girl" appeal.

revealed all the family "secrets" to me (or so I thought at the time). Maybe someday Kristen would join us when she got older.

Little did I know the joke was on me. It would be over another year from today later before I would find out that while Kristen may not have been aware of the sexual ties between our families, she and her mom had their own little "special" mother-daughter relationship going. While I knew they had slept in the same bed since the divorce, I'd never even considered that they might be doing a lot more than just sleeping together when they sharing that bed! I would have been especially surprised had I know how young she was when it started.

Looking at Kristen today, I could easily see why she was so popular with the boys. God she looked hot! While my only sexual experiences to date had been with our mothers, I found myself wondering what it would be like to be with Kristen. I was totally into guys at the time but that didn't mean I didn't wonder once in a while what it would be like to be with another girl. Who better to experiment with than my own cousin with whom I'd already shared so much as it was?

My lustful interest today in Kristen must have been a bit more blatant then I realized because it wasn't long before long Kristen looked over at me and caught me red-handed sneaking a peak at her crotch.

"Hey! Eyes on the road cousin!" she said jokingly.

Despite me irreverent thoughts about what I wanted to do to her pussy, my face flushed just a bit at being caught. Kristen laughed at my reaction saying, "Oh sure Kelly, and since when are you embarrassed looking at me? God I can't wait to have some fun this afternoon!"

I noticed she was starting to rub her breasts as she said that and I knew then that she was in one of her horny moods. Then again, I think she was always in a horny mood sometimes! Hmmmmmm, it was promising to be an interesting day!

"Now don't get too carried away before we even get there girl." I pretended to scold her, "Save some for the store."

Kristen looked at me with a sexy grin on her face and said, "Oh? And why not have some fun now?"

With that she reached her hands under her T-shirt and massaged both of her exposed breasts more vigorously. She closed her eyes and slouched back in the seat a bit. Reaching to her side, she lowered the seat further back such that she was lying back more than sitting in the seat. A low moan escaped from her lips as she pinched

Kristen was watching me, licking her lips as she turned in her seat to get a better view. I love being watched when I masturbate so if anything it just helped me as I closed my eyes and imagined it was Kristen fingering me instead.

"Oh god!" I sighed as I slouched in my seat and rubbed my clit as quickly as I could. Kristen wasn't saying a word but even with my eyes closed I could almost feel her eyes staring at me. God, why doesn't she touch me?

Finally I came and pulled my shorts back into place. I checked myself out in the mirror and other than being a little flushed I looked OK so we both got out and headed into the store holding hands.

4. Teasing a Husband

Just walking in the store was interesting. We passed one family with a wife, husband and two little rug rats. The wife was practically screaming at the brats to stay out of the street while the husband looked up in the air like he was praying for someone to kill him and free him from this purgatory.

As Kristen and I walked by I could see that his eyes were glued to us, looking us over from top to bottom although he must have been a legs and ass man from the way he spent most of the time looking at those. I teasingly wiggled my butt just a bit more to give him a little show.

Just then his wife yelled at him to act his age and get going. He looked away quickly and with a sheepish grin quickened his pace to catch up with his overbearing bitch of a wife.

Kristen looked at me and we both burst into laughter. His wife gave us a withering stare and I could see the word "sluts" forming on her lips. Well, that was just fine with me. Heck, If I wasn't a slut then I wouldn't be dressed like one and heading into the grocery store to act like one! I wonder what she would have said if she had known that instead of insulting me, I took it as a compliment?

Entering the store, we didn't bother with a shopping cart. We weren't going to be buying anything so what was the point? Still holding hands, we went down the end aisle in search of our first horny dad.

It didn't take long as dead ahead was the stereotypical husband shopping with his wife. She was looking over everything and filling the cart as he slowly pushed it behind her. The wife was dressed in some hideous blouse and shorts outfit that looked like they were fresh off the garage sale rack. She must have been a good hundred pounds overweight with heavy boobs that hung low despite the heroic efforts of her bra. Her scraggly hair was pulled back into a bun and I doubt it had seen any shampoo in a few days.

Meanwhile the husband was maybe early to mid-thirties. Unlike his fat wife, he obviously worked out. While he wasn't in his high school football shape, he wasn't fat either although there was a hint of a beer belly starting to form. He was wearing faded jeans, white tennis shoes and a polo shirt, nothing exactly stylish.

I couldn't imagine what it must be like for him to see his wife's fat ass ahead of him. Was he wondering what happened to the sexy girl he'd married that was now most likely gone forever? Kristen elbowed me and we grinned at each other in silent agreement as we prepared for some fun.

Slipping in just ahead of him but behind his wife who had moved further ahead than usual, we waited until she wasn't looking and then we both bent over to look at something on a lower shelf. Not finding whatever it was we were looking for, we took aim at the top shelf, stretching up on our toes for a better look.

In both case our shorts pulled up into our crotches letting our asses hang out while he got a flash of the underside of our boobs when our t-shirts rode up. Of course we acted as if nothing happened and pretended we didn't even notice him staring at us. Moving on, we passed his wife who was totally clueless as to the exhibition we had just put on for her husband.

We waited in the next aisle until they appeared. Acting as though we had forgotten something from the first aisle, we walked past them and smiled at him as we giggled like school girls. His eyes followed us while his wife moved on so we had quick kiss. It wasn't just a peck on the cheek but full on the lips. I didn't look back as I didn't want to spook him but I knew he had to be watching us. At the moment though I wasn't sure what was turning me on more - kissing Kristen or him watching me kiss her.

He was almost TOO easy - his eyes were on us every chance he got except when his fat wife was at the cart. Finally we let him be and moved on before his wife got suspicious of why we were trailing them. Sort of like "catch and release" I guess you could say.

Mmmmmmm, I would've loved to have seen him when they got home. No doubt he would be heading straight to the bathroom to jerk off, thinking of what it would be like to fuck someone like us again for just one more time in his pathetic life.

5. Fun with Vegetables

As much as I love it, teasing married men is only half the fun to be had in a grocery store. Masturbation is one of my all-time favorite activities and doing it in public just makes it all that much hotter. So what better place to do it than the vegetable section of a grocery store?

God, talk about having a wide variety of options! The key was to find a spot where you could see the people coming and going without being seen right away yourself, at least not ALL of you seen. Depending on whose turn it was, one of us would act as the lookout while the other played with herself using whatever was available.

My personal favorite is a long, slim cucumber. With Kristen there to serve as lookout, after choosing a fine specimen I would pull my shorts down just enough to let me slip it in my pussy and then masturbate with it.

It was as such times that wearing such tight shorts was a disadvantage. If they had been baggier then I could have just pulled the crotch to the side and slipped it in which would have made it so much easier. Then again, having to drop my shorts WAS a lot more sluttier and hence made me hornier.

Sometimes if there is someone shopping nearby I like to do it when they're facing away from me, which makes it even hotter for me. The risk of them suddenly turning and catching me with my hands down the front

The ultimate turn-on is to watch later and see who takes my pussy cum-covered "toy" home with them. I wonder if they realize when they're holding it that only a few moments before it had been deep in my pussy and was now covered with my cum. It may even be a bit damp still but she thinks it is just water sprayed by the store clerk earlier. Then I fantasize about her taking it home to her husband, cutting it up without washing it and then serving it in a salad to the whole family. Then the whole family gets a little taste of me!

On this particular day it was Kristen's turn to do herself first. After our little adventure with the husband she was raging horny and ready to go.

In this particular store the fruits and vegetable department was arranged in a number of separate islands rather than just rows so it would be difficult for anyone to see her from a distance until they got close. I stood a little ways away where I could still see her but yet keep one eye on the people coming and going.

Store traffic this day was still really light so there were plenty of times when we were the only people in the area. When the coast was clear I looked at Kristen and we both grinned, ready to get started. Like me, Kristen's favorite vegetable was also a long cucumber. She'd already picked one out while we were waiting, selecting one that wasn't too thick yet long enough for her to get a good grip and still get enough of it inside of her.

While waiting Kristen had already unbuttoning the top of her shorts and unzipped them. They were tight but she was able to reach her hand down them and start playing with herself to get ready for her "toy". As horny as we both were then she jumped a bit when she first touched her clit. If she was in any condition like I was, I could imagine how swollen and wet it was already and the jolt she must have felt when her fingers first touched it.

She leaned back against the counter and rubbed herself, her other hand drifting to her breast and rubbing it through her all but transparent t-shirt. I could see her dark nipples already poking through the thin cotton material and I reached for mine for just a moment, squeezing my boobs and feeling the rush I always get whenever I do that.

Just then I spotted an older woman coming towards us and hissed at Kristen. Her eyes rolled and she pouted but she took her hand out of her shorts, sucking her pussy wetted finger for just a moment to get a nice taste of herself. She just turned toward the counter and pretended to be inspecting the fruit and vegetables there without even bothering to zip them back up, let alone button them up again.

The old lady (she must have been at least in her sixties) picked out some tomatoes and went on her way. No sooner than her back was turned and she was heading out than Kristen was back at it again. While she was fingering herself she reached for the cucumber she'd picked out and started to suck on it like a delicious cock. God she looked so sexy! I wanted so bad to join her but I'd my turn a couple of weeks before in this same store so it was Kristen's turn today.

Kristen had to pause a couple of times more as people came and went but each time I could tell it was harder for Kristen to stop. The last time she didn't even bother to pull her shorts together and I really was turned on seeing this young mother with her little boy in the cart standing next to her picking out vegetables and not realizing that the teenage slut next to her had her pants undone and was waiting impatiently for her to leave so she could go back to masturbating. If they hadn't been so tight the shorts would have dropped to her knees!

Actually, the soccer mom was pretty cute and I wondered what her reaction would be if she were to "catch" Kristen in the act. Well, that would certainly be one for the Kelly Fantasy files!

When the coast was clear once again Kristen had enough of just her fingers and was looking for more stimulation. When it was my turn the last time I'd worn loose gym shorts which I could pull to the side and slip my chosen veggie in me without having to get too dangerously undressed. The "problem" Kristen was facing today was that her shorts were so tight she couldn't slip anything into the crotch with them on.

Well, Kristen didn't have a reputation as the number one slut in her class for nothing. She must have known that I knew she was in a tough spot and that I was waiting eagerly to see what she would come up. Kristen looked at me and then around the store once for herself and gave me a sly grin. Quick as a wink she slipped her shorts down to her ankles and settled down in a crouching position such that her bare ass was resting on the backs of her heels. She had her knees spread wide, giving her full access to her bare little pussy.

Damn, I couldn't believe the nerve she had, to be bottomless right there in the middle of the fruits and vegetable section! Using one hand to spread apart her pussy lips, she quickly slipped the cucumber she'd been sucking on right up her hot and wet pussy hole. She let a gasp that was loud enough for me to hear as at least four inches of cucumber disappeared inside of her hungry pussy. She could probably have taken more easily but what was the point? Actually just a couple of inches is really all you need to get off, if that.

Not wasting any valuable time, Kristen stroked the cucumber in and out her pussy quickly. This wasn't intended to be a marathon but rather a sprint to the finish line with an orgasm waiting at the end.

As for me, I was having a really hard time keeping watch as I didn't want to take my eyes off the little vixen. I glanced around and my heart pounded when I realized that two housewives were already half-way through the produce department and I hadn't seen them! I quickly hissed at Kristen and frantically pointed out the oncoming herd (each must have weighed over 200 pounds!)

Kristen's eyes widened and she quickly withdrew the cucumber and tried to pull up her shorts as she stood up. As tight as they were, it wasn't easy, so she circled around the island keeping opposite of the women trying to get the shorts over her ass. Thank goodness it was as small as it was or she never would have gotten them up in time.

Fortunately the women stuck together (did I mention something about a "herd"?) It was fortunate in that if they had approached from opposite sides there was no way Kristen could have hidden the fact that her tiny shorts were only halfway up in butt. As she circled she passed by me and shook her head at me.

"Gee thanks for the warning cousin," she said trying to sound mad but not carrying it off well, "Cutting it a little close today aren't we?"

"Oh god I'm so sorry Kristen!" I said as I started to try and explain to her what had happened.

lot of the veggies were still that way. She put it in a plastic bag and placed it in her grocery cart as Kristen giggled softly. When she had left Kristen was certainly pleased with herself.

"Damn, I wonder if she washes her vegetables before serving them. Think her husband will taste me on it?"

I was also fantasizing about a family eating a salad that evening, complete with a cucumber drenched with Kristen's pussy. Maybe her hubby would think his wife had been naughty with it before she served it. No matter what, just knowing that she was buying a cucumber without any idea where it had been the previous ten to fifteen minutes was incredibly erotic.

We both agreed that we had better leave before we get too horny and did something that would get us in trouble. I couldn't wait to get home as I was already envisioning an incredible masturbation session with Kristen as we talked about what had happened in the store today. As we left I noticed that the store had security cameras all over the ceiling. I looked closer and it seemed that they were positioned such that they could watch over just about the entire store. With the opaque covers it was impossible to know where they were looking at any given time.

I pointed out the cameras to Kristen and she seemed a little shock and surprise at first. Hmmmmmm, did some pervert in security watch us while we teased guys and played? Nobody ever said anything to us but maybe they were just enjoying the show.

I liked being watched as much as anyone but this was entirely different as the whole point in being watched was KNOWING you were being watched and seeing the reaction of the person watching you. I certainly hoped that they weren't recording us! Oh well, even if they did it wouldn't be the end of the world but it would certainly take some explaining!

As we bounced out of the store holding hands, I knew that the eyes of every male were glued on us and I felt a tingle in my pussy at the thought. I loved doing things like this and I knew it wouldn't be long before we were back again - except next time it was MY turn!

(Jul 30) Chapter 39: My Mom's Best Friend

Story codes: Ff f-solo oral
Me (17)
Tammy – my mom's BFF (37)

She was my Mom's best friend and I've known her all my life. Now she was visiting us for the first time in a couple of years. I couldn't wait to show her much I had grown up!

1. Mom and Tammy (The Early Years)

I was seventeen and enjoying the summer before my senior year of high school when I had an interesting experience. Without a doubt my mom's best friend in the whole wide world is Tammy – not to be confused with my younger cousin Tammy. This Tammy is a few months older than my mom and they've known each other since they were little girls.

Unfortunately, a few years ago Tammy's husband was transferred to Oregon and so for the first time my mom was separated from her closest friend and confidante. Since then they've relied mostly on phone calls and e-mail to keep in touch but they still manage to meet each other at least once or twice a year for a week or so. Tammy's husband travels a lot so she uses his frequent flier miles to purchase either her or my mom a plane ticket. If not, my dad pays for the trips as he knows how much they mean to the both of them.

My mom always looks forward to her visits with Tammy but it wasn't until last year that I found out the whole story behind their relationship. Like many things in my parent's background, my mom waited until I started having sex with her before she confided everything about her and Tammy with me. It's important to understand this so before I go further so here's a quick summary that might help in understanding what led to my most recent experience.

The first surprise my mom threw me was that my dad had dated Tammy for quite some time back in high school before he and my mom became an item. They started going out the summer after Tammy graduated from eighth grade. At the time, my dad was about to become a Junior in high school so for him to date Tammy wasn’t exactly a thrill for her parents. Like most girls at that age, Tammy was proud that an older boy would take such an interest in her and defied her parents by continuing to see my dad.

As it turned out, Tammy’s parents “worries” were justified. After only a few dates she and my dad had sex for the first time in her own bedroom while her parents were out for dinner. It wasn't my dad’s first time by any means (my mom tells me that he had quite a reputation as a lady’s man at school already by then) but it was for her. THAT surprised me as in all the time I’d known Tammy, I’d never even given any thought that my dad had been the one to take her virginity!

Needless to say, since Tammy was putting out for him my dad asked her out a lot after that. I’d like to think that my dad wasn’t so shallow that the only reason he dated her was her willingness to put out. From her yearbook pictures I can see that she was quite pretty so no doubt that had a lot to do with it. Not that she isn’t still good looking but she’s not in the same shape as she had been in high school by any means. Really, how many people in their late thirties are?

Tammy’s not what I would call fat but more like just a bit overweight. On the plus side the few extra pounds seemed to be heavily biased to it her chest so for a boob man like my dad that wasn’t too bad a deal.

One other comment on the virginity thing. Tammy and my mom may have been best friends but that didn't mean they weren’t more than a bit competitive, especially when they were teens. The way mom describes things it reminds me a bit of me and my cousin Kristi.

While my mom had sucked a boy’s cock once on a dare back when she was in seventh grade, at the time my dad and Tammy were screwing each other it was the only sexual experience so far that my mom had with a guy (other than some innocent groping in a movie theater). Apparently Tammy was quite proud that she had lost her virginity before my mom did, somewhat to the annoyance of my mom.

When my mom finally did lose her virginity, it wasn’t something she could brag about to Tammy since it was her father (my grandpa) who took it!

My grandpa died when I was only eight so I don’t really remember a whole lot about him, but one thing I DO recall is sitting on his lap once and feeling him rub my butt gently with his hand. He use to do that a lot from what I can recall, but it was all he ever did to me – at least that I can remember.

My mom told me that he was always looking at her and her sister (my Aunt Linda) as they were growing up. He would hug them and touch them in ways their with my grandpa. My mom dated a few guys at the time as well, but while she liked to give a BJ here and there she didn’t have sex with any of them. Most of all, she never told Tammy she’d lost her virginity so she wouldn’t have to lie about who had taken it. Tammy and her were best friends, but even best friends can’t always say EVERYTHING to one another.

Because my mom and Tammy hung out together a lot, my dad got to see my mom quite a bit. He was under the impression that my mom was still a virgin as Tammy kept him up to date on the status of most of the girls in school. Though I hate to say it, he most likely saw my mom at first as just another potential “notch” for his belt. Of course today my dad loves my mom dearly but even he has admitted that when they first dated, she was just another pussy for him to conquer.

It wasn’t until a few months into the next year that he made a move towards my mom. He had a pretty good thing going with Tammy who was putting out regularly for him and his friends whenever they wanted it. Knowing my mom and Tammy were best friends, he probably didn’t want to do anything that might threaten his source of easy teen pussy.

Being a typical horny guy, despite having Tammy available whenever he wanted to get laid, eventually my dad wanted some fresh pussy so he asked my mom out on a date. My mom knew he was dating Tammy and of course she knew he was fucking her regularly as well – in fact she made sure my mom knew it!

At first my mom didn’t accept his offer but he pushed and pushed until finally she reluctantly agreed. Knowing what he and Tammy were doing, it didn’t come as any surprise that their first date turned out to be at an old drive-in movie where he started groping her within minutes of parking. Things moved pretty fast and before the first movie was even over he was surprised to find she wasn't a virgin. She told him she really was but that she had gotten carried away with a dildo and broke her hymen. Boys will believe anything!

My dad was thus the second guy to fuck my mom as until then, she was only doing it with her dad. I think even to this day in her mind he was her true “first” as sex with her dad was more about him than her.

Needless to say it was completely different for my mom to be fucked by an older boy from school and she wanted more of it! There was a rocky period at first where things got a little tense between her and Tammy once she found out what was going on. Tammy knew his eyes had been wandering so it wasn't really a big friends. They shared most of their experiences although my mom never did tell Tammy about what she and Linda did with their dad.

When it came to being bisexual, the only girl my mom had sex with while in high school was her sister. As for Tammy, she wasn’t really into girls so she and my mom never did anything more than masturbate together, typically when they would get each other horny listening to the other’s sexual escapades. Even though they were both doing it they usually did it under their nighties or panties so they didn't actually see the other’s pussy while they were touching themselves. I guess things were a little more conservative back then.

My mom married my dad soon after she graduated from high school and I was born the following year. Once they were married, she and my dad stopped having sex with people outside their family as they both believed strongly that it was a sin to go against God’s commandment against adultery, at least my mother did and my dad went along with it.

As he was a member of her new family, my mom could have continued having sex with my uncle but he also married young and his new wife was VERY conservative. My Aunt Shari would have literally killed him had he fucked another woman, especially if had been someone in the family. To Aunt Shari, adultery was bad but nothing was worse than incest, even if they were directly blood related.

Tammy ended up marrying a couple of years after high school although in her case I think there was really much of a choice at the time. Having a baby out of wedlock wasn't easy back then.

Given their high school friendships, our families got together frequently although Tammy’s husband was never told the complete history of what went on between his wife and my dad. Tammy eventually ended up having two boys who are little younger than me and a daughter my age. Her family lives in an upscale neighborhood in Bend, Oregon, just your typical All-American family.

2. Tammy Today

As I was growing up, Tammy was like another aunt to me and we were always very close. Since she moved I'd only seen her once as my mom always made the trip to Oregon alone. The last time Tammy had been to our house was when I was fifteen and I had no idea back then about the "real" story of her and my dad. Of course they seemed very "friendly", if you know what I mean, but I figured that was just because she was such a close friend of my mom all these years.

Even if I had known about their past history it wouldn't have mattered since neither Tammy nor my father would have committed adultery. Tammy because it went against her religious beliefs and my dad because he knew my mom would castrate him!

In addition to just wanting to get away for a rest, I now wonder if one of the reasons my mom has preferred to go to Oregon to visit Tammy is the terrible temptation it must pose for my dad to be around Tammy. As I mentioned they both had reasons not to commit adultery but there was no reason for them to put themselves in a situation they didn't need to be in.

So far as my mom knew, or at least so far as she told me, Tammy had been faithful to her husband for the most part other than a brief indiscretion during the early years of her marriage. Nobody should be condemned for a mistake made so long ago but now that she had such a great marriage going why bring back memories of those teenage years to tempt her?

Well, regardless of any concerns there may be, this summer Tammy was going to come our way and so arrangements were made for her fly out for a week in late July. This would be the first time I'd met Tammy since I started having sex with my parents and learned the full story about her relationships with my parents. Even so, my mom had cautioned me that she had not told Tammy anything about the new incestual relationships in our family. For that matter, in all these years she had never told her best friend about the what had happened between her father and sister.

My mom laughed a bit nervously as she talked to me about it.

"Sorry, girl. I'd prefer you forego masturbating while watching TV if your dad's in the room and for heaven's sake, NO fucking your dad while she's around – not even in your room. You know how things carry through the walls in this house."

“But it’s OK if I do it if it’s just you and her around, right?” I questioned, trying to establish the protocols for Tammy’s visit. I could understand her not wanting Tammy to know about me and my dad but it wasn't like Tammy was a prude either. It’s not like masturbation was a sin so why hide it?

“It might be best to just have a little discretion for once, OK?” she replied.

“But Mom! You said you use to masturbate with her all the time so why can’t I?”

“I just don't want her to get any ideas about anything, OK?” my mom said back, almost pleading with me. “Besides, what we did wasn't anything like you do with your friends these days.”

Whatever. I finally just huffed and shrugged my shoulders. God, a WEEK without doing it at home – I hadn’t gone that long in over a year! And to only masturbate in my room? What was this, the Dark Ages?

Oh well, it was only for a week and if my dad needed me I knew he could always fuck me somewhere else, like at his office or in the SUV. One question remained that bothered me.

“Mom, what would Tammy do if she ever found out that you and dad were having sex with your daughter? Or that you were doing it with your dad back in high school?”

My mom hesitated for a moment and looked a bit perplexed as if not sure how to answer.

“Well, as I’ve told you, Tammy was a bit promiscuous in school, to say the least, but she’s been faithful to her husband since marriage – alright there was that ONE time but it doesn’t really count. I’m pretty sure that Tammy wouldn’t approve of incest based on our discussions over the years and I’m just as sure she wouldn’t approve of sex between a teenage girl and a man twice her age – let alone her own father.”

Another question popped into my mind and I asked her, “So Mom, why didn’t you and Tammy ever play around together?”

My mom smiled at this one and replied, “Hmmm, I guess when I was that age girls doing girls was not as acceptable as it is now. I mean, it was different for me and Linda but then she was my sister and that made it seem different somehow.”

“So what really happened when Tammy cheated on her husband?”

My mom sighed this time and took a deep breath.

“Well, Tammy was pregnant when she got married and I’m not so sure she really loved her husband at first. She seemed a bit restless being tied down so she started seeing this guy. It wasn’t anything serious, just a fuckbuddy thing more than anything. Even so, it almost ended her marriage when her husband found out as you might imagine.

These days she seems pretty happy being married to him although maybe ‘content’ would be the better word to use. To the best of my knowledge she’s never cheated again.”

Well, there wasn’t much else to say so I decided I’d better take care o business while I still could do it.

3. Teasing Tammy

When Tammy finally arrived my mom gave her a big hug when we met her outside of the airport with her luggage. All the way home the two of them chatted away like high school schoolgirls. It was if they were trying to catch up on everything at once! Although I couldn't get a word in edgewise, it was nice to see my mom this happy. She had lots of friends but nobody else seemed to be able to bring out this side of her the way Tammy did.

Everything went great for the first few days. Tammy slept in our guest room which was right next to mine so I tried to be on my best behavior. There as one thing I refused to change and that was sleeping nude. After all, she WAS a woman so what was the big deal?

One morning it was early and I woke with an urgent need so I slipped quickly out of bed forgetting to throw on the robe next to my bed. As luck would have it I passed Tammy in the hallway as I went from my room to the bathroom. She surprised me actually and I bumped into her and almost fell when I lost my balance. Tammy grabbed me instinctively to keep my head from hitting the floor and in doing so her hands clutched my bare body for just a moment. She looked me over briefly and smiled.

“Hmmmmmm, I must say Kelly, you certainly have grown up a lot!”

I couldn’t help but blush a bit and she laughed saying, “Don’t worry, it really doesn’t bother me if you run around undressed. Whatever suits you best is fine with me.”

She quickly turned and went back to her room leaving me to reflect on the incident. Was she just being polite or was there something behind that twinkle in her eyes? Was it just my imagination or did she hold on to me just a little longer than absolutely necessary? Was it really something there or in my dreams was I just reading something in where there was nothing?

The next time I saw her she acted as though nothing had happened so apparently there wasn't anything more than what it appeared to be. Well, you can't blame me for wishful thinking!

About midweek the three of us went out for lunch and when we got back there was a message waiting on the telephone. Listening to the message, my mom’s happy expression disappeared as she appeared to be upset by the news. She’d arranged months ago to take vacation time from work when Tammy visited but apparently now she had go in the next morning to cover for a girl who was sick. Even though she had backups arranged for the entire week, apparently even the backups were sick as well.

The next morning mom left early for the hospital, still fussing and fuming about how people always seemed to get sick when the weather was nice. With my dad at his office for the day, this left Tammy and me alone in the house. She’d said the night before that she planned to be lazy and sleep in since my mom would be at work.

I woke up not long after my parents had left and just couldn't go back to sleep for some unknown reason. Well, that’s not really true – I knew the reason! It had been quite a while since my boyfriend had last fucked me, over three whole days now. With Tammy around my dad wasn't doing me either so I was feeling pretty damn horny.

Lying naked on my bed with the sheets tossed to the side, I began to slowly masturbate as I imagined my boyfriend sneaking into the house and into my bedroom, fucking me without any games or foreplay, just how he knew I loved to be fucked.

Actually, even without the extenuating circumstances, it wasn’t all that unusual for me to masturbate first thing in the morning. Sometimes I would do it again during the day and even more often again at night. On average I’d say I do it two or three times a day.

What might surprise some people is that how often I masturbate doesn’t really have anything to do with whether I’ve been getting laid or not. The truth was that I simply crave the incredible sensations created when I touch myself and bring myself to an orgasm.

No matter how much sex I got, it was never enough so often masturbation served a dual purpose. Most of the time my dad was available if I needed it plus I could always count on getting fucked by any number of boys from school and church. It was never enough, though, so masturbation was the only thing that kept me from going nuts between being fucked.

Suddenly I heard a creaking sound like someone was walking in the hallway. I looked up but didn’t see anything. However, I DID hear someone moving around in the bathroom and knew it had to be Tammy. From the sounds of it, she was getting into the shower. Since in order to get to the bathroom she would have had to walk past my bedroom, with my door wide open as always I couldn't imagine how she could have NOT seen me masturbating as she went by.

I felt a twinge between my legs as I wondered what she must have thought when she saw me playing with myself. The thought of her seeing me with my fingers deep in my pussy and my other hand on my boob made me tingle even more. To my surprise, I suddenly realized that I was hoping she HAD seen me, that I wanted to tease her.

Tammy had two boys that were a couple of years younger than me and just one daughter about my age. As I doubted she and her daughter had the same relationship as I had with my mom, the odds were she hadn’t seen a teenage girl naked in bed playing with herself in a long time. I felt myself getting hotter and hornier as I imagined what thoughts might be going through her mind now.

Our bathroom had a shower massager installed – what girl doesn’t call it her best friend? Was she using it now while imagining being with me? I couldn't help but start playing with my pussy again as I fantasized about joining her in the shower. Tammy was a little older than my mother and definitely didn't have my mom’s figure, but at only 36 she wasn't ugly or fat by any stretch of the imagination!

The shower stopped and I knew before long she would be passing my room again on her way back to her bedroom. Even though I’d promised my mom to be a good girl, I didn't think it would hurt just to have a bit of fun so I got on my elbows and knees with my bare ass facing the door. Reaching around, I pushed two fingers inside of my pussy and started to stroke them in and out of myself. Damn, it really did feel good to touch myself like this!

Our house was old and almost all of the wood floors creaked so it was easy to hear when Tammy left the bathroom. I moaned loud enough for her to hear me as I masturbated even faster. The creaking stopped and I knew she had to be right outside my door. I was so turned on thinking of her looking in and seeing me playing with myself, I felt myself rising to what I knew was going to be one hell of an orgasm.

Well, she must have been interested in what she was hearing because it was several minutes before I heard the floor creaking again and the sound of her going down the hall back to her room. Just a few minutes later I felt my orgasm building to an eruption and I imagined it was Tammy licking my pussy, that she had come into my room and started licking my pussy from behind, licking my pussy and playing with my butt. I came hard as I imagined her tongue in my pussy, tasting her first pussy.

When I finally finished, needless to say a shower was in order and after a quick rinse I threw on one of my dad’s white shirts and headed downstairs to the kitchen.

Tammy was already down there, wearing rather conservative white shorts and a red tank top. It was pretty obvious that there wasn't much else underneath, not even a bra. Not that this was unusual or anything as all week she and my mom hadn’t been wearing a whole lot around the house. As little as it was, it was actually more than my mom typically wore (the shorts were optional most days) but Tammy still looked pretty sexy.

As I mentioned, I’d grabbed one of my dad’s dress shirts from his closet and was wearing it. This was like my favorite outfit around the house; loose and comfortable and even better, I knew it turned on my dad when I wore his shirts. As a rule, I never wore anything under them which REALLY turned him on and he loved it even more when I would sit on his lap with my bare ass pressing down on his hardening cock. Of course, it typically wasn't long before that hard cock was doing more than just touching me!

Tammy was eating some cereal so I fixed myself a bowl as well. She didn’t say a word at first, no mention of having heard me and I didn’t say a word either. It was just killing me inside that our conversation was limited to the weather and such. My pussy getting wetter every minute as I thought about her watching me while she acted like nothing had happened. Eventually the conversation moved to how long she’d known my mom and how many things they’d shared in their lives.

“Well Kelly, I’ve known you since you were a newborn baby,” she said. “Like I said earlier, I just can’t believe how you’ve grown up, especially since I saw you the last time. You’ve developed into quite a pretty young lady.”

I just smiled and then she laughed. “Can you believe I use to change your diapers? You’ve always been like a daughter to me. Sometimes I wish we hadn’t had to move so far away. I’ve missed you and your mom and dad so much! So tell me Kelly, how many boyfriends do you have these days?”

I grinned and wondered what she would say if I told her the truth. But I stayed true to my word to my mom.

“Ohhhhhh... a few here and there. Hey, maybe later we can talk some more, I promised a friend I would catch them on-line in a few minutes.”

Tammy shook her head as she headed to the sink to wash out our bowls. “You kids today live in such a different world. Well, I have some letters and reading to catch up on. It looks like a great day out so I think I’ll be out on the deck. You know, I just love your deck and especially the hot tub. You have no idea how lucky you are; I’d give anything to have one of those at our house!”

I returned to my room and chatted most of the morning with some friends on-line. Now and then I glanced out my window but all I saw was Tammy sitting at the table on our deck, surrounded by letters and envelopes.

4. Talking With Tammy

A little after noon I went down to the kitchen and fixed a couple of sandwiches. Looking out the back door which opened onto the deck, I could see Tammy reading in a chair under the large umbrella. It was a hot sunny day and I figured it was a good day for some sunbathing, especially with Tammy all alone out on the deck.

I left the sandwiches for a moment and went back up to my room to change. I put on one of my naughtier bikinis - one of those that would’ve gotten me booted from the public pool, and grabbed a beach towel. Going back down to the kitchen I put the sandwiches on a tray with a couple of glasses of ice tea and went out on the deck.

“Hey Tammy, ready for some lunch?”

Tammy looked up from her book and when she saw my tray she smiled and said, “Why thank you Kelly, that’s really kind of you!”

I sat in the chair across from her and I noticed that she couldn't help but look at me. The bikini was pretty sexy, barely covering me. My dad referred to it as one of “Kelly’s slutty bikinis” but I knew he loved seeing me wearing it. I’d been spending plenty of time on the deck and my tan was in full swing. Without seeming too egotistical, I liked the way I looked wearing it and I especially liked the way Tammy was looking at me when she thought I didn't notice.

"So Kelly, you haven't told me much about your boyfriends." Tammy reminded me.

I frowned just a bit, pretending to be shy. "Well, I really don't have one at the moment although I DO have my eye on this cute guy at church."

Tammy smiled and looked at me again. "Well, I'm sure that whoever he is, if he saw you in THAT he wouldn't say no to anything you asked. I hope you don't mind me saying this but that bikini certainly doesn't leave much to the imagination! Has your dad seen you in it?"

I giggled a bit. What if I told her that my dad was the one who bought it for me? Instead I just said, "Oh sure he has. He calls it my 'slut bikini'. Mom made me promise to only wear it here on the deck when I sunbathe."

Tammy nodded in agreement. "Well I can certainly understand why she would say that. I'm surprised she lets your dad see you in it – not like it hides anything. Don't take this wrong but I'd never let MY husband see you in it!"

We both laughed and she continued, "It does, however, show how much you've grown – in all the right places I might add. You've got a really hot little body going there girl!"

I just smiled and couldn't help but blush as I remembered masturbating earlier in the morning thinking about her and now here she was talking to me like nothing had happened – at least I assumed she had watched me.

"It must be an interesting and fun time in your life now. Believe it or not I was once your age and I remember how it felt to have my body change and to feel new things and see the boys looking at you differently."

She hesitated for a second, as if unsure if she should say something but then she continued saying, "Judging from your morning activities, I see that you've certainly adapted to your new urges as well!"

Now I was blushing. It was one thing to fantasize about her and even to show off a bit but that was a lot different than directly talking to her about anything.

"Oh don't blush Kelly, we all do it, even at my age! I've got to admit that I've never put on a show for one of my mother's friends, though. Obviously your hormones are in high gear now and so I can understand that they can make you do some pretty wild things. I was wondering, have you been having sex yet? Pardon my asking but after your little show this morning I've this feeling that you aren't exactly shy when it comes to sex. Your mom and I have never talked about you that way so don't worry, I won't say anything to her."

Well, this wasn't exactly what I was expecting but then it sort of turned me on to have her asking me. I sat down and explained how I lost my virginity when I was fourteen and even told her about a few of the experiences I'd had since then. Nothing about my home sex life of course, just a few boys at school.

Tammy listened intently the whole time, asking for a few details now and then but otherwise she just sat there smiling most of the time. When I'd finished, she leaned forward and gave me a conspiratorial look.

"So tell me Kelly, have you ever been with a girl?"

At this time the only women I'd had sex with were my mom and Aunt Linda but I wasn't about to say anything to Tammy about THEM. But when it came to Kristi my cousin, it seemed innocent enough for me to tell her a few things so I told Tammy about our times together, how we started in my grandparent's barn by watching each other masturbating. We never touched each other so it really wasn't any different than playing with my friends at a slumber party or something. It just seemed naughtier since she was my cousin.

"Oh my god Kelly! That's really wild. Does Mary know about you and Kristi?"

I hesitated for a second, not knowing whether or not I should tell the truth, or at least part of the truth. My hesitation was enough for Tammy to come to a conclusion. She grinned at me mischievously.

"So I take it that she does then. Did you know that as long as I've known your mother she has never discussed having sex with her sister. Oh don't look so surprised – I know they use to do it when they were kids – heck, EVERYONE did. It was quite the talk of the town for a while. For some reason she never wants to talk about it so I don't bring it up with her."

For whatever reason the topic of conversation now seemed to have turned away from my own personal issues and more about my parents, what they have been doing and so forth. It was getting a little uncomfortable because I wasn't sure what Tammy really knew or if she was bluffing to get me to confirm her suspicions.

Finally I decided to do what I'd come out on the deck to do in the first place and so I told Tammy I was going to get in the hot tub for a while.

5. The Hot Tub

Moving over to the tub, I pulled the cover off and then hesitated for a second as I debated exactly what to do next. My parents and I hardly ever wear a bathing suit or other clothes in the tub and out of habit I was about to take off my suit without even thinking about it – not that there was much to take off. Still, there is a fine line between being nude versus at least partially dressed.

I knew Tammy had to be watching me and so I decided to go for it and quickly slipped out of my bikini and stepped in. The hot water felt so good, even on a such a warm day. I let myself just relax and float naturally as the jets pounded me from all sides. I opened my eyes after a few minutes and to my surprise, there was Tammy, standing by the side of the tub looking down at me. She was looking right at me and seemed oblivious to the fact I was naked.

“So tell me, is this your typical hot tub outfit when you’re alone?” she asked with a smile. “I’m curious now... do you go naked when your parents are home?”

I shrugged and replied, “This is it Tammy. The chemicals ruin my suits plus it feels much better to have the jets directly against you so I never wear anything in here. Hasn’t my mom told you that nudity is no big thing around here?”

Tammy laughed. “Well, not in so many words but I’ve picked up the vibes. So you mean to tell me that when you’re in here with your parents that all of you are naked? I mean, your dad sees you like this?”

“Sure, it’s really no big deal. I’ve been doing it all my life.”

Tammy just shook her head. “Well, I guess that would have to be the case. Still, I just can’t even imagine doing that with my family. Maybe with another women but not with my own dad! God, I would be SO embarrassed if my sons stripped down with me in the tub! And I’d NEVER let my husband see our daughter this way.”

I figured now was the time if I was going to make any kind of move so I put on my most innocent smile and said, “Well Tammy, why don’t you try it now then? Come on in, the water’s hot!”

I think I caught her by surprise based on the look that lasted for just a second on her face. Tammy was obviously uncertain what to do. “I don’t know Kelly. I don’t think I‘d feel right without your mom being here.”

“Oh Tammy, don’t worry about her,” I admonished her. “Besides, mom wouldn't care. It’s just a hot tub after all, not the public pool. Don’t worry, nobody can see us up here. It’s just us girls”

Tammy looked around as if to validate my claim and then let out a deep breath. “Ok, here goes nothing then.”

I watched closely as she pulled off her tank top. She didn’t have a bra on so her large breasts were soon free for me to see and enjoy. Then she dropped her shorts and panties together and next thing I knew she was standing next to me nude for the first time! Even though her figure wasn't nearly as good as my mom’s, judging from the tan lines she still liked to wear a bikini. Also like my mom, her pussy was pretty hairy, trimmed just enough to be presentable in her bikini but not enough to keep from forming a bulge underneath.

My mom and aunt are pretty much the same in many ways when it came to dress and hygiene so I guess it must be a generational thing. She stepped gingerly into the tub, slowly lowering herself into the hot water as she grew accustomed to the temperature. The next thing I knew she was sitting across from me, the water covering her floating boobs up to her neck.

“See Tammy, it’s not so bad is it?”

Tammy had the look of a shy school girl exposing herself in the shower room for the first time.

“I guess so... it does feel good,” she said hesitantly.

We chatted for a while about nothing much of substance. Once she seemed more comfortable with the situation I decided to see what else I could convince her to do. “Do you know what my favorite thing is to do in the hot tub Tammy?”

Tammy giggled. “Not really but after what I saw earlier upstairs I bet I could make a pretty good guess. Hmmmmmm... let me guess... does it have something to do with the jets?”

I winked at her, “Maybe... Want me to show you?”

Tammy‘s mouth dropped opened before she caught herself. Before she could say anything I turned to one of the jets to the side and raised my legs up and over the edge of the tub. I lowered myself back down until the jet was positioned just right to send a stream of hot water right against my pussy. I leaned back and floated, holding myself up and in front of the jet with my legs. Damn that jet felt good as it pulsed over my pussy, stimulating my clit and even driving a little water into me.

I took one hand and began to rub myself, alternating between my pussy and my boobs. I turned my head to the side and there was Tammy, staring at me, mesmerized by what she was seeing. When she realized that I was looking at her, despite the heat I could see her face redden a bit.

"Oh my God Kelly, I can't believe you're doing that right in front of me!" she exclaimed. "I mean, what would your mother say if she saw us now?"

Ever get so horny you sort of forget what you SHOULD say or do and just do whatever comes to mind, regardless of the consequences? Well, I was feeling pretty damn horny at that moment so I didn't think about what I said before I did. Even so, I was a bit surprised to hear the words coming from my mouth like someone else was talking through me.

"Well Tammy, let me put it this way. Mom wouldn't be just sitting there like you are," I said with a twinkle in my eyes.

Tammy's eyes opened even wider. "What do you mean Kelly? What would she be doing?"

The jet was pulsing right against my clit at that moment and I had a finger in my pussy so what came out next was my pussy talking more than my head.

"You know what I mean. Mom would either be playing with herself alongside me or playing with me, depending on her mood."

"You mean you have sex with your own mother!" Tammy blurted out. "With Mary?... Oh my god, do you really do that? You're just teasing me, right?"

Tammy looked shocked and for a moment I wondered if I'd made a big mistake – a REALLY big mistake. Well, if I had then there was no sense in holding back now that I'd spilled the beans.

"I'm not teasing you... and not just mom but dad as well."

"What? You do this in front of him too? In front of your own father?"

"Sure, why not? He IS my dad you know, not like I'm doing it in front of some stranger."

"Yeah but...," Tammy's voice trailed off. She looked confused, as if she didn't know how to respond.

By this time I was feeling a bit mischievous so without thinking about what I was saying, I blurted out, "Besides, my dad use to fuck you too so you know what he's like."

Tammy quickly picked up on the not-so-subtle hint in my last statement. She looked like she was about to go into shock. Evidently my last response had WAY too at all and I knew it was time for me to make the next move if I had any hopes of turning this into a positive experience – for both of us.

“Have you ever been with a girl Tammy?” I asked her softly. “You seemed awfully interested in my experiences earlier.”

Tammy shook her head vigorously. “Well, not since high school Kelly, and it wasn’t really all that much. Honestly, it wasn't nearly as much as I told your mother. I was just trying to impress her I guess. Most of it was just made up. I did a little kissing and fondling with some friends during sleepovers but doesn’t everyone?”

I looked her in the eyes and in a low voice I said seductively, “Well then Tammy, here’s your chance.”

Before she could respond, I leaned over and kissed her. She kept her lips tight together at first, as if she were a young teen resisting the advances of her first date. I moved my hand between her thighs and pushed my hand in between her legs, cupping her hairy wet pussy in my hands. Her body tensed for a moment but then she relaxed and opened her mouth as she kissed me in return.

“Oh my god Kelly,” she gasped, “I can’t believe I’m letting you do this to me. I mean, you could be my daughter for heaven’s sake.”

“Mmmmmmm, just be quiet, sit back, and enjoy it Tammy,” I said, interrupting her before she could get too intellectual about it. “You can do anything you want with me – and I DO mean anything.”

I ran my finger in her pussy slit and moved up until I found her clit. The warm water in the tub made it so easy to rub her and she jumped involuntarily at my first touch. She wrapped her arms around me and pulled me in closer to her. My fingers played with her pussy, running up and down her slit and even making an exploratory venture into her pussy hole. Amazingly, she didn't resist at all which just made me all the more daring.

“Try out the jets for me Tammy;” I told her after fondling her for a while, “Show me how you do yourself.”

Tammy was quiet as I helped position her in front of my favorite jet. I loved this particular one because it was at just the perfect height with the proper force to stimulate me perfectly. I was pleased to see that it seemed to suit her perfectly as well.

I got behind her head and put my hands under her shoulders to hold her up so she could use both hands on herself. With my magic jet pulsing against her pussy I knew she had to be feeling pretty horny. She started with one hand on each of her breasts, massaging them and pulling on her hard nipples. Eventually one hand worked its way down to between her legs and to my delight she started playing with herself.

In the meantime, I was so horny I could barely stand it! It was almost unbelievable – here was my mom's best friend, someone I had known all my life, masturbating in our hot tub just for me. She wasn't holding back either!

"Oh god Kelly, this doe feel so good!" she moaned. "I love you watching me... Oh god, watch me Kelly... damn – I'm cumming!"

Indeed she was. Wow, talk about cumming fast! Her back arched up as her hands flew over her wet clit. She moaned loudly as she came, crying out to me and half the neighborhood, telling me how good she felt. She started to buck her hips up and down as if she was being fucked, ramming her fingers in and out of her hairy pussy.

Finally she collapsed onto my arms and I pulled her over to one of the seats molded in the side of the tub. She just sat there, her eyes closed as she panted from her exertions.

"God that was incredible Kelly," she gasped, "That jet is awesome – much better than the bathroom tub faucet splashing on me."

I couldn't help but laugh to myself at that. Apparently we had similar interests when it came to our bathroom facilities! I took her hand and led her out of the hot tub. Then I laid the cushion down from the chaise lounge and covered it with my beach towel. I turned to Tammy and we kissed again.

We both settled down next to each other and kissed passionately for the longest time. Gone were any reservations on her part as I felt her hands working their way down me, eventually finding my pussy and exploring me. I knew she had never felt another woman's pussy before – at least not in this manner and it really turned me on to be her first.

"Oh Kelly, your pussy feels so good, " she whispered in my ear. "Tell me... how does it feel when I touch you like this?"

For someone who had never played much with another girl before, she was certainly doing a great job! That's what's so nice about being with another woman. They know what a girl wants simply because they know what makes them feel good. I have had guys fumble around all night with me and not even find my clit until I showed them – and some STILL couldn't do it right. That was certainly not the case with Tammy!

“Mmmmmmm... oh yes Tammy, I love the way you’re touching me,” I moaned. “Here... let me show you how it feels to be licked by another woman.”

I moved down between her legs, which she opened wide for me. Her pussy, still soaking wet from the tub, looked sexy and beautiful. The pubic hair was matted down and I spread it apart with my fingers to reveal her hungry pussy. In addition to the water from the hot tub, she was wet with anticipation as well and I could smell her strong sex odor.

Tammy took her hands and parted her pussy lips for me, revealing her swollen clit and pussy hole. I lowered my face to her crotch, licking her up and down her slit, playing with her clit and exploring her pussy with my tongue. At times I would use my hand to either fill her pussy with my fingers or rub her clit. She tasted soooooo good, even if there was a bit of bromine taste remaining from the hot tub.

“Oh my god Kelly, that feels so damn good!” she cried out. “Nobody has EVER licked me like this before! Damn... I’m going to cum again... oh yeah Kelly, right in your face girl!!”

I then learned that Tammy was what I call a “gusher” – she literally poured cum from her pussy as she came. I licked up as much of it as I could while she moaned and cried out for me not to stop. I had my face tight against her cunt and she was pushing it up against me as hard as she could.

Tammy’s legs wrapped around my head and held my face to her pussy as she just kept cumming. Just as I was wondering if she would ever stop, she laid back again and just let her legs fall to the sides of me and her arms outstretched.

“That was wonderful Kelly,” she moaned, “Now I know why woman like to be with other women – no man has EVER licked me that way! Now it’s my turn.”

We traded places and soon Tammy was at work on my pussy. If she had any hesitation about licking a pussy she certainly didn’t show it. I looked down between my legs to watch her, amazed at the sight of my mom’s best friend eating my pussy.

For a first timer she was fantastic! Of course, the erotic nature of what we were doing probably a major component of the feelings I was experiencing. She didn’t stop even when I came, tasting the pussy cum of another woman for the first time.

When I was finally finished she worked her way back up my body slowly, kissing me and licking me. I could taste my pussy on her face as we kissed. We lay in each other’s arms for a long time after that, just enjoying the feel of the other against our naked bodies. Finally Tammy broke the spell and got up.

“Your parents will be here soon,” she said in a more mature tone all of sudden.

Any hopes that the spell remained were dashed as she continued. “I know you have sex with them Kelly and just let me say I’m glad that’s it’s a wonderful thing for you. To be honest though, I could never do it with them; we have known each other for too long the way we are now to make that sort of change in our relationship. Please, can we just keep this between ourselves?”

I understood what she was saying but that’s not to say I wasn't a bit disappointed. I would have loved for her to watch my dad fuck me and it would have been a great turn-on to see her with my mom. I’d been raised to respect the lifestyles of other people and so I knew I would respect her wishes as well.

“Sure Tammy. If that’s what you want. But what about us?”

Tammy held me close to her and I could feel her bare breasts pressing against me.

“Oh Kelly. I had a wonderful time this afternoon and I will never forget it. We can’t do this again though. I could NEVER keep it from your mother and as I said, it’s not something I want to reveal to her.”

I nodded and we went back in the house. My parents returned from work not long afterwards and for the rest of the week things were “normal”. I exchanged a few looks with Tammy now and then, hoping for a crack in her armor but nothing happened. At the airport she gave me a quick kiss goodbye.

“Thanks for everything sweetie,” she whispered in my ear, “I’ll never forget this week.”

I blushed and for a moment I was afraid my mom would notice and ask what was going on between us. I knew Tammy didn’t want my mom to know what we had done and knowing my mom, if she found out she would have been disappointed we had not asked her to join in. Actually it raised an interesting moral question for me. My parents believed strongly in marriage and that sex outside marriage was adultery which was forbidden by the sixth commandment. Thus I knew my dad could never have sex with Tammy but could my mom? Was lesbianism “sex”?

After Tammy had left and we were driving back from the airport, I confessed to my mom what Tammy and had done. My mom just grinned.

“I figured something must have gone on between the two of you. I came home from work that day and the two of you were like two kids trying to hide a secret. I figured she must have been the one to not want to say anything so I didn't ask. So tell me girl, what was she like?”

My mom always seemed to be able to read me like a book – I could never keep a secret from her and so in retrospect, why should this have been any different? I let out a deep sigh and told her everything. Half-way though she started to rub herself through her shorts and I knew she was getting turned on. I wondered whether she was going to make it home without taking them off – it wouldn't be the first time we drove together around town bottomless.

Somehow my mom managed to drive home with her shorts on but we weren't in the house a minute before she was kissing me and fondling me. My mom rarely gets this horny so I knew she must have been turned on something fierce by my description of sex with her friend Tammy. O knew she secretly wanted to be with Tammy herself but as I suspected, her marriage vows precluded such a thing so now to hear about me being with her pushed her over the edge.

Sex between my mom and me is typically something that starts out slow and builds from there. Not today – my mom was like a slut in heat, devouring my pussy as we 69'd on the family room floor. We must have gone at it for hours because I was exhausted by the time were finished, having long lost count of how many times I had climaxed. I suspected she would be turned on when I told her but this was way beyond my wildest dream!

I wondered if Tammy would be masturbating after she returned home, thinking of having sex with me. I knew I would be! I couldn't wait until the next time we met as my mom's best friend was now one of mine as well!

The two of us had started masturbating together a couple of years earlier, the first time being at our grandparent's farm. We never actually touched one another but since then we would often play with ourselves whenever we were together and we've even shared a few boyfriends.

I don't mean to imply that anything kinky happened between us. Usually I would just suck his dick while he fucked Kristen as she figured since they were HER boyfriends, she should be the one getting it in her pussy but she would switch now and then to keep me happy.

Although I managed to have sex on a pretty regular basis since my first time with my boyfriend Steve, even with a two year head start on Kristen she'd already passed me when it came to the total number of guys she'd had sex with. As much as I love sex Kristen was at another level entirely! Whereas I've tried to be at least a little selective when it came to whose cock I allow inside of me, not Kristen. From what I can tell so far as she's concerned, if it gets hard she wants it and it doesn't matter all that much to her who it's attached to.

To some extent I can understand her position on sex as I feel sort of the same way when it comes to giving blowjobs - never saw a dick I didn't want to suck! Still, I just can't let just ANY guy fuck me regardless of how he looks or acts. Ok, if I am to be completely honest there may have been a few cases when my horniness won out over better judgment, but those times are pretty rare for me, definitely not the norm.

One of the great things about being a teenage girl is knowing that just about every guy you meet is undressing you in his mind and wishing he could get into your panties. It may seem arrogant to say this, but once I discovered this rather startling truth I quickly learned to use it to my advantage. It never ceases to amaze me what I can make a guy do for me simply with a little wiggle of my ass or a naughty look.

As much as that works, it's nothing compared to the power I have over a boy by tempting him with a blowjob. I almost - with emphasis on "almost", feel guilty when I see how excited a guy gets if he thinks that he has even the slightest chance of getting me to suck his cock, let alone get to fuck me.

In the end, I figure if you got it, why not use it? It's not my fault guys are so easy to manipulate!

Speaking of teasing, one of the "hobbies" Kristen and I enjoy together is flirting with our neighbors. My mom sometimes gets a bit exasperated at us because she knows the other women on the block think she lets us get away with murder but at the same time she understands it's all just for fun and we don't mean any harm.

down on his cock in an effort to keep it all in my mouth as one load after another of his sperm emptied from the end of his cock.

When the last burst of sperm erupted he shuddered and held my head against his crotch. As it often happens, my efforts to contain his cum within my mouth failed and I felt a little of it leak past his cock and drip down the side of my face but I managed to keep most of it in my mouth. My dad pulled his spent cock out of my mouth and put his hand under my chin, lifting my flushed face up to look at him.

"Open your mouth and let me see," he commanded me.

I did as he told me and he looked down at the sight of his fresh cum pooled on my tongue. "God you look so fucking hot with my cum in your mouth. Now swallow it."

I obediently swallowed most of it down with one gulp and then used my finger to wipe the part that had dripped down my face into my mouth and swallowed again to get the remainder down. I looked up at him and smiled as I finally said my first words of the morning.

"Mmmmmmm, that was the best breakfast in bed I could ever have asked for daddy!"

My dad grinned and then a look came over his face as if he just remembered something, "Oh yeah, almost forgot... your mother sent me up here to say breakfast would be ready soon."

We both laughed at his "forgetfulness" and he leaned over to kiss me on the forehead. Then he left to get a robe from the bathroom as I pulled put on one of his shirts that I had been wearing the night before. Much to my mother's chagrin I typically just pulled it over my head when I undressed to go to bed, leaving it buttoned. Usually I forgot all about it later when I threw it in the wash and she was always complaining how she had to unbutton them all the time for me. It made it easier for me though in the morning like this when I would just pull it over my head and didn't have to bother with the silly buttons all over again.

My dad's dress shirts were my favorite thing to wear around the house followed by a variety of T-shirts and sweatshirts (more in the winter). His shirts were so comfortable and one of the side benefits was that I never had to wear anything underneath even if someone came to the door delivering something I was still mostly covered by the long shirt tails.

Heading downstairs I found my dad was already seated at the table and my mom was setting out some pancakes and sausages for breakfast. She looked at me as I entered the breakfast nook and gave me a knowing wink and a smile.

"Well, do you still have an appetite for breakfast?" she teased me as she looked at my dad out of the corner of her eye.

My dad was just grinning like the Cheshire Cat and didn't say word. My mom looked at him and just shook her head adding, "Well, I guess I should have known better than to send your horny father up to wake you!"

I just grinned along with my dad and reached up to kiss my mom. I hadn't brushed my teeth after blowing him so I knew she had to be tasting her husband's cum on my mouth. Her tongue extended to meet mine and we kissed in front of my dad for what must have been several minutes.

Finally our lips parted and when she pulled back she had this naughty grin on her face and she licked her lips like a cat after a good meal. She didn't say anything about his cum other than a wink at my dad so we all sat down to eat breakfast without another word about it.

Our discussion soon turned to today's block party and my mom mentioned that her sister and my cousin were coming by to join in the festivities. My heart skipped a beat as I hadn't seen Kristen in a few days and my pussy tingled a bit as I remembered our last time together when we shared her latest boy toy.

3. Getting Ready With Kristen

After we finished breakfast I returned to my room to get dressed and ready for the remainder of the day. Judging from how high the temperature was already this early in the morning, I had a feeling that it was going to be a typical Pittsburgh hot muggy August day so I picked out a pair of short denim cutoffs and a pink bikini top to wear to the party.

The cutoffs weren't my most risque pair as not even my parents would've allowed me to wear them around the neighborhood. They literally displayed half my ass and there was barely had enough material in the crotch to keep it from becoming a skirt. When I stretched or leaned over in the least the crotch material would pull up between my pussy lips, even disappearing if I went far enough! Shorts like these were reserved for around the house or when I was with a guy at his house.

The shorts I chose were more suitable for public consumption - maybe a PG-13 bordering on R rating if they had such things for shorts. They still barely covered my butt and they were cut short enough that the pockets hung out the bottom but they didn't cross the line to being arrested for public indecency, at least not quite.

Similarly, the bikini top was sort of middle of the road, at least based on my standards. It tied behind my neck and in back and actually covered most of my boobs. The thin material allowed my nipples to poke through, especially if I got a little excited, but no differently than a tight t-shirt would have.

I had a pair of pink sneakers to match along with a pair of short white anklet socks. Wearing heels would have been sexier but walking on the brick roads and grass lawns could be dangerous if I wasn't concentrating all the time so the sneakers were a sensible choice.

With my outfit laid out on the chair by my desk, I pulled my dad's shirt up and over my head, throwing it under the bed where most of my laundry was hiding. My mom was always pestering me to put them in the clothes chute which was just outside my door in the hallway but it was a lot easier to just pitch them under the bed. As I said, I wasn't ALWAYS obedient!

I stood still in the middle of my room nude and stretched my arms over my head as a big yawn escaped. I'd gotten to bed late the night before and had planned on sleeping in later than this but my dad had other ideas. Oh well, it was well worth being awakened early today!

Thinking again about the quick blowjob I'd given my dad earlier made my pussy tingle a bit and I reached down to cup my crotch in my hand. Oh my God! Suddenly I felt so horny it was if someone had physically struck me. My hand pressed tight against my crotch and I literally doubled over as my pussy cried out for attention.

In two steps I was at my bedside and I fell over backwards onto it with my legs hanging over the side, my hand never leaving my pussy in the process. My legs spread apart as I put both hands between my legs, pressing one finger into my pussy hole and rubbing my clit with the other. Incredibly, my pussy was already soaked which allowed my finger to slide easily up into me. I pulled it out and wet my clit with it to make it more slippery as my other hand rubbed it.

Closing my eyes, I stretched my head back as I masturbated as if I hadn't done it in a month. Actually I'd done it last night before falling asleep but that wasn't helping now! It wasn't like my pussy was a bank and if I made enough deposits in it I could get by when times were lean. All I could think of was being fucked by one guy after another, each stroking his dick with his hand until he was good and hard and then ramming it into me, fucking me as if I was his whore.

I kept playing with myself as I fantasized that one after another guy fucked me and came inside of me until my pussy was literally overflowing with warm sperm. As horny as I was, it wasn't long before I came, lifting my hips up against my hand as I humped my finger like it was a little cock.

I gasped as goose bumps raised over my entire body and my chest flushed bright red. From the heat I felt on my face my cheeks must have been flushed as well and my entire body felt incredible in a way that just can't be described in words. It was like my pussy was an erupting volcano with huge lava flows of pleasure pouring out and covering me with the heat of wanton passion.

It was good but not enough - God I needed to be fucked so bad!

As my orgasm slowly, very slowly, died down I collapsed on the bed while my body unwinding as it recharged from what I knew was not going to be the only orgasm I'd be having. My breathing was heavy as if I had just run a mile and my hands were still, pressed against my soaking wet cunt.

Suddenly I heard something rustle at the door and I turned my head to the side to see my cousin Kristen peeking in on me! Once she saw that I'd finally noticed her, she stepped into my bedroom, grinning at me like a cat who had just caught a mouse.

"Hey cuz! Looks like someone's horny this morning!" she giggled, looking me over as she did.

We'd started masturbating together years ago so it wasn't anything for me to be embarrassed or ashamed of but I was still caught off guard. Well, at least she hadn't caught me sucking my dad's dick.

She glanced down at my crotch where my hands were clasping my pussy and exclaimed, "Well, don't let ME stop you. Damn girl! Judging from the way you just came you've got to be wanting more!"

I was still so damn horny I didn't even answer her as all I could think about was how bad I wanted a cock in me. For just a brief moment I wished my cousin was a boy - god it seemed like all I could think about was how I needed a good fucking!

Kristen was wearing denim cutoffs similar to mine but instead of a bikini top she had on a tight white cami which she must have outgrown two years ago. It was almost sheer and I could clearly see the dark outline of her nipples underneath. Most of her flat midriff was exposed, her belly button easily visible.

I liked to tease and think of myself as a slut - but in a good way. Kristen, on the other hand, WAS a slut in every sense of the word. Every guy in school knew what a date with Kristen meant - he was going to get lucky! Sometimes I wondered if there were any guys in her class she had NOT fucked at one time or another either individually or as a group at party in some back bedroom.

We'd never even so much as touched each other's boobs but many a time we would watch each other masturbate and get off seeing the other coming. When we shared one of her boyfriends he invariably wanted to see us getting it on but we never did. I don't know exactly why but I guess maybe it was because she was my cousin and other than our mother's and my mom's best friend I'd never been with a girl before. There were times when we almost did it but something always seemed to interrupt us just when one of us had almost worked up the courage.

By now I had regained my composure but I still felt as horny as ever, if anything even more if that was possible! Kristen, never one to miss an opportunity to masturbate, quickly stripped off her shorts and hopped on my bed, leaving her cami and sneakers on as she sat at the top of my bed and pushed my pillows behind her for support.

Kristen laid back with her knees up and spread wide apart, allowing each of us to look at the other's open pussy. Kristen had always been small for her age - most guys figured her for two to three years younger than she actually was, and her pussy was trimmed up a bit but still mostly covered with blonde fuzzy hair. It just made me all the hotter to see her masturbating as we both kept our eyes fixed on one another. Although her boobs barely made a rise in her cami, her hardened nipples poked out through the thin transparent material like little pencil erasers.

The two of us masturbated like that for what must have been almost an hour. I have no idea how many times each of us came but by the time we finished my finger was certainly tired! I wondered sometimes when she would cry out as her body tensed with her orgasm what she was dreaming of but we both respected the other too much to interrupt and ask.

My room must have smelled like some sort of sex pit with all the pussy cum soaking my bed sheets! Finally we both just couldn't take any more and she moved to the side of me and we hugged. I felt her boobs pressing against mine through her cami top and for a moment wondered what it would be like to have sex with her the way I did with my mom - and hers!

"Well, well, and what do we have here?" a sweet voice interrupted our moment together.

We both looked over to see our moms standing at the door, smiling at the two of us like the proud parents they were. My Aunt Linda had asked the question and then mine chimed in saying, "Good grief Linda, we leave them alone for just one hour and look what happens!"

Aunt Linda chuckled saying, "Sort of reminds me of when we were that age, doesn't it Mary."

Kristen and I both looked at them and then at each other and smiled. I knew my mom had masturbated with her sister as she had told me as soon as she found out that Kristen and I were doing it together. Besides, masturbating with other girls was not really a big deal - I did it with most of my friends at sleepovers and sometimes just when we were visiting and the conversation would get going about some hot guy at school.

It's funny how when I talk to guys they all seem repulsed at the thought of masturbating with one of their friends yet most girls I know don't seem to have any problem with it. I guess it's sort of like dancing where you see girls dancing together all the time but never a group of guys. Oh well, that's their problem.

'C'mon you horny little sluts, that's enough fun. Now clean yourselves up and get dressed - we have work to do," my mom called out as they left and retreated back downstairs.

4. Teasing at the Block Party

For a moment I wondered where my dad had gone - it wasn't like him not to at least peek in when Kristen was over as he knew what it usually led to. As it turned out my dad was out on the deck cleaning the grill before carting it off to the street in front of all the neighborhood. It was a sharp stainless steel model that he had begged my mom to let him buy. She didn't understand why he needed to spend over $1,000 just for a grill but eventually she relented. It wasn't just coincidence that before she did they had one hell of an afternoon in bed!

Kristen and I ran to the bathroom to wash ourselves off, threw our clothes back on and fixed our hair by pulling it back into ponytails. Ponytails were easy to deal with and were also nice and cool for a hot day like today. As an added bonus, I knew it turned on the guys in our neighborhood when I went out with that "girl-next-door" look. Downstairs our moms were fixing some dishes to pass at the party later and we joined in to get things done.

Noon arrived before we knew it and as my dad dragged out the grill the rest of us brought out the food, plates and the rest of the usual picnic stuff. People were starting to gather now and the police has just arrived to erect the wooden barriers at each end of the street.

Our neighborhood had quite a mixture of people - some young couples as well as older, babies and teenagers, straight and even one couple we all called "the gay guys". Over the years I had babysat for quite a few of them and I knew most of them at least by face if not by name.

It was obvious from the start that Kristen and I were getting more than our share of attention - particularly from the guys and even, much to my amusement, from some of the younger boys. Kristen was thoroughly enjoying the latter group as she had always had a thing about younger boys. Well, at fifteen she could still get away with most anything and I knew that at more than a few occasions she would have definitely raised some eyebrows if people knew more about her history.

As for me, I thought the boys were cute but I actually prefer older men who just seem to be nicer overall and tend not to be so self-centered as a rule. The nice thing was that between the two of us we just about covered the age spectrum so I guess as a pair we offered something for everyone!

I think what really got me off as much as anything though was seeing the looks from the women, especially the wives. Needless to say, most of the wives didn't seem overly thrilled when their husbands glancing (in some cases more like staring) our way and on more than one occasion I got a glimpse of a couple exchanging some sharp words. Hopefully it was about us given the way she would look our way and frown.

I couldn't help but feel a twinge between my legs as I thought about what naughty things these guys were probably thinking about me - including what they were thinking about what they wanted to DO to me.

What was even more interesting was the look I got from one wife I'd never met before. She looked to be in her forties and she was actually looking at me more than her husband was! It felt a bit strange to be looked at that way by another woman but yet it created a stirring between my legs that I couldn't ignore. My hand subconsciously started to reach between my legs but just in time I remembered I was out in the middle of the neighborhood and I reluctantly pulled it back. It wouldn't do to start playing with myself in front of all the neighbors!

With everyone cooking, lunch was ready quickly and we lined up to get different foods from the various grills that were going. Kristen and I just grabbed a hotdog from my dad although some of the guys were grilling ribs, chicken, hamburgers and some sort of sausages. Needless to say side dishes included some excellent pierogis - a Pittsburgh standard at any picnic.

We sat down on the grass with our legs crossed under us Indian style. I noticed Kristen's shorts had pulled up tight into her crotch creating a nice camel toe effect and I looked down quickly at my own and realized my had done the same.

I wanted to laugh at the contortions some guys went through in order to catch a glimpse of our crotches without being obvious about it. A couple guys even made a point of passing by us several times with some lame excuse about needing to get more food but they didn't fool me. Although their eyes were trying to look forward I caught them sneaking a peak between our legs every time!

By this time of the summer we both had great tans and our closely shaved legs glistened in the hot sun. Once again I felt the need so badly to reach down and start playing with myself for them to watch! I was sure the guys wouldn't mind! Every guy I knew loved to watch me masturbate and more than once I think I narrowly escaped death when a guy was paying more attention to me playing with myself in his front seat than to his driving!

"Are you feeling as horny as I am?" Kristen whispered to me after yet another guy walked by and looked at us.

"Oh my god, you know it!" I whispered back, heaving a heavy sigh in the process.

Indeed, my pussy was practically screaming for attention and from the way Kristen was squirming, hers must have been doing the same. Something was going to have to happen and soon or I was going to do it right then and there and the hell with the consequences!

We soon finished our food and bent over to get up. Granted we may have taken more time and stayed leaning over longer than required but I don't think any of the guys were ready to file a complaint.

Kristen stopped and kneeled down to where a couple of younger boys were still eating. They looked to be about twelve or thirteen, old enough to appreciate waist to get that first step. Had I not been shaved no doubt my pubic hair would have been sticking out.

A pair of hands suddenly appeared to hold my waist and help lift me up. I looked back and saw it was one of the firemen. He smiled at me and then did the same to help Kristen up as well. We both managed to get up the rest of the way and although I didn't look back I imagined every pair of eyes - at least the male ones, were fixed on our asses and legs.

It was just too easy - like waving fresh meat in front of a lion's den! Kristen and I looked at each other and we both giggled at the same time, each of us knowing what the other was thinking. I couldn't help it really and I don't think anyone would blame me for liking the attention - after all, who doesn't like to be appreciated? The only people I ever hear claiming that such stares and thoughts "objectify" women are women who don't get the stares!

We eventually worked our way down and jumped off the back of the truck to the ground. The same fireman was there to be sure we didn't fall and get hurt. He asked us if we had any questions to which Kristen put on her best slutty smile and softly replied, "Noooooo, we just wanted to see how long your hose was."

He started to reply, saying something about how many feet of hose the truck had on it when he looked at Kristen's face and suddenly it dawned on him that Kristen wasn't talking about anything on the truck. Well, I couldn't believe it but he actually blushed!! I wasn't sure if it was the question itself or the fact that someone her age was asking it. In any case he just smiled at her and went back to answering questions from the crowd.

The two of us wandered away and as soon as we were out of earshot I smacked her bottom sharply saying, "You little cockteaser, what if someone had heard you ask him that?"

Kristen giggled, knowing full well I wasn't really angry at her. As we talked the fire truck pulled away, I guess they could only stay for thirty minutes before they had to go to another block party.

The next couple hours were really pretty uneventful. We played the usual picnic party games - egg toss, water balloons, and such. Probably the only "interesting" moment was when Kristen got smacked right in the chest with a water balloon, soaking her cami causing it to cling like Saran-Wrap to her chest. Her top became practically transparent - something that didn't go unnoticed by practically every male set of eyes within one hundred feet.

Well, not even my flirty cousin could get away with sticking around in that condition so the two of us headed back to my house where she took off her top and dried herself off before donning one of my t-shirts.

We were about to head back out again when my Aunt Linda appeared at the door and told Kristen it was time for them to get going - something about a date that evening and she wanted to get home to get ready for it. I offered to drive Kristen home but her mom insisted that Kristen come with her to help her out with something before her date. Kristen just rolled her eyes a bit but was smiling at the same time.

I asked what was so important that it needed her help and she just shrugged and had a funny smile on her face I hadn't ever seen before. Now what was THAT all about? Well, I wasn't going to find out as the two of them both gave me a peck on the cheek and then left for home.

6. Private Party at Home

Just after Kristen and Aunt Linda were leaving my dad returned. I hadn't expected him so I jumped a little when he suddenly spanked my bottom playfully as I was leaning over the sink to get a glass of water.

"Why are you so jumpy?" he asked. "Hmmmmmm, I think somebody needs a harder spanking than THAT after your naughty performances today."

I turned to look at him, trying to act as if I didn't know what he was talking about.

He just shook his head and grinned at me saying, "Don't give me that 'little miss innocent look. You know, I bet every guy on the block was fighting to keep his pants from bulging uncontrollably when you two little foxes were playing on that fire truck together."

Then he reached around me from behind and pulled me tight against him. I felt a hard object pressing against the small of my back as he pressed against me.

"I have to admit, you two DID look pretty hot," he said in a lower tone of voice.

"Daddy!" I protested playfully, "Now just what do you have on your mind?

Rather than respond verbally he kissed the side of my neck which was bare thanks to my hair being pulled up into a ponytail. Mmmmmmm, his warm wet lips felt so good on me! I felt a shiver run through me as his tongue licked my ear and traced along the outer edge of my ear lobe. His hands moved up and each one

"Oh yea baby, beg me for it... tell me how much you want my cock."

What could I say at that point? I wanted it more than anything else in the world. I would've done anything he asked, told him anything he wanted to hear, just to feel him slide inside of me and penetrate me with his dick. How could I even describe to him the raging lust in me that arose whenever I knew he wanted me? Well, I had to try...

"Fuck me daddy, PLEASE fuck me," I whimpered. "I want to feel you in me, feel you love me, to be joined to you... Oh PLEASE daddy... PLEASE fuck me. Let me please you."

"That's it, tell me more how much you want me to fuck you."

"I want to be a good girl, daddy.. I want to give myself to you... I want you to fuck me daddy.... PLEASE!"

"That's my girl... and yes, you're a good girl - a wonderful daughter."

"Oh daddy! Show me!"

Without another word my father almost ripped my shorts off of me, unzipping them so fast that the zipper almost broke and then pulling them roughly down to my ankles where I stepped out of them as he dropped his shorts and boxers revealing his incredible erection that arose from a thick thatch of black pubic hair.

My father grabbed me by the waist and twisted me around so that I faced the counter and pushed my legs apart. He reached between my butt cheeks until his fingers found my soaking wet pussy hole and shoved his middle finger deep into my pussy. I gasped as his other fingers reached my clit and played with it as he fondled me just long enough to spread my wetness all over my cunt.

I could feel the head of his cock pressing against my bare bottom and then he held it in one hand and directed it to my pussy hole. Just before he entered me he coughed and then finally spoke.

"I love you Kelly," he whispered in my ear. "I love you as I could only love my daughter... Now I'm going to SHOW you how much I love you."

His cock pressed into my pussy and at first met the resistance of my closed pussy lips. He used his hand to rub the head of his cock up and down the slit of my cunt to wet it and make it more slippery. Usually I would have sucked him first and left it all wet but today I could tell he wasn't in the mood for preliminaries - he obviously just wanted to fuck his daughter and I would never complain about him doing THAT!!

Without further warning his cock suddenly slipped through and pushed its way into my waiting pussy hole. At first he buried just the thick head of his dick in me and held it there for a few seconds, using his hand to run circles with it inside my pussy. I was SO sensitive there, like I have am million nerve endings just at that location so I was standing there loving every second of it.

"You want it deeper baby?"

"Oh yes daddy, I want all of you in me... I want us to be together much as possible. I want to be joined together with you."

My dad's hands grabbed my bare hips and I felt him pull me back as he thrust his incestuous hard cock deeper inside of me. He didn't stop until it was all the way in me and I could feel his hairy crotch as it pressed against my ass, the initial force almost lifting my off my feet.

"That's it daddy, I can feel you inside of me. I love feeling you in me"

That was all I could say as he started to pump his wonderful cock in and out of me. It was almost like being spanked the way his crotch would slam into my pussy creating a slapping sound as his flesh banged into mine. It just felt so incredible!

No matter how many guys fuck me or how often I get it, nobody gives me the sense of fulfillment and security that I feel when my father's cock is deep inside of me. Sure it feels physically good when other guys fuck me but then, almost any cock can do it for me in terms of physical gratification.

For me it's all about the emotions that flood me when I feel my father's dick in me and realize what it really means – that my own father loves and honors me so much that he is willing to join together with me in the most sacred and intimate way possible that a father can do for his daughter.

Just as I love the physical pleasure I know it is in part his male lust that drives him to want to fuck me but I also am positive that it can't be just that or else he would be fucking every hot girl he could. The main reason that I want to give myself to him because I know the primary reason he has sex with me is to share his love and respect for me, to show me that as his daughter I am special to him in a way no other girl can or ever will be to him. It wasn't like I was his lover or his wife or anything kinky or perverted like that. I've never felt like anything but his daughter and I love him so much for that!

All these thoughts were spinning through my head as he fucked me standing there in the kitchen. Then without saying anything he pulled out of me and I felt this deep sense of loss but before I could protest he was steering me to the kitchen table.

My head went back and my eyes closed as my fingers worked my clit. Sometimes I would reach down and feel the base of his cock as it pressed against me, bringing the wetness that was pouring from my pussy up to my clit to keep it wet and slippery.

Another moan, louder than the first, followed as my orgasm climbed to its peak. I loved the feel when my body reacted this way, when nothing else in the world mattered except the pleasure that was pounding me from my toes to the tips of my hair. It was like I retreated into my own little world, my own sexual haven where all my cares, worries and concerns just melted away and all that remained was the bliss I felt from the union of my father and me.

I played with my clit like a fine instrument, slowing down at times and then speeding up at others to maintain myself on that edge where my orgasm was at its peak. Too fast or too slow and it was like being on a mountain peak where no matter where you stepped it was downhill. The trick to a good orgasm was to find that pinnacle where you could just keep it going and going for as long as you could physically and emotionally handle it.

I have no idea how long I stayed there as time seemed to lose its meaning but finally I just couldn't breathe anymore and I just pressed on my clit and held my hand still, allowing myself to slowly come down from what has to be the closest thing to a drug addict's high that I could have without actually shooting up. I've found that I'm addicted to my orgasms just as much as an addict is addicted to her heroin.

I knew that even after this fucking I would masturbate before I went to bed tonight, it was just something I needed to do before I went to sleep or else I would find myself waking up in the middle of the night with this incredible desire for sex.

Finally I could breathe naturally again and I looked up at my dad and smiled at him saying, "Mmmmmmm, that was so nice... your turn Daddy... I want you to cum in me."

"Oh yeah Kelly, I'm going to fill your hot little cunt now, fill it with my cum."

He must have been on the edge throughout my own special time because it wasn't more than a few strokes before he groaned and suddenly he thrust himself hard into me and held himself as deep into me as he could while his cock head exploded and I felt the first of what would be several streams of sperm shooting into me.

"That's it daddy, give it to me... give me your love."

I wasn't sure what was better at this point - the pure animal lust in me that craved his cock and the feeling of his cum inside or the way it made me feel to know it wasn't just some horny guy dumping his cum in me but it was my father instead. It was the man who helped to create me, the man to whom I owed everything I had, the man I wanted to please more than anyone else in the entire world that was cumming in me.

His cum filled my cunt and he held himself in me even after he came. I could feel his cum seeping out of me just a bit as he involuntarily would pump me slightly. He let my legs drop and took me in his strong arms as we hugged while remaining joined together.

"Now THIS is what I call a Kodak moment!"

We both looked and there was my mom standing there in the hallway with a camera in her hand. Before we could react she snapped a few pictures of us there in the kitchen.

"Damn, now THAT is hot. I love seeing the two of you like this," my mom said as she approached us. "My God John, you know I could watch you fuck our daughter all day!"

I grinned at her and said, "Well mom, just so you know I wouldn't mind if he fucked me all day!"

My mom laughed and shook her head before she replied saying, "Sorry girl, he's mine tonight. After watching this little show I need some of that cock for myself!"

My dad was caught in between the two of us, each wanting him to fuck them. I imagine it had to be a nice feeling to know his wife and daughter both felt that way. As much as my mom and I might tease each other, in reality there was no debate. After all she was his wife and his first responsibility was to her needs. As much as he loved me, it was the love for his daughter he felt towards me.

I knew there was a special bond between my parents though that transcended anything he felt for anyone else. I could see it in their eyes when they looked at each other over the dinner table just as much as when they made love. It was a look I never saw when his eyes met mine and frankly I never wanted to see it - not from him at least.

Someday I hope to look in my own husband's eyes and see it then - knowing he is making love to me which is something no man has ever done to me yet so far as I am concerned.

he'd look pretty hot. Randy seemed a bit immature but then what teenage boy wasn't? I'd never seen him alone with a girl and I doubted he'd ever been on a date.

Later on in the evening we were going to play a scripture quiz game and the girls had to draw names from a hat for their partner. Given what had happened earlier I was amused at Fate's irony when I saw I'd pulled out Randy's name. When I walked over to Randy and showed him the slip with his name on it, he blushed beet red and I couldn't help but smile.

"C'mon Randy, it's OK. I didn't mind you looking at me. Besides, don't you know that girls really like it when guys look at them, even if we say we don't? Why do you think we go through all the trouble to dress up and look good for you guys?"

Randy just stammered a bit so I smiled again at him to try to let him see I was OK with everything. We sat down at our table and I spread out the quiz cards. Our table was off in the corner with nobody was too close to us but it wasn't like we were alone or anything like that.

I started thinking about how he stared at my legs and crotch earlier, wondering what he was thinking when he did. In my mind, I pictured him going home later and laying in his bed all alone at night, thinking about me and wanting me, wishing he could put his hands on me and feel those smooth tanned legs he'd been staring at. I imagined him getting an erection and then masturbating as he imagined me dropping my shorts and showing him more of me than he'd seen before.

Sitting so close to him now, I started to get that feeling deep inside, that irresistible itch that can only be truly satisfied by a boy. It was then that I really started looking at Randy with more than just curiosity or passing interest. What he would be like if we were alone? How it would feel to have him do more than just look at me? I felt my face flush a bit the more I thought about him so I decided learn a little bit more about Randy.

"So Randy, do you have a girlfriend?"

He just shook his head and looked down at his index cards as if he was embarrassed to admit the truth. I felt sort of sorry for Randy as he seemed so insecure with me. At the same time it made him all the more interesting as I wondered what I could do to make him more confident. Sort of like he was now a project for me, somebody to rehabilitate even. "You know Randy, I've never bitten anyone in my life so you CAN talk to me! Is there something wrong with me, some reason that you can't look at me?"

Thankfully that made him look up! I just sat quietly while he seemed to be working up the courage and finally it came out. "Oh no Kelly, it's just that girls like you never talk to me like I'm a real person. I've never even been on a date because I am afraid to ask anyone."

"Well Randy, you know that if you never ask a girl she can't say yes. Besides, what's the worst thing she can do, say no?"

Randy shook his head. "You don't understand Kelly. I hear what girls say about some of the other guys after they go out with them. I don't want them joking about me and telling their friends what an idiot I am."

"I understand Randy, girls can be really cruel but you're so cute that I would think any girl would be happy to go out with you. I know I would."

Well, I'd been doing fine until that last bit slipped out. Where did THAT come from! I guess I must have let my subconscious thoughts escape because in truth, I really wouldn't mind dating Randy. Fortunately Randy picked up on it and didn't seem to embarrassed to answer for once.

"Wow Kelly, would you really? Why you would want me? I see the guys you go out with and everybody knows what you do with them," he said rather sheepishly.

"Well first Randy, I don't know what you've heard about me but that has nothing to do with how I feel about you. I'm serious Randy, I think you'd be fun to go out with. You should try asking someone, you might be surprised at the response you get!"

Randy's attention was drawn to the quiz game when one of our leaders came by to check on us. He seemed distracted though and I could see he was concentrating on something. I just kept quiet, figuring it would be better not to interrupt him at this moment. Suddenly a look of determination came to his face and then he looked me in the eyes.

"OK Kelly, then would you really go out with me or are you just teasing me?"

Maybe it was his little boy innocence that attracted me like a mouth to a flame, or maybe I'd just gone too long without a guy so I was getting desperate to be laid. Whatever the reason I really did want to go out with him. Besides, the guys I usually dated were always so much more confident and experienced when compared to Randy. I thought it might be interesting to spend an evening with someone like him, someone innocent who I could teach and be in control. The more I thought about it the more the idea appealed to me. Now I just had to convince Randy.

"Sure Randy, I would love to. Now was that so hard to ask. What would you like to do?"

Randy blushed. I was pretty sure that I was the first girl to ever say that to him.

"Gosh, I don't know Kelly. How about a movie?"

I couldn't help but giggle a bit at the suggestion. I was pretty sure Randy had no idea what I liked to do in movie theaters on a date although he HAD mentioned something about knowing my reputation so who knows. From the look on his face though, he must have been thinking that I was laughing at him so I quickly set the record straight.

"Sorry Randy, I wasn't laughing at you, a funny thought just crossed my mind. Actually I would love to see a movie with you."

Before he could back out, we agreed on a time to meet the next Friday night and then we finished the quiz game. The rest of the night was rather uneventful and I gave him a little wave as I got in the car to go home. As I drove home I found myself wondering if he had any idea what was in store for him on Friday!

2. Movie Date With Randy

That Friday evening I got ready for my date with Randy. During my shower I shaved my legs and crotch. I was never one for a lot of makeup but a little blush, a dab of eye shadow and a light coating of lipstick never hurt. I picked out a cute blue plaid skirt and a white lace blouse. The blouse was semi-sheer and buttoned down the front while my skirt came less than halfway down my thighs. Together with my heels my legs would show off at their best.

Normally I'm not a big fan of underwear but there are times when it can be more sexy to wear it than not to. I selected on a pair of standard white cotton panties and decided for fun to wear a bra. All-in-all a pretty conservative outfit for me but I had a feeling that Randy would be scared off if I wore one of my more typical dating outfits, especially the cute little skirt and halter set my dad referred to as "Kelly's high school slut outfit" (but actually it was his favorite!)

I checked myself out in a full-length mirror, imagining a pair of hands running over me. I slowly traced the backs of my fingers down the sides of my neck and then down to my breasts. I cupped my breast in my hands through the bra and pressed them tightly to me, then squeezed them gently and pinched my nipples. A shiver ran down my legs as I dreamed of being gently caressed and fondled.

My hands slowly ran down my stomach and I lifted up my skirt. My hands each ran up the inside my thighs, tickling me and making me tingle when they met in my crotch. I pressed my hands tightly against me and I could feel the warmth of my pussy even through my cotton panties. My fingers began to rub my pussy through my panties and I dreamed of someone exploring me, playing with me, touching me.

Just as I was at the point of moving my panties aside so I could do some serious fingering I heard a car in the driveway and knew it was Randy. Reluctantly I straightened out my skirt and blouse and went downstairs to meet Randy. I went out to get in his car. My parents were out for dinner so there was no need to make him get out and go through the "meet the parents" routine.

As I approached him I saw that his car certainly left a bit to be desired as it looked to be older as I was and not in extremely good shape. The one good thing I noted though was the front seat. It was the old style bench seat instead of the typical bucket seats found in most cars today. We exchanged hellos and I sat in the passenger seat as he drove to the theater.

On the way we just talked about school and church, nothing memorable. I didn't bother pulling my skirt down when I got in so it was riding up pretty high, not quite exposing my ass but close! I noticed he couldn't help but look over at me at times, taking in a few eyefuls of my legs and I was hoping that he was thinking about what was under my skirt as well.

When we got to the movie theater it was very crowded so Randy had to find a parking space out behind the theater along with a number of other moviegoers. Randy was a perfect gentleman the whole time. He opened the car door for me and paid for everything, including some drinks and snacks. I don't think he had a lot of money and for him to spend this much must have been hard for him.

We found seats towards the back of the theater and watched the movie. I put my hand on the armrest between us but he never even touched me the entire movie. I loved dates in movie theaters and not because of the delicious popcorn. For me it was a bit strange to actually watch an entire movie! I'd given my first blowjob in a theater like this one and even been fucked more than once in similar ones so to just sit and watch was a new experience for me.

Fortunately it was a good movie and the evening went along fine. Even so, I was more than a bit disappointed that he didn't make one move towards me. I wondered if he knew what a unique date this was for me.

3. The Theater Parking Lot

When the movie was over we went back to his car. The crowds must have seen another movie and left as the area where his car was parked was now empty except for his car. As we walked to the car I started planning a few ways to spice the night up a bit so when we got in the car I turned in my seat to him.

"Thank you Randy for the movie and stuff. I really appreciated it."

"You're welcome Kelly, I've never been on a real date before and I was so afraid of doing something wrong."

"Well Randy, you were a perfect gentleman. Here, let me thank you in a more personal way."

Before he truly realized what was happened, I scooted over in the seat until I was up next to him. I put my arms around his neck and kissed him. Just a short kiss with my mouth closed but I could feel him tense up as I did. I'd never had to be the aggressor before on a date. Indeed, in most cases I was the one fighting off the attack although admittedly it's not like I actually resist all that much! Tonight, though, I knew that if anything was going to happen it would be up to me to make it so. I pulled back just a bit from him.

"So Randy, have you ever kissed a girl before?"

"NNNNNooo Kelly," he stammered, his face turning beet red

Just the answer I was hoping for! I'd never been with a boy on his first date before and it excited me to think I'd just given him his first kiss! I licked my lips just a bit and kissed him again. This time he wasn't so shocked and after a short while he was obviously getting into it more. After we had gone on this way for a while I opened my lips slightly, just enough to let my tongue slip out and touch his lips. Randy's eyes opened wide and he pulled back a bit. I tried to make him feel at ease.

"It's OK Randy, it's called French kissing. Just relax and try it. I promise you'll love it."

We kissed again and this time Randy followed my lead and our tongues met. He FINALLY put his arms around me and we kept kissing for the longest time. It seemed to be up to me to take the initiate so I took one of his hands and held it to my breasts. He was stiff at first but as he felt my soft bosom his hands instinctively began to fondle me. He was a bit clumsy at first but that just made it all the hotter for me knowing that he'd never done anything like this before and that he was learning with me.

After a while I sat back in the seat and gave him a coy look. "So tell me Randy, have you ever seen a girl before? I mean REALLY seen her? I'm not talking about your father's Playboy or anything like that. Haven't you always wanted to see what a girl really looks like?"

Randy's face was flushed and he was biting his lip a bit as he looked at me. I'd made no effort to pull down my skirt after I had moved around and it was riding up high. With my legs up on the seat I knew he was getting a good view of my crotch, even though my panties were covering everything of interest.

It was looking like Randy was too scared to make the next move so I did it for him. I reached down and started to rub my crotch through my panties. My hand was moving very slowly and deliberately, not really meaning to turn me on but to turn him on instead.

"Mmmmmmm, do you like to see me doing this Randy?"

"Damn Kelly, I can't believe this is really happening. God you look so hot! I don't even know what to say."

"Don't say anything Randy, just watch me. I love it when a boy watches me touch myself."

Leaning back against the passenger door, I pulled my skirt up to my waist and then pulled my panties down until they were at my ankles. By spreading my legs wide apart I gave him a perfect view of my crotch. Back then I wasn't shaving it completely but instead trimming it and keeping it cleaned it up enough so I could wear a sexy thong bikini. Randy was just staring at me, or I should really say my pussy, as I took my hands and spread my pussy lips apart to allow him to see me even better.

"Mmmmmmm, I love the way you're looking at my pussy Randy. See here? This is my clit and it loves to be touched and teased."

When I touched my clit I gasped as a deep shiver ran through me. I love to masturbate and it especially thrills me when someone watched me do it.

"You know Randy, sometimes at home I like to watch myself in the mirror when I touch myself like this. Will you be my mirror tonight?"

OK, so I plagiarized the line from one of my dad's porn movies but Randy didn't know that. The look on his face was priceless.

Running a finger up and down my pussy crack, I dipped it just enough inside to get my finger wet and then back up to my clit where I teased myself and caressed it. Randy watched my every move in total silence, not even hardly even blinking.

I slipped off my panties from around my ankles and handed them to him. He took them gingerly I was ready to bet that he'd never held a girl's panties before, especially a pair that was still wet in the crotch from her excited pussy! I put my finger inside of me again and he stared like a deer caught in the headlights.

"What's the matter Randy, don't you know how girls masturbate? When I do this I imagine a guy being inside of me. Do you imagine being inside of a girl when you jerk off?"

He looked a bit shocked when I said that. I was sure no girl had ever talked to him like this and as much as I loved touching myself, I was getting off more watching his reactions.

"Don't be embarrassed Randy, all guys jerk off. Well, in case you didn't know, so do girls. But I like it even better when a guy touches me."

As I spoke to him I kept stroking my finger in and out of me, dreaming it was Randy fucking me instead with that hard cock I could see outlined in his pants! I moaned as the pleasure I felt started to overtake me. Having Randy watching me with those wide eyes and open mouth only intensified the feelings.

As I massaged my boob and masturbated, my breathing was getting more labored and my moans were louder and longer. God I was going to cum already! My orgasm started to rise in my like a volcano erupting. My pussy was on fire as I thrust my fingers into me as fast as I could with my palm rubbing over my clit at the same time. I gasped and looked at Randy as he stared at me with a look of wonder on his face.

"Oh my God Randy! Watch me cum! Ohhhhhhhhh, it feels so wonderful, I love this soooooo much!"

I pulled up hard against my crotch, my fingers deep in me and pressing against my clit as my orgasm reached its climax and finally started to subside. I lay there breathing hard, bringing my wet fingers to my mouth and sucking my cum juices off of them.

"Mmmmmmm, I love the way I taste Randy. Did you like watching me cum for you. I know I did! Now it's you turn to touch me."

Randy seemed confused, almost like he couldn't believe what he was hearing. I turned around and got up on his lap with my back to his door. I could feel his jeans

"They're not big but they're VERY sensitive so be nice to them. Touch them Randy, it's OK... really you can touch them."

Even though he wasn't a big guy I was still so small that Randy's hand was able to cup and cover my entire breast. But I wasn't teasing about them being sensitive! I loved just running my fingers along them, just brushing up against the nipple. More than once I had to catch myself in public like in class or even church when I would absent mindedly start to run my fingers along them, forgetting where I was and what I was doing. Fortunately I had never been caught as it would have been quite embarrassing!

Randy squeezed me softly, learning for the first time how a girl's breast felt as he touched mine. I wondered what he was thinking as he caressed my breast while I sat bottomless on his lap? I loved watching him touch me as he moved from one to the other, sending ripples of pleasure through me as would take his whole hand and just squeeze me softly.

"Now I want you to suck my nipples Randy. Put them in your mouth and softly suck on them. They love to have a lot of attention paid to them."

Randy licked his lips and lowered his head to my bosom and softly sucked on one boob and then the other. God it felt so good! I held his head against my chest, running my fingers through his hair.

"Oh yes Randy, that's it! Suck on it. Put as much in your mouth as you can and suck hard. Run your tongue over the nipple while you do that. Oh Randy... you make me feel so good when you do that."

I wasn't just building his ego, I WAS feeling good! I squirmed in his lap and I could feel his hard cock through his jeans, trying to escape to be with my pussy that was just above it. I let him suck me for a while, torn between the pleasure he was giving me and the desire to get a closer look at that bulge I was feeling under my ass, which was even larger than before.

Finally my desire for his cock overtook me so I pushed his head gently away from me. I moved off his lap and go on my knees on the seat next to him where I unbuckled and then unzipped his jeans. As I tried to pull his jeans and underwear off he raised his hips to make it easier for me. What I saw then made my mouth water. Randy had a nice sized cock and it was as stiff as a steel rod. I looked up at Randy and smiled.

"Mmmmmmm, I love the sight of a hard dick waiting for me. I'm going to touch you now."

I reached out and put my hand around his shaft. Oh my was he hard! My fingers wrapped around his shaft and he felt so warm in my hand. I could feel him shudder as I started to stroke it very slowly. It felt so hot knowing that I was the first girl to touch it. I gripped him with the bottom of my hand at the base of his cock. A couple of inches extended beyond my hand so I guessed him to be about six inches long or so. I could feel his pubic hair against my hand, so curly and dark.

"You have a beautiful cock Randy, did you know that? It fits perfectly in my hand which also means it would fit perfectly in my mouth. Will you let me suck you Randy?"

Randy blushed. "Do you mean you want to suck my dick? You're teasing me now... I can't believe you would want to do that!"

"Yes Randy, that is EXACTLY what I want. Trust me, I'm good at it and when I'm sucking you I promise you'll know why guys love it so much."

Before he could say anything else I leaned down and licked the tip of his cock. He jumped a bit and I started to lick up and down his shaft, kissing his hard cock all over. With his cock all wet from my saliva I stroked him and sucked on the head as I did. He groaned just a bit and I knew he was enjoying it.

Then I took him deeper in my mouth and slowly let him come in farther until I had all of him in me and my face was buried in his lovely pubic hair. I could feel the hair brushing against and tickling my cheeks.

Mmmmmmm he smelled so good! I've always loved the distinct odor of a man's crotch, that heavy musky smell that gets so strong when he gets excited and I think that hairy ones smell the best. He tasted so good and I was excited to think that I was the first one to suck him. His was the first cock I'd ever sucked that had never been in a woman's pussy, a thought which turned me on even more.

When I thought about it, this was the actually first time his cock had been inside a woman in any way in his entire life! I could hear him moaning as I sucked him like a warm popsicle, sliding him in and out as I let my tongue trace along the back of his shaft.

He was starting to get more worked up now though and I wasn't ready for him to cum yet so I took him out of my mouth and held him in my hand. His cock was so smooth, warm and slippery and at that moment I knew without a doubt that I really wanted it right then and there. I whispered to him in the sexiest, huskiest voice I could muster.

"OK Randy, are you ready? Are you ready to fuck me? I want to be your first. I want to be the one to feel your cock as it penetrates a girl's pussy for the very first time. I want to take your virginity; give it to me now Randy. I want to be the one you remember all your life as the first girl you ever fucked."

For a moment I thought maybe I'd finally gone just a little too far, too fast for Randy. After all, he'd just gone from never even kissing a girl to getting a blowjob – all in one night and on his first date at that!

The poor boy looked so confused. One second he was looking at my hand on his cock, then over to my bare ass sticking up in the air as my head was in his crotch.

I knew he wanted me, hell he probably had masturbated all week hoping this would happen but never really expecting it to. Now all of a sudden his wildest fantasies were no longer fantasies as a 17 year-old girl wearing nothing but an open blouse and heels was stroking his cock and begging him to fuck her.

"Oh Kelly, I really want to, God I really want to! But we really shouldn't. It isn't right for us to do that without being married!"

"It's OK Randy. We're not cheating on anyone and it's just for us to enjoy tonight. Just sit back and let me show you how good it feels. I love to be fucked more than almost anything; right now all I want is you and your beautiful cock."

Randy didn't say anything, which was enough for me. I straddled his lap and felt his stiff cock pressing against my hungry pussy as I slowly settled down on him. I pulled his head to my breast and he sucked on my nipples again. As he did I reached down and held his cock. God it felt so good in my hand! My pussy ached as I held it just inches away from my pussy. I wanted soooooo badly for it to be inside of me, filling my pussy with his virgin cock.

"Are you ready Randy? Tell me what you want right now."

"Oh god Kelly, I want to do it."

"No Randy, tell me exactly what you want. Tell me what you crave now."

It was like everything suddenly spilled over inside of him, as if a dam burst and all his sexual frustrations and desires poured out in a flood of words.

"Damn it Kelly, you know what I want! You really are a dirty slut, aren't you? OK then, you want to know what I want? I want to fuck you. I want to shove my dick up your pussy. Do you have any idea how many times I have dreamed of doing this to you? I just can't believe it is really happening to me now!"

Now THAT was what I wanted to hear. I couldn't wait any longer. My pussy was aching so badly for him that I really didn't care what he said or wanted anymore, I just knew I needed him in me and as soon as possible. I lifted myself up, positioned him in place and lowered myself down onto him. His cock head was just between my pussy lips and I settled myself down a little more until his head was barely inside of me.

Oh my god he felt so good! My pussy is incredibly sensitive at that spot and it made me tingle all over to feel him entering me and remaining in that position.

"Look down Randy, look at your cock. See how it's just inside of me? I can feel you... I can feel your dick inside of me now, coming inside of my body, penetrating me."

"Oh yes Kelly, I can see it. It feels so warm inside of you!"

"Keep watching, I want you to see your cock disappear for the first time into a girl as I let you into me more and more." I circled my hips around his cock, corkscrewing him into me as I gently lowered myself down onto him, as slowly as I could. Inch by inch his virgin cock disappeared until finally my pussy was pressing tightly down against his hairy crotch.

"Mmmmmmm, now this is more like it Randy, isn't it? I love it when a man is all the way inside of me. It turns me on so much to look down and not be able to see him because my pussy is holding all of him. Just sit back now and let me do the work."

Randy just kept moaning and I knew he was overcome with the feelings coursing through him from his cock. I began to lift myself up and down on his cock, pumping his cock in and out of my pussy. Sometimes as I lifted upwards I would squeeze down on his cock with my pussy, gripping him as I pulled him out of me.

I moved my hips around to feel him pressing against different parts of my pussy walls, finding just the right position to really stimulate myself. I started to play with myself at the same time, touching my clit as I brought myself to my second orgasm of the night.

"Oh god Randy, I am cumming again. This time you can feel me cum, you can feel my pussy grabbing you, pouring over you? Damn this feel so fucking good. Your cock feels so hard and hot in me. That's it Randy, fuck me, fuck me and make me cum harder!"

I could feel Randy humping himself under me, trying to match my rhythm as I bounced harder still on his cock. I kept cumming as I fingered myself faster, trying to keep myself on that hot roller coaster I was riding, reaching the peak and flying down. Finally it began to subside and I settled down on him, just moving my hips back and forth slowly so I could feel him moving in me.

"Are you OK Kelly?"

"Oh yes Randy, that is what every girl lives for and I want another one as soon as possible so now it's time for you to do the fucking."

I got off of his lap even though feeling his cock slipping from my soaking wet and still throbbing pussy was so hard to do. I laid on my back with my head against the door armrest. I spread my legs apart for him, giving him a great view of my hungry pussy, wet and messy from having just been fucked.

"Get on top of me now Randy and fuck me. For God's sake fuck me, fuck me, fuck me."

Randy positioned himself between my legs and held his cock in his hand. He brought it up to my pussy and I watched as then he pressed forward and entered me. Nothing gentle and slow this time - he rammed himself into me and banged his pelvis against me hard as he pushed himself as deep into me as he could reach. He leaned over me and kissed me as I put my hands on his ass and felt his warm butt in my hands.

Instinct took over and he began to hump me like a dog in heat. I took one hand and again fingered myself. Randy was just banging me now, fucking me like the slut I loved to be. I felt like a whore being fucked by a stranger; this wasn't the Randy that sat to the side and never talked to girls. He was thrusting his hips and literally banging me, beating against me with his pelvis as he fucked me. He started to talk as he was overwhelmed with lust and became someone else, someone who just wanted one thing - to fuck the daylights out of me.

"Damn Kelly, I love fucking you. You little bitch... you deserve to be fucked like a whore. You're always acting like a whore at school, teasing all the boys and only fucking a few of them. Now it's my turn to have you!"

His breathing was getting faster and I could tell he was about to cum.

"Stay in me Randy, don't pull out. I want you to cum in me, to spray your first load of cum inside of my pussy and fill me with yourself."

Randy just grunted and kept ranting about fucking me, calling me his slut and whore. Meanwhile I was working on my clit hard and fast. Then Randy thrust himself deep into me with a push that almost knocked me into the seat. His back arched and his head pulled back as he cried out.

"Oh my god! I am cumming in you Kelly! I'm gonna pump your cunt full of my cum."

I felt a sudden burst of heat inside of me as he came. Together with the clit massage I was giving myself it drove me over that cliff edge and into another fantastic orgasm, even harder than the others.

"Holy shit Randy, I can feel you cumming in me. Pump me with everything you have. Fill my pussy with your cum. I am cumming soooooo hard again with you!"

Randy started fucking me again, pumping himself in and out furiously. Finally he seemed to be able to take no more and just laid on top of me, his eyes closed and breathing heavily. His cock was throbbing inside of me as my orgasm slowly died away, leaving me feeling incredibly happy and sexy.

Finally Randy got back the strength to open his eyes and he looked at me and we kissed. This was the most passionate kiss he had given me all night, more now like that of a lover than just a kid on a first date. Then he got up and we both dressed quietly, neither of us really able to talk after such an experience.

I sat next to him as he started the car and drove home in silence. I rested my head on his shoulder and laid my hand on his crotch the whole way, thinking about what was under those jeans and what it had just done to me.

When we go back to my house, Randy looked at me.

"Thank you Kelly. This was the most wonderful evening I've EVER had and I'll never forget it. You were incredible!"

I just gave him a kiss on the cheek and got out of the car. I smiled at him and went inside. My Mom and Dad were watching TV and asked how I was doing. I just smiled and sat down to tell them all about it. They must have really liked hearing about it because when I went to sleep later they were going at it like they were teens again!

(Oct 02) Chapter 42: Fooling Around at My Boyfriend's House

Story codes: mf oral
  Me (17)
  Randy - boyfriend (16)

It's always hot to fool around in one of my boyfriend's homes but it's even better when someone is home - especially if that someone is his parents! I wonder what they would have said if they had any idea of what their "innocent" son was doing to me right under their noses?

1. A Little About Randy and Me

Randy was a virgin when I first had sex with him. At sixteen he was a year younger than me and a junior at my high school. Randy's parents had a well-deserved reputation for being ultra-conservative but still polite. They had their morals and principles and while they weren't afraid to let you know what they were, they didn't try to ram them down your throat either the way so many "holy rollers" try to do.

The first time I met Randy's mom was at a church carwash. Being it was a hot summer day like most of the girls I was wearing shorts and a bikini top that left little to the imagination. Although at the time I was not doing anything with her son, she took one look at me and I knew from her pursed lips and narrowed eyes that she wouldn't want her precious son to have anything to do with a slutty girl like me.

That image continued to haunt me a couple months later when I started going out with Randy. I was having fun with Randy so it was worth the extra effort to be nice to her. Whenever I knew I would be seeing her I would dress more conservatively and occasionally I even wore a bra. Now THAT alone should tell you how hard I was trying!

It was well worth it though if it meant I could date Randy. He was a hunk of a sixteen year-old and since sex was new to him, it made it all the more interesting for me as well.

Fortunately, my efforts seemed to be paying off. His mom appeared to be thawing out a bit but still, if she ever found out her "virgin" son was screwing his girlfriend like a horny rabbit, she would've undoubtedly tossed me out of the house on my butt in a heartbeat.

Randy also had an older sister who went to a local junior college. I'd never actually seen her in person but Randy told me that she was twenty and pretty much ignored him most of the time. Sounded like your typical brother-sister relationship!

Randy invited me over to his house one evening just to talk and watch TV. It wasn't the first time and I was feeling more comfortable with his parents - and hopefully they were with me as well. I don't think his mom still trusted me 100% and probably never would no matter what I did so I was satisfied with how things were working out.

His sister was out with her boyfriend leaving Randy and me alone with his parents. We tried to have some small talk with his parents just to be polite but they were more interested in watching some TV evangelist begging for money so the two of us made our way out to the back porch.

2. Teasing On the Porch

Randy's home had a large screened-in porch adjacent to the family room. There was a door and window between the two rooms and I could see his parents through the window sitting in their chairs watching TV. It was dusk so the porch was getting darker with each passing minute, making it easy for me to see inside the family room from the porch but not the other way around.

Even though we had the lights out I don't think his parents were overly concerned since the door was open between the two rooms. It wasn't the first time Randy and I had spent time on the porch so I was pretty sure that they couldn't imagine us doing anything naughty - not with them so close. Well, they certainly didn't know me!

The two of us sat on a bench looking out over the back yard. Randy lived out on the edge of town so the view was nice - hills with fields and a clear night sky with the stars and moon making their appearance as it grew darker. It was now fall and the air was a bit chilly but it was still a pleasant evening.

We'd only been dating for a couple of weeks but Randy had already fucked me quite a few times by now. As usual I knew he was anxious to do me again. We'd never done it in his house though, doing it either in my bedroom at home or in his car. With his parents home he was reluctant to even hold my hand, let alone even make a try for first base. As for me, I wanted him to swing for the fences and get a home run!

For whatever reason I was feeling pretty horny and I knew it was going to be up to me if I was going to get what I really wanted tonight. The very thought of doing it while his sanctimonious parents were in the next room made me wet just thinking about it! Somehow the image of having their "innocent" son fuck me right under their noses was an incredible turn-on for me so I reached over and whispered in his ear.

"Hey Randy, wanna fuck me?"

Randy laughed, thinking I was just teasing him. "Very funny Kelly. It's hard enough to have you this close and not do anything without you teasing me so just stop it."

Twisted on the bench, I faced him and looked him straight in the eye. "Really Randy, I'm dead serious. I want you to fuck me - right here and now!"

I put my hand on his leg and started to slowly work my way up to his crotch.

Well, Randy looked at me like I was insane. I was pretty sure that he realized that I wasn't just teasing, he seemed to be having a difficult time believing it. He glanced over his shoulder to the living room where his parents were kicked back in their matching Lazy Boy recliners. Turning back to me, he still had that classic "deer in the headlights" look I so loved about him anytime I introduced him to something new.

"For heaven's sake Kelly, are you nuts?" Randy said incredulously. "You know, you can see my parents in the family room for crying out loud! Give me a break, not even you can be that crazy, I don't care how horny you are!"

Because Randy had only been dating me for a couple of weeks I could forgive him for not knowing just how far I would be willing to go when I really wanted something - especially if it involved sex. Oh well, the boy was just going to have to learn his lesson and the sooner the better if I had anything to say about it.

I smiled disarmingly as I placed my hand firmly on the growing bulge in his crotch. I smiled even more as I felt the hardness of his emerging erection.

"You may have fucked me a few times Randy but you still don't know me very well, do you?" I said as I started to press down on his crotch. "Hmmmmmm, you say what you want but I think you want me."

Kevin just rolled his eyes. "C'mon Kelly, how could I NOT get excited sitting next to you? But that doesn't mean we can do it with my parents right here. Geeze, they would KILL me if we got caught - not to mention what my mom would do to you!"

As I mentioned earlier, I was trying to appease his mother so for the evening I was dressed pretty conservatively - at least by my standards. I was wearing a pair of jeans and a flannel shirt with a black lace bra underneath. The jeans were pretty tight but I liked them that way because they showed off what I always felt was my best asset - my ass. I liked the shirt because it was easily accessible without having to take it off.

I unbuttoned the top two buttons so that he could see my bra with my breasts begging for release. The poor things weren't use to being cooped up this way and they were crying to be set loose. Kevin never seemed to get enough of my boobs even if they were small and he was speechless as he stared at my partially hidden chest. Well, he didn't say no so I started to unzip his pants but then he held my hand to stop me.

"Dammit, Kelly! I'm not kidding anymore," he whispered loudly into my ear. "My parents are right there and there's no way I can do this with them so close!"

Well, I wasn't deterred that easily and if anything, his protests just made it more of a challenge for me. I pulled my hand from his and went back to work on his zipper.

"They can't see us and if you'll just shut up then they won't know anything is happening," I hissed at him. "Their favorite show just started so they'll be glued to the tube for the next hour listening to that idiot. Now I need a good fucking tonight and if you're going to be my boyfriend then you have to be able to take care of my needs - no matter when or where. So Randy... are you going to fuck me or not?"

I wanted to be fucked SO badly right then. The question was, would he have the nerve to do it?

3. Fucking On the Porch

While I was talking I'd slipped my hand into his pants and through the opening in the front of his boxers until I was rewarded with the warm feel of his stiffening cock. He sucked in a breath when I squeezed him gently.

I smiled to myself as I thought that in the end he was just another horny sixteen year-old boy and I knew from experience that if there was one thing he could never say no to, it was girl wanting to have sex with him. Sure enough, right on cue the little head took control!

"Alright, Kelly - you win. But we have to hurry before one of them gets up to go to the bathroom and decides to check up on us. God Almighty... I can't believe I'm letting you talk me into this!"

I pulled his stiffening cock out though his zipper and admired it as it stood up straight in the air. Getting off the bench, I knelt in front of him between his legs saying, "Well, you keep an eye on your parents and let me take care of this bad boy."

Despite my instructions, his eyes never left me as I lowered my head to his crotch and started to suck his cock. At first I just licked him but I was sensible enough to realize we didn't have all night either so I quickly getting down to some serious cocksucking.

The look on his face told me all I needed to know - he was loving it. If I was being honest with myself, I couldn't take much credit. Face it, has anyone ever met a teenage boy who didn't love his cock to be sucked?

I stroked him as I sucked on his head, running my tongue all over it in circles. I loved the feel of his stiff cock as I twisted my hand around his wet shaft.

Randy was watching his parents now and while I knew he was concerned about them, at the same time he was so rigid that there was no doubt that he was getting turned on by doing something this naughty.

One thing I really loved about sucking Randy's cock was knowing that it had never been in any other girl's mouth or pussy other than mine. It was if it was my own personal dick to suck and fuck! I'd never had a virgin dick before and I wanted it all for myself as long as possible.

Mmmmmmm, he tasted so damn good in my mouth, so warm and smooth against my lips and tongue. He wasn't exactly the biggest cock I had ever sucked and so I took him completely in my mouth without having to allow any to go down my throat. My face hit bottom and my cheeks were being tickled by the pubic hair sticking out through his jeans. Twisting my head around him, Randy couldn't help but groan just a bit from the pleasure I was giving him through his cock.

"Oh Kelly, I love it when you blow me. You're driving me crazy!"

"Well, keep it down or your mother will be out here watching us," I whispered to him.

Randy kept it down after that and once I had him about as hard as he was going to get - and horny enough to do anything I wanted, it was time for the next step. Standing up in front of him, I slipped off my jeans and stood in front of him with just my shirt, bra and socks on. I looked over his shoulder and saw his mom was talking to his dad and smiling about something or another.

It made my pussy tingle to imagine what her reaction would be if she knew I was standing here bare-ass in front of her supposedly virgin son, rubbing myself as I prepared to let him fuck me? My reverie was broken when Randy reached around me and grabbed my bare ass with both hands, pulling me closer to him until I was straddling his legs with his cock poking up like a missile ready to launch.

"Come here Kelly," he whispered in a husky voice, "Oh man, I love your ass!"

I took his head in my hands and lifted it up to look at me.

"So what do you want Randy?" I teased him as his hands clenched my ass.

Randy grinned, all traces of concern apparently lost as his sex drive kicked in full gear. "You know what I want... I want to fuck you."

Hood boy - he'd learned his lessons well. I'd taught Randy from the start that if he wanted to fuck me then he had to ask for it.

I grinned and straddled him on the bench. Licking my lips in anticipation, my pussy was tingling with desire for him. "That's better Randy... and I want you to fuck me."

He reached under me from behind and spread my pussy lips apart, inserting a finger to spread the wetness from inside my pussy to make it easier for him to enter me. God I wanted him so badly!

As I lowered myself down onto his cock, I could feel him just start to enter me. It felt incredible as his cock head literally split me apart as it pressed its way inward into my pussy! Straddling Randy, I could see straight into the family room through the window as I impaled myself on Randy's hard dick. It was one of the most erotic things I've ever experienced to watch his mom and dad sitting there oblivious to their son as he fucking me less than twenty feet away. Even Randy was amazed at everything that was happening.

"This is incredible Kelly," he whispered, "I can't believe we're doing this - and my parents are right there! I can even hear them talking to each other for crying out loud!"

I had all of him in me by this time so I let my ass settle down on his lap and began to rock back and forth on his cock. I moaned softly as I felt him sliding in and out of me, stimulating the ultra-sensitive nerve endings in my pussy like a bow on a violin.

Randy had his hands on my waist as I ground my pussy into his crotch so I reached down and rubbed my clit, sending even more waves of pleasure though me as the combination of my clit being rubbed while my pussy was being fucked drove me crazy with delight. Randy was obviously feeling pretty good himself.

"Oh Kelly, I love my cock feels in you. You know, I've been jerking off every night dreaming of fucking you again!"

I smiled at the images that that brought to mind. I would've loved to sneak a peek into his bedroom at night when he was masturbating as he dreamed about fucking me. Few things turn me on as much as a guy jerking off because of me. Really, what greater compliment can a guy give me than to masturbate with me on his mind? I would be willing to bet that after tonight he would be jerking off twice a day!

After a while I lifted myself up until he slipped out of me and got off his lap. Randy looked at me with a lost puppy look - wondering what was going to happen next.

"Don't worry silly, we're not done... not by a long shot. I just want you to fuck me in a different way for a while," I said as I turned around so my ass was facing him.

Again I straddled his legs but this I sat back while I held his cock and guided it back into my warm pussy again. With my hands on his thighs, I rocked back and forth, driving his cock in and out of me in the process. After a while I leaned forward more so he could get a good view of my ass and his cock sliding in and out of my now soaking wet pussy. He had his hands on my hips and helped me to move back and forth, stroking his wonderful stiff cock in and out of me.

"Oh my god Kelly," he moaned softly, "I love seeing my cock in your pussy. You have such a sweet ass!"

Don't take this wrong but I loved my ass as much as he did. Mother Nature may have shortchanged me on my boobs (although they WERE growing more and more all the time), my ass was definitely my best feature. It felt so hot to have him watching my bare bottom as he fucked me.

I looked over my shoulder and saw his mom and dad through the window and the thought of fucking their son just a few steps away plus the sheer physical pleasure of his cock inside of me was enough to push me over the edge. I sat down on him and just squeezed his cock with my pussy as my orgasm consumed me.

"I'm cumming Randy," I groaned, "Oh Randy, you make me feel so good!!!"

I could feel my pussy swelling as it tightened its grip on his cock. Then suddenly my whole body felt like it had caught on fire as I could feel the wetness of my cum pour out over his cock and onto his jeans. I'd been wanting this so badly all night and had gotten myself so horny in the process that my orgasm was more incredible than I would have imagined when it finally arrived. It felt like a warm river was draining from between my legs as I could feel my pussy grabbing his cock like it never wanted to let go of it.

Eventually my orgasm slowly subsided and I started to rock on his cock again, stimulating my pussy and helping to prolong the feelings still boiling inside of me.

"Damn Randy," I was finally able to say, "You have no idea what it feels like to cum like that. Oh wow, I can still feel it..."

Randy was evidently turned on even more by what was happening to me and I could feel his hips rocking in time with me to drive himself even deeper inside of me. He was quiet now and I knew from just the few times we had done it that he was getting ready to cum.

"That's it Randy," I told him in a soft voice. "Cum for me... let me feel you cum inside of me... oh god cum in me Randy!"

Randy squeezed my ass so tight it actually hurt. He groaned softly as his hot cum spurted into my pussy. I could feel each burst as it exploded from his cock directly inside of me. I sat down on him with all my weight to force him in me as far as possible.

I love it when a man cums inside of me, and the deeper he does it the more magical the sensation of warmth I get deep in my belly. Even though I was on the pill and the odds of getting pregnant were all but nil (I hoped!), I still couldn't help but feel something deep inside of me as I was literally mating with a man, taking every drop of his sperm inside of me. It was almost primal to take part in a mating ritual that has existing from the start of our species.

It should go with saying that I would've loved to have just sat in his lap for the rest of the night with his cock throbbing in me but I knew we had to be careful about the time so I regrettably lifted myself up and off of his cock.

Looking back down at his dick as it glistened in the moonlight with a combination of my pussy cum and his sperm coating it, I couldn't resist and so I leaned over and started to suck him again. Even though his cock was starting to soften it was still as sensitive as it could be and he moaned softly as I took him all in.

I could taste my pussy on him and I loved the scent of me mixed with his sexy crotch smell. A few more drops of cum drained from him and I loved the taste as I swallowed whatever I could get.

Unfortunately, as with many guys once Randy had cum it was as if a switch turned off in his brain and he was done. The younger they are the quicker the recovery and with some boys it was almost an instant recovery before they were ready to go again while older men like my dad took at least a few hours before they were "up" for it again.

Randy was at the shorter end of the scale but at the moment he was back in reality. He looked through the window at his parents and then back at me saying, "That was fucking incredible Kelly but you'd better get dressed before one of them gets up for something."

He didn't have to tell me as I had already slipped my jeans back on and was buttoning my shirt when sure enough, his mom lowered the recliner with a thud and rose up and out of her chair. Next thing I knew she was standing at the door! Fortunately by then all she saw was two innocent looking teenagers sitting next to each other talking. I almost burst out laughing as I thought about what we'd just been doing.

"How are you two doing out here" she asked innocently, "It's awful dark, shouldn't you have some lights on?"

"Ma, leave them alone for crying out loud!" he dad yelled from his chair. "Good grief, what do you think they're going to do with us right here anyway?"

I almost burst out laughing as I felt my pussy still throbbing from having just been fucked with them right there! Naturally I stifled it and tried to appear all innocent.

"It's OK Mrs. Miller, we were just trying to look at the stars. You can turn on the light now," I said with what I hoped was an innocent look on my face.

"Well, it's OK then I guess. Can I get you guys something to snack on - popcorn maybe?"

What I WANTED to tell her was the only thing I wanted to eat at the moment was her son's cock. Somehow I didn't think that was on her menu though so I just nodded which at least had the effect of getting her to leave us alone for a few minutes. That gave time for both of us to straighten ourselves out better and especially for Randy's erection to subside further. It would have been difficult to explain it had she asked us to stand up!

Randy's mom returned in about ten minutes with some drinks and fresh popcorn. As she came out onto the porch her nose wrinkled as she sniffed the air.

"Gosh, I guess I need to do some cleaning out here now that winter is coming. It's starting to smell a bit musty," she said apologetically.

I was sure of one thing - the idea that she might be smelling our sex never crossed her mind. Randy face grew a bit flushed as he knew all too well what the odor really was!

I then I noticed that I had a growing wet spot in the crotch of my jeans from where his cum was leaking out of me along with my own pussy juices so I kept my legs crossed, praying his mom wouldn't notice in the dim light.

Randy also had a wet spot on his crotch where I had poured over him when I came and he put his hand over it to hide it from his mom. Incredible as it may seem, she didn't seem to see anything. It's not like she was exactly subtle when it came to her thoughts and opinions so if she had I'm sure she certainly would've said something about it.

After she finally left Kevin let out a sigh of relief saying, "Oh my god Kelly, I can't believe she could actually smell us! I mean, what if she had recognized what it was?"

I just smiled at him, "That's what makes it so much fun Randy. Admit it now, wasn't that a super turn-on for you? Really, did you ever even have a wet dream that you would fuck someone with your mother in the next room?"

Randy grinned, "Noooooo, can't say I have. But it still was so incredible! I'll never forget tonight."

We spent another hour or so just talking about school and other things that really didn't mean much. Randy drove me home and we kissed as I got ready to get out of the car. I went back in my house feeling warm and happy.

4. Back Home Again

When I got back I went down the basement where my parents were watching TV in our own family room. What a contrast from Randy's house! His parents were older, overweight and just generally gross while mine were in their late thirties but could pass for ten years younger. His mom always dressed in these horrible stretch pants and a sweatshirt that made her look even more like a fat pig while mine was wearing nothing but a long nightshirt that showed off her great legs and full breasts.

Cindy - Randy's sister (18)

We thought we had the whole house to ourselves so what better place to fuck me than on his parent's bed? At least it seemed like a good idea until his older sister showed up.

1. Mom Helps me Get Ready

At sixteen Randy was a year younger than me, a junior at my high school. Randy and I each had some firsts with each other. There was the first time we dated when I gave him his first blowjob and got to be the first girl he'd had sex with. That was also a first for me as he was my first and only virgin, at least so far.

Randy also had an older sister who went to a local college and lived at home. I'd never seen her but Randy told me that she was twenty and pretty much ignored him most of the time. Sounded like a typical brother-sister relationship. As a general rule he seemed to dislike even talking about her. Not that they didn't get along, he just didn't seem to enjoy discussing his sister with his girlfriend.

Randy's parents were pretty conservative and I was never quite sure if his mom approved of me or not. I know that before I started dating her son that she had always given me "the look" when I would wear one of my skimpier outfits to a church event - typically the only time we crossed paths. Now that her son was seeing me on a regular basis no doubt she wouldn't have been happy unless I wore nothing but long dresses up to my neck with a chastity belt underneath!

After our first date Randy took me out a couple more times. It was hard with school nights and such. I couldn't believe that at his age Randy's parents imposed a 9:00 curfew on him if he had school the next day! Despite these obstacles he still found ways to fuck me a number of times. We even did it one night on his porch while his parents were in the next room watching TV. He was scared the entire time but it just proved yet again that a teenage boy's dick operates totally independent of his brain!

It was a Saturday morning and Randy called me to tell me his parents were away for the day and that his sister had classes in the afternoon. He was excited since it was rare that he ever had the house to himself. When he asked me if I'd be interested in coming over to his house to take advantage of the situation, it sounded like a good opportunity so I quickly agreed. It wouldn't be as exciting as it would be if his parents were home but it was a step in the right direction.

I was being lazy that morning and hadn't gotten dressed yet after I hung up the phone I went to my dresser and picked out a tight pair of jeans and a thin cotton blouse. I was about to put them on when I thought about Randy and an idea came to mind. I rummaged through my drawer and found a new pair of white cotton panties and a plain white bra that clasped in front. It was rare for me to wear underwear to start with but the way Randy's mom was I found myself wearing more underwear while dating him than I think I had all my previous dates combined!

Just as I was about to put my pants on my mom walked by and saw me.

"What's the occasion girl? Judging from the laundry, you've been wearing underwear lately. Anything you need to tell me?"

I almost laughed as I started to wonder if she thought I was pregnant or something like that. I then explained about how Randy's parents were such stick-in-the-muds which was why I had been dressing so conservatively lately.

Then I mentioned that Randy was going to be picking me up soon and that his parents weren't home. Confiding such information with her wasn't unusual for me. I tell my mom everything and she's always interested in what I do with my boyfriends. In fact, I think it turned her on to hear about how my boyfriends fucked me and I knew she often masturbated after some of our mother-daughter "talks".

Of course my mom already knew I'd been fucking Randy recently so it didn't take much for her to figure out what my plans were for the afternoon. She stepped in my room and took a good look at me standing there in just my bra and panties.

"So... what's up with the schoolgirl underwear today then?" she asked. "I know that Randy's mother is a nutcase but if she's not going to be there then why bother?"

I explained to my mom what my plans were and she grinned. Then she hugged me and pulled me closer to her. As usual she was wearing nothing but her favorite long nightshirt and loose gym shorts. As we hugged I could feel her full breasts pressing against my smaller version. She ran her long fingers through my hair, starting at the roots and slowly running it through her fingers like a comb. She knew that I loved my hair to be played with; it relaxes me and feels so erotic that I would let anyone do it for hours.

I closed my eyes as a sharp shiver ran through me. Then I felt her lips on mine as she kissed me. This was not the typical kiss a mother gives her child! After we shared a long and passionate kiss she whispered in my ear in a seductive voice.

"Randy's a hunk. I hope you realize I'm going to be wet all afternoon thinking of the two of you together. Why don't you should invite him over here some time so I can peek in on the two of you? God I'd love to watch him fuck you!"

My mom was obviously turned on thinking of my upcoming time with Randy. Her hands had worked their way down to my ass and she was squeezing my butt softly as she pulled me even tighter up against her. Her hips were grinding slowly against me as we kissed again, our tongues touching.

Kissing my mother was always an act of extreme intimacy and I could feel the desire in me for her continuing to build. As our lust for one another grew we were no longer just a mother and daughter. In the heat of our passion she was my lover and I wanted to giving myself completely in every way to her. I'd never experienced a kiss with a boy that came even close to making me feel the way I do when I kiss my mother.

Touching her I could feel my longing for her growing even deeper as I fondled her large breasts through her thin nightshirt. They were so much bigger than mine yet still firm and full. The nipples were rock hard and I pinched them softly between my fingers. Her mouth pressed harder against mine her hand moved from my ass.

My mom reached down inside of my panties and cupped my warm pussy with her hand. Oh yeah, now THAT felt good! I spread my legs apart to make it easier for her to caress me and her fingers began to explore my pussy, running up and down my slit, barely entering my pussy and then moving up to my clit.

It felt so good to have my own mother doing this to me, to know she was yearning to take me as her lover and that she wanted me to desire her in the same way.

"Oh mom," I whispered in a husky voice, "I love it when you touch me. Show me how much you love me, how much you want me, how much you need me."

2. Fucked by Randy

I quickly ran down the stairs and sure enough, there was Randy standing at the front door. I called out goodbye to my mom and Randy drove us back to his house. It was only a short drive to the outskirts of town. As he'd promised, the house was empty and given we were both horny as hell neither of us wanted to waste a moment with silly small talk.

Randy took my hand and started up the stairs.

"C'mon, let's go up to my room Kelly."

He turned into his room and I went through the door and stopped. It was a typical boy's room - a mess and not exactly the setting I had in mind for the upcoming activities. An sexy idea suddenly came to me and I gave him a naughty grin.

"I have a better idea Randy, let's do it on your parent's bed!

As horny as Randy was, he hesitated and I could tell that he wasn't all that thrilled about this new idea of mine. Randy seemed to live in mortal fear of his mother ever finding out he was not a virgin so I could understand how the thought of doing it in her bed was something totally alien to him. In his mind it had to be almost like we were doing it with her watching. Now THAT would have been hot for me but I'm sure Randy would die on the spot if his mom walked in while he was fucking me.

"But Kelly, what if they find out? My mother would kill us both!"

All his protests did was make me want to do it there all the more. If his mom was going to be such a prude, what better place to fuck her precious son than in her own bed!

I grabbed his hand and pulled him out into the hallway and down to where I figured his parent's bedroom was. He tried to protest but he came along. Actually I think I could have dragged him out to the front lawn at this point if that's what it took for him to screw me!

We got to their room and I looked around. Typical parent's room - big pine furniture and pictures all over the place; most of the two of the kids along with a few of themselves from their wedding and vacations.

Looking at a few I saw that Randy's mom was quite cute when she was younger; too bad she had let herself go so badly. She must have weighed 250 pounds now - probably at least twice what she did in the pictures. It was the same story for his dad - he was a hunk when they were married but you would never know it today from the beer gut on him.

It made me appreciate my parents all the more. My mom was 36 and still looked hot enough in her thong bikini to turn heads. My dad was just a few pounds over his college graduation weight and kept himself fit at the gym playing racquetball.

I also checked out a few pictures of Randy's sister - she was quite pretty and the family resemblance to Randy was obvious. I could see that Randy was a bit flustered at being in their room and especially with me looking around so I took the initiative to get things moving along. I licked my lips seductively and motioned for him to come to me.

"Don't just stand there, if you want to fuck me then you will have to undress me Randy."

I knew Randy was fascinated with taking off my clothes. I was the only girl that had ever allowed him to undress her and it was obviously something he fantasized about a lot because whenever he did it he would get a massive erection! This was the reason why I wore a bra and panties today - to get him turned on by letting him take them off me.

I stood there by his parents' bed as we hugged and kissed. As his tongue invaded my mouth I could feel his hands fumbling with my blouse buttons. He finally got them undone and opened my shirt, revealing my little white bra.

Randy stepped back and just looked at me, licking his lips subconsciously. All those years of pouring through the bra and lingerie sections in the Sear and Penny's catalog, dreaming of having a girl wearing nothing but a cute bra just for him, were finally coming true.

Randy pushed my blouse off my shoulders and down my lowered arms, leaving me with just my bra on top. Then he unsnapped my jeans and struggled a bit to get the zipper down. My jeans were pretty tight so it took some work to get them off but eventually he left me standing there in just my bra and white cotton panties.

My plan had been to give him that innocent schoolgirl look which is why I chose my plain bra and panties rather than something more sexy like a thong. It seemed to be working from the way he looked at me, not to mention the incredible bulge in his crotch. His face was flushed and I knew he wanted me terribly.

"Oh wow Kelly, you look so cute and sexy! I have dreamed of seeing you in a bra and panties so many times that I can't believe it's actually happening for real!"

Since he seemed so turned on by my underwear I decided to keep it on for a while longer and turned my attention to him.

"So are you going to stay in those clothes while I'm standing here in just my underwear?"

Randy took the hint and quickly stripped down to his jockey shorts - no loose boxers for him. His cock was so hard though it was practically spilling out from them. Much as he looked so damn hot already, it only made me want more.

"Hey guy," I scolded him, "All of it off! I want to see that sexy body without anything in the way."

I got a kick out of Randy's modesty. Randy was always shy about me seeing him naked even though he looked great! Even if I hadn't already known, it was obvious he had grown up in a family that viewed nudity entirely different than mine. He turned away as he dropped his shorts and I got a long look at his firm ass when he bent over to take them off.

Mmmmmmm, I wanted to reach out and just hold that firm butt in my hands! He turned around and kept one hand in front of his crotch. I looked at him and frowned. He once again took the hint and removed his hand, revealing his nice cock, hanging from a thick bush of black pubic hair.

"That's MUCH better Randy. Trust me, you have nothing to be modest about - I just love your hairy crotch! Now finish undressing me."

Randy fumbled as usual with my bra. This time I had picked out one that clasped in the front, hoping it would be easier for him to undo. Finally he got it and spread the cups apart, letting my small white breasts free with my small nipples already hard with anticipation. I could hear Randy as he sucked in a breath and let it out slowly. He just stared at my boobs until finally I couldn't help but giggle a bit.

"See something you like Randy... earth to Randy... HELLO!"

Randy shook his head as if to snapped out of whatever dirty fantasy was running through his mind. I took his hand and held it to by breast, moving it in small circles to massage me gently. I loved the way his palm felt moving across my sensitive nipple, sending tingles though me each time he rubbed against it.

I looked him in the eyes and whispered to him. "Aren't you forgetting something?"

Randy gave me a questioning look and so I looked down at my panties that, much to my chagrin, were still on. Randy followed my eyes realized what I was referring to. Without another word Randy put his hands on my hips and spun me around.

As he slowly worked my panties down I could feel my butt being exposed and I pictured him staring at my ass. Even though I wasn't into anal sex I still loved my butt to be played with.

I stepped out of my panties as he lowered them to the floor and we faced each other, both totally naked as the day we were born. He reached out for me but I stepped back and ran over to his mother's dresser, giggling and smiling like a little girl, except I was a nude and horny little girl.

"What in the world are you doing Kelly?" Randy asked, holding his hands up and obviously wondering why they weren't all over me by now.

"I just thought of a surprise for you. Hang on a second!"

I started rummaging through his mom's drawers as Randy just stared at me, simultaneously lusting for me but at the same time totally flabbergasted at what I was doing.

Finally I found what I was looking for - a black silk robe. I knew that every woman, no matter what size, had to have at least one sexy nightie or robe. I pulled it out and slipped it on. It was way too big for me but the silk felt nice against my bare skin. I walked towards Randy, leaving the robe open to allow him to see my boobs and pussy. Randy just stared at me with his mouth wide open.

"Oh,,, my... god! Kelly, that is my mom's! Put it back. You can't wear that!"

I gave him an evil grin and reached out for his cock. "What's the matter Randy? Admit it - doesn't it turn you on to think about fucking me in your mom's clothes? After all, if you're going to fuck me in her bed, shouldn't I be wearing her clothes"

Randy's cock was still hard as it could be in my hand so I knew he wanted me no matter what I was wearing. He just shook his head in disbelief. "I don't know Kelly. I just never dreamed I would ever even SEE my mom's lingerie let alone fuck someone wearing it!"

I had a feeling Randy was turned on more than he admitted or perhaps even knew himself. I was 100% positive he could never even dream of doing anything with his mom (I certainly couldn't blame him for that!) but the thought of rebelling against her by doing something naughty like this was a sure-fire turn-on for him.

Kneeling in front of him, I positioned myself so his cock was just inches from my mouth. He started to run his fingers through my hair as I slowly started to stroke his cock. Randy had learned early on that I loved my hair to be played with and there was no way for someone to get me horny faster than to run their fingers through it. Not that I needed any help in this case but I still loved the way it felt.

I stuck out my tongue and just licked the tip of his cock with the end of my tongue. He jumped just a bit so I took the tip of my tongue and ran it all the down the side of his cock until I reached the base of his crotch. I rubbed my face in his pubic hair, loving the feel of his coarse hair against my cheeks and nose. He smelled so good, not too strong but so much like a man.

I ran my tongue back up the other side of his cock and then around the base of the head. Finally I took him in my mouth, moving down on his cock until I had all of it in my mouth and my face hit his crotch. I felt him shudder as my tongue ran all over it and I twisted my head around his cock. I could feel his grip on my head tighten as I did my best to make every dream he ever had about having his cock sucked come true.

"Oh god Kelly, I love that. All week all I did was think about you blowing me."

I was thinking to myself he was probably jerking off at the same time but that was OK with me. I loved it when guys masturbated thinking of me. It makes me feel sexy to know that men look at me and lust for me enough that they would sit alone at home and dream of fucking me, wanting me so badly they actually cum in their hands pretending it's my mouth around their cock. I like to picture their cum all over their hands and stomach as they close their eyes and image it is my pussy that they had just cum in instead of their fist.

I wonder sometimes how many boys go to bed at night with me on their minds, nursing their hard-ons while wishing I was there with them. It is amazing to me today how many older men want me to watch them masturbate on their cams.

The ones that really turn me on print out pictures of me and I watch as they stroke themselves until they cum all over my picture. I have even had guys send videos of them cumming on my picture.

Some of them are married and I have often wondered what would happen if their wives ever found those cum-covered pictures. I would love to watch her face as the realization of what the messy picture meant came slowly to her. The fact that her husband had been masturbating wasn't probably news to her. The difference was that now she would know that her hubby was dreaming of fucking a teenage girl, wanting me more than her, wanting to fuck me behind her back.

Randy was groaning more and more now as I sucked his hard cock. He started to thrust into my mouth and I could taste his precum. I didn't want him to cum yet though, I had more plans for his lovely cock before that happened so I stood up and wiped my mouth.

"Mmmmmmm, that tasted soooooo good. Get on your parent's bed now."

Randy looked at the bed and hesitated for a second, evidently still hung up a bit about fucking in his parent's bed so I encouraged him some more.

"C'mon Randy, I want you to fuck me on your parent's bed. Think about tonight when they go to bed. You'll remember what we did and think of how you fucked me right where they are."

I can't say that the mental image was helping Randy but he gave in and laid on his back in the middle of the bed. I crawled up next to him and put my leg over him so I was sitting on his chest, my pussy smack in front of his face. I looked down at him and wiggled my hips just a bit to rub my pussy against his chest. I licked my lips just a bit and whispered to him in as sexy of a voice as I could muster.

"Mmmmmmm, now it's your turn to taste me."

I moved forward and grabbed the headboard. I lifted up enough to position my pussy right over his mouth and lowered myself to him. I could feel his nose in my pussy and then his tongue as he reached it out to lick me. God it felt so good! I took one hand to help spread my pussy lips apart and show him where to lick me. His tongue found my clit and I moaned as he licked it.

"That's it Randy, that's the spot! Ohhhhhhhhh, lick me right there!'

His hands reached under the robe and grabbed my ass, squeezing my butt and pulling me tighter into his face. For someone who had touched his first pussy just a couple of weeks ago, Randy was a natural at oral sex, already better than most of the boys I had been with.

I couldn't keep still, moving my wet pussy around on his face as his tongue was feeling so good on me. I kept whispering to him where to lick, how to stick his tongue up inside of my pussy hole and then inside of me as far as it would go. I rubbed my clit as he sucked on my pussy. I wanted to cum so bad and I was soooooo close!

"Don't stop Randy! ...Oh God don't stop now... I'm cumming Randy!"

And indeed I was! I can't imagine anything feeling better than a good orgasm. My entire body feels like it is consumed in fire, tingling from head to toe. I moaned out loudly and it was a good thing that nobody was home. My pussy cum gushed out all over his face and the way he looked up at me I realized this was the first time he had experienced a girl cumming on him.

Somehow I managed to get out something to help him understand.

"It's OK, I'm just cumming. Oh god taste my cum Randy!"

When my orgasm had died down enough for me to think clearly again I moved down his chest until I could kiss him. His face was covered with my cum and I licked it off of him. Mmmmmmm it tasted so good!

"I want you to fuck me now Randy... fuck me with your hard cock!"

I straddled his waist, still facing him. His mom's robe was lying on top of his legs as I settled down on his cock, feeling his swollen head forcing my swollen pussy lips apart. I was soaking wet with anticipation so he easily entered me. I held myself there with just his cock head in me.

God it felt so good! I was so sensitive in that part of my pussy and now after having cum once already to feel his swollen head there was sheer ecstasy. I rotated my hips in circles around him, causing his cock to move around and around in my pussy. Then I slowly lowered myself down further, taking his cock in me inch by inch until finally I was sitting on him, grinding my pussy into his crotch trying to get every last bit of him inside of me.

I rode his cock like a cowgirl on a wild bronco, rocking back and forth on him, driving him in and out of me. I loved being on top of a guy like this, controlling the speed of his cock moving inside of me, controlling the depth he went, swiveling my ass as needed to make every part of his cock rub against the interior of my pussy.

As I rode his big cock I looked around the room. It was such a turn-on to be fucked in his parent's bedroom - especially since I knew that if they ever found out that they would probably burn the bed!

For a moment another brief thought went through my mind as I thought of his parents fucking here over seventeen years ago to conceive Randy. How ironic how life had come full circle. The result of his parent's lust was now fucking his own girl in the same bed.

Then I thought of my mom, of how she was probably at home touching herself as she dreamed of a teenage boy fucking her daughter. God how I wished she could have seen us now! Someday soon I would have to bring home someone so she could watch. She was always telling me how much she wanted to watch me getting fucked. Knowing how much it turned her on to see her husband fucking me, I knew she would really love seeing a teenage boy fucking her daughter.

Usually by now when I was having sex I would be switching to another position but there was something about what we were doing that just seemed so perfect. Randy's stiff erection felt so amazing inside of me I couldn't bear the thought if letting him out of me long enough to change into another position so I just stayed on top, sometimes bouncing on him hard, driving him as fast as I could into me. Other times I would just slowly rock back and forth, letting him slide in and out as slowly as I could bear it.

A few times I could tell he was about to cum so I would just sit on him, feeling his swollen cock throbbing inside of me, ready to cum if I would just stroke it one more time. As it calmed down I would start humping him again.

It was during one of those times when I was just lying on him, putting my head on his chest as I laid there on top of him with his cock deep inside of me, just feeling so calm and good, when a girl's voice broke in and shattered my dreams.

3. Randy's Sister Interrupts

"OH MY GOD! Randy!!!...What the hell is going on?"

I looked up and there was a girl standing in the doorway. From his description and the pictures in the room I knew it had to be his sister but she wasn't supposed to be home yet!

She still had her jacket on and her hand was up to her mouth. She stared at us and her eyes were so wide they looked almost alien. Randy looked over and when he saw her he literally froze, not knowing what to do or say. If I hadn't been on top of him pinning him down I am sure he would've tried to make a run for it – where I don't know but definitely out of the bedroom!

It was almost like a scene from a bad movie. For a few seconds it was deathly quiet as each of us waited to see what the other would say. I was staring at her, trying to figure out what was going on here.

Finally his sister put her hand down and started to laugh. "So my little brother is actually getting laid – and in our parent's bed no less! Wow, if only mom could see this!"

I threw in that last bit just to see what her reaction would be. After all, you never know what someone's inner desires may be unless you ask.

In the meantime, Randy was just listening to the two of us trash talking each other with a look of horror and disbelief. Even so, I had a feeling he was so horny at that moment he was almost hoping his sister would say yes!

Unfortunately for both of us, in this case I got exactly the response I was expecting

"You're not just a whore, you're SICK!" she practically spat at me. "No way am I messing around with my brother. Ewwwww! And there is NO way my brother came up with the idea to screw you in our parent's bed OR to wear my mom's robe. Damn, you are one messed up bitch!"

I really didn't care what Cindy thought. If anything, listening to her rant about what a slut I was just got me all the more horny. I decided to push her buttons a little bit more.

"OK, it's you're loss Cindy. As you can see, your little brother has a fine cock and it tastes great. Not to mention he knows how to use it now thanks to me."

I started to suck Randy's cock as she watched. Cindy's eyes widened and I wasn't sure if she was just shocked at seeing her brother getting a blow job or if it turned her on. Well, there was slim chance that it was turning her on based on our conversation so far. She turned to leave with a look of disgust but just as she went out of sight she stuck her head back around the corner.

"Oh, don't worry Randy, I won't tell mom or dad about your little perverted escapades. Mom would go off the deep end and I have to live here too. Just do me a favor and don't let her catch you - she would have a heart attack!"

Cindy turned again to leave and then once more returned with one more thing to say. "And for heaven's sake whore, make sure my mom's robe gets back in the right drawer."

She turned her wrath back to Randy and finished with, "And you... I still can't believe you can screw that bitch while she's wearing mom's clothes. All I can say is you'd better not EVER touch anything of mine!"

Funny she should say that as the thought HAD crossed my mind early on when I went to his parent's room. I'd decided to go with his mom's clothes instead of his sister's but it was a close call at the time. Looks like I made the right choice today but I knew next time I was definitely going to check out her dresser!

I looked over and sure enough, Cindy was back in the doorway and had evidently been watching the whole time! The look on my face must have betrayed my thoughts because she started to laugh at me.

"Don't get any more perverted ideas. I don't believe in incest and I wouldn't let him do me even if I did. I have to give you credit though, your reputation seems well deserved."

I just smiled so she wouldn't get any satisfaction from trying to taunt me. I took another mouthful of Randy's cock just for her and let him slide out again.

I looked at Randy and then at her again. "Mmmmmmm, you don't know what you're missing Cindy! Sure you don't want just a taste?"

Cindy just shook her head in disbelief and as she turned to walk away she had these last words, "Not a chance you perverted whore. For god's sake, do you really want me to suck my own brother???? Ewwwww! I still can't believe you're wearing my mom's robe!"

After she was gone I carefully folded her mom's robe and put it back. I THINK I got it back in the right drawer. Randy just lay stretched out on his back, too exhausted to care about his sister for the moment.

I crawled back in bed and laid down beside him, one bare leg over him as I rubbed my messy pussy up against his hip. Back then I wasn't shaving my pussy yet although I trimmed it for my bikini. I loved the feel of my short pussy hair rubbing against him.

We just laid there together for what must have been an hour, softly touching each other, once in a while kissing each other gently. His parents weren't due to be home until the next day so we weren't in any rush. As for his sister, I never saw or heard from her again.

Finally we got up and dressed. Randy took me home and I gave him a big kiss before I got out of the car. I was already thinking of how we could make the next time even more exciting!

I went back in the house and my mother was waiting for me...

4. Telling My Mom

"OK girl, spill it. I want to know everything and I want details!"

I laughed and reached out to kiss her. As we kissed her eyes widened and she pulled back with a smile on her face. "I take it you didn't shower or anything before you came back?"

I looked at her with a quizzical eye.

"Oh come one Kelly, don't act surprised. I can smell the sex all over you and your mouth still tastes like cum!"

I wasn't sure how to take this when suddenly she burst out laughing.

"Oh Kelly, I'm sorry to tease you! I've been playing with myself all afternoon dreaming of him fucking you and now to smell him on you and taste him is so cool! It's almost like I was there with you. Now let's go upstairs and you can tell me all about it."

It was the most wonderful finish possible to what had already been a wonderful day. My mom and I lay in her bed, naked in each other's arms as I described for her every detail of my afternoon. She was so wet by the time I finished we spent the next couple of hours in bed making love once again in that special way only a mother and her daughter can.

So much for Cindy, the little bitch! I knew she would never spend an evening with her mom like this and found myself wishing she could know what she was missing and would never have for herself!

(Jun 07) Chapter 44: Dad's Graduation Present

Story codes: MF oral inc father daughter
Me (18)
John - my dad (38)

I was eighteen and finally graduating from high school! Most girls get a nice gift for their high school graduation and I was hoping for a car. Oh well, I didn't get the car but I got something else just as good from my dad!

1. Satisfying My Dad's Needs

Finally, the morning of my high school graduation had arrived. Soon after waking up, I carefully laid out my blue cap and gown on my bed. Oh yeah, I was feeling so proud of myself! My heart was racing and I couldn't wait for the afternoon to come. In just a few more hours I'd be officially done with high school! Even better, I'd been accepted to my first choice of colleges for the fall. Put all that together with loving family and a steady boyfriend who kept me satisfied and I had to say that overall I was pretty darn happy with my life at the moment.

My parents were throwing a wonderful party to celebrate the graduation of their only daughter. Most of the people would be relatives from both sides of our family and I was expecting them to start arriving any time now. A few were coming in from out of town but they were staying in a nearby hotel except for my grandparents from my dad's side who had arrived the night before and had slept in the guest room next to my bedroom.

As much as I loved our house, the only I'd ever known, it was old and had its share of quirks. Probably its biggest deficiency was the lack of bathrooms. With only one full bath I had to make sure I got there before my grandparents got in it - they could take forever sometimes. Anyone who tells me that girls spend too much time in the bathroom never had to wait for my grandfather with their legs crossed.

As I sat on the edge of my bed holding my graduation cap and toying with the tassel, my dad silently came in and closed the door behind him. Now THAT got my attention as I couldn't remember the last time I'd been in my bed room with him when the door was closed. Closed doors just weren't something normal in our house I guess. About the only time I remembered anyone closing their bedroom door was when my parents use to make love and didn't want to be disturbed.

My dad smiled as sat down next to me and put his arm around me.

"So, my little girl is about to become a big college girl now, eh?"

I smiled back him, feeling so proud myself. I liked it when he called me that. No matter how old or big I got, I knew I would always be my dad's little girl, which was just fine with me.

"Oh daddy, I'll always be your little girl," I said softly and then I gave him a big hug along with a wicked smile. "Of course, I'll ALSO always be your little slut."

With that I put my hand firmly on his crotch and gave him a nice kiss as I pressed down on it. Not a peck on the cheek type of kiss most daughters would give their dad in such a situation, but a full open-mouth passionate kiss. As his tongue played with mine I was happy to feel him responding under my hand and I knew right away that my dad was in one of his horny moods. No wonder he had closed the door given his in-laws were right next door.

Under the circumstances there was only one thing for me to do. It's not like it was a chore - I loved doing it!

"So tell me daddy, do you want to have sex with your little girl?" I asked, then added another option offering, "Or would you rather fuck your little slut?"

My dad let out a big sigh. "Oh god Kelly, how about the second option - my little slut? Sometimes I just want you so badly and right now I feel like I need to have my cock deep in my little slut's pussy."

I was just about to respond, telling him that it was fine with me, that it was my duty as his daughter to satisfy his needs and I loved it when he came to me like this. Indeed, it made me feel warm inside knowing my father felt that way about me, that he felt free to come to me when he had those urges that were so hard to control.

Just then I heard a sound out in the hallway and heard my grandparents talking. My bedroom door was unlocked so they could have easily come in but I knew they never would. In any case, I didn't really care at the moment given the feelings that were rising in me. All I could think about right now was how much I wanted my father to take me and fuck me any way he wanted to.

Doing it with his parents just across the hall just made it all the hotter for me. There was no way they could have any idea that their son was fucking their granddaughter as incest was NOT part of their family history as it was in my mom's side of the family. Knowing them and their strong religious and moral beliefs they would have been horrified if they should ever find out. It was a shame really as even if they took the same approach as my mom's mother and just ignored it at least we wouldn't have to hide it from them.

It was like we both were on the same wavelength as he started to take off his clothes while I stripped off mine. Once he was nude my dad sat on my bed, leaning back on one hand while he started to stroke his dick slowly with the other. I stood naked at the side of the bed, admiring his cock as it began to respond to his touch. God I wanted it so badly! I put my hand between my legs and rubbed my pussy for him to watch, licking my lips seductively in anticipation of soon having that hardening cock between them. Meanwhile, I couldn't wait to suck his cock! My dad was watching me with the same interest.

"God Kelly, you look so fucking hot! I never get tired of looking at your naked sexy body."

Oh yeah, I loved it when he looked at me like that. His eyes had this glimmer of pure lust in them that made me feel so sexy. I knew when he looked at me like that he wasn't seeing me just as his little girl anymore but as his slutty daughter who loved to be fucked and was always ready to please her daddy - in whatever way he wanted. He knew he could have me anytime, anyplace and it made me feel so good inside to know that he knew it.

I looked at my graduation gown and a, idea came to mind. Putting it on, I crawled up on the bed, straddling his waist until I could feel his now erect cock pressing against my horny pussy. My gown spilled over us keeping him from actually see anything but I was sure he could feel his cock rubbing against me!

"When you see me getting my diploma today I want you to remember what's under my gown daddy. I want you to remember me like this, my bare ass against your crotch, wanting to be fucked by you."

My dad's hips moved under me as his cock tried desperately to find my pussy hole. Reaching under my gown, I directed him to the entrance of my pussy and then settled down on him to allow his cock to penetrate deep into my pussy.

I looked at my dad and his eyes sparkled with lust as his hands gripped my bare ass and helped me to bounce on his lap. It was sort of like when he use to bounce me on his lap when I was a little girl except back then his dick wasn't poking up into my pussy. I wonder if he knew how tempted I was to tell his mother that it was OK to come in, just to see the look on her face?

There are SOME lines even I don't cross and this was one of them so as much as I wanted to, I called out to my grandmother and told her I was in the middle of something and I'd see her in a few minutes. What I wanted to say was that something was in the middle of me but that might have been pushing things a bit too much.

Finally my grandmother gave up and I could hear he and my grandpa going down the creaking wooden stairs. I gave them a few more seconds and finally couldn't hold it in anymore and I started to giggle uncontrollably.

"Wow dad, that was close. Can you imagine if she had just come in without knocking!"

My dad's grip on my ass tightened as he kept pumping his dick in and out of me.

"Let's not think about that. All I want to think about now is fucking your hot little pussy. C'mon girl, work it... work that ass!"

I was literally bouncing on his cock, driving him hard into me as I literally dropped down onto it causing it to plunge into me until he bottomed out. My dad grunted a bit each time I landed on him as I wasn't exactly the little girl anymore who use to bounce on his lap. I especially liked the feel of his crotch when he bottomed out against my pussy, allowing me to feel his cock completely inside of me.

Just then I heard someone coming up the stairs again and figured my grandmother must have left something in the bathroom. Then to my complete horror my bedroom door opened! For an instant I thought we were caught and that any second now there would be a loud scream as my grandma realized what her son was doing to her granddaughter. Then I heard some reassuring words.

"Your grandma said you were "busy" and I haven't seen your father around so it wasn't hard to put two and two together and figure out what was going on up here. Do you two horny toads realize we have guests downstairs? And by the way Kelly - don't you dare get any of his cum on that gown!"

I was feeling pretty good and without thinking about it as I should have, I turned my head to my mom with a big smile as I resumed riding my dad's cock. I can call it that. The moment when his dick pulled out from my pussy, leaving it suddenly empty, was always like a shock to me even though I knew it was coming. It was like one moment we were joined together and I could feel him in me and the next I was all alone again with nothing but the memory of him filling me.

Exhausted from my efforts, I sat back against my pillow as he reached under my bed. Hmmmmmm, I didn't notice him bringing in anything before so he must have sneaked it in earlier. It was a rectangular box wrapped in bright graduation paper. I eagerly attacked it like a kid on Christmas morning with no attempt at saving the paper or bow.

When I finally was able to open his present I couldn't believe my eyes! Inside was this incredibly beautiful dildo! And not just any dildo but one that wasn't like any in even my mom's extensive collection. It was about eighteen inches long with two heads, one at each end. Very unusual to say the least.

Dildos were something I had only rarely used in the past, generally as a result of borrowing one of my mother's extensive collection more as an experiment than anything else. Mom had a whole drawer full of them next to their bed and I knew from watching her that she loved using them all. She seemed disappointed that I wasn't into them as much as her, but she seemed to accept it although she sometimes would remind me that they were available if I needed them.

"I know it will be hard on you to be at school at first and not get all the sex you're accustomed to so I thought this might come in handy," my dad explained, "I know you prefer to masturbate with just your hands but the clerk assured me that this was their most popular model with the women. Go on - try it out. I'd love to see you using it."

My mom had already clued me in he had bought me jewelry for my "real" graduation present later in front of the guests. Most girls get jewelry from their dads for graduation but they didn't have a dad who knew their needs like mine did. For me to get a dildo as a graduation present from my dad meant a lot to me than jewelry even though I rarely use one. It was such a personal and intimate gift. I wondered when he was buying it if the clerk had any idea he was buying it for his daughter and not his wife or mistress?

As for him asking me to masturbate with it in front of him, it wasn't like I was offended by any means. If he had given me jewelry he would have asked me to put it on and show it off to him so why not the same for a dildo? Naturally my dad would wanted to be the first to see me use it I was happy to get started with it right away.

My pussy was still soaking wet from my own juices, not to mention the load of cum my dad had left in me so I was able to slide the dildo up into my pussy without any additional lubricant. Once it was in I laid back and used one hand to stroke the dildo in and out of me while I used the other to tease my clit. My dad sat on the edge of the bed watching me intently, his eyes fixated on my pussy as he watched the dildo slide in and out of me.

"Now that's what I call a perfect fit," he teased me.

I just smiled at him, enjoying him watching me even more so than the actual action from the dildo. Yes, the fact that I knew my dad was watching me just made it all the hotter for me. Actually, it wasn't just him. I loved being watched by most anybody when I masturbate. At the time I was playing around a lot with my cousin Kristen who was two years younger than me. We never actually touched each other but both of us loved to watch the other one masturbate. Still, the person I loved the most to watch me is my dad. It's like the most erotic thing when he stares at me, seeing his daughter bringing herself to a tremendous orgasm.

At times I would move my hand from my clit to my breasts, massaging each one in turn, maybe even pinching and pulling on my nipples just a bit. As I closed my eyes, I imagined being fucked again, first by my dad and then by Chuck, my boyfriend. The dildo was pretty large and my pussy was really stretched to make it fit. I pulled it out after a while and touched my clit with it – once again thrilled by the intense feelings it built up inside of me.

With all this stimulation, both physical and mental, it didn't take long before that incredible sensation I knew and loved so well started to build in me. God, I could feel it from my toes to the top of my head. I felt like I was literally burning up yet freezing at the same time with goose bumps forming all over me.

I pushed the dildo in me as far as I could take it, letting it drive me even farther into my faraway place I drifted off to when this happened. I wasn't aware of anything or anyone around me during these moments, just totally consumed with my own lust and sexuality.

As my orgasm gradually died down I lay there, now totally exhausted. I still had the dildo in me and so I turned off the vibrator, letting it just fill my pussy as I lightly caressed my now hypersensitive clit. I reached down and removed it from me finally, handing it to my dad still dripping with my pussy cum on it. He licked it, smiling as he enjoyed the taste of my pussy.

One thing I had to ask though.

"Dad, why the double ends? You know I don't do anal stuff."

My dad looked at me with a grin as if he was keeping some sort of secret from me.

"Well, first you never know. Maybe someday you'll change your mind about that and try a DP on yourself."

"Daddy!" I protested, pretending to be shocked at the very mention of such of thing.

"Just saying...," he laughed, "Plus you'll be in college now in a dorm filled with other horny girls. Who knows, might come in handy."

"Daddy!" I responded again. I knew what he was implying, that I might want to use it with another girl. Leave it to a guy to think of such things.

My dad looked at his watch and warned me that we needed to get going so he gathered his clothes and left me behind alone in my room. I heard him go into his bedroom where he was undoubtedly getting dressed and throwing on some cologne to mask the smell of our sex - a typical guy's version of "washing up".

After all I'd been through in the past few minutes it was going to take more than some cologne to make me presentable so I grabbed a quick shower before I got dressed. In the meantime my dad had already made his way downstairs and by the time I finally arrived he was waiting and gave me a sweet fatherly peck on the cheek. Imagine what the folks watching would have thought if they knew how he'd kissed me just a short while before!

My pussy was still tingling from being fucked and I wanted so bad just to tell everyone there how great it had made me feel when my dad had just fucked me. It was family after all and who better to share such things with? Had it been just us and my Aunt Linda we would have been discussing it in great detail!

Oh well, maybe someday people will understand incest better and I won't have to hide it from them. Until then though, I'll keep fucking my dad every chance I get! I got a lot of gifts that day but none compared to my dad's. Most of my friends got clothes and stuff but I don't think any of them could say their dad gave them a dildo for graduation - not to mention a good fucking as well!

I'm such a lucky girl!

Me (18)
Kristen - cousin (16)

One of the best things about being a teenage girl is that it seems almost everyone wants to look at you. So far as I am concerned, the more the better. If you're willing - and daring, the opportunities to tease and play are endless. One of the best places is also one of the easiest to get to. This is for those of you who have ever wondered what it's like to be one of those naughty, cock-teasing teenagers who love to drive you crazy at the mall.

1. Planning For Summer

I was eighteen and a newly minted high school graduate looking forward to college. Thus this was my last summer before becoming a college student and it was my intent to enjoy it as much as possible.

Fortunately, my parents were paying for my schooling and expenses so it wasn't like I had to find a summer job like many of my friends. I DID baby-sit now and then but it was more because I enjoyed it than anything else. Being financially independent allowed me to pick and choose who I wanted to sit for which was fortunate as there were some people whose kids were absolute brats. Although they may not have known it, there was neighborhood "black list? that was maintained unofficially between the local girls.

It should go without saying that I preferred to sit for people with well-behaved kids but it also helped when the parents themselves were more "interesting". It's funny how so many people think that they can leave things around and somehow think the babysitter won't find them, or at least will ignore them.

I'm talking about stuff like home videos they made of themselves that are left in the VCR, incriminating photos "hidden? in the backs of bedroom drawers, risque lingerie, and much more. Once the kids are in bed it's fun to rummage around and see what I can find. For me it's sort of like an Easter egg hunt for naughty babysitters!

Besides being nosy when I baby-sit, another of my favorite "hobbies? is teasing. Actually I'm not nearly the tease that some of the girls my age are. You know the ones I'm talking about - the girls who loved to get a boy all hot and bothered and then leave him stranded with a hard cock ready to burst any moment.

No, while I did enjoy teasing to start with, usually I would "put out? as the boys like to say so I never earned the reputation of being a cockteaser. Still, there ARE times when teasing alone can be almost just as fun. Of course teasing doesn't provide the physically satisfaction but sex is 80% mental for me anyway so it works out for the most part.

Sometimes when I'm horny and masturbating at home just doesn't quite quench my needs, I'll head over to the mall. Usually I'll invite a friend or two to join me as it's more fun to share the experience. Still, there are those times when I like to go out alone, especially when I'm REALLY horny and my hopes are that I'll get an opportunity to do more than just tease. It shouldn't come as a surprise that a determined girl can get pretty much anything she wants at the mall and I don't mean what's on the racks!

As I said, most of the time I prefer to hang out at the mall with a friend or group of friends. There is just something about a pack of girls that just seems to draw the attention of boys yet at the same time it intimidates them such that all they do is watch and nurse their poor erections.

There's another good reason to travel in packs. Being alone at the mall is like having been cut from the herd, leaving you at the mercy of the predators. Fortunately, I've got several friends who share the same enthusiasm for my "hobby" as me, including my best friend Beth, so it's not like I have to be alone too often unless I want it that way.

While Beth and I often have fun together, my favorite "partner in crime? is my cousin Kristen. Just a little more than two years younger than me, she looks even younger making her by far more the boy magnet than I am. In addition, she's always trying to go at least one step farther than me - no matter what I do. Part of that is simply her competitive nature but it can also be attributed to my future ambitions.

My goal is to be a teacher in my old school district after I graduate and so while I didn't mind the boys my age thinking I'm slut, I try to not be TOO bad since I know such a reputation in the community at-large won't help when it comes time to interview someday in the future.

Kristen, on the other hand, has no solid plans for the future and thus lives only for the day. Based on her actions, she certainly has no problem with being well-known by all as the class slut; in fact, she seems to be quite proud of her stellar reputation. It doesn't hurt that her mom, my Aunt Linda, is the neighborhood MILF, especially since she's been known to have a taste for a few of her daughters boyfriends!

2. Waking Up Horny

For one reason or another I woke up particularly horny this day, even more than usual. I must've been having quite the dream judging from how wet as my pussy was when my eyes opened - too bad I couldn't remember any of it! All I knew was my poor pussy was literally aching with need and there's only one cure for that condition (assuming no boyfriends were around) - masturbation. Actually, I usually masturbate anyway to kick off my day but this morning there was no choice, I HAD to do it!

My right hand reached between my bare legs before my eyes had even focused. All I could think about was how wonderful it would feel to have a nice hard cock sliding in between my smooth thighs. As I lay on my side I stretched my legs out and then curled them back under me but nothing seemed to help the itch between them.

My middle finger slowly worked its way inside of me, easily sliding in between the folds of my wet pussy lips while my left hand squeezed my boobs and pinched my hardening nipples. Oh yeah, this was MUCH better!

With my eyes STILL tightly closed I imagined Chuck, my current boyfriend, slipping into bed behind me. In my mind I imagined his hard naked body pressing up against me. I could all but feel the firmness of his erect cock pressing against the small of my back as he rubbed it up against me, letting me know what he wanted (as if I didn't know already!)

Two of my fingers worked their way into my pussy as I lifted my leg and imagined Chuck's erect cock moving down my back. I loved the feel of it as it passed between my ass cheeks and then started to poke me as it hunted for my pussy opening like a heat-seeking missile.

I smiled to myself as I thought about how no matter how many times he fucked me, poor Chuck never seemed to be able to hit the bull's-eye the first time. Usually he was too high and had to work his way down. More than once he inadvertently tried fucking my asshole but I quickly set him straight on that one!

Typically I would end up just reaching down and grabbing his dick so I could hold him in the right position (not to mention outside the correct hole) while he made yet another attempt. My reward was well worth the effort when his cock would finally penetrated my tight pussy.

There's nothing like the feel of a man's dick as it pushes its way into your pussy for the first time. It's like you're surrendering to him, accepting him into you as you feel yourself stretching impossibly apart. For just a moment it seems like he can never fit yet then he pops in and starts to rub up against the sensitive outer regions of my pussy, instantly driving me crazy with lust and desire.

I fantasized how I would squeeze down on him, forcing him to push even harder to drive his teenage dick deeper into me. I rubbed my clit in little circles as I dreamed of Chuck's warm hard cock now deep inside of me, struggling to get in yet even further as he pressed his hairy crotch up against me. I shuddered briefly as I recalled how I would sometime be tickled by the coarse thick pubic hair that surrounded the base of his dick.

As I continued to masturbate, I longed for Chuck's strong arms to be around me. He always made me feel so secure when he would hold me tightly against him, my boobs smashed in against his chest as he kissed my neck and shoulders.

My hand on my boob reminded me how Chuck LOVED to play with my boobs (or tits as he liked to call them - a nasty term for them that I've always disliked). Yep, Chuck was a boob guy for sure. It seemed he was always trying to touch mine as if they were toys or something provided solely for his amusement.

Everywhere we went Chuck would try to grope me, even in school and church! If he couldn't touch them then he would press up against me until my boobs were pressed tight against him. If all else failed, there was the old "peek down my dress? game where he tried to catch a peek of my chest. Not that I minded! Normally I would help him out by wearing clothing that could be easily unbuttoned or loose enough to give him a nice view. After all, what's a girlfriend for if not to please her boyfriend?

As I stroked my fingers in and out my wet pussy I used my thumb to rub over my hardened clit. As horny as I was this morning it didn't take long before I felt my first orgasm of the day threatening to make an appearance.

I moaned loudly as the equivalent of a sharp electric shock ran through me, radiating from my pussy and reaching out to the tips of my toes and to the last strand of hair on my head. My back arched as my whole body tensed while my hand which was still working my pussy, keeping me on that knife edge where I tried to maintain myself, that edge between losing my orgasm and driving myself crazy.

Finally it died down enough for me to relax and I just lay in bed with beads of sweat cascading from me as I panted and tried to catch my breath. Wow! I can't think of a better way to start out your day – well, if you have to be alone that is.

It felt so good to just lay there with my hand gently cupped over my pussy, just enough to apply a little pressure but not too much which might set me off again. Remnants of my orgasm seemed to be floating through me, tickling me here and there like a feather being drawn slowly over my body.

The warmth of my pussy felt good against my hand as I lightly traced the fingertips of my other hand over my stomach and breasts. Sometimes I would shiver uncontrollably as I touched just that right spot and my legs closed tightly over my hand, holding me in place as I held myself.

3. Getting Myself Ready

Eventually I knew I had to get going although thoughts of another round of masturbation briefly flashed through my head. Sometimes I could go most of the morning this way, driving myself hard to an orgasm and then enjoying the aftermath for a while before going for it again.

Today, even though I was still horny, I decided to get up and see what the day could offer so I rose from my bed and took a peek outside. The summer sun was out and it looked like a great July day was just beginning. Of all the seasons I love summer the best, not the least because usually it meant I didn't have to wear very much outside.

As I went to the bathroom to take a shower and clean myself up, I thought about what I wanted to do today. Since I was still horny as hell a couple of options quickly came to mind. Of course, Chuck was my first choice. I suppose I don't need to say that he was always willing to fuck me whenever I asked for it. I mean, what teenage boy would turn down a request from his girlfriend to come over and fuck her? Unfortunately, Chuck was away for the week for some sports camp thing so that killed that idea.

I briefly considered dropping in on my dad at his downtown office. That was a little more risky, especially if my goal was to have sex with him. Of course it was the element of risk that made it even better for both of us. To have my dad fucking me while he was on a conference call was SOOOOO hot. Thanks goodness he didn't do video conference thing very often!

It was all a moot point though as once again fate intervened. Last night at supper he'd mentioned something about important clients coming in today from overseas. Even though I knew he would do anything he could to make me happy, I didn't like to interrupt his work if I could avoid it.

Well, that left another option - head to the mall and tease some boys. Such a trip usually meant no sex, but it was the next best thing and as I mentioned earlier, was typically a lot of fun.

After I got out of the bathroom I jumped back on my bed feeling the cool soft sheets against my warm naked body and called my cousin Kristen to see if she was available. As luck would finally have it, it turned out she was feeling much the same way I was and it made me hot as she described how she had masturbated this morning as well.

Like me, Kristen's thoughts had revolved about some new boy that she'd recently met and it made me start to feel warm between my legs again as I listened to her describe her latest fantasy. When she was finished, I mentioned my idea and we both agreed that a mall trip was just the thing for us today. We agreed for me to pick her up sometime after noon and spend most of the afternoon seeing what trouble we could cause.

Most guys probably have no idea how much work actually goes into preparing for a day like this at the mall. It's not like you just throw on some clothes and drive over - which I would say is the scenario for most guys judging by how they look once they're there.

There are all sorts of factors to take into consideration such as what age group is being targeting? Options included teenage boys, young men, or in some cases even older guys and especially husbands. It wasn't any different than getting ready to go fishing - you had to choose your bait depending on what you wanted to catch.

The teen boys are the easiest. They aren't looking for anything subtle and would have undoubtedly been satisfied if we simply strolled in nude. It's sort of like when I have sex with them - they want everything fast and quick with no foreplay other than what they thought they were obligated to provide.

It seems that the older guys get, the less blatant they want me to dress. Unlike the young guys, older men, especially the married ones, seem to prefer fantasizing more about what they could do with me rather than seeing it all outright. It's sort of like where I've read that strippers claim that it's what they DON?T show that makes them erotic rather than what they reveal up front. In the state of mind I was in today, being subtle was not my list of options which led me to think of the day as a good day to simply 'troll? for teenage boys.

Since it was midweek, and the older guys would be working anyway, there were always packs of teenage boys roaming the malls. Although it was like fishing a stocked pond for me, I'm sure having them around was a bit if a concern for the mall security guards! There seems to be a bit of a double standard in that regard because if a group of girls goes to a mall it's OK but when boys congregate the guards get nervous. Maybe it's because packs of girls are considered 'safe? whereas a group of boys is considered a "gang? - something to be feared and watched.

Back to my getting dressed...

Over time I've developed what I guess you could call a standard "uniform? for each of my 'targets?. For today I would be fishing for younger teenage boys so I knew it was all about the visuals.

Looking through my closet, I carefully selected a short-short denim skirt with a skin-tight pink cami top. The skirt hugged my hips tightly and then loosened up for just a few inches. Thus even while the hem might bounce around a little, hinting at the possibility of showing something if I moved just a little too fast, the tight band around my hips kept anything private from going on display unless I specifically wanted it to.

The cami was light pink with thin spaghetti straps. It was at least one size too small for me if not two which allowed a few inches of my tanned midriff to be exposed above my skirt. It was skin tight everywhere else and without a bra underneath (I wouldn't have been caught dead with one on while wearing this outfit!) it hugged my boobs like it was painted on and clearly outlined my nipples - even when they were NOT aroused.

One thing about a cami like this. It tended to be more accurate than any bathroom scale could ever dream of being. What I mean is that if I gain even an ounce it tells me and anything close to a pound was cause for alarm as it simply wouldn't stretch enough to pull over.

Since I was going to a public mall, a LITTLE discretion was required so I chose a pair of standard white cotton panties my mom had picked up on sale from Macy's. I think guys love cheerleader and schoolgirl outfits because they are things a "girl next door? would wear rather than those super sexy outfits the unattainable girls in the magazines wore. Seeing my cotton panties probably made them think that they just might, barely, have a shot at nailing me.

My shoes were chosen with the careful attention as the rest of my outfit. Sexy heels were for the older guys where the rule was the higher the better. Open-toed was a must and the less material the better, even if that meant they were uncomfortable.

For my young guys today, it was pink sneakers with white anklets - the same thing their sister's friends wore, the girls they went to bed at night masturbating about.

Hopefully now you see that being a tease at the mall is not as simple as you might have thought. It takes a lot of planning and experience is needed to pull it off successfully. I claim success when everyone involved - me included, masturbates as soon as they get home, or hopefully even sooner!

4. Detour to Kristen's

I was dressed up with my hair in a ponytail (of course) and with one last glance in the mirror it was off to Kristen's house. On my way downstairs I asked my mom for the car (a minor detail I'd overlooked in my initial planning). She looked me over from head to toe and just shook her head as if she was ready to give up on me.

"God grief Kelly," she sighed, "Don't tell me you're heading to the mall again to tease those poor boys."

From my naughty grin she knew she'd hit it on the head and she sighed again, "Why don't you just go out and find a nice boy to fuck if you're so horny? Frankly, I don't see what you get out of just teasing the poor kids anyway."

"Oh mom!" I pouted, "You're the one who told me how you used to the same thing when you were my age so what's wrong with me doing it? Besides, I like it when they look at me that way."

I grinned at her and gave her a searching look saying, "Besides, I think you're proud of me when I dress like this, aren't you?"

"Now Kelly, don't exaggerate. You know full well that I NEVER did half the things you do when I was your age," my mom replied with wag of her finger at me. "Alright, you can have the car but be careful."

She paused and then a smile broke out on her face, "And yes... I AM proud of my sexy daughter."

Grabbing the keys, I jumped up and gave her a kiss on the cheek and then I was off! Driving over to Kristen's house I couldn't help but reach under my skirt and press my fingers against my clit through my cotton panties. It might be a bad habit, but I love playing with myself when I drive around town. It's so cool to pull up next to a guy in his car and smile while I toy with myself and he had no idea what I'm doing.

Being it was only a few minutes to my cousin's house, there wasn't enough time to really get going but it was enough to get me started. When I pulled up to the curb I stopped the engine and for a few minutes I kept rubbing myself. Finally, I shook my head and stopped touching myself or else I might have just stayed in the car until I came again. Besides, it was too hot out without the air conditioning going.

I got out, straightened up my skirt just a little bit, and slowly walked up the steps to her house. Her neighbor was outside, a boy who looked to be about eighth grade or so. The kid was obviously starting to appreciate girls as he stopped goofing around with his baseball and just stood there, unabashedly stared at me. I just turned away and shook my head - he was a little on the young side, even for teasing!

Kristen must have been watching out for me because she opened the front door as I went up the last steps. As she let me in she also noticed her little neighbor who was still staring our way, making no attempt to even pretend he wasn't staring. God, did he have no shame?

"Ahhhhhh, I see you've met Bad Billy, our neighborhood's youngest pervert," she said, laughing with me. "I swear he's tried looking into our windows at night. As you can see, the kid has absolutely no shame - he just stares all the time - even at my mom!"

We both laughed more at that but it didn't surprise me. I think I mentioned before that my Aunt Linda was what the boys at school called a MILF - Mother I'd Like to Fuck. She had to get a divorce way back when Kristen was young and kept herself in great shape making her single - and HOT.

From what my mom and Kristen had told me, I knew my aunt maintained quite an active sex life. She stuck mostly with men her age although Kristen has hinted more than a few times that her boyfriends may have gotten more than they'd counted on when she brought them home!

Somehow I doubted that Aunt Linda would have been interested in a kid as young as Bad Billy but it didn't take a genius to understand why Billy had more than a passing interested in her!

My thoughts were interrupted when Kristen told me that she was ready to go. Looking her over, I noticed that she was dressed quite similar to me. Her skirt had a slightly different pattern and she preferred a white cami but otherwise you would have thought we were twin sisters, at least in terms of how we dressed.

Although I couldn't see them, from past experience I suspected she had on her favorite skimpy white thong in lieu of the cotton panties I'd chosen to wear. You could never be sure though as Kristen wasn't above not wearing anything at all under a skirt, no matter where she was going.

We were both the only kids in our families so Kristen was probably the next best thing I had to having my own sister. There have been times when I have wondered what it would have been like to have had a real sister or even better yet - am older brother! Mmmmmmm, that had all sorts of possibilities!

We were about to head out when my Aunt Linda came downstairs to say hello.

"Well my oh my, look at the two of you," she said shaking her head in mock despair, "I have to say, the you girls make the perfect pair of slutty mall cock-teasers if I dare say so."

Kristen just laughed and tossed her hair back seductively. "Oh Mommmmmm, sure you don't want to join us?" she said with a naughty grin.

Aunt Linda just rolled her eyes at that one. "I hate to admit it, but those days are over for me. You girls can get away with it looking like you do but people would think I was just a hooker or a some poor woman trying to relive her childhood."

This time it was Kristen and me rolling our eyes. My Aunt Linda looked ten years younger than she was and still turned heads everywhere she went. I could only imagine the looks we would have gotten if she was with us - a cougar mom with what looked to be her two slutty daughters trolling the mall for some male companionship.

Mmmmmmm, the possibilities were endless and a bit kinky as well! I knew she and Kristen often DID go out together but she had never done it with both of us. My mom wasn't into that sort of thing, at least not at her age so I had to envy Kristen a little on this one.

Kristen grabbed by the arm and pulled me to the door. She was about to open it when she looked through the glass storm door and turned her head back to me.

"I see Bad Billy's still out there. What do you say - wanna put on a little show for the nasty perv?" she asked me in a conspiratorial whisper, as if he could somehow hear her in the house.

Honestly the idea really didn't appeal to me all that much. First he was way too young for me. Even so, maybe another time or place but today I was anxious to get to the mall where all the cute guys were and now she wanted to waste valuable time on some kid who probably masturbated every day dreaming of fucking Kristen (and maybe even her mom!)

Well, I could tell from the twinkle in her eye she wanted to do it for whatever reason so I relented even though I had no idea what crazy idea she was hatching. As usual when it came to Kristen, I didn't have to wait long to find out.

Kristen reached under her skirt and pulled down her thong, quickly slipping it off her feet and stuffing it into her purse. She looked at me and huffed overdramatically, "Well, you gonna take yours off or do I have to do it for you?"

As much as the idea of having Kristen reach under my skirt appealed to me, I shrugged and dropped my panties as well, balling them up in a tight wad and stuffing them into my little purse. Kristen watched me with an amused look.

"What's with the granny panties cuz?" she smirked, "I didn't even know you OWNED a pair like those."

I just ignored her as no matter what I said it wouldn't help. It was embarrassing enough that she saw them.

My mind was beginning to form an idea now of what her plans were, and all I could think of was how she was going to get away with it without putting on a show for the entire neighborhood - or maybe that WAS her plan!

In any case Kristen took my hand again and we stepped outside. My aunt was close behind us, watching through the glass storm door to see what we were up to. No doubt she was wishing she could join us as she was as much as showoff as her daughter. Not that it hurt her real estate sales!

As we stepped out I noticed Billy was still watching and just like Kristen had foretold, he just sat there on his front step and stared at us as if he didn't care that we saw him or not. Is this how sex perverts get started out in life? I wondered if we would be seeing him someday on Date-Line or another TV show on sexual predators.

Kristen led the way to a spot about halfway down the concrete walk and then stopped, turning her back to Billy and twisting my arm to make me stand next to her.

"OK girl, now let's give the little perv something to jerk off about!" she whispered to me excitedly. "I'll bet ya lunch I can be nastier than you."

This was classic Kristen, always competitive, always trying to be one-up on her older cousin, especially when it came to sex. I gave her a look that clearly announced that there was no way she was going to win this one and she just grinned at the challenge.

We both bent over and Kristen looked over her shoulder and waved to Billy as our bare asses were exposed to his view. As much as he'd probably been dreaming of such a sight, I doubted he ever honestly expected it to happen as his eyes widened and his mouth hung open like a fish out of water. I could lonely imagine the dirty thoughts going through his mind at the sight of our two tanned teenage asses.

I spread my legs wider and leaned over further until I could see him upside down through my legs. Kristen followed up by putting her hands on her ass and spreading her cheeks apart, giving him a nice view of her asshole and pussy. Not to be outdone, I reached between my legs and pushed a finger into my pussy.

God, I couldn't believe I was doing this in the middle of the neighborhood but the wetness in my pussy betrayed the thrill it was giving me. I pushed my finger deeper into me and looked over at Kristen who winked at me and then promptly put her own finger in her pussy. The two of us were bent over fingering ourselves and I wondered how far this was going to go when Kristen took her fingers out and then stood up and proceeded to suck the pussy juice off of them like a wet popsicle.

Just then the front door opened and my aunt called out to us, "OK girls, that's about enough. Now get going before someone sees you and calls the police!"

We both laughed and with a wave to Billy we hurried to my car. We jumped in and Kristen laughed at me, "HA! I won!" she crowed triumphantly.

"No fair," I protested, "Your mom stopped up before I could do anything. It was a tie."

Once again my cousin had outdone me.

5. The Food Court

We both had a good laugh as we talked about out little antics in the front yard. It wasn't long until I pulled into the mall parking lot. Before we got out we slipped our underwear back on. Kristen started to make another wise-ass comment about my oversized panties but I shushed her and glared.

On our way to the food court entrance we passed an older couple leaving the mall. I grinned at the poor husband whose eyes were clearly wandering. His frumpy wife poked him in the side with her elbow and gave us both a nasty look that clearly indicated what she thought of us. It really didn't matter what she thought about me as it was her husband's reaction that mattered to me more. At the entrance was the usual security guard, a pot-bellied middle-aged guy wearing a dark blue rent-a-cop uniform whose sole mission seemed to be to harass the kids trying it have fun at the mall. It should have been obvious that neither Kristen and I were hiding anything - I couldn't have fit a straw inside my dress let alone a knife or gun!

Nevertheless the idiot stopped us and declared that he had to check out our purses. Well, his hands may have been inspecting our purses but his eyes were definitely inspecting something else. He was evidently a breast-man from the way his gaze kept shifting from Kristen's boobs to mine and then back to hers again.

This was one time I held a distinct advantage over Kristen. My boobs may not have been as large as I wished they were, but they were at least a cup size bigger than Kristen's. At the same time, that was part of her 'little girl? appeal in that most people would never had believed she was sixteen based on her boobs - or lack of them.

Finally, Barney Fife established that our purses were empty except for our ATM cards and makeup so he handed them back to us while trying to maintain a stern demeanor. We twirled around and looked at each other as we walked through the doors, trying not to burst out laughing at the fumbling guard behind us.

The food court was set up with the usual variety of food kiosks on both sides and the tables in the center as you walked towards the main shopping area of the mall. Instinctively I took note of the people looking at us as we walked around the table area. The reactions were all about the same - the boys stared at us liked idiots, the older guys stared as well but at least tried not to be so obvious about in their bottom. Kristen was seated across from me and she leaned over and whispered to me.

"Don't look Kelly but you should see the way those two old ladies over there are staring at us."

I raised my eyebrows and despite her warning, glanced to each side looking for whomever she was talking about. Sure enough, over to the right side of us were two older women who looked to be in their fifties or sixties. I knew that they had to be talking about us from the way their eyes looked away as soon as mine locked onto them. Then they would whisper something and try looking back again. From the frowns on their faces I was pretty sure they weren't paying us any compliments - at least not what they would consider compliments.

What made me happier though (and hornier) were the boys that Kristen had smiled at on the way to our table. They looked to be about sixteen or so - Kristen's age, and had just thrown away their garbage and were now walking over to us. There were five of them but the one in front was clearly the alpha leader. He was taller than the others and looked a little bit older but it was his swagger and attitude that identified his spot in their pecking order. I couldn't help but notice his tight ass through the jeans as well as the lean cut of his body. Mmmmmmm, the boy was surely in shape! I figured he was probably a football player or wrestler in school.

"Hey Kristen, looking hot today," he said as they reached out table. Then he looked at me and smiled, "I see you brought your cousin with today."

I looked at him but our eyes never met because his were fixed squarely on my boobs. I'm not sure why boobs fascinate men so much but I'm sure glad for whatever it is that makes them love them so. It's like Mother nature gave girls the ultimate prize when it came to controlling men.

I could feel my nipples against the fabric of my cami and I knew without looking they must be sticking through it nicely for him to see. My camisole hugged me tight and I loved the way it rubbed against my nipples whenever I moved, encouraging them to harden even more.

"So... see something you like Michael?" Kristen teased him in a flirty voice

Michael was certainly bold for a boy his age. He never took his eyes off my boobs for a second when he answered her saying, "Oh yea, I DEFINITELY see something I like - a couple of things in fact!"

Well, with a hunky body like his I guess he could afford to be a bit brash. I imagined every girl in school wanted to get between him and his Calvins! It made me wonder if Kristen had already. It certainly wouldn't have surprised me if she had. Actually, it would have surprised me more if she hadn't!

The other guys stood a bit further back, a little more shy I guess or perhaps it was just the classic case of an alpha male taking control. Hmmm, I would have loved for Michael to take control of me right now! Michael licked his lips a bit and then turned back to Kristen. I smiled to myself as I noticed that his eyes never went higher than her chest. Hmmm, yep - definitely a boob man!

"So Kristen," he went on softly, "Is your cousin as 'talented? as you are?"

Kristen looked over at me and winked. Well, that helped explain things. Obviously she had at least sucked off Michael in the past and judging from the way she as looking at his crotch I had the distinct feeling that she was hoping for another chance at his cock right about then.

I figured the odds were he'd fucked her as I couldn't conceive how my slutty cousin would have passed up chance to be fucked by a guy like him. Besides, while I might have a rep for blow jobs on the first date, I didn't usually put out until the second or third date whereas Kristen typically didn't bother playing the game and just did it the first time.

Kristen squirmed a bit in her seat, which I knew was a clear sign that she was horny as hell. It would have been an easy bet that had she been alone without me in the way that she and Michael would be heading out to his car about now - or anywhere for that matter where they could get down to business. Not that I had ever stopped her from doing it even now, it was just we had other objectives for the day and tempting as he was, he'd be available another time. Still, Kristen couldn't help but tease him a bit more though.

"Hmmmmmm, well I think she's quite talented," she said in a husky voice, winking again at me.

Michael grinned, catching on quickly to what she was inferring. "Oh? Kissing cousins, eh?" he said with a smirk.

Kristen and I both giggled. We didn't have to say anything as from the look of the growing bulge in his pants Michael's imagination was running in high gear and anything we said would probably not been as hot as what he was imagining!

It was no different than us sitting there in our outfits. Although I'm sure he would've loved to have seen us both nude, we were exposing just enough to let his teenage hormone-driven mind imagine far more than we could've ever shown him.

Michael's stiffening cock was clearly outlined in his crotch now - the poor boy's balls must have been near busting! For a moment I contemplated what fun we could have with him but again I held back. It was enough fun for now to just tease him like this in the middle of the food court.

During the exchange we'd both eaten what we wanted of our meals and so I looked at her and she understood what I was thinking. We both got up and grabbed our trays. Kristen patted Michael on the ass lightly and gave him one of her classic slutty looks.

"Sorry boys, maybe another day?" she teased in a bit of a southern drawl which was funny, at least to me, as she'd never been more than a hundred miles south of Pittsburgh.

"Anytime Kristen," Michael replied, "And your cousin's free to join in. I'm sure you'll vouch for me after our last time."

Kristen giggled like a little grade-school girl and looked at me with a big grin. Yep, I was sure now that she'd fucked him before. We turned away from them and walked over to the garbage can with our trays, wiggling our butts naughtily for the benefit of the eyes we knew were staring at them.

From the garbage can we turned down the hallway and entered the mall proper where I gave Kristen a questioning look and asked, "Spill it girl, so how many times has he fucked you?"

Kristen laughed replying, "Oh just a few... Don't look at me like that - I saw you staring at his erection through his jeans. God... he has this HUGE cock and man, can he stay hard all night! Mmmmmmm, I LOVED it!"

We both laughed and went on our way. As we strolled through the mall we pretended not to notice the stares and looks from almost every guy we passed by. It didn't matter how old they were - teenagers through grandfathers, they couldn't keep their eyes off two teenage girls in short skirts - especially ones as short as ours were.

My pussy was feeling a bit tingly from all the attention so I hope it doesn't sound too egoistical to say that it was a huge turn-on knowing that so many guys looked at me and wished that they could get under my skirt.

It may sound a bit trite but I love knowing that that most of them would have been willing to give up most anything for a chance to fuck either of us. Of course, they knew as well as I did that virtually none of them had a chance in hell of ever nailing a girl like me or Kristen but I'm sure they fantasized plenty about it.

I whispered in Kristen's ear, asking her how many masturbation sessions she thought we were inspiring! Kristen just laughed and I knew the idea turned her on just as much as it did me.

6. Shoe Shopping

We passed by a new shoe store that had recently opened when I noticed Kristen giving it an extra glance so I asked her if she wanted to go in and look around. She nodded and so we went inside.

It was actually a new family shoe store with only a limited supply of high heels so we probably would have left quickly had it not been for the sole clerk in the store. He looked to be the same age as Michael but he was as opposite otherwise as you could get. Skinny as a rail and with a terrible haircut (it looked like some 'mom with scissors? project), he looked like a stereotypical geek.

Surprisingly, for someone working in sales he appeared to be quite shy but of course, it could have been he was a bit intimidated by us. Judging from the shoe styles I doubted that many of his customers came in looking like Kristen and me, probably more overweight soccer moms dragging in the kiddies. That said, all in all, he was the perfect target for us today!

Kristen quickly found a pair of heels and walked slowly over to the guy, asking him if he had a pair in her size. He asked what size she wore and she shrugged, telling him that he would need to measure her foot.

The poor guy looked totally flustered at this point but he eventually found a measuring tool and set it down on the floor in front of her. He had to kneel down and position her stocking covered foot in it and it was like he was touching a hot brand when he held her ankle.

He was biting his lip and I noticed he was looking at her legs the whole time but trying hard not to let her notice. How typical! For some WEIRD reason guys always think they can look at girls without them knowing it. The real truth is the only time a girls doesn't notice is when she doesn't WANT him to know she has noticed - if that makes any sense!

The clerk told Kristen to wait a second and he would be right back. As soon as he was out of sight Kristen looked at me and giggled.

"Poor guy," she said, pushing her foot back in her shoe, "I wonder if he's touching himself back there now? Did you see the hard-on he was getting?"

I sat down in the chair next to her, crossing my legs to let my skirt ride up high on my ass. Looking at my cousin, I gave her my wicked smile and said, "Well, the way you were coming on to him, it's a wonder he didn't cum in his pants right then and there! Hurry up, he'll be back any second and you still need to take your thong off."

Kristen didn't even hesitate. One thing I loved about her, she never needed to be asked twice to take off something she was wearing! There was nobody else in the store and we were in the back away from the entrance so she quickly slid her thong down to her ankles and stepped out of them. She reached down to pick them off the carpeted floor and handed them to me. Feeling the urge to do something naughty, I held them to my nose and I could smell her wetness. Oh yeah, the girl was horny all right!

"Oh Kelly, you are soooooo bad. Put those away you naughty girl!" she hissed at me.

I just grinned back at her and slid them under me just in time as he was on his way back with several boxes piled high in his arms.

"Do you need me to sit down?" she asked him innocently.

The boy cleared his throat and nodded. For a salesman, he certainly didn't seem to have much to say! Kristen sat down with her legs tight together, holding out her right foot for him like Cinderella waiting for her silver slipper. Her skirt was riding high up in her lap now and the only thing hiding her bare pussy from view was her thighs clamped tightly together.

The guy kneeled down in front of her, grabbed her foot and tried to remove her shoe. It should've just slipped off but he was so nervous he couldn't seem to grab onto it. Finally it popped off, leaving just her anklet on. He picked up the heel but Kristen interrupted him.

"Ummmmm, Brian... I can't try on heels with my socks on."

By the way, my cousin isn't clairvoyant - his name was on an engraved badge pinned to his shirt pocket.

Poor Brian didn't seem to know what to do so I helped out by going over to the checkout counter and grabbing a pair of disposable nylon socks.

"Here you go Brian," I said softly as I handed them to him, "Isn't that what these are for?"

The poor kid was flustered now and his face was turning red at having forgotten about the disposable socks that every store has out for women when they try on shoes. He started to hand them to Kristen but she just sat back in the chair with her arms folded over her chest.

"I'd rather have you put them on Brian... is that OK?"

What was he supposed to say, no? I wondered if anyone had ever asked him to put them on for them before - probably not but there was a first time for everything.

Kristen raised her foot up and Brian gingerly pulled her anklet off. The he fumbled with the nylon, obviously never having had any experience with one before.

"You have nice hands Brian," Kristen purred, "I bet you give a great foot massage."

Brian just stuttered a bit and kept fumbling with the nylon. Kristen kept up the patter...

"Did you know that I love it when a guy plays with my feet?" Kristen murmured in a low voice.

Brian obviously didn't know what to do now. I imagine he had to be wondering if he was going to wake up any minute from this wet dream he was having. He probably couldn't believe a girl like Kristen would ever be saying such things to him.

"Just forget the shoes Brian, rub my foot," Kristen told him. He hesitated so she continued, "It's OK, really, I want you to rub my foot."

Brian gingerly took her bare foot in his hand and just sort of squeezed it a little.

"Come on Brian, you can do better than that," I broke in, unable to contain myself any longer.

Brian's face was still red like he had just run a marathon but he did start to massage her foot more vigorously.

"That's better," Kristen encouraged him, "I bet your girlfriend loves it when you do this for her, doesn't she."

Brian just mumbled something so I told him to speak up and he finally confessed, "I don't have a girlfriend."

THAT didn't surprise me in the least but I tried not to laugh or even smile too much but instead licked my lips and said, "You've GOT to be kidding Brian... a sexy guy like you? I would have thought the girls would be falling all over each other to get to you."

Brian frowned at that and I thought maybe I had gone a little overboard but Kristen chimed in.

"Well if they knew how great you are at rubbing their feet they would be," she sighed. Then she added, "God, you're making me soooooo horny Brian."

He seem startled at that one but before he could react further she spread her legs apart then, giving Brian a nice view of her cute little bare pussy.

Poor Brian, he just froze. As much as he was probably embarrassed to look, he couldn't help but stare at the bare crotch that was now exposed between her legs. Damn, Kristen was being relentless! She reached between her legs and ran her finger up and down her pussy slit.

"Oh Brian, look what you've done to me. I'm all wet!"

It wasn't her faking either as I could tell from the faint scent of her pussy that she was indeed wet and horny. Like me, I knew Kristen got horny as hell turning guys on, especially guys like poor Brian who she could wrap around her little finger without any effort at all.

Kristen pushed her finger inside her pussy just a little, then slowly started stroked it in and out of her as Brian watched, totally mesmerized by the show she was putting on for him. I had to admit I was enjoying it as well!

"Have you ever seen a girl touch herself like this before Brian?" Kristen asked softly. Brian shook his head as he licked his lips almost continuously. "I like to be watched when I touch myself," she continued, "Do you like watching me Brian?"

Brian nodded but Kristen wasn't going to let him off that easily. "C'mon Brian, tell me what you think of my pussy."

Brian cleared his throat and said in a low voice, "It's pretty," was all he could get out.

"I bet you've never seen a real girl do this to herself before, have you Brian?" Kristen asked.

Other than his dad's Playboys, I was pretty sure based on his reaction that she was right on the mark with that one. Kristen didn't bother waiting for the answer as she already knew what it was.

"I bet you'd love to touch it, wouldn't you Brian?"

Brian's breathing stopped as for second, although it must have been an eternity to him, he must have thought that Kristen was going to let him do just that. I almost felt sorry him at that moment. The poor guy - he had no idea how devious my cousin could be.

Kristen giggled and pulled her wet finger from her pussy. She licked her pussy juices off of it and put her legs back together again, effectively ending the show.

Pulling her bare foot from his hands, she stood up and pulling her skirt down. Then she looked at Brian with her best sultry look and said, "Well Brian, when you jerk off tonight I hope it's about me."

Looking at me then, she held out her hand expectantly and so I reached underneath me and gave her back her thong. She slipped it on slowly, pulling it up her bare legs and then over her butt, letting him watch and see her bare pussy and ass for the last time as she slowly pulled them the rest of the way up and then arranged the crotch with her finger.

"Thanks Brian! I hope you enjoyed this as much as we did!" she said with a giggle.

Then she put her anklet back on with her sneaker after which we left store and Brian behind us. It turned out to be just in time as a couple of women dragging their rug rats were entering the store.

Without looking back I bet Brian had to be wondering just what the hell had happened! I was pretty sure that none of his friends were going to believe him when he undoubtedly tried to tell them all about it later. One thing was certain, his poor cock was going to be sore tomorrow from all the stroking it was going to get tonight!

7. The Dressing Room

"God Kristen! That was so nasty of you," I said admiringly as we continued our mall shopping., "The poor guy will be jerking off every night this week thinking about you now!"

Then I leaned towards her and whispered in her ear, "You know, I'm horny as hell now thanks to your little show. Since it's all YOUR fault, what are you going to do about it?"

Kristen tossed her hair back and a wicked grin came to her face. Without a word she grabbed my hand and pulled me along towards the Sears store at the end of the mall. We went to the women's clothing section and headed straight for the dressing rooms. As usual there was nobody in there (I mean seriously, WHO in their right mind shops for clothes at Sears?) so we went into one of the changing rooms and she shut and latched the door behind us.

"OK, so who's hornier - you or me?" she asked with a twinkle in her eye.

I was already undressing as I replied, "Well, we'll just have to find out, won't we!" I stepped out of my panties as I unzipped my skirt. I then challenged her saying, "You know the drill, let's just see who cums first!"

It was tight in the dressing room but we both managed to strip in a matter of seconds, leaving our clothes on the floor except for our shoes which we left on. The bench seat was barely wide enough for the two of us to sit and spread out legs but somehow we managed. Her bare legs pressed against mine and for a second I felt a little naughty rubbing up against my cousin like this. Although we'd been masturbating together for years now we'd never done anything to the other like licking pussies or even kissing passionately. I smiled to myself as I wondered what she would say if she knew what I had been doing with my mom - and hers, since I was sixteen.

I reached between my legs with both hands, using one hand to spread my pussy lips apart and the other to fondle my clit and pussy. Kristen used a similar technique and it wasn't long before we were both going at it like two whores in heat. I looked over and watched her, noting how her clit was already swollen and her pussy was glistening with her juices. Well, thanks to Brian she had a head start on me so now I had to play catch-up! My finger ran over my pussy and a soft cry emerged from me as my wet finger ran circles around my sensitive clit. Kristen already had a finger up her pussy and was pushing it up in her as she used her other hand to massage her boobs.

"Oh my god!" she whispered to me, "This feels so damn good... Oh yeah Kelly, I love you to watch me."

My pussy was soaking wet, just as hers was, as I alternated between pushing my finger in and out of me and fondling my hardened clit. Leaning back against the wall, I pushed my hips out to make it easier for my finger to enter deep inside of me.

God, I wanted to be fucked so badly I could've screamed! What I would have given for a nice hard cock at that moment, to feel it entering me and violating me as it filled by pussy. My free hand roamed all over my boobs and torso, raising goose bumps wherever it touched. I could smell the air in the room filling with the pungent scent of our wet pussies as we both masturbated together, each of us desperately trying to be the first to cum.

At times like this, when I wanted to cum as fast possible, I liked to dream of my dad fucking me, how his cock felt when it was deep in my pussy as I gave myself unconditionally to him. I closed my eyes and imagined how it would feel right then to have him push himself in me, showing me how much he loved me. I loved it when he would cum in me, filling his daughter with his love, giving her his most treasured gift.

"Oh god, I'm cumming!"

I awoke from my reverie as Kristen began panting. Damn! She was always able to cum faster than me and I was pretty quick usually! Even as young girls when we would masturbate together she always "won? – cumming much faster than I could. I watched her fingers as they working furiously on her pussy when suddenly her head arched back and her hips rose to her manipulating hand. Her pussy gushed cum onto her hand and then she put her fingers in her mouth and licked it up.

I wondered how her pussy tasted and how it compared to her mother's. My tongue liked my lips as I thought about how good my mom and aunt's pussies tasted. Like fine wines, each was a bit different and like a rare vintage, I could have identified which one I was licking with a blindfold on. I loved the taste of my own pussy as well so given the family history I imagined that Kristen's would undoubtedly be succulent as well.

Kristen was cumming hard now. I could feel the softness of her thighs and the firmness of her legs against mine as she struggled, trying not to cry out too loudly as her orgasm stretched on. She was flushed to the point of being almost red and her breathing was fast and shallow. Finally her hips bucked hard and she took in a final deep breath.

"Oh god that felt so good," she sighed. " Oh Kelly, I love it when we do this."

If it was possible I was even more horny now and I wanted my own orgasm more than anything at the moment. It was Kristen's turn to watch intently as I played with myself until I felt the most incredible sensations run from my pussy to the outer reaches of my body while my fingers worked their magic on me. With one hand on my pussy I massaged my boob and nipple with the other. I looked down and observed myself masturbating as Kristen leaned back, slowly moving her finger over her wet pussy as she watched her older cousin masturbate.

My orgasm hit me like a truck on the expressway as I could feel my cum gush from my cunt into my hand. I didn't stop touching myself and thus I drove me higher and higher into the magical world I retreated to when my orgasms really get going. It had been too much already today for my poor pussy - first teasing little bad Billy, then seeing Michael's cock growing behind those tight jeans, then watching Kristen tease the poor boy at the shoe store, and finally seeing my cousin getting herself off.

I needed to cum so badly by now it literally hurt and so my orgasm was incredible. Every pore of my body tingled like I was plugged into an electrical outlet while at the same time I felt almost on fire my pussy felt so hot. It was like ocean waves pounding a beach except in this case it was pleasure pounding my body - over and over and over the waves of pleasure hit me as Kristen watched, her fingers moving faster over her pussy now.

One thing about doing yourself, you know exactly how you feel and what you need at any given time. I could sense just when I was peaking and would hold off just enough to let me stay there as long as possible and then hit me again just as I started to descend to bring me back to the top once again. It was like one continuous orgasm instead of a series of them like I usually had. I never wanted it to end, I wanted to feel this way forever.

I love sex so much because only sex can make me feel this way, so complete and so fulfilled. God I needed this more than food, more than anything else in the world. I needed to just cum and cum and cum - and I did.

Well, I had no idea how long this went on as it was like I was just in another world but finally my body just couldn't sustain it anymore and I collapsed in the seat, exhausted from the incredible orgasm I had just given myself. The only thing missing was the feeling of warm sperm dripping from my cunt but I couldn't do anything about that! Kristen looked over at my crotch with a huge smile.

"Well, I guess you really WERE horny today," she said with a hint of a laughter. "God I thought you were never going to stop cumming!"

Kristen leaned over to me and we hugged and kissed. It was just a gentle kiss between cousins and once again for a moment I wanted to see where it might lead. I wanted to hold her warm pussy in the palm of my hand as she did the same to mine. Who knows, as horny as I was I might have done something except I heard someone coming in the dressing area.

"Excuse me, is someone in here?" someone called out.

Damn, it was a store clerk! Oh well, I guess that was the end of that. I tried to call out to her but my voice wasn't responding yet so Kristen said we would be out in a second. We quickly pulled on our underwear and she put her skirt back on as I rearranged my cami.

When I opened the door, standing there outside was an older woman, maybe in her fifties, the classic store clerk in her out-of-style clothes and bad hair. She took one look at us with our messed-up hair, flushed faces, and the unmistakable smell of pussy that filled the air and I knew she had us pegged. She may have been an old bag but she was still a woman and no woman could mistake that smell for anything other than what it was! Her eyes narrowed and she shook her head at us. It was obvious we weren't trying on any clothes - we weren't carrying any and there was no way we were hiding any in these outfits!

"Well I'll be damned," she said, "Can't you dirty sluts find someplace else to do your filthy business? I mean for heaven's sake, don't either of you have ANY decency? What if there were kids here now?"

We didn't even bother answering - what would be the point? Instead we just left as quickly as possible. Once in the safe confines of the mall we stopped and turned to look at each other and we both broke out laughing.

"God, did you see the look on her face?" Kristen laughed.

"Yea, I bet she hasn't had an orgasm in twenty years!" I said back to her.

We headed to the mall restrooms to fix our hair and makeup. Afterwards we wandered the mall a bit more, teasing more boys than I can count with nothing more than a smile and wiggle of our butts. We probably could've both gotten laid a dozen times easily if we had wanted to, but I enjoyed just teasing them like we did.

8. Back Home Again

Finally we decided enough was enough, time to head home for some serious masturbation. I dropped Kristen off at her house and returned home to find my mom working in the kitchen.

"Have a good time dear?" she asked.

The grin on my face told her all she needed to know. She gave me a quick kiss and patted me on the ass saying, "Well, I imagine you have some serious tensions that need to be relieved so when you've finished come on down and tell your mother ALL about it."

As I headed up to my I thought how my mom was such a wonderful friend and confidante as well as loving mother. In my room I quickly stripped and hung up my short skirt. Looking at it I marveled how a piece of clothing so small could lead to so much fun!

Laying back on my bead I started to masturbate again as I recalled the events of the day. At least at home I didn't have to be quiet! Hmmm, I bet my mom was going to get horny herself once I told her about my day at the mall. It wouldn't be long before dad got home and I was sure he would enjoy hearing about my day as well. Yep, I had a good idea that things might get even more interesting before the day was over!

(Aug 28) Chapter 46: Lake Sex

Story codes: MF oral inc father-daughter
Me (18)
Chuck - boyfriend (19)
John - my dad (38)

High school was over and I was about to leave for college so my wonderful boyfriend Chuck and I went off to "make a memory" for both of us. It was indeed a day to remember but things got even better once I got home and told my dad about it!

1. Me and Chuck

During the summer after high school graduation I was dating an attractive guy named Chuck. We first met when I went out to eat with some friends and he had tagged along with one of his friends. Being we were the only two without dates that night we naturally gravitated toward one another.

At nineteen Chuck was a year older than me. An engineering major at a local university, he seemed intelligent but yet avoided being a nerd. We clicked from the start and before the night was over he asked me if he could call me so we could meet again. Of course I said yes!

On our first date we went out to dinner and an early movie before ending up at Chuck's house. His parent's weren't home and before the night was over he'd fucked me on the living room couch. It goes to show how much I liked him as usually I prefer waiting until at least the second date before I let a guy fuck me. First date - blowjob, second date - masturbation show, THEN third date sex.

Chuck and I spent the rest of the summer together going to all sorts of places and generally having a good time. Somehow we managed to find a way to have sex in one shape or form whenever we got together ranging from just a blowjob in his car to spending an entire day together. I even had him over to my house a few times and we had some fun times in our hot tub before heading up to my bedroom.

As the summer passed I found myself more and more attracted to Chuck in an emotional sense in addition to the physical magnetism I'd felt from the start. Chuck was like no boyfriend I'd been with before. First, he was so much more mature than the high school boys I'd been seeing until then. He was funny, good looking, and smart. Best of all he loved sex ALMOST as much as I did including a hint of a voyeuristic streak that made for some exciting times.

Although I wasn't ready to declare I was in love, I found myself thinking about him a lot and couldn't wait to be with him. From the way he talked I knew he had some of the same feelings for me so I was getting more and more excited about where it might be going between us.

From the start I told Chuck that I'd be leaving in the fall to go to college out of state. As the summer went on I began to wonder what would happen when I left him behind. The university was over four hours way, not all that far but enough that for him to see me it would take a day of traveling back and forth. We skirted the subject most of the time, neither of us really wanting to think about it.

My friends, knowing what Chuck and I did most of the time, tried to warn me that he wouldn't stick with me once he couldn't get it whenever he wanted it or at best he would start seeing other girls. I just ignored everything they said as I knew in my heart that Chuck felt more for me than just someone to have sex with. I couldn't imagine that he would dump me just because I wasn't at his beck and call 24/7.

Didn't someone once say that love is blind? Well, it apparently makes you stupid as well.

2. Fucked in the Lake

A couple of days before I was to leave Chuck asked me if I wanted to go out with him one last time for the summer. Of course I did and soon afterwards he picked me up to take me to a state park north of the city. It was a bit of a drive and I spent the entire time sitting next to him with my head on his shoulder and my hand on his crotch. He had his arm around me and I felt so secure in his embrace.

As usual, Chuck had quite a bulge under my hand and eventually I wanted to be closer to him than just feeling him through his jeans so I unzipped them and reached inside. Working my hand through his boxers I finally found my prize - his wonderful warm cock. While not very hard yet, it was starting to firm up and so I just held it in my hand, slowly working it with my fingers. If felt so natural to hold his cock by then that we traveled the rest of the trip that way, him driving and me next to him, talking away with my hand in his pants holding my favorite part of him.

We eventually made it to the park and being a weekday it was practically deserted. After driving around a bit, we found a somewhat private picnic area and he brought out this pretty picnic basket and a woolen blanket. Talk about romantic! Chuck laid everything out, setting up a picnic just for the two of us and we started by munching on some crackers and cheese. The lake was just a few yards away and since nobody was around I teased him about going for a swim. "What do you say we go for a swim Chuck? - the water looks soooooo inviting."

"Oh sure Kelly, right here out in the open in the middle of a state park and us with no bathing suits."

"What's the matter big college boy, chicken?"

Chuck just laughed and stood up. He reached for my hand.

"Ok Kelly, I'll show you who's chicken! Get up girl and let's go."

Chuck led me by the hand down to the water's edge. He stripped off his clothes so fast I couldn't believe it and suddenly he was in the water, naked up to his belly in water which was just enough to keep his uncovered cock just out of sight.

"What's the matter Kelly? Not so brave now are you? All talk and no action eh?"

Well, that wasn't fair. I would've beaten him into the water if I'd known what he was going to do. So now here I was standing at the edge of the water fully dressed while my stud of a boyfriend was nude in the water. Well, that wasn't a situation I was going to allow to last for much longer! I quickly stripped off my clothes, leaving them in a small pile by the water's edge and moved quickly into the murky water. It was late August and the water was pretty warm but it still made my nipples harden almost instantly. There was nobody in sight but I still felt like everyone in the world had to be able to see me naked. Not that I cared mind you, it just felt that way.

Just as I got in far enough to cover my boobs a car drove by. The road was far enough away to make it hard for anyone to even know we were there let alone to make anything out once we were in the water but I think it still would've been obvious that a naked girl was standing by the lake if they had passed by a few seconds earlier. As I mentioned, being seen nude wouldn't really have bothered me but at the same time I didn't exactly want the park ranger to come and throw us out for indecent exposure!

Chuck laid back in the water which caused his cock to break the surface like a submarine periscope. Despite the cooling effect of the water he was getting pretty hard by now and I couldn't help but stare at it. God I loved his dick! Well, I loved just about any dick but I particularly loved his - and especially what he did to me with it.

Chuck was watching me and noticed where my attention was focused. Of course by now he knew before he even did it what my reaction would be given my uncontrollable craving for his ever-ready cock. Chuck was at the prime of his sexual energies and his cock never seemed to get enough attention which was just fine by me. It was great because I could suck him and make him cum and he would stay hard, ready to fuck me right away again. Incredibly, one night he came four times without stopping to rest, something no other guy I'd been with had ever done. Mmmmmmm, did I mention that I loved his dick?

"Hey Kelly, see something you like?" he said with a bit of a smirk on his face. Yeah, like he didn't know what had my full attention.

Wading through the water, I moved over to him and put my hands under his firm ass, helping him to float on his back and causing his cock to rise higher above the water. "Mmmmmmm, all wet and hard. Something on your mind you naughty boy?"

"You know damn well what's on my mind - fucking you!"

A smile broke out on my face when he said that because we both knew it was true. I licked my lips with hunger - hunger for his dick. I simply couldn't take my eyes off his cock! Chuck's cock was average in length but when he got hard it was like a steel pole. It curved up from his crotch and was at a slight angle up from his body, totally engorged and I could almost see it throbbing with his lust for me. Chuck also had a thick bush of pubic hair which he trimmed enough to keep it from looking wild but still leaving me enough to play with. It was all wet now and lying flat, making his cock look longer than usual. I couldn't hold back any longer, I had to have it so I leaned over and took him in my mouth. I felt Chuck's ass tighten as his cock felt my lips and tongue running over it.

"Damn Kelly, that's what I love about you. No fooling around, right to business. Man can you suck cock! Who the hell taught you?"

"My mom," I replied with an impish grin. Chuck looked at me closely as if trying to determine if I was telling the truth or just teasing him.

"Yeah right, I would bet it's more like practice makes perfect," he finally came back with. It was sort of funny in that I was telling him the truth but he couldn't believe it was true. Imagine if I told him my dad's dick was the one I most recently practiced on?

I loved the feel of Chuck's firm ass in my hands as his erect cock moved in and out of my mouth. My boobs rested on his hips, allowing my hard nipples to rub against him as I sucked and licked his tasty cock. Chuck just floated on the water as I held him up, every now and then letting out a long groan as I would hit one of the sensitive spots on his cock. Of course I knew where they were now, after a summer of blow jobs. His cock was mapped out in my mind and I could play it like a flute, driving him almost to orgasm and then moving off, keeping him on just the edge as his precum would flow in a stream into mouth.

Chuck started to move his hips in time with my movements causing him to drive himself deeper and deeper into my mouth. Eventually his cock would go down my throat slightly when I took enough of him in until my face was pressed against the base of his cock. It tickled but I had learned by now how to control my gag reflex and he would gasp as he felt his cock go down my throat almost as if it was in my pussy.

"Oh Kelly, don't stop... God I love this... feels so damn good!"

His butt tightened in my hands and his hips moved up as his back arched and I could tell from the slight swelling of his cock I was about to get a load of warm gooey cum and sure enough, a few seconds later he literally exploded in my mouth. His warm sperm hit the back of my throat and then flowed over my tongue, trying to escape past my lips. He thrusted upwards with every shot of cum and I could feel my mouth filling with his sperm. One last time ejaculation and I felt his ass relax in my hands and he just floated there, looking at me with his cock still in my mouth. I let him slide out and turned to him with a big grin on my face. I opened my mouth to show him the cum pooled on my tongue.

"God you look so fucking sexy with a mouthful of my cum."

I smiled and swallowed it down, then opening my mouth again to show him it was gone. Chuck grinned and started to get on his feet.

"OK... your turn girl," he said and I let go of his ass to let him stand up, curious to see how he was going to work this out.

"Alright Kelly, now lay back in the water and put those incredible legs over my shoulders."

Without a word I did just that and as I floated on my back it was his turn to hold my ass up out of the water as he ate my water-drenched cunt. Of course whereas my smaller hands could barely hold his ass, he was able to grab one of my butt cheeks in each hand and squeeze them. His face was buried between my thighs as I realized just how much of me was exposed out of the water. For a moment I thought about what would happen if someone pulled up and saw us. My ass and legs were out of the water and my boobs looked like two small islands rising out of the lake as I floated on my back. With my legs up over his shoulders and his face in my crotch, it didn't take Sherlock Holmes to figure out he what he was doing to me.

I didn't care though because if there was one thing Chuck knew how to do, it was lick pussy! His tongue was tireless and he would stick in inside my pussy hole with his face pressed tightly against my bare crotch. I could feel his nose pressing against my clit as he would extend his tongue as far as he could into me.

"Oh my God Chuck that feels so good!"

Chuck lifted his face up for just a moment and smiled at me. "I just love your pussy Kelly. Can't get enough of it!"

Well, he was welcome to lick it all he wanted! Then Chuck used just one hand to hold me up which freed the other to play with my clit. The combination of his tongue on my pussy hole entrance and his fingers on my clit was sheer pleasure. Then he traded and sucked on my clit while he fingered my pussy, putting at first one then two and finally three fingers into me. Floating on the warm water, feeling his tongue on my clit and his fingers pushing in me... I was in heaven!

"Oh Chuck, don't stop... make me cum!"

Usually I helped a guy by touching myself but Chuck was one of the rare guys who could make me cum all by himself by licking and touching me. Well, he certainly wasn't failing me now! I began to feel a buildup of tension and excitement in me and I knew I was on my way to the one thing I craved most when having sex with a guy - an orgasm. Several of my friends have told me I'm addicted to sex and they're probably right. I get such an incredible rush of emotion when I cum that I just want to feel it as often as possible - make that NEED to feel it. I'd do about anything for it - including masturbation if necessary. Suddenly I knew I was there as my pussy gushed over his face.

"Ohhhhhhhhh," I moaned, "I'm cumming Chuck... OH MY GOD!"

Chuck knew from frequent experience this past summer not to stop at this point or even pause to say a word to me. He held my clit between his teeth and softly tugged on it, driving me absolutely nuts with pleasure as my whole body felt like electricity was passing through it. Trying to describe an orgasm to a guy is virtually impossible. How can he possibly understand the way I feel from head to toe, as if every inch of me on fire and feeling so damn good? I've never done drugs but I doubt even they could make me feel so incredible good. I love cumming and am willing to do most anything for it. Oh sure masturbation works in a pinch but nothing beats having someone else bringing me there, having someone touch me and fuck me until my body responds. Everything else disappeared in a haze as the only thing that existed for me at that moment was limited to the waves of pleasure that rolled through me like waves crashing on a beach. I didn't care where I was or anything else as I floated through a misty world of sexual pleasure.

"Oh Chuck!" was all I could get out as my eyes rolled back when yet another jolt hit me while he tugged yet again on my hyper-sensitive clit.

I couldn't believe how hard I was cumming, and in a public lake at that where anybody could come by and see us! Actually, I think the possibility of being caught was what was driving me extra hard. Finally I felt my body relax and slowly I came back to earth from wherever my mind goes when I orgasm. My arms stretched out to my sides as I just floated there and felt the warm water lapping up against my swollen pussy.

"We're not done yet girl!" Chuck said. "There's a hard cock here that's been looking forward to your hot pussy all day and it wants it now so get ready to take it you little slut."

I loved when he called me that so I bit my lower lip and gave him my foxiest look as he lowered me into the water but keeping my legs over his shoulders. Chuck pulled me closer until I could feel his still hard cock pressing up against my crotch. God I wanted him so badly right then! I needed him to fuck me and fuck me hard!

"Fuck me Chuck. Right here. Fuck me right here in the water," I begged him. "I don't care who sees us... just fuck me NOW!"

Chuck was so focused he didn't say a word in response as he lifted me up and I lowered my bare legs and wrapped them around his waist. I reached down and guided his hard cock to my wet pussy and he easily slid inside. A chill ran through me as I felt him driving deeper and deeper into me. There is something wonderful about the first time a guy enters me, his cock violating the privacy of my body as it fills my cunt. I can feel myself spreading apart as his cock is absorbed inside of me. Letting a guy put his cock into my pussy is the most intimate physical thing I can offer to him and I get so turned on watching his face as he feels my pussy welcoming and surrounding his cock.

Cars had been driving by the whole time but fortunately none ever pulled into the picnic area. I could've sworn though I saw the same one a number of times but it was hard to know for sure as I never really got a good look. Although we were mostly under the water my chest was often exposed when he lifted me up and down on his hard cock. The thrill of being caught made me even hornier as I pulled him tightly to me. I moaned in sheer ecstasy with the feel of his cock filling me.

"Oh Chuck, fuck me!... Fuck me!... Fuck me harder you bastard!"

Tears streamed down my face I wanted him so badly. The thought that this was the last time I would have his cock in me for so long was almost unbearable. I wanted him to stay inside me and never come out! I squeezed down his cock with my pussy as hard as I could.

"Damn girl, you're going to pop my cock if you squeeze it any harder!" he teased me, "Man, what a tight pussy!"

I smiled as I thought of the hours I spent in bed working on my pussy muscles so I could do this. I could even pop a ping pong ball out of my pussy and make it fly across the room – a talent I generally kept to myself needless to say although I couldn't resist showing off once to my dad. Guys loved it when I massaged their cock with my pussy, squeezing down on it and then releasing it. I could hold them so tight it was hard for them to pull out me – exactly what I meant to do with Chuck!

"Come on Chuck, cum again for me. Fill me with your cum.""

Chuck just grunted and I knew that was a reliable sign that he was close. Remarkably his cock had swelled up even more in me and from the way he was stroking so fast and violently I knew he was ready.

"I'm cumming Kelly!... Take my cum you fuckin? slut."

Closing my eyes to better focus I could feel his cock suddenly drill even deeper into me and then convulse. Immediately I felt that hot burst deep inside of me that told me he was cumming in me, that his cum was shooting out like from a cannon, propelling his seed deep into my pussy.

"Yes Chuck, that's it. Keep cumming... Fuck me Chuck... Fuck me!"

All Chuck could do at this point was grunt and groan like an animal as his hips slammed into me and he kept shooting off one load after another into me. I couldn't remember a time when he filled me this full, especially after having just shot a huge load in my mouth not long before. My pussy felt so warm from his cum and his cock was throbbing in me like a pulsating log up my pussy except this log was warm, pulsing and connected to a man's hairy crotch. I just held onto Chuck as he stood there in the water, his cock still staying hard in me as I laid back and enjoyed the feeling of him in me.

Eventually Chuck pulled out of me and I stood back up in the water trying to keep my balance. After checking on last time to be sure nobody had arrived when we were "busy? we worked our way back to the shore and laid out on the blanket, still nude, lying up against each other. We kissed for the longest time, running our hands over each other's naked body, fondling each other. Amazingly Chuck was hard again already and I could feel his eager erection pressing against me. I loved it because I knew we weren't done yet! Reaching down I held his cock to signal I was ready for him to fuck me again.

3. Fucked Under a Blanket

Suddenly I heard something and looked towards the parking lot to see a lone car pulling into the parking lot. Damn! Fortunately we'd brought our clothes up from the lake but we were still totally nude and laying on top of the blanket in the bright sun for anyone to see! Chuck quickly pulled the blanket over us and we lay there as my heart raced. An older couple, probably in their forties or fifties, got out of the car and walked over to the lake. They must have seen Chuck's car in the parking lot but apparently they didn't notice us or at least they didn't look out way. Chuck pressed his cock against me harder under the blanket causing me to giggle.

"You horny bastard. What do you think you're going to do, fuck me right in front of them?"

I was half joking but apparently Chuck had other ideas.

"C'mon Kelly, let's do it. Wouldn't it turn you to be fucked with them so close?"

Admittedly I was feeling even hornier than ever, if that was possible, as the idea gained substance and I turned on my side facing away from him.

"OK, you convinced me!" I said as if I really needed any encouragement. "Fuck me from behind so we can both watch them while we do it."

Chuck's hand was on my bare ass and I could feel it moving downward so I lifted my leg enough to let Chuck reach between my thighs and play with my pussy. Horny as I was, I couldn't believe I was letting him do this with that couple so close by!

They were sitting down on a picnic table now, watching some ducks in the water and not even looking our way. They couldn't have been more than a hundred feet away and if they turned around they would have seen us. Chuck spread my pussy lips apart with his fingers and it was all I could do to keep from moaning out loud as pressed his cock against my pussy and started to push himself inside of me.

My ass was against his stomach and he had his arm around me, grabbing my boobs and playing with them and my nipples.

I closed my eyes and sighed softly as he entered me, once again feeling my pussy fill with his cock. Once his cock was finally all the way in we just laid there, joined together as one with his rock hard cock throbbing inside of me. I reached down and rubbed my clit slowly as we watched the other couple. They were totally oblivious to what was happening just a stone's throw away.

"Chuck, what do you think they would say if they knew what we were doing?"

Chucked laughed, "Well why don't we call over to them and ask if they want to watch?"

For a moment I thought he was just crazy enough to do it and I felt my heart leap into my throat. He must have felt my body tense as he laughed.

"Gotcha Kelly! But you have to admit that you would love to have them watch you being fucked. You're such a crazy slut!"

"You sexy bastard! Now quit goofing around and fuck me right!"

I really didn't need to tell him as he was going to fuck me at that moment whether I did or not. I also knew he loved it when I asked or begged him and I also liked it when he talked dirty to me. I actually liked being called a slut or a whore. It always made me feel sexy for a guy so call me that, especially if he meant it!

Chuck started to slowly stroke his cock in and out of me. I couldn't take my eyes off the other couple as I felt Chuck's warm body pressing up against my ass with each thrust. I came so close to letting out a loud moan to draw their attention. I couldn't help but think how hot it would be if they knew we were fucking with them right there. I almost wanted to tell Chuck to take me on the picnic table so we could put on a real show for them!

Although I'd often fantasized about it I'd never actually had anyone other than my parents and cousin watch while one of my boyfriends fucked me – and none of them know we were being watched. The thought of these two strangers watching us do it was making me so hot! Chuck must have somehow sensed my feelings or maybe he was feeling the same way.

"You really do want them to watch you, you shameless little slut. I bet we could put on quite a show for them! Come on, cum again for me while they're still here!"

Not that I was ready to argue, that was for sure! Reaching between my legs I could feel his wonderful cock as he slid in and out of me. My fingers went straight to my clit and rubbed it as Chuck fucked me. As horny as I was it wasn't going to take much as I was already so close just from the thrill of being fucked in public. Just a few minutes later I was enjoying another orgasm, even stronger than the one I had earlier if that was possible.

This time we weren't submerged in a lake so Chuck could feel me gushing over his cock as I came. I wanted to shout to the couple and let them know how hard I was cumming... and how they had helped me get there! This time while my orgasm was incredibly intense the feeling flamed out sooner. Before long I was just lying there in Chuck's strong arms, his cock still imbedded within me while I enjoyed the afterglow of my orgasm.

Not surprisingly Chuck wasn't about to waste a perfectly good erection without cumming himself and within minutes of my orgasm he was cumming yet another time! Where the boy got his stamina from was a mystery but he was incredible!

Exhausted, we both laid there joined together as we enjoyed the afterglow of an incredible fuck. I always loved the feeling of being in his arms with his cock inside of me, slowly softening. My entire body felt warm and a tingling sensation would go through me when he stirred and moved his cock slightly.

Finally the couple got up to go back to their car. The guy looked over at us and said something to the woman who turned her head towards us and stared for a few seconds. Then put her hand to her mouth as she walked faster to their car. Chuck and I both laughed, figuring they must have finally realized what we were doing.

4. Driving Home

After they'd driven off we got dressed and spent the rest of the day walking around the park and visiting the facilities. It was just a wonderful day and as we drove home I once again held his incredible cock the entire way. As we approached the city I pulled his cock out of his pants.

"What do you think you're doing Kelly! Sheesh, haven't you had enough for one day?"

He knew better than to ask. Given I knew this was likely the last time I would have his cock like this for several months I wasn't going to let him go without sucking him one more time.

"Just a goodbye present for you to remember me by while I'm at school."

I laid down on the seat across the console so I could get to him easier. As I started to suck his cock he just groaned and tried to keep his concentration on the road. We passed by a truck and the driver must have been able to see what I was doing because he gave a couple of honks on his horn and stayed along-side us for a few miles. Personally I didn't care who saw me at this point as all I could think about was how wonderful his big cock felt in my mouth. His erection told me how good I knew I was making him feel - as my mom always told me, dicks never lie.

While Chuck was hard as a rock again after having a few hours break since he last fucked me, having cum three times already he was a lot harder to get off than he had been before and it wasn't until we were almost back to my house that he finally started to show the telltale signs that he was getting close. I actually had to finish him off while we were parked in our driveway! It was worth the effort though when he pushed my head down into his crotch making me take his cum in my mouth - a totally unnecessary move on his part as that was exactly where I wanted it. With a loud groan his horny cock throbbed and yet again I felt the warmth of cum filling into my mouth. Of course I swallowed his cum, feeling the gooey mixture of his cum and my saliva going down my throat.

When he finally finished I stroked him, squeezing a couple more drops out of him which I licked off the tip as they emerged. I sat up in the seat as he rearranged his pants, wiping a bit of cum off my face that had slipped by my lips and dripped down my chin. Much as I tried to seal my lips around a dick it always seemed a little would escape.

Chuck leaned over to me and kissed me. I still had some of his cum on my face and mouth but he didn't care. Finally we separated and stood outside of his car.

"Well Kelly, I'll see you before you leave for school," he said. "I hope today was something to remember me by while you are away. It certainly will be in my thoughts!"

"Oh Chuck, thank you for such a wonderful day. I am going to miss you so much!!"

Yeah, I was going to miss him all right. Actually what I was really going to miss was him fucking me like he did today. God I loved it! I couldn't wait to tell my parents all about my day.

5. Daddy Welcomes Me Back Home

With that there was nothing else to say so I went back into my house. My dad was in the kitchen and he smiled when he saw the radiant look on my face.

"Hey Kelly, you're looking quite pleased with yourself. I take it you had a good time today?"

I just grinned mischievously and went opened the refrigerator to get something to drink. Of course my dad knew that I'd been fucking Chuck non-stop all summer. He'd even seen us a few times so finally he couldn't contain himself anymore.

"Ok girl, spill it. How many times today?"

I laughed at him as I went over and planted a big kiss on his cheek.

"Two for me and four for him!"

My dad's eyes opened wide. "Four times? Geeze, no wonder you like this guy so much. What is he, some sort of a sex machine?"

I giggled, blushing a bit as I started heading up to my bedroom. Just as I was about to go up the stairs I turned around to him and gave him a big smile.

"You don't need to worry daddy, he can never replace you!"

With that I blew him a kiss and wiggled my butt for him as I ran up the stairs. In my bedroom fell back into my bed and just closed my eyes, recalling about all I'd done that day and thinking about how wonderful I was feeling at that moment. As I visualized Chuck fucking me in the lake my hand wandered between my legs and without even thinking about it soon I was rubbing myself. The more I thought about Chuck's wet cock sliding in and out of me the more I needed to touch myself and before long my jeans were on the bedroom floor and I was bottomless on my bed, masturbating as I thought about him cumming in me. I couldn't help myself as I started softly moaning as my clit responded to my touch, sending out surges of pleasure through my entire body.

For whatever reason I opened my eyes at one point and there in the doorway stood my dad with his pants open. He was stroking his erection as he watched me masturbate and I wondered how long he had been watching me. From the stiffness of his cock he must have been enjoying my little show!

"C'mon Daddy! How about some privacy!" I said in a teasing tone. Of course I didn't really mind him watching me but I liked to tease him about it anyway and I almost indescribable. Dad was so worked up it only took a few minutes more before he was cumming inside of me.

"Oh fuck Kelly, I'm cumming girl... oh yeah, daddy's cumming in his little girl's pussy!"

For the third time today I felt a cock explode inside of me, shooting his load as he pushed even further inside of me. Finally he had given it all to me and he collapsed in my bed next to me, utterly exhausted. Looking over at me he gave me a big grin.

"Well girl, how does it feel to have cum from your boyfriend AND your dad inside of you at the same time?"

I laid back against the head of my bed with my legs still spread apart so he could see my open pussy with his cum dripping from it. I scooped some up in my fingers and licked it off. Mmmmmmm, it tasted so good!

My dad eventually got the strength to get up. He gave me a long, passionate goodnight kiss, holding me tightly to him and then he left me and I was alone once again. Amazingly I found my pussy still had that hungry feeling and that I wanted to touch myself yet again! Sometimes it seems the more I get fucked the more I need it!

Eventually I brought myself to yet another orgasm after which I finally fell dead asleep. Never before had I ever engaged in so much sex in some many ways in one day before. I felt like the luckiest girl in the world!

Follow-up

Just as everyone had warned me, Chuck dumped me without any warning only a couple weeks after I left for college. The irony is that I'd just finished having my new roomie take some sexy pics of me to send him when I got the e-mail from him saying he didn't want a "long distance Relationship". Yeah, that's right, an e-mail. He didn't even have the guts to call me!

It hit me like a tons of bricks as I realized then that he had been lying to me all summer. I know now that all Chuck wanted was a piece of my ass (among other things) and when he wasn't getting it he didn't want anything to do with me. Needless to say I didn't send him the pics! Well, I learned from the experience and since then I have not had another boyfriend. I've been fucked by a few guys since then but just for fun, not as part of any relationship.

My dad and mom both laughed at that one. They knew full well that my aunt had a thing for young boys and it was a poorly kept secret that she had shared more than a few of her daughter's boyfriends.

"What I'm trying to say is that you can't assume that just because she spreads her legs for every boy at school that she would be interested in doing it with John." My mom paused and looked over at my dad apologetically, "Sorry John, face it... you're not fourteen anymore!"

"Well, age difference doesn't seem to be much of a problem with it between the two of you," my dad responded with a grin on his face, "And by the way - you're not exactly a spring chicken yourself!"

"Oh now stop it John!" my aunt said, slapping him playfully, "That's not the same and you know it. There's a big difference between what we do and her being fucked by an uncle more than twice her age."

My mom had a thoughtful look on her face and cut in saying, "What if you two did something with Kristen like what John and I did with Kelly? Remember how we pretended not to know that she was home and let her think she was watching us making love in the hot tub without us knowing it? I mean, what if Kristen came home and found the two of you in bed? She doesn't know you guys do it so maybe the surprise will trigger a desire in Kristen like it did in Kelly."

Note from Kelly: I was a bit surprised when I first heard this part. I'd always thought they didn't know I'd seen them, let alone it was part of some grand scheme they'd made up for me!

"Well, sounds good to me," my dad said, licking his lips. He looked at Linda and there was no mistaking the lust he had for his sister-in-law.

Eventually they all agreed it was worth the effort. After all, what was the worst that could happen? They figured that even though Kristen didn't know the real reason why her mom loved to visit her sister and brother-in-law so much, it probably wouldn't shock her all that much as they'd always been pretty intimate as it was. If for some reason she didn't respond then no real harm would be done and they would just have to think of something else or just forget the whole idea. They finally developed a plan and waited for the right time to put it in motion...

2. Kristen Watches Her Uncle Fuck Her Mom

Later that week Kristen came home from school at the usual time. Entering the kitchen she was just about to call out to let her mom know she was home when she heard some strange sounds coming from the upstairs bedroom. Curious, she silently made her way up the carpeted stairs as she listened to the voices coming from her mom's bedroom through the open door.

"Oh my god John... fuck me... fuck me harder! Dammit you feel so good in me. Oh God oh god... shove that hard dick in me deeper!"

At first Kristen figured it was just her mom with some guy from work. As a realtor in a highly competitive market it wasn't all that unusual for her mom to bring a client home now and then, especially when she was trying to close a deal. Although sometimes her mom didn't mind her joining in (especially when the big deal was up for grabs), she normally arranged that ahead of time. Assuming this was just a friend of her mom's, Kristen turned to head back down the stairs and fix herself something to eat when she heard the guy finally speak up a little louder.

"Oh yea Linda, that's it... squeeze that hot cunt on me, tighten it around my cock... I'm gonna fuck you so goddamn hard."

To her surprise and shock she recognized the guy's voice. It was her Uncle John! NOW she was curious so she peeked around the open door and saw a sight she'd never expected to see - her mom being fucked by her favorite uncle and both of them apparently loving it! She was riding him on the bed, facing him with her boobs hanging down into his face as she leaned over him.

Kristen's first reaction was to turn away before they saw she was watching, a bit embarrassed that she'd stumbled across what must be a secret between the two of them. Wow! Her uncle was cheating on her aunt... and with her mom at that! Kristen knew that her aunt and uncle had strict rules about sex outside of marriage although at the time she hadn't known anything about the incestuous relationships that existed in her family. She wondered how long this sort of thing had been going on between them or if maybe this was something new.

Kristen started to walk away but her growing curiosity got the better of her. She'd seen her uncle nude plenty of times before so that was no big deal. Nobody wore bathing suits when they were over at her uncle's house in the hot tub but it had been that way all her life so it wasn't a big deal to her. That said, Kristen had never seen her uncle in a sexual situation before and certainly not with her mom! Although her uncle was more than twice her age and older guys normally didn't turn her on, in this case though he was her uncle and somehow that seemed to make a difference even if she wasn't quite sure how to respond.

Feeling a little more bold, Kristen returned to the doorway where she stood and watched as the her mom and uncle fucked one another with a passion that surprised her. Damn, for two old people they could really do it! She started to feel a growing ache in her pussy, the same as she got when one of her boyfriends touched her and she knew it was only a matter of time before she was going to fucked. Her face flushed with her arousal as she reached under her short skirt, pulling aside her already damp panties and starting to rub her damp pussy gently.

As Kristen watched, she realized there was something about watching her mom riding her uncle that seemed so much hotter than when she was with just some stranger. Kristen's rubbing got harder and faster and finally she pulled her now soaked panties aside more so she could reach inside herself, wetting her finger and pulling that wetness out and upward to better lubricate her clit. She rubbed it even faster as her knees weakened causing her to lean her free arm against the door frame as she brought herself to an orgasm, all the while never talking her eyes off the scene in front of her. Kristen's orgasm peaked just as she saw her mom sucking her uncle's engorged cock and then him spraying his hot cum all over her face and tongue. Leaning back against the doorway Kristen couldn't believe how hard she'd just cum while watching her mom getting fucked by her Uncle John!

3. Aunt Mary Has "The Talk" With Kristen

The two lovers were lying in each other's arms as Kristen licked off her fingers, repositioned her panties and smoothed down her skirt. She silently made her way down the stairs to the living room and was shocked yet again. Sitting on the couch was her Aunt Mary! A look of surprise, along with more than a bit of embarrassment, came over Kristen's face as she realized that her mom was upstairs after having just been fucked by her aunt's husband - and here in the same house was her aunt!

My mom smiled at her and told her to take a seat next to her. Kristen sat down as told and my aunt put her arm around her lovingly. "Now don't worry Kristen, I know all about what's been going on upstairs. In fact, if I wasn't here talking to you about this I might just be up there with them!"

"But Aunt Mary, I don't understand," Kristen said, totally confused.

"I know Kristen, I know. Here, let me just tell you and get it over with. You see, your mom and I were both being fucked by your uncle while we were in high school so we just figured why stop just because he and I got married? You know how wonderful your uncle has always been to you and your mom. It's worked out for best for all of us I think."

"So does Kelly know about any of this?" Kristen asked, wondering how she could have not seen this before. Now that she knew about it everything seemed so obvious - the hugs, the kisses, the fondling and groping, the disappearing to locked rooms. If anything she felt a little stupid and naive.

My mom hugged Kristen even tighter. "Yes she does - everything. As a matter of fact, she's been doing it with us since she was sixteen!"

Kristen's eyes opened wide. "No way! She never told me anything about that." Then suddenly she realized what my aunt had just said and gasped, "You mean Uncle John fucks Kelly? His own daughter? Isn't that..."

"Incest?" My mom finished her sentence with a coy grin on her face. "Of course it is. To be perfectly honest, I think it's hot watching them together."

"So what, he just did her one day or what?" Kristen said softly, trying to wrap her mind around yet another piece of stunning news.

"Actually, Kelly was the one that helped to get it started," my mom explained, "She asked your uncle not long after she secretly watched us making love in the hot tub. Well, at least she THOUGHT it was as secret."

Kristen's eyes narrowed and she seemed to be trying to fit the puzzle pieces into place. "You know, Kelly told me once that she'd seen you two making love but she never mentioned a word about doing anything else later. We never even talked about it much after that."

"That's right Kristen. We didn't want you to know about this until we felt you were old enough to understand and make decisions for yourself."

"Oh??? What decisions?" Kristen's head cocked as she asked this and my mom knew she already had the answer but needed to hear the words for herself.

"I think you know Kristen. It's entirely up to you and there's no pressure. Do you want to join in? Look, I saw how hot you got from watching my husband with your mom. I have to say, you really know how to take care of yourself when you're horny!"

"What!! You watched me?" Kristen's face flushed as she realized what her aunt must have seen.

"of course I did, I wasn't going to miss that for anything. Don't worry, you looked really hot. You see Kristen, with Kelly off at college now your uncle's been getting less than half the sex he's accustomed to as he had Kelly almost every day - sometimes even more often. I hate to admit it but your mom and I just can't keep up that pace on top of what we already do! Besides, we've had our babies and Mother Nature is cruel. Neither of our pussies can begin to compare with a teenage girl's so you can understand why John loves fucking Kelly's so much."

Kristen was speechless for one of the few times in her life. My mom took advantage of the silence and continued on saying, "All I want to know is whether or not you'd like to take Kelly's place while she's away at school? You know that we would never force you to do anything you don't want to which is why we staged this little event for you today and why I'm here talking to you now."

"Huh?... You mean they KNEW I was watching them?" Kristen's face turned red again as she thought about her mom literally performing for her daughter's benefit. It was one thing spying on her when her boyfriends visited but quite another to find out she was doing it as a show for her.

"Oh yes they did! Trust me when I tell you that your mom was hornier than I've seen her in ages waiting for you to get home. The two of you have such a wonderful relationship already and she's dreamed for years about you joining her with us."

Kristen looked a bit panicked asking, "You know what my mom and I do?"

"Don't worry sweetie, I think it's wonderful. I only wish I'd been able to start with Kelly when she was younger. I was always so jealous of your mom!"

"OK, so now I'm REALLY confused," Kristen said, trying to regain her composure, "Just what exactly are you asking me? Is this just me and Uncle John or what? Are you going to be involved too? What about my mom?"

"Well, that's entirely up to you Kristen. You don't even have to be involved at all if you don't want to be. Just say so and we'll never bring this up again unless you ask to. We'll just pretend nothing happened today, OK?"

"So what about Kelly? Does she know about any of this?"

My mom sighed. "Well Kristen, you know how homesick Kelly's been at school and now hopefully you understand better why she is. It certainly doesn't help that the stupid rules at her school about sex are so ridiculously medieval. Then having that bastard of a boyfriend dump her was an unexpected blow. Sometimes I don't understand why she wanted so bad to go to that school being it is so far away. At least her room-mate' bi so that's helped."

Kristen interrupted her at that asking, "Her roomie's bi? So you're telling me that they..."

My mom couldn't help but laugh a little at that one. "Of course they do. It's not all that uncommon for girls to experiment in college. That's when I first started myself."

Kristen seemed to be concentrating so my mom let her think for a moment and then Kristen said, "I guess so. I mean... it's one thing to do it with your mom but another girl?"

"You know, moms are girls too," my mom reminded her unnecessarily.

"I guess...," Kristen replied, her voice dropping off as if she was still trying to cope with this latest piece of information.

My mom continued from the earlier conversation saying, "I guess what I'm saying is that with all this new stuff going on in her life we'd rather not tell Kelly - at least not right now. Maybe when she comes home for summer break we will but until then I don't want her to dwell about not being with her dad any more than she already is now. I think you can see how she might think that you are taking her place which would just make her think about it all the more."

My mom hugged Kristen with both arms around her and then looked her in the eyes. "So what do you think Kristen? Do you need more time to decide? You don't have to rush into anything."

Kristen just put her thin arms around her favorite aunt and squeezed tightly. "Oh Aunt Mary, I don't need any time at all... I'd love to be with all of you. It's going to be a weird at first though you know."

My mom laughed at that last comment and then took her hand and stood up saying, "Then let's go up and tell your mom and Uncle John. I'm sure they've been anxiously waiting and wondering what's been going on down here."

She paused and then rolled her eyes a bit and shook her head, "But then again, knowing those two sex addicts they could still be going at it!"

4. My Dad Fucks Kristen For the First Time

My mom took Kristen's hand and her slowly up the stairs. They entered the bedroom together where they found her mother and uncle still lying in bed naked with their arms around each other. My dad had a bit of smirk on his face as Aunt Linda hand slowly stroked his semi-hard dick. My mom looked at them and then back again to Kristen and smiled.

"Well, I'm pleased to inform you that Kristen had decided that she wants to be with us," she announced, almost like announcing an engagement, "Just so you both know, this is all still pretty new to her - she really had no idea!"

Aunt Linda sat up in bed, wiping her hands on the comforter before putting her arms out to her daughter. Kristen sat down on the bed next to her and they hugged as Aunt Linda whispered, "I love you Kristen."

My dad moved over and hugged Kristen as well. Although Kristen had seen him nude plenty of times before, she'd never actually felt him pressed up against her naked before, at least not with an erection. With Kristen now in her uncle's arms, her mother and aunt hugged each other and kissed. Kristen watched and realized then how much they meant to each other, how much they enjoyed each other. Then the women turned to leave the room. It was only natural that her mother be the one to explain what was happening next.

"Don't worry Kristen, we'll all be together soon. Today's your first day and we don't want to overwhelm you. Spend some time getting to know your uncle in a whole new way. I can't wait to hear all about it later!"

With that the two of them left and Kristen found herself alone on the bed with her naked uncle. There was an awkward silence as my dad sat next to her. He was nude with his cock slightly erect while Kristen was still fully dressed having just come

When he was finally just at the verge of cumming, my dad pulled himself out of Kristen's tight ass and stood back. Kristen quickly turned around and was nearly too slow as he started to explode just as she got her face next to his dick. As he came, she took as much of his cock into her mouth as she could.

The thought that it had just been in her ass moments before came and went as she knew it didn't matter anymore, her uncle was going to do what he wanted to do, just as she had promised to him earlier that he could.

His whole body went rigid as the each blast of cum erupted from his swollen cock, splashing against the back of her throat. Kristen kept her lips tightly around him, holding as much of his cum in her mouth as she could.

Again and again he shot his sperm into her mouth until finally she could hold no more and had to let some drip from her lips down her chin. It seemed he would never stop but finally he collapsed on the bed as she looked at him, swallowing his cum and then opening her mouth so he could see none was left on her tongue.

Now that my dad had cum, Kristen crawled seductively back into bed and took him again in her mouth. He was now ultra-sensitive after having just cum and he involuntarily jumped a bit as she started to suck his cock, trying to draw just a few more drops from him. Finally she just laid her head on his lap with his now softened cock still in her mouth and looked up at him.

My dad motioned for her to come to him and when she did he kissed her. Her face still had his cum on it and her mouth was still coated but he didn't mind, he loved the taste. Kristen laid to his side, her arm and one leg draped over him. He had his arm around her and the two lay together, exhausted. Her ass still hurt and she wondered if she would be able to ever sit again.

"So what do you think Kristen? Do you want to do this again?"

"Oh my God Uncle John, are you kidding!?" she burst out, "I've NEVER been fucked like that before. I never knew a cock could feel so good or go so deep into my pussy."

She didn't say a word about the anal sex but my uncle didn't seem to care.

Just then my mom and aunt re-entered the room, laughing and clapping. Her mom acted like her daughter had just won a gold medal!

"Oh Kristen, that was fantastic! I am so proud of my daughter - what a hot little fuck you are!

My dad grinned. "Oh yeah Linda, your daughter is a chip off the old block for sure. Sorry to say this but she's even hotter than you were at her age! Her pussy was reason or another the right opportunity just never seemed to come about. I suppose the case could be made that I didn't really LOOK for one either but then, why would I? From the time I tasted my first cock, I knew I LOVED sucking cock and being fucked was even better. Since I was quite satisfied with my sex life as it was, why should I go looking for something else? There was certainly no shortage of guys willing to volunteer to take care of my "needs" whenever I was horny.

In the interest of full disclosure, while I may have never actually DONE anything with another girl, it wasn't like I didn't look at girls with interest or masturbate about them. Indeed, I often would watch my cousin masturbate and think of how much I would have loved to lick her pussy or have her do mine. The same with my best friend Beth and other girls my age. I was totally turned on watching them touch themselves or having sex with other boys but somehow the right moment never came up. Sure at parties w would kiss and fondle each other but that was just to tease the boys, not as something actually between us.

When I left home for my first year of college I also left behind my boyfriend Chuck who was going to be a junior at The University of Pittsburgh. As you might guess Chuck wasn't exactly thrilled when I chose a school that was almost four hours away, meaning I would only be home for major holidays.

As for myself, although I knew I would miss him a lot, I wasn't too worried about us being separated for so long because I knew that we were in love with each other and somehow or another I was sure we would make it work. If nothing else, I was confident that memories of my patented blow jobs, not to mention my willingness to let him fuck me virtually anytime and anyplace, would keep him waiting for me!

As for me, I was more concerned about the lack of sex than anything else. For the past four years I probably hadn't gone more than a week or two without getting laid so how would I cope with having to go for weeks or even months without it? Chuck may have been a bit spoiled in that he knew he could have me whenever he wanted, but at the same time I was also accustomed to having Chuck's horny cock available pretty much whenever I wanted it (c'mon, when did a boy ever say no when a girl asks him to fuck her?).

On top of everything else, I would no longer be getting fucked regularly by my dad either. Actually, this would be the first time since he first fucked me over two years ago that he would have to go more than a few days without me being there to take care of his needs and I wondered how both of us would cope with the separation. It wasn't so much I needed my dad to take care of MY needs, I loved it when he fucked me because I knew I was taking care of HIS needs. As a daughter, what more could I do for my father than that?

So to sum it up, going cold turkey when I was used to having TWO cocks readily available was not something I was looking forward to dealing with. Of course I LOVE to masturbate but that's not the same as having sex. There's nobody I could blame as I had chosen the school based on the thought that in the long run it would be best for my career. So the sex thing would just have to work its way out. In my heart I knew God had led me to this decision so I just had to accept His will and trust that he would take care of me as he always has.

2. Brenda, My New Roomie

A couple of weeks before school started, I was notified of my dorm assignment and given the name and e-mail address of my new roomie. We'd exchanged a few things and pics but it wasn't until I arrived at my new school that I got to meet my new roomie for the first time.

Brenda and I got along fantastic from the start even though we were quite different in many ways. She was a perky redhead with freckles whose great boobs (ok, so I was a little jealous about those!) and looks were already catching the eyes of the upperclassmen.

One of the unusual things about Brenda was that her family lived only about ten miles from school. As she explained it, her parents wanted her to stay in the dorms during her freshman year so she could have her "college life experience" and then live at home for the remaining three years to save money (living in the dorms IS expensive). As things turned out, I doubt they had a clue what "life experiences" she would be soon be having. No doubt if they had, they might've thought twice about the arrangement!

During our second week of school Brenda invited me to come over to her house for the upcoming weekend. Her parents lived out of town near a small lake in a large two-story home. I was especially excited when she told me that they had a pool in the back yard. The weather in mid-September was still pretty hot at times so a dip in a pool sounded awfully inviting. Needless to say, I immediately agreed to go home with her! Besides, if nothing else it beat spending a weekend alone in my dorm room masturbating.

Of course it wasn't that masturbating was so bad - I could spend an entire weekend doing it. No, it was the being alone part that sucked. I'd been away from home less than two weeks and already I was so incredibly horny that I wasn't sure I was going to hold out until Parent's Weekend in October when my dad would come to "rescue" me.

Being a private Christian school, there were very strict guidelines on our lifestyles, particularly regarding sexual behavior. In a nutshell, "no sex" would sum it up pretty well. That includes anything on the Internet, which they warned they would be monitoring everything we did very closely.

The dress code was rather draconian but not anything I couldn't live with although it required a pretty drastic overhaul of my wardrobe from high school where pretty much anything went. Although not spelled out in any exact words, it was strongly implied that even masturbation was viewed as a sin as it involved lust and self-gratification and would not be tolerated.

After our orientation, Brenda and I talked about these guidelines and for a while we both sort of danced around the subject. I had a feeling she wanted to say a few things but was worried that I might be some sort of prude and frankly, I had some of the same concerns about her. Finally, I decided to break the vicious circle of denial.

"OK Brenda, I'll be the first to say it... I'm not a virgin."

Brenda cracked up and for a minute I wondered what I'd said that was so funny.

"Sorry Kelly, I don't mean to laugh," she apologized, "It's just that here we are in college, and it's like we're back in middle school talking about the first time we kissed a boy!"

I couldn't help but laugh a bit at that as well. She was right, it was pretty silly but then after the dire warnings during orientation, what choice did we have?

"And for your information, I'm not a virgin either," she blurted out between giggles.

It was the proverbial opening of the floodgates as once we got started, it was like one-upmanship as we each confessed more and more about our sexual history. Naturally, there were a few things I did NOT tell her such as my family "relationships" nor did I tell her the truth as to how many guys I'd been with.

Brenda told me that she had been with two guys so far and the way she made it sound, THAT was a lot to her! Well, no way was I going to tell her how many guys

I'd fucked, not to mention the number of BJs I'd given. I told her I'd been with a few guys - enough to impress her but not enough to make her think I was some class slut or anything. Being the class slut was something I'd been quite proud of back in high school but here at a Christian college, it's not exactly something you wear on your sleeve!

Although it took a little while for either of us to admit it to the other, one thing we both agreed on - we both liked to masturbate. Even so, this was another area where I felt it was better to hold back a bit. Brenda actually blushed when she told me she sometimes did it several times a WEEK, as if that was something naughty. Imagine if she knew that sometimes I did it that many times a DAY! Thus I toned things down a bit and just agreed with her that we were about the same.

Brenda was obviously from a more conservative lifestyle than I was and when I hinted about us maybe masturbating together sometime, the look on her face was enough for me to back-track immediately. The one thing we agreed on was not to make a big deal out it. Thus during the first couple of weeks we both did it but made an effort not to be obvious about it when the other was around.

It was a bit of a pain not to be able to do myself whenever I wanted like I was used to doing back home, but I was hopeful that the day would come when we would be comfortable enough with each other to do that. Who knows, maybe this weekend would provide the opportunity? It wasn't like we would be having sex with any guys. Honestly, at that point the thought of me doing anything with her beyond just watching her fingering her pussy never even crossed my mind.

3. Morning at Brenda's House

Brenda's parents picked us up promptly after classes were over on Friday and it only took about twenty minutes to get to their house. Her mom served a great dinner and for the rest of the evening we watched TV in their family room. Her parents were quite a bit older than mine and I learned that they were alumni of our university. The two of them had met in school and married about a year after graduation.

I also learned that Brenda had a brother as well but he was older than her and was already married with two small boys. They lived in town and visited quite often but she didn't expect him to be there this weekend. There were some family pictures on the tables and Brenda showed me what he looked like. Wow, he didn't look too shabby! I didn't dare say anything as I had no idea how Brenda would react if I told her what I was getting horny thinking about her married brother.

Brenda's parents said goodnight and went off to bed early after which Brenda and I decided to go to her bedroom and we got changed for bed.

That brings up another issue we had to work out early in our dorm room experience - what to wear around the room and to bed. For all the preparations I'd made, this was something I never even thought about once. Ever since I was twelve, I've slept nude and so for me it's not even something I think about unless I'm at someone else's house.

I suppose I should've expected it to be like a sleepover at one of my friend's and put on a nightie or even pajamas the first night, but when it came time for bed I instinctively started to get in naked bed after removing my clothes. Looking over at Brenda, I saw she was putting on a long T-shirt style shirt over a pair of gym shorts. She have me an odd look and suddenly I realized what she was wondering about - what in the world was her new roomie doing going to bed in the nude?

I grabbed a T-shirt and put it on so we could discuss the situation. I explained to her that sleeping nude for me had nothing to do with anything sexual, it was simply the most comfortable way for me to sleep. I originally started sleeping nude because I wanted to mimic my parents, but over time I found it simply felt better than having to deal with unnecessary clothes.

Much to my surprise - and delight, Brenda just shrugged her shoulders and told me to do whatever I felt most comfortable with. Well, since she was OK with it I dropped the T-shirt and slipped between the covers. Once Brenda realized I wasn't a nudist or something kinky or perverted, she more or less ignored me after that. It wasn't like I ran around the dorm room all day and night nude. Even at home I didn't do THAT. Really, the only time I like being nude (besides personal care and well, the obvious) is in bed or in our hot tub.

About the third or fourth night, I noticed Brenda quickly dropping her nightie and slipping between the covers nude. I didn't say anything and waited until morning when she got out of bed after me and thus I was able to see her nude again. She blushed a little and then explained she thought she might try it for herself. I asked her how she liked it and she giggled, saying it wasn't all that bad. From that night on we both slept nude without discussing it further. Tonight, though, we were at her house and she was being a little more conservative.

"Ummmmm, Kelly... " she started off as I started to get in her bed nude, "I think here at home we should wear something to bed. If my mom were to come in here and find the two of us in my bed naked... well I can't even begin to imagine what she would say!"

It was tempting to debate it but instead I just rolled my eyes and shrugged. It actually made sense the more I thought about it. Her parents seemed really nice but I could tell from the moment I first met them that they were extremely conservative and the last thing I wanted to do was cause my new roomie any problems with them over something silly like sleeping in the nude.

Reluctantly I pulled the nightshirt I'd been wearing back over my head and the two of us slipped in bed next to each other. She only had a double-size bed so we had to be pretty close to one another and I couldn't help but be conscious that she was up against me with nothing but a couple layers of thin cotton separating us. This was the first time I'd laid close to her like this and it felt a little different in a way I wasn't sure how to describe.

We started chatting about school and boyfriends and any strange thoughts quickly left my head. It wasn't like I'd never slept together with a friend before and no doubt she had done the same herself with her friends so there was no reason this should be any different. Beside, in our discussions about sex she hadn't mentioned anything about girls.

As you might imagine, it was pretty late by then time we finally drifted off to sleep and as a result we woke up late as well the next morning. Getting out of bed, the first thing that hit me up was how quiet the house was, especially compared to the typical noise of the dorm. Actually, it was TOO quiet and so Brenda went out to investigate.

She quickly returned with the news that her parents had left us on our own and handed me the note which explained that they'd left early to go to a farm auction a couple of hours away. The part that caught my eye was the ending where her mom said that they wouldn't be back until after supper time. After I read it I looked back up at Brenda who had the beginnings of a sly grin on her face.

"Well, that's really cool," she said, "We have the house all to ourselves for the entire day!"

Now I had no idea what she had in mind for the day that would be any different with her parents gone. I was still trying to rub the sleep from my eyes and wake up without fretting over it. We both headed off to the bathroom to brush our teeth and get ourselves ready. Since we weren't planning to go anywhere I didn't worry much about my makeup and just let my hair go for the day. From the looks of things, it was going to be a hotter than average September day so we both decided on shorts and tank tops. Brenda wore panties and a bra and when she saw I didn't, she could help but comment.

"No underwear?" she teased.

"Hey, we're not at school so why bother?" I replied.

"Well, I guess with your boobs you can get away with it," she said with a wry grin. She lifted her boobs with her hands and juggled them a little and continued, "These girls can be a pain sometimes."

Well, I GUESS that was a compliment. Growing up it seemed that my boobs had always seemed to be the smallest among my friends and so I was perhaps a little overly sensitive about any remarks made about them but I knew Brenda wasn't trying to say anything about mine. Hers WERE much larger than mine and I guess I could see where a little support might help during the day.

"Still, my mom would die if I went anywhere without panties," Brenda continued.

I laughed and said, "Well, my mom would probably die of surprise if I did! Besides, who's gonna see us anyway?"

That ended that line of questions. Once we'd dressed and each wolfed down a bowl of cereal for breakfast, Brenda asked me if I wanted to take a little hike so that she could show me the lake. She said it was only about a quarter mile or so walk to get to the parking area and boat launch which was fine with me. We both put on our sneakers and headed out.

Being accustomed to the never- ending crowds back in Pittsburgh, it surprised me how isolated her house was and how little traffic there was on the road. I mean, back in the 'burgh if there was a lake this close the roads would have been filled with cars and trucks towing boats by now. We didn't see a single car or another person during our hike and even the couple of houses we passed didn't show any signs of life.

It didn't take long for us to turn the corner and suddenly there in front of us was the parking lot and beyond that was a small lake. Brenda led me over to where a row of pontoon boats were tied up and then she shocked me by jumping on board one of the smaller ones. There wasn't anyone around so it wasn't like anything we would get in trouble, but it still seemed odd as back home I never would've dreamed to even touch someone else's boat at our marina! Brenda stood there looking back at me with her arms outstretched toward me.

"Well, what do you think of the family yacht?" she asked.

The light bulb over my head finally lit and I understood what she was doing. Our family had always owned boats designed for water skiing and in fact, I'd never even set foot on a pontoon boot in my entire life so it never occurred to me that one of them might belong to Brenda, or at last her parents.

Brenda motioned for me to get on board with her and she showed me around. It didn't more than a few seconds as it wasn't very big, but then neither was the lake. She explained that boats were limited to small engines so there was no point in having a fancy boat or anything. Her family enjoyed just going out on the lake to party and fish and this little boat was well suited to the task.

Leaving the boat, we walked around the park, avoiding the crap left by the flocks of geese that seemed to be everywhere (God I hate them!). Eventually I was surprised when we were back at her house. My bearings were totally screwed up and I couldn't have told you how we got back there through the woods but somehow we made it. The sun was starting to get hot by then and we were both getting a bit warm. As we walked through her back yard towards her house, Brenda turned to me with a mischievous smile.

"I know JUST what to do next," she announced, "I'm going to help you out with that problem of yours."

I guess I must have looked more than a bit puzzled at her excitement because she laughed and explained, "Oh Kelly, don't tell me you've forgotten about ol' Chucky boy? You know, the hunk you just spent half of last night crying on my shoulder about! Well... I've been thinking about your little dilemma and I know exactly what you need to do!"

It was true, I HAD sort of gone on a bit last night about how much I missed Chuck. To the best of my recollection, I never told her the total reason but she probably worked out the details for herself. Brenda had known early on that I was doing it with Chuck and we actually had some discussions about how to deal with our "past lives" - as in before we came to school, and our current situation. If Chuck were to appear in the door right now, I would probably have his pants down and his cock in my mouth before he got finished saying hello (well, maybe not THAT fast but you get the idea.)

One thing I hadn't mentioned and that was in order to attend this school we all had to sign a pledge stating that we would abstain from sex and promiscuous behavior. Frankly, I never had any intention of complying with it but still, it was in the back of my mind. Although Brenda wasn't a virgin, she didn't have a boyfriend at the time and she said she hadn't had sex in over a year so going without it wasn't such a big deal for her.

As for ME, I was used to it most every day and sometimes more, depending on who was available, so it WAS a big deal for me. Of course I didn't tell Brenda that I was doing it that often but she must have gotten the general idea that I DID do it a lot more than she did. So now I had to wonder what she was up to. Odds were she wasn't hiding Chuck in the closet so what could she possibly be plotting to address my "problem" regarding him?

4. Brenda's Back Yard

By this time we'd made it to the house and once inside, Brenda made a beeline straight to a kitchen drawer where she triumphantly pulled out a small digital camera. Ok, sometimes, I may not be the sharpest knife in the drawer but in this case it didn't take a rocket scientist to figure out what she had in mind! She must have seen that light bulb over my head flash go off again as she put her hand to her mouth and giggled like a little girl.

Before I knew what was happening, Brenda snapped a couple of pics of me and when I started to protest, she simply ignored me and took some more. After she had her shots, Brenda grabbed me by the hand and started pulling me along, presumably to her bedroom if I was reading her intentions correctly. As it turned out, I had the destination correct but not her intentions!

"Come on Kelly," she encouraged me as she literally dragged me down the hall.

I didn't really mind, it was just sort of fun to pretend to protest. When we got to her room, instead of taking more pics of me as I expected, she surprised me by saying, "C'mon, let's go out to the pool! I bet your boyfriend would love to see some pics of that hot body in a bikini!"

Everything was happening so fast that I wasn't sure how to react. On the one hand I felt a twinge of excitement at the thought of sending Chuck some cute pics of me but then there was her comment about my "hot body". Oh well, I decided just to take it as a compliment and got undressed.

I knew Brenda had a pool so I'd brought a bikini along with me. It was strapless but not by any stretch of the imagination one of my more revealing ones. The main reason I'd chosen it was that I had been out in the sun with it quite a bit and my tan lines matched up. Not exactly the most thought-out selection but it worked for me.

As I slipped off my shorts, my eyes wandered over to Brenda who was pulling her T-shirt up and over her head. As she removed her bra, freeing her incredible boobs, I couldn't help but admire them. God she had great boobs! As I stripped off my T-shirt I felt a bit like I did sometimes in high school gym class when I wanted to hide my boobs because they didn't look near as nice as many of the other girls' boobs did. It wasn't like I was flat or anything and what I did have was pretty firm and perky - no sagging here I can tell you. It was just another cup size would have helped the ol' Kelly self-esteem!

Another thing I was reminded of seeing Brenda nude was her cute pussy. She didn't shave very much nor did she trim it a lot so her pubic hair was a bit thick compared to most girls these days. The thing that grabbed my attention wasn't the thickness of her pubic hair but rather the color. Brenda was a "true" redhead and if anything, her pubic hair was even brighter red than her hair on her head. The reason it caught my attention so was I knew my dad was a sucker for redheads. Both his wife and daughter were brunettes as well as my Aunt. The exception was my cousin Kristen who was a blonde but even so, her pussy (when she wasn't shaving) was much darker.

I hadn't realized how much my dad was fascinated by redheads until one day I was studying on the couch in our family room and my dad turned on a porn movie. I don't know what her name was, but on the porn-star whores was a "true" redhead and when I looked up, my dad was jerking his cock like crazy as he watched! Just then my mom passed through on the way to do some laundry and she saw me gawking at my father. She patted me on the head lightly and then pointed at my dad.

"Ahhhhhh, I guess you never knew about your father's fetish over redheads!" she said, slowly shaking her head with that "what can you do?" look on her face. "John, couldn't you have waited until later?"

My dad just grinned and used his free hand to wave her off. His other hand never left his cock and his eyes never left the screen. I went back to my studying. The things you didn't know about your parents!

So anyway, that's why I was so interested in Brenda's pussy. I'd told my dad one night on the phone (needless to say, Brenda wasn't around) about my roomie's red pussy and he begged me to take a picture of her but I didn't dare. How would I explain it - tell her my dad wants to see her pussy? Yeah right!

In the meantime, we both had changed into our bikinis and were now headed for the back yard once again. Following Brenda's lead, on the way to the back yard I couldn't help but take a long look at the cute little ass that was bouncing suggestively in front of me. While I was wearing a rather conservative suit, Brenda had picked out a very suggestive string bikini that didn't leave much to the imagination to say the least.

There WAS one thing that made me curious though; her tan lines extended well beyond the thong so it was obvious she usually wore a much more conservative bikini. Not only that, but from the brief time that I'd known her mother, I couldn't possibly imagining her mom sanctioning anything even half as suggestive as what Brenda was wearing. So if it wasn't her normal suit, and if her parents didn't even know about it, why was she wearing it now?

I figured she was just trying to show off a bit, maybe trying to impress me with how much she could rebel against her parents or something. Whatever the reason, I didn't mind and if anything, it made me wish I'd brought along one of my more naughty bikinis.

When we finally reached the pool, my attention was drawn away from her bikini and ass by the sight of the inviting clear water. It was late in the summer so odds were it was pretty warm. I didn't hesitate and just jumped right in. Sure enough, the water was practically at bath temperature but it still felt cool in comparison to the air temperature that seemed to be rising faster by the minute!

I climbed up on one of the plastic floats and laid on my stomach, stretching out and relaxing as the waves created by my entrance bounced me gently up and down. As I relaxed in the middle of the pool I heard a clicking sound from behind me. Looking over my shoulder I saw Brenda standing at the edge of the pool holding her camera once again, taking more pics of me.

"Mmmmmmm, now THAT was a GREAT picture of your ass!" she said as she took a few more pics of me. "I don't know if I've told you this yet or not, but I'm SUPER jealous of your ass."

For some odd reason I felt a little embarrassed at first. I wasn't sure why as it wasn't the first time by any means that I'd been photographed in a bikini or less. It was just that the photographer was usually one of my parents or a friend, not someone who was still a stranger to me in many ways.

I knew sometimes guys took pictures of me when I was waterskiing or even at the public pool. Usually the lifeguards would shoo them away but I didn't mind. If anything, I wondered what they did with them when they got home. Hopefully, they masturbated thinking about me and it turned me on laying out in the open as I thought about the possibilities. This was different though. Brenda wasn't some perv at the public pool – she was my roomie!

"Oh c'mon Kelly, relax! Chucky boy is going to love these!" she teased me.

Frankly, I was starting to get annoyed at this stupid nickname she apparently was intent on using for my boyfriend. She must have misinterpreted my annoyance as being associated with the pictures she was taking.

"Ahhhhhh, don't pretend you don't know what a cute ass you've got. I bet you love showing it off for him when you're home – and every other guy as well," she said grinning the whole time.

Well, I had to admit that she had me pegged when it came to showing off my but! When you don't have the greatest chest in the world you have to take advantage of what you've got and for me, that was my butt. I loved to wear a short skirt or tight jeans, anything to tease Chuck as much as possible. Fortunately, he loved it too and it made me feel hot when we would walk through the mall and I would feel his hand clenching my ass right in front of everyone!

Brenda took a few more of me before finally putting the camera down. I watched as she took a deep breath and jumped in to join me in the pool. Naturally the first thing she did was tip me off the raft and the water fight was on! We played around, splashing each other and chasing one another, just goofing around like two little girls.

Later, as we sunned on a beach towel in her back yard, Brenda got up and took a few more shots of me. The she gave me a more thoughtful look after which a playful grin broke out on her face.

"Ya know Kelly, you've got a great tan and much as I love the strapless thing you have going there, that bikini have just doesn't cut it."

She stood up and wagged her finger at me saying, "Now you just hang on for a minute, I have the perfect thing for you!"

Before I could get a word in edgewise, Brenda had turned and was running back to the house. It seemed like less than a minute had gone by when she emerged with something in her hand. A couple of steps from me she tossed the pieces of cloth to me and I held them up to find a sexy bikini. The top was lime green and bottom was cream with orange stripes. The material was practically fluorescent and seemed to magically to glow as I held it next to my tanned legs. Brenda smiled, obviously satisfied with herself for her selection.

"Yep, now THAT'S the bikini for you. Your tan looks so much better next to it," she said approvingly, "Ok girl, switch."

I figured there was nothing to lose in trying it on so I got up and started walking back to the house to change in the privacy of her room. I hadn't taken two steps before Brenda huffed and shrugged her shoulders at me.

"Hey!... Where do you think you're going?" she called out after me, "Just change out here. Don't worry, nobody can see anything."

I didn't want to appear prudish or anything bit then changing bikinis in the backyard of her house WAS a little pushing the envelope so I hesitated for a second. Brenda's face had such a look of exasperation I caved in and started to take off my bikini. After dropping the bottoms I pulled the top over my head. I reached down for the new bikini and couldn't help but feel a bit weird standing there nude right out in the middle of her back yard where anybody going by could see me.

It wasn't like I was ashamed of my body and I loved to show it off, but I didn't make a practice of being nude in public either. I spent a lot of time nude on our deck, especially when I was using the hot tub but it wasn't like the whole neighborhood could see. Here, anyone driving by would get themselves a free show but then I remembered how few cars ever came down the roads and it didn't seem so bad. The thing that concerned me most wasn't someone seeing me nude, it was that the word might get back to Brenda's parents! Brenda started to reach for something and when I saw what it was I had to protest.

"Hey! Don't you DARE snap any pictures of me like this!" I said with a laugh, trying to take the edge off of the sharp tone I had used.

It was then that I realized that Brenda hadn't taken her eyes off of me the entire time that I was undressing. Normally that would have made me uncomfortable but in this case, for whatever reason it felt more erotic than anything else

I quickly slipped on the new bikini and from what I could tell, she was right - it looked great except my tan lines on my boobs from my own bikini showed. The top was a little big on me as Brenda was a full C-cup, maybe even a D compared to me who was barely able to fill a B-cup. Brenda caught me fussing with the top as I tried to arrange my boobs in it better.

"Ahhhhhh, don't worry Kelly - those tans lines just make it look even sexier on you. Mmmmmmm, that loose top makes for a great tease!"

This time I didn't protest as she grabbed the camera and began to shoot more pics of me. After taking a few more shots of me out in the yard she got that thoughtful look again. I was quickly learning that when Brenda got that look, it meant I'd better watch out!

5. Sexy Photoshoot With Brenda

"Hey, this is cool but do you want to go in the house to take a few more photos" she asked.

I figured what the heck, after all, what could possibly happen? Well, I was about to find out! This time she led me to a spare bedroom where I posed on the bed for a few more shots. As the time went by, I noticed that Brenda seemed to be looking at me more and more with a gaze seemed to be more focused on my boobs than anything else. Before I could think any more about it she grabbed a floppy hat from one of the chairs and planted it on my head.

"Mmmmmmm," she purred, "That hat really makes you look sexy - in a little girl sort of way." She backed away and gave me another once-over. She had one finger against her lips and her eyebrows lowered as she appeared deep in thought.

"I got it - get on your knees and bend over for me - c'mon, show me some cleavage girl!"

I just giggled and did what she told me to do. Like most girls, I had long ago learned to make my boobs look as good as possible by holding my arms in tight to squeeze my boobs. Today this had the effect of filling the bikini top just a little bit better.

"Damn Kelly, now THAT is really hot!" Brenda gushed.

Rather than be embarrassed, if anything her compliments encouraged me to started goofing around, trying to look sexy while I thought about my boyfriend and what Chuck's reaction was going to be when he saw these photos. It wasn't like he didn't know what I was hiding but I thought the bikini pictures were very erotic and hopefully they were going to make him all the more willing to wait for me. After a few more I figured we must have been about done but I was quickly learning that Brenda was always full of surprises and this was no exception.

"Well girl," Brenda finally said, "This has been fun and all... so what do you say? Time for some pictures to really grab Chuck's attention?"

I wasn't exactly sure what she meant so I didn't know how to respond. While I hesitated Brenda dug through a dresser drawer and brought out a basic white bra and shirt. "OK, this should look sexy enough," she said almost more to herself than to me. She tossed them to me and said, "Here, change into these."

By now I was getting use to following her directions so I stripped off the bikini and once again was nude in front of her. This was starting to become a habit except now I didn't feel so weird being nude in front of Brenda. Of course she saw me nude at night and in the room, but this was different, more personal somehow. I quickly wrapped the bra around me, snapped the hooks, twisted it around and put my arms through the straps. Then I put on the shirt and started to fasten the buttons.

"No, no, no, no..." Brenda cried out, pulling my hands down and away from the shirt, "Leave it unbuttoned!"

It sounded like a good idea so I did as she said after which she snapped a few more pics of me. "OK then, now undo the rest of them," she instructed me. I let the shirt hang open for the next few photos. Looking at Brenda, I noticed that she was looking a bit flushed.

"You OK Brenda?" I asked, concerned a bit about how red her face was becoming.

"Oh I'm fine," she said, sounding a bit flustered, "It's just that you really look sexy in that outfit! I mean REALLY sexy."

Now it was my turn to blush! Brenda looked at me and I noticed that she licked her lips just a little bit when she looked at my boobs. It seemed like she wanted to say something but couldn't get it to come out. I waited patiently until finally she took a deep breath and let it out slowly.

"Well, are you ready yet for a few that are a little hotter?" she said softly.

I gave her a quizzical look and she just giggled at me. "Well... I just figured you might want to send him a few naughtier ones for him to jerk off to," she explained to me with a sly look on her face.

Suddenly the thought of sending Chuck some nude pics of me WAS pretty hot, though. He had tried to take some of me that way numerous times in the past but I had never allowed him to. I loved him but he was still a guy and guys like to share their "conquests".

"What do you mean by hotter?" I asked her slyly. Granted, I had a pretty darn good idea just what she meant but I wanted to hear it from her own mouth.

"Hmmmmmm," Brenda purred, "I guess that depends on how hot you can make yourself, dear."

I smiled at her with one corner of my mouth raised in what I hoped was a suggestive fashion. "Oh?... Do you REALLY want me to show you?"

Brenda licked her lips again and I was getting a feeling that she was more interested in me stripping for her than taking pics for my boyfriend.

"Well, are you going to show me something or are you just a teasing bitch?" she asked, a little more strongly this time.

Wow! Now that comment was certainly raising the bar! I had a feeling she knew exactly what she had said and that it was not an accidental choice of words. My perception of my roomie was undergoing a rather radical change at this moment! Sure, I knew she wasn't exactly an angel, but until now, I figured it was pretty much mostly bluster and teasing without a lot of real substance behind it.

Be real! How could she go a year without getting laid if she was really into sex anyway? Now I was starting to wonder if maybe she had another outlet for her sexual needs - one that didn't involve a penis!

At this point I still wasn't sure where I really wanted this to go. So far everything had been fairly innocent but the fact was I had only known Brenda now for a couple of weeks and even now, I didn't know her all THAT well. We had not seriously discussed girl-girl sex so far, and other than a little masturbation in bed after we turned out the lights, had not done anything sexual with regards to one another. Was this Brenda's way of breaking the ice or was she just teasing me to see how far I would go? Yeah, Brenda was really cute and the thought of playing around with her wasn't exactly objectionable, but then I had those thoughts about a lot of my friends before - but never acted on them. Of course, now that I was officially a college girl, maybe it was time to start acting like one!

"Well... you asked for it," I warned her. She just grinned maliciously at me, as if daring me to do whatever it was she wanted me to do.

I stood up on the bed and slowly undressed. To make it easier for me, I imagined that I was doing a strip tease for Chuck. After all, I had plenty of practice doing that! Brenda sat on the edge of the bed and watched me intently, one hand balancing herself on the bed while the other was resting on her bare leg. I couldn't help but look at her as well since her bikini left her practically nude as it was. God she looked hot!

Soon I was naked, standing not two feet away from her, slowly gyrating my hips and playing gently with my boobs. Brenda's eyes stayed fixed on me while her free hand slipped between her legs and I could see her fingers start to gently work on her pussy as she watched me.

The erotic sight of my new roomie playing with herself as she watched me made something click in my head and I instantly felt myself becoming wet and warm between my legs. Although I had started out thinking about Chuck and his wonderful cock, at this moment it wasn't Chuck's cock that I desired anymore. Instead, I found myself engrossed by the way Brenda was looking at me, the way her eyes roamed over my naked body the way horny guys do when they pass me by in the mall.

Deep down I felt this intense desire to show off for Brenda, to tease her and turn her on even more. She was back to snapping photos of me again although the hornier she got the more reluctant she appeared to be willing to let go of her pussy to hold the camera. It was at that moment that I seriously began to realize that we both were feeling something - something that would cause us to become involved beyond your typical roomie friendships.

As odd as it may seem, I was starting to get into more and after a while I kneeled down on the bed and then laid back on the pillow. As I held my legs tightly together, Brenda moved over closer to me and put her hands on my knees. I felt her gently pushing my legs apart which encouraged me to spread my legs apart just enough to allow her to get a few close-up shots of my pussy.

"Oh God, that is soooooo hot... Mmmmmmm, spread your pretty pussy open for me," she whispered in a husky voice, "I want some good shots of that tight pussy."

Any sense of modesty or decency on my part was now officially gone as I reached down and with both hands, pulled my pussy lips apart and spread my cunt open for her to see my wet hole. She moved in closer with her camera lens and for a moment there I thought she was getting to get her lens all wet from the way she was advancing on me!

"Turn over now, I want to get some of that incredible little ass," she instructed me suddenly. As I did I looked back at her and saw Brenda's eyes widen as I raised my ass up in the air, wiggling it suggestively for her.

"Oh my god," she said softly, "you've got such a beautiful butt!"

I was feeling even more hot and horny as she kept taking more photos of my backside. For just a moment my thoughts turned to how Chuck was going to be jerking off to these pics later but just as quickly they changed to the image of Brenda staring at me, getting turned on by my ass which now was right in front of her pretty freckled face. Even so, I couldn't help but think again of Chuck and how I missed his cock so damn much! My mind starting drifting off and all I could think of was how good it would feel to have him pushing his hard dick up inside of me right then and there.

The more I thought about him fucking me the hornier I got. I imagined him moving in behind me, spreading my ass apart and entering my pussy from behind, pushing himself slowly and steadily into me. I could almost feel his cock as it filled my starving pussy, feeling him swelling in me and then stroking himself in and out of me.

Damn! I was getting so hot and bothered that I had completely forgot about Brenda and without even thinking about it I started to play with my pussy, imagining it was his fingers that were touching me instead of mine. As I massaged my clit, surges of pleasure coursed through me like a flow of molten lava. I slid a couple of fingers inside my pussy, dreaming that it was his fat hard cock that was fucking me instead. I started to stroke my fingers in and out of me, imagining Chuck fucking me the way he knew I loved to be fucked at the start - slowly and deliberately.

Suddenly my mind snapped out of its dream state when I felt a real hand planted firmly on my ass. Of course I knew it was Brenda's so I didn't say a word but instead kept playing with myself as if nothing else was going on. I was afraid that if I did anything at this moment that she might be intimidated or otherwise change her mind. Her hands began to wander all over me and she reached under me to start playing with my clit.

I looked back over my shoulder and saw that she had stripped off what few clothes she had been wearing and was playing with herself at the same time she was fiddling my pussy. The suddenly, something hit me and at that moment I felt incredible self-conscious as the reality of what we were doing began to sink in.

"Oh Brenda... I've never been with another girl like this," I whispered to her.

Technically, I was telling the truth. I had only been with a "woman" in the past and besides, having sex with your mom doesn't really count as a lesbian thing, does it?

Now that I thought of it, there was this thing about being a "lesbian" as well. It wasn't that I was homophobic or anything, certainly not. Being called a lesbian was nothing compared to what other things people had called me - slut, whore, bitch, cock-tease, and such. All those had male-female connotations though, whereas "lesbian" was distinctly in a class by itself.

In any case, I could never be a "true" lesbian anyway - by that I mean a woman who only does other women. I LOVE cocks way too much to ever cut myself off from the male population! Oh well, it was something I would just have to deal with some other time as Brenda was getting more and more brazen with me.

"Don't worry Kelly... just lay back and relax... let make you feel soooooo wonderful," she cooed to me, "Oh Kelly! You are so beautiful... I want so bad to be with you... Oh god I want you!"

I flipped over on my back and Brenda moved up alongside of me. She laid half on me and half on the bed with her upper leg draped over my waist. I felt her breath against my neck and then her tongue as it gently flicked along my neck and then up to my ear. Her hands ran through my hair and I shivered as her fingers stroked through the length of it.

"Mmmmmmm, you like your hair to be played with, don't you babe," she whispered huskily in my ear.

My low moans were answer enough for her and she continue to pull gently on my hair, running from my scalp to the very ends of each handful of my hair. I closed my eyes and just let the sensuous feeling cascade down my body until even my pussy was tingling. I felt her lips meet against mine and I kept my eyes shut as we shared our first kiss. I could tell right from the start which of us was going to be the dominant one in our "relationship".

Brenda clearly liked to call the shots and dictate the flow. Anyone who knows me and how I feel about being in control with a man might be surprised to know that this wasn't bothering me at all. In fact, I like it when men (and now women) take control of me when we fuck. With men though, except for my dad, deep inside I don't like to feel out of control since I know I am the one who is ALLOWING him to do the things he did.

Looking back I wonder why I was so quick to relinquish myself to a girl in a way I never did with a man. I guess it really doesn't matter why, for whatever reason I surrendered myself to Brenda at that moment. From that moment, and even to this day, Brenda determines our sexual agenda but I can't complain based on the results!

From that point on, we behaved like two teenagers on our first date in the back seat of our parents' car, gingerly exploring each other, going a little bit further all the time but not too much at any one moment. Unlike my experience with younger boys, I didn't feel as though I was being groped, but more like I was being tenderly touched. Our hands wandered all over each other and I was getting incredibly turned-on by the firmness of her lithe body and the smoothness of her pale skin.

It was different in many ways from touching my mother or Aunt Linda. Both of them are in pretty good shape but face it, forty years takes its toll. No matter how much lotion and massage therapy they used, they could never compete with the natural smoothness and softness of an eighteen year-old college girl. It's not that Brenda needed to "compete" with anyone, least of all my mom. I was just trying to explain why it was such a thrill to feel Brenda's for the first time.

Eventually Brenda's touched my breasts and she gently cupped each in turn with her hand and then gently massaged them. Her thumb and forefinger grabbed my hardened nipples and tenderly pulled on them, letting them snap back into place when she released them. Then she put her finger in my mouth to wet it, after which she ran it around in circles around my nipple and then down and around into the fullness of my breast. I couldn't believe how sexy her gentle touch was! She wasn't rough and strong like Chuck yet I felt better when she did it than I ever had with Chuck - or any man for that matter.

Slowly Brenda's hand worked it was down my tight stomach until she reached my pussy. She didn't stop until her hand had traced itself all the way down and to my asshole. Much to my relief she didn't stop there but instead changed course 180 degrees and worked its way back to my cunt. On the way up her finger pressed in more firmly and worked its way between my wet pussy lips. My pussy hole was so wet she dipped her finger in it and used it to lubricate my clit even more than it already was. When my roomie touched my clit I thought I was going to bolt straight up and out of bed. She played with it in much the same manner she had with my nipples - pulling it gently with my fingers and then tracing little circles around it.

Brenda pressed herself up tighter against me and our nude bodies felt so warm and smooth against each other. Brenda pushed her hips up further and I felt her crotch against my leg. Her crotch was shaved smooth so I didn't feel the tickle of bushy pubic hair like I did when my mom's thick bush pressed against me, but I could feel the wetness of her pussy against me. Instinctively I began to move my hips under her hand and I could feel her humping my leg in rhythm with me.

Just when I thought it couldn't get better, Brenda thrust two fingers into my pussy and started fucking me with them. That was all it took - I was going to cum and nothing was going to stop me now! Brenda felt my pussy clamping down on her hand and the gush of cum told her instantly what was happening to me.

"Oh yea, cum for me Kelly!" she cried out, fucking me even faster than I thought possible with her hand and fingers.

"Oh my God!" I yelled out.

Thankfully nobody was home and in this case, it was also good she didn't have any close neighbors because I must have sounded like I was being killed - or fucked like I had never been - and by a girl at that! My mom knew better than anyone how to make me cum and cum hard but this was totally different somehow. Brenda wasn't family so the entire relationship felt different, more erotic in some ways I would say.

Brenda was almost merciless as she didn't stop or even slow down after my first orgasm and it seemed like the next one was there before I even realized the first was over. I bucked like a bronco on her bed, begging her to fuck me more and more, not wanting her to ever stop! The second orgasm was even stronger than the first since it started just as the first was winding down.

I literally couldn't see as everything went out of focus and the room was spinning around like it did when I was a little girl and twirled around in the front yard before falling to the ground. My pussy was sending what seemed to be an endless stream of pleasure throughout my entire body, making goose bumps rise up everywhere on me. It just seemed to go on and on as I lost all concept of time.. I don't know at the time if it lasted ten minutes to two hours, it really didn't matter to me. All I knew was that it was one of the most incredible ten minutes or two hours of my life.

Eventually, though, it had to end and so it did but it took almost as long to die down as it had to build up. Even when it had subsided I was left lying there with this incredible afterglow. It was like having a sunburn all over my entire body but instead of pain accompanying the heat, it was pleasure that seemed to ooze from every pore of my body.

Although Brenda allowed me to catch my breath and bring down my heart rate, she never completely stopped moving her hand over me. I could feel her soft touch constantly running up and down my legs, body and arms. It wasn't anything forceful but rather a relaxing stroking of her fingertips all over me. Almost TOO relaxing - I would probably have drifted off to sleep but the little minx wasn't about to let me off that easily!

"My turn now," she whispered in my ear, "Mmmmmmm, did you know my pussy's been dying for your face since the first time I saw you."

I was still halfway in a dream world so it was almost like I was hypnotized and ready to do her bidding. I would have done anything she asked me to at that point but she didn't take advantage of me - something for which I will always love her. She rolled over on her back as I got up and dropped to my knees between her slender legs.

Admittedly it felt a bit strange the first time I put my head between her legs. There was something entirely different about eating her pussy compared to licking my mom's. Maybe the most striking distinction was that Brenda shaved whereas my mom and aunt didn't. The softness of her thighs caressed my face as I gazed at her pretty pussy up close and personal. The unique odor of her wet pussy was intoxicating as I drew in a deep breath.

Pussy's are like cocks in that regard. Although they all have the same general characteristics, each is unique in its own way, a slightly different scent, color, shape (well, for dicks anyway). Although this was only the third pussy I had licked compared to dozens of cocks, I was confident I could identify the owner blindfolded.

My Aunt Linda had the strongest scent, almost musky, whereas Brenda's was much more delicate and refined. My mom was somewhere in the middle, more towards my Aunt's side though. I guess age must have something to do with it as well as I remember when I was little that my pussy tasted totally different than it does now.

It was time - time to lick her pussy for the first time. I gingerly reached out with my tongue and barely touched her with it. She jumped a little as I flicked my tongue lightly over her swollen clit. As I licked and sucked her sweet pussy I realized that while I had always loved the taste of my own pussy, hers was even better! Something was missing, though, and I realized I wasn't being tickled by my mom's thick patch of pubic hair. I didn't mind it as in some ways it made me feel like I was licking a girl half her age! Now there was a weird thought that came from nowhere. Eating out my roomie was one thing, tasting a younger girl was quite another thing entirely and not something I was ready to spend much time thinking about at the moment to be perfectly honest.

When she came, Brenda turned out to be a "gusher" - just like me. Come to think of it. every girl I had ever seen masturbate had gushed when she came so it makes me wonder where are all the so-called "squirters" that people love to write about and post on porn sites. My personal opinion is that squirters are like guys with 8" cocks - you hear a lot about them but in real life they are as rare as flying saucers. Just as guys with big cocks are portrayed as the "typical" male in porn movies, I think girls that squirt are represented at a much higher percentage in porn movies than in real life.

While Brenda was enjoying her orgasm, I was lapping up her cum up like a kitten wither first bowl of milk. As it turned out, Brenda only came once but boy did she ever cum when she did! By the time she was finished she was so exhausted that we both just turned to each other and held each other close. Although I was totally exhausted myself, I couldn't seem to fall asleep as I was so wound up from what we had just done. It turned out to be a good thing because as soon as Brenda returned to earth she was ready for more!

"Have you ever 69'd with a girl before" she asked me.

I assured her that I never had (well, as before not with a girl) and as it turned out that was just the answer she was looking for! We traded off being on the top and bottom although we ended up with both of us on our sides with our heads tucked between the other's thighs. I loved touching her and was almost overwhelmed by the feel of her warm and soft naked body against me. It was easy to see why girls liked to be together. Compared to the guys I had been with, Brenda was so much softer and smoother! She smelled incredible and I wanted to just lick every inch of her.

Looking back, I would say that what I loved the most about that afternoon was Brenda's patience. Boys are always in such a hurry, trying to get their cock in me as fast as they can so they can fuck me, doing just enough foreplay to satisfy their conscience.

In contrast, Brenda and I spent almost the entire afternoon in bed together just caressing each other and kissing. In fact, we completely lost track of time and her parents were coming in the front door before we even realized they were home! Fortunately there wasn't much to the clothes we wore so we were able to get dressed and fairly presentable by the time they found us.

Later that night Brenda confessed that she had been turned on by me from the first time we met but had been afraid to say anything knowing how much I liked guys, not to mention the prohibitions at school. She claimed that she was bi but that she preferred girls and hoped that now that we had broken the ice we could be much closer roomies! Well, we sure were. We decided to sleep together even though the beds were small because it meant we were always up tight against each other. My school is very strict when it comes to these types of relationships so we don't do anything outside the dorm room unless we're at her house. It didn't really matter I guess so long as it was just the two of us in the room. The best thing was I had a feeling college was going to be even more incredible than I had dared even dream that it would be!

Postscript

Wouldn't ya know it! The next week my wonderful boyfriend, the hunk who supposedly loved me more than anything, sent me an e-mail telling me that he wanted to be "free" to date other girls. This girl wasn't born yesterday, I knew what he really meant - free to fuck other girls!

Fortunately, I was just about to e-mail him my photos that Brenda had taken of me and now I was glad that I had waited. Needless to say the jerk never got them! I DID learn a lesson, though, in that just because a guy says he loves me doesn't mean he loves ME - it probably means more like he loves to fuck me. It was a lesson I didn't want to repeat and I made a vow not to have another long-distance relationship again.

(Apr 17) Chapter 49: First Time With My Roomie's Married Brother

Story codes: FF MF oral inc brother sister adultery
Me (19)
Brenda - Freshman roomie (19)
David - Brenda's brother (26)

My first lesbian experience, at least besides my mom and her sister, was with Brenda, my college freshman roomie. As things turned out, she also had an older brother. David was married but like so many husbands, he was ready for something new - or should I say "someone". The best part was that it wasn't just me that he was interested in cheating with. Adultery AND incest - what a combination!

1. Dinner at Brenda's

When I was a freshman in college my roommate turned out not only to be extremely cute but bisexual as well. Brenda was the first girl I was with sexually besides my mom and her sister. Needless to say, we were having a great freshman year.

One night I told her about how when I was sixteen I'd watched my parents making love in our hot tub when they didn't know I was home. Brenda seemed fascinated by my story and asked me if I'd ever fantasized about joining them and I pretended to be embarrassed when I told her that there were times that I had.

Brenda giggled and blushed, saying that she would never have the same feelings for her parents (couldn't blame her as they were much older than mine) but then she surprised me by saying she HAD dreamed about her older brother. She was quick to point out that she had never gotten up the courage to do anything but she HAD caught him checking her out a few times when he thought she wasn't looking.

We both teased each other about our incest fantasies after that but it goes without saying that I never told her that I had actually done it.

Even though Brenda lived only about ten miles or so from school, her parents wanted her to spend her freshman year in the dorm to help her acclimate to college life. Being so close to home, she still spent most weekends there and sometimes she invited me along.

One night when I was over at Brenda's house her brother David was there with his wife and their two little bratty boys. In spite of how much I loved being with Brenda, had I known they were going to be there I might have turned down her invitation. It seemed that all his kids did was whine and fuss. To make things worse, David's wife was a real bitch, always looking down her nose at Brenda and me.

The only saving grace was that I got to sit next to David during dinner. He was wearing denim shorts and a tight ribbed tank top that emphasized his lean, muscular body – he obviously worked out. The temptation to put my hand on his leg (at least to start) was incredible but I didn't dare. Instead I just sat there wishing fervently that his hand would find it way over to my leg instead. I would've have taken it and moved it to my inner thigh and encouraged him to work his way up from there! To my disappointment it never happened, but I knew I' be dreaming about it later that night when I was playing with myself in bed.

2. Admiring Brenda's Brother

After dinner Brenda and I were out to the back porch and sat next to each other on the glider. From there we could see David and Brenda's dad working on a tractor that apparently didn't want to start. Mmmmmmm, I could have watched David all night! Really, what more could a girl ask for? He was 26, handsome, tall, muscular and simply sexy as hell. So what if he was married? That just meant he would be all the more discrete and probably all the more horny. My reverie was broken when Brenda poked me in the side.

"Earth to Kelly. Hmmmmmm, are you're getting horny watching my brother?" she teased me.

I gave her my "who me?" look and she just laughed at me

"Oh I know you better than that so don't pretend to be innocent. I figured you must've been getting pretty worked up at dinner sitting so close to him, weren't you my nasty little roomie?"

I started to protest but she didn't give me a chance to say anything.

"Oh come on Kelly, it's me you're talking to so don't try to pretend you weren't. I saw you eyeing him when you thought nobody was looking!"

I poked her back with a little laugh saying, "Damn Brenda, now I know why you dream about him. God I can't imagine growing up with a brother like him around! I mean, how did you keep your hands off him?"

She just smiled and I continued, "And yes, he WAS all I could think about during dinner. I has really hoping he would start groping me under the table. It would've been so hot to have him touching me with his bitchy wife on the other side of him!"

Brenda gave me a devious look and bit her lip a bit before responding saying, "Well, you DO realize that he IS my brother and most of the time I hated him growing up! He use to tease me and trick me all the time. Even so, there WAS this one time when I was thirteen and I peeked in his bedroom. You can imagine how shocked I was when I saw that he had pictures of me in my bikini laid out all over his bed. He was sitting on the edge of the bed with his pants down, stroking himself with his hand as he looked at them. It was the first time I'd seen a real penis except on a baby so I couldn't help but be impressed by how big and hard he was.

Then it hit me - I was watching my own brother masturbate! You would've thought I would be disgusted but surprisingly I found myself getting incredibly turned seeing him playing with himself like that! Then I heard him saying my name, telling me to do nasty things to him like sucking his cock and he even said he wanted to fuck me.

I couldn't believe it, my own brother was dreaming about fucking me! Even more scandalous was I felt myself getting wet thinking about him doing it to me! All of a sudden his cum was squirting out of him all over his hand and legs. It was the first time I'd seen a guy cum and I couldn't believe how far it shot out of him; and to think he wanted to do that inside my pussy! I've never told him what I saw that day but afterwards it was all I could think about, him doing the things to him that he was dreaming about. Oh Kelly... I can't tell you how many times I've fingered myself to one hell of an orgasm fantasizing about my brother fucking me."

"God Brenda, that is soooooo hot! Why haven't you told me about this before?"

"Well, nothing ever happened between us and it's just a fantasy of mine. He ended up getting married to that bitch and then they had the two boys so I just chalked it all up to a teen fantasy. I still get off now and then though whenever I think of him but to tell the truth, I don't think I could ever really go through with it."

She laughed as if the whole idea was a joke and said, "I mean really Kelly, he IS my brother after all. That would be incest!"

Well, she may have thought it to be a joke but I started to imagine Brenda and her brother sitting close together on the same glider that we were sitting in, fondling each other and then laying on a blanket in the middle of the lawn, fucking each other's brains out. Then I imagined it was me instead of her that he was fucking. I closed my eyes and a soft moan escaped from me as I imagined sucking his cock, feeling it splitting my pussy apart as he slowly entered me, enjoying the warm sensation of his cock as it filled my hungry pussy.

Brenda's voice brought me back to earth. "Whoa! Anybody home?" She started laughing at me and asked, "Wow! Where did you go girl?"

I blinked a few time to focus my eyes and shook my head to try and clear out the naughty images from it. Then another idea began to form in my mind, one that could make both of our dreams come true. The only question was, would Brenda go along with it?

"Soooooo Brenda," I asked, "Are you saying that you still fantasize about your brother?"

Brenda just rolled her eyes at me. "C'mon Kelly, give me a break. You can't blame a girl for dreaming. I mean, look at him! I'd have to be a nun not to and even then I think the temptation would be irresistible. Besides, who are you to tease me about wanting him when it's obvious you want him to fuck you too! Oh yeah girl, I know what you were daydreaming about just now. You seem to forget that when you get all horny, you have a bad habit of rubbing yourself without realizing it."

I smiled a bit at that. She was correct in that I had been in more than a few embarrassing situations where I would be daydreaming and suddenly realize I had my hand between my legs. As usual, Brenda was reading my thoughts like an open book. She also seemed to be especially horny tonight, even more than usual.

After being roomies for over six months she had never told me anything this detailed about her desires for her brother before so I was curious as to how far she would really go. "Well roomie, why don't we get him to fuck us both tonight and make our dreams come true?"

Brenda eyes widened. She looked at me with a strange stare as if she didn't quite believe what I had just said. "Very funny Kelly. First, in case you have forgotten he's married which puts him off limits. Besides, he IS my brother and even if I have fantasized about him a lot, I really can't imagine letting my own brother fuck me for real. I mean, it's one thing to dream about something like that but to actually do it????? Sorry, I don't think I could. Ewwwww, that would be WAY too weird!"

She was watching me intensely as she said this. I just kept quiet as she seemed to be debated things in her mind. I had a feeling her first outburst was more what she thought she SHOULD say rather than what she WANTED to say.

Then she narrowed her look at me saying, "Wow, you're actually serious about doing this, aren't you? Damn it Kelly - really, he's married! And besides, incest? That is just wrong on so many levels. As wet as I may get thinking about him, I don't think I could ever forget that he's my brother."

I giggled and gave her a coy smile. "Brenda, trust me, the fact that he's married just makes it all the hotter. Think about it - not only would he be fucking us but he would be cheating on that bitchy wife of his as well. God, that would be incredibly hot, don't you think? Besides, it's not like he would be having an affair or falling in love with anyone, it would all be just for fun. As for being his sister, you already know he wants to fuck you. For crying out loud he jerks off dreaming about it!"

Brenda's resolve seemed to start to waver though as she said, "Well, his wife IS a bitch so I guess it would serve her right - God I hate her! I don't know though; just because he jerked off to my pictures years ago doesn't mean that he would actually fuck me today. How would it even get brought up? God, it would be SO embarrassing if he wasn't interested. I would shrivel up and die if he said no!"

I thought it was interesting that her concern was now over whether or not HE wanted to do it, not HER. Well, her brother was man and no sane man would turn down two hot nineteen year-old college freshmen, no matter HOW married he was! I started to think of a plan and the more I told her about my ideas, the more I could see her resistance wearing down and that look of lust I would always see in her eyes whenever she got horny was growing.

By the time I was finished Brenda even threw in a few thoughts of her own to make the plan even better. I could hardly believe it we were seriously discussing this - I was getting wet just thinking about it! In the meantime we just sat in the glider snuggled up close to each other, watching David and remarking to each other about how we thought he would be in bed. Once in a while when one of us said something particularly naughty we would giggle like little girls and the two of them would look over at us, trying to figure out what was going on. If they only knew…

3. David Fucks Me

Later that night we launched our plan. Brenda and I went to the family room where David was watching TV in an overstuffed chair. David was wearing just his shorts having taken off his tank top which was all sweaty after working hard outside. I caught myself wondering if he had anything else on underneath those shorts and subconsciously licked my lips at the thought of what I might see if he took them off.

As usual, Brenda's parents had said goodnight and were in bed early. The boys had also long gone to bed, as had David's wife had complained earlier of a bad headache (probably due to her two spoiled kids). Brenda told me that she had taken some extra-strength headache medicine and now was snoring in bed, passed out for the rest of the night. That left just the three of us remaining in the land of the living so we sat around talking about school and town gossip as we watched some silly reality show on TV.

Brenda and I were sitting close together on the couch. She sat up while I lay on my side with my head in her lap and my legs curled under me. Brenda played with my hair - something that makes me feel so relaxed and if done right, incredibly horny. The only thing I was wearing was a tight T-shirt that barely covered my ass. I had to keep tugging at it so as not to be too obvious that I had nothing on underneath. Brenda had just a nightshirt on with a pair of white lace panties as she was never comfortable being bottomless. With my head in her lap the growing scent of her pussy told me that Brenda was getting wet with anticipation.

David was trying to make it appear that he wasn't watching us but it was so obvious that he was it was almost funny. It was like some little boy staring at an older girl in the mall, thinking he wasn't being watched but obvious to everyone around him. I had one hand on Brenda's bare leg and was running my fingertips up and down her smooth thigh. Brenda played with my hair with one hand while her other hand was running all over my body, tracing little circles and tickling me at times. My nipples were so hard that they stuck out through my T-shirt like bullets. David HAD to realize from the way we were touching each other that Brenda and I were more than just friends and I knew that he had to be getting turned on seeing us playing with each other like this.

When the TV show was over Brenda yawned and said it was time for her to go to bed. She got up, gave me a kiss on the lips and winked at me as she left the room. I sat up in the couch with my legs under me. In doing so my T-shirt rode up for a second to reveal my shaved pussy until I quickly pulled it back down again.

I giggled and looked at him, acting as if I was embarrassed. With Brenda gone, David and I continued to chat for a while when suddenly he turned towards me. He looked uncomfortable, as if he wanted to ask something but wasn't sure if he should. I waited silently and finally he took a deep breath and let it out slowly.

"Kelly, do you mind if I ask you a very personal question? If you don't want to answer after you hear it just say so but I have to ask you something."

I just smiled and sat up straighter in the couch to pay closer attention. "Sure David, just don't ask me how much I weigh!"

David laughed and the anxiety level seemed to drop just a bit for him. In a low voice he asked, "Do you and Brenda have something going on between you? I mean, the way you two act around each other, always hugging, kissing, dressing sexy, touching. It seems pretty obvious you're not the typical dorm roomies."

I flashed David a crafty smile and replied, "Well... what would you say if we did have something going on? Would it turn you on"

David blushed just a bit. "Of course it would. Come on Kelly, I'm sure I don't have to tell you that every guy dreams of watching two girls get it on. Add to the

I smiled and replied, "Of course not David! Actually, as you may have noticed I think it's really hot what you are sharing with me. You know, it's too bad you never told her what you really wanted."

David frowned. "Yeah right. How could I ever tell her Kelly? She would've gone running to mom and told her everything. So as much as I've dreamed about it, I've never really seriously thought that she would really want to do anything with me."

"Oh David," I said in a low voice, "You have NO any idea how much Brenda wants you. She just told me today that she watched you masturbate to those pictures you took of her. She also told me that she still gets herself off thinking of being with you."

"What? You're kidding," he said with his eyes wide open. "If that's the case, how come she's never said anything to me?"

"Well David, I guess maybe for the same reason you've never told her!?" I shifted my position again to give him a better view of my bare ass. "You know, this is really crazy. For all these years the two of you have fantasized about being together but neither of you idiots would make the first move! So tell me, are you REALLY still interested in her?"

David lowered his head, "Since I married Stacy I've never seriously considered being with anyone else, probably more out of fear of her than anything else. Even so, sometimes when I come here and Brenda's running around all but naked around the house, I still get turned on something terrible. Believe it or not, I still jerk off in her underwear! Then, seeing the two of you together on the couch tonight playing with each other - it was driving me crazy!"

I smiled as seductively as I could. The bait was cast and it was time to set the hook! "Well David, now that you know how Brenda feels about you, why not take advantage of the situation?"

David sighed, "Oh god Kelly, you have no idea how tempting that is. Only problem is that I just can't forget that she IS my little sister. Sure, I've jerked off countless times thinking of her but actually fucking her... that is an entirely different thing. I mean, we're talking about incest for goodness sake! It would be bad enough to get caught cheating on my wife but if anyone found out I was dicking my teenage sister, well that would be a disaster!"

David shifted in his chair and judging from the bulge in his shorts, I figured he needed to make room for his hardening cock to grow. Despite his protests about fucking Brenda, I knew he was thinking about it. All I had to do was push a little harder.

One thing I DID notice was that he cheating on his wife apparently wasn't an issue with him, other than getting caught. Funny how fucking his sister troubled him but cheating on his wife was fine! I pulled my T-shirt up to my belly button and sat on the couch with my legs crossed, giving him a great view of my bare pussy.

I pushed one finger up into me and then looked over at him seductively. "I hope you don't mind me doing this but all this talk about you and Brenda really has me horny. So tell me the truth David, does it turn you on when a girl does this for you?"

I took my wet finger out of my pussy and put it in my mouth, licking it like a popsicle. I loved the taste of my pussy as I'm sure he could tell from the way I was sucking my finger. When I finished I put it back inside of me and stroked it slowly in and out of me. David's eyes followed every movement of my hands and I saw him licking his dry lips.

"Oh god Kelly, I have wanted you ever since Brenda started bringing you home. You look so sweet and innocent but it's obvious you can be a dirty slut when you want to be as well and that is such a turn-on for a guy!"

I got off the couch and walked over to him with my T-shirt still pulled up to my stomach so my ass and pussy were totally exposed to him. I put one leg up on the chair and rubbed my pussy with one hand, slipping one finger inside me. David just stared at me, torn between his lust and his conscience. I took my hand and touched his lips with my wet finger.

I whispered to him in a husky voice, "You know you can have me if you really want me David. Just tell me what you want. That's all you have to do... Just tell me you want me."

David let out a deep breath. "Lord forgive me..." he whispered, more to himself than to me.

He reached out and put his hands on my bare ass and pulled me towards him. "Dammit Kelly, I want to fuck you so bad. Shit, I can't take this anymore, I NEED to fuck you right now."

I climbed up into the chair and straddled him. Then I leaned forward putting my hands on the back of the chair so my pussy was positioned in front of his face. I leaned down and whispered to him, "It's OK David... you can fuck me now if that's what you want. First I want you to eat my pussy. I want you to lick my smooth pussy with your tongue."

David pulled me towards him more as he buried his face into my crotch. God his tongue felt so good on me! I wiggled my ass to rub my pussy into his face. His hands were still clutching my buttocks and he was squeezing them. I put my hands on his head and pulled his face tightly into my crotch as he sucked my clit and held it gently between his teeth. When he tugged on it I felt chills run through my entire body and I could feel my pussy just dripping with desire. The guy really knew how to use his tongue, I'll give him that!

I knew Brenda was waiting for us but it had been a long time since I was last fucked and I needed it so badly I couldn't wait any longer. He wanted me also so I begged him for what I wanted. "Fuck me David," I pleaded, "God I need to be fucked... it's been soooooo long!"

David took his tongue off of me and I leaned back. He pulled his shorts down to expose his hard cock standing straight up like a missile pointed to my waiting pussy.

I got on my knees in the chair, still straddling him. Taking his cock in my hand - it felt so smooth and warm, I guided it into me as I lowered myself down on him. His cock head pushed against my pussy hole opening and I could feel it splitting me open to take him in. I love that feeling when a new cock first enters me, the way it forces me apart and then penetrates the most private and sensitive part of my body. At that moment I feel like I'm physically giving something of myself to him, that I am sharing myself completely with a man in a way that's as intimate and personal as two people can be.

When his cock head was inside of me I held myself there for a moment, just soaking in the incredible feelings I get when that area of my pussy is stimulated. I moved my hips in small circles around his cock, making it move just the right way in my pussy. Wave after wave of pleasure cascaded through me as I finally felt a cock inside of me again after having gone so long without one.

"Oh David, I love your big cock in me!" I said between moans. "I miss being fucked, feeling a man entering me like this, forcing his way into me and filling my aching pussy!"

As I was telling him how much I loved it I lowered myself slowly onto him, going as slow as I could so I could feel every inch of him as his cock passed by my pussy lips and disappeared inside of me. Finally I hit bottom, my ass was sitting on his lap and his cock was in me all the way. I ground my bare ass into him, trying to get every bit of him I could into me. I put my arms around his neck and he put his around me and we hugged each other tightly as I sat on his cock, feeling it throbbing inside of me.

I could have stayed that way forever. Later I would be sorry for being inconsiderate of Brenda, but at the moment I forgot all about of Brenda must have been getting pretty impatient as she waited in her room. At that moment it didn't matter to me as I closed my eyes and slowly started to rock on his cock, drawing him in and out of me, feeling him rubbing against the sensitive inner walls of my wet pussy.

I looked down for a moment to watch him fucking me, seeing his hard cock as it appeared and then disappeared back into me as I raised myself up and then lowered myself back down on it. David didn't shave or trim his crotch and I loved the feel of his thick pubic hair against my bare pussy. When I was tight against him it thrilled me to look down and NOT see his cock, knowing he was completely inside of me. When I swiveled my ass I could feel his hair brushing against my pussy and it tickled and felt so sexy.

David started to suck on my nipples, gently biting them and pulling them, driving me even more crazy. I could feel my orgasm beginning to build like a dam about to burst.

"Oh god David!" I gasped, "I'm cumming... fuck me harder David, make me cum hard!"

Suddenly the greatest feeling in the world came over me. I have never felt anything that ever came close to how I felt when I have an orgasm. I guess that is why I love sex so much, it's almost an addiction for me in that I can never get enough of it and always crave more. For me the hardest part of being at college was not the school work or social life changes but rather having to go for weeks or months without getting fucked every day by my dad or a boyfriend.

This feeling I was having now, when my entire body felt consumed in total pleasure from my toes to my hair, pulsing in me and feeling like I was on fire. It just went on and on as I moaned in his arms, rocking on his cock and savoring the feel of his hardness deep within me. I could feel my pussy cum gushing down on his cock, wetting his crotch as I came harder and harder. Eventually it began to ebb as I slowly came down from wherever my mind disappeared to at these moments. I opened my eyes to see David smiling at me.

"Damn girl," he said softly, "When you cum you don't mess around. I hope that it felt half as good as it looked."

I licked my lips and kissed him. His cock was still in me, throbbing and moving now and then to remind me it was still around - as if I needed any reminders! "God David, that felt wonderful. I haven't cum that hard in so long!"

Suddenly I remembered where I was and who I was fucking! Damn, Brenda was probably about to send out a search party for us. I knew that after what had just happened that David was hornier than ever so getting him to fuck Brenda was likely not going to be hard at all.

I looked him in the eye, "David... Brenda's in her room right now waiting. I know you want her. Fuck her David. Fuck her for me. I want you to fuck your little sister's pussy, just like you've dreamed of for so long."

There was no way David could say no now. "Oh the hell with it!" he exclaimed, "Let's do it."

Just what I wanted to hear! The only part that was difficult for me was having to let go of his cock - I hated having to let him slide out of me and I felt an emptiness that was both physical and emotional.

I stepped down onto the floor and held his wet cock for just a few more seconds. "Wait a few minutes and then come to her room. We'll be waiting for you!"

I turned and left the room. As I hurried to Brenda's room I passed by the guest room where David's wife was sleeping. The door was partly opened and I couldn't resist peeking in. She was sound asleep under the covers and I smiled knowing she had no idea I was looking at her, standing there with my pussy swollen and wet from her husband's recent fucking of me.

I wanted so bad to go to her and whisper in her ear, telling her how good her husband's cock had felt and how hard he had just made me cum. As I took one last look at her I couldn't help but admit that she was a damn good looking babe and it was too bad she couldn't watch her husband fuck his sister and me. Who knows, maybe she would join in the fun!

Well, I almost laughed out loud at how silly that thought was and went on to Brenda's room. I slipped into her room and she was standing there waiting for me.

4. Brenda's Brother Fucks Her For the First Time

Once in Brenda's room we gave each other a hug and Brenda grinned at me.

"God Kelly, that was incredible!" Brenda said with a husky voice. "I watched everything you know."

My eyes widened and I looked at her. "You mean you watched me with your brother?"

"Hell yeah girl," she laughed, "I wasn't going to miss that. I know you well enough by now that I figured you would get carried away, especially given how horny you've been lately, and I've never seen you fuck a guy before. Damn girl, you're really something else when you fuck a guy!"

I quickly ripped off my T-shirt and joined Brenda, who was already nude, on the bed. She looked up and down my nude body, smiling as she anticipated what was about to happen. Just then David walked in and saw what he had probably had masturbated about so many times - his sister nude in bed. Of course, there was not just his sister this time but TWO nude teenage girls, both ready and anxious for him to fuck them. Talk about a guy's dream come true!

Smiling at David, I pulled Brenda towards me. We gazed into each other's eyes as we kissed. God she was so pretty and sexy! As much as I cherished having sex with her, I loved just being with her like this even more. Sometimes we would spend hours in our dorm room just kissing and gently caressing each other. Some nights when we watched TV I would rest my head against her breasts, feeling their softness against my cheek as she played with my hair.

Well, not tonight! Brenda lay on her back as I straddled her head. Then I lowered my pussy to her outstretched tongue and pushed her face into her face as I did the same with mine and her hungry cunt.

As we 69'd I was the one facing the doorway and so I could see David as he stood there mesmerized by the sight before him. He was nude now and was slowly stroking a nice hard-on with his hand as he watched the two of us eating each other's pussy. I loved watching a man play with himself, especially if I know he's doing it while thinking about me. In this case, he was doing it while I was having oral sex with his sister which was making it even hotter for me.

In addition, Brenda was driving me bonkers as she licked my pussy. I motioned for David to come over and pointed at her pussy. He took the hint and moved in between her legs and started to lick her with his tongue. Brenda moaned and I giggled as I watched David licking her.

"Well girlfriend, how does it feel to finally have your brother eating your pussy?"

Brenda's mouth was tight on my pussy so she responded by just moaning louder.

"That's it David," I said, "Trust me, she loves what you are doing. Don't stop now for heaven's sake!"

Mmmmmmm, I knew from earlier that David was quite talented for a guy when it came to licking pussy so it wasn't long before he had Brenda squirming so much that I was almost jealous - both from wanting it again for myself not to mention that Brenda seemed to be enjoying it more now that he was doing her instead of me.

Oh well, I took solace in knowing that she was also getting off knowing that her brother was finally sucking her clit! David had two fingers in her now as his tongue was racing around her clit. Brenda was practically smashing her face into my pussy as she approached her first orgasm. Finally I felt her tensing up and she pushed her hairy red pussy up into his face.

"Oh my god David! she cried out, "Just like I dreamed... always wanted... don't stop David.. make me cum. Oh god I can feel it now, I'm going to cum soooooo fucking hard!"

Brenda slammed her head back into the pillow and arched her back as her own orgasm consumed her. Brenda was the type that gets really wet when she cums hard and she literally poured pussy cum into David's mouth. David lapped up what he could and the rest just soaked the sheet under her. David lifted his head and kissed me. I loved the taste of Brenda's pussy on his lips and tongue. Well, I love the taste of Brenda's pussy ANY time but licking her pussy cum off of her brother's face was a whole new erotic experience for me.

"My turn David, fuck me again," I demanded.

David wasted no climbing into bed with us. Straddling Brenda's head, he entered me from behind with his hard cock, just inches above Brenda's face with his balls practically touching it. I knew she was watching him intently because her tongue had all but stopped licking my clit. David's cock felt so good that I didn't mind though. He slowly pushed it deeper and deeper into me. Once he was completely in me he just held it there, letting me feel myself filled with him, feeling it throbbing me. Then David began stroking it in and out of me - what a wonderful feeling it was to have a brother and sister paying so much attention to my pussy at the same time!

David slipped out once and Brenda quickly took advantage of the opportunity and grabbed his cock in her mouth and began to suck it, sucking her brother's dick for the very first time. Later she told me that sucking him with the fresh taste of my pussy mixed in was one of the most erotic moments of her life.

David was fucking me harder now, slamming himself against my ass and driving me forward with every thrust of his hips. I pushed back against him, trying to push him in deeper each time. I could hear his crotch slapping into my butt as he held me by the waist and pulled me into him. Still, as much as I loved him fucking me, what I really wanted was to have him fuck Brenda, to watch a brother and sister having sex.

"C'mon now David, it's time. Time for you to fuck Brenda, to fuck your little sister," I told him, "God I want so bad to watch you fuck your own sister!"

David was obviously just waiting for the that last nudge as he quickly pulled out of me and looked down at Brenda with his raging hard-on in his hand, holding it over her face.

"Well sis, you ready for your big brother's cock? Damn I've dreamed of fucking you for so many years. Tell me you want me, tell me you want to be fucked by me."

Brenda lifted her head and kissed his cock. "Dammit David, c'mon and fuck me. I want my big brother to fuck me so bad!... Put that cock in me - NOW!"

I moved out of the way and David stood by the side of Brenda's head and put his cock in her mouth. She sucked on her brother's cock with such a hunger I'd never seen in her before. I'd never seen Brenda having sex with a guy before and now to see her own brother's cock in her mouth was an amazing sight. Actually, it was the first time I'd ever seen a brother fucking his sister which made it even more special for me. Brenda and I had played with each other for so many months and now to see her sucking a cock for the first time - her brother's cock at that, was such a turn-on for me. Brenda always claimed to like girls more than guys but it was obvious to me this was not her first BJ, not by a long shot!

David didn't stay there long and soon moved around to get between his sister's slender legs. Not wanting to be left out totally, I reached for his cock and guided it into Brenda's soaking wet pussy. My pussy was throbbing as I almost couldn't believe what I was doing. Damn, I was actually helping her brother to fuck her, helping him to get his cock inside of his own sister's wet cunt.

I moved up to the head of the bed, leaning back against the headboard so I could watch the two of them. As I started to play with myself, squeezing my boobs and rubbing my pussy, I watched David as he began to fuck his kid sister for the very first time. Forget a blowjob, I'd never even seen Brenda even KISS another guy before and here she was right in front of me, her brother's cock piercing her pussy, appearing and then disappearing over and over as he rammed it into her. She was playing with her clit as he fucked her and it wasn't long before she came, even harder this time if that were possible.

"Yes David!... Oh God this is how I've always wanted you... Oh yeah, in my bed, between my legs, filling me with your cum, fucking me so hard."

David looked at her a little closer, obviously turned on by his sister's dirty talk. She took notice and kept on talking to him like a slutty whore.

"Cum in me David, stay inside me. I want my cunt to be filled with my brother's cum."

Both Brenda and I were on birth control (her mother, though, didn't know) and I had told David about this earlier so there was no reason he should worry about getting his sister pregnant. Still, while he had been dreaming of fucking Brenda for years, the idea of actually cumming inside of his sister suddenly seemed to make him a bit nervous. Fortunately, hearing her beg for it turned the tide.

"OK sis, get ready. Big brother's ready to cum!" David stretched his head back and thrust especially hard into her, moaning out as he reached his climax. "Oh god Brenda, I can't hold back anymore.. here I cum!"

David's back arched as he drove himself deep into Brenda as he released his loads into her pussy. After his second load he groaned saying, "I can't believe this - I'm cumming in my sister! Oh god it feels so damn good"

David squirted his remaining loads of sperm into her. As he stroked inside her I watched as some of his cum seeped out and ran down her ass to soak the sheet under her. After he finished he pulled out of her and sat next to her. David motioned to me, "Get down here Kelly and let me watch you lick my cum off her pussy."

I didn't have to be told twice. As I lapped up all the cum and juices around her pussy, David watched intently. When I was finished I kissed her, spreading his cum over her face and mouth. She licked it off of me, getting all that she could.

David was exhausted now. "Oh god girls, that was soooooo fantastic. I really need to get to bed before Stacy wonders what happened and comes looking for me. God, she would KILL me if she saw us now!"

Brenda smiled at him. Her legs were still spread wide apart and her pussy hole was gaping open from his cock having just been in her. "OK big brother - but from now on you know I'm available. You need to come over more often and take advantage of it. Don't you like fucking me better than Stacy?"

David was pulling on his shorts and had a huge grin on his face as he responded to Brenda. "You know it girl. By the way, the next time you baby-sit I will have a nice tip for you when I take you home!"

Then he turned to me saying, "Well, what can I say? Thank you Kelly for helping tonight as well. Thanks god my sister has a delightful little slut like you for a roomie!"

He kissed the two of us and left Brenda and me to spend the rest of the night with each other. We giggled as we imagined him getting in bed with her, smelling of our sex. I wonder if she smelled us on him, recognizing the unmistakable odor of a woman's pussy but not quite understanding where it was coming from or if it was just her imagination.

When we sat down for breakfast it made me so horny to see her next to David as my pussy tingled with the memory of his cock. I couldn't believe how erotic it was to see him with his wife and her not knowing that her loving husband had banged me just hours earlier!

As things turned out this was my only time with David before I returned home for summer vacation. Who could blame me for hope that when I came back to school in the fall we would all get together again!

(May 07) Chapter 50: Bachelorette Party

Story codes: MMF F-solo group exhib
Me (19)
Ginny - cousin (23)
Audrey - Ginny's BFF, maid of honor

My cousin was getting married and you know what that means - Bachelorette Party. This was my first one and now I can't wait for the next!

1. Party Preparations

I took a couple of days off from school to attend my older cousin Ginny's wedding. It was a little disappointing in that I was only assigned a small part in the ceremony as greeter by the guest book as I Had hoped to be a bridesmaid, I was just looking forward to meeting old friends and relatives.

There WAS one thing that I was looking forward to the most though, and it was the reason for me leaving a couple of days early with school almost over - the bachelorette party. I'd never been to one before and knowing Ginny and the crowd she hung out with, especially her maid of honor who was setting up the party, I knew this just had to be a wild event! I'd heard some pretty crazy stories from other girls about bachelorette parties that they had attended and I had high expectations that it was going to be a lot of fun.

At 23, Ginny was four years older than me, almost five as her birthday was coming up in June, so while we had hung around together at family gatherings we weren't nearly as close as I was with Kristen, my cousin on my mother's side who had just turned seventeen. In fact, when she found out that I was invited Kristen was miffed. Apparently she hadn't been invited so I asked Ginny's best friend Audrey, her maid of honor in charge of the party, why Kristen wasn't invited. I figured since both of us were under 21 it wasn't like it was because of the alcohol thing.

To my surprise, Audrey seemed somewhat amused by my question. She responded first by telling me it wasn't the drinking age that was the concern as she'd rented a suite in the hotel where the reception was to be held and most people were staying there (including me).

Then Audrey became rather cryptic, saying something about how the entertainment required that everyone be at least eighteen. I must've looked a bit puzzled because she just giggled and refused to elaborate, leaving me to have to use my imagination as to what the "entertainment" was going to be!

Since my dad STILL wouldn't let me have a car (don't even get me started on that one!), my mom had to drive almost four hours to pick me up from my school. The semester was almost over so it was going to be difficult missing a few days of class but hey, sacrifices have to be made sometimes.

As I mentioned, there would be rooms for everyone at the hotel so I wouldn't be staying at my parents' house. Kristen and I would be sharing a room although she wouldn't be arriving until a little later, probably not before the party started.

Even though Kristen couldn't attend the bachelorette party there were still other things going on such as a wedding shower not to mention there would be a number of friends and relatives for her to visit with. I'd been talking to her on the phone about it for weeks and we couldn't wait to spend the night together. She mentioned something about bringing a camera which perked up my imagination. Kristen had always been the one between us to do crazy things and get me in trouble so I could only imagine what she was going to come up with!

2. Driving With My Mom

My mom was waiting for me when I got out of my last class for the day. Fortunately this was one of those days I finished early so I was able to attend everything and still have enough time for the drive back to Pittsburgh. My stuff was already packed so all I had to do was go to my room and change quickly. No way was I wearing this long skirt home. It was bad enough to have to dress this way at school, I wasn't about to suffer any longer than necessary.

Brenda was still at class when I got in the room so I hurried and undressed. God it felt so good to get out of that damn underwear, especially the bra. Panties I could live with but bras are the worst thing ever invented - and by a man I'm sure. OK, so some women needed them for support but for those of us who don't, why are we forced to put on those harnesses? Thank God these days there were more options and some of them actually weren't too bad, but still, why wear anything if you didn't have to?

I had been debating all morning what to wear home. I would've loved to have put on some short shorts and a tank top but if I was caught walking around campus, even just to the car, it would mean possible disciplinary actions. I'd already had enough warnings so sooner or later it wouldn't be overlooked which could lead to some serious issues, even dismissal.

Instead, I chose short pleated skirt that didn't come quite half way down to my knees. It was totally against the dress code as well, but it wouldn't be as noticeable at first like the shorts would have been. Then I chose a tight white cami. Without a bra my nipples showed through and there was even a hint of darkness where they pressed against the fabric so I put on a blouse over top until I got in the car. I was ready so I grabbed my bag and purse and hurried to my mom's car.

"Sort of pushing it today, aren't you?" my mom said after greeting me, "I thought you were on like your last warning notice or something from that last letter they sent us."

She was referring to the letter the school administration had sent my parents when I was warned about my "inappropriate" attire for the second time. Really, at nineteen I was old enough that I didn't need letters sent home to my parents but those were the rules. It was so stupid too. I knew the skirt was short but I honestly thought it was long enough to get by. Well, not according to the damn ruler.

I just rolled my eyes at her and grinned and then we both laughed. As much as she tried to act as the "responsible parent" when it came to things like school dress codes, she had learned years ago that I loved to dress slutty and even though I had toned it down a LOT at school, there were still times I liked to see what I could get away with.

We drove down the winding country roads, chatting about how things had been going at home for her and school for me. We talked most every day on the phone not to mention e-mail and chat so it wasn't like we had all that much to catch up on.

Finally there was a lull in out discussion and for a few minutes the car was silent as she negotiated the road. As I laid my head back and closed my eyes, I could feel that "itch" I always got when I was horny. I'd masturbated this morning before class but in my rush to get out I'd skipped my usual after-class session and my pussy was reminding me in not too subtle ways.

Almost without even thinking about it, I put my hand down between my legs and lifted my skirt up high enough to get my finger on my exposed clit. Instinctively my hips rose up just a bit as I drew in a sharp breath when my finger landed directly on my clit.

"Been a while, eh?" my mom interrupted me, a slit chuckle to her voice. My concentration was broken and I turned my head to look at her, keeping my hand between my legs.

"You could say that," I sighed.

"So when was the last time you got laid?" she asked matter-of-factly, as if asking me when I had my last period.

I explained to her that actually it hadn't been THAT long, only about three weeks or so. In fact, it was pretty hot in that it was with my roomies married brother AND it was the first time she and her brother had done it as well. I'd told her about it not long afterwards, just as I told her about most everything I did. Still, three weeks is a long time to go without sex so no wonder I was horny as hell.

"Well, I guess I can understand why you can't wait to do that until we get home," she nodded, "Go ahead, I'll just listen to some music until you're done."

It was great to have a mother like mine. Some mothers would have been horrified if their daughter started to masturbate in front of them period, let alone in the car next to them. Fortunately I'd been raised in an environment where masturbation was considered a natural human function no different than eating if you get what I mean. EVERYONE does it, or at least almost everyone, so why make a big deal out of it? If you feel the need, then do the deed my dad always says. Well, I definitely felt the need!

We had made our way to the expressway by now but the way my mom drove, she was always in the right hand lane and almost never passed anyone. Thus with me in the passenger seat it was unlikely that anyone would see what I was doing so I pulled the skirt up more to be more comfortable. The coolness of the soft leather seat under my bare bottom felt so good! I leaned the seat back a bit and spread my legs enough to let my hand cup my crotch without being pinched between my thighs.

"Oh yeah," I sighed softly as my finger went to work on me.

With my eyes shut I recalled how hot it had been to be fucked by my roomie's brother. God, he had done me with his wife passed out in the bedroom right across the hall, not to mention in front of his younger sister. My clit was so sensitive and I could feel my pussy getting wetter by the minute as I thought about how it had been to watch him fuck Brenda the first time.

Talk about HOT! I'd never seen a brother fucking his sister before and for it to be their first time as well was one of the most erotic sights I'd seen in ages. My finger plunged into my pussy as I recalled how he had cum in her and then let me eat his cum out of her pussy afterwards. God she tasted so good!

"You know, if you're going to moan so loud I can't hear the radio, the least you could do is tell me what's got you so worked up," my mom complained playfully.

Well, she asked for it! From then on, instead of just visualizing being with David and Brenda, I gave my mom a running dialog of how I wanted him to fuck me again, how good it felt to have his cum inside of me after not having been fucked for months. She got to hear how I loved being eaten by Brenda as her brother fucked me, how her tongue felt so good in my pussy - just as it always did when we would play in our dorm room together.

At one point I opened my eyes enough to glance over at my mom. She must have been getting worked up listening to me as I saw she had slipped her hand inside her blouse and was massaging one of her boobs under her bra as she drove. It wasn't anything so obvious anyone would have noticed as they passed by, but it was hot to see my mom getting all horny because of me and what I was telling her.

My pussy was soaking wet and I knew she had to smell me as well. Mom seemed to have a nose for pussy, that was for sure. I could never sneak in after a date having been fucked by my boyfriend without her knowing it, just by smelling me as I walked in the door and went by her. Then again, I guess the odds were in her favor as many a time when I came home from a date, I HAD just been fucked! Even if not, I was usually so worked up from sucking his cock or masturbating for him that I swear she could smell my pussy from across the room!

"Oh mom, this feels so good," I sighed in a voice husky with lust.

God, talk about being horny! All I could think about right then was having a dick in me, ANY dick, just long as it was hard and a human male it would do. Two finger now in my pussy - I was imagining us stopping at a rest area we just passed, my mom pimping me out to the truck drivers as she took on a few of them herself. I was about to cum and I needed it SO badly I wanted to scream.

"OH FUCK!" I cried out as it finally hit me.

My orgasm flared and then exploded, drenching me in pleasure and making me feel almost on fire. I was so hot yet goose bumps broke out on my arms and legs, I could feel my nipples rubbing against the cami and it was like they had

3. The Hotel Room

My mom drove straight to the hotel since it was just off the interstate on the way back into town. Going home first would have been a long detour and I was already running late - mom's not exactly a speeder like my dad so the trip took a lot longer than usual.

Mom dropped me off at the hotel front entrance where I quickly checked in and took the elevator up to find my room. After the long drive, not to mention what I'd been doing during that drive, I needed to freshen up for the party so a speedy shower was definitely in order.

Dropping my bags on one of the double beds, I quickly undressed and stepped into the shower. When the water was hot enough I changed it from the faucet to the shower and the stinging flow of hot water suddenly striking me felt invigorating after sitting in a car all afternoon.

Standing there under the steady stream of water, I closed my eyes and just let it hit me and flow down my body. I started soaping myself down and as I ran the bar of soap over my breasts my nipples started to harden from the attention. My hands caressed my breasts and squeezed them, lifting them up and then letting them slide through my wet fingers. I kept massaging them with my left hand as my right hand drifted down my wet stomach and I rubbed the bar of soap between my legs. I had just shaved that morning and the soap glided over my smooth bare pussy like an ice cube on a warm plate. Damn, I was still horny as hell! Oh well, why fight Mother Nature?

As I rubbed the soap against my swelling clit, my middle finger reached down between my pussy lips and I pushed it up into me. With my eyes tightly shut I imagined someone breaking into my room now, pulling me from the shower and blindfolding me.

Images of being fucked by a strange cock, unable to see him but feeling him violating me as he ever so slowly pushed himself deeper and deeper into me filled my head. I wanted him to stop by my pussy was crying out to be fucked until finally I stopped resisting and accepted his dick in me.

When he had cum and I thought it was over, another dick pushed its way into me, only to be followed another and another as a stream of men made their way into the room, each fucking and cumming in me only to be replaced by another impatiently waiting his turn at me. I lost track of them as my body was repeatedly violated, yet at the same time I came time after time as my pussy overflowed with their combined cum.

Between the actions of my two hands it wasn't long before I was gasping for air as a huge orgasm swept over me. I cried out as my clit screamed like it was on fire, sending shivers through me despite the hot water that was cascading over me. Hopefully nobody was listening too close in the next room!

I kept fingering my pussy as I dreamed of being fucked harder and harder while their cum would pour from my overflowing pussy like hot lava from a volcano. There was no room for more, each time a new dick entered me, it would push out the cum from before and then he would fill me again with his fresh load. Nobody said a word or touched me, just their cocks into my pussy and nothing else.

As I masturbated hard again for the second time in almost as many hours, I started to feel lightheaded and for a moment I was actually concerned that I might faint so I rested against the shower wall, holding the handicap rail in it as my legs felt weak and my entire body just trembled uncontrollably.

God it always felt soooooo good to cum! There was nothing like it in the world, no drug could possibly make me feel this good. Some people have told me I am addicted to sex, particularly to masturbating and I don't disagree. But then, so what? It's like the perfect drug, natural and always there and it doesn't cost a dime.

I scrubbed myself clean again and then after my shower I dried my hair and put on a little makeup, nothing too much which was actually normal for me as I've never been one for a lot of that stuff. Just as I finished the room phone rang – it was Audrey checking to see if I was coming so they could get started.

Looking at the clock, I realized I still has a few minute before the official start time but they must have been anxious to get started. All I had left to quickly get dressed. I had it all picked out ahead of time – one of my shortest skirt and a blouse at least a size too small, together with a very skimpy white thong and heels. Something told me that nobody would mind that I'd left my bra at school. Looking in the mirror, I hoped I was dressed appropriately!

4. The Party Begins

I too the elevator up to the suite where I learned that I was the last of twelve girls to arrive, including the guest of honor - my cousin Ginny. From the looks of things they'd already gone through a couple bottles of wine and Audrey welcomed me with my own glass, inviting me to catch up with them. I accepted it to be polite but I normally I don't drink much alcohol because it tends to make me sleepy more than anything. In this case I didn't think a glass or two would hurt since the last thing I would likely be doing was falling asleep!

For the first hour or so we played a bunch of silly games. It was sort of like a baby shower but the rules and prizes certainly weren't for a baby! Suffice to say they all revolved around drinking or sex or both. The primary objective of each one seemed to be to get Ginny more drunk and see how many ways she could wear a condom or play with a dildo! They were certainly meeting their goals as Ginny swigged down one glass of wine after another, like it was water. I'd seen her drink before but never this much and I couldn't help but hope she didn't pass out!

With all the drinking and laughter I was amazed that nobody was complaining in the rooms next to us. As it turned out, someone must have been because suddenly there was a sharp knock at the door and a deep voice outside announced that they were from hotel security and for us to let them in.

Everyone immediately quieted down as Audrey answered the door and in barged three guys wearing dark blue security uniforms. All three looked to be in their early twenties and their uniforms seemed a little tighter than usual but it was OK to me as they accentuated their hard bodies. These guys must spend half the day at the gym! One of them seemed to be in charge and he started scolding us for being so loud and obnoxious, saying the hotel had gotten several complaints about the noise from the other guests and that they were here to check us out to make sure everything was alright.

I was wondering what he meant by "check us out" when the head guy asked, "Who's the bride responsible for this mess?"

It seemed a silly question as it should have been easy for them to identify her since she was the only one wearing a lace veil with a dozen or so condoms hanging from it! We all looked at Ginny and they followed our eyes to her where she was sitting, suddenly looking totally embarrassed.

The three of them then moved over until they were standing in front of Ginny and then suddenly, without any warning whatsoever, they each ripped their shirts completely off in one quick motion. Audrey must have been waiting for this because she immediately cranked up the music again while the rest of us quickly moved our chairs to form a circle around them.

We all watched as the three hunks stripped off one piece of clothing after another. When they were finally down to their G-strings, which by themselves left very little to the imagination, they started making the rounds, dancing with each girl for a brief time before moving on to the next.

When one of them eventually came to me he grabbed my hand and pulled me up out of the chair. I couldn't help but stare as he was all but naked and looked SO hot. He started rubbing up against me and running his hands up and down my back, even grabbing my ass and pulling me into him so his cock was pressing against me through the thin material that barely covered him. Needless to say I was certainly getting turned on as this was without a doubt the sexiest hunk of a man I'd ever been this close to! Sadly, he soon moved on but when I sat down I could feel the tingle in my pussy telling me it was getting excited yet again.

As time went on the dances got sexier and more suggestive until finally Audrey stood up to announce that it was time for the bride's "special" lap dance. She said that since there were three guys, two more girls were needed to join Ginny and she called on the group to vote who should go first.

As the maid of honor, Audrey was an easy first choice and then to my shock and embarrassment they voted for me, apparently because I was the youngest one there. Oh well, it's not like I am particularly shy so I accepted the challenge.

The guys lined up three chairs and one guided Ginny to sit in the center one while Audrey and I were maneuvered to sit on the ones flanking her. At first it was a bit awkward as I sat there not being quite sure what to do next.

As it turned out there nothing for me to worry about, these guys were professionals all the way and took charge! One guy got in front of each one of us and you could literally feel the tension in the air as everyone waited to see what was going to happen next. My guy was the same gorgeous hunk that had given me my first dance. Assuming he wasn't wearing any padding inside that narrow G-string, he must have been hung like a horse - and he wasn't even hard yet from what I could tell judging by the outline of his cock inside!

OK, I CAN be shy at times and this was a little out of my comfort zone. My face must have been beet red because he bent down close to me and whispered in my ear, telling me not to worry and just to relax and have some fun. Then he took another look at me and asked in a more serious businesslike tone if I was eighteen. I assured him that I was after which he just smiled and winked at me.

With the three of us now in place with a man assigned to each of us, the music started once again. My guy straddled my chair and moved in close to me. As the other girls cheered them on, I was treated to the sexiest and most erotic dance any man had ever given me. I'd seen lap dances before in movies but it was always a girl doing the dancing, never a guy giving one to a girl. He moved up and down, rubbing his crotch and body up against me. His hands roamed all over my body and I don't think they ever came off of me once during the whole dance. He even fondled my boobs and at one point briefly reached in between my legs under my skirt to run his fingers up my crotch - over my thong of course but still I could feel the pressure of his finger on my clit.

Then I heard a big cheer go up and looked over to see that my cousin and Audrey were evidently having sort of contest to see who was the more daring. The first cheer had come when Audrey pulled down her dancer's G-string, allowing his now slightly-erect cock to swing freely in front of her face. He certainly hadn't had any padding, that was for sure! It was a great looking dick. His crotch was a thick thatch of curly dark pubic hair at the base and above his cock but he was shaved around his balls which kept them from being hidden from sight. He was only starting to get hard but from the looks of things I figured him to be quite a mouthful when he was finally erect!

Not one to be outdone by her best friend (I could relate to that), Ginny pulled off her guy's G-string as well. His cock was almost a twin of his partner's dick but also not hard yet so it simply flopped out and hung down like a limp sausage. Ginny leaned forward and raised the pot by taking his cock into her mouth and then quickly taking the entire thing in until her face was buried in his crotch. As flaccid as he was it wasn't much of an effort but it still was hotter than hell watching her.

Ginny was a bit of a tease and liked to dress a bit on the edge but I had NEVER seen her doing anything overtly sexual before so to see my cousin suddenly giving a complete stranger a blowjob was an incredible and almost unbelievable sight. It was a good thing I was watching it for myself as if someone had just told me I would have never believed them!

Audrey smiled and quickly followed suit and next thing I knew they were both sucking cock like it was just the natural thing to do. I looked up and saw my guy looking down at me as he rubbed his still hidden cock up against my cheek. It was obvious he was looking for some of what his partners were getting so who was I to refuse?

I reached up for his G-string, hooking a finger in the thin string on each side. The other girls started chanting my name, egging me on to join the other two. Even Audrey and Ginny were watching out of the corners of their eyes with their mouths full of cock, looking to see what I would do.

Whether it was the wine or the excitement, or a bit of both, I figured what the heck, why not? It wasn't that I didn't know what to do as I'd been sucking cocks since I was fourteen and absolutely loved doing it, even having done it in public before. It was just that I'd never done it in front of an audience like this before, one which included my own cousin who until now I knew could be wild but not THIS wild!

None of them had any idea how much experience I had sucking cock and so I found it sort of fun to pretend as though I didn't know what I was doing. Taking a deep breath, I pulled his G-string down to his ankles and then he stepped out of it. Lo and behold, there was his massive cock right in front of my face. I couldn't help but smile as I remembered my earlier question as to whether he was using padding or not. Well, let's just say if anything he was even bigger than I'd hoped for.

When I started to reach for it with my hand he pushed it away, warning me that no touching was allowed. Evidently my mouth didn't count when it came to that rule! He stood and leaned forward enough for the head of his cock to just brush up against my check and then my lips. Taking the hint, I obediently opened my mouth wide and leaned forward myself to allow the head to move into my eager mouth. As soon as it disappeared past my lips another cheer went up in the room and I heard several girls yelling "Go Kelly!" as I sat still and he moved his hips to stroke his cock in and out of my mouth.

It was like he was fucking my mouth and I could feel him growing, getting bigger with each stroke it seemed. As he got bigger it was getting harder and harder to take all of him in and he was just starting to strike the back of my throat when I felt a tap on my shoulder and realized that another girl wanted a turn. Reluctantly I dropped him from my mouth, got up and moved out of the way.

The girl who took my seat certainly didn't waste any time - she was sucking him before she even sat down! I looked over and felt a pang of jealousy as I saw that as the bride, Ginny was able to keep her spot without having to share. Well, she was obviously enjoying herself. Poor Audrey also had to give up her seat and the two of us grinned at each other as we both licked our lips seductively.

It was one of the more erotic sights I'd seen as I watched the other girls as one by one they sucked the guys' dicks. As for myself, I finally got one more shot, this time with one of the other guys. His cock was now rock hard after having so many women sucking on it and I was proud to be one of the few to be able to take him all the way in and down my throat. I think it was a big surprise to most of the girls there to see how good I was at deep throating. Well, if that shocked them then I could only imagine if they knew where I learned my technique!

It would have been interesting to see their reaction if I were to tell them how many hours my mom and dad had spent, patiently teaching me how to take his stiff cock all the way in without gagging. My mom was still better than me - she made it look effortless, but I think overall I give just as good of head as she does.

Actually not all of the girls there actually sucked cock. There were a couple who apparently either didn't like to give blowjobs or were too embarrassed to do it in front of everyone but they certainly didn't mind watching those of us that did!

As for me, I certainly didn't mind anyone watching, Although this was a new scenario for me, I've always enjoyed being watched during sex whether it's just me masturbating or getting laid. Something about it just adds an element of naughtiness and eroticism knowing someone else is watching me and getting turned on wishing they had me instead.

It was interesting to watch the other girls, though, and observe the variety of techniques. I was a little surprised to see that most of them seemed pretty amateurish, just opening their mouths and letting the guy fuck it with his cock. Maybe it was just the girls I hung around with but I would have figured that more of them would have been better at sucking dick. I had a couple of friends who refused to let a dick in their mouths but by far the rest of them at least tolerated it.

A couple of them I could tell were more experienced and knew how to give a proper blowjob. Surprisingly, or maybe not so when I thought about it, Audrey and Ginny both seemed to be quite accomplished cock suckers and I couldn't help but wonder where they'd been practicing. Neither of them had spoken of it before and I found myself gaining a new-found respect for my cousin. Something told me that we might have some interesting discussions the next time our families got together!

If there was anyone I admired for their expertise it had to be the strippers. All three guys must have had a lot of experience doing this as I was witnessing one of the most incredible displays of male stamina I'd ever seen. Based on my experience to date with sucking guys, I marveled that they were able to keep going for so long with so many girls sucking them - all without cumming even once!

I've had a wide range of experiences going from one extreme of your typical young teenager who cums in the first 30 seconds (or less) to the more experienced men who may hold out for fifteen to twenty minutes but I'd never had a guy who could hold out for more than that while I sucked his cock. Even guys who claimed they had never cum from a BJ without jerking off at the end succumbed to my mouth and I've yet to have a guy NOT get off from me sucking him when I was given the chance. These guys look like they would've been the ultimate challenge to my skills. This had been going on now for well over a half-hour and they STILL were rock hard without a drop of sperm emerging.

Ginny had been working her guy over pretty good and every now and then the guys would trade places so it wasn't like she had been sucking the same guy the entire time. Her mouth must have been getting pretty tired by now sucking cock for that long non-stop, especially considering how big they were! Little cocks were so much easier to suck and when you were done your mouth didn't feel so tired from having to open wide to take him in. With these guys I imagined Ginny's mouth and cheeks were going to feel like she had been in a dentist's chair for half an hour straight!

After my second go-around I sat down on the floor with my legs crossed under me which caused my skirt to ride up to my ass. God I was horny yet again! Without really thinking about it, I started to reach between my legs and then hesitated, suddenly remembering where I was and sheepishly pulled my hand away.

Then I looked around then and saw I wasn't the first to have the idea! The two girls who weren't into sucking cock instead were rubbing their pussies and boobs as they watched the show. The rest were gathered around the guys, running their hands over their bodies and in a couple of cases, had undone their tops and blouses to free their breasts which they rubbed against the guys as well. Apparently the "hands-off" rule was now suspended.

I decided to get a few feels of those spectacular bodies myself so I got back up and squeezed in. I gingerly put my hand on one guy's bare ass which was moving back and forth as one of the girls was sucking his cock. God his ass was so tight and firm!

Emboldened, I squeezed it and ran my hands all around it. My other hand was rubbing myself and I shuddered as my fingers ran over my excited clit. I let my fingers slide down the crack of his ass and felt his asshole under my fingertip. I pressed the tip of my finger in just a bit and he suddenly looked around to see what was going on.

When he saw it was me he just smiled and winked at me and then turned back to the next girl who was taking her place for her turn at his cock. I'd NEVER put my finger up a guy's asshole before and I felt incredibly naughty and dirty as I pushed it in as far as I could. He was started to move his ass again as the girl was going to town on his cock which helped me to establish a rhythm as I fingerfucked his ass. Audrey came up next to me and when she saw what I was doing she put her hands to her mouth in mock shock. She burst out laughing and started pointing me out to the other girls who all cheered me on.

Finally I pulled my finger out and was a bit shocked when Audrey unexpectedly took my hand and sucked my finger like a popsicle. Ewwwww, now THAT grossed me out! Like, I had just had it up his asshole for God's sake and now she as sucking it! Anal sex of any type has never been my strong suite but she seemed to be enjoying it. When she was done I smelled my finger and grimaced a bit as it smelled like crap. And to think she had put it in her mouth. Well, whatever turns you on I guess! I made a quick exit to the restroom to wash my finger before I got sick.

When I returned I was just in time to see the guy being sucked by Ginny reach down and picked her up in his muscular arms. My eyes widened as he carried her off to the bedroom as Audrey explained to me that she had paid them to give her a more private and intimate lap dance. My first naive thought was, what could be more intimate than what we were already doing? Then I rolled my eyes at my stupidity. Obviously this was going to more than just your typical lap dance! How much more though? Now THAT was the question.

5. My Cousin the Slutty Bride

The last couple of girls were getting their turns now at the remaining two guys. You had to give the guys credit. How did they last so long without cumming? Suddenly we all heard a loud cry emanating from the bedroom. Audrey cracked the door open and peeked in. She turned with a huge grin on her face, gave a thumbs up and then motioned for everyone to hurry over. When we got there she opened the door wide and there in full view was my cousin, now totally nude, and riding the guy's cock like a cowgirl. She was fucking him like there was no tomorrow – and there might NOT be a tomorrow either if her fiance, found out about this!

Again, if I hadn't seen it with my own two eyes I never would've believed it. My god, she was getting married tomorrow and her she was riding a stranger's dick – and doing in front of almost a dozen witnesses! Was she crazy – What if her fiance, found out? This was a side to Ginny I'd never seen – a side for which there had never been even a hint in all the years I knew her. Then again, she probably would be just as shocked if she saw me riding my father so maybe it wasn't as surprising that I didn't know about this side of her.

We all squeezed into the room and cheered her on. My cousin, who was sexy as hell but usually quite reserved, never even hesitated when she realized we were watching and if anything it seemed to spur her on to bounce on his cock even harder. She was literally bouncing up and down on his cock like she was on a trampoline, pounding down onto his crotch every time she dropped down. Meanwhile, the last girls had finished with the other guys and they all joined us in the bedroom.

The guys were still naked and they started stroking themselves as they watched their friend being fucked by my naked cousin. For a moment my mind wandered and I wondered how they determined who got the bride at these things. Did they take turns? Some form of perverse form of seniority? In any case, they just got to jerk off while their partner fucked the bride.

Suddenly the guy she was fucking lifted my cousin up and off of his cock. She immediately got to her knees and grabbed his cock in her mouth again. He jerked violently as he came, all of his cum spewing into her mouth without spilling a drop. By then the other two were finally ready and so they each took one side and squirted their cum all over their side of Ginny's face and hair. When they had finished she dropped onto her back on the bed, exhausted and covered with cum.

Ginny used her fingers to try and scoop as much of the cum into her mouth with her fingers and I smiled seeing the huge slutty grin on her face. Damn, her hair was going to be a mess. I can't think of anything harder to wash out of my hair than a man's cum. It seems to coagulate in the shower and I have to use a fine comb to literally drag it out of my hair one blob at a time. I guess in porn movies they never show the poor girl having to clean up afterwards so guys don't realize the hassle they create for me when they won't cum in my mouth like I wish they would. I wondered where she was getting her hair done in the morning? Maybe it was a common thing for brides to show up the morning of the wedding with cum in their hair – you think?

Apparently when they came was like the finale at a fireworks show. It was the end of the male entertainment portion of the evening and as they quickly got dressed and left. We all went back out into the living room area of the suite where we talked excitedly about everything that had happened, especially how hot Ginny had looked getting fucked – with her wedding day approaching at that!.

Eventually Ginny came staggering back into the room, still nude but she had washed the cum off her face and was sporting a huge grin as if it as glued in place. I figured she was drunker than a skunk and I wondered if she would even remember what she'd done her when the alcohol finally was flushed from her brain. We all clapped and cheered for her and she blew us a kiss and curtsied. She then went back in the room to finish cleaning up and get dressed, leaving the rest of us to straighten up as well.

When Ginny finally returned we gave her a standing ovation and she was still grinning like a fool, looking perhaps a little embarrassed now as if the reality of what she'd just done may have started to sink in. We sat around for a while longer, talking and telling stories about guys we had been with and such for another hour or so when Audrey announced that the party was over and we needed to let the bride get some sleep. I looked at my cousin with newfound respect and I couldn't help but wondered what her fiance, would say at the rehearsal tomorrow if he knew how his new wife had spent the previous night!

I said goodbye to everyone and returned to my room where I found Kristen lying in bed sound asleep. I bounced on the bed to wake her and she quickly rubbed the sleep from her eyes as I told her all about the party. When I go to the part of Ginny fucking the guy her eyes widened dramatically.

"No way!" she exclaimed, looking at me like I was just making it all up, "Ginny would never do such a thing."

"Well believe it. I never knew our cousin could be such a slut!"

"Really? ...she really fucked him?"

I wanted to laugh at her disbelief. In all fairness, I had to admit that if I hadn't witnessed it myself I never would've believed it either.

Kristen pressed me for more details and as she listened I could see she was getting horny from the way her hand was pressing against her pussy through her jeans. I was getting horny again myself and before long were both laying on our respective beds, heads propped up and legs spread open as we masturbated to the thought of being fucked by a big-cock stripper.

Kristen and I had been masturbating together since we were twelve and fourteen respectively and it was just natural for us to do it when got horny. We never touched each other but we had shared more than a few of our boyfriends together. I had a feeling this wedding was going to be more than I had anticipated!

(May 16) Chapter 51: A Typical Night My With Dad

Story codes: MF oral inc father daughter
Me (19)
John - my dad (39)

People ask me a lot about what happens at home between me and my dad. Most of the time I would say it's no different than at most homes between a father and daughter. OK, there ARE of course a few exceptions at my house...

1. A Few Words About Incest

It's always seemed strange to me that the same people I chat with on-line who have no problems with casual sex, cheating on their spouse, threesomes (or more), even perverted stuff like sex with young kids and animals, also think that I'm the perverted or twisted one simply because I have sex with my parents.

It's frustrating to me because so far as I am concerned incest is no different than many things in life. Handled properly incest can lead to truly wonderful and loving relationships. Unfortunately there are cruel and perverted people who use incest to rationalize their own selfish desires at the expense of their children's well-being. I would NEVER advocate child abuse of any kind, including pre-teen sex or ANY form of non-consensual sex.

Most people seem to associate incest with eight year-old children and such which is clearly wrong since at that age, the concept of consent doesn't even exist. But if a person enjoys sex, why does the mere fact that they share DNA with someone disqualify that relationship? Hopefully this article will show a different side of incest and help people to realize how wonderful incest can be - under the right circumstances.

The first time I had sex was when I was fourteen with the sixteen year-old brother of one of my best friends. Since then I've remained sexually active, to put it mildly. While I don't mean to say that I've slept with EVERY guy in school, most of my relationships include sex to some degree or another, anything from playful petting to all-out fucking.

Most of the time I would say my sexual activities are on the tame side. Most guys know that if they're nice to me at all then they're pretty much assured of going home with a BJ on a first date. If things work out well enough warrant a second date, I like letting them watch me masturbate. When it comes to actual sex I'm a bit more picky. It's not that I'm worried about getting pregnant or anything like that (my mom put me on the pill when I started having sex). For me it's a fine line between being known as the class slut versus a whore.

My parents have always been aware of my sexual activities as I've always shared everything with them, especially my mother. My mom has always been extremely supportive of me, such as making sure I was on birth control from the start. While my parents never approached me directly in a sexual way when I was younger, they were always very open about sex in general with me. For example, nudity was not considered something to be ashamed of and it wasn't unusual for all of us to be in the hot tub together naked.

Looking back, I think that while my mom and dad were open about sex, it wasn't like it was something kinky or perverted. Indeed, they emphasized to me that sex was something to be respected and to be held responsible for. For instance, my parents taught me the difference between pornography and erotic art, between being sensual and vulgar, between making love and fucking. In other words, keeping sex fun without crossing the line into perversion.

Looking back, I find it interesting that while they never had sex in front of me when I was a child, it was always clear to me that they loved each other emotionally AND physically. When they shut their bedroom door, I knew it was a signal to me that they wanted to be alone as a man and wife, as lovers, not that they were excluding me from anything. Since my room was right next door to theirs with nothing but a thin wall between us, sometimes I could hear them pretty clearly so it wasn't like I didn't know what they were doing.

The truth is, rather than be put off at the thought of my parents having sex, I actually felt more secure knowing that my parents were in deeply love and that they could still enjoy being with each other so much rather than fight all the time the way some of my friends' parents did.

It's always important for me to make sure that people understand that nobody EVER forced or even asked me to do anything I didn't want to do. My parents gave

Then I looked over at my mom and saw she was still sound asleep. She was wearing plain white cotton panties and a Steelers t-shirt and looked so peaceful and pretty. I've never been able to convince her to not wear panties around the house.

Making sure to keep quiet so she wouldn't wake up I knelt down and grabbed my dad's cock gently with my hand. Then I leaned over and took him in my mouth. Mmmmmmm, his dick was so warm and soft! Running my tongue around it, I dropped him out of my mouth and instead licked it in circles around the smooth head. While I started sucking his cock again slowly, I used one hand to gently play with his balls. My dad stirred slightly a few times, especially when I had his whole cock in my mouth, but somehow he remained asleep.

I could feel his cock beginning to grow and stiffen in my mouth. God I love it when that happens! No matter how many times I suck a cock I've never stopped being fascinated as it goes from being soft and limp to long, thick and hard. Being able to feel it do that while it's in my mouth is such an incredible sensation, almost exhilarating! With my free hand I reached between my legs and started rubbing myself. Damn, I was already wet with desire so it was easy to slip my finger inside my warm pussy.

By now my dad's cock was hardening and growing longer to where it became harder to take all of him in my mouth but I still was able to take it. Eventually it got to where I could feel the head of cock just against the back of my throat.

Suddenly he stirred again and his eyes barely opened. He squinted down at me and then his eyes widened as he saw what his only daughter was doing to his dick. I didn't want to let his cock out of my mouth so I released his balls and pointed towards my mom. Dad looked over and saw his wife sleeping. Then he looked back to see his naked nineteen year-old daughter bending over his crotch, sucking his now rock-hard cock with one hand between her legs masturbating. I can imagine it was a sight most fathers have only dreamed of ever witnessing.

A huge grin appeared on his face as he softly said to me, "Oh God Kelly, you are absolutely the most fantastic daughter a father could ever ask for! Oh yeah... I just love it when you suck my dick like that."

He paused, allowing me to suck him a little more before he said anything else. Finally he sighed and told me, "OK, now get up here on my lap - daddy needs to fuck his little girl."

There was something in the way he said that which caused my heart to swell. He didn't say he WANTED to fuck me. No.... he said he NEEDED to fuck me. I knew it about them, how much they respect them and want to show them in such an unmistakable way?

"Oh god Kelly, yes. Yes... I want to fuck you so bad. You're so beautiful... so sexy. You're the most wonderful daughter a father could ask for. Here baby... take me inside of you now."

With that I raised up a bit and reached between my legs to grab his cock and guide him into me as I slowly lowered myself back down. Oh wow, how can I describe the incredible sensation I feel whenever a stiff cock enters my wet pussy for the first time? I love the feeling as the head parts my pussy lips, seeing myself open up to accept it.

In this case, knowing that it is my own father's cock that was I was feeling made it all the more erotic for me. I love him to pause for a few moments when the head is inside just enough to part my pussy lips before it tries to press farther inside of me. Then I like to twist my hips back and forth as his cock slowly corkscrews into me. Then, when his entire dick is in me, I love it when he just hold it still, letting me feel it throbbing inside of me.

I leaned forward to let my dad suck my nipples as I slowly lowered myself down onto his lap, watched as his cock disappear inch by inch inside of me. Finally he was completely enveloped by my pussy and my bare crotch was pushing against the hairy base of his incestuous cock. I could feel his hot incestuous dick as it filled my pussy, feel it throbbing deep inside of me.

My hips worked in a circular motion to move him around inside of me without actually coming out of me. I had to be careful because the chair would squeak and I thought more than once that mom was going to wake up. Not that I didn't want her to see us, I just didn't want to wake her up when she was sleeping so soundly.

Taking a deep breath, I started to ride his cock, letting him out of me until just the tip of his dick was barely in me and then slamming myself down to drive him as deep inside of me as I could. Oh God it felt crazy good! My hair was falling down on his face as he took each of my nipples and as much of each boob as he could into his mouth. His hands each grabbed one of my butt cheeks as he squeezed my ass.

Feeling wonderful, I looked down and he winked and glanced towards mom. When I looked over I realized what he meant as she was now awake. Mom had turned on her side and was watching us, a coy smile coming to her face when she saw that I knew she was watching. Other than that she just laid there but she never took her eyes off of us as she watched her adoring husband fuck her teenage daughter. She had told me many times that she was never jealous seeing him doing me. Her confidence came from the security of knowing his love for her as his wife. She realized that I was just satisfying his needs. We weren't lovers by any stretch of the imagination and being his daughter it was incest so he wasn't cheating on her. Still, I came almost instantly when I saw her watching and my dad moaned as he felt my pussy contract and grip his cock while my cum flow around him. My whole body tingled as wave after wave of pleasure poured over my entire body.

With the onset of my orgasm, Dad's breathing started to quicken and even with the waves of pleasure washing over me I could feel him thrusting faster and harder into me. I knew what this meant and he soon confirmed it.

"Oh Kelly baby, I'm going to cum now... Oh yeah baby, I'm going to cum inside my little girl's hot pussy! You ready for daddy to fill you up?"

"Yes Daddy!! Cum for me daddy!!" I cried. Indeed, I really did want him to fill my pussy with his cum. Even more, I wanted my mom to watch, to see yet again the proof of how much he loved me. It wasn't the same type of love he reserved for her, but it was still something special, something only a father can give to his daughter.

My voice begging for him to cum in me was enough to tip him over the edge. His hips thrust upwards as he shoved his cock even deeper into me. Then I felt his cock spasm as load after load of incestuous cum squirted into my pussy. Each time it was like a small heat explosion deep inside of me. I came yet again as his final burst of cum exploded into me.

"Yes Kelly, that's it. Squeeze my cum out of my cock with your pussy. God I love the feel of you around my cock!"

He must have been especially horny that night because I could hardly believe how much cum he had just pumped into me. I looked down and could see some of it already draining from my pussy down to the base of his cock. I reached down and dipped my finger into it and then licked it from my finger. Mmmmmmm, it tasted so good mixed in with my own cum!

Dad put his arms around me and pulled me tight to his chest, squeezing my boobs against him. I looked over and saw my mom had a big grin on her face as she watched her husband and daughter hugging, his cock still buried inside of me. She'd told me before that she loved seeing us together like that as much as anything, resting in each other's arms while we remained literally joined together. She said that it reminded her of the times she'd been fucked by her own father before he died. My

(May 22) Chapter 52: My First Sex Party, The Initiation

Story codes: MF group oral exhib inc father daughter
Me (19)
John - my dad (39)
Pete - party host (22)

Until now, most of my sexual experiences had been with a guy I knew or at least had a relationship of some sort, even if just as my camp counselor. Then my best friend introduced me to a whole new world - one with multiple partners and anonymous sex.

1. Beth's Sex Parties

Beth was always one of my best friends in high school and is now my "BFF". She's always been pretty wild and enjoyed quite a reputation in school for being a party girl. In contrast, I was known in high school more for being a slut than a "partier". While this was just one of many differences between us, for whatever reason she and I always got along extremely well.

Beth was always teasing me that I should let her join in sometime with one of the guys I went out with. While I'm sure none of them would have complained about making it a three-some, I always declined as I'd never done anything sexual with a girl (outside of my family, that is) while in high school.

Like most girls I knew, I participated in silly games at slumber parties and such, including masturbating and other innocent stuff like that. But when it came to actually touching another girl in a sexual way, THAT never happened. I can't say that it was so much a conscious decision by me NOT to do it but more like it just never seemed like something we wanted to do. At the time, only "those girls" did that sort of thing. Personally I was quite happy being fucked by boys! Girls didn't have dicks and what was sex without being fucked? Besides, if I wanted to taste a pussy I already had mine available.

When I went off to college that mindset quickly changed thanks to my freshman roomie Brenda. She was secretly bi-sexual (had it been public knowledge they would never have accepted her application) and a lot more "aggressive" than most of my friends had been. Even so, while Brenda and I spent most of the school year sleeping together, there was never anything "romantic" about our relationship. It was just a physical thing between us that satisfied our mutual needs. I've always preferred guys and while Brenda knocked down some barriers for me, it wasn't like I suddenly converted to be a lesbian or anything like that. Technically I was now officially bisexual, but the scales remained heavily weighted towards the guys.

One day shortly after returning home for summer break, I had lunch with Beth and as usual she wasted no time in updating me on her latest sexual adventures. God, it seemed all the girl did was party! Today she was all worked up and excited about the next party that was coming up soon.

The way she explained it to me, all the parties were held in someone's home and apparently there were very few limits on what was allowed. Beth DID say, much to my relief, that there were absolutely no drugs allowed and only some light drinking. The focus was on sex - and lots of it. Beth assured me that nobody would make me participate or do anything I didn't want to do. By the same token, she warned me that if I didn't do ANYTHING but watch that I probably wouldn't be invited back again.

Still, I was a bit unsure about the whole concept so Beth described the last party she'd been to and how she'd been fucked by several guys - a couple of whom she'd never even seen before they started fucking her. As she described the thrill of having multiple men do her and then leave without her even knowing so much as their names, I started to feel that familiar tingle between my legs.

Beth undoubtedly could see that I was getting flushed from the sexual excitement that was building up inside of me. Once she had me all hot and bothered, she pushed me yet again to agree to go. At that point, what could I say? It's hard to say no to something when just talking about it has you playing with yourself in front of your best friend!

It was a few days before the party and now that I'd finally agreed to go it seemed all I could think about was what might happen. Beth had been pretty descriptive about the sex itself but surprisingly vague on the details when it came to how things actually worked once you were there. Would we just walk in and start doing it with whoever was available? Maybe there was like a "meeting" first where everyone was introduced and then somehow "assigned" to someone else or a group?

Beth HAD said that it was an exclusive group that got together on a regular basis. Most people, unlike her, didn't make it to all of them but over time sooner or later she'd met most everyone and figured she'd done them all, including the girls, at least once. For someone like me to be included, it was on an invitation basis only and even then the member inviting someone had to have them cleared beforehand. Condoms were available but Beth said she rarely had the guy use one since everyone was tested regularly. In fact, reducing the risk of STDs was one of the major reasons for having a closed membership.

2. Getting Ready For the Party

Finally the day of the party arrived. Sitting back on my bed, I debated as to what I should wear. Having never been to anything like this before, I didn't exactly know the protocol. Again, Beth had been a bit vague on this as well, saying only that "anything" I wore would be alright. Well, THAT certainly helped a lot! Should I go as a conservative church girl wearing jeans and a full blouse, perhaps even going so far as to don a bra and panties; or should I dress as the classic school slut, wearing just a tight skirt with no panties and a sheer top? Not surprisingly, I finally settled on something in between.

Somewhere in my closet I found a nice plaid skirt that my mom had bought me a few years back for a church dinner. I'd grown a bit taller since then so it would've been inappropriate to wear to church any more but it was perfect for tonight. The hem came down to a little above mid-thigh, far enough to keep my ass covered should I bend over but high enough to draw attention in a crowd. When I tried to pull it up I found my ass had grown more than I had realized as it is pretty tight, especially around my butt, which was fine with me as it made it pretty obvious that I am not wearing any panties.

The material was more sheer than it first appeared, so much so that if I hadn't been shaving my crotch I would have had to wear panties because the dark outline of my pubic hair would have shown through the thin cotton in the right light. Since I WAS shaved I decided to go sans panties as the skirt was barely long enough to let me sit without my bare ass showing. Besides, this wasn't exactly church I was going to!

To go along with the skirt, I chose a cute peasant girl halter - the type that has no shoulder straps but your arms still fit through sleeves. It was also made of thin cotton and without a bra my nipples visibly poked through even without being excited so I could only imagine what they would look like if once I got horny. A plain pair of white heels finished off my outfit, not quite spikes but still a couple of inches that helped make my legs look tight and sexy.

As always, my hair remained as an issue. Over the years I've tried about everything to do something with it, only to be met with bitter disappointment every time. I even experimented with going light blonde for a while which was probably my biggest fashion disaster of all time! My problem is I have the curse of straight hair which has no body without the aid of tons of expensive hair products. Although I can eventually get it to look full bodied and wavy, if only people knew what it took to achieve that!

From past experience I knew a heavy session of sex typically destroyed all my efforts anyway so given my expectations for this evening, there wasn't much sense in putting in the hours of effort to do it up fancy. In the end I decided to just tie it back in a simple pony tail. Actually, this had the added benefit of making it such that I wouldn't have to keep brushing it out of my face while sucking someone's cock, assuming I actually did such a thing. Somehow I thought the odds of THAT were pretty good!

With my outfit laid out on my bed, I went to the bathroom where I took a long hot shower. After a quick shave of my underarms, legs and pussy (I had just shaved them the previous morning so they weren't too bad), I washed my legs and worked my way to my crotch where my fingers passed over my pussy and clit, making me shiver just a little. Any other time and I most likely would have lingered a while longer, maybe even a LOT longer. As tempting as it was to play with myself for a while, I knew that Beth would be over soon and besides, something told me I'd be getting plenty of stimulation before much longer.

Afterward my shower I dried my hair and brushed it out, then worked on my makeup. Unlike some girls I know, I've never been a big one for dumping on the makeup but a bit of eye shadow and blush never hurt. Thank god the dreaded zits seemed to finally have given their quest for ruining my life! Fortunately, I never had a severe case of acne but even one pimple was one too many. The last thing I wanted to look like tonight was some immature teenager.

Clean, dry and ready to go, I returned to my bedroom where I quickly dressed. It didn't take long to throw on the skirt and blouse and the heels simply slipped on. Looking in the full-length mirror in my room, I took stock of my appearance. If there's a single girl in the world that can look in a mirror and NOT criticize herself, I've yet to meet her and I'm not so sure I would even WANT to! Maybe it's because you know yourself so intimately that every little flaw and blemish seems to stand out like someone's shining a spotlight on it. Well, my boobs weren't about to grow any more tonight and my nose was what it was, so I sighed and grabbed my purse as I headed downstairs to wait for Beth.

My mom and dad were in the kitchen so I joined them as it was still at least ten or fifteen minutes before Beth had said she would stop by. They both know my agenda for the evening as I'd told my mom earlier in the week where I was going and what I'd be doing - at least hopefully I would be.

Like most wives, my mom tells my dad everything, which as fine with me, so he knew why I was all dressed up. Upon my entry into the kitchen, my mom looked over and just smiled at me, a little twinkle in her eye. When I got closer my dad grabbed me by the waist and let out a long wolf whistle. Reaching under my skirt, he squeezed my bare butt with his large hand.

"Hmmm... You know Kelly, when I first saw you in that that skirt somehow I just knew you weren't wearing any panties," he chuckled and then went on saying, "Well, I guess I was right! Mmmmmmm, you have such a cute little butt - what do you think of Kelly's ass Mary?"

My mom just rolled her eyes at my father's silly comments and responded by saying, "Good grief John, get your hands off your daughter's bare butt. God, sometimes I just don't know what I'm going to do with the two of you!"

As she spoke, my dad reached down between my legs and from behind his finger began to tease my pussy and then he pushed one in me just a little bit, just enough to let me know it was inside of me but not as far as I would have preferred. With another finger, he reached up and touched my clit causing me to jump just a little and let out a little gasp.

"John!" my mom scolded him, "What did I tell you? Now behave yourself!"

"Oh Mary, I don't think she minds," my dad said with a grin on his face. He looked at me and grinned, "Besides, from what you told me earlier, she's going to be getting a lot more than just my finger tonight anyway!"

Not to be outdone, I reached down and rubbed his crotch through his pants with a naughty grin on my face.

"Why daddy, it looks like you have something on your mind. Hmmm, what's going on down here?" I teased him. Indeed, his cock was already hardening as he played with my ass and pussy. As much as I loved his cock, it was hard to concentrate on it when he was touching me this way.

My mom sat down on a kitchen chair with a huff, "Goodness gracious, what am I ever going to do with you two? Can't you keep your hands off each other for just two minutes?"

Undeterred by her comments, I unzipped my dad's pants and then reached in to pull his stiff cock out where I could see it better. I looked over at my mom as I started stroking it with my hand. "But Mom, look at daddy's poor cock - he NEEDS my attention."

"That's right Mary," my dad said, giving my mom a totally fake dejected look, "Can't you see it needs Kelly's special attention?" Then he looked back at me with a grin, "Besides, if nothing else it can be a warm-up for your party tonight!"

He pulled his hand out from under my skirt which allowed me to kneel down in front of him. I looked at my mom and she just shrugged her shoulders. What could she say? My dad wanted me to suck his dick and as his daughter, I couldn't say no. In any case, my mom was just teasing. She knew how much it meant to me to be able to please my father, not to mention how much he enjoyed it. What was the harm in a quick blowjob anyway?

Turning my attention back to my dad, I leaned forward and dropped my head to his crotch where I started sucking and stroking his stiff warm cock. As I went down on his dick, taking it slowly into my mouth, I glanced over again at my mom who was now smiling and shaking her head in mock disbelief.

"God damn, that feels so good Kelly," my dad groaned as I took all of him in until my face was almost pressing against his hairy crotch.

He put his hands on my head and gently pushed it down until my face and nose was now pushing into his crotch. He smelled so good - a heavy scent of musk and sweat, the scent of a male lusting for me.

Just then a car horn blew and I knew it was Beth. Talk about bad timing! I was torn between my obligation to Beth to be on time and my obligation to my father to please him and satisfy his needs. Of course, my father had the first priority so I kept sucking on his cock, figuring I would have to make up some excuse for Beth after I was finished with him (she had no idea that I had sex with my dad so I couldn't tell her the REAL reason I was late!) Fortunately, my mom got up and knelt next to me.

"You better get going dear," she said softly, "I think I can handle the situation from here."

I let my dad's cock slip from my mouth and she quickly took him in her mouth and started sucking him and massaging his balls. As I went out through the front door I looked back at the sight of my mom blowing my dad in the middle of the kitchen. Thank goodness Beth hadn't tried to come in to find out why I was late!

3. Initiation Ceremony

I jumped in Beth's car and wiped my mouth. Beth looked at me with a question on her face but I just giggled and said, "Sorry, just saying goodbye to my dad."

Even though I'd never told Beth about my incestual relationships with my family, she must have noticed the flushness in my face and the way my stiff nipples were poking out. Still, I doubted she even considered that I may have been saying goodbye by blowing him. Who would ever think that would happen without knowing something about it in the first place?

In the end, Beth just shrugged and drove over to the house where the party was being held. She was more silent than usual which caused me to wonder if she WAS suspicious about something. Well, maybe I would tell her someday but this was not obviously not the time or place for such a revelation. We had better things to do.

Even though the party was only a few miles away in a straight line, in the Pittsburgh area such a road didn't exist and it took almost fifteen minutes to get there as we twisted and turned through the hills. Finally Beth pointed out the house where we were going. Like so most homes in the area, it was a modest red brick two story home in a nice section of town.

Several cars were already parked outside so at least we knew were not the first to arrive. By the time Beth found a parking space and we made our way to the front door, someone must have noticed and the door was already being opened for us by this great looking guy who I would have guessed to be in his mid to late twenties or so.

"Hey Beth! Glad you could make it tonight!," he greeted us. Then he looked at me and smiled, saying, "And you must be Kelly. Hi, I'm Pete. Beth has told us a lot about you and I must say, you look even hotter then she described!" He moved to the side and motioned for us to come in. "Well, don't just stand there, come on in!"

I looked at Beth and she just raised her eyebrows and took me by the hand. We followed Pete into the house and there looked to be around ten to twelve other people already in the kitchen and living room. Although a few were drinking beer or wine, I was pleased to see that most had just soft drinks or bottled water. There was no sign whatsoever of hard liquor or drugs so it looked like Beth was telling the truth about those.

Looking around, it appeared that I was dressed fairly middle of the road. At the extreme was a girl who looked ready for church while a few could have passed for street-walkers. As for the guys, they were all wearing jeans and either a shirt or T-shirt, typical men.

One thing that was readily obvious was that everyone was hot! Most looked to be in their twenties with a few approaching or in their thirties. There didn't seem to be any obvious couples, which was again something Beth had promised would be the case. This was supposed to be a singles sex party, not a "swinger" party or some dating service for meeting your future wife or even girlfriend.

Beth and I quickly mingled with the crowd and grabbed something to drink. I've never been a fan of alcoholic beverages although I've shared a small glass of wine with my parents from time to time, so it was just a diet Pepsi for me.

The group eventually seemed to naturally split up and every made their way to the living room where we shared some small talk for the next twenty minutes or so. In that time, a few more people showed up and eventually there were twenty people in the room, including me, with an even mix of guys and girls. Once the last stragglers had settled in, Pete stood up and addressed the group.

"Hey folks, glad you all could make it tonight. Pardon me if you've heard all this before. Let's not forget that the primary rule for the evening is to do whatever you want and ONLY what you want. Nobody here is under any obligation or pressure. My house is yours tonight so feel free to go anywhere although privacy is NOT a right. If you want a date then go out and have one. Here everyone shares their experiences with everyone else so anything you do can be watched by anyone else and feel free to watch anyone you would like. Also, let's respect each other's privacy to absolutely NO cameras or videos. Once again, nobody does anything they don't want to so respect is the name of the game here."

With that Pete walked over to me and bent over to kiss me on the cheek. "So Beth, are you going to introduce us to your friend?"

Beth stood up and pointed to me. "Hi everyone. This is Kelly and it's her first time at one of these. She's nineteen and goes to college in Ohio. Kelly's not only my best friend, but as you all can see she's is quite a fox." She paused, looked at me with a grin on her face and then over at Pete saying cryptically, "So Pete, I think you're going to enjoy tonight's initiation."

Everyone in the room laughed but I didn't have a clue what the joke was all about. Initiation? Beth had never mentioned anything about such a thing to me. I looked at her and she couldn't help but giggle at my confusion. Then I heard someone say, "Come on Pete, show her what you've got." Another person called out, "Let's go Pete, fuck her!"

Fuck her? What the hell was THAT all about? My eyes widened when I heard that last comment and I quickly looked at Beth, who just kept giggling, and then at Pete who was eying me with what could only be described as the look the wolf has when he sees a sheep cut from the herd. Indeed, I've seen that look enough times in a guy's face to understand what it meant. There was no doubt in my mind that Pete had every intention of fucking me – and it looked like he was planning to do it right here and now in front of everyone!

Now the last thing anyone could accuse me of is being any sort of prude or shy but I was definitely caught by surprise and couldn't help but be confused by what was happening. I mean, one minute we were sitting there just trading small talk and out of the blue I was suddenly face-to-face with a guy who seemed intent on screwing me in front of eighteen other people – including my best friend!

Caught completely off-guard. my body was paralyzed as I watched Pete reach down to unbuckle his jeans and then unzip them. He spread open the tops and next thing I knew he was holding his cock right in front of my face! Beth was sitting next to me and she could see the look of desperation in my face as I was confused as to what to do next.

"Sorry Kelly, but we aren't supposed to tell anyone about the initiation part," Beth apologized to me. "You see, the rule is that when a girl shows up here for the first time the host gets to fuck her at the start of the party in front of everyone. It sort of gives you a chance to show everyone that you're serious about being here plus it lets them know just what you can do."

The look on my face must have told her I still wasn't quite on board with everything so she continued, "Oh come on Kelly, you're not some innocent girl next door. Look at it this way, here's an opportunity to show me and everyone else what a slut you really are! Have some fun girl! Look at his cock for god's sake. Mmmmmmm, you know damn well you want to suck it."

Everyone was watching and I looked up at Pete. He DID have a really nice looking cock and after all, I knew I'd be getting laid sooner or later; I just hadn't expected it to happen so quickly and I'd NEVER thought it would start out with me getting fucked with an audience.

The truth is, one of my favorite fantasies is to be fucked on stage by a stranger in front of a crowd of people so this was probably about as close as I'd ever get to realizing that fantasy. I looked back at Beth with my eyes now full of determination.

"Don't worry, I'm fine," I assured her. Then I shook my finger at her and said, "Just remember Beth, you owe me big time for not warning me about this ahead of time."

Everyone could hear our exchange and when they heard me tell Beth it was OK with me, a number of them cheered me on and encouraged me. A few made some rather lewd comments as well but under the circumstances that was to be expected I guess. I looked up at Pete and squared my shoulders to him.

"OK, you asked for it," I warned him as I reached out and grabbed Pete's cock with one hand.

Then I leaned forward and started to suck gently on it. When his cock first disappeared in my mouth, everyone clapped and for a moment I had this bizarre flashback to when I was baptized and everyone clapped for me afterwards. Well, I guess you could say I was being "baptized" again although I doubt my pastor would have approved of the method. Then again, it certainly would have been interesting if I had tried sucking his cock while we were still in the baptismal!

Pete was obviously enjoying what I was doing. Well, he damn well better as it wasn't like it was the first cock I'd ever sucked, not by a long shot! Frankly, I considered myself somewhat of an expert in the art of sucking dick and even my dad said I gave the best BJs he had ever had (although he warned me not to tell my mom or her sister!) Not only did I want to make Pete feel good, I was determined to put on a good show for the group.

As I sucked and stroked his cock he became hard as a rock and was pretty long but I took him all in my mouth and shook my head as my face was buried in his crotch with his cock down my throat. Pete shuddered with pleasure as he watched his entire cock disappear into my mouth.

"Wow! Ladies and gentlemen," he exclaimed, "Looks like we have a serious challenger for best cock sucker honors!"

Everyone started to move closer to see better as I pulled his pants down to his ankles and he stepped out of them. I felt my skirt being pulled up and when I looked over I saw it was Beth holding it by the hem! Despite all our conversations about sex, we'd never done anything together sexually so it surprised me a LOT when I felt her hand start to caress my bare ass.

With Pete's cock in my mouth I couldn't see what she was doing but I could feel her hand moving its way further down and then between my legs. Memories of my dad's hand between my legs just a little while before came to mind as her hand began to explore my pussy. She was less forceful than my father had been, almost timid like a teenage boy trying to grope me on a first date. I spread my knees apart a little to make it easier for her while I continued to work on Pete's dick.

As I played my tongue around Pete's hard cock, I found it difficult to concentrate on both Beth's hand between my legs and Pete's awesome cock between my lips. Fortunately, Pete wasn't shaved like so many guys seem to be doing lately, and I loved the feel of his thick pubic hair as my face was planted in his crotch. Meanwhile, Beth had two fingers working inside my pussy, which was soaked and crying out for more attention. Suddenly, she pulled her fingers out of me and I heard her say something to Pete.

"OK Pete, she's all wet and ready," she informed him, "It's time for Kelly to feels that monster inside of her."

Then she looked at me with a big smile, "Trust me Kelly, you're going to LOVE this cock. Pete fucked me my first time here and I STILL get soaked just thinking about it."

With that Pete pushed me back against the couch and spread my legs apart. My skirt was pulled up to my waist and Beth pulled the top down from my boobs, exposing them to everyone. She started sucking on my nipples as Pete held his cock with one hand, lining it with my pussy. It felt incredible to feel my best friend's mouth on my boobs for the first time!

A chant started in the room with people saying, "Fuck her Pete, fuck her Pete..."

My heart was racing as I looked around and saw all these people watching me. I'd never done anything remotely like this before and the anticipation building in me was overwhelming. The room was now deathly quiet as everyone held their breath and waited for Pete to put his dick in my pussy. My head was swimming as I realized I was about to be fucked by someone I'd just met less than an hour ago in front of a group of strangers. Taking a deep breath, I looked up at Pete with as sexy of a smile as I could muster.

"Well, what are you waiting for? Fuck me Pete, screw my pussy with that hard dick. C'mon dammit - fuck me!!"

Well, if THAT wasn't slutty enough for the crowd, I didn't know what more I could say. The heck with it... if they wanted a show, I was ready to give them one!

"OK, you asked for it girl!" and with that Pete pushed himself into me.

No matter how many times I've been fucked, the first time a new cock enters me is always a thrill. The feeling of my pussy being literally split open, the sensation of his dick head as it enters me and the motion of his shaft as it rubs against my pussy opening when he slides into me is beyond mere words.

If there's one thing I pride myself on it's my tight pussy. Although I've been fucked a LOT since losing my virginity five years earlier, a lot of guys think I'm practically a virgin when they first fuck me. One thing that I think helps is I don't use dildos very often, actually hardly ever. I know some girls who love to thrust these massive monsters into their pussies and then wonder why they get all stretched out after a while. The average cock is a lot smaller than most dildos, despite the fantasies of many guys, and by saving my pussy for dicks I think it has helped me to keep a nice tight pussy.

With me being so tight and Pete being so big, it was only natural that he had a little difficulty the first time that he tried to enter me, despite being as wet as I was. Even my dad, who's a lot smaller than Pete, usually has to be pretty hard to get in me at the start. Even as hard as Pete was, his cock still bent a little as he tried to force it into me.

"Damn, you sure you've done this before?" he said, taking a deep breath before trying for another round.

Beth chimed in before I could respond, saying, "Don't worry Pete, you can trust me that she's definitely done this before!"

Pete raised his eyebrows and held his cock firmly as he pushed against me again. This time he was successful as it was like my pussy just suddenly gave up and opened wide for him, allowing his head to quickly disappear inside of me. It was like when you push your finger against a balloon and it resists but then it pokes through and your finger is suddenly in except in this case my pussy didn't pop! Well, at least not physically although mentally it was almost the same as it was like a small bomb exploded between my legs as I felt his dick inside of me.

The almost hurtful pressure of him trying to violate me was instantly replaced by the most incredible feelings of pleasure as his cock continued to push into me until finally the whole thing was buried inside of my screaming pussy. He pressed the base of his hairy crotch tight up against my shaven pussy and I loved the feel of his lush pubic hair as it tickled my bare skin.

"Damn girl, you're really fuckin' tight!" Pete exclaimed as he started pumping his cock slowly in and out of me.

He took deep, long strokes - pulling out until his cock was barely in me and then back in until he was completely swallowed by my wet pussy. Slowly he fucked me, in and out as I watched him - along with everyone else including Beth! God it felt soooooo good. The fact that eighteen people were watching was making me incredibly hot, in fact much more so then I'd dreamed it might in my fantasies. I could tell from the bulges in the pants and the involuntary nipple touching that everyone else was getting hot and bothered as well as they watched Pete as he continued to fuck me.

"Yeah that's it Pete, fuck me," I said loudly, as much for the benefit of our audience as for him.

Pete was stroking me faster and faster now, banging up against me when he pushed deep into me, making my whole body bounce back into the couch. He lifted my legs up to his shoulders so he could push deeper into me. Beth was still sucking and playing with my breasts - I has a feeling that we were going to be even closer friends after tonight!

Pete looked at me and grinned, saying, "OK, just go along with me."

I wondered what he meant but I didn't have time to ponder it long as he pushed himself all the way into me and then reached out and grabbed me by the waist. I felt him pull me up and off the couch until he was standing upright with me impaled on his dick. I quickly put my arms around his neck and wrapped my legs around his hips as he repositioned his hands under my bare ass to support me.

It was incredibly erotic as he lifted me up and down on his cock, while at the same time slowly walking around the room to let everyone have a closer view. For a moment I feared that he might get tired and let go and then what would happen? I doubted his cock was enough to hold me up on its own and for an instant I had this horrible image of it bending down until I slid off, doing God only knows what to Pete! Pete didn't seem to have any problems, though, and from the practiced way he was handling me, I had a feeling I wasn't the first girl he'd done this with.

Once he'd made the rounds, showing off to everyone, Pete carefully sat down on the couch and my knees came to rest on both sides of his waist, keeping his dick inside of me the entire time.

"That's it, ride him Kelly!" I heard Beth call out to me and I looked over to where I heard her voice and saw her grinning from ear to ear as she watched.

I blew a kiss to her and started rocking on Pete's cock, driving it in and out of me in a steady rhythm. Now and then I'd sit back further and grind my hips in a tight circle around him, making his cock literally stir my pussy. It seemed that I was on some insane carnival ride that would never stop when finally Pete let out a load groan.

"Oh God... I'm gonna cum! Get down and suck my dick... Let me to cum in your mouth!"

Personally, I would've been just as happy had he cum in my pussy but then I supposed it would be a lot hotter to let everyone watch him shoot it into my open mouth so I dismounted and kneeled on the floor between his knees. I leaned forward to suck Pete's swollen cock and Pete responded by fucking my mouth, driving himself in and out of it as fast as he could.

It was all I could do to handle him as his long cock would push down into my throat each time he thrust into me, nearly causing me to gag but I was NOT going to do that, not in front of an audience! Then I felt his cock swell even more and knew he about to about to cum. I let his cock out of mouth and he told me what he wanted.

"Here it cums girl, take my load in your mouth. Show 'em what a little slut you are."

His cock was about two or three inches from my open mouth when he convulsed and a huge load of cum came streaming from his cock right into my waiting mouth. Time after time I watched as he would groan and then shoot another load at me. Damn, how much cum did he have in his balls? A few of the shots missed their mark as he didn't stay still enough for me to keep aim and I felt it running down the side of my face and one hit me in the neck and upper chest. Most of it made it to my mouth, though, and his cum pooled on my tongue while a bit of it dripped out over my lips and down my chin.

When he finally finished I turned my head to show everyone his cum in my mouth. I could only imagine what a cumslut I must have seemed to have been right then. After I gulped it down I took his sensitive cock back into my mouth and he quivered as I teased him with my tongue and lips. I sucked every drop from him as he slowly shrank down until he was limp in my mouth. Only then did I release him and sit back with a huge grin on my face.

Pete was all smiles himself as he looked around at everyone triumphantly. "Well folks, I think we can all agree that Kelly is one hell of a fuck wouldn't you say?" They all cheered in response and then he looked back at me and grinned saying, "Congratulations Kelly and welcome! Now it's time to get this party rolling!!"

4. Starting Out On My Own

Obviously everyone was horny and anxious to get started so with Pete's announcement a few immediately paired off and started right in. Beth stepped over to me gave me a quick kiss before leaving to watch another couple as they started fucking on the kitchen table - no foreplay or anything, straight to the fucking. As for me, I laid back on the couch with my eyes closed and legs apart, savoring the strong aftertaste of Pete's salty cum in my mouth. Suddenly I felt a tongue on my pussy and I looked down to see one of the girls licking me! She was a cute brunette, maybe a few years older than me at most.

"I hope you don't mind Kelly, I just love the taste of a pussy after it's just been fucked."

Well, that was a first for me. Like, what do you say to someone when they say that to you? Oh well, I just smiled and leaned back again, enjoying the moment. One thing I had to say for her, she had one talented mouth! I hadn't cum while Pete was fucking me; I guess I was too distracted by my concerns over putting on a good show for everyone. Whoever this girl was, she certainly took care of THAT remaining issue for me! Before she left, maybe to find another freshly fucked pussy, I'd cum several times and she left me exhausted.

Rather than recover by just lying on the couch, which was tempting to say the least, I slowly wandered around in a semi-daze to see what else was happening. It appeared that at any given time, about half the people or less were having sex while the others rested or watched.

One thing that surprised me was that most people were doing it one-on-one although I did see two guys double penetrating a girl in the middle of the family room floor. Maybe I'd seen too many porn flicks or heard too many stories about sex parties but I had expected there be more gang-banging, trains, or that sort of thing. I would've had a hard time calling this an orgy as that while multiple sex acts were occurring in the same place, they were fairly independent and the location only served to facilitate multiple opportunities for everyone.

For the next thirty minutes or so, maybe a little more, I remained a spectator. A few guys approached me but I politely told them maybe later. It's not that I didn't want to fuck, I was just so fascinated by the openness and, in some cases, the originality, of the sex on display. It some ways, was no different than any other party with the exception that rather than flirting and teasing, sex was just the natural outcome for everyone.

The more I watched the more clues I picked up. For instance, even though at first it seemed like a roomful of strangers, obviously most of these people knew each other as there were definite little quirks and even a hint of kinkiness with some people that wasn't always shared by others. Rather than debate or push their desires on the other person, I was impressed by the maturity and mutual respect on display. Again, definitely not what I would have expected from my preconceived notions of what a sex party would have been like.

Once I accustomed to things I began to get more involved. One couple helped break the ice for me after I watched them fucking for a while. It was sort of surreal to just sit on a couch next to two people screwing and everyone just acting like it was the most normal thing in the world. I guess it wasn't all that different from home where my dad might fuck me while my mom watched TV next to us - but that was just normal life in our family, not like I was putting on a show for my mom. It was hard to compare two people just screwing for the fun of it with my parents and me but the similarities were striking all the same.

He was about to cum when the woman turned to me and asked me if I wanted to take him in my mouth. From the looks of things, there wasn't a lot of time to debate or discuss it so I quickly moved in next to her where she held his cock while I took it in my mouth just in time for him to erupt inside. I quickly swallowed it down once he was through and sat back up, wiping my mouth with a towel she handed me.

"Thanks Kelly," she said, obviously knowing my name from the initiation ceremony, "I love sucking cock but HATE the taste of cum. From the way you took Pete's I thought you might want some more."

The guy didn't say anything and so I just left them on the couch to get something to drink. Now THAT was a bit weird to say the least. Actually, I couldn't complain as she'd done all the work and I got to enjoy the fruits of her labors! Still, I'd never been asked so casually to let someone cum in my mouth before!

Standing in the kitchen, I found a glass and ice and poured me a glass of Diet Coke. I was drinking it down slowly when I felt some hands wrap around me from behind and cradle my boobs. I was still wearing everything I'd been when the party started but it wasn't like I was the only one. Although most of the people got nude quickly, maybe a third or so still had on at least some item of clothing. I'd pulled my blouse back over my boobs after Pete had fucked me but whomever was behind me didn't let that stop him as he pulled the top back down again and started to fondle my exposed boobs. I wasn't too sure of what the protocol was for this; should I stand there and let him grope me or should I turn to see who it was and determine whether I wanted to go forward with this? In the end, I just stood there, curious as to where this would lead.

So far as I could tell, we were the only two in the kitchen. I was still holding the glass of pop in my hand as whoever it was behind me started to get a little more aggressive. His hands worked their way downward and he pulled up my skirt to start playing with my ass and pussy. As he rubbed my clit, I felt him move in closer to me and it was obvious he wasn't one of the ones wearing any clothes, at least not so far as his crotch was concerned! I could feel him pressing his hard dick into my ass crack as he lifted himself up and down to rub it between my butt cheeks. Well, if this was the way he wanted to play it was fine with me so I spread my legs apart just enough to let him know he had my approval to go further.

This guy didn't need to be told twice, that's for sure. He put his hand on my back between my shoulder blades and pushed me downward until my elbows were on the kitchen table and my ass was poking up in the air. No sooner than I had "assumed the position" than his other hand was between my legs, searching for my pussy. Once he found what he was looking for, his fingers spread me apart enough to let the head of his cock move between them and into my pussy.

The guy didn't say a word, just grunting as he quickly thrust himself forward, driving his dick deep inside of me. He wasn't nearly as big as Pete had been but then, not many guys are! His hands grasped me by my waist and he began to thrust himself in and out, pushing and pulling me at the same time in time with his strokes. As for me, all I had to do was stand there and let him go at it as he seemed content to do all the work.

It only took a few minutes before I heard him groan and his grip on my waist tightened. Without yet having said a single word, he came inside of me and I could feel his crotch ramming up against my ass with each ejaculation, as if he was trying to drive it as deep into me as he could. Apparently that was all he wanted because as soon as he'd finished himself off, he pulled his cock out of me and released his grip on my waist. I stood there for a few seconds which allowed his to start draining out of me.

Then I heard other voices in the room and when I turned around there were maybe three or four guys and a couple of girls behind me. Hmmm, which one had just fucked me? Was it even one of them at all? Nobody gave me a second glance so either someone was playing an awfully good poker face or my most recent fuck had left the room fast.

Either way, I was left standing there feeling a little divided. On the one hand, it was rather surreal to know I had just been fucked and didn't even know what he looked like, let alone his name. On the other hand, I may as well have masturbated for all the personal and emotional interaction there was. Heck, at least when I masturbate I orgasm! This guy, whoever he was, did the ol' slam-bam but without the thank-you-ma'am!

I straightened out my skirt and pulled my top back in place. After doing all that, I realized how silly it was to run around dressed when almost everyone else was naked by now.

I'd made my way to the dining room by now where a couple was going at it on the dining room table. Fortunately, it seemed to be built rather rugged instead of the more elegant style such as the set my parents had. Nobody else was watching and they weren't paying any attention to me so I stripped off my clothes quickly and laid them on a chair in the corner. I debated for a moment and then kicked off my heels as well, leaving me totally nude for the first time during the party.

5. Getting Into the Party Scene

Watching the couple fucking on the table, I took quick stock of my party experience so far. Let's see... first I was ambushed and fucked in front of a roomful of people, then I got a mouthful of cum without even sucking the guy, and now I'd been fucked again by someone I couldn't even identify in a police line-up. Put that together with seeing more sex up close and personal than I'd ever witnessed in my life, it had certainly been an interesting evening so far, to say the least.

Even so, to be honest I wouldn't have minded just a good old-fashioned fucking flat on my back laying on the floor about now. No theatrics, just me enjoying a nice hard dick in me. Normally I'm not what you would call shy, but for some reason this whole affair was a little intimidating leaving me a bit hesitant to go right out and just ASK a guy to fuck me.

Fortunately, now that I'd stripped I wasn't having any problems attracting attention. Perhaps keeping my clothes on was somehow signaling to people I wasn't ready yet as no sooner was I prancing around nude than it seemed every guy in the place, not to mention a few girls, were coming on to me. I can't say I didn't enjoy the attention although at first it was a little overwhelming.

Finally one guys just seemed to stand out from the rest (the stereotypical "alpha male"?) and the next thing I knew I was being led back into the dining room where another couple had taken the place of the one I'd been watching before. From the looks of things, they'd just started as she was laying on her stomach, sucking the cock of her partner who was standing at the edge of the table.

My guy didn't introduce himself, names didn't seem to be something folks exchanged here, but he did comment that I had a great looking body and how he'd wanted to fuck me from the moment he first saw me walk in. Not the usual compliment you get from a guy you've just met but probably one of the more honest ones I've gotten. Before I got up on the table, he asked me to suck his cock first so I kneeled down and took him in my mouth. Damn, he must have just finished fucking someone because the female scent was overpowering and I could even taste her pussy on his cock. I looked up at him and he seemed to know what I was thinking, or more likely, had anticipated it.

"Yes, I was just with someone else," he confessed, "Is that OK with you?"

Smiling broadly, I let go of his cock and stroked it as I replied, "Actually, you taste pretty damn good! Did you fuck her good?"

"Well, I was sort of hoping you would think so," he said with a bit of a smirk on his face, "It was your friend you came here with!"

Now THAT was interesting, to say the least. I'd never even touched Beth's pussy, let alone taste it, and now here I was sucking her pussy juices off a guy's cock just a few minutes after he'd fucked her. Well, at least I knew now that she tasted fantastic. For a moment, my mind wandered to thoughts of her incredible body and I wondered what her pussy would taste like straight at the source.

"Oh, so does that look mean you've never tasted her before?" the guy asked with a hint of interest in his voice. He must have seen something in my expression when he told me he had just fucked her. From the questioning tone I knew she hadn't told him or else he would have made it a statement rather than a query. I just shook my head and went back to work on his cock but he pulled me up by my shoulders instead.

"That's OK, I just wanted to see the look on your face when you found out you were licking her off of me," he said with a smile, "To be honest, I'd rather be eating YOU out."

Well, no girl in her right mind would ever turn down THAT offer so being of sound mind and body I lifted myself onto the table and scooted back until my knees were at the end and my lower legs dangled freely. The guy put his hands on my knees, spreading them further apart and then he lowered his head down to my crotch where his tongue immediately went into action.

Damn, he was pretty good! Most guys just don't get it when they lick a girl's pussy but someone had trained this man well! For the first time that evening, a GUY got me off and not just once, but twice. His face was covered with my pussy cum when he finally relented and pulled me up until I was sitting on the edge of the table.

"God you're good," I panted softly to him, my heart still racing like it was going to fly out of my chest.

"Good... so does that mean I can fuck you now?" he said with a slight grin. He had the most cutest dimples and I wanted to melt right away at his smile.

"Like, do you really have to ask?" I sighed. Did he have ANY idea of how badly I wanted to be fucked right now?

The answer was good enough for him so he helped me lay back and he lifted my legs up and over his shoulders as he move in closer to my crotch. I noticed out of the corner of my eye that the couple next to us was a step ahead as he was already fucking her as she was on her back on the table. The table wasn't all that big so they were only about a foot to the side of us but until we now we'd pretty much ignored one another. Now it was pretty hard NOT to notice her as our heads were almost touching.

Our eyes met and she grinned at me as she grunted with each thrust of the cock that was fucking her pussy. Just as I was about to say something I was rocked by a hard thrust from my own guy's cock as he shoved it roughly inside of me. Fortunately I was so wet it didn't really matter and he slid easily in me, a far cry from the efforts Pete had to go through back that first time which seemed so long ago now.

"Oh yeah," I gasped as he started to stroke himself in and out of me, "Fuck me!"

He grabbed each leg by the ankles and lifted them up off his shoulders and higher in the air over my body. It had the effect of lifting my ass up off the table, letting him drive himself even deeper with the ensuing strokes.

"Feel good?" I heard her ask next to me. I turned and saw she was looking at me with a grin on her face.

"Love it," was all I could get out in response as he slammed himself in and out of me.

"Yeah, you look like someone who loves fucking for the sake of fucking," she said.

It was a little surreal to be talking as if we were having tea instead of both of us being fucked. Besides, such an observation would hold true for most, if not all, of the girls here I would've thought. After all, this wasn't like you were making love or anything!

"Do you let them cum in you?" she asked. Another odd question but I nodded in response.

"I won't let a man cum in me until I get married," she said in an almost defiant tone.

Now there was a different spin on premarital sex. I had a roomie once who wouldn't even masturbate, claiming it was a form of premarital sex. I've had lots of friends who claimed to be "saving themselves for marriage" but until now, I had never heard a girl say it was OK to let a guy fuck her but he couldn't cum in her until they were married!

"Well, personally I LOVE it when a guy cums in me," I responded just as forcefully, letting her know where I stood on the issue.

"Hey, you two finished talking or are we just jerking ourselves off here?" complained the guy who was fucking the other girl.

Oh well, I guess he had a point. This was all impersonal enough as it was but to all but ignore them fucking us while we carried on our own little conversation WAS pushing it a bit. Turning my attention back to my guy, I looked him in the eyes as he grunted and groaned with his efforts. The guy really was trying, I'll give him that!

"So, I guess all that means you don't mind if I stay in?" he asked. I rolled my eyes and just said, "DUH!" which made him laugh a bit but he didn't miss a beat.

"That's good because here it comes!" he declared. This guy may have been a great pussy licker but I obviously staying power wasn't his strong suit. His head lifted back and he let out a long groan as he released what was the third load of cum to be deposited in me tonight so far.

"I can't believe you're letting him do that!" the girl next to me exclaimed, "And without a condom even!"

My first thought was why a girl like her would want to come to party like this but then I guess she just enjoyed being fucked and didn't care about the finale. I just smiled which wasn't hard as the feeling of his warm sperm slowly dispersing within me. The guy fucking the other girl apparently had heard enough by now.

"Hey, you never said anything about having to pull out when we started," he challenged her.

"Well, cum in her then if that's what you want," she retorted, "She's the cum slut, not me."

I almost wrenched my neck as I turned to look at her. Had I heard that right? What was she volunteering me for? Surprisingly, my guy seemed to be all in favor of it.

"You ready yet?" he asked the other guy as he pulled his dick out of me.

"Almost there," the guy replied.

"Well, you better get over here quick then," my ex-partner came back.

The other guy pulled out of her without so much as a word. He quickly moved over between my legs and without even so much as a "hello" he started fucking me. My pussy was still full of the other guy's cum but that didn't seem to bother this guy in the least. He stroked himself in and out of me for about another thirty seconds and started panting as he finally said his first words, "Oh yeah, here it come!"

He release his first couple of loads in me but then he pulled out of me and shot the rest all over my pussy and stomach. Apparently he wanted the best of both worlds - to cum IN me and ON me at the same time!

"So... are you happy now cum slut?" the girl asked.

I turned my head and saw her watching as she played with her freshly fucked pussy. At first I wasn't 100% sure if she was complimenting me or being mean but then her expressions didn't make it appear like she was being derogatory. Evidently "cum slut" was just her way of describing a girl who liked cum in her. Well, I DID like it in me so if that made me a "cum slut" in her eyes, then so be it. I grinned back at her and rubbed my pussy as he had withdrawn as soon as he had finished himself off and I still hadn't orgasmed.

I was so horny by now it didn't take much to finish myself. The guys watches as both of us masturbated on the table for all to watch. I didn't mind at all as I've always loved to be watched when I masturbate. It gets me off on a date to see the expression on a guy's face when I start playing with myself unexpectedly.

She came shortly after I did and the two of us looked each other in the eyes as we finished. She was actually quite pretty and so a thought came to mind.

"Hey, do you like to eat pussy with cum in it?" I asked her as a shot in the dark, remembering the other girl I'd met earlier.

"What the hell? Just what kind of girl do you think I am?" she said with a sharp tone and I feared I'd gone a little too far and offended her but then she giggled and added, "Some sort of prude?"

With that she got up and off the table and while the two guys watched, she licked every drop of the cum from my pussy and off my belly, swallowing it down as if it was the sweetest candy she'd ever tasted. Hmmm, so who was really the cumslut here?.

"I may have said that I didn't let guys cum in my cunt but I never said I didn't LIKE cum," she said mischievously when she finally came up for air, "I just said I didn't want it in my pussy until I'm married. It's just I believe a girl should save herself for marriage."

Wow, and people think I have some strange beliefs and morals! I wonder how many guys would agree that she's saved themselves for them?

Well, for the second time that night a girl had followed up and finished off what a guy had started. Sure my guy had made me cum BEFORE he fucked me, but like most guys, once he was in me then it was all about him. There's a reason it's called screwing - the girls gets screwed while the guy gets off!

Once my new friend had cleaned every drop from my pussy, she and I kissed briefly and I could taste the complex flavors of the various mixtures of sperm and pussy cum on her mouth and tongue. It was interesting, like I was some kind of wine connoisseur trying to determine the vintage of a fine wine.

No sooner had we finished than another guy approached me and asked to fuck me. Well, at least he asked! I didn't even give it a second thought this time but rather just dropped to my knees like a good slut and started sucking him off. Who knows how long this cycle might have repeated had I been left on my own but suddenly I felt a firm hand on my shoulder.

"C'mon Kelly, that's about enough for one night!" she said to me with a hint of amusement in her voice. "You can't fuck them all the first night you know!"

Despite what Beth may have thought, I've no doubt I COULD have been fucked by every guy there had there been enough time. With this being my "first time" it seemed that Beth was feeling a bit motherly. Ignoring her, I started to go back to the cock but Beth finally literally pulled me away from him and reiterated her desire to leave.

"C'mon girl, I really think you've had enough cock for one night!" she said.

I still wasn't so certain about that - can a girl EVER have too much cock? Still, she was my best friend and sometimes you have to sacrifice for your best friend so I got up to go along with her. Gathering my clothes from the chair in the dining room, we made our way to the bathroom to dress and wash up a bit before saying goodbye to Pete. He kissed me and whispered in my ear that he would love to fuck me again before we left but Beth somehow overheard him (or she knew what he would say to me from past experience?) and she grabbed me by the arm and pulled me to the door.

On the way home neither Beth or I said much to one another. For me, I was too consumed with the memories of sucking that guy's cock with her pussy cum still on it and I couldn't help but look over at her and wish I could taste the real thing. Did she know I'd sucked him right after he had fucked her?

When we reached my house Beth finally turned to me and said softly, "Well Kelly, I KNOW you had a good time tonight so I won't bother asking if you want to go again sometime. I AM curious though... would you like to get together some time for a more... 'personal' evening?"

Wow! That was the boldest that Beth had ever been with me so far as sex goes and for a moment I was uncertain how to reply, even after all that had happened tonight. Of course I wanted to be with her so I kissed her with a grin and a wink and then walked back to my house. We waved to each other and I couldn't help but wonder what would have happened had I invited her in. Well, I had a pretty good idea anyways.

6. Back Home After the Party

I had to pass by my parent's bedroom to get to mine and as I did I saw that they were still awake and watching TV together in bed. My dad must have heard me come in as he was the one to call out to me.

"Hey Kelly, that you? Back already from the party?"

I stood in the doorway and smiled. My dad grinned and asked, "So tell us, how many guys fucked my little girl tonight?"

Leave it to my dad to ask such a question. He was so cool! Despite myself I couldn't stop this huge grin from appearing on my face and then I reached over to kiss him.

"Oh daddy, It was fantastic, better than I ever imagined it could be. I've never experienced anything quite like it."

I started to turn to leave but then twisted back around again and stated, "And for the record - three."

"Oh?... Only three?" he repeated, actually sounding as if he was a bit disappointed in me.

"Well, I DID suck more than that and besides, it wasn't my fault. It would have been a lot more if Beth hadn't insisted I quit and come home with her.

"Well, since you ONLY did three guys I'd hate for you to have to go to bed unsatisfied," he hinted at me.

My mom laughed and slapped him playfully. "Oh John, you horny son of bitch, so fucking me tonight wasn't enough for you? You sure you can get it up again for her?"

My dad tried to look innocent, as if it wasn't his fault, "I think with her help I can. Besides, this isn't about me Mary, our daughter NEEDS me."

My mom rolled her eyes at that one. She and I both knew who needed what. She wasn't buying my dad's line for a minute but she knew the inevitable when she faced it, although she wasn't going to let my dad get his way without giving him at least a hard time about it.

"Yeah, it's all just to help out Kelly - what a crock!" she teased him. The she looked at me and rolled her eyes in a big circle before saying, "Well, get those clothes off and let your horny father fuck you so we can all get some sleep tonight."

Well, to make a long story short, by the time I went to bed I had a pussy full of my dad's cum. It was a valuable lesson for me as well. I learned that as hot as it was going to a sex party and getting fucked, I still love fucking my dad in front of my mom best of all.

memories I'll always treasure. It makes me feel sexy and special as only a father who truly loves and respects his daughter would ever do such things.

Family traditions can start in many ways. We have our Christmas traditions, birthdays and anniversaries, Mothers and Fathers Days and such which most people have. This particular "tradition" began the summer I returned home after my first year away at college.

Although I loved school, being away from my dad for so long had been a tough adjustment for both of us. What I didn't know was that he'd started fucking my younger cousin Kristi shortly after I left for school so he hadn't been nearly as bad off as I thought he'd been. Even so, I know he missed having his own daughter sit on his lap with his stiff cock pushing deep in her teenage pussy. If there was one advantage I held over everyone else in the world, I was the only one who could say, "Fuck me daddy" and really mean it!

It all started a couple of weeks into my summer break. One morning I was sound asleep when I felt something tickling my nose and cheeks. My mind was cloudy with sleep and I didn't even want to open my eyes so I tried to brush whatever it was away with my hand. Well, you can imagine my surprise when I realized it wasn't just an itch or pesky insect but instead it was my dad's hard cock rubbing up against my face.

Surprised, to say the least, I tried to open my eyes but all I could see through the slits was the vague form of my naked father standing next to my bed. He evidently hadn't gotten dressed yet as he was till nude from being in bed (neither my parents or me wore anything to bed normally) and he was sporting an incredible hard-on!

"Open your mouth baby," he said softly to me, "I want you to take it."

Without even really thinking about what he was asking, I obediently opened my mouth wide and soon felt his dick slip between my lips and then the head moved into my mouth. At that point my natural female instincts took over and I began to suck on his cock like a hungry baby on a full bottle.

I don't know how long he'd been standing there stroking himself as he looked down at me sleeping, but it must have been quite a while at least as he was already on the verge of cumming. In fact, apparently all he needed was the additional coaxing of my wet tongue on him to set him off and almost as soon as he was in my mouth he unloaded and his warm cum burst from his dick into my mouth. Laying on my side, the cum collected in my cheek but the first two shots hit the back of my throat and were threatening to make me choke or gag.

As soon as he finished I let his cock from my mouth and leaned up on one arm to make it easier to swallow. It took a few gulps but finally it was clear of my mouth and once I felt better I dropped my head back down on the pillow and closed my eyes, a satisfied grin on my face. My dad ran his fingers through my hair gently, something he knew I loved.

"Mmmmmmm Kelly... now that's the way a good daughter SHOULD say goodbye to her dad in the morning," he whispered to me as he kissed me on the cheek.

Despite being suddenly super horny, I was so tired still that I just nodded back off again and when I awoke later, if it hadn't been for the distinct aftertaste of cum in my mouth I would've sworn that the entire thing had been nothing more than a wonderful dream.

My dad didn't say anything about our morning time when he came home later that night, not even a wink to me. I figured it must've been just him being extra horny that morning and he needed someone to take care of him so who better to do so than his loving daughter? My mom was NOT a morning person whatsoever and of all the times I'd heard them making love, I can't hardly remember any being first thing in the morning.

2. The Second Time

The next morning I was having the strangest dream about a stranger fucking me from behind in the middle of a crowded mall. When I woke up with my eyes tightly shut, it was like I was awake but the dream hadn't stopped - or was I still sleeping with some surreal dream still playing? As the fog lifted from my mind, I realized that I really WAS being fucked from behind and that indeed, it was no dream at all!

Someone was nestled up behind me as I lay on my side and had lifted my leg up enough and over theirs to get his dick inside of me! I'd gone to bed late the night before thanks to a movie I wanted to finish but I hadn't thought I'd be so tired the next morning that I wouldn't know it when a guy started fucking me! There was no doubt who it was. After all, who else would be in my bed in the morning fucking me?

Turning my head, I looked over my shoulder to see my loving father smiling back at me.

"Morning baby," he said cheerfully, never missing a beat as he stroked his dick in and out of me slowly but deliberately. It was if he was greeting me for breakfast or something, as if this was the most natural way for a girl to wake.

"Daddy, what are you doing?" I whined just little.

It wasn't that he was hurting me or anything – quite the opposite if anything. It was just that I still hadn't quite woken up enough to fully comprehend all that was happening. It was like I was still half in my dream except now I realized much of it hadn't been a dream in the first place.

"Sorry baby, I just couldn't help myself," my dad replied, "You looked so damn sexy lying there I just had to fuck you. I was really trying not to wake you."

Was he serious? Did he really think he could fuck me and then leave without ever waking me? Admittedly, it would have been erotic as hell to wake up and feel his sperm dripping from me and not remember any of it, but that's not what happened nor was it reasonable to expect it. Instead, I awoke to find my own father drilling my pussy with his own personal oil rig. For the moment all I could do was lay there like a wet rag – well, at least I was wet at one particular location!

All the while my dad never stopped fucking me and I was finally beginning to wake up enough to enjoy what he was doing to me when I heard him groan and then he came in me. My heart skipped a beat, as it always does when my dad cums in me, when I felt him releasing himself deep inside of me.

When a boyfriend or anyone else cums inside of me, for me it's all about the pleasurable feelings it gives me, not to mention avoiding the mess that would've been created had he squirting it all over me instead.

By contrast, when my dad cums in me it's an entirely different experience for me. Of course it feels good as physically it's no different being fucked by him than anyone else, but an entirely different emotional element is also present. It's really hard to describe but in a way, it's like my father is mating me. Before you get the wrong idea, I don't mean anything kinky like he was trying to get me pregnant (I would NEVER want to get pregnant with my dad), it's the symbolism of the act that I'm referring to, where the male dominates the female and leaves his seed behind inside of her.

Another way of looking at it is that for me, when anyone else cums inside of me from my perspective it's done out of his own selfishness. Face it, it's not like we're married trying for a child, it's just another horny guy getting off using my pussy. The only reason I allow him to do it in the first place is that I love it myself so in essence, we are both using the other for our personal pleasure. I don't buy the crap that some guys expect me to believe where they claim to want to please the girl more than himself. As I said, if people are truly honest they admit that the truth – that we are both are doing it to satisfy our own needs, not the other's.

Such is NOT the case when I'm with my dad having sex; it's entirely different. When I'm with him, sex becomes an expression of the love and respect between a father and his daughter where their bodies join as one and he gives her the most intimate gift.

Again, don't get ahead of me and start thinking anything too weird here. I'm NOT trying to imply that I'm my father's lover nor would I ever say that we make love together (making is love is something he only does with my mom, he fucks me). I don't know how to describe it any better than that as it's something special that only a father and daughter can truly understand.

When I give myself to my dad, it is an act of submission that I have never, and will never, give to anyone else, not even my husband (I expect to be an equal partner with him unless we are role playing!). I guess you could say I'm sacrificing myself in an emotional way to him, giving him the satisfaction and joy that comes from taking his daughter completely in body and spirit, from me allowing him to totally dominate me and have his way with me.

Well, enough of that. Just suffice to say that I can never get enough of my dad cumming in me! No sooner than he was finished, though, he said that he had to get ready for work, leaving me alone and terribly horny in my bed. There was no way I could go back to sleep now, not with his fresh cum draining out of me and my pussy throbbing like it had a heartbeat of its own!

As I heard my dad taking a shower I laid on my back and played with my clit, enjoying the slipperiness created by his cum that he'd so graciously left behind. I masturbated furiously until I finally came and then turned back on my side and cupped my warm crotch in my hand, feeling it pulsing underneath my palm. Not long afterwards, my dad came out of the bathroom and entered my room again where he leaned over and kissed me gently on my cheek.

"Kelly... I just want you to know that I loved fucking you this morning," he whispered in my ear, "You're the best daughter a father could ask for."

"Hmmmmmm... I think somebody likes her daddy waking her up this way in the morning," he teased me as his rigid dick moved in and out of me in a continuous rhythm.

"Oh daddy, don't be so silly!" I giggled like a little schoolgirl, "You know you can do anything to me ANYTIME you want."

My dad was panting as he kept fucking me but he still managed to say, "I know... that's what makes you such a great daughter!"

His strokes were now long and at a steady pace, like a marathon runner who had established his rhythm. Each time he would pull out until only his head was in me where he would hesitate just long enough to tease me and then push it back into me with a steady, deliberate motion. When our bodies met and he was completely engulfed by my pussy, he would again hold himself there for just a moment, grinding his hairy crotch against my bare pussy in a circular motion, and then just as deliberately pull back out of me again. It was enough to drive me crazy with desire. God I loved to be fucked this way!

He needed to be in me deeper so I pulled my legs in until my feet were flat on the bed with my knees up and then I spread my legs apart as far as I could so he could push himself in between them more easily. My entire bed rocked slightly when we met, pushing me up onto the bed just a little more each time each time until after a while he would lean back on his knees and pull me back down again, then leaning over me again and resume fucking me again.

"Damn your fucking pussy feels so good," he whispered hoarsely to me, "Oh Kelly... I can't hold back much longer."

"Cum in me daddy," I pleaded, "Oh daddy, PLEASE cum in me."

As I mentioned, I loved it when he came in me any time but this was my favorite position - missionary style, at least when I'm with my dad. With other guys I enjoy being on top as well as it gives me more control over how I'm getting fucked. However, when I'm with my dad I love it best when he pins me down on the bed beneath him, driving his incestuous cock in and out of my pussy however he wishes, holding my arms down behind my head as I submit to his will. It wasn't that he was forcing me to do anything or even worse, raping me, not by ANY means do I mean to infer THAT. Even so, I did like to feel dominated by him where I'm powerless to do anything to stop him, even if I had wanted to (which I never did!).

Never in my wildest dreams could I even imagine allowing myself to submit to any other man like this. He was my father, the man I trusted more than anyone else in the world, and it was a like a public demonstration of that trust when I gave myself to him.

"Oh yeah baby, here it comes," my dad groaned, "I'm cumming inside of you... can you feel it Kelly?"

Indeed I could! How could I NOT feel his cock as it shot out stream after stream of hot cum into me, spewing his seed into my pussy? Each time he erupted I could feel this sensation... like a warm blossom of heat in me that quickly died away, only to be followed by another and yet another. Each time I could picture his cock deep inside of me, pumping its load of sperm deep inside of me. It may have been a futile attempt to mate me as I was on the pill, but as they say, it's the thought that counts.

"Yes daddy... yes, I can feel you cumming in me," I moaned, "Tell me you love me daddy... Tell me how much you love me!"

"Oh baby, you know I love you," he said softly, as if he was caressing me with his words, "I could never do this to you if I didn't."

"I know daddy... I understand... I really do," I replied in a voice that barely could be heard.

For the next couple of minutes we just stayed together, neither of us saying anything, just a father and daughter enjoying being together - in more ways than one! Then he kissed me, long and passionately. Finally he was done and he pulled what remained of his limp cock from me. For just a moment I felt this incredible sense of emptiness and loneliness, as if a part of me had been amputated. At that moment I would've given anything for him to change his mind and pushed his cock back into me again, even if just to leave it still in me. Even if he was mostly soft it would still be better than this horrible feeling of emptiness I felt between my legs and in my heart. It wasn't to be so as he carefully got off of me and climbed out of my bed and went off to shower.

As much as I'd loved him fucking me, it was over so quick I didn't orgasm. It's not like I was disappointed or upset as that often happened even when I'm incredibly horny and loving what's happening to me. It's as if I am concentrating so hard on him and what he is doing to me that I don't allow myself to get off was well. This left it up to me to finish myself off but that was fine with me. It wasn't my dad's fault; I knew he had to get to work and so he couldn't stay with me any longer. Besides, there was always the evening when he usually made sure I was satisfied before he left me.

As my fingers played over my clit and pushed into my pussy, I dreamed of joining him in the shower, sucking his wet dick as the water streamed over me. I knew he needed to get to work or I might have been tempted to make that dream come true! It wouldn't have been fair of me to do that. If I went into the shower now I knew that he would never refuse me; but then he would have been late to work and I didn't want to cause him any trouble. He WAS the senior partner but that also meant he had to set an example for the associates and other partners.

It didn't take much to bring myself to orgasm after the incredible fucking my dad had given me. I cried out softly as I felt the fire erupt inside me as my back arched and legs tensed in response to the wonderful feelings of pleasure that passed all over my body. It was like my pussy was a volcano, spewing out lava that covered my entire body except instead of molten rock, it was the heat of lust and passion that consumed me. I imagined my father being in me know, my pussy clamping down on his cock as my orgasm surged and threatened to overwhelm me. As it slowly died down, I heard my dad open the bathroom door and I looked up to see him enter my room once again.

"Well, well... I see you managed to take care of yourself," he said with a grin, "I promise to make up for it later - OK?"

I just nodded and smiled, knowing he always kept these type of promises! Once again, he kissed me and left to leave but at the door he turned around and smiled at me once again.

"Did I ever tell you that you were the most wonderful daughter in the world?" he asked, his grin telling me he already knew the answer. I just blushed and smiled at him as he left to get dressed.

4. Talking It Over With My Mom

Later that morning my mom was home as she had started working a new shift that day. As we were eating breakfast, she gave me an odd look.

"So Kelly, tell me... did your dad fuck you this morning before he went to work?" she asked.

"Ummmmm, yeah," I replied, uncertain as to where this was going so I tried to downplay it as much as possible. "It was pretty quick though, he had to catch the 'T'."

"I see... well, I just thought I heard something this morning," she mused. She took a another drink from her coffee cup and seemed to be thinking hard about something before she finally looked back at me and asked, "And just how long has THIS been going on?"

Now I was really curious as to what she was leading up to. I knew my mom pretty well and I knew when she was setting up the pins. The question was, when would she roll the ball and try to knock them down? I chose my words carefully for my reply.

"It's only been the last few days. I don't know for sure whether he's going to do it every morning from now on or not. You know how he is sometimes, it may just be a phase he's going through."

The way my mom rolled her eyes made me wonder whether I'd helped or just made things worse. Actually, I had a pretty good feeling that my dad was enjoying his morning wake-up calls so my expectations were that he would be doing it again soon.

"Yeah, he's something else, isn't he," she said, shaking her head slowly, "I mean, he's always been the type that wakes up horny - must be where you get it from, certainly not me! I just don't get off doing it that early in the day - never have. I need two cups of coffee before I do ANYTHING in the morning, let alone sex."

She paused to take another sip from her cup. I still wasn't sure what to say as it seemed everything I had said so far just made things worse. Then she chuckled softly, as if a funny thought had come to her mind.

"Sorry, I guess I just don't understand him sometimes. Since we've been married he's jerked off in the bathroom in the morning, usually after he shaves and before he showers. You guys have been fooling around for years now so what took him so long to come up with this idea? Why now?"

"You don't mind, do you mom?" I asked, worried that she might be upset or something for some reason. I was totally confused as normally she never said much of anything about my dad and me, even when we did it right in front of her. Why this was any different, especially since she was sleeping at the time anyway?"

"Oh no, sweetie - don't worry," she assured me, putting her hand on mine, "I guess I just wish sometimes he would discuss things with me before he just goes off and does it, especially when it involves sex with you"

That was all she said about the matter for the rest of the day and I figured she was over with it, that is, until my dad came home and we were seated around the table eating supper. In the middle of the meal, right out of the blue my mom looked at my dad and gave him a bit of a smirk, the kind someone gives when they know a secret and someone else doesn't.

"So John, anything new you want to tell me?" she asked. My dad looked at her with a puzzled look and then at me. I just shrugged and I could tell from the look on his face that he knew what my mom was referring to but he still played it dumb.

"Umm, not anything I know of dear," he replied, "A little help maybe?"

My mom huffed in mock exasperation. I'd seen them play out this little game before when my mom knew something about my dad and he wouldn't admit it until he was faced with indisputable evidence. My mom evidently wasn't in the mood to play, though, so she pointed a finger at me and confronted him.

"Give me a break, John, I know you've been fucking Kelly every morning lately," she declared.

My dad looked at me with a "what have you been telling her look" but wasn't ready to give in yet as he shrugged his shoulders and replied, "Yeah... so is that a problem or something?"

My mom let out a deep breath in exasperation. "Well, you could have at least TOLD me. I AM your wife you know."

My dad put down his fork and looked at her solemnly. "Now Mary, you know I love you and you've never had an issue with me and Kelly before. What's the big deal this time?"

"Nothing really, you know I've never been concerned about that, so long as we always discussed it and were up front with it," she said softly, "I just wish you'd talked about it first rather than hiding it from me."

"Mary, I wasn't hiding anything!" my dad protested, "You were sound asleep and I just didn't want to wake you. Besides, since when do I have to tell you every time I do Kelly?"

My mom closed her eyes as if to concentrate her thoughts and then she smiled and perked up a bit.

"I guess you're right, I didn't mean to overreact or anything," she said apologetically. She leaned over the table and kissed my dad. Thank god that was over!

"So tell me one thing," she continued, just as I thought the conversation was over. Usually whenever they reached the "kiss and makeup stage", that ended whatever they were arguing over. "So is this going to a new morning tradition for you two?"

trusted my father completely and I felt so secure knowing that I could offer myself to him in that way, letting him use me for his pleasure in any way he desired while I was totally at his mercy.

Sometimes when I masturbated I would think of him reaching between my thighs to spread them apart, revealing my bare pussy as I slept. Climbing over me, he guides his cock while spreading my pussy lips apart with the same hand. Ever so slowly he enters me, pushing himself into me as slowly as he could, trying not to wake me.

Sometimes I would moan as even in my sleep my body reacted to his cock. Usually this is when I would wake up and as the haze of sleep lifted I would realize what he was doing and inevitably he would see a big smile on my face since it was impossible for me to do anything else when he was fucking me. If he managed to get his cock completely in me until his crotch was pushing up tight against mine without his cock in between us without waking me, odds were pretty good he could then fuck me without waking me, which was a huge turn on for him.

Later I would wake and feel my pussy all wet with his cum draining from me and grin as I knew he had managed to do something few fathers ever get to experience, fucking his daughter in her sleep. He told me once how much that turned him on and how he would have to masturbate in his office later that day thinking about it.

Instead of fucking my pussy when I was asleep, sometimes he would try to get his cock in my mouth instead. This was a bit trickier (not to mention dangerous) in that he had to get my mouth open wide enough for his erect cock to fit in without my teeth hurting him. To be honest, he was only successful a few times as usually the touch of him on my lips was enough to wake me. Not that he would be disappointed because I would still suck him off but the challenge was to get his cock in my mouth without waking me.

Even the few times he was able to do so, the touch of his head against the back of my throat woke me every time except once. That one time I was very tired from having been out to late the night before and waking me was not going to happen very easily. He told me later how thrilling it was for him to fuck my mouth while I was sound asleep, seeing himself moving in and out of me while I just laid there completely at his mercy. He didn't cum in my mouth because he didn't want me to choke so instead he came all over my face. I awoke a while later after his cum had dried on my face. Although I was happy he'd cum on me in my sleep, I didn't realize that he had also fucked my mouth for the first time until he came home that night so horny he took me in the hallway as soon as he got in the door! He said he had thought all day about it and when he told me what he had done, I just hugged him and told him I loved him and was so happy to please him.

As you might expect, my dad didn't fuck me every morning; sometimes he didn't even touch me. There were those times when he would uncover me and just watch me as I slept, admiring my tanned nineteen year-old body. Then he would masturbate as he stood over me, eventually cumming on my face or other parts of my body so that when I woke up later I was greeting with his cum as a calling card of his visit. Feeling his dried cum on me, I would know what had happened and my thoughts that day would be of him stroking his cock while he stared at me. What girl wouldn't be thrilled knowing that just looking at her was enough to make her dad cum!

NOTE: Our "tradition" has lived on ever since although over time it has become less regular. Maybe it's because I'm getting older and the naughty thrill of fucking a 21 year-old as she sleeps isn't the same as it was when I was a nineteen year-old teenager but somehow I doubt this is the reason.
More likely, I think, is that it is just part of the natural evolution of our sexual relationship (including the fact he is getting into his forties). For that matter, who knows and really, does it matter? I can only hope that our little "tradition" continues in some form for a long time!

(Jun 05) Chapter 54: Second Sex Party, Unemotional Sex

Story codes: F-solo MF group exhib inc father daughter
Me (19)
John - my dad (39)

My last sex party had turned out pretty well, especially when you consider that it was my first one. Now that I no longer the "new girl", it was time to see what other opportunities awaited me. What I found was that while casual sex with people you don't know can be physically enjoyable, there is also something important that is missing. Any ideas?

1. Sweet Memories

Until this summer I'd never been involved in any sort of group sexual activity outside my family. Even that's a little misleading since it's not like our family typically engages in wild orgies or anything like that. It's just that outside my family I've always had a tendency to stick with single partners.

That all changed when my best friend Beth invited me to a private sex party a few weeks after I got home from college for my first summer break. Needless to say, it was a new experience for me starting right off at the beginning. When we arrived I was informed that since it was my first time I would be required to take part in an "initiation ceremony". Well, the so-called "ceremony" turned out to be nothing more than an excuse for that night's host to be the first guy to fuck me - and in front of everyone else at that.

Before the party was over, I was fucked a couple more times by guys whose names I didn't even know. I'd had sex with guys I didn't know all that well before but to do it with a total stranger and know NOTHING about them was a new experience for me.

While all of this was incredibly sensual, for me the most erotic part of the evening was having sex while being watched by strangers. My mom liked to watch my dad fuck me and while that's always been a turn-on for me, doing it in front of a bunch of people I'd never met before was yet another entirely new and different experience.

Later, after I'd had some time to reflect on what I did at the party, I found myself questioning whether or not I wanted to do it again. Even though I'd blown nearly every boy who dated me and even let some of them fuck me on a first date, was having anonymous sex with multiple partners in front of people I didn't know crossing some sort of fuzzy moral line?

The numbers alone were enough to raise a red flag. During the entire four years I was in high school, despite my reputation I'd only been fucked by a total of eight guys and here in one night three of them did me. I wouldn't argue if someone called me a teenage slut given that I long ago lost count of the number of cocks I have sucked. If anything, I'm sort of proud of the title as it identifies me as someone who enjoys having sex - primarily for my own enjoyment, but also to please others as well. The more I thought about my actions at the party though, the more I wondered if I wasn't going from being a slut to becoming almost a whore. Granted, I wasn't paid anything, but the fact I just allowed myself to be used by anyone who wanted me was not the same as putting out for a cute guy on a date.

Don't get me wrong, I don't regret for a minute going to the party because otherwise I would've always wondered what it would've been like. However, when Beth called me to ask if I wanted to go to a second party, well just say I was a bit reluctant but in the end I decided to go. At least this time I knew what to expect and besides, as much as it made me feel a bit dirty, there were a few things I wanted to try that I hadn't done the first time around. I guess you could say curiosity and horniness won out over self-image! To ease my conscious, I rationalized that I was only doing this for the experience and not to establish a new lifestyle.

Unlike the first party, this time there wasn't a sense of angst over what to wear as I knew what was expected. I had quickly learned that the key was accessibility - no sense in fooling around making it hard for the guy to get to me. After all, it wasn't like I was going out on a date where I was planning to tease a boy, making him work just to get a feel, and then MAYBE put out.

In any case, it really didn't matter what I wore as I most likely wouldn't be wearing it for very long once things got rolling. At my first party I wore my hair back in a simple pony tail and as things turned out, it was a great decision. It was so much easier not having to worry about brushing it out of my face all night while I was sucking the guys. It also had the added benefit of making it easier for people to watch me sucking the guy's dick.

The evening of the party finally arrived and the closer the clocked ticked towards the time, the more my doubts and concerns faded away as my horniness level skyrocketed. My pussy was already so wet from dreaming about the events to come that I decided to take a hot bath instead of my usual shower. Shower massagers can do the trick when you're in a hurry but nothing beats a warm bath when you're horny as hell with nobody else to take care of you.

As the tub filled I laid on my back and moved up to the faucet with my legs spread to allow the falling water to strike directly on my pussy. The heavy stream of water cascaded off my clit and I could feel the water running down between my pussy lips. God it felt so damn good to feel the warm water massaging me!

Closing my eyes, I started to reminisce about the events of the first party. As the new girl the host, Pete, had fucked me in front of everyone to start things off. As much a shock that had been for me (Beth hadn't bothered telling me about that little detail when she invited me), what really surprised me was when Beth started to suck my boobs while Pete was ramming himself deeper into me with every stroke. My fingers played over my wet clit and a soft moan escaped from me as I felt myself cum, just like I had when Pete was fucking me. I let out another moan, louder this time, as the intensity of my orgasm grew like a fire burning and spreading through my entire body.

2. My Dad Interrupts

My eyes were shut tight while I was cumming and my moans were so loud that I didn't realize anyone else was in the room until I heard a chuckle next to me.

"Damn Kelly, you must really be dreaming of something good! Mmmmmmm, I just love watching my little girl masturbate. You know, from the looks and sound of things I bet you could use the real thing about now; what do you say?"

Naturally I was a bit surprised to be interrupted so I opened my eyes and there standing over me was my dear old dad, stroking his hard dick just inches from my face. He was really hard and just as horny which was just the way I liked him to be when he looked at me this way since it was proof that I was turning him on. In such a situation no words from me were necessary. Face it, it wasn't like I didn't know what he wanted!

day. Instead, now that I was finished I found myself even hornier than ever thanks to my dad's little intervention. It seemed that all I could think about was how many more cocks would be cumming in my mouth before the night was over!

After I dried off and fixed my makeup, I got dressed and with no time to spare as it turned out. Just as I was going down the stairs I heard Beth honking so I quickly went to the kitchen where both of my parents were sitting and to give each a kiss goodbye.

My dad couldn't resist a quick squeeze on my ass under my skirt and then his hand moved between my legs and explored between my bare pussy lips as he kissed me long and hard. Finally, he leaned back, looked at my nipples that were already poking through the thin blouse I was wearing, and grinned like a mischievous teenage schoolboy.

"Hey girl, aren't you missing something under that outfit?"

I pretended to be shocked at his comment and protested, "Daddy! You know perfectly well I never wear them! I don't even wear panties to church so why would I wear them tonight?"

I felt his finger press against me and work its way just inside of my pussy. I couldn't help but squirm a bit and my mom looked over the table to see what was going on.

"Oh John, leave the poor girl alone for crying out loud. You don't want her to be late, do you."

My dad pushed it even further into me, as if daring my mom to stop him.

"OK, so maybe that was bad wording on my part," my mom said to him, shaking her head in mock disbelief. She got up and moved over next to me. She reached under my skirt and pulled his hand out and then sucked on the finger that was wet from my pussy juices. She reached out to my dad's crotch and started to rub his obvious hard-on through his pants.

"Why don't we say goodbye to Kelly and let her go have her fun while we have some fun of our own?" she asked seductively.

My dad grinned and started to unzip his pants. Suddenly it was if I wasn't even there so I just rolled my eyes and headed to the door. My last view as I closed it behind me was my mom sucking my dad's cock. Well, I hoped they would have a good time while I was gone!

3. The Party Gets Started

I ran down the sidewalk get to Beth's car. I tried to open the door but she had it locked still so I pounded on the window and she stuck her tongue out at me but at the same time hit the button and unlocked it for me. I got in the front seat and Beth drove off.

"So what was THAT all about?" I asked, the first thing to come to my mind.

Beth explained it was her parent's new car and she still hadn't figured out the automatic door locks. We both laughed and then she gave me the once-over.

"Well Kelly, are you ready more this time than you were the last time I picked you up for one of these?"

I gave her a wicked grin and replied, "You better believe it girl. Tonight I plan to REALLY have a good time."

Beth cocked her head and grinned back saying, "Well, you seemed to have a pretty good time at the last one so I can only imagine what's up your sleeve this time!"

We both laughed again and it wasn't long before we arrived at the house where the party was being held this time. It was in a completely different part of town than the last one so I imagined there would be a different host. I guess that meant if there was a new girl this time that I wouldn't be seeing the guy who did me for my initiation in action.

Nobody answered the door right away so we just walked in. Once inside, there was no doubt we were in the right place judging from the people who were already there. I recognized only a couple of people from the last party; almost everyone else was new which was fine with me. After all, that was the whole point of all of this, to have the thrill of being fucked by someone you didn't know, someone who you probably wouldn't even know their name when the night was over. Someone just to enjoy for the evening and then never have to worry about again.

While the best part of a party like this was the anonymity, the worst part was also the anonymity. It's hard to get very emotional when a guy fucks you with all the passion and concern he would give a plastic sex doll. I often say I enjoy casual sex as having sex for the sake of sex is fun. This was going too far in that it was 100% sex for the sake of sex whereas most casual sex I have been involved in included SOME emotional element - a husband cheating on his wife, a new guy trying to get in my pants, public daring, and so on.

Here I had no feelings whatsoever for the guy doing me, it was just me getting laid in some manner I had never been before which was all I got from it. Granted, that wasn't ALL bad - not by any means. After all, if I hadn't gone to the last one I would never have been fucked by a stranger in front of eighteen other people!

As I said, this time I wasn't the new girl so there were no surprises like being told I had to undergo an initiation. Fortunately there WAS another girl who was there for the first time. Her friend that had brought her introduced her and I watched closely as she whispered something in the new girl's ear. Knowing how I'd felt when Beth broke the news to me about having to be initiated, I knew exactly what was going through her mind when her jaw dropped and her eyes grew like small saucers. A look of panic came over her and for a moment I was sure she was going to bolt - like a real-life version of a runaway bride.

Her friend and the host tried to calm her down and gradually she stopped shaking. Apparently she had never been fucked in front anyone before, let alone a crowded room of strangers. At least I'd been watched by other people before so it hadn't been quite as big a shock to me as it seemed to be for her.

I had to say, though, that she showed spirit along with a positive attitude so once the idea grew on her, in the end she took to it like she had done it all her life. Once things got started it was if she forgot all about her audience and fucked him so hard I was soaking wet by the end of it watching her obvious enjoyment of it all. In fact, if she didn't have a huge orgasm in the middle of it all she was a better faker than me!

As she was wiping his cum from her face (unlike me she obviously didn't mind letting a guy spray it all over her), it was time for the party to get started.

4. Enjoying the Party

Lo and behold it wasn't even two seconds until the guy next to me was putting his hands up my skirt and groping my boob! Nothing like getting right to the point! He'd come in during the middle of the initiation "ceremony" and I was too focused on what was happening in front of me to take much notice of him when he sat down next to me.

I turned to look at him and saw a good looking guy probably about thirty or so. He appeared to be in great shape and obviously worked out but without getting that muscle- bound look that some guys seemed to think made them look sexy (not!). His head was shaven and I suspected it was due more to pre-mature balding than fashion judging from the hint of a receding hairline. The thing that captivated me wasn't the muscles in his arms or the solid jaw though; it was his eyes that mesmerized me. They were bright blue, almost like neon lights, and I swore there was a twinkle there that helped to soften the rather clumsy fondling moves he was making.

Actually, I was a little surprised as at his age I would have thought he'd been a little more "experienced" in his moves. Although young guys are fun given their quick recovery and enthusiasm, I've always been drawn to older guys. Maybe it because I am so much younger than they are, or maybe I remind them of their daughter or niece; whatever it is they treat me with more respect and seem to be more concerned about meeting my needs. Young guys just want to fuck and it's like they pick me only because I just happen to be available to satisfy their needs. Older guys can be just as horny, especially the married ones with bitchy wives, yet they somehow manage to control it better. THIS guy was more like an eighteen year-old than someone twice that age so it made me wonder what his story was.

My thoughts about his background were interrupted when his hand reached down under my skirt and I felt his fingers caressing my bare pussy. He grinned like a kid opening his birthday presents when he realized I wasn't wearing any panties.

"My, aren't we the naughty little girl," he said with a hint of a smirk.

"Who's the naughty one? I'm not the one with my hand under a girl's skirt," I teased him back.

He laughed at my retort and started to work his fingers between my pussy lips. It wasn't difficult as I was already pretty wet after watching the initiation ceremony.

"Hmmmmmm, I take it you were getting turned on watching their little show?" he asked playfully.

"Judging from that bulge in your pants, I don't think I was the only one!" I replied and then suddenly I gasped as he shoved his finger deep inside of me. "Now THAT feels good!"

"I bet you're quite the tease with the boys," he said as he began to stroke his finger in and out of me like a small cock.

I moaned softly as he took his wet finger and pulled it out of me to play with my clit, running small circles around it and pressing lightly on it, almost just teasing it with his soft touch. Then he pulled his hand away from me and unzipped his jeans. He pulled his pants and underwear down and took them off along with his shoes and socks leaving him wearing just a light blue striped dress shirt on. The shirt tails were long enough to cover his crotch and he pulled them aside to reveal his hard dick. It was about average in my opinion, nothing to write home about but adequate to get the job done just fine. What was best was that he was nice and hard. He didn't have the kind of dick that pointed upward when it was erect but rather stuck out parallel to the floor from his crotch.

"OK, time for you to quit teasing and suck my cock," he said in a matter-of-fact tone, like he was just announcing dinner time or something.

What could I say? The whole reason I was there in the first place was to do just that - suck cock and get fucked. He knew it as well as I did so could I really blame him for just assuming he could demand it and I would comply? In a way it was sort of refreshing not to have to play the little games you go through on a first date and get right down to what you both know you want. Usually I have to be the aggressor as most guys are too shy on the first date to go for it. My philosophy is why waste a perfectly good night out just to set the stage for the next time?

I stood up and quickly stripped off my clothes, laying them on the back of the couch in hopes they wouldn't be disturbed. Standing there naked in front of him, he spread his knees apart and I knelt down between them, placing my hands on each knee to steady myself.

Once on the floor I reached out and took his cock in my hand. It felt warm and smooth to the touch, really no different than most any other. Every cock LOOKS a little different but in the end, they all are similar in terms of taste and feel. Some guys have distinctive shapes , especially when they're hard, and a few are identifiable by their odor but I think that has more to do with their selection of bath products than anything else.

Before I went any further I took a quick look around. Beth was nowhere to be seen, most likely off having fun of her own. One couple was at the other side of the room sitting together on an overstuffed arm chair making out like two teenagers in the back seat of his parent's car. Remarkably, they were still dressed and seemed to be happy just groping each other for now.

At first it might seem like one for the shrinks but if you think about it, it makes perfect sense. If they HAD been teenagers and having sex is taboo and hidden, he would have been trying to strip her down poke her as fast as possible whereas in a situation like this, where anything was allowed and neither party was about to say "no", it was more controlled and enjoyable for everyone. I've always contended that if sex was treated more openly and in a mature manner that many of the "problems" with sex offenders and teen pregnancies would disappear at the same time.

Other than them, the room was empty except for a single girl who had made herself comfortable on the love seat across from us. She hadn't moved from there since the party started except to strip off her clothes and now she was leaned back against the side with her feet up on the cushions, playing gently with herself as she watched us and the other couple. I hadn't seen her at the previous party, or at least I didn't remember her, but she didn't have to be "initiated" so she must have been here before.

I wondered if she was just a "lurker:, watching others while not actually participating, or what. Perhaps "peeping tom" would be a better description except she made no effort to disguise her interest in us. It wasn't like I minded her watching; if anything I was curious what her plans were and if maybe she would join in later after getting herself off. Technically you were supposed to actively participate but I suppose exceptions were made, especially for hot looking girls.

My attention returned to the thick cock I was holding in my hand, my fingers wrapped around it gripping it tightly but not hard enough to hurt him. He was watching my every move and clearly growing impatient with me.

"Well, you gonna blow me or what?" he asked with a bit of frustration mixed in his tone.

No sense in answering that directly when I could just let my mouth show him so I lowered my head to his crotch and slowly, deliberately, took him inch by inch into my mouth. He wasn't all that long and so I was able to relatively easily take all him in until my lips met the base of his cock and my nose was pressed into his hairy groin.

"Hot damn, now THAT'S what I'm talking about!" he gasped as I twisted my head around his dick, letting my tongue work around the base of his cock as I did.

Just as slowly as I had descended on him, I raised my head back up again until his dick slipped from my lips and stood erect, quivering and shining with my spit.

"Want more?" I teased him.

"Don't stop now dammit!" he said, sounding as exasperated as I felt naughty to tease him in this way.

It made me feel good to have a guy begging for more of my mouth, wanting nothing more at that moment than to feel my lips and tongue caressing his dick, driving sensation through him that left him needing more and more. I must have sucked on him a good ten minutes or more and I was actually a bit impressed by his control. Most guys would have cum in the first five minutes and it was a rarity for anyone to last more than ten, at last the first time. It made me start to wonder if he had masturbated or fucked someone before the party. All in all, it was probably for the best as somehow I had a suspicion he was probably only good for one big load before having to rest and recover. It was just a feeling I had, no hard evidence but I was usually correct in my assessments when it came to the staying power of a man.

Well, if he was only going to be a one-shot wonder then I'd better plans for where the event would occur so I got up off of my knees and placed on leg up on the couch beside him, leaving myself standing on the other. The result was he was positioned under me like a missile ready for takeoff except in this case the target was just inches above it - my pussy.

I was wet enough by now that I wasn't worried about taking him in. Reaching between my legs, I held the tip of his cock with my fingertips and guided it to where my pussy was impatiently waiting for him. Feeling his cock head pressing against me, I dropped down at him just as his dick moved into position.

My pussy tried valiantly to resist him, which always seemed to be a bit counterintuitive to me. All I wanted at this moment was to feel his dick inside of me yet the same pussy that craved it always seemed to want to play hard-to- get. In a way I was proud of my pussy for being so tight, despite the number of guys who had violated it, but yet at the same time it didn't have to be TOO tight! In this case with my full weight on him my pussy was clearly overmatched and relented quickly, allowing his head to penetrate and disappear inside of me.

"Damn your cunt's tight!" he hissed at me, groaning as his cock recovered from the strain of pressing itself into me, "How does a fucking slut like you still have such a tight cunt?"

Once his head was in me the rest of his cock slid in easily after it so I waited to answer until my ass was planted on his lap and his cock was now completely absorbed within me.

"Do you know what's going to happen if you keep calling me a 'fucking slut' and my pussy a 'cunt'?" I asked him, acting as if I was irritated. He just looked me in the eyes and grinned, not fooled a bit by my supposed protest.

"Oh? And just what would that be, little miss princess?" he teased me back.

I couldn't keep a straight face at that point so I broke out laughing and slapped him playfully.

"Well, I guess I'll just have to fuck you like one then," I answered, giving him my naughtiest expression.

We fucked like that for a while and then eventually he moved me into a doggy position with my feet on the floor, bending over on the chair, and then again I rode him except this time with both feet on the floor, facing away from him.

It was interesting at that point as I could see the others in the room. The one couple had finally gotten past third base and a were fucking like I knew they eventually would. Nothing wild or actually even very interesting there, just typical missionary style on the floor. Our lone "lurker" was still watching, playing with her pussy almost absentmindedly. From what I could tell, she hadn't gotten herself off, at least not yet, as seemed content just to watch me and the other guy fuck. No sign of any interest in her part in joining in either. Oh well, her loss.

In the meantime my guy, who was making a remarkable display of stamina that extended WAY beyond the average, finally reached the point where he was ready to cum. With both hands, he pushed my ass upward and off his dick so violently it almost sent me sprawling forward.

"Get on your knees - hurry!" he gasped, stroking his cock quickly.

Based on the urgency in his voice, there wasn't any time to argue, so I complied with his demands and kneeled down in front of him. Personally, I'd hoped he would cum in my pussy but better to get it in my mouth than none at all, which is what would have happened if I'd led a protest. In addition, I prefer to be the one getting him with my mouth or hand and not just sit back on my knees and watch him stroke himself until he cums. Apparently this guy had been watching too many porn movies and now he wanted to act out his masturbation fantasies with me as he pushed my hand away from his dick and proceeded to finish himself off while I watch.

"Open your mouth," he said urgently, "Stick out your tongue."

It was like a scene right out of one of my dad's stupid porn movies but what could I do? I watched him take another stroke and then his hips thrust forward and I saw the first ribbon of cum stream from the end of his cock. Do I even need to say that it missed my mouth by a mile? Only six inches away and my mouth spread wide open, how can you miss? It hit me in the forehead instead, and left a track down over the brow of my nose, just missing my eye and onto my cheek.

The next shot was just as much off the mark but this time hit the side of my face and then moved to my chin and a little to my neck and chest. With the two biggest blasts out of the way, he held hid cock so the head was resting on my outstretched tongue and fired away his next couple of shots, forcing it back along my tongue until it dripped down into my throat and forming a pool on my tongue. I had to quickly swallow a little or else I would've gagged, giving him an excuse to let the rest of it loose on my cheek and chin.

"Oh yeah," was all he could say, wheezing and gasping for air.

I grabbed his cock from him and used it like a squeegee to scrape whatever cum I could from my face into my mouth. Then I spit his cum back out so it draped over his cock like creamy sauce on a hotdog. Leaning forward, I took him back in my mouth and used my lips to pull it all back into my mouth again before sucking on just the head like a popsicle.

"Damn, that feels fuckin' incredible," he groaned, his sensitive cock twitching as I sucked on it.

I didn't actually have much in my mouth, just my lips doing the work, which allowed me to swallow the cum remaining in my mouth. I let him loose and looked up, opening my mouth wide to show him I had swallowed it, like a child proving to her mommy that she had taken her medicine.

With that, I just winked at him and turned to walk away. The girl that had been watching was getting herself off now, she must have been waiting for him to cum on me before she did. It wasn't like I had never seen a girl masturbating herself to an orgasm before so I left the room to find the bathroom so I could clean myself off.

I'd been told earlier that the bathroom was at the end of the hall so I went to the closed door and knocked, expecting it to be occupied – for one reason or and letting him satisfy his lust with me. If I am being honest with myself though, I have to admit feeling a hunger for him that is more than just daughterly love, especially if I'm horny

Girls, however, are an entirely different story. You need to keep in mind that my first experience with a woman was a little different than for most girls, to say the least. The first girl to lick my pussy, and vice versa, was my mom with her sister being the second not long afterwards. I don't know of anyone else (at least, anyone I believe) who can say that their first lesbian experience was with their mom and aunt!

For the next two years they were the only women I was with in sexual terms. In high school, I was at a lot of parties and sleepovers where we played around, sometime with a little Truth or Dare to spice things up. It wasn't like we were serious about it and other than a few innocent kisses and mutual masturbation experiences, it was strictly boys for me outside of my family.

I wasn't until I went to college and met my freshman dorm roomie Brenda that I did anything that could be called a deliberate sexual act with another girl. At least, that's the way I explain it to most people to avoid the inevitable issues that would arise should I admit who was really my first girl. In any case, Brenda WAS the first girl I was with that was under thirty!

As a rule, my female sexual experiences have always been more emotionally fulfilling, much more tender and loving, than those with the guys. My mom has never been into anything wild or fast with me, preferring instead to simply caress and love me as an intimate lover would. My aunt was much the same way. Even Brenda was usually more into cuddling than anything else; although there were a few times that got out of hand, such as when we were both would be in a more horny mood and shared my double dildo (a high school graduation gift from my dad).

I was daydreaming about all this as I watched a young couple fucking on the floor smack in the middle of the living room. At the time I was sitting on the couch, still naked, and was just lightly touching myself as I watched intently. I couldn't help but jump a little when an unseen hand started running its fingers through my hair. When I turned around my eyes focused on a guy standing behind the couch, reaching down to my head.

I was a bit surprised to see that he was black, not extremely dark but definitely African-American. Until now, I'd never been with a black guy before, at least not sexually. It's not that I have any racial issues or had avoided it; but more because the opportunity had never presented itself. Although the couch hid him from the waist down, from what I could see my guess was that he was nude, or at least not wearing much of anything.

It was an enjoyable sensation as I LOVE my hair being played with – almost more than anything else even during foreplay. My only wish is that guys could understand that they can make me horny as hell and willing to do about anything if they would just take some time to simply play with my hair. God, there have been times I have cum just from that alone! It certainly didn't hurt that I was also watching a hot couple fucking on the floor in front of me at the same time!

He slowly worked his hands over my face and neck, then gently working his way down until he was toying with my bare breasts where my nipples were still rock hard. Then I heard him whispering in my ear, "So... do you like watching him screw her?"

Playing along, I let out a soft moan and replied, "Mmmmmmm, they are really a hot couple don't you think? God, just look at how he moves his hard cock around inside of her – I just love it when a man does me like that!"

"Well, if you like it so much, why don't you lay down next to her and let me do the same to you."

One thing people can say about me, I usually don't need to be asked twice to have sex! With a parting glance at my potential partner, I got down on the floor and laid next to her, so close I could feel her warm soft body against mine. As her man pumped himself in and out of her, I could feel her moving along side of me, rubbing up against me. My guy walked slowly around from the back of the couch and stood over me. His dark cock was hanging down and at the moment was the most tempting thing I could possibly imagine.

Having never sucked a black dick before, I must admit I'm guilty of the stereotypical concepts of the supposed size and thickness of a black dick. It seemed every black guy in any of the porn movies my dad watched was always a foot long! Then again, most of the white guys were too but it seemed the blacks were especially long. This guy's was still relatively flaccid, his dick hanging down loosely from one of the thickest nest of pubic hair I had ever seen on a guy. Other than the skin pigment, it was just a cock to be honest. Same head, same balls, same shaft as any other cock I had ever been acquainted with. Still, there was something about sucking a black cock for the first time that made me tingle with anticipation.

After looking down at me for a few seconds, he knelt next to my head and let his dick just dangle right next to my mouth, offering it to me without actually giving it to me. Not one to ever turn the offer of a dick to be sucked, I dutifully turned my head and started to lick the head lightly with my tongue. Encouraged by my response, he moved up closer until I was able to take him further in my mouth. Mmmmmmm, my first black cock! In a way I was almost disappointed; after all the buildup and anticipation it felt and tasted like any other cock - warm and good. Not that it was a BAD thing - oh no, not at all!

As I mentioned, his black pubic hair was not even trimmed and was thick and curly, more like a brush for my dog than one of mine. As I started sucking him he leaned forward to allow more and more of him into my mouth until finally I had him all, my face buried in that wonderful bush of curly black pubic hair. At first it was relatively easy to take him all in as he was pretty soft and short. It didn't take long before I could feel him stiffening as I worked on him.

Feeling a guy's dick hardening in my mouth is one of my favorite parts of any blowjob. I LOVE knowing that it is me that is causing it to do that, that it is me that was making him so horny that his dick extends like a male animal on heat. As I sucked him he had one hand playing with one of my boobs while at the same time the other was fondling the ass of the girl next to me, feeling it bounce with each pump of his cock in her. She was very small compared to me, and I'm not that big, so her tight little ass could be held in his hand like a sexy melon.

We went on this way for a while as he did most of the work. My head was resting back on the floor while he raised and lowered his cock in and out of my mouth. Finally pulled himself out for the last time, his hand stroking himself to keep him hard.

"Ok girl, time to put this bad boy to good use now that you've gotten him ready."

I looked up at him licking my lips. All I had to do was lay there and I was sure he would have taken matters into his own hand, so what was the point in saying anything further? Well, that just seemed too impersonal, even for this type of party, so I looked up at him with a nasty grin on my face and what I hoped was a sexy look.

"Oh yeah, I want you to fuck me. Fuck me with that nice big black cock of yours."

OK, so it wasn't an original line but at least I'd contributed something to the situation. After all, what guy doesn't like to hear a girl ask him to fuck her? Well, none that I've ever experienced!

He moved around until he was between my spread legs. His hands each grabbed one of my ankles and raised my legs up until my feet were resting on his shoulders while he moved in closer to my ass. Finally I felt the touch of his cock as it moved closer to my pussy, and I was surprised when he didn't just ram it in me the way most guys would have until the same circumstances. By the time your average horny guy got the point where his erect cock was poised outside my wet pussy, it usually wasn't long before I was being fucked!

Rather than immediately trying to screw me, instead the guy rubbed himself up and down and all over my wet pussy and hard clit. He stroked himself back and forth except that instead of fucking me, he just rubbed himself on the outside of my pussy and played with me. Another time and place, this act of chivalry may have been cute and even a bit arousing, but not today. Nope, today I wanted to be fucked, without all the foreplay and crap that usually preceded it!

Finally, my patience reached its limit and so I reached down and grabbed it, directing it to my waiting pussy hole. Now if THAT didn't tell him what my expectations were, then he was a lost cause! Thankfully, that wasn't the case and once I had him lined up he pressed forward firmly until his cock head disappeared inside of me. I looked down my stomach and watched as his dark cock disappeared into my comparatively pale pussy in inch by inch until finally all I could see was a thick bush of black pubic hair covering my crotch.

I could feel his coarse hair tickling me slightly as at the same time there was this wonderful sensation inside of me as his cock filled my pussy. Once buried inside of me, he lifted my legs even higher which brought my ass up off the floor. This allowed him to press up even tighter against my ass, driving himself even deep into me until he ran out of cock and thus was a far inside of me as he physically could be.

Do I really have to say that I love being fucked? God, it felt incredible as my pussy swelled up as if it was trying to grab him and prevent him from escaping. I don't think there will ever come a day I don't just love the feel of a dick inside of me.

After just holding himself still in me for a bit, he slowly pulled out of me until just the very tip of his cock head was still between my pussy lips, just enough to be legally fucking me. Then with a sudden lunge, he rammed himself forcibly back into me and then just as quickly withdrew again. He repeated this several times, banging himself fully in and out of until he eventually he stopped with himself back deep in me again. OMG, did this feel incredible or what?! There are times I think seriously that I could be fucked all day and not ever get tired of it.

"Leave it in me," I whispered in a hoarse voice as I played furiously with my clit, "Don't move... I'm going to cum!"

Indeed I was. Despite his best efforts, it was impossible for him to stay completely still in me as his cock would twitch and pulse inside of me. Even the slightest movement was about to set me off as I felt the fire beginning to rage between my legs, spreading throughout my entire body like an oil spill on a lake that had been set ablaze.

"Oh God... I'm cumming!" I cried out, the loudest I'd said anything so far.

In the background I could vaguely hear some whistles and comments but I was soon too consumed by my orgasm to hear anything, or care if I did. There is no greater feeling in the world than to experience an orgasm. Even the least intense orgasm beats whatever comes in second and when you get one as intense as the one I could tell was rising in me, there WAS no second place.

My hips convulsed as I thrust my pussy up tight to him but he had me pinned down such that I could hardly move. Despite my early orders, he couldn't hold still in me anymore and started to pump himself in and out of me like a relentless oil well drilling for oil deep inside of me. Talk about being "drilled"!!!

Now that I was cumming, his fucking of me just added to the intensity of the storm that was raging within me. How long this went on for, I have no idea. Time stands still at moments like this, it is like I am in another world, another dimension. My eyes were clamped tightly shut and even if I had opened them I was sure I wouldn't see anything. I couldn't hear anything other than my own moans and cries as the rest of the world ceased to exist and all I could think about, all I cared about, all I wanted was the cock inside of me to cum and take me even a notch higher than where I was.

"FUCK ME!" I cried out as I humped myself under him the best I could, "FUCK ME HARDER!"

He was pounding me now, literally driving me across the carpet with each thrust of his hips that served to drive him deeper into me, impossible as it may have seemed. Each time his groin slammed against my crotch, I let out a loud gasp as the air was driven from me.

Then it happened, the only thing that could have stimulated me even more than I was. A hot flash erupted inside of me and I felt him hold himself tightly against me as his first load of cum shot out of his cock to be released deep inside of me.

My orgasm, which was just starting to wane, suddenly shot off the charts as one after another, he unloaded his balls into me. For a brief moment, much as it later embarrassed me to recall, I felt like some southern wench in a romance novel being fucked by the big black slave stud, cumming hard as the forbidden seed was exploding from his lustful cock deep inside my virgin womb.

For a moment I thought I might pass out and indeed, maybe I did for a short period as it seemed like suddenly I was back in the world and he was holding himself above me, panting from the exhaustion of fucking me like I hadn't been fucked before.

He was still in me and I could feel him pulsing hard in me, his heartbeat strong and fast. Now and then he would suddenly thrust himself into me, like a fish in its final throes before conceding defeat. I couldn't speak or even make a sound at this point as my sense were still in overload from the tremendous orgasm that he had unleashed in me.

Just then the guy next to me pulled out of the girl. With effort I turned my head to watch as he stripped off his condom (thank god my guy didn't wear one!) with one pull and then a stream of cum came squirting from his cock. Damn could he shoot his cum! He left a trail that led from her pussy all the way to her forehead. A bit of it even fell on her open mouth which she quickly slurped up and swallowed. Somehow I found the strength to reach over and run my finger over some of it, then putting my finger in my mouth to taste him. Mmmmmmm, an excellent vintage!

Apparently, my guy was just as interested in her as I was - and even more as it turned out. He pulled out of me and joined the guy next to us, putting his cock into the little girl's mouth to let her suck off the remains of his cum and my pussy juices. She eagerly sucked his now softening cock, cleaning it off skillfully. Looking over at me, she smiled as best she could with his black dick in her mouth and I wondered what she thought about the taste of my pussy on his dick.

I was not to find out as it turned out. The three of them got up and left the room, leaving me in the middle of the living room with a warm pussy full of cum. Without me being fucked the interest in me seemed to fade and people drifted off so I finally got up and went over to the table with the drinks and popped open a can of Diet Pepsi. I was holding the can and thinking about what had happened when I felt something warm and smooth pressing against my ass. Under the circumstance, it was safe to assume that I was feeling someone's cock up against my butt! Intrigued, I started to turn around but he grabbed me by head and kept me facing forward.

"Don't look back... I'm want to fuck you just the way you are now."

Well, THAT was certainly the most original one-liner ever for someone to start out with me! I started to say something but he cut me off rudely.

"Not a word, hear me? Not a single word until I'm done with you. Now bend over and spreads your legs apart."

For a moment I wondered just what I was getting into. I mean I'd already been fucked by a couple of guys who I didn't even know their names but at least I knew what they looked like! This, however, was carrying "fucked by a stranger" fantasy to the extreme. Oh well, I quickly decided that this was what I had come here for - to do things I would never have done otherwise and probably never will again.

Leaning forward, I put the can down on the table and held myself up with both hands on the table. As he had directed me, I spread my legs apart and I felt his hand groping between my legs. It was like being on a crowded dance floor where someone was trying to cop a feel, except in this case he apparently had plans to do a lot more than just grab a cheap feel!

"Damn girl, you're still soaking wet. You know, I was watching you getting fucked by that guy in the living room and you looked so incredibly hot I knew I just had to have you tonight.

He squeeze my ass a little harder and moved in closer where he whispered in my ear saying, "Oh yeah... I'm gonna fuck you like a little whore - no foreplay or sweet talk, just my hard dick in your wet cunt."

Startled, I forgot his warning for a second and started to say something but again he cut me off. "Now, now... like I said, you're my little whore so just bend over and take it. No talking and don't you DARE look back at me."

My eyes were fixed on the table top in front of me as I felt him spreading me apart with one hand as he guided his hard cock into me with the other. As he'd noted, I was still sopping wet and swollen which shouldn't have been a surprise considering not more than a few minutes before I was fucked for the second time since arriving. He easily slid all of the way into me and then immediately started humping me, letting his lower stomach and crotch slap against my ass as he rammed himself deeply into me. A few times he pushed so hard I almost lost my balance but I held onto the table top for support.

"God your pussy is incredible... how does it stay so tight? That's it whore, bounce that tight little ass back against me while I fuck you."

I almost said something but fortunately, I think, he wasn't finished and so he cut me off before I could utter a sound.

"I knew from the moment I saw you walk in with that slutty friend of yours that you love being fucked," he said with a hint of laughter on his voice, as if he thought he was being so clever in analyzing me. "Yeah... you looked like the kind of bitch that just wants her pussy fucked and doesn't care how or who so long as she gets a hard cock in her."

Normally I might have protested such remarks; calling me a whore didn't normally put guys at the top of my winners list. In this case though, I had to admit that I was exactly what he was accusing me of being, nothing more than a horny slut who wanted a hard dick and wasn't very particular how she got it.

Despite the sideshow of his non-stop yakking, he WAS doing a pretty good job of screwing me. Although on the one hand I wanted to reach around and punch him in the mouth, on the other hand my pussy was feeling pretty damn good with him in it. It made me feel a bit naughty, almost dirty, because it meant he was so right about me. All I wanted at this moment was to be fucked and I didn't give a damn who he was or how he did it so long as he filled my cunt with his dick. Well, don't forget he has to cum in me as well!

I heard a grunt behind me and then he said, "Ok slut, here it is, I'm ready to cum... Hey, don't move... just hold still while I cum on your ass."

For a second I felt a surge of disappointment. Cum on my ASS? God, all this just so he could make a mess on my butt? It wasn't like I had any say in the matter as I felt him pull out of me, leaving my pussy with the sudden sensation of emptiness. Damn, why couldn't he have cum in me?

My thoughts were interrupted by the warm feeling of cum as he sprayed himself all over me. I must have been his first for the night as from the feel of things, he was depositing quite a lot of cum as I could feel it starting to run down my butt. It didn't take long for him to finish himself off and then I felt him rub it all over my ass with his cock, spreading it over my buttocks and even over my asshole.

Any hope of seeing him faded with his next demand.

"I don't know about you but I certainly enjoyed that!" he gloated, "OK, now don't you dare turn around until you count to fifteen - got it?."

With that he left and I dutifully counted and when I reached fifteen I turned around, half expecting him to be there still. Wishful thinking on my part. Instead, all I saw were a number of people standing behind me, all of whom who had evidently been watching the scene play out. There was no sign that any of them were the guy that fucked me and nobody seemed inclined to give me any information that would identify him.

Smiling at them as best I could under the circumstances, I grabbed some napkins from the center of the table and used them to wipe the cum off my ass as best as I could. God, I would be needing a shower badly tonight when I got home!

So far I'd been fucked by three guys and frankly, I was feeling a bit tired; wonderful and tingly inside but tired just the same. The party was going full swing and I could see several groups going at it. Honestly, I'd had enough for one night so I found my clothes and got dressed. When I looked back one more time before I left, I saw the black guy who had fucked me was now laying on the dining room floor with a girl riding his cock, bouncing on it like a cowgirl in a country bar riding the mechanical bull. Still a bit curious, I looked around one last time, still wondering who had fucked me that last time but never got even a clue from anyone. Oh well, that was ok as it lent an air of mystery to my night's adventures.

Fortunately, and rather surprisingly, Beth was also ready to leave so she drove me home. Turned out she had spent the night with several girls and other than a dildo, didn't even get fucked the entire evening. I just shrugged it off thinking what was the point ion spending the night doing something you can do at home when there was enough cock to choose from? Oh well, to each her own I guess.

5. Back Home Again

Beth kissed me on the cheek and we said our goodbyes as she dropped me off at the curb in front of my house. When I went in who did I find but my dear ol' dad waiting for me in the kitchen, just as he had promised he would. I guess I should have never doubted him. He flashed a warm smile when he saw me walk through the door.

"Well Kelly, how was your party tonight? So tell me, how many lucky guys got to fuck you?"

"It was fun dad. You know, they're talking about holding the next one at someone who has a swimming pool next time."

My dad got up and walked over to me where he held me. I loved feeling his body up against mine, his strong arms holding me and protecting me. As he hugged me a feeling of fatherly love and comfort filled me and it was then I realized how empty the entire experience had been. Sure, the party had been exciting but face it, the sex was just sex and about as devoid of emotion as it could be.

Memories of the last guy came into my head and I realized I could've just as easily been a latex doll for all he cared about me. In a way, I felt like I did not long after masturbating. There was a sense of sexual relief and a momentary rush of pleasure but it was followed by a sense of emptiness, one that was never quite filled unless I was sharing myself with someone I wanted to give myself to. Tears of happiness came to my eyes as I hugged my dad as tight as I could, longing for him and needing him more right then than I could remember in a long time.

"Oh daddy, what I really want is you," I sobbed, overcome with the pent up emotions that were suddenly being released. "You're always there for me, always ready to satisfy me. After tonight I appreciate more than ever how you want me but still respect me as a woman and your daughter."

I looked up at him and our eyes met although mine must have been red from my sudden and unexpected outburst. God I loved him so much right then. There wasn't anything I wouldn't do for this man, nothing I would refuse him. If anything I wanted him to be demanding just so I could submit to him prove to him that there was nothing he could want of me that he couldn't have.

"Please take me daddy, I need you to love me," I begged him.

Yes, after a night of wanton lust and pure sex I needed to be loved. I needed someone to make me feel special, someone to want me for ME, not just my body. I wanted to give myself over to him, to let him take total control of me and do with me whatever he wished. I don't mean anything at all like the guy who fucked me from behind did, where he did it purely for his own satisfaction. The way my father treated me when I released myself and made myself totally vulnerable to him told me more about his love and respect for me than any words could ever do.

My dad stroked his fingers through my hair and reached down to kiss me. As soon as our kips met it intensified into a passionate and lingering kiss. Finally our lips parted and he looked at me with an expression only a daughter can see in her father's face.

"Don't worry baby," he whispered gently to me, "Daddy will take care of you. Let me show you how much I love you."
